3 For the day is near, even the [a]day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon [c]Ē'gўpt, and great pain shall be in Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ą, when the slain shall fall in Ē'gўpt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ą, and Lĭb'ў-ą, and Lўd'ĭ-ą, and all the mingled people, and Chŭb, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Ē'gўpt shall fall: and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Sў-ē'ne shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Ē'gўpt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anş afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Ē'gўpt: for, lo, it cometh.

(7) Immediate judgment by Babylon

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also make the multitude of Ē'gўpt to cease by the hand of Nĕb-u-chad-rĕz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Ē'gўpt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Nŏph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Ē'gўpt: and I will put a fear in the land of Ē'gўpt.

14 And I will make Păth'ros desolate, and will set fire in Zŏ'an, and will execute judgments in Nō.

15 And I will pour my fury upon Sĭn, the strength of Ē'gўpt; and I will cut off the multitude of Nō.

16 And I will set fire in Ē'gўpt: Sĭn shall have great pain, and Nō shall be rent asunder, and Nŏph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Ā'ven and of Pi-bē'seth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tē-hăph'ne-hēş also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Ē'gўpt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgments in Ē'gўpt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

(8) God against Egypt in her war with Babylon

20 ¶ [e]And it came to pass in the [b]eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Phā'raōh king of Ē'gўpt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Phā'raōh king of Ē'gўpt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Ē-gўp'tiąns among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Phā'raōh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and the arms of Phā'raōh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Băb'ў-lon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Ē'gўpt.

26 And I will scatter the Ē-gўp'tiąns among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

(9) Prophecy against Pharaoh: A Question - likeness

[e]AND it came to pass in the [b]eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Phā'raōh king of Ē'gўpt, and to his multitude; [f]Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

B Assyrian exaltation

3 ¶ Behold, [f]the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an was a cedar in Lĕb'a-non with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

a 51st prophecy in Ezek. (30:20-26, fulfilled). Next, 31:18

6 predictions-fulfilled:

1 I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword (20:21)
2 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them among the countries (30:23)
3 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put a sword in his hand (30:24-25)
4 I will break Pharaoh's arm (30:24)
5 He will groan with the groanings of a deadly wounded man
6 They will know that I am Jehovah when I have done this (30:25-26)

b The 11th year of the captivity, about 3 months before the destruction of Jerusalem (v 21; 2 Ki. 25:2-3). This was about 16 years before Nebuchadnezzar invaded Egypt (29:17)

c See note on v 18 for the prophecy of this chapter

d 11th year of the captivity, about 3 months before the fall of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar (v 1; 2 Ki. 25:2-3)

e Question 63. Next, v 18

f This chapter is a long historical record of God's dealings with the Assyrians (v 3-17), with a final prophecy revealing that Pharaoh and all his multitude would perish like the Assyrian king and his army (v 18). The Assyrian is compared to a great cedar of Lebanon, one growing taller than any other because of being planted by many waters. The waters made him great; and he became a dwelling place for fowls of the heavens and beasts of the fields. He even overshadowed great nations (v 3-6); he became greater than the cedars of the garden of God; and no tree was like him in beauty, so that all the trees of Eden envied him (v 7-9)

Mountain of God (28:16)

No angel was in any holy mountain of God when an earthly king of Tyre ruled, so the reference is to the eternal past when the cherub himself had a literal throne on earth on the holy mountain of God. Here we have an insight into the position of Lucifer before his fall, and a revelation regarding the cause of his fall (v 13-17). The term, the mountain of God occurs 7 times (v 16; Ex. 3:1; 4:27; 18:5; 24:13; 1 Ki. 19:8; Ps. 68:15). The mount of the Lord also occurs 7 times (Gen. 22:14; Num. 10:33; Ps. 24:3; Isa. 2:3; 30:29; Mic. 4:2; Zech. 8:3). All these scriptures do not refer to the same mountain in the same place, as can be seen from the various passages

Lucifer humbled (28:17)

He has already been humbled before kings, for he was cast down to the ground before all the nations over whom he ruled previous to the time of Adam (Isa. 14:12-14). He will again be brought down in the deepest humiliation before the kings of the earth whom he will lead with Antichrist, in the battle of Armageddon (Rev. 12:7-12; 16:13-16; 19:11-21; 20:1-3). Then again, at the end of the Millennium he will be brought down to hell before all kings and others who will spend eternity with him in the lake of fire (Mt. 25:41; Rev. 20:10)

Brought down like ashes (28:18)

He will be brought down like ashes to the ground. Ashes speak of the deepest humility and like them he will literally be brought down to the ground, and even down to hell where men will behold him (v 17-18). This has no reference to his body being burned to ashes at all; if he were but ashes then these men could not see him or know that it was Satan. Therefore, it is not to be taken that he has a mortal body which can be burned to ashes. The Sept. reads, like ashes. People will be astonished at him, not at his ashes (v 18-19)

a After picturing the Assyrian empire of the past as a tree more beautiful and great than any other on earth (v 3-9), God revealed the reason for its destruction (v 10-14). Because you have lifted up yourself in height, and your heart is exalted very high, I have delivered you into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen (v 10-11). Assyria, the great power of Asia for 4 centuries, was destroyed by the Babylonians and Medes before the Egyptians were defeated by Nebuchadnezzar, at the battle of Carchemish on the river Euphrates (Jer. 46:2). This reference to the defeat of the mighty Assyrian empire was a warning to Egypt that her day of defeat was also coming, when her land would be invaded and made waste (v 16)

b Here we have a picture of the result of the defeat of Assyria: the beautiful and proud cedar cut down, his branches cut off and strewn all over the mountains and valleys, the people of the earth who once trusted in him having fled from him, and only the birds and beasts remaining among the ruins (v 12-13) c The purpose of the destruction of Assyria was to warn all the other great trees not to be lifted up in pride, lest they also be destroyed (v 14)

d V 15-17 picture the mourning over the destruction of Assyria

e Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits, where there is full consciousness of the souls and spirits of men after death (v 15). It is not the grave, the place of the body. See Hell in Index

21 references to Lucifer (28:12):

1 You seal up the sum (pattern as in 43:10); that is, You are the finished pattern (v 12)
2 You are full of wisdom and perfect in beauty (v 12, 17) of God
3 You have been in Eden the garden
4 Every precious stone was your covering when you were in Eden
5 You were created (not born)
6 You are the anointed cherub (angel) that covers (protects or overshadows, v
7 I have set you so 14)
8 You were upon the holy mountain of God
9 You have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire
10 You were perfect in your ways (the laws I required you to walk in) from the day that you were created, till iniquity was found in you (v 15)
11 You have sinned by the multitude of your merchandise (traffic). I will cast you out of the mountain of God
12 I will destroy you, O covering cherub (angel), from the midst of the stones of fire
13 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty (v 17)
14 You have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness (splendor, beauty)
15 I will cast you to the ground (v 17; Lk. 10:18; Isa. 14:12-14)
16 I will lay you before kings (v 17; Mt. 25:41; Rev. 20:10)
17 You have defiled your sanctuaries by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your traffic (v 18)
18 I will bring a fire from the midst of you that will devour you (v 18; Mt. 25:41; Rev. 20:10) (v 18)
19 I will bring you down like ashes
20 All among the people that know you will be astonished (v 19)
21 You will be a terror and never be loosed anymore to be among men to exalt yourself and oppose God

It is true that a few of these statements could also refer to the earthly king of Tyre, but most of them (points 3-12, for instance), could never apply to a human being. Recognizing that the law of double reference applies to this passage, we can say that Lucifer is the only person in Scripture who could possibly fulfill all the statements here; so he must be the person referred to and fitting the supernatural elements. In view of this we can then say that we

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Ē'dĕn, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

C Assyrian humiliation - ruin

■10 ¶Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 [b]And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

■13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 [c]To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

D Mourning for the Assyrian

■15 [d]Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the [e]grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lĕb'a-non to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to [f]hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Ē'dĕn, the choice and best of Lĕb'a-non, all that drink water, shall be comforted in [g]the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down [e]into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

E Question - judgment like the Assyrian humiliation and ruin

■18 ¶[b]To [c]whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Ē'dĕn? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Ē'dĕn unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. [d]This is Phă'raōh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

834 CHAPTER 32

(10) Lamentation for Pharaoh: A Likeness to a beast

[a]AND it came to pass in the [e]twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

■2 [f]Son of man, take up a lamentation for Phă'raōh king of Ē'gўpt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as [g]whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

B The net - judgment by Babylon

■3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

■11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Bāb'ў-lon shall come upon thee.

Lucifer cast out of heaven (28:17)

He was cast from heaven back to the ground at the time of his invasion of heaven (v 17; Isa. 14:12-14; Lk. 10:18); and he will be cast down to the ground again in the middle of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 12:7-12). Then he will be put into the bottomless pit for the 1,000 years, to be loosed a short season again at the end of that time. After that he will be cast into the lake of fire to be tormented forever (Rev. 20:1-10) e Heb. sheol, the unseen world, not the grave; the place of the soul, not the body; the place of departed spirits (v 21). It is contrasted with geber in these verses, as seen in note f, below

f Heb. geber, tomb, grave, sepulchre; the place of the body never the place of the soul (v 22-26). See Hell in Index

g Hell, not the grave, is located in the nether parts of the earth. This is where all the souls of the righteous and wicked went before the resurrection of Christ. Now only the wicked souls go there, to remain until the 2nd resurrection and the great white throne judgment (31:14, 16, 18; 32:18, 24). See Hell in Index

20 sins of the wicked (Isa. 57:3):

1 They are addicted to sorcery (v 3)
2 Adultery - disregarding marriage contracts; full of licentiousness
3 Sport selves - live in mockery of God and religion (v 4)
4 Wide mouth - live in contempt of others (v 4; Ps. 22:7, 13)
5 Live in open rebellion (v 4)
6 Unfaithful and false
7 Burning lusts - inflaming selves (v 5)
8 Idolatry

15 Make covenant with idols
16 Provide places for such adulterous worship of idols
17 Make alliances with other nations who are idolaters (v 9-10)
18 Use perfumes to make themselves more agreeable with the harlots who are consecrated to serve idols by giving their own bodies to others (v 9)
19 Degrade themselves to the lowest depths of sin, even to hell 20 Live in fear, lying, and rebellion against Jehovah without serious consideration of the outcome (v 11) will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Ĕ'gўpt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 [a]I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

15 When I shall make the land of Ĕ'gўpt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Ĕ'gўpt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

(11) Lamentation for Egypt:
A Egypt to descend into hell

17 ¶ [b]It came to pass also [c]in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Ĕ'gўpt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 [d]Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of [e]hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

B Assyrians are in hell

22 Ăs'shur is there and all her company: his [f]graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

C Elamites are in hell

24 There is Ĕ'lăm and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into [g]the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror [h]in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the [i]pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused [c]in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that [e]go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

D Meshech and Tubal are in hell

26 There is Mĕ'shech, Tŭ'bal, and all her multitude: [c]her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

E Edomites are in hell

29 There is Ē'dom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

F Zidonians are in hell

30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zĭ-dō'nĭ-ans, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

G Pharaoh and Egypt shall also go to hell with the rest

31 Phā'raōh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Phā'raōh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Phā'raōh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 33 835

VIII Sermons - prophecies of the restoration (33:1-37:28). 1 Sermon on the watchman (33:1-20). (1) The watchman chosen (3:17)

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [d]speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for [e]their watchman:

8 things offered by Jehovah (Isa. 55:1):

1 Waters (v 1):
(1) Of salvation (12:3)
(2) Of everlasting life (Jn. 4:14; Rev. 7:16; 21:6; 22:1; Jer. 2:13; 17:13)
(3) Purification by the Word (Eph. 5:26)
(4) Of satisfaction (32:2; 44:3)
(5) Of growth, fruitfulness, and success (Ps. 1:3; Jer. 17:5-8)
(6) peace (Ps. 23:2)
(7) Of spiritual power (Jer. 7:37-39)
2 Wine (v 1). Figurative of the blood of Jesus Christ by which we have forgiveness of sins (Mt. 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 10:16-21; 11:25-27)
3 Milk (v 10). Figurative of the simplicity of truth (1 Cor. 3:2; Heb. 5:12-13; 1 Pet. 2:2)
4 Bread (v 2):
(1) Of life (Jn. 6:35-58)
(2) Of sincerity and truth (1 Cor. 5:8)
(3) Of healing (Mt. 15:26)
(4) Of the broken body of Christ by which we receive healing (Mt. 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 10:16-21; 11:25-29; 1 Pet. 2:24 with Isa. 53:4-5)
5 Things that satisfy (v 2):
(1) With the fatness of God's house (Ps. 36:8)
(2) Drinking of the river of God's pleasure (Ps. 36:8)
(3) God's supply (Ps. 37:19)
(4) God's goodness (Ps. 65:4; Jer. 31:14)
(5) Good things (Ps. 103:5)
(6) Long life (Ps. 91:16)
(7) Bread (Ps. 132:15)
(8) Being in His likeness (Ps. 17:15)
6 Good things (v 2):
(1) Shall not want any good thing (Ps. 34:9-10)
(2) No good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly (Ps. 84:11)
(3) Satisfies your mouth with good things (Ps. 103:5)
(4) Good things to them that ask Him (Mt. 7:7-11)
(5) Good things to come (Heb. 9:11)
(6) Shadow of good things to come (Heb. 10:1)
7 Fatness (v 2):
(1) Your dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth (Gen. 27:39)
(2) Your table shall be full of fatness (Job 36:16)
(3) Satisfied with the fatness of Your house (Ps. 36:8)
(4) Your paths drop fatness (Ps. 65:11)
(5) Your soul delight itself in fatness (Isa. 65:2)
(6) Partake of the root and fatness of olive tree (Rom. 11:17)
8 Spiritual life (v 3):
(1) Shew me paths of life (Ps. 16:11)
(2) With You is the fountain of life (Ps. 36:9)
(3) With long life will I satisfy him (Ps. 91:16)
(4) Redeems your life from destruction (Ps. 103:4)
(5) Life for evermore (Ps. 133:3)
(6) They shall be life to your soul (Pr. 3:1-23; 4:20-27)

The waters, wine, milk, bread, and other benefits here must be understood as pertaining to spiritual things instead of natural and material, for they are the only things that can be bought without money. Furthermore, the invitation is from Jehovah who is not in the business of selling material things; but He does have the blessings pictured figuratively by these terms. The cry of verse 1 is a common one in the East where water, wine, and milk are sold a The second time Ezekiel was made a watchman to the house of Israel, or the captive Jews in Babylon (v 7; 3:17). His responsibility (to God and wicked men) corresponded with the duty of a watchman in any city (v 3-6 with 7-9)

b Questions 66-67. Next, v 25 c This expression is the same in message as the N.T. statements that God is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9) and, Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth (1 Tim. 2:4) d What a rebuke to those who think that a man once born-again will be saved regardless of what he does (see note k, 3:20). It is plainly written here that The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. There can be no misunderstanding of such a simple statement. It is clear that a righteous man cannot continue to be righteous when he sins; and his past experience in God, in grace, the new birth, and obedience cannot and will not save his soul if or when he sins (v 12). The fact is emphasized by being stated another way- neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. Again, the truth is declared that if a righteous man trusts in his righteousness to save him, should he go back into sin, the fact is that all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he committed, he shall die for it (v 13). Still again, in v 18 it is stated that When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby. Thus 4 times here God plainly says that a backslider will not continue to be saved when he goes back into sin again, all statements being uttered by Him to the prophet in answer to the question: If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? (v 10)

14fold answer to this question:

1 God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked- either a wicked man who has not repented or one who has repented, lived for Him for a time and then gone back into sin (v 11-19)

2 The wicked must turn from his wickedness to live (v 11)

3 The wicked man is invited and commanded to turn from his wickedness or he will die in his sins and be lost

4 The righteousness of the righteous shall not even deliver such a man if he returns to sin (v 12)

5 In the day that a righteous man goes back into sin he will incur the penalty of the broken law, and be separated from God as all other sinners are (v 12-13)

6 Past righteousness will not save a righteous man when he transgresses and becomes a sinner again (v 12-19)

7 The wickedness of the wicked will not damn his soul if and when he repents and turns from his wickedness to serve God and live in righteousness (v 13-19)

8 God is no respecter of persons. He will not save the wicked until he repents and turns from sin to live right; and He will not continue to save the righteous man if he turns from his righteousness and lives in sin (v 12-19)

9 All the righteousness of the righteous will not be remembered to cause God to excuse him in the day that he sins; for his iniquity that he commits he will die (v 13)

10 When God says to the righteous that he will surely live if he continues in righteousness or die if he goes back into sin, that is what is meant

11 When God says to the wicked that he will die, and he turns from his sins to do that which is lawful and right, then he will live and that is what is meant (v 14-15)

12 All the sins of the wicked will not be remembered and mentioned to him to damn his soul when he turns from them to do that which is lawful and right; he will surely live (v 16)

13 When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits sin, he will even die thereby (v 18)

14 When the wicked turns from his wickedness to do that which is lawful and right, he will live thereby (v 19) people;

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

▸6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

(3) Ezekiel God's watchman

7 ¶ So thou, O son of man, [a]I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Is'ra-el; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

(4) His responsibility

▸8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

▸9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

(5) Application to Israel

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Is'ra-el; Thus ye speak, saying, [b]If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, [c]I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Is'ra-el?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, [d]The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. ◂

▸13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

▸15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

▸16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

(6) The way of the Lord

17 ¶ Yet the children of thy people say, [e]The way of the Lord is [f]not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

▸18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

▸19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

▸20 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Is'ra-el, [c]I will judge you every one after his ways.

2 Capture of Jerusalem (2 Ki. 25)

■21 And it came to pass in [g]the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Je-ru-sa-lem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the [h]hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had [i]opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

3 Prophecy to the remnant:

(1) Their six sins

23 [j]Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Is'ra-el speak, saying, A'bra-ham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

●25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [k]Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: [l]and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

(2) Their sixfold judgment

●27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Is'ra-el shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because a See note b, 18:25

b What could be unequal about God being just to both the wicked and the righteous? About the wicked being permitted to live the day he turns from sin to serve God, and the righteous man dying spiritually if he turns from God to serve sin again? If the wicked man is not forced to live and die in sin, it is a matter of choice; and, if the righteous is not forced to remain righteous, it is a matter of choice. God has made a way whereby both the wicked and the righteous can be saved, neither being compelled to sin and be lost. Both can be saved if they wish to be, or lost if they choose to be c One thing is certain, God is the judge of all and will mete out true justice to every man according to his works and ways. No man can escape His judgment-saint or sinner; and we can be assured that the judgment of God will be right. It will be according to the true nature and disposition of every man as he has chosen to walk in the light as he has received it from God's own revelation. See God and Judgment in Index
d This was about 18 months after the destruction of Jerusalem (v 21; 2 Ki. 25: 2-3)
e This expression is found 7 times and means that the prophet received strength and power from God (1:3; 3:14, 22; 8:1; 33:22; 37:1; 40:1)
f Evidently the prophet had been dumb, speaking only when God opened his mouth to make predictions, as he was instructed in 3:26-27; 24:27 (v 22)

i Question 68-69. Next, 34:2

Death will continue through the Millennium (Isa. 65:20):

Death will continue through the 1,000-year reign of Christ on earth, but only for those who commit death-penalty sins-acts for which they will be executed. If a man sins thus at any age-100, 500, or 1,000-he will be executed, for the law will go forth from Zion and the Word of the Lord from Jerusalem in those days (2:2-4; 11:3-5; Mic. 4). The resurrected saints of all ages or periods who have been made immortal and come back to earth with Christ at His 2nd advent (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:14) will be kings and priests and the judges to execute judgment and justice throughout the earth. There will be no favoritism shown because of family, church, political, or financial connections; the guilty will be executed according to the law; and perfect righteousness and justice will be meted out to all alike (Ps. 149: 6-9; 1 Cor. 6:2; Rev. 5:10; 20:4-6). The last enemy to be destroyed will be death (1 Cor. 15:24-28). All sinners in heart will rebel with Satan at the end of the 1,000 years and be destroyed by fire coming from God out of heaven (Rev. 20:7-10). The saints-those who are in the camp of the saints and in the beloved city, earthly Jerusalem, will continue living in the new earth, and will multiply and replenish the earth as God originally intended when Adam was created (Mt. 25:46; Rev. 21:3-6, 24-27; 22:2-5). 4 Ezekiel made sport of by backslidden Judah

30 ¶ Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are [e]talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

836 CHAPTER 34

5 Prophecy against the pastors (Jer. 23; Ezek. 13 and 22). (1) Their sixteen sins

*AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ■

●2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Is'ra-el, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Is'ra-el [e]that do feed themselves! [f]should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The [g]diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

(2) Their sixfold judgment

*■7 ¶[h]Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; ●

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely [i]because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

●9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

*10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am [c]against the shepherds; and I will [b]require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the [c]shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

(3) Twentyfold restoration of the flock

*11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, [d]will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them [c]to their own land, and feed them upon [j]the mountains of Is'ra-el by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Is'ra-el shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Is'ra-el.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 I will seek that [g]which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy [k]the fat and the strong; I will [l]feed them with judgment.

(4) False pastors separated from the flock

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats.

18 [l]Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

■20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will [k]I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

(5) Twentyfold restoration:

a When God is against any one person or group He has a just cause, and it is always the same sin. Though sin may vary in kind it does not vary in essence. Many centuries had come and gone by this time, and God had longed to favor the people many times with His richest blessings; but they would not permit Him to do so. They sinned and rebelled until He had to destroy them, as seen in 2 Ki. 17 and 25

e Their own land is the country promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and this is to be theirs forever f The mountains of Israel is an expression peculiar to Ezekiel, being used 17 times in his book (6:2-3; 19:9; 33:28; 34:13-14; 35:12; 36:1, 4, 8; 37:22; 38:8; 39:2, 4, 17). It is found only once elsewhere in Scripture (Josh. 11:21). Cp. the mountains of Judah (Josh. 11:21; 2 Chr. 27:4) and the mountains of Samaria (Jer. 31:5)

1 Woe to them (v 2)
2 I am against them (v 10)
3 I will require My flock of them
4 Their dominion will be taken away
5 They will not feed themselves again
6 I will deliver My flock from them
7 I will destroy them (v 16)
8 I will feed them with judgment with them (34:25)

25 I will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land
26 My flock will dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods
27 I will make them and the places round about My hill a blessing (34:26)
28 I will cause the shower to come down in his season
29 There will be showers of blessing
30 The tree of the field will yield her fruit (34:27)
31 The earth will yield her increase 32 My flock will be safe in the land
33 They will know that I am Jehovah, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that oppressed them
34 They will be a prey to the heathen no more (34:28)
35 The beast of the field will devour them no more; they will dwell safely
36 None will make them afraid
37 I will raise up a plant of renown for them (34:29)
38 They will be consumed with hunger in the land no more 39 They will never bear the shame of the heathen anymore
40 They will know that I, the Lord their God, am with them (34:30)
41 They will know that the house of Israel are My people

l 6 reasons for judgment upon shepherds:
1 The 14 sins of note e, above
2 Because My flock became a prey (v
3 Because My flock became meat for the beasts of the field
4 Because there was no (good) shepherd
5 Because the shepherds (false ones) did not seek out the flock
6 Because the shepherds fed themselves, and not the flock

a David will be the chief under-shepherd of Israel - all Israel, the whole 13 tribes, under the Messiah (v 23-24; 37:24-25; Hos. 3:5; Amos 9:11). Christ will be the Chief Shepherd (Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 2:25; 5:4). The 12 apostles will reign over one tribe each under David and the Messiah (Mt. 19:28; Lk. 22:30)

b We are to take this literally and not as a symbolic name of Christ, for we do not have the slightest proof that this David refers to Him (v 23-24)

c The Messiah will make the covenant of peace with Israel when He comes at His 2nd advent (v 25; 16:60-62; 20:37; 34:25; 37:26; Isa. 42:6; 49:8; 55:3; 57:8; 59:21; 61:8; Jer. 31:31; Heb. 10:16)

d This is expressive of perfect safety and peace. No more wild animals to attack and no enemies to cause fear (v 25)

e The mount of the house of the God of Jacob in Jerusalem, from which blessings will flow to the whole earth during the eternal reign of the Messiah (v 26-28; Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4; Zech. 14:15-21)

f The whole earth will be fertile; and it will produce abundantly in its seasons as God originally intended when He created it. The desert will even blossom as a rose, waters will spring forth in the wilderness, and there will be showers of blessing for all men (v 26-27; Isa. 35:1-2, 6-7; 65:20-25; Joel 2)

g This refers to the Branch of the Lord, which Isaiah (Isa. 4:2; 11:9), Jeremiah (Jer. 23:4; 33:15), and Zechariah (Zech. 3:8; 6:12) all said would come (v 29)

h No more famine will ever be in the land, for all will be obedient to God eternally (v 29; Jer. 31:34)

1 I am against you, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out My hand against you (35:3)
2 I will make you desolate
3 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate (35:4)
4 You will know that I am Jehovah
5 As I live, I will prepare you unto blood (35:6)
6 Blood will pursue you
7 Thus I will make Mt. Seir most desolate (35:7)
8 I will cut off from it all that go and come 9 I will fill his mountains, hills, valleys, and rivers with the slain (35:8)
10 As I live, I will even do according to your anger, and your envy against Israel (35:11)
11 I will make Myself known among them, when I have judged you
12 You will know that I am Jehovah
13 You will know that I have heard all your blasphemies against Israel (35:12)
14 When the whole earth rejoices I will make you desolate (35:14)
15 As you rejoiced at the desolation of Israel, so will I do to you (35:15) 16 Mt. Seir and all Idumea will know that I am Jehovah

2 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will make you perpetual desolations (36:9)
2 Your cities will not return

j Mt. Seir is Edom (v 3, Cp. 25:12-14)

k 10 reasons for judgment on Edom:
1 Because of perpetual hatred of Israel
2 Shedding blood of Israel in the time of her defeat (v 5)
3 Loved to see the blood of Israel shed (v 6)
4 Because you have coveted the land of both kingdoms of Israel (v 10; 36:2, 5)
5 Anger, envy, and hatred of Israel (v 11)
6 Blasphemies against Israel (v 12)
7 Boasting against God (v 13)
8 Rejoicing at the fall of Israel (v 15; 36:2, 5)
9 Helping to make Israel desolate (36:3)
10 Mocking Israel (36:3-4, 6)

Davidic kingdom set up (Isa. 9:6, refs.)

23 And I will set up[a] one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, [b]even my servant Dā'vid; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.
24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant Dā'vid a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.
25 And I will make with them a [c]covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and [d]sleep in the woods.
26 And I will make them and the places round about [e]my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be [f]showers of blessing.
27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.
28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.
29 And I will raise up for them a [g]plant of renown, and they shall be [h]no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.
30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Iṣ'ra-el, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.
31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

6 Prophecy against Edom (Jer. 49:7). (1) Her fivefold judgment

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ■
●2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Sē'ir, and prophesy against it,
●3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [i]O mount Sē'ir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.
4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

(2) Cause of judgment

5 [j]Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Iṣ'ra-el by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

(3) Her tenfold judgment (Cp. Isa. 1:28, refs.)

●6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: [a]sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.
7 Thus will I make mount Sē'ir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.
8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers shall they fall that are slain with the sword.
9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

(4) Cause of judgment

★10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and [b]these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there:

(5) Her fivefold judgment

■11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.
12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast [c]spoken against the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.
13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.
14 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.
15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Iṣ'ra-el, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Sē'ir, and all I-dụ-mē'á, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 Prophecy to the mountains of Israel: (1) Taunt of the enemy

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, and say, [d]Ye mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, hear the word of the LORD: ●■
2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [e]Because the enemy hath said against you, [f]Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:
●3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of [g]talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 They will soon be coming back to their land
5 I am with you, and I will turn unto you (36:9)
6 You will be tilled and sown
7 I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel (the entire 13 tribes), even all of it (36:10)
8 The cities will be inhabited
9 The wastes will be built
10 I will multiply upon you man and beast (36:11)
11 They will increase and bring forth fruit
12 I will settle you after your estates old 13 I will do better unto you than at your beginnings
14 You will know that I am Jehovah
15 I will cause men to walk upon you, even My people Israel (36:12)
16 They will possess you
17 You will be their inheritance
18 You will no more bereave them of men
19 You will devour men no more (36:14)
20 You will bereave nations no more 21 I will never cause men to hear in you the shame of the heathen (36:15)
22 You will never again hear the reproach of the people
23 You will never cause your nations to fall again

God's choice of Jerusalem (36:34)

For centuries, even to this day, men have wondered what God saw in Jerusalem and the promised land which caused Him to choose this above all other places for His eternal capital on earth. The land has been desolate for many years in fulfillment of prophecy and it is but now beginning to be restored in a measure to its original fertility and blessing. It should not be forgotten that the land was once a place flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands; but God said He would make it totally desolate if Israel transgressed His commandments and rebelled against Him; thus, when they persisted in disobedience He destroyed the nation and scattered the people among all others on the earth (6:14; 15:8; 19:7; 25:3; 33:28-29; 34:3-15; 36:1-36; Ex. 23:29; Lev. 26:22-43; 2 Chr. 36:21; Isa. 1:7; 6:11; Jer. 4:7, 27; 6:8; 7:34; 9:11; 10:22; 22:11; 18:16; 19:8; 25:38; 26:9; 32:43; 33:10-12; Mic. 6:13; 7:13; Zech. 7:14). The land will again blossom as a rose and waters will spring forth in the desert (v 35-36; Isa. 35)

2 The heathen will know that I am Jehovah when I do this
3 I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land (36:24)
4 Then I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you will be clean (36:25)
5 I will cleanse you from your filthiness and from your idols
6 A new heart also I will give you
7 A new spirit will I put within you
8 I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh (36:26) 27) 9 I will put My Spirit within you (36:
10 I will cause you to walk in My statutes and keep My judgments, and do them
11 You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers (36:28)
12 You will be My people
13 I will be your God
14 I will also save you from all your uncleanness (36:29)
15 I will increase your wheat
16 I will never send another famine upon you (36:30)
17 I will multiply the fruit of the tree
18 I will increase the fruit of the field
19 You will never again be reproached
20 Then you will remember your ways, and your goings that were bad (36:31)
21 You will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your sins
22 In the day that I have cleansed you from all you iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in your cities, and waste places that you have built up (36:34)
23 The desolate land will be tilled
24 Those who pass by will say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden, and the desolate and ruined cities are become fenced and inhabited (36:34-35)
25 Then the heathen left round about you will know that I am Jehovah, and that I have built again the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate (36:36)
26 I, the Lord, have spoken and I will do it 27 I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them (36:37)
28 I will increase them with men like a flock

h Not only will Israel be saved from all sin, but her land will be saved from all the curse (v 29-30)

i Then-when Israel and her land are fully redeemed from all the curse, they will remember their own sins and evil doings, and loathe themselves for their own abominations (v 31-32)

Iṣ'ra-el, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD[a]to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all I-dụ-mē'a, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Iṣ'ra-el, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have [b]lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, [c]they shall bear their shame.

8 [d] But ye, O mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Iṣ'ra-el; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Iṣ'ra-el, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Iṣ'ra-el; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

(3) Taunt of the enemy

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

(4) God's answer: fivefold restoration of the land

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

8 Prophecy to Israel: (1) Her past sins and judgments

16 [f]Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
17 Son of man, when the house of Iṣ'ra-el dwelt in their own land, [e]they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.
18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:
19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.
20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.
21 [g] But [h]I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Iṣ'ra-el had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

(2) Fourfold re-gathering (Isa. 11:11, refs.)

22 Therefore say unto the house of Iṣ'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Iṣ'ra-el, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.
23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when [i]I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.
24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and [d]gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

(3) Fourteenfold conversion

25 [j][e]Then will I [k]sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.
26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.
28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

(4) Sixfold restoration of the land of Israel

29 [l]I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.
30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

(5) Remorse of Israel

31 [f]Then shall ye remember a In v 17-21 we have the cause of God in scattering Israel among the heathen, and a preview of their lives while among them. In a technical sense this section is prophecy, the purpose of the message being to show latter-day dealings with Israel; but the events are recorded as having already been fulfilled. They will have taken place by the time of the fulfillment of v 22-38, but in Ezekiel's day they were only partially fulfilled, for the rest of Israel was yet to be scattered among the nations

b This is a peculiar expression, indicating that God was zealous to protect His holy name from being profaned by Israel among the heathen (v 21). Cp. with the idea of God working to clear His name from being polluted among pagans (v 20; 20:9, 14, 22). The thought here seems to be that Israel caused the name of Jehovah to be blasphemed and dishonored among the nations where they were scattered. The pagans would say with scorn, These are the people of Jehovah. They saw the miserable state of Israel and concluded that Jehovah was no more than a national god, powerless to protect his subjects. God then predicted that He would not deliver Israel for their own sake, but for His holy name's sake, which they had profaned among the nations (v 22); that He would sanctify His name among the heathen; and that they would then know that He was Jehovah and more than an idol god (v 23). Sanctifying His name is the opposite of profaning it as in v 20-22

c 2 things sanctified (v 23):
1 I will sanctify My great name
2 I will be sanctified in you God's name and His person were to be sanctified, though neither was involved with any sin. For a study of the meaning of sanctification see this word in the Index

d God has said repeatedly that He will gather all Israel, not only Judah, but all the tribes from among the nations and bring them back to their own land to live forever under the Messiah (v 24). See p. 444

e Then-at the final regathering of all Israel from among the nations, God will fully redeem them and make them His eternal people (v 25-30)

f 13fold conversion of Israel:
1 I (Jehovah) will sprinkle clean water upon you (v 25)
2 You will be clean ness
3 I will cleanse you from your filthi-
4 I will cleanse you from your idols
5 I will give you a new heart (v 26)
6 I will put a new spirit within you
7 I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh
8 I will give you an heart of flesh
9 I will put My Spirit (the Holy Spirit) within you (v 27) statutes 10 I will cause you to walk in My 11 You will keep My judgments and do them
12 You will be My people (v 28)
13 I will be your God

a Again God emphasized the fact that such corrupt, stiffnecked people as Israel were not saved for any worthiness of their own, but rather for His sake, that He might complete His program of man's restoration from the curse in order that things might continue eternally as before the fall (v 32)

b Another assurance of the full conversion of Israel and restoration of the land of promise from the curse, as stated in v 29-30

c See God's choice of Jerusalem, p. 839

d Israel will yet pray for full restoration before God brings it to pass. The great tribulation of the future will bring them to full repentance and dependence upon God (v 37; Isa. 64; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Mt. 23:37-39; Rom. 11:25-29)

e All nations will be required to go to Jerusalem to worship in the days of the Messiah (v 38; Isa. 2:1-4; Zech. 14:16-21); and this will continue in the new earth (Isa. 66:22-24)

8 Prophesy to the wind, thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain that they may live (37:9)
9 I will open your graves (37:12)
10 I will cause you to come out of your graves 11 I will bring you into the land of Israel
12 You will know that I am Jehovah, when I have opened your graves, and brought you out of them (37:13)
13 I will put My Spirit in you (37:14)
14 I will place you in your own land: then you will know that I, Jehovah have spoken it, and performed it

k Question 73. Next, v 18

l Israel is here symbolized under the figure of a valley of dry bones being brought back to life in the bodies of a great army of men. It pictures scattered Israel being brought back from the nations and living again as a nation themselves, in their own land, as explained in v 11-28

m Note the order of making a body here:
1 The bones or frame (v 5-6)
2 The sinews
3 The flesh upon the bones and sinews
4 The skin or outer covering of flesh
5 The breath of life
This may give us the secret of how God made man originally, as in Gen. 2:7

21 I will make a covenant of peace with them (37:26)
22 It will be an everlasting covenant
23 I will place them, multiply them, and set My sanctuary in the midst of them forever
24 My tabernacle also will be with them (37:27)
25 The heathen will know that I, the Lord do sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary will be in the midst of them forever (37:28)

k The symbolism here is that of taking two sticks, writing on them the names of the two divisions of the kingdom of Israel, and joining them together in his hand as one stick (v 16-18). The application or truth symbolized is that both divisions of the kingdom will become one nation again upon the mountains of Israel as before the division in the days of Rehoboam and Jeroboam (1 Ki. 12). They will be one nation forever under the Messiah (v 19-28)

l Note that both Judah and Ephraim, or both divisions of Israel were called Israel, and that their companions were Israelites. The two divisions were called Judah and Ephraim (v 16)

m Question 74. Next, 38:13

your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 [a]Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Iṣ'ra-el.

(6) Sixfold restoration of the land of Israel

■33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [b]In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay [c]desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Ē'dĕn; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

(7) Increase of Israel

■37 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [d]I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Iṣ'ra-el, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm [e]in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 37 839

9 The valley of dry bones:
(1) The vision

[f]THE [g]hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out [h]in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the [i]valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them [j]round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

(2) The question: answer

■3 And he said unto me, Son of man, [k]can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

(3) Command: eightfold prophecy

■4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O [l]ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 [m]And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

(4) Obedience: sixfold result

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

(5) Command: fourfold prophecy

■9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

(6) Obedience: fourfold result

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

(7) Signification: whole house of Israel to be re-gathered (Isa. 11:11, refs.)

■11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Iṣ'ra-el: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

●12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O [n]my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your [o]graves, and bring you into the land of Iṣ'ra-el.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in [p]your own land: [q]then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

10 Sign: (1) Two sticks made one

■15 ¶ [r]The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

●16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee [s]one stick, and write upon it, For Jū'dah, and for the children of [t]Iṣ'ra-el his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Jō'seph, the stick of Ē'phrā-im, and for all the house of Iṣ'ra-el his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, [u]Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

(2) Signification: A Twenty-fourfold restoration of Israel, Judah under Messiah and David (Isa. 9:6, refs.)

a These slain-suggesting violent deaths of people who had once lived. Now they were being made to live again. Of course, the whole picture is symbolic of the nations of Israel who, once alive and in the grace and favor of God, had become dead because of sin, and now were being brought back into proper relationship with God, to live again (v 11-14)

b Then-when the vision was completed, the interpretation was given so that there would be no misunderstanding of the true meaning c The vision concerns Israel, not dead churches or Gentiles, as often taught. These bones are the whole house of Israel, not dried up churches (v 11)

d 3 things Israel said:
1 Our bones are dried
2 Our hope is lost
3 We are cut off

e The whole house of Israel, not a part of it; hence, there will be no division of the kingdom when this is fulfilled (v 11)

f The whole house of Israel are My people, and I will open their graves and cause them to come out of them, and I will bring them into the land of Israel again (v 12). See p. 444

g The nations where the Jews are scattered are the symbolic graves of Israel (v 12-14). It is from these that all the tribes of Jacob will be gathered. At that time God will save them and put the Holy Spirit in them, and they will live in His presence eternally (v 14)

h Your own land-the promised land of Palestine (v 14). See p. 367

i Then-when all this is fulfilled you (all Israel) will know that I, the Lord have spoken it, and performed it (v 14). All this remains to be completely fulfilled. Of course it is now beginning to be fulfilled and a sufficent number of Jews have already gone back to their land to make a nation; they have had a nation since 1948 A. D. The prophecy will continue in fulfillment until the whole house of Israel is gathered back at the 2nd advent of Christ to the earth. It is said that about 10, 000 Jews or Israelites a month are returning to their own land. Israel is becoming a greater nation every year, but the complete fulfillment of these predictions will not be until the Millennium. The predictions of 34:11-31; 36:1-38; 37:1-28 and many other chapters remain to be fulfilled in the future

j 63rd prophecy in Ezek. (37:15-28, unfulfilled). Next, 38:1

25 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the land of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them on stick, and they will be one in My hand (37:19)
2 I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they are gone, and I will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land (37:21)
3 I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel (37:22)
4 One king will be king to them all 5 They will be two nations no more
6 They will not be divided into two kingdoms at all
7 They will not defile themselves anymore with their idols (37:23)
8 They will not defile themselves with their detestable things
9 They will not sin anymore
10 I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces where they have sinned
11 I will cleanse them
12 They will be My people (37:23, 27)
13 I will be their God
14 David My servant will be king over them (37:24-25; 34:23-24; Jer. 30:9; Hos. 3:5)
15 They will have one shepherd
16 They will walk in My judgments
17 They will observe My statutes, and do them
18 They will dwell in the land that I have given Jacob My servant, wherein their fathers have dwelled (37:25)
19 They, their children, and their children's children will dwell there forever
20 My servant David will be their prince forever

a For list of these predictions see note j, v 15

b These words from Behold to the end of this verse were chosen to be put on the Zionist medal commemorating the National Federation in 1896 A.D.- a land-mark in the history of the Jewish nation

c All the tribes of Israel will become one nation again, and not be two nations anymore. This means that all the Jews of the world, all from the tribes of Israel everywhere will be gathered back to their own land to live forever under their Messiah (v 22-28). The Anglo-Saxons were Gentiles, descendants of Japheth, and they will continue to live in England, America, and other Gentile lands-separate from the Jews

d This again states plainly that all the tribes of Israel will live eternally upon the mountains of Israel-in their own land, Palestine. This is clearly emphasized in v 25-in the land that I have given unto Jacob My servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt e The one king predicted here will be David, who will be over all the tribes of Israel in their national restoration under the Messiah. This is clear from v 24-25; 34:23-24; Jer. 30:9; Hos. 3:5. Christ will be King of kings and Lord of lords over David and all other earthly kings in eternity, and even over all the resurrected kings and priests (Rev. 19:16)

f This truth is expressed in this chapter two times (v 23, 27)

g This statement, even they and their children and their children's children is another way of stating eternal generations of eternal people on earth (v 25. Cp. Isa. 59:21). See Generations in Index

h This will be done by Christ at His 2nd advent (v 26; 16:60-62; 20:37; 34:25; Isa. 42:6; 49:8; 55:3; 57:8; 59:21; 61:8; Jer. 31:31-33; Heb. 10:16)

i There are several everlasting covenants in Scripture. See Covenants in Index

j This refers to the millennial and eternal temple, which is described in detail in 40:5-47:12, and which is stated to be the eternal capital building of the Messiah in 43:7. It will be built by Christ at His 2nd advent (Zech. 6:12-13)

k This is different from the temple, and refers to the canopy over all dwellings in the Millennium when the light of the sun will be increased 7fold and the light of the moon will be as the present light of the sun (note j, Isa. 4:5). It no doubt also refers to the eternal city of God in the new earth, the New Jerusalem, the capital city of God, when He personally will move with the city from the planet heaven to the earth after the Millennium, to dwell among men eternally (Rev. 21:3-5)

l Israel will then be set apart for holy uses and will be considered sanctified under the Messiah as He reigns over them and uses them as His missionaries to evangelize the world (v 28; Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 52:7; 66:19-21; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21)

m 64th prophecy in Ezek. (38:1-39:29, unfulfilled). Next, 40:5. See p. 854

n See Gog, p. 855

o Magog, Mechech, and Tubal were sons of Japheth from whom came the Scythians, Russians, Muscovites, Tibareni, Cappadocians, and other people who predominate in modern northern Europe and Asia. See Sons of Japheth, p. 40. The Sept. adds Rosh to this list, which is followed by Young, Rotherham, Moffatt and some others who claim that Russia is referred to thus. Be that as it may, even if Russia is mentioned in particular along with these other people who will be under Gog, it does not prove that Russia will be the predominating power in the last days, that Antichrist or Gog will come from Russia, or that Russia will fulfil the many prophecies of the last days, as some teach. All it could prove is that Russia is merely one of many nations which will be conquered by Gog and be under him at the battle of Armageddon. Dan. 11:44 plainly predicts the defeat of Russia and other northern and eastern nations outside the Roman Empire, and it can be only then that Russia will have a part under the Antichrist to fulfil Ezek. 38-39

■19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [a]Behold, I will take the stick of Jō'seph, which is in the hand of Ē'phrā-im, and the tribes of Iṣ'ra-el his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Jū'dah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ¶ And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

¶21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [b]Behold, I will take the children of Iṣ'ra-el from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And I will make them [c]one nation in the land [d]upon the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el; and [e]one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so [f]shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And Dā'vid my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jā'cob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, [g]even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant Dā'vid shall be their prince for ever.

B New Covenant made: tenfold promise (Isa. 59:20, refs.)

26 Moreover [h]I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be [i]an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will [j]set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 [k]My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do [l]sanctify Iṣ'ra-el, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

CHAPTER 38 840

IX Prophecy against Gentile powers at Armageddon (38:1-39:29). 1 Gog to be repulsed

[m]AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

●2 [n]Son of man, set thy face against [o]Gōg, the land [p]of Mā'gōg, the chief prince of Mē'shech and Tū'bal, and prophesy against him,

●3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gōg, the [q]chief prince of Mē'shech and Tū'bal:

4 And [r]I will [s]turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all [t]thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a [u]great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Pēr'ṣiȧ, Ē-thī-ō'pī-ȧ, and Lĭb'ý-ȧ with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gō'mēr, and all his bands; the house of Tō-gär'mah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

●7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

2 Gog to invade restored Palestine in the last days

8 ¶ [v]After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

3 Gog's purpose (Rev. 17:14; 19:19)

■10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an [w]evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

●13 [x]Shē'bȧ, and Dē'dan, and the merchants of Tär'shish, with all the [y]young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, [z]Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

4 God's purpose in the invasion

14 ¶ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gōg, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Iṣ'ra-el dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the [a]north parts, thou, and [b]many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a 2 modern fallacies about Russia, p. 855

c This very first statement of God dealing with Gog proves that when these chapters (38-39) are fulfilled he will be turned back from taking Jerusalem and be destroyed. In this first invasion of Palestine some 3 1/2 years before this he will take the whole city of Jerusalem and make it his capital city and the temple his capital building, placing the abomination of desolation in the temple to remain for about 3 1/2 years (Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2). At the second and last invasion of Palestine, after he has conquered Russia and her allies in the north and east of his 10 kingdoms, he will surround Jerusalem to take it again but will not succeed; he will be turned back (v 4), being able to take only half of the city before Christ suddenly comes with the armies of heaven to stop him from taking the rest of it (Zech. 14:1-15; Rev. 19:11-21)

d Here the army of Gog or Antichrist is predicted as consisting of a great company of horses and horsemen with all sorts of weapons and armour (v 4). Ancient weapons are mentioned as they were the only kind known and understood at that time. It is to be expected that the future Antichrist will equip his men with all kinds of modern weapons-all sorts as stated here

e 16 statements-Gog's army:
1 Rosh (Septuagint in v 2; 39:1) 40)
2 Meshech (see Sons of Japheth, p. 3 Tubal (see Sons of Japheth, p. 40)
4 Persia (v 5; 27:10; 2 Chr. 36:20-23; Ezra 1:1-8; Esther 1:3, 14, 18; 10:2; Dan. 11:43)
5 Ethiopia (v 5; 29:10; 30:4-5)
6 Libya (v 5; 30:5; Dan. 11:43)
7 Gomer (see Sons of Japheth, p. 40)
8 Togarmah (see Sons of Japheth, p. 40)
9 Many people (v 6, 9)
10 10 kingdoms of the Revised Roman Empire (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17)
11 Many countries (Dan. 11:41)
12 Countries east and north of the 10 kingdoms (Dan. 11:44)
13 All the heathen... Multitudes, multitudes (Joel 3:11-14)
14 All nations (Zech. 14:1-5)
15 The kings of the earth and their armies (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:19-21)
16 The whole world (Rev. 16:13-16)

f Pointing to a future time when Israel will have been partially gathered, but not fully restored. It is called the latter years here and the latter days when the gathered Jews will dwell safely (v 8, 16)

g The evil thought of Gog will be that of going up against the Jews who dwell safely and are at rest in their own land, to take a spoil (v 11-13)

h Sheba, Dedan, and Tarshish were all traders among the nations on land and sea. Here they merely anticipated and expressed the true motive of Gog to fall upon Israel, and that is all that is meant by the verse. Nothing is said here to give us the idea of two sets of nations opposing each other-one helping Israel and the other invading her, as taught by some (v 13). Such questions could be asked by anyone, without even partaking in the war referred to i The young lions referred to were the rulers of these trading nations (v 13)

j Questions 75-78. Next, v 17

k Gog or Antichrist will come from Syria, and by this time will have conquered the countries at the north and east of this 10-kingdom empire, and will lead them all against Israel at Armageddon (v 14-15; Dan. 11:44; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:19)

l By the time this is fulfilled Antichrist will have become ruler of one of the 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire; will have conquered 3 others of the 10 kingdoms (Dan. 7:8-9, 21-25); will have got control of the other 6 of the 10 kingdoms without war (Rev. 17:9-17); will have conquered Russia and the countries north and east of the 10 kingdoms (Dan. 11:44); and will have gathered many other nations through the ministry of the 3 unclean spirits of Rev. 16:13-16. All these nations will make the many people be under him at the Battle of Armageddon when Christ comes (v 15; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21)

b Question 79. Next, 47:6
c At the same time, when Gog comes into the land of Israel at the battle of Armageddon, after he has already conquered the countries of the north and east of his 10 kingdoms which are inside the old Roman Empire territory, and not in some previous war in Palestine (v 18). This is the only time that God will supernaturally destroy the armies of Gog and the many nations with him. This fact is confirmed by the phrase in that day, in v 19 dont d 20fold destruction of Gog at Armaged-
1 My fury will come up in My face (v 18)
2 In that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel (v 19)
3 The fish of the sea will shake at My presence (v 20)
4 The fowls of the heaven will shake at My presence
5 The beasts of the field will also shake at My presence
6 And so will all creeping things upon the earth
7 Men upon earth will shake at My presence like all other creatures
8 The mountains will be thrown down
9 The steep places will fall
10 Every wall will fall to the ground
11 I will call for a sword against him throughout all My mountains (v 21)
12 Every man's sword will be against his brother (v 21; Zech. 14:12-13)
13 I will plead against him with pestilence (v 22)
14 I will plead against him with blood
15 I will rain upon him...
16 Upon his bands...
17 Upon the many people with him, an overflowing rain...
18 And great hailstones (cp. Josh. 10:11)...
19 And fire...
20 And brimstone
All this goes far to prove that these two chapters (38-39) refer to Armageddon, not to some battle between Russia and the Jews before the 2nd advent of Christ. Such means of destruction as an overflowing rain, blood, fire, brimstone hailstones, etc. will be used at Armageddon only, as proved here (v 18-22) and in 39:2-7, 17-20; Isa. 63:1-8; Joel 2-3; Zech. 14:1-15; Mt. 24:27-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Jude 14-15; Rev. 16:17-21; 10:11-21. These statements are not figurative, but literal and can only be understood this way
e By the supernatural destruction of Gog and his mighty armies at Armageddon God will be glorified (v 23) f 3 results at Armageddon (v 23):
1 God will be magnified (glorified)
2 God will be sanctified (set apart)
3 God will be made known in the eyes of many nations as Jehovah g Here again, sanctify means solely to set apart, not to cleanse from sin (v 23)
h When Gog comes into Palestine this time he will be turned back and completely destroyed. The result will not be thus when he invades Palestine 3 1/2 years earlier (in the middle of Daniel's 70th week) to take over Jerusalem and the Jewish temple as his capital (Dan. 9:27; Mt. 24:51; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2; 13:1-18). God will permit him to drive the Jews out of Palestine and occupy their country for about 3 1/2 years in the last part of the 7-year tribulation period. Then, during this time He will raise up new enemies in the north and east of Gog's 10 kingdoms to keep him occupied in war so that he cannot concentrate on the total destruction of Israel. At the end of these 3 1/2 years, after conquering these enemies, he will lead the nations against Israel and Jerusalem to do what he intended at the beginning; but before he can take all of Jerusalem he will be defeated by the 2nd coming of Christ (Zech. 14:1-15; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21). This is the time he is to be turned back from his purpose and his armies are to be destroyed-all but a sixth part (v 2) i A sixth part of men under Antichrist being spared would mean about 166,667 escaping destruction and 833,333 being destroyed out of every million. We have no way of telling how many millions of men will be in the vast armies of the nations, but there will be many to fulfil 38:22; Rev. 14:20 a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Iṣ'ra-el, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in[a]the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gŏg, before their eyes.

5 Fulfillment of many prophecies (Isa. 10:20-27; 11:4; 14:4-27; 34:1-17; 63:1-6; Jer. 30:1-11; Joel 3; Mic. 5:3-15)

■17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [b]Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Iṣ'ra-el, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

6 Twenty-twofold destruction of Gog at Armageddon (39:17-21; Zech. 14; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 19)

18 And it shall come to pass [c]at the same time when Gŏg shall come against the land of Iṣ'ra-el, saith the Lord GOD, that[d]my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Iṣ'ra-el;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 [e]Thus [f]will I magnify myself, and [g]sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 39 841

THEREFORE, thou son of man, prophesy against Gŏg, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gŏg, the chief prince of Mē'shech and Tu'bal:

2 And [h]I will turn thee back, and leave but the[i]sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up [j]from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt [k]fall upon the mountains of Iṣ'ra-el, thou, and all thy [a]bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto [b]the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall [c]upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I will send a fire [d]on Mā'gŏg, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So [e]will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Iṣ'ra-el; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Iṣ'ra-el.

7 Spoil: seven years' fuel

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is[f]the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And [g]they that dwell in the cities of Iṣ'ra-el shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

8 Seven months to bury the dead after Armageddon

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in[h]that day, that I will give unto Gŏg a place there of graves in Iṣ'ra-el, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gŏg and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of[i]Hā'mon-gŏg.

12 And seven months shall the house of Iṣ'ra-el be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hā'mon-gŏg.

16 And also the name of the city shall be[j]Hā-mō'nah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

9 Supper of the great God (Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:37; Rev. 14:14-20; 19:15-21; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 3)

■17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; [k]Speak

a See note e, 38:4
b The same prediction as in v 17-20; Mt. 24:27-28; Lk. 17:34-37; Rev. 19:17-21. The fowls and beasts of the earth will literally eat the flesh and drink the blood of the millions slain at Armageddon
c The open field refers to all the land of Palestine and surrounding countries where the hosts of the armies of all nations under Antichrist will be mobilized, but mainly to the mountains of Israel (v 17)
d It seems that Magog will be the chief hater of the Jews; it is thus singled out along with the maritime countries as the object of God's wrath. This is perhaps why both Gog, the prince, and the land of Magog are mentioned in particular in Rev. 20:7-10 in connection with the last rebellion against God on earth, which will take place 1,000 years later e 3 results of Armageddon (v 7):
1 I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel
2 I will not permit them to pollute My holy name anymore
3 The heathen will know that I am the Holy One in Israel f The day. This should be taken literally instead of being counted as a period-a number of days, for in Zech. 14:7 it is definitely stated as one day, meaning the battle of Armageddon will last only that long (v 9)
g After the one-day battle of Armageddon Israel will begin the work of burying the millions of men slain on the battlefield (v 9-16). The prediction is that no wood will be needed from the forests, to be used as fuel for 7 years, because there will be enough material collected from the battlefield to provide fires that long (v 9-10). In modern life most of those in the cities will no doubt burn the natural gas and electricity, but there will still be many others depending on wood and other materials for warmth and cooking h In that day-after Armageddon, Gog and his armies, that is, five-sixths of his armies will be buried. It will take 7 months to bury such a vast multitude of bodies and dispose of every bone in all the land (v 12-14). Before the most of them are buried men will stop their noses as they pass through the land because of being such a stench coming from the decaying bodies (v 11)
i Hamon-gog, the multitude of God (v 11, 15)
j Hamonah, to the multitude (v 15) k This is exactly the same command and concerns the same thing as in Rev. 19:17-18, 20). It refers to the calling of all the birds and beasts of the field to eat of the dead bodies of men and animals killed in the battle of Armageddon. Both passages speak of the supper, the great sacrifices, and My table that God will make upon the mountains of Israel where the birds and beasts may come to eat until they are full and drink until they are drunken. Jesus referred to this same thing when He said, "wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together" (Mt. 24:27-31), and "Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together" (Lk. 17:34-37, notes, see also notes on Mt. 24:40-42; Rev. 19:17-21). This could not possibly refer to any war before Armageddon between Russia and Israel; it refers only to the time of the battle of Armageddon when Christ comes literally to the planet earth with His angels and resurrected saints to take over the governments of this world and reign over them eternally, as described in many scriptures (Joel 2-3; Zech. 14:1-15; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21)

j Antichrist's army will come down from the north into Palestine, as the Assyrians, Babylonians, Grecians, and others did in the past. Syria is north of Palestine, and an army from Babylon would come west through that country and then south into Palestine to avoid the desert k Gog and his mighty armies will be destroyed at this time, a fact which proves the whole two chapters (38-39) refer to Armageddon and the 2nd advent of Christ unto every[a] feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Is'ra-el, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 [b]Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Ba'shan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

10 The purpose of God

21 And [c]I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Is'ra-el shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 ¶ And the heathen shall know that the house of Is'ra-el went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

11 Israel to be re-gathered and converted (Isa. 11:11, refs.)

■25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [d]Now will I bring again the captivity of Ja'cob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Is'ra-el, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 [e]After that they have borne their shame and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them [f]again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and [g]am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Is'ra-el, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 40 842

X The millennial sanctuary and oblation (40:1-48:35. Cp. Isa. 2:1, refs.). 1 Transported in vision to Palestine to see restoration

[a]IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the [b]hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 Vision of future Jerusalem

2 In the [c]visions of God brought he me into the land of Is'ra-el, and set me upon [d]a very high mountain, by which was as the [e]frame of a city on the south.

3 Vision of the man with the measuring reed 12 1/2 ft. long

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, [f]behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: [g]declare all that thou seest to the house of Is'ra-el.

4 The outer wall of the house: 12 1/2 ft. high, 12 1/2 ft. broad

■5 [h]And behold [i]a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

5 East outer gate

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every [k]little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, [l]eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the [m]posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured [n]the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and [o]the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

a This should settle the matter beyond all question as to what is referred to. Some hold the idea that Mt. 24:27-28 and Lk. 17:34-37 refer to the rapture of saints to meet Christ in the air; but this is impractical, for no amount of explaining could make the feathered fowl and beast of the field mean saints. How literally simple and clear the verses became though when we take them literally-the birds and beasts eating the dead bodies of those slain at Armageddon (v 17; Rev. 19:17)

b 8fold menu of birds and beasts:
1 Flesh of the mighty (v 18, 20)
2 Blood of the princes of the earth
3 Flesh and blood of rams
4 Of lambs
5 Of goats
6 Of bullocks
7 Of horses (v 20)
8 All men of war

c 4fold purpose of God in Armageddon:
1 I will set My glory among the heathen
2 All the heathen will see My judgment that I have executed upon them (v 21)
3 The house of Israel will know that I am Jehovah their God from that day and forward (v 22)
4 The heathen will know that the house of Israel was defeated and went into captivity for their sins, and that I dealt with them accordingly (v 23-24)

d Now (after Armageddon and at the 2nd advent of Christ) will I bring the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, that is, those of all the 13 tribes that have not yet been gathered from all nations (v 25-29; 37:1-28; Isa. 11:10-12; Mt. 24:31)

e This explains the Now of v 25. After Israel has borne her shame and her people have reaped for all their sins, when they dwell safely in their own land, when none will make them afraid, and when I have brought them again from all the people among whom they have been scattered (v 26-27), then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led away captive among the heathen, and gathered them again to their own land, leaving none of them among the heathen. Neither will I hide My face from them anymore, for I have redeemed them and poured out My Spirit upon them (v 28-29)

f The word again proves that this is the second gathering of Israel and that they were gathered once before this. The first gathering was after the Babylonian captivity; the second is now taking place and it will continue thus until all the Israelites are finally and completely gathered or regathered at the 2nd advent of Christ (v 27-29; Isa. 11:10-12, notes)

g Here again God speaks of Himself as being sanctified in Israel, meaning that He is revered by them and they have set Him apart as their only true and living God-not that He has been cleansed from sin, for He has no sin (v 27)

k There were 6 little chambers, 3 on each side of the walk from the inside of the wall to the inside gate which was also 12 1/2 ft. wide, each being a reed or 12 1/2 ft. square, with 5 cubits (10 ft. 5 in. counting a cubit as 25 in.) between the chambers (v 7-10) l 8 cubits would be 16 ft. 8 in., counting a cubit as 25 in.

m Each of the posts of the gate, on each side of the entrance through the 12 1/2 ft. wall and past the chambers on each side, from the inside of the wall to the porch of the gate measured 2 cubits-4 ft. 2 in. (v 9-10)

n The breadth of the gate entry was 10 cubits-20 ft. 10 in., counting a cubit as 25 in. (v 11)

o The length of the gate was 13 cubits-27 ft. 1 in. (v 11) a This was about 12 years before the release of Jehoiachin (v 1; Jer. 51:31)

c The visions of chs. 40-48 concerns things in the Millennium immediately following the regathering of Israel (ch. 37), and the battle of Armageddon (chs. 38-39). These millennial conditions will continue in the New Earth period and throughout all eternity

7 visions of eternal things:
1 The future and eternal capital of all the earth-Jerusalem (40:2; 48:30-35)
2 Rebuilt eternal temple (40:5-43:12):
(1) The outer and inner courts and the gates (40:5-43)
(2) The priests' rooms (40:44-46; 42:1-14)
(3) The altar court (40:47)
(4) The temple itself (40:48-41:26)
(5) The outer wall-4 sides (42:15-20)
(6) The returning glory and restored monarchy (43:1-12)
(7) The sacrificial altar (43:13-17)
(8) Ordinances of the altar-reorganized services (43:18-44:8)
(9) The restored priesthood (44:9-21)
3 The holy oblation and new division of the land (45:1-8)
4 The new civil and religious laws (45:9-46:24)
5 The millennial river (47:1-12)
6 New division of the land (47:13-48:7, 23-29)
7 The holy oblation-including the temple and city sites (48:8-21, 30-35)

d Visions of Ezekiel and John, p. 850

e This city was the earthly Jerusalem that will be built by Christ at His 2nd advent (v 2; 45:6-7; 48:15-35)

f 4 commands to Ezekiel (v 4):
1 Behold with your eyes
2 Hear with your ears
3 Set your heart upon all that I will show you

h 65th prophecy in Ezekiel (40:5-48:35, unfulfilled). Last prophecy in Ezekiel

26 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 The building of the millennial and eternal sanctuary (40:5-42:20)-many details in this prediction
2 The return to the temple of the glory of God which departed at the time of the Babylonian captivity (43:1-5 with 10:4)
3 The establishment of the eternal kingdom and throne of Messiah (43:6-7)
4 Eternal blessing on Israel (43:7)
5 God dwelling in the midst of Israel forever (43:7, 9)
6 New laws of the temple given (43:10-12)
7 Restoration of the great altar of sacrifice (43:13-17) 22)
8 New ordinances of the altar (43:18-9 New priesthood and worship
10 Dedication of the altar (43:23-24)
11 Consecration of priests (43:24-26)
12 New service of the priests (43:27)
13 Shutting of the east gate (44:1-2)
14 Instructions to the prince (44:3)
15 New laws of the temple (44:5)
16 New laws to Israel (44:6-9)
17 Rebellious Levites to continue in punishment for their rebellion (44:10)
18 New services of rebellious Levites (44:11-14)
19 Faithful priests blessed (44:15-16)
20 New laws to priests (44:16-31)
21 Setting apart the holy oblation (45:1-7; 48:8-22)
22 New division of land to the 12 tribes (45:9; 47:13-48:7, 23-29)
23 New laws for all Israel (45:9-12)
24 New worship in Israel (45:13-46:24)

12 The [a]space also before the little chambers was [b]one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were [c]six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was [d]five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore [e]cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were [f]fifty cubits.

16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: [g]and upon each post were palm trees.

6 Outer court

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: [h]thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was [i]the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

7 North outer gate

20 ¶ And the [j]gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was [k]fifty cubits, and the breadth [l]five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

8 North and east inner gates

23 And the gate of the [m]inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an [n]hundred cubits.

9 South outer gate

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward [o]the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was [p]fifty cubits, and the breadth [q]five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were [r]seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had [s]palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

10 South inner gate

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from [t]gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

11 South inner gate court

28 And he brought me to [u]the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was [v]fifty cubits long, and [l]five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the [w]arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had [x]eight steps.

12 East inner gate and court

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was [y]fifty cubits long, and [l]five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

13 North inner gate and court

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was [k]fifty cubits, and the breadth [l]five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the [z]chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.

a There were 7 steps leading up from the outside of the outer wall, which was 12 1/2 ft. thick, to the pavement inside the wall. The same was true of all 3 gates - the east, north, and south gates (v 6, 22, 26)
b The palm trees and posts were the same for all the 3 gates (v 16, 22, 26)
c The gate of the inner court wall facing the south outer court gate was the same as the other gates of the inner wall which faced the gates in the outer wall (v 27)
d The inner court was the upper pavement inside the inner wall. The gates to the inner wall facing the outer wall gates, and chambers, posts, arches, and other parts of the gates were the same throughout (v 28-43)
e 50 cubits-104 ft. 2 in. (v 29)
f 25 cubits-52 ft. 1 in. (v 29)
g The arches were 25 cubits long by 5 cubits broad, or 52 ft. 1 in. by 10 ft. 5 in. (v 30)
h There were 8 steps from the lower pavement of the outer court to the upper pavement of the inner court (v 31, 34, 37)

48 They shall act as judges in controversy (44:24)
49 They shall judge righteously
50 They shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My assemblies
51 They shall hallow My sabbaths
52 They shall not touch any dead body to defile themselves, except for that of a close relative (44:25)
53 In case of defilement one shall go through cleansing for 7 days (44:26)
54 He shall offer his sin offering when he goes into the sanctuary to minister to Me (44:27)
55 They (the priests) shall not receive an inheritance or possession in Israel (44:28)
56 Every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs, as well as the meat and trespass offerings (44:29)
57 The first of all the firstfruits of all things shall be theirs (44:30)
58 Every oblation shall be theirs
59 The first of your dough will be theirs
60 They shall not eat anything that dies of itself, or is torn (44:31)
61 When you divide the land you shall offer an oblation to Jehovah (45:1-7)
62 The holy oblation for the priests shall be 25,000 reeds (nearly 60 mi.) in length and 10,000 reeds (nearly 24 mi.) in breadth (45:1, 3-4; 48:8-12, 20)
63 The sanctuary of 500 cubits (1,041 ft. 8 in.) square shall be in this portion (45:2). If the reference is 500 reeds here then the command concerns the sanctuary with its additional profane place, the outer square measuring 500 reeds across, or 6,250 ft. - more than a mile (42:20)
64 There shall be 50 cubits (104 ft. 2 in.) for the suburbs around this (45:2)
65 Another like portion of 10,000 by 25,000 reeds (nearly 24 by 60 mi.) shall be for the homes of the Levites (45:5; 48:13-14)
66 Another portion, 5,000 by 25,000 reeds (approximately 12 by 60 mi.) shall be for the city of Jerusalem, suburbs, and the whole house of Israel (45:6; 48:15-20)
67 Part of this on both sides of the city shall be for the prince (45:7; 48:21-22)
68 The rest of the land shall be divided to the 12 tribes (45:8) north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of [a]cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were [b]hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

14 Chambers of the singers

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the [c]chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

15 Chambers of house priests

45 And he said unto me, [d]This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

16 Chambers of altar priests

46 And the [e]chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zā'dŏk among the sons of Lĕ'vī, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

17 Altar court: 208 ft. 4 in. square

47 So he measured [f]the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before [g]the house.

18 Porch of the house

48 ¶ And he brought me to [h]the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, [i]five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was [j]three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The [k]length of the porch was [l]twenty cubits, and the breadth [m]eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were [n]pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

843 CHAPTER 41

19 The temple rooms and corridors: 208 ft. 4 in. sq.

AFTERWARD he brought me to [o]the temple, and measured [p]the posts, [q]six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, [r]which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was [s]ten cubits; and the sides of the door were [t]five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the [u]length thereof, [v]forty cubits: and the breadth, [w]twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two [x]cubits; and the door, [y]six cubits; and the breadth of the door, [z]seven cubits.

4 So he measured the [a]length thereof, [b]twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured [c]the wall of the house, [d]six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, [e]four cubits, [f]round about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had [g]not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was [h]an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: [i]the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of [j]six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was [k]five cubits: [l]and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the [m]wideness of [n]twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the [o]doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was [p]five cubits round about.

12 Now [q]the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west [r]was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was [s]five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof [t]ninety cubits.

13 So he measured [u]the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and [v]the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

a Each of the 4 stone tables for instruments was a cubit and a half square, or 3 ft. 1 1/2 in. square - counting 25 in. for a cubit (v 42)
b The hooks were to hang the animals on while killing and preparing them for sacrifice rituals (v 43)
c The rooms for the singers were at the side of the north gate facing the great altar of sacrifice toward the south
d This was for the house priests
e This chamber for the altar priests was on the opposite side of the great altar and at the south gate, facing the altar and the north (v 46)
f This altar court was the most inner court and the fourth perfect square of the sanctuary. It was 100 cubits or 208 ft. 4 in. square. The third square was 300 cubits or 625 ft. square. The second was 500 cubits or 1,041 ft. 8 in. square - about 1/5 mile. The first one was 6, 250 ft. square. The great altar was 25 ft. square with a base of 29 ft. 2 in. square situated in the very center of the four squares (v 47; 43:13-17). See drawing in the map section g The house refers to the temple proper whose front faced the great altar of sacrifice, its porch beginning with the west side of the center square (40:47-41:26). The house or temple was located in another perfect square of 100 cubits each side (208 ft. 4 in.), which joined the 100-cubit square where the altar was located; it is called the separate place (41:12-15; 42:1, 10, 13)
h The porch of the house, or the vestibule, consisted of a central opening with 2 columns on either side. These columns with the space between them were called the post of the gate. The bases of the columns were a cubit or 25 in. square. The breadth of the gate was 3 cubits-6 ft. 3 in. on each of the two sides, making 12 1/2 ft. altogether (v 48)
i 5 cubits-10 ft. 5 in. (v 48)
j 3 cubits-6 ft. 3 in. (v 48)
k The porch was 20 cubits or 41 ft. 8 in. in length and 11 cubits or 22 ft. 11 in. in breadth (v 49)
l 20 cubits-41 ft. 8 in., counting 25 in. to a cubit (v 49)
m 11 cubits-22 ft. 11 in., counting 25 in. to a cubit (v 49)
n These were the bases and the posts or pillars in the design of palm trees (v 16, 49)
o It is inaccurate to speak of all these courts, porches, and buildings as the temple. The proper term is the sanctuary, the temple being only a small part of it. The temple itself occupied only the 100-cubit square facing another 100-cubit square situated in the very center of the whole sanctuary (45:1-4) p The outer wall of the temple was 6 cubits or 12 1/2 ft. thick (40:5; 41:1). The eastern posts of this wall forming the front of the temple were ornamented with pillars, 6 cubits or 12 1/2 ft., on each side q 6 cubits-12 1/2 ft. (v 1)
r The words which was in italics (supplied by translators) should be omitted, for the building was wider than 6 cubits

c This refers to the holy place, corresponding with the holy place of the tabernacle of Moses and that of Solomon's temple (v 2). It was 20 by 40 cubits, or 41 ft. 8 in. by 83 ft. 4 in. (v 2)

g 6 cubits-12 1/2 ft. (v 3) h 14 ft. 7 in., counting 25 in. to a cubit (v 3) i This refers to the most holy place, corresponding with the holy of holies of the tabernacle of Moses and that of Solomon's temple. It was 20 by 20 cubits, or 41 ft. 8 in. by 41 ft. 8 in. (v 4)
j 20 cubits-41 ft. 8 in. (v 4)

l 6 cubits-12 1/2 ft. (v 5) m 4 cubits-8 ft. 4 in. (v 5) n The rooms round about the temple on the outside walls were 3 stories high and numbered 30 in each row (v 5-6). These were perhaps planned for use as storehouses for the tithes and offerings, for furniture, and whatever would be used in the eternal sacrifices. They were connected to walls other than the walls of the temple itself, but were considered part of the temple. The openings of the rooms faced the temple walls and the space between them and the walls was a passage or corridor around the temple on the two sides and the west end. There was a winding stairway leading from the first to the second and third stories of the rooms (v 7)
o It seems that the rooms were not built against the temple walls but against other walls facing them (v 6) p The wall for the side chambers or rooms had the full thickness of 5 cubits (10 ft. 4 in.) for the ground story; but this was diminished 1 cubit (25 in.) to form a ledge to rest the beams of the second story on; and then further diminished a cubit for the floor of the third story. Thus there was an enlarging of the second story of the chambers by 1 cubit, and an enlarging of the third story by 2 cubits beyond the breadth of the ground floor. This made more room for the galleries on the upper floors (v 15-16; 42:3-5) q The height of the foundation or the lower chamber wall was 6 cubits or 12 1/2 ft., and the thickness was 5 cubits or 10 ft. 5 in. (v 8-9). This would make the ceilings 12 1/2 ft. high r 6 cubits-12 1/2 ft. (v 8) s 5 cubits-10 ft. 5 in. (v 9)
t That which was left refers to the space or walk-way between the rooms and the garden space of 20 cubits before the temple wall all around (v 10). It was a 5-cubit space in front of the chambers, perhaps a special walk-way serving all the rooms (v 9, 11)
u The 20-cubit (41 ft. 8 in.) space between this and the temple walls round about must have been a garden space which completed the whole 100-cubit (208 ft. 4 in.) square of the temple site (v 10) a This refers to the 3 stories of the rooms on the outer wall of the temple area; there were 30 such rooms or chambers with 3 stories each, making 90 in all. Both the windows and galleries were sealed with wood, the windows having wood shutters (v 16)

b These cherubim with 2 faces and palm trees between were carved on wood or sculptured on the walls throughout the temple from the floor to above the doors (v 18-20) c These were not columns of the porch but pilasters; they were all alike and formed part of the inner walls of the temple (v 21)
d This altar was different from the large altar of sacrifice in the center of the 100-cubit square and in front of the temple. This was the altar of incense, 6 ft. 3 in. high and 4 ft. 2 in. square, all of wood instead of being covered with gold like the one Moses made for the tabernacle. 20 The temple entrances

16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three [e]stories over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

18 And it was [b]made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The [c]posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The [d]altar of wood was [e]three cubits high, and the length thereof [f]two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

23 And the [g]temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were [h]narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

21 North outer court

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred [i]cubits was the north door, and the breadth was [j]fifty cubits.

3 Over against the [l]twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in [m]three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of [n]ten cubits breadth inward, a way of [o]one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the [a]upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was [b]fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were [c]an hundred cubits.

22 Outer court: east entrance

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was [d]like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

23 Chambers of the priests

■13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, [e]where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay [f]the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

24 Outer court: over 1 mi. sq.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the [g]measuring reed, [h]five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round a The third stories or top chambers were shorter than the first and second story rooms (v 5-8). They were holy rooms for the priests (v 13-14)

b 50 cubits-104 ft. 2 in. (v 7) c 100 cubits-208 ft. 4 in. (v 8) d The chambers or rooms at all the entrances were the same as those already described in ch. 41 (v 9-12) e Here we have the use of these particular rooms explained. They were dressing and eating rooms for the priests (v 13-14)
f The most holy things were the show-bread, the portions of the animals sacrificed, and the oil and wine offered with the sacrifices. The mention of meat offerings, sin offerings, and trespass offerings is the first proof in these chapters of their eternal observance in the eternal kingdom of the Messiah on earth (v 13). The priests are to be the ministers of such a sacrificial program (v 14)
g A measure of 12 1/2 ft. or 6 cubits (v 16) h The Sept. reads: "five hundred cubits with the measuring reed" instead of five hundred reeds. The Moffatt, Berkeley, and a few other versions and most commentators agree with this rendering; but here and in versions of Fenton, Young, and Rotherham it says reeds or rods. 500 reeds would be 6, 250 ft., a little more than a mile square. If reeds instead of cubits be the true measurements in this passage, then we can make a new figure of a larger plot of ground around the 500 cubits mentioned in the measurements of these chapters. The wall around it might enclose landscaping, gardens, flowers and shrubs-nothing is said about what occupies such a space. The only reference is to a difference between a profane place and the sanctuary which is definitely the 500-cubit square of these many measurements (v 20)

86 On the 15th day of the 7th month the prince shall make offerings as in the feast of the 7 days (45:25)
87 The east gate of the inner court shall be shut for 6 working days, but opened on the sabbath (46:1)
88 It shall also be opened in the day of the new moon
89 The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without (46:2)
90 He shall stand by the post of the gate while the priests prepare his burnt offering and peace offerings
91 He shall worship at the threshold of the gate, and then go forth out of the gate
92 The gate shall not be shut until the evening
93 The people also shall worship at the door of this gate in the sabbaths and in the new moons (46:3)
94 The burnt offerings which the prince shall offer on each sabbath shall be 6 lambs and a ram (46:4)
95 The meat offering for the ram shall be an ephah of flour, and the meat offering for the lambs as much as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to each ephah (46:5)
96 Each new moon he shall offer a bullock, 6 lambs, and a ram (46:6)
97 He shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah of flour and an hin of oil for the bullock and the ram, and for each lamb as he shall have (46:7)
98 The prince shall go in and out by the east gate (46:8)
99 When the people come, in the solemn feasts, they shall enter by the north gate to worship and go out through the south gate (46:9)
100 He that comes through the south gate shall go out through the north gate 101 He shall not return by the way he came in 102 The prince and the people shall go in and out at the same time (46:10)
103 When the prince shall prepare voluntary burnt offerings and peace offerings, the east gate shall be opened and he shall prepare them about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, [a]to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER 43 845

25 East outer gate: entrance of the Messiah into the house: sixth vision of glory

AFTERWARD he brought me [b]to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Iṣ'ra-el came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chĕ'bär; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

26 The place of the throne of the eternal kingdom

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

●7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, [c]the place of my throne, and the place of the [d]soles of my feet, [e]where I will /dwell in the midst of the children of Iṣ'ra-el for ever, and my [g]holy name, shall the house of Iṣ'ra-el no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

27 Exhortation to Israel

8 In their [h]setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

●9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

●10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Iṣ'ra-el, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

●11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, /shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

28 The altar: 29 ft. 2 in. square

●13 ¶ And these are the measures of [a]the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the [b]bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

29 Ordinances of the altar: (1) Sin-offering (Lev. 4:1-31)

●18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; [c]These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

●19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Lĕ'vītes that be of the seed of Zā'dŏk, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin offering.

●20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

●21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

●22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

(2) Burnt offerings (Lev. 1:1-17)

a If the measurement is 500 reeds instead of 500 cubits as it seems to be here, then the reference is to a place separate from the 500-cubit square and wall of chs. 40-41. The purpose of such a large square of 6,250 ft. besides the one of 1,041 ft. 6 in. would be to have a profane place which could be used by the people coming to the sanctuary itself-the 500-cubit enclosure (v 20). It is called profane, meaning for common uses of man instead of sacred or divine uses altogether. If this be the case, then there were 4 main squares in the whole picture here:
1 The 500-reed, 6,250 ft. square and the wall around it (v 14-20)
2 The 500-cubit, 1,041 ft. 6 in. square, or the sanctuary area and its wall (40:19, 23, 27)
3 The 300-cubit square and its wall (40:27)
4 The 100-cubit square and its wall-the place containing the altar in the very center of all the 4 squares (40:47)
On the west sides of 2 of these squares were built the temple (note u, 41:10) and the other building for general use (note y, 41:12)

b The prophet was now brought to the east gate by which the glory of God was to return to the temple, having left Solomon's temple at the time of the captivity (v 1-5 with 10:4). After God enters through this gate it will be closed to the public except for sabbath days and the day of the new moon, and be used only by the prince (44:1-3) c After describing the temple to the prophet, the Messiah declared it would be His eternal capital building among Israel and all nations of the earth (v 7. Cp. Zech. 6:12-13)

d 4 things not to be defiled by Israel:
1 The place of My throne (v 7)
2 The place of the soles of My feet
3 Where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever
4 My holy name

e What could prove more than this that Christ will actually land on the planet earth and be visible among men again forever? He will set His feet on the mount of Olives first (Zech. 14:4); then when this millennial and eternal sanctuary is completed He will walk into it-it will be the place of the soles of His feet, His capital building, His dwelling, His headquarters, His throne-room, and His office from where He will rule over all nations forever (v 7; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 6:12-13; 14:4-5, 9; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5)

f This will be His dwelling as well as His office place among men. He will also eat in this building. During the Millennium He will have this as His earthly headquarters and the New Jerusalem in heaven as His heavenly home. Then, at the end of the Millennium the Holy City will come down with God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, angels, and redeemed ones, and all other beings who live in the capital city of the universes of God (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 12:23; 13:14; Rev. 3:12; 21:1-27; 22:1-5). The dwelling of God among men in those days will not be by some invisible presence, as in the most holy place between the cherubim and manifest by a pillar of fire by night and a cloud by day. Christ will be in visible presence among men, and so will God and the Holy Spirit be in the new earth (Rev. 21:1-6; 22:4-5). No mention is ever made of the ark and other pieces of furniture being in the future temple, as were in the tabernacle and temples of old. The personal presence of the Lord will make such symbols of His presence unnecessary g God's holy name was defiled by Israel and their kings through whoredoms, murders, and idolatries of all kinds (2 Ki. 16:11; 21:4, 18, 26). The temple of Solomon was made a place of the kings of Israel; and it was actually defiled by assassinations and murders of kings and prophets (v 6; Mt. 23:35)

h This describes the actual setting up of their idolatrous worship along with that of Jehovah, with merely a wall between; so God destroyed them (v 8). They were here commanded to put away such whoredom, and the carcases of their kings from the sacred places;

a The great sacrificial altar, corresponding with the brazen altar of the tabernacle and temples of Israel, will be placed in the very center of the whole sanctuary (when it is built in the future), and all the walls of the 4 great squares of note a, 42:20. Sacrifices will be offered on it eternally as a memorial of what was typified before the first coming of Christ. Such sacrifices were never to take away sins and they will never do so in the future; but it is interesting to note that such a program will be carried on in the presence of all coming generations throughout eternity, to demonstrate to them what Christ had to go through for them (v 18-27; 45:13-25; 46:11-15)

b The bottom part or the foundation of the altar. This was to be a cubit (25 in.) high, and a cubit broad (v 13). The altar was to be in 2 stages upon this bottom or foundation-the upper and lower settle or ledge. The lower was to be 2 cubits (4 ft. 2 in.) and the breadth 1 cubit (25 in.); and the lesser was to be 4 cubits (8 ft. 4 in.) and the breadth 1 cubit. The altar was to be 4 cubits and have 4 horns, one on each corner (v 14-15). The whole altar was to be 12 cubits (25 ft.) square (v 16), the lower settle being 14 cubits (29 ft. 2 in.) square with a border of 1/2 cubit or 12 1/2 in., and the bottom thereof the same (v 17). Stairs, which were not allowed under the law, will be permitted in the future

c These verses (18-22) give the rituals in the ceremonial cleansing of the altar. Blood of a bullock is to be used on the 4 horns, 4 corners of the settle, and the border around it (v 20). The bullock is to be burned in the appointed place without the sanctuary and thus the altar will be clean and ready for use (v 21). On the second day the same will take place, except that the blood of a kid of the goats will be used (v 22)

then God would dwell in their midst forever (v 9). The prophet had the responsibility of making it clear to Israel that they had to put sin away, and be ashamed of their iniquities if they were to be restored to God's favor and be shown the future plans of God's wonderful program for all eternity (v 10-12)

i 7 things Ezekiel was to show Israel:
1 The pattern of the house (v 10-11)
2 The form (model) of it (v 11)
3 The fashion (structure) of it
4 The goings out of it
5 The comings in of it
6 All the ordinances of it
7 All the laws of it

The separate place (41:12)

This could not be the temple itself, but another building beyond the west wall of the temple, in the first square of 500 cubits-a place which, like the one back of Solomon's temple, could be used for refuse, sweepings, all kinds of rubbish and anything rejected in the service of the temple. It is called the separate place in v 12-15; 42:1, 10-13. This was a third 100-cubit (208 ft. 4 in.) space; all three were in line with one another-the first being where the altar was located, the second being the temple site, and the third (back of the temple) being the separate place. This building measured 70 cubits 145 ft. 10 in.) by 90 cubits (187 ft. 6 in.) with a wall all the way around which made it 80 by 100 cubits, or 166 ft. 8 in. by 208 ft. 4 in., counting 25 in. as a cubit (v 12-15). The 100 cubits ran east to west and the 80 cubits north to south. The walls were 5 cubits (10 ft. 5 in.) thick, the same as the thickness of the room walls of the temple area (v 9, 12). This left a space of 20 cubits in this third 100-cubit square, which would make 10 cubits (20 ft. 10 in.) on each side of the building running east and west. The total for the 3 squares was 100 by 300 cubits or 208 ft. 4 in. by 625 ft. for the altar, temple, and this extra building or the separate place (v 12-15; 41:47)

a Estimated cost of these offerings:

2 bullocks ($325.00 each)	$650.00
2 ephahs (2 bu. 3 qts.) flour	13.60
2 hins (3 gal.) oil, $1.40 a qt.	16.80
2 hins (3 gal.) wine, $1.60 a qt.	19.20
A kid of the goats	20.00
A tenth deal (1/2 gal.) flour	.40
1/4 hin (1 1/2 qts.) oil	2.10
1/4 hin (1 1/2 qts.) wine	2.40
A ram	20.00
1 ephah (1 bu. 3 pts.) flour	6.65
1 hin (6 qts.) oil	8.40
1 hin (6 qts.) wine	9.60
Total	$769.15

The flour, oil, and wine are not mentioned here; but information concerning amounts is given elsewhere (see 46:11-15; Num. 15:4-15)

b For 7 days offerings like the above will be made to consecrate the future millennial altar in the eternal temple. The estimates cost (7 times $769.15) for the complete dedication of the altar - $5,384.05 (v 25-26)

c When the 7 days of consecration for the altar and priests are finished, the priest will offer sacrifices to God - on the 8th day and every day after that (v 27)

d Then - after being informed about the dedication of the altar, the prophet was brought back to the east gate. He found it shut, not to be opened anymore to the general public, except on sabbaths and new moons (46:1-3), because of God entering through it in His return to earth and the new millennial temple (v 1-2). It was to be for the private use of the prince though, that he might go in and out while living in the chamber of the east gate (v 3)

e The prince will be the earthly ruler of Israel under the Messiah - not the Messiah, Himself or David. His portion will be in the holy oblation on both sides of the city (45:7); he will offer sacrifices of animals (45:17), receive gifts of flour, oil, animals, and other things from all Israel for his support (45:13-16); he will have sons and servants (46:16-17), will live and worship with the people (45:22-46:16); and be considered an earthly mortal among his people. Such will not be the case with Christ, David, or any other resurrected man over these natural people. Israel will have earthly kings and princes under the Messiah and David (43:7; 45:8-9). The prince could even be the high priest, as he has so much to do with the sacrifices and worship in the sanctuary

f Then - after his visit to the east gate the prophet was brought to the north gate to witness the glory of God filling the house or temple. Upon seeing this he again fell upon his face (v 4. See also 1:28; 3:23; 9:8; 11:13; 43:3). This was the 6th time he fell upon his face before Jehovah, overcome by the Divine Presence, prostrating himself before the glory of God

g Twice here God told Ezekiel to mark well, and see with his eyes, and hear with his ears all the ordinances and laws of the temple, and the entering in and going out of both the temple and the sanctuary (v 5). The term mark well simply means to set the heart upon learning all these things

h 116 commands of chs. 40-48:

1 Behold with your eyes (40:4)
2 Hear with your ears
3 Set your heart upon all that I will show you
4 Declare all that you see to the house of Israel
5 Let them put away their whoredom (43:9)
6 Let them put away the carcases of their kings far from me
7 Show the house of Israel their iniquities (43:10)
8 Let them measure the pattern
9 Show them the form of the house
10 Show them the fashion of it (43:11)
11 Show them the goings out and the comings in of it 12 Show them all the ordinances
13 Show them all the laws thereof
14 Write it in their sight that they may keep the whole form thereof, and the ordinances, and do them
15 Give a young bullock for a sin offering to the priests and Levites
16 Take the blood and put it on the horns, corners, and borders of the altar (43:20)

●23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a[a] young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.
●24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

(3) Cleansing the altar and consecrating the priests (Ex. 28-29; Lev. 8. Cp. Num. 7)

●25 [b]Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.
●26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

(4) Continual offerings (Ex. 29:36-46)

●27 And [c]when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 44 — 846

30 Closed outer east gate

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.
2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Is'ra-el, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.
●3 It is for [d]the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

31 Ezekiel enters the north gate: seventh vision of glory

4 ¶[e]Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face.

32 Ordinances of the house:

(1) "Mark well"

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, [f]mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

(2) Last rebuke to Israel

●6 And thou [g]shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Is'ra-el, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Is'ra-el, let it suffice you of all your abominations,
7 In that [h]ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.
8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine [i]holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

(3) Levites: descendants of the rebels - prohibitions; reasons

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; No [j]stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Is'ra-el.
●10 And [k]the Lē'vites that are gone away far from me, when Is'ra-el went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.
●11 Yet they shall be [l]ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.
●12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Is'ra-el to fall into iniquity; therefore have [m]I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.
●13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.
●14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

(4) Priests: descendants of the faithful. A Ministry (Ex. 28-29)

●15 ¶But the priests the Lē'vites, the sons of Zā'dŏk, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Is'ra-el went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:
●16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

B Their garments (Ex. 28-29)

●17 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, [n]they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minisa 4 sins of Israel (v 7-8):

1 Brought strangers, unsaved and uncircumcised men into the sanctuary to pollute it
2 Broke God's covenant
3 Have not kept the charge of His holy things
4 Have set keepers of the sanctuary for themselves and not for Jehovah

b The holy things were the altar, sacrifices, the sacred vessels, the devoted things, and all portions of the priests (v 8) c Again God forbade any stranger, any unconverted man (one uncircumcised in heart), or one uncircumcised in the flesh to enter the sanctuary (v 9). Violating this has been mentioned many times as one of the sins committed by the priests of Israel

d Here is another example of the sins of previous generations. The sin referred to was that of rebelling against the house of David in the division of the kingdom under Rehoboam and Jeroboam (1 Ki. 12). The Levites that went with Jeroboam who made golden calves to worship and turned the hearts of the northern tribes against Jehovah and His worship, are not to take part in the most sacred ministry of the millennial temple. They are not to be cast off entirely, but be used only as gate keepers, butchers of the sacrifices, and in other lower type services; they will not be priests who come near God and minister the holy things in the most holy place (v 10-14). They will be an example of punishment for sin - an object lesson among coming generations

e According to the new system, the Levites as a body, were to receive part of the holy oblation (45:5). The only way these rebellious ones could have any part in the future program would be as a part of the whole body, to which they were re-united in service, but in the lowest grade

f This no doubt refers to the time of the division when God saw a number of them follow Jeroboam. He then lifted up His hand (which is figurative of making an oath), that they should never be fully restored to their former position and place in the priesthood. In view of this past oath God was to reduce them to a lower service in the future program (v 9-14)

g The Levites of the sons of Zadok that remained true to the house of David when the kingdom was divided shall have charge of the most holy services in the millennial temple (v 15-16). As a body the Levites remained true to God in the division of the kingdom (2 Chr. 11:13), but there were a few who went with Jeroboam and his rival worship; these will never be restored to their former services (v 9-14)

h In this section (v 17-31) we have information concerning the garments, laws, and regulations related to the priesthood repeated from the law of Moses, with but little change. Priests will be required to wear linen clothes at all times while ministering in the temple. No wool or anything that generates heat excessively will be permitted; and the reason is given - because of producing sweat (v 17-18)

17 Take a bullock for the sin offering and burn it in the appointed place of the house without the sanctuary (43:21)
18 Offer a kid for a sin offering the next day to cleanse the altar (43:22)
19 Offer a bullock and a ram after you have cleansed the altar (43:23)
20 The priests shall offer them as burnt offerings before the Lord by putting salt upon them (43:24)
21 For 7 days you shall offer a bullock, a goat, and a ram to cleanse the altar (43:25-26)
22 The priests shall consecrate themselves (43:26)
23 Every day after the altar is cleansed, the continual offerings must be offered to be accepted (43:27)
24 The east gate must be kept closed; and no man shall enter in by it except the prince of Israel (44:2)

a The priests and Levites who ministered to the people were to put off their linen or ministerial garments when they went to the outer court. They were to change clothes in the holy rooms provided for this purpose before going out among the people (v 19)

b Up to this point in chs. 40–48 we have had no less than 43 commands recorded. See 116 commands, p. 849. In this section (v 20–31) we have 17 commands to priests concerning their outward appearance and personal conduct. They were to be a very special class, wearing special garments when they ministered to the Lord in the temple services. Among the people they were to be normally dressed like the people to whom they ministered. In their rooms that were sanctified and called holy, they were to change clothes before carrying on other duties; and they were to keep their hair cut not wear long locks as the Nazarites (v 20). They were not to have any special mark of identification while in normal life among men; all distinction as to dress and outward appearance was to be only while in the actual temple service. The priests were the teachers and judges in Israel (v 23-24); and were limited as to whom they could marry (v 22). As to dead bodies they were allowed to touch only those of very close relatives (v 25), after which they were to go through 7 days of ceremonial cleansing in order to become fit to minister again in the temple, such a ceremony being concluded with a sin offering for the uncleanness (v 26-27). The priests were also limited as to inheritances and earthly possessions; and they were the only group in Israel to receive and use certain parts of the sacrifices and offerings, the devoted things, the first-fruits of all things, and oblations (v 28-31). And finally, they were not to eat any meat of any animal that had died of itself, or that had been torn by any wild beast or by an accident of any kind (v 31)

Visions of Ezekiel and John (40:2)

Here Ezekiel saw the future and eternal promised land, earthly Jerusalem, the temple, and the eternal worship (40:5–48:35). He saw this from a very high mountain. Cp. the vision of John on a great and high mountain when he saw the new earth, new heaven, the New Jerusalem, and other eternal things (Rev. 21:10). Ezekiel saw things as they will be from the beginning of the Millennium into eternity; John saw things beginning with the new earth into eternity. Ezekiel saw the eternal heavenly Jerusalem. Ezekiel saw Christ and His eternal reign (43:7); John saw God and Christ and their eternal joint reigns after the putting down of all rebellion on earth, by Christ (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-10; 21:3-7, 22:5)

How to pray (Isa. 64:7)

Heb. chazaq, to fasten upon; seize; be strong; courageous; obstinate; to bind; restrain; conquer; catch; cleave to; be constant; continue; force; lay hold on; maintain; play the man; wax mighty; prevail; retain; be urgent; wax strong. All these meanings can be understood in connection with prayer. If one would stir himself up in this manner, refusing to be denied, and if he would appropriate every benefit of the promises and covenants of God which have been freely and abundantly given to men all men, then such a person would experience answers to prayer for body, soul, and spirit, for both himself and others

15 acts of God (Isa. 63:12):

1 He said (v 8)
2 Was afflicted with them (v 9)
3 Saved and redeemed them
4 Loved them
5 Pitied them
6 Bore them and carried them
7 Turned against them (v 10)
8 Fought against them
9 Remembered (v 11)
10 Brought them through the sea
11 Put His Holy Spirit in Moses 12 Led them (v 12)
13 Divided the water
14 Led them through the Red Sea (v 13)
15 Gave them rest (v 14)

ter in the gates of the inner court, and within.

●18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

●19 And [a]when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

C Prohibitions and duties (Lev. 10:8-15; 21:1-15; Dt. 17:8-11)

●21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

●22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Iṣ'ra-el, or a widow that had a priest before.

●23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

●24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

●25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

●26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

●27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD.

D Their inheritance (Ex. 29:26; Lev. 27:9-34; Num. 3:5; 18:1-8)

●28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Iṣ'ra-el: I am their possession.

●29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Iṣ'ra-el shall be theirs.

●30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

●31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

33 The holy oblation: 25,000 x 25,000 reeds or 60 mi. sq. (1) 25,000 x 10,000 - 24 x 60 mi. for the priests and sanctuary

MOREOVER, [a]when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

●2 [b]Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

●3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

●4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

(2) 25,000 x 10,000 - 24 x 60 mi. for the Levites

●5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Lē'vītes, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

(3) 25,000 x 5,000 - 12 x 60 mi. for the city and suburbs

●6 ¶ And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, [c]over against the oblation of the holy portion: [d]it shall be for the whole house of Iṣ'ra-el.

(4) East and west corners of 5,000 x 5,000 each will be for the prince (48:15-22)

●7 ¶ And [a e]portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

(5) Rest of the land will be divided to the twelve tribes (47:13-48:35)

●8 In the land shall be his possession in Iṣ'ra-el: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and [f]the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Iṣ'ra-el according to their tribes.

34 Mosaic laws to be observed: (1) Rulers to be just a In the future division of the promised land to the 13 tribes, the tribe of Levi will have a special portion set apart or sanctified for them. It will be called the holy oblation, and be a square of about 60 by 60 mi. between the tribe of Judah on the north and Benjamin on the south. The city of Jerusalem and the temple site will be located in this square, besides all the homes of the kings of Israel, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests and Levites. Formerly the city and temple were in the Judah and Benjamin portions; now they will be in the Levi portion. Formerly the Levites had different places in various tribes of Israel; now they will have a separate and most holy place all to themselves (v 1-7)

b In this section measuring 25,000 by 25,000 reeds (about 60 sq. mi.) there will be a portion, the north part, measuring 10,000 by 25,000 reeds (about 24 by 60 mi.) where the Levites will build houses and live (v 5; 48:13-14). Next to this and to the south there will be another like section (about 24 by 60 mi.) there the priests will build houses and live (v 2-4; 38:10-12). In this part, in the very center measuring east to west, and north to south, the sanctuary will be located (48:10). The rest of the holy oblation, 5,000 by 25,000 reeds (about 12 by 60 mi.) located south of the priest's portion will be the place where the future eternal earthly city of Jerusalem will be built. It will be in the center from east to west, but take up all the land north to south in this portion. This will be for the whole house of Israel (v 6; 48:15-22, 30-35) c There will be about 11 miles between the sanctuary and the suburbs of Jerusalem (v 6; 48:15-20)

d Jerusalem will be the capital city of all Israel and the whole world. Its measurement will be 12 mi. square or 144 square mi.; and it will be a city appropriate for a world capital (v 6; 48:15-20, 30-35)

e A portion on the east and west sides of the city will be for the prince of Israel, or for the earthly kings and princes (v 7-8; 48:21-22)

f The rest of the land outside the holy oblation of about 60 by 60 sq. mi. (v 8; 47:13-48:7, 23-29)

as he does on the sabbath days (46:12)
104 After his worship he shall go out the east gate
105 After he goes out, the gate shall be shut
106 You shall prepare a daily morning burnt offering of a lamb of the first year to the Lord (46:13)
107 The meat offering for the lamb every morning shall be a sixth part of an ephah, and a third part of an hin of oil (46:14-15)
108 If the prince gives land to his sons it shall remain theirs (46:16)
109 If he gives it to his servants it shall return to him in the year of jubile (46:16-17)
110 The prince shall not take land from the people or oppress them (46:18)
111 The priests shall boil their own trespass offerings and the sin offerings, and bake the meat offerings in the west corners of the inner court (46:19-20)
112 The sacrifices of the people shall be boiled in the 4 corners of the outer court (46:21-24)
113 You shall divide the land according to the tribes of Israel (47:21)
114 You shall divide the land by lot to yourselves and the strangers among you (47:22)
115 Strangers among you shall be as one born in the country among you 116 They shall have inheritance among the children of Israel (47:22-23)

Let it suffice you, O princes of Is'ra-el: [a]remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away [b]your exactions from my people, saith the LORD GOD.

(2) Just weights (Dt. 25:13-16)

●10 Ye [c]shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.
●11 The ephah and the [d]bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.
●12 And the [e]shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be [f]your maneh.

(3) Offerings (Lev. 1:1-7:38)

●13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; [g]the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:
●14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the [h]tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:
●15 And [i]one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Is'ra-el; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the LORD GOD.

(4) Summary of millennial and eternal worship (Isa. 66:22-24)

●16 [j]All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Is'ra-el.
●17 And it shall be the [k]prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Is'ra-el: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Is'ra-el.

(5) The offerings and the time of offering them (Lev. 1:1-7:38; 16:1-17:16; Ex. 29:39-46)

§18 Thus saith the LORD GOD; In [l]the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary:
●19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.
●20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.
●21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the [a]passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.
●22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare [b]for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.
●23 And [c]seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.
●24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.
●25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER 46 848

(6) Worship of prince and people: sabbaths and new moons

THUS saith the Lord GOD; [d]The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.
●2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
●3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons.
●4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be [e]six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.
●5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.
●6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.
●7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

(7) Entrances for the prince and people in the feasts

●8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.
●9 ¶ But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD [f]in the solemn feasts, he a The fact that the princes of Israel are here commanded to remove violence and spoil, execute judgment and justice, and do right by their subjects indicates that earthly and mortal rulers are referred to, not David, Christ, the 12 apostles, or any of the resurrected saints, all of whom will then be in their glorified state. This verifies the fact that there will be earthly rulers of the human race as well as the resurrected and immortal kings and priests. See Millennium in Index b Heb. gerushah, dispossession (v 9). The idea is that they were not to take land or other property from their subjects as Ahab did (1 Ki. 21:19) c Here we have a repetition of different laws from the law of Moses-honesty in weights and measures (v 10-12), and various civil and religious laws (45:13-46:24). See 116 commands, p. 849

d A bath was the same as an ephah - 1 bu. 3 pts., which was the tenth part of an homer or a cor (about 10 1/2 bu.)
e A common shekel was worth 64¢ of our money
f It seems from this verse that there were 3 manehs-one of 15 shekels, one of 20 shekels, and another of 25 shekels (v 12)
g A definite amount as an oblation for everyone in Israel is an addition to to what was commanded by Moses, who left the matter up to the people on a voluntary basis. Here a sixth part of an ephah (about 5 1/2 qts.) was a requirement for one to give to the prince (v 13-17). This would be about 171,875 bu. of wheat and the same amount of barley from each million persons. What was done with so much grain is not stated, but we know that some was used in the worship of the people (v 16-17); and it could be that the rest was used to support the rulers of Israel, and for the poor
h A tenth part of a bath would be 3 1/3 qts. of oil - 833,333 gal. of oil for each million persons (v 14)
i One lamb out of every 200 lambs in Israel was to be given to the prince as an oblation (v 15) j This may mean only the families or heads of families in Israel; or it could actually mean every individual. It is not so stated one way or the other (v 16) k Out of his oblations of v 13-16 from the people, the prince was to give:
1 Burnt offerings (v 17)
2 Meat offerings
3 Drink offerings
4 In all feasts
5 In all new moons
6 In all sabbaths
7 In all solemnities of Israel
It would take many animals, many bushels of flour, and many measures of wine and oil to carry on such a program for all the people, to reconcile them, as required by such worship, as in v 17. It would seem that the prince was more of an agent between God and the people, receiving their offerings and using much of them to promote the program of worship for all the Israelites l Sacrifices-Millennium and New Earth:
1 1st day of the 1st month (v 18-19): A bullock with its flour, oil, and wine will be offered to cleanse the sanctuary. In the coming ages there will be a change in the amount of flour, oil, and wine offered, instead of Num. 15 being obeyed to the letter, a new law taking the place of the old Mosaic law is to be followed, as stated in 46:7. Wine is not mentioned as being offered with any of these sacrifices, but drink offerings are referred to, and this would require wine (v 17)
2 7th day of the 1st month (v 20): A bullock will be offered as on the 1st day previous to this
3 14th day of the 1st month (v 21-22): On this day many thousands of lambs will be killed in readiness for the passover as in the days of old. Jesus taught that even He would partake of the passover, the wine, and the unleavened bread with His disciples in the coming kingdom (Lk. 22:15-18, 30). The prince of Israel, on the passover day, will offer a bullock for himself and the people, as a sin offering (v 22). Then, on each of the next 7 days of the feast of unleavened bread, burnt offerings of bullocks, rams, and kids of the goats

a The feasts of the passover, firstfruits, and unleavened bread were held from the 14th to the 21st of the 1st month, which period corresponded with our April (v 21-24; Lev. 23:5-8)
b This is further proof that the prince of all these chapters will not be the Messiah, David, or another resurrected person, but an earthly, mortal man who will be capable of sin; and whether he sins or not he will offer sacrifices for himself as well as the people. This work sounds exactly like that of the high priest, himself (v 22. Cp. Heb. 5:1-4) c The total cost of the animals alone during these 8 days, not including the daily sacrifices and the thousands of passover lambs with their flour, oil, and wine, would be an estimated $2,880.00
d The east gate is to be shut at all times to the public except on sabbath days and the day of the new moon. Then the people will be permitted to worship here (v 1-3). It will be opened for the prince whenever he offers a voluntary burnt of peace offering (v 12)
e The estimated cost of the 6 lambs and the ram for each sabbath day would be $140.00, to which should be added the cost of flour, oil, and wine as used with each sacrifice (v 4-5). The same would be the cost for the sacrifices in the day of the new moon, with the additional cost of a bullock ($325.00), and the flour, oil, and wine thereof (v 6-7). The estimated cost of the lambs and rams for the 52 regular sabbaths of a year would be $7,280.00
f On the sabbaths the people will worship at the east gate (v 1-3); but in the solemn feasts during the year they will enter through the north gate, worship, and then go out through the south gate; or, if any enter through the south gate, they will depart through the north gate; and no exception will be made regarding this law. People will not be permitted to go in and out through the same gate (v 9-10). Just why such a law will be enforced is not clear. Perhaps it will be to encourage reverence and discourage constant running in and out of the gates during the solemn feast days. At least, it indicates order of traffic on such great festival days, all of which had typical meaning in their divine worship and service will be sacrificed as sin offerings (v 23). With every bullock and ram an ephah 1 bu. 3 pts.) of flour, an hin (6 qts.) of oil, and the same amount of wine will be offered (v 24; 46:5, 7). See estimated cost of sacrifices, p. 849

4 15th day of the 7th month (v 25): The same sin offerings with their flour, oil, and wine, as in point 3 above, will be offered
5 In all the other of the 7 great feasts of Jehovah during the year, sacrifices will be offered (v 17; 46:11). See Feasts in Index
6 Daily sacrifices (46:13-15): A lamb for a daily morning sacrifice will be offered with its flour, oil, and wine. This will be a perpetual ordinance unto the Lord (v 14). Two daily sacrifices were required under the law of Moses, one in the evening as well as in the morning, so here is another change in the law concerning sacrifices of the future
7 Sabbath sacrifices (46:1, 3-4): A ram and 6 lambs will be offered every sabbath by the prince of Israel for the people, with the proper amounts of flour, oil, and wine (46:5-7). This will take place on every one of the 52 weekly sabbaths and on every special sabbath. See Sabbath in Index
8 In the day of the new moon (46:1, 3, 6-7): A bullock, a ram, and 6 lambs will be offered, with their flour, oil, and wine. See costs of sacrifices, p. 849
Besides the above there will be many freewill offerings, and sacrifices, as men of all nations come to Jerusalem and the sanctuary to worship from year to year (Isa. 2:1-4; Zech. 14:16-21)

a This is the new law regarding meat offerings for the various animals sacrificed, the amount of flour, oil, and wine being increased here over that specified by the law of Moses in Num. 15:1-9 (v 11-16)

b 4 times east gate to be opened:
1 Anytime for the prince to go in and out (44:1-3)
2 On sabbaths (46:1-3)
3 On new moons
4 When the prince offers voluntary burnt offerings and peace offerings (46:12) c The daily burnt offering of a lamb will be every morning, not every morning and evening as required by the law of Moses (v 13-15)

d Est. cost daily sacrifice for a year:

365 lambs @ $20.00 each..	$7, 300.00
5 1/2 qts. flour daily, about 63 bu. a yr. @ $6.00 each.	378.00
2 qts. oil daily, 730 qts. a yr. @ $1.40 each.....	1, 022.00
2 qts. wine daily, 730 qts. a yr. @ $1.60 each	1, 168.00
Total est. cost, 1 year ...	$9, 868.00

On the basis of the above the total cost for the daily sacrifices during the Millennium (a period of 1,000 years) would be $9,868,000.00-and the same amount for every 1,000-year period throughout eternity

e It is noticeable that there is no mention of wine in connection with the sacrifices to be offered during the Millennium and the New Earth, as so strictly required under the law of Moses. We have listed wine in the estimated costs however, because of there being no reference to a new law changing this requirement. Cp. Num. 15:1-9

f Another proof that this prince is not a resurrected man-he will have sons. Here is the law of inheritance for the prince and his sons and servants. The sons shall keep the possession in their father's house without it being returned to the father in the year of jubile; but in the case of servants receiving any part of the inheritance of the prince, it shall return to him in the year of jubile (v 16-17). The prince shall rule with justice and not oppress the people (v 18)

g The priests are here instructed to boil sacrifices at the appointed places on the two sides westward (v 19-20)

14 sins of hypocrites (Isa. 58:1):

1 They seek God daily (v 2), their seeking being only an outward show to attract attention to self and deceive others. See Hypocrites in Index

2 Delight to know God's ways (v 2). They pretend to delight to know His ways, and do carry out many rituals, but the heart is far from Jehovah (29:13)

3 They act as a nation which has done righteousness (v 2), their acts consisting of outward forms and rituals while they continually break Gods laws (v 4-12). Even in the days of Christ the very ones who would not enter a hall, lest they be defiled so they could not eat the passover, were crying out, demanding the murder of their Messiah (Jn. 18:28)

4 They act as if they did not want to forsake the ordinances of God (v 2). This refers to ordinances pertaining to the outward rituals and forms of religion. Hypocrites are always careful not to violate any scruple that does not affect morals or restrain them from living in open sin and idolatry (1:4-12)

5 They ask of Me ordinances of justice (v 2). Their priests and rulers consult about the law, but at the same time they are filled with oppression, strife, murder, and wickedness (1:4-12; 5:8-23; 6:10; Mt. 23)

6 They delight in approaching God (v 2), their delight being in hypocritical practices, for they think that outward religion pleases God (1:4-12; Mt. 23)

7 They complain that their fasts and strict observances of rituals and forms are ignored by God (v 3). This fact alone should be enough to prove that they are rebels against God in spite of their outward religion

8 They complain that God has taken no knowledge of their afflictions of the soul (v 3). By their few acts of self-denial they seek to put God under obligation to do things for them

9 They make fast days times of pleasure to relieve discomforts of self-denial (v 3)

10 They exact to the letter the demands made upon those who labor for them (v 3), getting all that is due them

11 They make their fasts periods of contention and strife (v 4)

12 They make their fasts times of religious show to the public by their mourning, wailing, and throwing of dust and ashes upon themselves (v 4)

13 They make their fasts periods of affliction and pretended sufferings (v 5)

14 They go around appearing unto men that they are fasting, and claim merits from God by such acts (v 5)

The purpose of this chapter is to rebuke Judah for dependence upon performance of outward show in religion, and claiming protection from God because of such rites that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

●10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

(8) Laws of various offerings

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities [a]the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

●12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then [b]open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

●13 Thou shalt [c]daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a[d]lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning.

●14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin [e]of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

●15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

(9) Concerning inheritances

¶16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of [f]his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

●17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

¶18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

(10) Place for preparation of the offerings of the priests

●19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

¶20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where [g]the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people.

(11) Four corner chambers in the outer wall of the sanctuary for boiling the sacrifices of the people

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the [a]four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

¶24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

CHAPTER 47 849

35 River of the sanctuary (Zech. 14:8-9. Cp. Rev. 22:1-2)

[b]AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he [c]measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, [d]hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

■7 Now when I had returned, behold, [e]at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These [f]waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, [g]the waters shall be healed.

a The boiling places for the people, each 30-40 cubits or 62 1/2 ft. by 63 ft. 4 in., will be located in the 4 corners of the outer court (v 21-24)

b Afterward-after all other descriptions and specifications of the sanctuary and the giving of new eternal laws, the Lord showed the prophet the final thing about the sanctuary, recorded in his book-the measurement of a river flowing from under the threshold of the temple eastward, from the front of the temple, the right side of the house, and the south side of the altar of sacrifice. It was flowing from the right side of the east gate (v 1-2) c Measurements of the millennial river:

1st 1,000 cubits.	2,083 ft. 4 in. (v 3)
2nd 1,000 cubits.	2,083 ft. 4 in. (v 4)
3rd 1,000 cubits.	2,083 ft. 4 in. (v 4)
4th 1,000 cubits.	2,083 ft. 4 in. (v 5)
Total...	8,332 ft. 16 in.

This would indicate it was about 1 1/2 mi. from the edge of the river in to a point where it could not be waded-to the deep waters to swim in. It being the same distance from the opposite side of the river to the deep waters would make a width of 3 mi., exclusive of the width of the waters to swim in which is not specifically stated d Question 80. Last one in Ezekiel

e Something similar to the heavenly city, the New Jerusalem, which has trees of life on the banks of the rivers of water of life flowing down the middle of the streets and out through the pearly gates into the new earth (Rev. 22:1-3). Here the trees were seen on both sides of the river (v 8)

f The waters will go toward the east and into the desert, on to the Dead Sea, and heal the waters of that sea (v 8). Every place where the waters will go the land and other waters will be healed (v 9). The Dead Sea, which is also called the Salt Sea (note k, Num. 35:12), has an estimated mineral wealth of about $1,190,000,000,000.00-nearly three times the total wealth of the U. S. A. It is said to have a content of potash amounting to 1,300,000,000 tons valued at $68,040,000,000.00; bromide, 835,000,000 tons valued at $252,720,000,000.00; salt, 11,900,000,000 tons valued at $46,170,000,000.00; gypsum 81,000,000 tons valued at $1.16,640,000.00; and magnesium chloride, 22,000,000,000 tons valued at $797,040,000,000,00. The sea is 340 sq. miles in area, and the surface is 1,292 ft. below the Mediterranean sea level

g One of the purposes of the river will be to heal the waters of the Dead Sea so that it will be full of fish. The different depths of the river as given in the passage have no spiritual significance any more than the dry bones of Ezek. 37, which are sometimes taken to symbolize spiritual drought among the churches. There is no point to be gained and no benefit to be derived from making the river symbolical or figurative in any sense. The best policy here, as always in dealing with Scripture, is to take a statement literally where it can at all be understood this way; and even when the language is figurative, accept the literal truths expressed thereby a This river from the sanctuary will divide at some point south of Jerusalem and become 2 great rivers. One-half or one river will flow into the Dead Sea and the other will flow into the Mediterranean. Fish from the Mediterranean will go through these waters into the Dead Sea (v 9-10; Zech. 14:8). Fishermen will cast nets into it and dry their gear on the shore as if there had always been fish in that sea (v 10)

b En-gedi was located at about the middle section of the Dead Sea, on the western bank (v 10; 1 Sam. 23:29) c The miry and marsh places will be left to produce salt for man. The Sept. says that when the waters overflow their banks into these places they will turn into salt. Thus there will be a perpetual source of it in this area (v 11)

d In this verse we have a more detailed picture of the trees which will grow on both sides of the river 5fold description of the trees (v 12):

1 They shall be for meat
2 The leaves will never fade. This means they will be evergreen fruit trees
3 The fruit will never be fully used up for the trees will produce abundantly
4 New fruit will be produced monthly instead of annually
5 The leaves will be for medicine. There will be healing and preservation of life qualities about the very leaves which will cause human bodies to live on and on, without sickness and disease. The properties in the leaves will no doubt renew the cells of the body and cause longevity; the bodies of men will be perfectly healthy because of perfect nutrition-partaking of all the necessary minerals and vitamins

e The promised land will be divided into 13 parts for the 13 tribes. A partial and general description of the borders is here given (v 13). The east border is not fully given, and what is stated here about it is not the same as promised in Gen. 15:18-21. There will be two portions for Joseph-Manasseh and Ephraim. The land will be divided by lot and some will fall to the strangers living in Israel (v 13-14, 21-23) f 4 borders of the land:

1 The north border from the great sea (the Mediterranean) to Hethlon to Hamath, Berothah, and Sibraim between Hamath and Damascus (v 15-17)
2 The east side, from Hauran and Damascus through Gilead and from the Jordan to the east sea (v 18)
3 The south side, from Tamar to the waters of Kadesh to the Mediterranean (v 19). This does not include the whole south of the promised land, which will take in all the Arabian peninsula, when Gen. 15:18-21; Isa. 11:13-16; 19:17-25 are fulfilled
4 The west border-the Mediterranean Sea (v 20)

2 Woe to the dog seller and buyer

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the[c]rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from[b]En-ge'dī even unto En-eg'la-im; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the[c]miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

12 And[d]by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

36 Borders of the land (Gen. 15:18-21)

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; This shall be [e]the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Is'ra-el: Jō'geph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the [f]border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hĕth'lŏn, as men go to Zĕ'dăd;

16 Hā'math, Bĕ-rō'thah, Sĭb'ra-im, which is between the border of Dā-măs'cus and the border of Hā'math; Hā'zar-hăt'tĭ-cŏn, which is by the coast of Hau'ran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be Hā'zar-ē'nan, the border of Dā-măs'cus, and the north northward, and the border of Hā'math. And this is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hau'ran, and from Dā-măs'cus, and from Gĭl'e-ăd, and from the land of Is'ra-el by Jŏr'dan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tā'mar even to the waters of strife in Kā'desh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hā'math. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Is'ra-el.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Is'ra-el; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Is'ra-el.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 48 850

37 Division of the land: (1) Seven portions for seven tribes north of the holy oblation

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hĕth'lŏn, as one goeth to Hā'math, Hā'zar-ē'nan, the border of Dā-măs'cus northward, to the coast of Hā'math; for these are his sides east and west; [a]a portion for Dăn.

2 And by the border of Dăn, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ash'ĕr.

3 And by the border of Ash'ĕr, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Năph'ta-lī.

4 And by the border of Năph'ta-lī, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Mā-năs'seh.

5 And by the border of Mā-năs'seh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for E'phrā-im.

6 And by the border of E'phrā-im, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reu'ben.

7 And by the border of Reu'ben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Jū'dah.

38 The portion for priests and the sanctuary (45:1-4)

8 ¶ And[b]by the border of Jū'dah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zā'dŏk; [c]which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Is'ra-el went astray, as the Lē'vites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Lē'vites.

a Millennial division of the land. Besides the holy oblation between the Judah and Benjamin portions, the land will be divided into strips running east and west:

1 Dan on the extreme north (v 1)
2 Asher south of Dan (v 2)
3 Naphtali south of Asher (v 3)
4 Manasseh south of Naphtali (v 4)
5 Ephraim south of Manasseh (v 5)
6 Reuben south of Ephraim (v 6)
7 Judah south of Reuben (v 7)
8 The section measuring 10,000 by 25,000 reeds (about 24 by 60 mi.) for the Levites (v 13-14)
9 The section measuring 10,000 by 25,000 reeds for the priests and the sanctuary (v 8-12)
10 The section measuring 5,000 by 25,000 reeds (about 12 by 60 mi.) for the city of Jerusalem, its suburbs, and the prince's portion (v 15-22)
11 Benjamin south of the holy oblation of points 1-10, above (v 23)
12 Simeon south of Benjamin (v 24)
13 Issachar south of Simeon (v 25)
14 Zebulun south of Issachar (v 26)
15 Gad south of Zebulun (v 27-29)

b Between the south border of Judah and the north border of Benjamin the holy oblation will be set apart or sanctified to God. This square of about 60 by 60 mi. will run past Jordan on the east, and from Jerusalem north to about the sea of Galilee. This seems out of proportion compared to the allotment of land to the other tribes, but it must be recognized that from Hamath on the north to Kadesh on the south is only a part of the land of promise, which runs east to the Euphrates and the Persian Gulf, and south to the Red Sea and Egypt, taking in all the Arabian peninsula. The borders given here are perhaps the temporary borders of the tribes when they will be small, at the beginning of the Millennium; or it could be they mark off representative portions, meaning that all members of the tribes will not be limited to these small sections but rather be permitted to settle elsewhere in all the great promised land. The main sanctified section will be the holy oblation-the center of the government of all the tribes, where the tribe of Levi will carry on the ministerial work c Which remained true to the house of David in the division of the kingdom (1 Ki. 12). Their land will be the most holy in all Israel, for inside their 24 by 60 mi. portion the sanctuary will be located (v 8, 12)

Bibliomancy

Bibliomancy-forecasting future events by the Bible. The plan was to open the sacred volume at random, and lay a finger on a passage without looking at it. The text pointed to was supposed to be applicable to the person pointing to it a 10,000 by 25,000 reeds - about 24 by 60 mi. (v 13)

b The priests and Levites will not be able to sell any part of their portions of the holy oblation to any one of the other tribes, or to Gentiles (v 14) c 5,000 by 25,000 reeds - about 12 by 60 mi. (v 15). It will be a profane place for all Israel, the place for the city of Jerusalem which, with its suburbs, will be 6,000 by 5,000 reeds, or about 12 by 12 mi. in measurement. Houses will be built here for anyone desiring to live in Jerusalem (v 16)
d The city will be in the middle of the 12 by 60 mi. section measuring from east to west; but it will take up the entire 12 mi. north and south (v 15)
e The city itself, inside the walls, will be 4,500 by 4,500 reeds (about 10 3/5 mi. by 10 3/5 mi.). This, with the 250-reeds space (3,125 ft.) for the suburbs on the north, south, east, and west sides will make the walled city and suburbs about 12 mi. square (v 16-17). The remaining portion on each side of the city, which will be farm land to serve the city, will measure 5,000 by 10,000 reeds, or about 12 by 24 mi. for each side (v 18-19)
f 25,000 by 25,000 reeds or about 60 by 60 mi. (v 20)
g The land east and west of the holy oblation will be for the prince of Israel (v 21-22)

64th prophecy in Ezekiel (38:1)
80 predictions - unfulfilled:

1 I am against you, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal (38:3)
2 I will turn you back (38:4)
3 I will put hooks in your jaws
4 I will bring you forth, and all your army, a great company
5 Your army will consist of horses, and horsemen clothed with all sorts of weapons
6 Persia, Ethiopia, Libya, Gomer and all his bands, the house of Togarmah and all his bands, and many people will be in the army (38:6)
7 After many days you will be visited (38:8)
8 In the latter years you will come into the land of Israel that is brought back from the sword, and gathered out of many people
9 You will come against the mountains of Israel, a people brought forth out of the nation, and that dwell safely in their own land
10 You will ascend and come like a storm, and like a cloud to cover the whole land, you, and all your bands, and many people with you (38:9)
11 At that time things will come into your mind, and you will think an evil thought (38:10)
12 You will say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages, that are at rest, and that dwell safely, to take a spoil and a prey from the Jews that are gathered and are prosperous in their land (38:12)
13 Sheba, Dedan, the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof will say to you, Are you come with a great company to take a spoil? to take a prey? to carry away silver, gold, cattle, goods, and a great spoil? (38:13)
14 In that day when My people of Israel dwell safely, you will come from your place in the north parts with many people riding horses, a mighty army (38:14-15)
15 You will come up against My people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land (38:16)
16 It will be in the latter days
17 I will bring you against My land, that the heathen may know Me, when I will be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes
18 At the same time when Gog comes against Israel, My fury will come up in My face (38:18)
19 In that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel (38:19)
20 All men and beasts in the land will shake at My presence (38:20)
21 The mountains will be thrown down
22 The steep places will fall
23 Every wall will fall to the ground
24 I will call for a sword against him (Gog) throughout all My mountains (38:21)
25 Every man's sword will be against his brother
26 I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood (38:22)
27 I will rain upon him, and the many bands with him, an overflowing rain
28 I will rain on him great hailstones
29 I will rain on him fire and brimstone
30 I will magnify Myself (38:23)
31 I will sanctify Myself
32 I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am Jehovah
33 I am against you, O Gog, and I will turn you back (39:1-2)
34 I will leave but a sixth part of you
35 I will cause you to come up from the north parts
36 I will bring you against the mountains of Israel
37 I will smite your bow out of your left hand (39:3)
38 I will smite your arrows out of your right hand
39 You will fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your bands (39:4)
40 I will give you unto the ravenous birds of every sort 41 I will give you to the beasts of the field to be devoured (39:5)
42 You will fall upon the open field
43 I will send a fire on Magog (39:6)
44 I will send a fire among them that dwell carelessly in the isles
45 They will know that I am Jehovah
46 I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel (39:7)
47 I will not let them pollute My holy name anymore
48 The heathen will know that I am Jehovah, the Holy One in Israel
49 The judgment will be completed on Gog and his allies (39:8)
50 They that dwell in the cities of Israel will go forth and gather the weapons of war for firewood (39:9)
51 They will have enough fuel, so that they will take no wood from the field for 7 years (39:9-10)
52 They will spoil those that spoiled them
53 They will rob those that robbed them
54 In that day I will give Gog a place of graves in Israel, the valley of passengers on the east of the sea (39:11)
55 It will stop the noses of passengers
56 There they will bury Gog and all his multitude 57 They will call it The valley of Hamon-gog
58 For 7 months the house of Israel will be burying them, that they may cleanse the land (39:12)
59 All the people of the land will bury them (39:13)
60 It will be to them a day of renown, the day that I shall be glorified 61 They will give men continual employment to pass through the land to bury those that remain upon the face of the earth to cleanse it (39:14)
62 At the end of 7 months the burial program will be ended
63 During the 7 months, if travellers see a bone they will set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog (39:15)
64 The name of the city will be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land (39:16)
65 Speak to every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field. Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to My sacrifices that I make for you upon the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh, and drink blood. You will eat the flesh of the mighty (39:17-18)
66 You will eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth (39:18)
67 You will eat the flesh and drink the blood of rams, lambs, goats, and bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan
68 You will eat fat till you be full (39:19) drunken 69 You will drink blood till you be 70 You will be filled at My table with horses, mighty men, and all men of

39 Portion for Levites (45:5)

●13 And over against the border of the priests the Lē'vītes shall have five and twenty thousand in length, [a]and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.
●14 And [b]they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

40 Portion for the city (45:6)

●15 ¶ And the [c]five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and [d]the city shall be in the midst thereof.
●16 And these shall be [e]the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.
●17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.
●18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.
●19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Iş'ra-el.

41 All the oblation

●20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand [f]by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

42 Portion for the prince (45:7)

[g]21 ¶ And the [e]residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

[g]22 Moreover from the possession of the Lē'vītes, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the [e]prince's, between the border of Jū'dah and the border of Bĕn'ja-mĭn, shall be for the prince.

43 Five portions for five tribes south of the holy oblation

[g]23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, [b]Bĕn'ja-mĭn shall have a portion.
●24 And by the border of Bĕn'ja-mĭn, from the east side unto the west side, Sĭm'e-on shall have a portion.
●25 And by the border of Sĭm'e-on, from the east side unto the west side, Is'sa-char a portion.
●26 And by the border of Is'sachar, from the east side unto the west side. Zĕb'u-lŭn a portion.
●27 And by the border of Zĕb'u-lŭn, from the east side unto the west side, Găd a portion.
●28 And by the border of Găd, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tā'mar unto the waters of strife in Kā'desh, and to the river toward the great sea.
●29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Iş'ra-el for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD.

44 The miniature four-square earthly Jerusalem patterned after the heavenly Jerusalem (Cp. Rev. 21)

[g]30 ¶ [c]And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, [d]four thousand and five hundred measures.
●31 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Iş'ra-el: three gates northward; one gate of Reū'ben, one gate of Jū'dah, one gate of Lē'vi.
●32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Jō'geph, one gate of Bĕn'ja-mĭn, one gate of Dăn.
●33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Sĭm'e-on, one gate of Is'sa-char, one gate of Zĕb'u-lŭn.
●34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Găd, one gate of Ăsh'ēr, one gate of Năph'ta-lī.
●35 It was round about [f]eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, [f]The LORD is there.

a See note g, v 21
b See note a, 48:1 for the division of the land to the tribes c The city of earthly Jerusalem will be foursquare with a wall and 3 gates on each side, and the names of the 12 tribes of Israel on the gates, as in the new heavenly Jerusalem (v 20, 30-34 with Rev. 21:12-16). The great difference will be in the size of the two cities. The earthly one will be about 10 3/4 mi. square while the heavenly one will be 1,500 mi. square, and the same measurement high d 4,500 by 4,500 reeds - about 10 3/5 by 10 3/5 mi. (v 20, 32, 33, 34)
e 18,000 reeds - about 43 mi. (v 35)
f This is one of a number of new names for the eternal earthly Jerusalem: Adonai-shammah, or Jehovah-shammah - The Lord is there, meaning literally what it says, for the Messiah will be there reigning visibly and eternally in Israel (Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-10) See names of Jerusalem, 440 war (38:20)

71 I will set My glory among the heathen (39:21)

72 All the heathen will see My judgment that I have executed upon Gog and all his mighty armies, and My hand that is laid upon them

73 The house of Israel will know that I am Jehovah their God from that day and forward (39:22)

74 The heathen will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their sins against Me, and that I hid My face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies to fall by the sword (39:23)

75 The heathen will know that I judged Israel according to their sins (39:24)

76 Now (after this battle of Armageddon is over and the judgment upon Gog and his armies is complete) I will bring again the captivity of Jacob (39:25)

77 I will have mercy on the whole house of Israel

78 I will be jealous for My holy name

79 After they have borne their shame and all their trespasses, when they dwell safely in their land with none making them afraid, when I have gathered them from all nations and have sanctified them in the sight of many nations, then will they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led away into captivity among the heathen: but have gathered every one of them again from the nations to their own land (39:26-28)

80 I will never hide My face from them again, for I will pour out My Spirit upon the house of Israel (39:29)

2 modern fallacies about Russia (38:3):

1 That Gog will come from Russia. This is certainly not stated here in Ezek. 38-39; even if Gog has been plainly declared as the leader of Russia, it would not necessarily mean that he would come from there

3 proofs Gog not from Russia:

(1) If Gog is the same as the future Antichrist (and he is, as proved below), he cannot possibly come from Russia, for Scripture reveals that he will come from inside the old Roman Empire territory. Dan. 7:8, 19-25 plainly shows that he will come from among 10 kingdoms inside that territory; and since Russia was never a part of the Roman Empire and will not be one of these from which Antichrist must come, then it is definite that he will not come from Russia. In fact, Dan. 7:8, 23-24 not only proves that he will come from inside the Roman Empire territory, but that Russia must be defeated in order that the 10 kingdoms may be formed. At the present time (1962) Russia controls Hungary, Bulgaria, Roumania, and other parts of the old Roman Empire territory; and these must be liberated from her for the 10 kingdoms to be formed

(2) In Dan. 8:9, 20-25 we have proof that Gog, or the future Antichrist, will come from one of the 4 original divisions of the old Grecian Empire which, itself became a part of the Roman Empire; that is, from Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt (see p. 874, 877). Since Russia never was a part of the old Grecian Empire we see again that the Antichrist or Gog could not come from that country

(3) Dan. 11:35-45 reveals that Gog, or the future Antichrist, will come from the Syrian division of the 4 sections of the former Grecian Empire. See notes on Dan. 7, 8, and 11. This also proves that he cannot come from Russia

2 That Russia will invade Palestine before Armageddon. There is not the slightest proof of this in Ezek. 38-39, which passages deal exclusively with Gog leading many nations, including Russia, down from the north into Palestine at the battle of Armageddon. Antichrist and not Russia will make an invasion before this. If Russia ever does invade Palestine before Armageddon, it will not be in fulfillment of any particular prophecy, especially not these two chapters-Ezek. 38-39

14 proofs Armageddon referred to here:

(1) Not one statement in these two chapters mentions a war in Palestine before Armageddon

(2) The battle of Armageddon is the only one predicted by the prophets of old time that could possibly be referred to in these chapters (v 17). Armageddon is mentioned many times by Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micah, and other prophets before the days of Ezekiel (Isa. 1:25-31; 3:25-26; 13:1-16; 24:21; 63:1-6; Jer. 25:30-33; 30:11, 20-24; Joel 2-3; Oba. 15-21; Mic. 1:3-4; 2:12-13; 5; 5-15; etc.)

(3) The destruction of Gog and his armies as in v 18-23; 39:1-6, 17-20 compares with similar statements about Armageddon in Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21

(4) Gog will not fall upon the open field until Armageddon (39:3-5; Rev. 19:11-21)

(5) The great supper for the fowls and beasts will be at Armageddon only (39:4, 17-20 with Mt. 24:27-28; Rev. 19:17-21)

(6) The presence of God as pictured in v 18-21; 39:1-6, 17-24 will not be until Armageddon (Isa. 63:1-6; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21)

(7) Supernatural destruction of Gog and his armies, as described in v 21-23 will not be until Armageddon (Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2-3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

(8) God will not magnify and sanctify Himself and set His glory among the heathen, as stated in v 23; 39:21-24 until He comes at the 2nd advent of Christ at Armageddon (Zech. 14:1-21; Mt. 24:29-31; Rev. 19:11-21)

(9) Gog will not bring the many armies of the nations into Palestine to be destroyed until the time of the 2nd advent of Christ, at Armageddon, as referred to in v 18-23; 39:1-7 and proved in Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21

(10) The great earthquake of v 20 will not take place until the 7th vial and the 2nd advent (Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 18:17-21; 19:11-21)

(11) God's presence will not destroy Gog and his army until the 2nd advent, at Armageddon (v 20; 39:2-7 with Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21)

(12) Gog and his army cannot be destroyed in a war in Palestine before the 2nd advent, at Armageddon, to fulfil v 18-23; 39:1-7, 17-20 and then be destroyed again at Armageddon to fulfil Isa. 63; Joel 2-3; Zech. 14. We must therefore recognize all these passages as referring to the same destruction-at Armageddon (Rev. 19:11-21)

(13) The burial of Gog and all his armies destroyed in the fulfillment of Ezek. 38-39 will be at the 2nd advent of Christ (39:11-16 with Dan. 7:11; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 19:11-21)

(14) It is at the 2nd advent of Christ that God's glory will be set among the heathen and Israel will be completely gathered and blessed (39:21-29; Zech. 14; Mt. 24:29-31; Rom. 11:24-29; Rev. 19:11-21)

2 invasions of Palestine by Gog (38:4):

1 The first will be in the middle of the tribulation of Daniel's 70th week, and only 10 kingdoms of the Revised Roman Empire will be with him (Dan. 11:35-45; Rev. 11:1-2). Between this war and the fulfillment of Ezek. 38-39 the combined nations of the north and east of the 10 kingdoms will make war on Gog and these kingdoms. He will leave Palestine and his capital (Jerusalem at this time), to go forth against these new enemies until they are defeated in the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 11:44)

2 The second invasion of Palestine by Gog will be at the end of the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, after he has conquered the countries north and east of his 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire boundary lines. By then he will have conquered Russia, and the many countries with her, becoming their ruler as well as being the ruler of the 10 kingdoms and the countries of the north and east. Gog will then lead all these to battle, and many other nations whom he has not yet conquered, but who will co-operate with him through the ministry of the 3 unclean spirits of Rev. 16:13-16. These vast armies being mobilized, will converge on Palestine in an effort to destroy Israel completely (Zech. 14:1-15) and stop Christ from setting up His kingdom on earth (Rev. 19:11-21). At this time all of Ezek. 38-39 will be fulfilled. Then, after this battle of Armageddon Christ will set up His kingdom on earth as predicted here; Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7; 11:1-12:6; 63:1-6; Jer. 30-31; Dan. 7:13-14; Mic. 4: Joel 2-3; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10

The only time Russia will invade Palestine in fulfillment of Scripture will be as one of many conquered nations under Gog or Antichrist, when he and his armies will fight against Israel and Christ at Armageddon-at the time of the 2nd advent. Russia will not be under Antichrist at the time of his first invasion of Palestine when he takes over Jerusalem and the Jewish temple as his capital; but she will be with him in the second conquest. The second will be necessary because of the Jews gaining control of Jerusalem again while Antichrist is away fighting against Russia and her allies in the north and east of the 10 kingdoms. Thus, after conquering these nations Gog will come back down into Palestine, surround the city, take half of it, and then be suddenly defeated in one day's battle (Armageddon) by Christ and the heavenly armies (Zech. 14:1-15)

Summary of Ezekiel

Date and place: written in Babylon about 622-600 B.C.

Author: Ezekiel the prophet. See Ezekiel in Index

Proof of authorship: the book itself testifies that Ezekiel wrote it (1:3; 24:24). His authorship has been little questioned by modern critics, although many attacks have been made upon the book itself

Theme: Ezekiel was commissioned of God to rebuke Israel in captivity for her many sins, for constant and ever deepening hardness against Him, and for rebellion against His word. He was inspired of the Holy Spirit, who gave him messages by direct revelation, to give many of his prophecies in pantomime. Of the 40 pantomines of Scripture listed on p. 816, 25 are by Ezekiel. His prophecies are of 4 general kinds: First, those concerning the immediate captivity of Israel and the complete destruction of Jerusalem; and the reasons for such judgment. These are found mainly in the first 24 chapters, with a few latter-day predictions. Second, prophecies of judgments upon other nations for their part in the sins and rebellions of Israel (chs. 25-32). Third, prophecies concerning Israel in the last days just before and up to the coming of the Messiah and Armageddon, with a few predictions of immediate judgment by Babylon (chs. 33-39). Fourth, prophecies exclusively of the millennial temple and the eternal reign of the Messiah over Israel (chs. 40-48). There is not a prediction in this section regarding anything before the Millennium. The prophecies of the third and forth points are simple and mainly concern 8 great truths:

1 The second and final regathering of Israel as a nation in Palestine to fulfil their part in the plan of God concerning their redemption and their restoration as a nation to await their Messiah from heaven (34:11-31; 36:1-15, 23-36; 37:1-28)

2 The battle of Armageddon at the return of Christ (38:1-39:20)

3 Rebuilding the temple by the Messiah for millennial and eternal worship, and as a capital building for Christ and His visible reign on earth eternally (40:5-43:12)

4 The sacrifices, offerings, feasts, and other solemnities of Israel under earthly priests and Levites (43:13-44:31; 45:9-25; 46:1-24)

5 The holy oblation, or the Lord's portion of the land (45:1-8)

6 The millennial and eternal river from the temple (47:1-12)

7 The millennial and eternal division of land for the tribes (47:13-48:29)

8 The new millennial and eternal earthly Jerusalem (48:30-35)

Purpose: to bring the ungodly Jews of Ezekiel's day to repentance that they might avert further judgment of God; to encourage the godly ones to continue being true; to reveal punishment of other nations for their part in the rebellious of Israel; to reveal a future restoration of the nation and the eternal reign of their Messiah on earth

Statistics: 26th book of the Bible; 48 chapters; 1,273 verses; 39,407 words; 310 verses of history; 530 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 433 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 953 predictions; 659 predictions fulfilled; 294 predictions unfulfilled; 345 commands; 25 promises; 80 questions; and 179 messages from God (1:2; 2:1, 3, 8; 3:1, 3, 4, 17, 22, 24; 4:1, 3, 4; 7:1, 5; 8:5, 6, 8, 12, 13, 15, 17; 9:1, 4, 5, 7, 9; 10:2, 5; 11:2, 4, 5, 7, 14, 16, 17; 12:1, 5, 8, 17, 21, 26; 13:1, 8, 11, 13, 17; 14:2, 4, 6, 12, 21; 15:1; 16:1, 35, 59; 17:1, 9, 11, 19, 22; 18:1, 3; 19:1; 20:2, 5, 27, 30, 33, 39, 45; 21:1, 8, 18, 24, 26, 28; 22:1, 3, 17, 23; 23:1, 22, 26, 35, 36, 47; 24:1, 15, 21; 25:1, 6, 8, 12, 15; 26:1, 15, 19; 27:1; 28:1, 11, 20, 25; 29:1, 8, 13, 19; 30:1, 6, 10, 13, 20, 22; 31:1, 10, 15; 32:1, 3, 11, 17; 33:1, 7, 10, 11, 12, 21, 23; 34:1, 7, 11, 20; 35:1, 6, 11; 36:1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 13, 16, 22, 33, 37; 37:3, 4, 9, 11, 15, 19, 21; 38:1, 10, 17; 39:1, 17, 25; 40:4; 42:13; 43:7, 13, 18; 44:2, 5, 9; 45:1, 9, 18; 46:1, 16, 18, 20, 24; 47:6, 13; 48:1, 10, 21, 22, 23, 30)

Gog (38:2)

Gog, roof or mountain. It is found 11 times: once of a Reubenite (1 Chr. 5:4); once in Rev. 20:8 with Magog which is representative of the nations from the four quarters of the earth that will rebel against Christ at the end of the Millennium; and 9 times of the chief prince of Mechech and Tubal (v 2-3, 14-16; 39:1, 11)

14 proofs Gog here is a person:

1 He is a chief prince of Mechech and Tubal (v 2-3; 39:1)
2 Personal pronouns are used of him (v 2-4, 6:11, 13-17, 21-22; 39:1-7)
3 He is leader of the great army that will fight at Armageddon (v 4-9, 11-23; 39:1-7)
4 He has a mind and thinks thoughts and makes decisions (v 10-12)
5 He goes from place to place like other persons (v 8-9, 11, 15-16, 18-39:7)
6 He has power of speech (v 11-12)
7 Others recognize him as a person (v 13)
8 Prophets predicted many things of him (v 17)
9 He is covetous as others (v 12-13)
10 He uses ordinary weapons (39:3)
11 He will fall in battle like others (39:4-5)
12 He is a local prince (v 2-3; 39:1)
13 He is spoken of as being clothed, having weapons, riding a horse, and doing many other things common to a person (v 4, 10-13, 15; 39:3-7, 11-12)
14 He will be buried like others (39:11)

Gog is the same as the little horn of Dan. 7 and 8; the prince that shall come of Dan. 9; the king of the north of Dan. 11; the man of sin, the son of perdition, and that wicked of 2 Th. 2; the king of Babylon of Isa. 13-14; the Assyrian of Mic. 5; the Antichrist of 1 Jn. 2; and the beast of Rev. 13. This is clear from a comparison of these passages with Ezek. 38-39. All these scriptures speak of a man who will come in the last days

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

History of Daniel - Prophecies of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia, Rome, Revised Rome, Revived Grecia, and the Eternal Kingdom of God - Seven World Empires from 616 B. C. into Eternity

CHAPTER 1

I Personal history of Daniel. 1 The time: first deportation (2 Chr. 36:5-8; Jer. 25; 52:28-30)

IN the [c]third year of the reign of Jĕ-hoi'a-kĭm king of Jū'dah [b]came Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar king of Băb'ĭ-lon unto Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord [c]gave Jĕ-hoi'a-kĭm king of Jū'dah into his hand, with [d]part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into [e]the land of Shi'när to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure [f]house of his god.

2 Daniel and his companions chosen (Isa. 39:7 fulfilled)

3 ¶ And the [g]king spake unto Ash'pe-năz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Is'ra-el, and [h]of the king's seed, and of the [i]princes;

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding [j]science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the [k]learning and the [l]tongue of the [m]Chăl-dē'anş.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the [n]wine which he drank: so nourishing them [o]three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among [p]these were of the children of Jū'dah, Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Ăz-a-rī'ah:

3 Change of their names

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs [q]gave names: for he gave unto Dăn'iel the name of Bĕl-te-shăz'zar; and to Hăn-a-nī'ah, of Shā'drach; and to Mīsh'a-el, of Mē'shach; and to Ăz-a-rī'ah, of Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō.

4 Daniel's purpose

8 ¶ But [r]Dăn'iel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs [s]that he might not defile himself.

9 [t]Now God had brought Dăn'iel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Dăn'iel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink; [u]for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Dăn'iel to Mĕl'zar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Ăz-a-rī'ah,

5 The ten-day test

12 [a]Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us [b]pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 [c]Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

6 The result: their provision

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Mĕl'zar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

7 God's blessings. Cp. v 20

17 ¶ As for these four children, [d]God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and [e]Dăn'iel had understanding in all [f]visions and [g]dreams.

8 Their superiority to others

18 [h]Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar.

19 And the king [i]communed with them; and among [j]them all was found none like Dăn'iel, Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mīsh'a-el, and Ăz-a-rī'ah: [k]therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them [l]ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Dăn'iel [m]continued even unto the first year of king Çў'rus.

CHAPTER 2

II Nebuchadnezzar's dream: 1 Chaldeans brought in

AND in the [n]second year of the reign of Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the [o]magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the [p]Chăl-dē'anş, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have [q]dreamed a dream, a See Jehoiakim, col. 4, p. 857

b Heb. bo, to go in the sense of set out. Nebuchadnezzar when he was not yet king, set out toward Jerusalem with his father's army, in the 3rd year of Jehoiakim, but he was delayed in the war with Egypt until the 4th year of Jehoiakim, the time when he was made king (Jer. 46:1-3; 2 Ki. 24:1; 2 Chr. 36:6-7). By the time Daniel wrote of this invasion Nebuchadnezzar had become king (v 1). Nabopolassar, the father of Nebuchadnezzar and the king of Babylon died while Nebuchadnezzar was besieging Jerusalem. He had to return quickly to Babylon, leaving his generals to conduct the Jewish captives to Babylon, among whom were Daniel and his companions (v 1-2; 2 Ki. 24:1-16)
c Isa. 39:6-7; Jer. 25; Ezek. 21:26-27
d The rest of the vessels were taken to Babylon later (2 Ki. 24:13; 2 Chr. 36:10) e See Gen. 10:10; 11:2; 14:1, 9
f This was the great temple of Bel, the chief god of the Babylonians g This was after Nebuchadnezzar was back in Babylon and made king in the room of his father Nabopolassar h Daniel and his companions were chosen to fulfill Isa. 39:1-8 (v 3-6)
i 8 qualifications demanded by the king:
1 They must be princes (v 3)
2 They must be youths (children, v 4)
3 Without blemish physically (v 4)
4 Handsome; good in appearance (v 4)
5 Well educated - skilful in wisdom
6 Skilful in knowledge (v 4)
7 Proficient in sciences (v 4)
8 Refined and polished so as to be able to stand before kings (v 4)
j History records 2 main periods of science: the Greek period from 600 B.C. to 200 A.D. and the modern period from 1450 A.D. to our day. Science began in Egypt and Babylon with the birth of mathematics, metallurgy, anatomy, and astronomy. To the Babylonians we owe the exact measurements of the lunar and solar cycles, the tracing of the paths of the planets, the division of the circle into 360 degrees, and the designation of constellations, notably those of the zodiac. Daniel was no doubt trained in all these sciences (v 4). The inscriptions show that there was a special palace school with elaborate arrangements for special education k Heb. sepher, book; literature (v 4, 17). History records the existence of huge libraries in Babylon with books classified on all subjects which could be secured from the librarian as in our day l This was a special department in the palace school for courtiers m They were a distinct class from Babylonians and other learned classes and belonged to South Babylonia (2:2, 4, 5, 10; 3:8; 4:7; 5:7, 11; Ezek. 23:23). In a wider sense the word is used of a nationality (5:30; Gen. 11:28-31; 15:7; 2 Ki. 24:2; 25:4-26; Job 1:17; Hab. 1:6) n Heb. yayin, to ferment. Used of every sort of wine (Gen. 9:21; 14:18; 1 Sam. 25:36-37; Isa. 28:1; Jer. 23:9)
o This was the length of the special training course for courtiers p See Names defined, p. 859
q Giving names to captives or foreign slaves was a sign of their being put under subjection (Gen. 41:45; 2 Ki. 23:34; 24:17)
r It seems that Daniel was the spokesman for the others (v 8, 11-17) s Evidently there were certain things of the king's table that had been forbidden by the law of Moses, hence he did not want to break the law and be defiled. It could be that the meat was not butchered properly (Lev. 3:17; 7:26; 17:10-14; 19:26) and that it was offered to idols (Ex. 34:15; 1 Cor. 10:20)
t Daniel's case is similar to that of Joseph in some respects:
1 In being a captive from his own people (Gen. 37)
2 In receiving favor from his captors (Gen. 39:21 with Dan. 1:9)
3 In interpreting dreams (v 17 with Gen. 37:5-11; 41:1-45)
4 In being exalted by rulers (2:46-49; 5:29; 6:26 with Gen. 41)
5 In holy living (v 8 with Gen. 39:12)
u Question 1, Next, 2:15

a This test was a challenge to Daniel's faith in God. There must have been an element of the miraculous in the result, for 10 days is not long to be able to tell a difference because of the eating of certain foods (v 15) b Heb. zeroim, seeds that which is sown. It consisted of vegetables and grains - wheat, barley, rye, peas, beans, lentles (v 12, 16; 2 Sam. 17:28). This does not mean that Jews were strict vegetarians, but that they could not legally eat of meats not properly killed and dedicated (note s, v 8) c Daniel knew that even without the special blessing of God they would not look any worse with legal and proper food than others who did not observe the strict dietary and health laws of Moses d This confirms the supernatural element in the training of these 4 youths. God blessed them physically when they took a stand for a proper diet (v 8-16). He also blessed them mentally and spiritually for their stand regarding His law (v 17) e Daniel had a special gift of God in understanding all visions and dreams - the gift of interpretation (similar in operation to the gift of interpretation of tongues of 1 Cor. 12:10, 30; 14:26-28). It was simply divine skill and understanding imparted by the Holy Spirit. Any gift of the Spirit is divine ability imparted by the Spirit of God dwelling in the one so blessed (1 Cor. 12:4-11). Daniel was to use his gift many times for God's glory, as seen in chs. 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10-12
f 4 Heb. words trans. "vision" in Daniel:
1 Heb. chazon, mental sight; dream; revelation; oracle (v 17; 8:1, 2, 13, 15, 17, 26; 9:21, 24; 10:14; 11:14). This could come in the form of divine utterance of words (9:24; 1 Sam. 3:1; Jer. 14:14; 23:16), a dream (Isa. 29:7), a writing (Isa. 1:1; Nah. 1:1; Heb. 2:2-3), or a mental picture while one is awake (8:1, 2, 13-17, 26; 9:21-24. Cp. Num. 24:4, 16)
2 Heb. chezey, sight; vision (2:19, 28; 4:5, 9, 10, 13; 7:1, 2, 7, 13, 15). This word is used of visions while asleep, known as dreams, as seen in these passages
3 Heb. marah, a vision as seeing something in a mirror; appearance (10:7, 8, 16; Gen. 46:2; Num. 12:6; 1 Sam. 3:15; Ezek. 1:1; 8:3; 40:2; 43:3)
4 Heb. mareh, sight; appearance (8:16, 26, 27; 9:23; 10:1; Ezek. 8:4; 11:24; 43:3)
g The 3 Heb. words trans. dream in Daniel, chalom (2:1-2), chelem (2:4-9, 26-28, 36, 45; 4:5-9, 18-19; 5:12; 7:1), and chalam (2:2, 3), all have the meaning of something seen while asleep. There are 24 dreamers and 34 recorded dreams in Scripture: 22 in the O.T. and 12 in the N.T. h At the end of the 3 years (v 5)
i Questioned them (v 20)
j All the captives from all nations k All 4 Jews stood before the king to advise on state and other matters l An idiom meaning many times better m He continued in office the rest of the 70 years captivity to the time of Cyrus (v 21; 9:2). It does not say that he did not continue longer, but this is when he wrote this book n About a year after Daniel was taken captive (note a, 1:1). This proves that Daniel was used even before his 3 years' training was up (1:5 with 2:1; Jer. 25:1). This was a year after Jehoiakim rejected God and burned the scroll (Jer. 36)
o See the study of magicians, astrologers, sorcerers, etc. in note b, Lk. 12:29 p This indicates that they were a special class from all others in Babylon q Daniel 2 is a vision of the great metallic image. In it we have the prophetic future of the world from Daniel's day into the eternal future when God will reign forever. It concerns the latter days in particular (2:28, 44-45)
4 parts to Dan. 2:
1 Details leading up to dream (v 1-16)
2 The dream revealed (v 19-35)
3 The dream interpreted (v 36-45)
4 The effects of the dream (v 46-49)

a All the king could tell the wise men of his dream was that he had had one and that it greatly disturbed his spirit (v 1-3). His wise men had made claims of power to reveal secrets and future events, except Daniel and his companions. Now, when the king needed them they could not live up to the claims of their supernatural powers. All branches of fortune telling and insight into the future by demons or by stars are limited. When God is involved in a case, as here, such other powers are absolutely helpless to operate even though under normal circumstances there may be a limited operation of those powers

b The Chaldeans, a group of learned Babylonians who taught all the arts and sciences of that day, became the spokesmen for all the others (v 4) c Heb. aramith, Aramaic, the language of Aram or Syria. The insertion of this word here is to call attention to the fact that what follows is not in Hebrew, but in Aramaic, which is true as far as the end of ch. 7. The Syriac and Chaldee are properly the Western and Eastern Aramaic. Other Aramaic portions are Ezra 4:8-6:18; 7:12-26; Jer. 10:11

d This is a common form of addressing a king in the East

e This was arbitrary and tyrannical in the extreme, but God overruled it for His glory (v 10-28)

f Perhaps they were stalling for time in hopes that the king would remember his dream. They knew by his troubled spirit and extreme demands that he would seek to recall it so he could get the interpretation of it (v 8-9)

g They told the truth, thus making it all the more clear that Daniel got his dream and interpretation from God (v 16-28)

h They knew that no such thing had ever before been decreed by any king and that it was impossible for any man to know the answer of himself, so, when Daniel gave the dream and the interpretation they knew that it had to be by the Spirit of the holy Gods, as they ever afterward acknowledged (4:8-9, 18; 5:11)

i They held that there were gods who dwelled in men. Here is one of 213 times in Scripture that the word Elohim (God), plural of Eloah is found. Its first use is in connection with the Gods of heaven - the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost (Gen. 3:5). Here it is clear as elsewhere that there is a plurality of persons in the Godhead, for "man is become as one of us" (Gen. 3:22). See also Ex. 22:28; 1 Sam. 4:8; Dan. 2:11; 4:8-9, 18; 5:11, 14; Mt. 3:16-17; 28:19; 2 Cor. 13:14; Eph. 4:1-7; 1 Jn. 5:7, note

j For the cause that the wise men were stalling for time and could not manifest their claimed supernatural powers, The king, seeing that he and his people were victims of deception, determined to rid his kingdom of them all, including Daniel and his companions (v 12-13). In a sense, the king was more honorable and just than the bragging magicians, sorcerers, astrologers, and Chaldeans. They claimed powers to reveal secrets and make known divine revelations, but in a crisis they could not produce k All, included Daniel and his 3 Jewish companions (v 13)

l Here we have Daniel's wisdom again exercised. He sought for time only once. How much time is not stated, but there was one night at least before the execution (v 19). The mission to slay was already being carried out (v 14). He did get a certain stay of execution from the king himself (v 16)

m Arioch, an ancient Babylonian name first used as the name of a king from Assyria (Gen. 14:1, 9). It is found elsewhere only in Dan. 2:4-16, 24-25

n Question 2, Next, v 26

o This verse not only shows that Daniel went to the king personally, but that he had absolute faith in God as to the revelation and interpretation of the dream. He promised the king both if he would only grant him time to pray to his God in the heavens - the one ruling all things (v 16) and [d]my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

2 Nebuchadnezzar's demand

4 [b]Then spake the Chăl-dē'ans to the king in[c] Sȳr'ĭ-ăck, [d]O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chăl-dē'ans, The thing is gone from me: [e]if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that [f]ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

3 Inability of the wise men

10 ¶ The Chăl-dē'ans answered before the king, and said, [g]There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is[h] no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chăl-dē'an.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, [i]except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

4 Nebuchadnezzar's resentment

12 [j]For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy[k] all the wise men of Băb'ȳ-lon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Dăn'iel and his fellows to be slain.

5 The prayer for wisdom

14 [l]Then Dăn'iel answered with counsel and wisdom[m] to Ă'rĭ-ŏch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Băb'ȳ-lon:

15 He answered and said to Ă'rĭ-ŏch the king's captain, [n]Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Ă'rĭ-ŏch made the thing known to Dăn'iel.

16 [o]Then Dăn'iel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 [a]Then Dăn'iel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hăn-a-nī'ah, Mĭsh'a-el, and Ăz-a-rī'ah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Dăn'iel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Băb'ȳ-lon.

6 The dream revealed to Daniel

19 ¶ [b]Then was the secret revealed unto Dăn'iel in a night vision. Then Dăn'iel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Dăn'iel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: [c]for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

7 Daniel brought in 24 ¶ Therefore [d]Dăn'iel went in unto Ă'rĭ-ŏch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Băb'ȳ-lon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Băb'ȳ-lon: [e]bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Ă'rĭ-ŏch brought in Dăn'iel before the king [f]in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man[g] of the captives of Jū'dah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Dăn'iel, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, [h]Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

8 Object and subjects of the dream: testimony of God

27 [i]Dăn'iel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar[j] what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, [k]thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

a When Daniel got a stay of execution to fulfill his promise of getting the dream and the interpretation for the king, he went to his own house and laid the proposition before his 3 brethren (v 17). The 4 of them united in prayer for a definite answer to be given within the specified time. The situation was acute - their lives were at stake! It was an answer or death by execution (v 18). Which would it be? Would God fail them after they had taken their stand for Him? Would not the God of the Hebrews show Himself strong in behalf of those who were depending upon Him for an immediate answer? The record is clear

b THEN: when they prayed - that very night God gave the same dream to Daniel that He had given to Nebuchadnezzar. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven for the answer and made ready to go before the king (v 19-26)

c 15 reasons for praising God:
1 Wisdom belongs to Him (v 20)
2 Power belongs to Him (v 20)
3 He changes the times (v 21)
4 He changes the seasons (v 21)
5 He removes kings (v 21)
6 He sets up kings (v 21)
7 He gives wisdom to the wise (v 21)
8 He gives knowledge to men who have understanding (v 21)
9 He reveals deep things (v 21)
10 He reveals secret things (v 21)
11 He knows what is in darkness (v 22)
12 He dwells in light (v 22; 1 Tim. 6: 13 He has given me wisdom (v 23) 16)
14 He has given me power (v 23)
15 He has answered prayer by revealing to us the king's matter (v 23)

d Daniel went to the executioner and saved the lives of the other wise men, then announced that he had the answer to the king's problem (v 24)

e Note Daniel's absolute confidence that he had the dream and the interpretation (v 24)

f Note the executioner's confidence in Daniel (v 25)

g Many times in history it has been a despised Jew who has solved the problems of men. This has been true of Abraham's seed, beginning with Abraham himself (Gen. 14), Joseph (Gen. 37-50), Mordecai (Esther 1-10), Jonah (1-4), Daniel (2-12), Jesus Christ (Jn. 3:16), and many others are among those who have saved great portions of humanity

h Question 3, Next, 3:14

i Daniel's first answer was to give glory to God, proving that He is the only true God and greater than all the wise men of earth (v 27-28)

j The primary object of the dream was to show Nebuchadnezzar what would befall his kingdom after his death, and to reveal all world empires from then into all eternity. The main part of the vision centers around what shall be in the latter days (v 28-45)

k Daniel revealed the very thoughts of Nebuchadnezzar the night he had the dream (v 29)

Jehoiakim (1:1)

Jehoiakim was raised to the throne of Judah in the place of his brother Jehoahaz by Pharaoh-necho, king of Egypt (2 Ki. 23:34-36; 2 Chr. 36:1-4). He continued tributary to Egypt for 3 years. In the 4th year, which was the 1st year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar (Jer. 25:1-3), who defeated Egypt at Carchemish on the River Euphrates, Judah, Syria and other countries were made subject to Babylon (Jer. 46:1-2). The 70 years captivity to Babylon began here (Jer. 25:1-11). Daniel was taken captive at this time. Jehoiakim served Babylon 3 years and then rebelled (2 Ki. 24:1-7). Nebuchadnezzar, being occupied in wars did not proceed against Judah for about 3 or 4 years. Then in the 11th year of Jehoiakim Babylon again conquered Judah (2 Ki. 23:36-24:7). Jehoiakim was made king but reigned only 3 months, for Nebuchadnezzar then carried him captive to Babylon and made Zedekiah king over Judah. He reigned 11 years and then rebelled, Babylon again came against Judah and destroyed the nation and the city Jerusalem taking most all the Jews captive (2 Chr. 36:11-21)

a Daniel took no credit to himself for the dream or the interpretation, nor did he claim any superiority over the other wise men, although Nebuchadnezzar, himself had found the 4 Jews 10 times greater in wisdom than all others (1:20)

b 12 reasons why an answer was given:
1 To save the lives of Daniel and his companions (v 18, 30)
2 To magnify God to be greater than all the wise men of Babylon (v 27-28)
3 To demonstrate that God answers prayer for those who depend upon Him (v 18-23)
4 To reveal that He is sovereign over all nations (v 19-23, 39-45)
5 To demonstrate the fact that God still is guiding human affairs (v 19-23)
6 To prove that God is infinite in knowledge and wisdom (v 21-23; Rom. 11:33)
7 To make it clear that God is the author of prophecies (v 23-45)
8 To prove that God is the only true God (v 20-30)
9 To testify that the true God is the God of Israel (v 23)
10 To prove that one receiving a revelation may or may not be a true child of God (v 29-30, 45)
11 To reveal the thoughts of men (v 30)
12 To make known the plan of God from Daniel's day into all eternity (v 29-45)

c 1st prophecy in Dan. (2:31-35. V 31-33a are fulfilled. V 33b-35 are unfulfilled). Next, v 38
The dream of Nebuchadnezzar:
1 The great image
2 Its brightness was excellent
3 It stood before the king
4 The form was terrible (v 31)
5 Head of image was of fine gold
6 Its breast and arms were of silver
7 Its belly and thighs of brass (v 32)
8 Its legs of iron
9 Its feet of iron and clay (v 33)
10 A stone cut out without hands smote the image on the feet breaking them to pieces (v 34)
11 The iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces together becoming like chaff of a threshing floor: and the wind carried them away and they were found no more (v 35). Together indicates all of them being united under the beast of Rev. 13, 17 in the last days
12 The stone that smote the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth (v 35)

d This confirms the statement of Daniel in v 21, "He removeth kings, and setteth up kings." God is still sovereign and can do as He wills among men. There is no power but of God (Rom. 13:1-8). He gives power to all created beings, but He is not responsible for how they use that power. He gave power to Satan and has not taken it away. He will judge him for the misuse of that power (Mt. 25:41). God has predicted the rise and fall of certain kingdoms and if any overstep His will in the exercise of their authority they will be judged by Him. At times God has to use unsaved men as rulers to carry out certain of His necessary purposes on earth. He raised up Pharaoh who would resist His will so that He could make His power known (Ex. 4-15; Rom. 9:17-24). The Assyrians were raised up to punish the 10 tribes (2 Ki. 17). Nebuchadnezzar was raised up to punish Judah for her sins and to fulfill prophecy (2 Ki. 24; Jer. 25). Thus God has worked and is still working among nations to bring about His eternal purpose of testing man and bringing him back to the place he was before the fall, so His original program can be carried out in the new earth as if man had never fallen (Acts 3:21; Eph. 1:10; 3:10-11; 2 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21-22). Satan and his agents seek to thwart God's purposes in the earth (1 Chr. 21:1; Job 1:6; 2:1; Ps. 109:6; Dan. 10:12-21, notes). Satan will be completely defeated at the 2nd advent of Christ and God's kingdom will then be set up upon the earth forever (Rev. 11; 12; 16; 19; 20). See The times of the Gentiles, p. 873

e It will be noted that some of these kingdoms of Dan. 2 and 7 are spoken of as ruling over all the earth (2:38-39; 7:23). See All, col. 1, 308 of N. T.

f 2nd prophecy in Dan. (2:38b-45. V 38b-40 are fulfilled. V 41-45 are unfulfilled). Next, 3:17. See Image interpreted, p. 873

30 [a]But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, [b]but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

9 The great image: five parts (Cp. 7:1-14)

✱31 ¶ Thou, O king, [c]sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

10 The interpretation. (1) Head of gold: third world empire to persecute Israel - Babylon (7:4; Isa. 13:1, refs.)

✱36 [e] This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: [d]for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

✱38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and [e]hath made thee ruler over them all. [f]Thou art this head of gold.

(2) Breast and arms of silver: fourth world empire - Medo-Persia (5:25-31; 7:5; 8:20; 11:1-2; Isa. 13:17; 21:2; 45:1; Jer. 51:11)

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee,

(3) Belly and thighs of brass: fifth world empire - Grecia (7:6; 8:21; 11:1-4; Joel 3:6; Zech. 9:13; Rev. 13:1-2; 17:3, 16-17) and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

(4) Legs of iron: sixth world empire - Rome (7:7, 17-24; 9:26; Lk. 2:1; Jn. 11:48)

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

(5) Feet of iron and clay: seventh world empire - Revised Rome (7:8, 20-24; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:12-17)

41 And whereas thou sawest the [a]feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with [b]miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were [c]part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and [d]partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, [e]they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

(6) The stone: ninth and last world empire - the kingdom of heaven on earth under Messiah (Isa. 9:7, refs.)

44 And [f]in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that [g]the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king [h]what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

11 God exalted: Daniel promoted

46 ¶ [i]Then the king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar fell upon his face, and [j]worshipped Dăn'iel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Dăn'iel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Dăn'iel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Băb'ў-lon, and chief of the [k]governors over all the wise men of Băb'ў-lon.

49 Then Dăn'iel requested of the king, and he set Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, over the affairs of the province of Băb'ў-lon: but Dăn'iel [l]sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER 3

III Daniel's brethren tested: the fiery furnace (Heb. 11:34). 1 Image made and set up

NĔB-U-CHAD-NĔZ'ZAR the king made [m]an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth a The feet and toes are to be the last form of the Roman Empire in the days of the 2nd advent of the Messiah. The feet represent the same as the two legs, the Eastern and Western divisions of the Roman Empire, the 4th kingdom of Daniel and the 6th kingdom of Rev. 17:9-11. The toes represent the final division of the Roman Empire into 10 kingdoms, ruled by 10 kings from 10 separate capitals. The last form of this empire was to be partly strong and partly broken, that is, partly weak (v 41-42). The weakness is symbolized by the clay which is easily broken: the strength by iron which breaks all other materials to pieces (v 40) b Chaldee, tin, mud. The same as the Heb. tit, mire (2 Sam. 22:43; Job 41:30; Ps. 69:14; Jer. 38:6; Mic. 7:10; Zech. 9:3; 10:5). Mud, not being very strong, represents the forms of government by popular majority which are weak in many respects compared to the rule of absolute monarchy, as symbolized by iron (Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 19:15) c Chaldee, min, a portion: or some of them, indicating that some of the 10 kingdoms would be strong as iron - the kings being absolute in power, while part of them would be weak - the kings being swayed by the popular will of their subjects. This condition of strength and weakness will not last even as mud cannot mix with iron (v 42-43)

e The kings represented by the 10 toes will seek to mingle themselves with the seed of men, that is, they will seek to be popular with their subjects and rule more or less by their wishes. The result will be that the clay will be broken up, the iron becoming predominant. Absolute monarchs will finally emerge from this mixture and they will be true kings in deed and not in word, having power to act as individuals. They will give their power to the beast after 3 of them are defeated (7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17)

f In the days of the 10 kings symbolized by the 10 toes on the image (v 41-45) and the 10 horns on the beasts of Dan. 7:7-8, 23-24; Rev. 13; 17:12-17, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom on earth that shall never be destroyed. It will break in pieces and consume or take over all the 10 kingdoms and shall stand forever (v 44; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10). This proves that the 10 kings are yet future and could not have been 10 barbarous tribes which overran the old Roman Empire in the 4th and 5th centuries after Christ. See proof 10 kings yet future, p. 874

It will be noticed in the headings of the text in 2:41 and 2:44, one kingdom is the 7th and the kingdom of God is the 9th. There is no 8th kingdom mentioned in Dan. 2, but there is in Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:9-11. Daniel does not see a little toe coming out of the 10 toes, plucking out 3 of the others by the roots; but in 7:7-8, 19-24 there is a little horn coming out of the 10 horns, and after them. He gets power over them by conquering 3 of them and by the others of the 10 kings then submitting to him without further war. This is the same as Rev. 17:9-17. The 10 kings give their power to the beast whose kingdom becomes the 8th kingdom. The 7th kingdom is that of the 10 kingdoms being independent as separate kingdoms, the 8th is made up of the same 10 kingdoms, only they are no longer independent. They continue under the beast for 42 months as subject kingdoms (Rev. 13:1-8; 17:9-17)

g The stone is a symbol of the kingdom of the God of heaven headed by Christ at His 2nd advent (v 45; 7:9-14, 18, 27; Isa. 9:6-7; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:31-33; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

h These are the events that shall come to pass from Nebuchadnezzar's day into eternity when the God of heaven reigns on earth (v 38-45; Isa. 66:22-24; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 21-22)

i 7fold result of the revelation, p. 859

j There is no indication that Daniel accepted this worship. Cp. Rev. 19:10; 22:8-9 k Chaldee, signin, prefects nobles. Occurs only here: 3:2, 3, 27; 6:7

l Daniel became chief officer of the palace and the greatest counsellor of the king (v 49)

m The image was 12 1/2x125 ft.

a Unknown, but perhaps at Babylon b When this was done is not known and all speculation is valueless c 8 main classes gathered to dedication:
1 Princes: satraps or privy counsellors who had access to the king at all times (3:2-3, 27; 6:1-7)
2 Governors: lieutenants, viceroys, nobles of the various provinces (2:48; 3:2-3, 27; 6:7)
3 Captains: pashas; deputy rulers of outlying provinces (3:2-3, 27; 6:7) or leaders of armies (1 Ki. 20:24; Jer. 51:23, 28, 57; Ezek. 23:6, 12, 23)
4 Judges: assistants to the king in making laws (3:2)
5 Treasurers: those in charge of the treasure houses (3:2-3)
6 Counsellors: lawyers; judges (3:2-3)
7 Sheriffs: supreme masters; civil magistrates (3:2-3)
8 Rulers of provinces: state and civil officers and various wise men (3:2-3) d Heralds were employed by kings to announce decrees (v 4), and to proclaim their coming (Mal. 3:1; Isa. 40:3). Otherwise they were used to proclaim the opening of games, the name and country of the contestants, and the rules of the contest
e A horn with a deep hollow sound, as well as one with a shrill and piercing tone f A wind instrument with a strong and shrill sound g A stringed instrument h Another type of harp
i Another stringed instrument
j Perhaps a tambourine or tomtom drum k Tradition says that Abraham was cast into such a furnace by this idolatrous people because he would not worship their idols l Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego (v 12). For some unknown reason Daniel and other Jews were left unnoticed or they were not present at this dedication m 3 charges against the Jews:
1 They have not regarded you (v 12)
2 They serve not your gods (v 12)
3 They do not worship the golden image you have set up (v 12) n Nebuchadnezzar (v 13) and Jonah (Jonah 4:1-9) are outstanding examples of being hasty and angry. Such is forbidden in Scripture (Eccl. 7:9; Tit. 1:7, Cp. Pr. 14:17; 22:24; 29:22; Mt. 5:22; Eph. 4:26)

Names defined (1:7):

Among the courtiers being trained were the 4 Jewish youths just brought from conquered Judah (v 6; 2 Ki. 24:1-16):

1 Daniel, meaning God is Judge, renamed Belteshazzar, preserve thou (O Bel) his life, or prince of Bel - the chief deity of Babylon (v 6-7; Isa. 46:1; Jer. 50:2; 51:44). It is explained 6 times in 12 chapters that Daniel's name was changed (v 7; 2:26; 4:8-9, 18-19; 5:12; 10:1). This indicates that Daniel did not like his new name. He uses his own name 75 times in his book. It is used 5 other times in Scripture (Ezek. 14:14, 20; 28:3; Mt. 24:15; Mk. 13:14)

2 Hananiah, meaning gift of the Lord, renamed Shadrach, command of Aku, the moon god

3 Mishael, meaning who is what God is, renamed Meshach, who is as Aku (v 6-7)

4 Azariah, meaning whom Jehovah helps, renamed Abed-nego, servant of Nego, or Nebo, the god of science and literature (v 6-7; Isa. 46:1)

7fold result of the revelation (2:46)

1 Had an overwhelming effect upon the king (v 46)
2 Brought glory to God (v 47)
3 Made Daniel a great man (v 48)
4 Brought him many gifts (v 48)
5 Made him ruler over all the province of Babylon (v 48)
6 Made him chief of the wise men (v 48)
7 Exalted Daniel's 3 brethren (v 49) thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of [a]Dū'rā, in the province of Bāb'ȳ-lon.

2 The dedication services

2 [b]Then Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king sent to gather together the [c]princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar had set up.

3 Command to worship

4 [d]Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,
5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the [e]cornet, [f]flute, [g]harp, [h]sackbut, [i]psaltery, [j]dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king hath set up:
6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning [k]fiery furnace.
7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king had set up.

4 Accusation of the three Jews

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chăl-dē'ans came near, and [l]accused the Jews.
9 They spake and said to the king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar, O king, live for ever.
10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:
11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Bāb'ȳ-lon, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō; [m]these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

5 Command to worship the image

13 ¶ Then Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō. Then they brought these men before the king.
14 Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar spake and said unto them, [a]Is it true, O Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?
15 [b]Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; [c]and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

6 Refusal of the three Jews

16 Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, answered and said to the king, O Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar, [d]we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.
*17 [e]If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.
18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

7 The harmless furnace

19 ¶ Then was Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar [f]full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.
20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.
21 Then these men were bound in their [g]coats, [h]their hosen, and their [i]hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō.
23 And these three men, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

8 The king amazed

24 Then Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar the king was [j]astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, [k]Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.
25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like [l]the Son of God.

a Question 4, Next, v 15
b The king in spite of his rage gave them an opportunity to meet his terms and and thus escape death by fire (v 15) c Question 5, Next, v 24. This question was a challenge to God and also to the Jews, to prove that their God was able to deliver from fire d Note how carefully they answered the king and how confident they were that their God was able to deliver them from the king. Whether He would or would not though, one thing was made clear. They would not serve idols or bow down in worship to the image (v 16-18)
e 3rd prophecy in Dan. (v 17, fulfilled, v 26). Next, 4:10 f When the king full of rage commanded the furnace to be heated 7 times hotter than usual, he only magnified God all the more (v 19, 25-28). In The Song of the Three Holy Children of the Apocrypha it is stated that the servants of Nebuchadnezzar kept throwing "rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood; so that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty-nine cubits." This was about 102 ft. The fire was so hot that it killed those putting the men in the furnace (v 22)
g Cloaks or mantles
h Chaldee, petesh, fine outer garment. Hosen is obsolete i The turban. The only place the word is used in Scripture. Herodotus who lived 100 years after Daniel said that the dress of the Babylonians consisted of a tunic of linen reaching down to the feet over which was a woolen tunic and over all a white short cloak or mantle. On their heads they wore turbans. One trans. reads, "in their cloaks, their turbans, and their upper (woolen) tunics, and their under (linen) tunics." All this should have caught fire quickly but instead there was not even the smell of smoke on them when they came out (v 27)
j Astonished or amazed k Question 6, Next, 4:30
l There is no definite article in the original language, so it reads, "a son of God," that is, an angel or a superhuman being. Nebuchadnezzar could not have known the N. T. revelation of the Son of God who was born of God and Mary (Mt. 1:18-23; Lk. 1:35; Heb. 1:5-7, notes). He, himself, acknowledged the being was an angel in v 28

15 facts about God; judgment (7:9):

1 Judgment thrones are set (v 9)
2 God is seen with the natural eyes
3 God is seen sitting on a throne, which means that He has a body the same as other persons who sit (v 9)
4 God wears clothing like others (v 9)
5 His clothing here is white (v 9)
6 He has a head like others (v 9)
7 He has hair on His head (v 9)
8 The color of His hair is white like pure wool (v 9). If He has a head and hair and wears clothing, then He must have a body (note r, Jn. 4:24; notes on God in Index
9 His throne is like a fiery flame
10 The wheels of His chariot-throne are like burning fire (v 9; Ezek. 1:15-20, 25-26; 10:9-13)
11 A stream of fire issues from before Him (v 10)
12 Innumerable servants minister before Him (v 10)
13 Innumerable others stand before Him (v 10)
14 The judgment is set (v 10)
15 The books are opened (v 10)

4 things concerning Antichrist (7:11)

1 He will speak great words (v 8, 11, 20, 25; 8:23-25; 11:36; Rev. 13:5)
2 He will be slain (v 11; 8:25; 11:45; Isa. 11:4; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:20). To be slain at the 2nd advent, he will need to be a mortal man of the last days - one who will die for the first and last time his own appointed death (Heb. 9:27). He therefore will not be some historical man who has died and been resurrected as an immortal man and an incarnation of Satan, as some believe
3 His body will be destroyed (killed, v 11, Cp. Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:5)
4 His body will be cast into hell (v 11; Rev. 19:20; 20:10) a The 3 Jews had claimed to serve the true and living God (v 17), so now the king recognized them as true servants of the most high God (v 26)

b They were examined carefully by all the great men of Babylon who were witnesses of this great miracle (v 27) c 4 miraculous things (v 27):
1 Bodies were immune to fire
2 No hair of the head was singed
3 Garments were not burned
4 No smell of smoke was upon them d Nebuchadnezzar was at least a man to recognize superiority. He always acknowledged God when His power was manifested (2:47; 3:28; 4:34)
e This explains the son of God idea expressed by the king who believed in many gods and many offspring of gods. To him any kind of supernatural being would be the offspring of a god f 5 things Nebuchadnezzar confessed (v 28):
1 God has sent His angel
2 God delivers those who trust in Him
3 God made him change his word
4 The Jews offered to give up their lives in order to be true to their God
5 There is no other God that can deliver after this sort (v 29) g A decree against any word of slander against God is a rare one h This was one mode of death in both Babylon and Medo-Persia (2:5; 3:29; Ezra 6:11)
i This was the 2nd promotion for the 3 Hebrew companions of Daniel (2:49; 3:30) j All the earth under Nebuchadnezzar – not all the earth outside his kingdom, which included only the modern states of Palestine, Trans-Jordan, Syria, Egypt, Lebanon, Irak, and Iran. The phrase all the earth must be understood in a limited sense, as explained of the limitations of the Antichrist's kingdom, p. 308 of N. T. k This was the 2nd proclamation or decree exalting God (3:29–30; 4:1–3. Cp. 2:47)
l Nebuchadnezzar, a heathen king, expressed two great doctrines of Scripture that very few Bible scholars understand or acknowledge today:
1 That God's kingdom is to be an everlasting one (v 3; 2:44–45; 7:13–14, 18, 27; Isa. 9:6–7; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:31–33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4–5)
2 That eternal generations of natural people will be on the earth (v 3; 2:44–45; 7:13–14, 18, 27; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6–7; 59:21; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:31–33; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 22:4–5) m This was the 2nd dream of prophetical events. Both times he was troubled and demanded his wise men to reveal the interpretation (2:2–16; 4:5–7). Both times all failed but Daniel 34 dreams of Scripture:

1 Abimelech, of Sarah (Gen. 20:3)
2 Jacob, of a ladder (Gen. 28:12)
3 Jacob, of ring-straked cattle (Gen. 31:10–13)
4 Jacob, of Egypt (Gen. 46:2)
5 Laban, of Jacob (Gen. 31:24)
6 Joseph, of brethren (Gen. 37:5)
7 Joseph, of brethren (Gen. 37:9)
8 Chief butler, of himself (Gen. 40:9)
9 Chief baker, of himself (Gen. 40:16)
10 Pharaoh, of famine (Gen. 41:1–4)
11 Pharaoh, of famine (Gen. 41:5–8)
12 A Midianite, of Gideon (Judg. 7:13)
13 Solomon, of wisdom (1 Ki. 3:3–15)
14 Elipha z, of a spirit (Job 4:12–21)
15 Job of terror (Job 7:14)
16 Nebuchadnezzar, of kingdom: (Dan. 2) (Dan. 4)
17 Nebuchadnezzar, of himself
18 Daniel, of kingdoms (Dan. 7)
19 Daniel, of kingdoms (Dan. 8)
20 Daniel, of God (Dan. 10:5–9)
21 False prophets, of lies (Jer. 23:27–32; 29:8) 10:2) 22 Diviners, of false things (Zech.
23 Joseph, of Mary (Mt. 1:20)
24 Joseph, of flight to Egypt (Mt. 2:13)
25 Joseph, of returning home (Mt. 2: 26 Joseph, of Herod (Mt. 2:22) 19)
27 The wise men, of warning (Mt. 2:12)
28 Pilate's wife, of Jesus (Mt. 27:19)
29 Cornelius, of an angel (Acts 10:3–6)
30 Peter, of animals (Acts 10:10–16)
31 Paul, of a man (Acts 16:9)
32 Paul, of going to Rome (Acts 23:11)
33 Paul, of safety (Acts 28:23–24)
34 John, of Christ (Rev. 1:12–18)

9 The king convinced

26 ¶ Then Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'-zar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, ye[a] servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shā'drach, Mē'-shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, [b]saw these men, [c]upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar spake, and said, [d]Blessed be the God of Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, who hath [e]sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

10 Nebuchadnezzar's decree

29 Therefore I make a [f]decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, [h]shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king [i]promoted Shā'drach, Mē'shach, and Ā-bĕd'-ne-gō, in the province of Bāb'ȳ-lon.

CHAPTER 4

IV Nebuchadnezzar's deposition. 1 The king's proclamation

NĔB-U-CHAD-NĔZ'ZAR the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in [j]all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 [k]I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! [l]his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

2 The dream

4 ¶ I Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a[m] dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

3 Interpretation desired

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Bāb'ȳ-lon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chăl-dē'-ans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but[a] they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

4 The dream recited

8 ¶ But [b]at the last Dăn'iel came in before me, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, according to the name of my god, and [c]in whom is the spirit of the holy [d]gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, [e]master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 [f]Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a [g]watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the [i]tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts [j]get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the [k]basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar have seen. Now thou, O Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

5 The dream interpreted

19 ¶ Then Dăn'iel, whose name was Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, [l]was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Bĕl-te-shăz'zar, let not the dream, or a In the first dream these same wise men promised to give the interpretation if he would only tell them the dream. Here he told the dream and they still failed (v 7).

b When all the magicians, astrologers, soothsayers, and Chaldeans had proved their powerlessness to interpret the dream, Daniel made known the true interpretation in one hour (v 6, 19) c The Holy Spirit was in Daniel and this is the way the heathen king expressed the fact (v 8, 9, 18; 5:11, 14)
d Chaldee, Elahin, Gods. A plural noun equal to Heb. Elohim used 2,700 times in the Bible of the true God, indicating plurality this many times even though often trans. in the singular. Elohim is trans. gods 213 times but should have been trans. Gods 2,700 times when used of the true God (see Trinity in Index)
e Master of magicians. Daniel was recognized as being greater than all the learned men and religious devotees of his day. There is no indication that he belonged to this class or any other mentioned here. These were no doubt followers of Zoroaster, founder of the ancient Persian religion and the wisdom of the Magi. They were originally a Median tribe and were invested early with priestly rites. They guarded the sacred fire, recited hymns at dawn, and offered sacrifices. They had a reputation for magic arts, studied astrology and astronomy, and claimed to be able to do many things beyond human power. For a more complete study of magical terms used in Scripture see note b, Lk. 12:29 f He had definite proof of this in Daniel's manifestation of the gifts of wisdom, knowledge, and interpretation referred to in Dan. 2

The prophetical tree vision:
1 I saw a tree in the midst of the earth
2 The height was great (v 10)

4 And was strong
5 The height reached heaven
6 All the earth could see it (v 11)
7 The leaves were fair (beautiful)
8 The fruit very much
9 It provided meat for all creatures
10 It provided shadow for all 11 It provided homes for all (v 12)
12 A watcher, an holy one (an angel) came down from heaven (v 13)
13 He cried aloud:
(1) Hew down the tree
(2) Cut off his branches
(3) Shake off his leaves
(4) Scatter his fruit
(5) Let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches (v 14)
(6) Leave the stump of his roots in the earth
(7) Let it be wet with the dew of heaven
(8) Let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth (v 15)
(9) Let his heart be changed from that of a man to a beast

h An holy angel from heaven at the command of watchers and holy ones (angels) carrying out the will of the most High (v 13, 17). These watchers oversee the affairs of men to enable them to bring about the will of God in the earth (v 17; 10:10–21; 11:1; 12:1; Mt. 18:10; Heb. 1:14)
i Great men are often compared to trees (Ps. 1:3; 37:35; Ezek. 17:5–6; 31:3; Jer. 22:15. Cp. Mt. 7:17–19)
j His courtiers, officers, etc. all abandoned him as soon as his insanity appeared. He was driven from them to eat with beasts for 7 years (v 25)

Interpretation of the tree vision:
1 Nebuchadnezzar, you are the tree (v 20-22. Cp. 2:38)
2 The watcher, an holy one sent down from heaven is an angel announcing the decree of the most High (v 23-24)
3 The decree is: You will become mentally deranged and men will drive you from your kingdom. You will imagine yourself one of the beasts of the field, eating and sleeping with them for 7 years, until you learn that "the most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever He will" (v 25)
4 The stump left in the ground with the roots held firm by a band of iron and brass means that your kingdom shall be sure unto you when your lesson is learned (v 26) c If some Bible scholars interpreted the Bible consistently they would explain the seven times during which Nebuchadnezzar was insane to be 2,520 years, for this is how they interpret the seven times of Lev. 26:18. They would also have Namaan dipping in Jordan 2,520 years (2 Ki. 5:10), and would give us many other foolish and unbelieveable interpretations of other events. One can see that this could not be the intended thought in any passage where the term seven times is used. Here it denotes 7 literal years. In Lev. 26:18 it expresses severity of punishment. In 2 Ki. 5:10 it means literally 7 times of dipping in Jordan. See The times of the Gentiles, p. 873
d 6th prophecy in Dan. (4:25-26, fulfilled). Next, v 31 e Who actually did this is not stated. It was not his enemies, for they would have killed him. The vision concerned his enemies (v 19) in the sense that his absence from the throne would be good news to them. He could not carry on any more invasions in such condition. His friends no doubt fulfilled this and protected him in his sojourn among the beasts. No new king was chosen in his stead. His kingdom was secure and waiting for him when he should become normal. His own son was regent during his father's insanity and he no doubt helped preserve the kingdom for him, which made possible the fulfilling of v 26 f Daniel's 3fold advice to Nebuchadnezzar:
1 Be open to my counsel
2 Break off your sins by doing right
3 Quit your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor (v 27)
g Here the change is to the historical narration (v 24-27)
h God was gracious and gave him 12 full months to check himself from going insane (see v 27)
i Question 7, Next, v 35. It was a great city. The walls of the square city were 14 miles long on each side, making 56 miles around an area of 196 sq. miles. Around the city was a deep and broad moat full of water, and beyond that the wall about 108 1/2 ft. thick and about 417 ft. high. There were 100 brazen gates. The houses were 3 and 4 stories high. Roads criss-crossed the city as in modern times
The city was built on both sides of Euphrates, the sections being known as the East and West districts. They were joined by a bridge 3,240 ft. long. At each end was a royal palace, the eastern one being defended by 3 walls, the outermost being 7 miles in circuit; the 2nd one 4 1/2 miles; and the 3rd 2 1/2 miles. There was also a tunnel under the river
The hanging gardens were 400 ft. sq. rising in terraces planted with trees of various kinds. The temple of Bel and other large buildings made Babylon the greatest city in the world j Claiming all glory to himself and not giving any glory to God was the downfall of Nebuchadnezzar (v 30). It was God who had chosen him and given him his great kingdom (2:19, 38). It was God who had warned him 12 months before (4:17, 26-27)

the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Bĕl-te-shăz'zar answered and said, My lord, [a]the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 [b]The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof [c]to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till [c]seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

25 That [d]they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

6 Advice given to the king

27 Wherefore, O king, [e]let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

7 Advice rejected by the king

28 [f]All this came upon the king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar.

29 At the end of [g]twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Băb'ў-lon.

30 The king spake, and said, [h]Is not this great Băb'ў-lon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom [i]by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

8 Dream fulfilled

31 [k]While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know [a]that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 [b]The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar: and [c]he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

9 The king's praise to God

34 [d]And at the end of the days I Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, [e]whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 [f]And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the [g]army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, [h]What doest thou?

36 [i]At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 [j]Now I Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER 5

V Fall of Babylon (Isa. 13:1; 41:2). 1 Belshazzar's feast

[a]BĔL-SHĂZ'ZAR the king made a [l]great feast to a thousand of his [m]lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Bĕl-shăz'zar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the [n]golden and silver vessels which [o]his father Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar had taken out of the temple which was in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 [p]Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

k Belshazzar was the son of Nabonidus and grand-son of Nebuchadnezzar. The inscriptions show that he was co-regent while his father went to meet Cyrus in battle. This chapter follows chs. 7-8 in chronology, for the vision of ch. 7 was seen in the 1st year and that of ch. 8 in the 3rd year of Belshazzar. The author no doubt put the message of this chapter here in order to keep the prophetical sections of 7:1-12:13 together o His grandfather. There is no word in Chaldee for grandfather. The word father is used of ancestors many times (1 Ki. 15:11-13; 2 Ki. 14:3; 2 Chr. 34:1-2; Rom. 9:10). Jeremiah settles the controversy of this statement by saying, "all nations shall serve him (Nebuchadnezzar), and his son (Nabonidus), and his son's son (Belshazzar), until the very time of his land come" (Jer. 27:7) p It was sinful enough for such drinking to be going on, but to use the sanctified vessels from the house of God in Jerusalem in such a drunken brawl was going too far (v 23). God remembered the times when they were used only for His service. He had been waiting for time to bring about the fulfillment of His word before taking vengeance for such desecration of holy things. The time had now come so He began writing on the wall (v 5) forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king [a]saw the part of the hand that wrote.

3 Its effect on Belshazzar

6 [b]Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

4 The wise men: their inability

7 [c]The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chăl-dē'ans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Bāb'ў-lon, [d]Whosoever [e]shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be [f]clothed with scarlet, and have a[g]chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the [h]third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: [i]but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 [j]Then was king Bĕl-shăz'zar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

5 The queen's advice

10 ¶ [k]Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 [l]There is a man in thy kingdom, [m]in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of [n]thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, [o]made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chăl-dē'ans, and soothsayers;

12 [p]Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Dăn'iel, whom the king named Bĕl-te-shăz'zar: [q]now let Dăn'iel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

6 Advice heeded: Daniel called

13 Then was Dăn'iel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Dăn'iel, [r]Art thou that Dăn'iel, which art of the children of the captivity of Jū'dah, whom the king my father brought out of Jew'rў?

14 I have even [s]heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but [a]they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, [b]thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

7 Belshazzar rebuked

17 ¶ Then Dăn'iel answered and said before the king, [c]Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God [d]gave Nĕb-u-chad-nĕz'zar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: [e]whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But [f]when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, [g]he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: [h]they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou [i]his son, [j]O Bĕl-shăz'zar, [k]hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, [l]which see not, nor hear, nor know: [m]and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and [n]whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 [o]Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

*25 ¶ [p]And this is [q]the writing that was written, [r]MĒ'NĒ, MĒ'NĒ, [s]TĒ'KEL, [t]Ū-PHĂR'SIN.

8 The writing interpreted

*26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MĒ'NĒ; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TĒ'KEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PĔR'ĔS; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Mēdes and Pĕr'sians.

29 Then [u]commanded Bĕl-b 5fold description of fear and terror:

1 The face grows pale
2 The mind becomes greatly agitated
3 There is weakness in the whole frame
4 The whole body trembles and shakes
5 A cry of distress is given (v 6-7. Cp. Job 4:12-21)

c Belshazzar followed the pattern of his grandfather, Nebuchadnezzar, in calling for the so-called wise men of Babylon (v 7. Cp. 2:2-19; 4:6-9)

d 3fold promise of reward: He shall 1 Be clothed in scarlet (v 7)
2 Have a chain of gold on his neck
3 Be 3rd ruler in the kingdom

e This proves that the writing was not in the ordinary language of the lords from the empire. Had it been in Hebrew, Chaldee, or some common language of the empire many could have read and interpreted it. The original may have been an heavenly language of angels or one of any number of earthly languages not known to men in the Babylonian Empire. Whatever it was it took a man gifted by the Holy Spirit, one possessing the gift of interpretation to read and interpret it. Cp. 1 Cor. 12:10-11,30; 13:1; 14:5,12-14,26-28. There is no indication here that Daniel could read this because he was acquainted with a particular language. This would be doing away with the supernatural element in the interpretation. It was done by the Holy Spirit as much as the previous interpretations were (2:19, 22-23, 26-30, 47; 4:8-9, 19)

f This refers to being clothed in royal robes of purple (Chaldee, argevan, purple, v 7, 29)

g The working of metals into various ornaments, household articles, and even deities is as old as Tubal-Cain (Gen. 4:22). Chains of gold around the neck indicated political dignity (v 7, 15, 29; Gen. 41:42)

h Rule as one of three, that is, be the third. Nabonidus, the king, was the first ruler. Belshazzar, as co-regent, was the second ruler. This would make Daniel the third ruler of Babylon; but he did not get to exercise this power due to the overthrow of Babylon that very night (v 29-31)

i As usual the wise men failed the king while Daniel became of service (v 8-9; 2:2-13; 4:7-9)

j 3fold effect of the handwriting:
1 It produced great agitation in the king (v 6, 9)
2 It changed the merry-making, happy, and jovial mood of the king to one of fear and terror (v 6, 9)
3 The lords were dumfounded (v 9)

k The merry-making ceased, the revelry stopped, and a death-like silence came over the banquet hall because of the handwriting. The queen broke the silence by informing the king of Daniel (v 10-12)

l It is always good to have a man of this type in any kingdom. It is even good to have such men in the church. They were plentiful in early times (1 Cor. 1:7; 12:4-11)

m The queen (v 10-12), Nebuchadnezzar (4:8-9,18), and others (5:14-16) recognized that the Holy Spirit was in Daniel third rulership over Babylon due to the fact that the Medes and Persians took over the kingdom that very night (v 30). Thus ended the kingdom of Babylon after holding Israel in captivity for 70 years (Jer. 25; Dan. 9:2) a They could not is a familiar phrase in connection with man apart from God 21 things men could not do:

1 Dwell together because of the abundance of their stock (Gen. 13:6)
2 Speak peaceably unto Joseph (Gen. 37:4) 8:18)
3 Produce lice (magicians, Ex.
4 Stand before Moses (magicians, Ex. 9)
5 Drink of waters of Marah (Ex. 15:23)
6 Stand before their enemies (Josh. 7:12; Judg. 2:14)

q The writing could not be understood until interpreted by Daniel. To teach that the original writing was in Chaldee, Hebrew, Samaritan, or any known language of the Babylonian Empire is to propagate fallacy, for if this had been the case some of the lords from all over the empire could have interpreted it without the divine help through Daniel. There is no indication that he could read it by his own natural ability. As to the words being in Chaldee they are translations of the original words in some unknown language

e Xenophon says he was slain by 2 lords, Gadatas and Gobrias, who joined Cyrus to avenge themselves of certain wrongs which Belshazzar had done them f Darius the Mede (5:31; 6:1–27; 9:1). Many have denied the existence of this king due to the fact that the word Darius was merely an appellative denoting the Maintainer, and was used as such by Xerxes and others. This Darius is not listed in secular history by the name of Darius the Mede. He is supposed to be Astyages. He reigned over Babylon before Darius I, II, and III of profane history. He is not mentioned elsewhere in Scripture outside of Daniel. Josephus speaks of him as being the son of Astyages and kinsman of Cyrus saying that he took Daniel into Media and exalted him as his chief ruler over the princes of the provinces trusting him with everything of importance in his realm (Josephus, Book X, ch. 11). Daniel speaks nothing of the war that raged between the Babylonians and the Medes, but the other prophets do (Isa. 13, 14, 45, 46, 47; Jer. 1, 51). The Medes and Persians were confederates in this war: the former under Darius and the latter under Cyrus. Both princes were supposed to have been present at the taking of Babylon g This gives the reason for the exaltation of Daniel over all the others which caused the jealousy of v 4–5 h When enemies cannot find fault at all in a man he must be perfect. They turned next to find some fault with his religion. There was none here so they made a scheme to entrap Daniel into disfavor with the king, appealing to Darius to make a law that would exalt himself and involve Daniel in law-breaking (v 6–9)
i They knew Daniel prayed 3 times daily, so guessed rightly that any law to stop his praying for 30 days would get him involved with breaking the command (v 10) j This shows the boldness and faith of Daniel. It was not unwise from any standpoint, for his religion and his God were involved in a challenge (v 5, 10) k He did not look toward the sun, as the fire-worshippers did, but toward Jerusalem, where the temple of Jehovah had stood and where the sacred presence had been in the Oracle. This seems to have been the custom among the Jews when away from the Holy City (1 Ki. 8:44, 48; 2 Chr. 6:34; Ps. 5:7; 28:2; 138:2; Jonah 2:4). Daniel's evening prayer was seemingly at the time of the evening sacrifice (9:21). The morning prayer perhaps was at the time of the morning sacrifice. Then half way between was the one at noon. David speaks of prayer as being in the morning, noon, and night (Ps. 55:17). Precise hours of prayer are mentioned in Acts 2:15; 3:1; 10:9

shăz'zar, and they clothed Dăn'iel with [e]scarlet, and [b]put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, [c]that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

9 The writing fulfilled

30 ¶ In [d]that night was Bĕl-shăz'zar the [e]king of the Chăl-dē'anş slain.

31 And/Dā-rī'us the Mē'dī-an took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER 6

VI Daniel tested: the lions' den (Heb. 11:33). 1 His prosperity in Medo-Persia

IT pleased Dā-rī'us to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Dăn'iel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Dăn'iel was preferred above the presidents and princes, [f]because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

2 Ancient politics

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Dăn'iel concerning the kingdom; [h]but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Dăn'iel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

3 The decree obtained

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Dā-rī'us, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, [i]that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Mēdeş and Pĕr'şians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Dā-rī'us signed the writing and the decree.

4 Steadfastness of Daniel

10 ¶ Now when Dăn'iel [j]knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber [k]toward Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, [a]as he did aforetime.

5 Daniel accused: a law-breaker

11 Then these men [b]assembled, and found Dăn'iel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; [c]Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to [d]the law of the Mēdeş and Pĕr'şians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Dăn'iel, which is of the children of the captivity of Jū'dah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

6 The king's efforts

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was [e]sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Dăn'iel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Mēdeş and Pĕr'şians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

7 Cast into the lions' den

*16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Dăn'iel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Dăn'iel, [f]Thy God whom thou servest [g]continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And [h]a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Dăn'iel.

8 Daniel delivered by God

18 ¶ Then [i]the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Dăn'iel: and the king spake and said to Dăn'iel, O Dăn'iel, servant of the living God, [j]is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Dăn'iel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his [k]angel, and hath [l]shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O

a No new law could make Daniel quit praying to the God he had served so faithfully 80 to 90 years – the one who had spared his life by revelations being granted (2:18), and who had answered him on other occasions of crisis (4:8–9; 5:13)
b Just as his enemies expected, Daniel was found true to his God and times of prayer, so they reported to Darius, who was very sorry he had made a law that would involve Daniel (v 11–22)
c Question 10, Next, v 20
d It was customary among Medes and Persians when a law was duly passed and sealed by the king's seal that even he, himself, would not change it (v 15). In the case of Ahasuerus making a decree for the slaughter of the Jews (Esther 3:13), he would not reverse it, even at the request of his queen (Esther 8:5) but he issued another edict which neutralized the first one (Esther 8:11). Thus one irreversible edict was completely neutralized by another just as irreversible; and the king continued to act his part of being infallible and free from the weakness of repentance e Note the contrast between this king and Nebuchadnezzar, when his law was disobeyed (3:13, 19). This one was displeased with himself because he had been tricked into making such a law. He sought to deliver Daniel, laboring to do so all day, but the enemies of Daniel held the king to his law as one which could not be altered (v 14–15)
f 9th prophecy in Dan. (6:16, fulfilled). Next, 7:2
g Daniel had literally served God continually for 80 to 90 years and had experienced many demonstrations of his union with God. The king had absolute faith in the ability of God and in Daniel's power with God to deliver him from the lions. Daniel now had the same opportunity of showing his faith in God as did the 3 Jews of ch. 3. The lions were no less terrible than the fiery furnace, God had power over both and His own chosen ones were delivered (3:27; 6:22)
h All this precaution served to prove to Darius and his lords that it was the power of God which delivered Daniel. There could be no trick played that would deliver Daniel from such a place. The same precaution was used in the case of Christ in the tomb, but this only served to prove the certainty of the resurrection (Mt. 27:63–66; 28:12–15)
i This shows the affection Darius had for Daniel. Cp. v 19, 23–27

9 His enemies destroyed

23 [a]Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Dăn'iel up out of the den. So Dăn'iel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, [b]because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Dăn'iel, and they [c]cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or [d]ever they came at the bottom of the den.

10 Darius' decree: seven reasons

25 ¶ Then king Dā-rī'us wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Dăn'iel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Dăn'iel from the power of the lions.

28 [e]So this Dăn'iel prospered in the reign of Dā-rī'us, and in the [f]reign of Çў'rus the Për'sian.

CHAPTER 7

VII Daniel's first vision: the four beasts (cp. 2:31-35). 1 The vision (7:1-14). (1) Four winds and the four beasts. v 17. Cp. 2:31-35

IN the first year of Bĕl-shăz'zar king of Băb'ў-lon Dăn'iel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Dăn'iel spake and said, [h]I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the [i]four [j]winds of the heaven strove upon the [k]great sea.

3 And four great [l]beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

(2) First beast: a lion; third world empire to persecute Israel - Babylon (2:36, refs.)

4 [m]The [n]first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

(3) Second beast: a bear; fourth world empire - Medo-Persia (2:39a)

5 And behold another beast, a second, [o]like to a bear, and it raised up itself on [p]one side, and it had [q]three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

(4) Third beast: a leopard; fifth world empire - Grecia (2:39b; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:3, 8-17)

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, [r]like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

(5) Fourth beast: non-descript; sixth world empire - Rome (2:40, refs.)

7 [s]After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a [t]fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

(6) Ten horns and the "little horn": Revised Rome and Revived Grecia. (See notes v 24 and Rev. 13 and 17)

8 [u]I considered the horns, and, behold, [v]there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, [w]in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

(7) The judgment: A The judge

9 ¶ I beheld [x]till the thrones were [y]cast down, and the [z]Ancient of days [y]did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

B The judgment administered

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

C The "little horn" destroyed (8:25; 9:27; 11:45; 2 Thess. 2:8; Isa. 11:4; Rev. 19:19-21; 20:10)

11 [aa]I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

D The beasts preceding the reign of the "little horn"

12 As concerning the [ab]rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

(8) Second advent of Mesa The king had power to save Daniel from being put in the den of lions and to change his law, but how could he save face by doing so? Now that Daniel was delivered by such a miracle, he could act boldly and decisively to free him and punish Daniel's enemies, without being accused of changing his law through personal weakness and fallibility (v 23)

b This is referred to in Heb. 11:33

c Such quick destruction of others put into the den only proved more fully that Daniel was miraculously delivered, and illustrated the power of faith in God (Heb. 11:33)

d See 7fold decree of Darius, p. 863

e The second time the length of Daniel's prosperity in Babylon and Medo-Persia is mentioned (v 28; 1:21)

f Two different reigns are referred to here, proving that this Cyrus was not the same as Darius of Gen. 5:31; 6:1; 9:1, the Artaxerxes of Neh. 2:1, or the Ahasuerus of Esther 1, as some scholars claim g Two visions of Daniel were seen in the reign of Belshazzar (chs. 7 and 8). Two dreams were seen by Nebuchadnezzar (chs. 2 and 4). This vision was seen about 3 years before events of ch. 6, Cp. 6:1 with 8:1. This chapter, which was in Chaldee, completes the whole Chaldee section of Daniel (2:4-7:28). Because of the difference in the Chaldee and Hebrew sections of the book, some have sought to make one section concern Israel and the other Gentiles. There is no ground for such theory. The whole of the visions of Daniel concerns both Jews and Gentiles in the latter days, as we have seen in ch. 2, and will yet see in the following studies h 10th prophecy in Dan. (7:2-14. V 2-7, 12 are fulfilled: v 8-11, 13-14 are unfulfilled). Next, v 17

i Here we have the beginning of the vision in symbols. The interpretation is given in v 17-27. The vision concerns the same kingdoms as symbolized by the great image in Dan. 2, with some additional facts. In Dan. 2 Nebuchadnezzar is shown the Gentile world kingdoms from his day to the 2nd advent of Christ. They are pictured there, from man's standpoint, as a great and beautiful metallic image. In Dan. 7 God shows Daniel the same kingdoms from God's standpoint as ferocious wild beasts (7:17)

j Winds in symbolic passages denote wars, strife, and judgments from God (v 1-3; 8:7-13 with Jer. 25:32-33; Rev. 7:1-3) k Seas in symbolic passages represent peoples (v 17; Rev. 13:1; 17:1, 15)

l Beasts in symbolic passages represent kingdoms (v 17, 23-24; 8:20-23; Rev. 17:8-11) and their rulers (Rev. 11:7; 13:18; 17:8)

m 35fold vision - 4 great beasts, p. 863

n The theory that Babylon is not symbolized by the lion because Daniel saw the 4 beasts rise out of the sea, showing they were all future kingdoms after his day, is not proved by the mere fact that Daniel saw them rise out of the sea. The image of Dan. 2 was also seen during the time after Babylon had already risen, yet Daniel said to Nebuchadnezzar, "Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom", etc. If Babylon could be symbolized by a head of gold after it had already risen, then the same kingdom could be symbolized by a lion after it had risen. The king of Babylon is compared to a lion (Isa. 5:29; Jer. 4:7; 50:17, 44-46). The eagle's wings identify Babylon for the kingdom is compared to an eagle (Jer. 48:40; Ezek. 17; Hab. 1:6-8). The wings denote the swiftness of the conquests of Nebuchadnezzar. In just a few years he made a vast empire. The wings being plucked and the lion standing upon its feet as a man with a man's heart being given to it symbolize the conquests of Nebuchadnezzar coming to an abrupt end by his insanity and his becoming sane again - as a man (4:33, 36)

o This is a fitting symbol of Medo-Persia because of their cruelty, thirst after blood, their robberies, and love of spoil (Isa. 13:16-18; Jer. 51:48-56). The largest species of bear are found in the mountains of Media a This symbolizes the strength of the Persians compared to the Medes. It is the same thought as the higher horn of the ram in 8:3 - Cyrus the Persian who was greater than Darius the Mede (5:31) and who came up last (2 Chr. 36:20-23; Ezra 1:1-8; 3:7; 4:5; Isa. 44:28; 45:1). This kingdom is mentioned in 5:24-31; 6:1-28; 7:5, 17; 8:1-4, 20; 10:1-20; 11:1-2; Isa. 13:17-22; 21:2; 2 Ki. 17:6; 18:11; Esther 1:1-3:3

b This symbolizes the conquest of Babylon, Lydia, and Egypt by the Medes and Persians. The bear devoured much flesh (v 5) c A leopard is a fit symbol of the Grecian Empire founded by Alexander the Great. The leopard is known for its swiftness. This, together with the 4 wings of a fowl, symbolizes the swiftness of Alexander's conquests. Previously, the 2 wings of the lion symbolized swiftness, but here the 4 wings symbolize double swiftness of Alexander over Nebuchadnezzar's conquests. None of the conquests of other beasts equaled those of Alexander. The 4 heads symbolize the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire after the death of Alexander, as do the 4 horns of 8:8, 22-23 (see notes). Heads always symbolize kingdoms (v 6; 8:20-23; Rev. 17:9-11). This kingdom is mentioned in 2:32, 35, 39, 45; 7:6, 17; 8:5-25; 10:20; 11:3-45; Zech. 8:13

d The phrase after this indicates that the 4th kingdom would follow the preceding one - Greece (v 6, 7)

e The 4th beast is a symbol of the old Roman Empire, the 4th of 4 kingdoms in succession. It is mentioned by name only in the N. T. (Jn. 11:48; Acts 2:10; 16:21; etc.). This is a non-descript beast for there is nothing on earth to compare it with. It is a dreadful, terrible, strong beast with great iron teeth symbolizing the same as the iron on the image of 2:40-43. In fulfillment it devoured the other beasts and stamped upon them with its feet, meaning it conquered all the territories of the first beasts - Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. It was different from all beasts before it, not only in a republican form of government, but also in power, greatness, extent of dominion, and length of duration. The 10 horns symbolize 10 kingdoms in the latter days, the last form of the old Roman Empire (v 7-8, 23-24; Rev. 13; 17:8-17). Horns always symbolize kings (v 7-8, 23-24; 8:8-9, 20-23; Rev. 17:8-17)

f The horns were the last parts of the beast seen by Daniel, and are therefore, considered last here (v 8, 23-24; Rev. 17:12-17)

g The little horn came up last after the 10 horns were fully grown. It plucked up 3 of the 10 by the roots, symbolizing the Antichrist, coming in the days of the formation of Rome into 10 kingdoms. He will overthrow 3 of them and the others will submit to him without further war (v 8, 23-24; Rev. 17:11-17)

h This little horn is a man who speaks blasphemies against God (v 8, 25; 11:36; Rev. 13:1, 5; 17:3)

i From the time of Babylon until the judgment of v 9-10, the defeat of Antichrist and the 2nd advent of Christ of v 11-14

j Thrones of judgment were set or placed. This refers to the judgment of the nations (v 26; Mt. 25:31-46) k This is God the Father, not Christ who is seen as a separate person from the Ancient of days in v 13-14. Both are seen as separate persons by the same prophet and at the same place, so there must be at least 2 persons in the Godhead. The fact is, there are 3. See The Trinity, p. 280 of N. T.

l 15 facts about God: judgment, p. 859

m 4 things concerning Antichrist, p. 859

n The beasts or kingdoms preceding the little horn will each reign for a season and a time, then pass away allowing a succeeding one to come until the little horn comes whose kingdom is the 8th and last kingdom before the 2nd advent of Christ and the establishment of the kingdom of heaven on earth forever (v 12-14, 18, 27; 8:20-25; 9:27; 11:35-45; 12:1-13; Mt. 24:15-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Jude 14; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:8-17; 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

a ONE, the Son of Man, the Lord Jesus Christ, not the Ancient of days of v 9-10, but ANOTHER ONE separate and distinct from Him came with the clouds of heaven (v 13). This definitely is the 2nd coming of Christ: pictured here: Isa. 63:1-6; Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 26:64; 2 Th.1:7-10; 2:8; Jude 14; Rev. 1:7; 11:15; 19:11-21. See The Trinity, p. 280 of N. T.

b If He comes to the Ancient of days, then He is not the Ancient of days. If they bring Him (the Son of man) near before Him (the Ancient of days), then it is confirmed twice in one scripture that these are two separate persons, each having His own personal body, soul, and spirit (The Trinity, p. 280 of N.T.)

c The Son of man receives dominion, glory, and a kingdom composed of natural peoples of all races that they may be His subjects eternally. His kingdom is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom shall not be destroyed

3 great Bible truths:

1 Christ will receive a kingdom at His 2nd advent (v 13-14; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Jude 14; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10; Zech. 14)

2 His kingdom will be an eternal one (v 13-14, 18, 27; 2:35, 44-45; 4:3; 6:26; Ps. 45:6; 145:13; 146:10; Isa. 9:6-7; Oba. 21; Mic. 4:7; Mt. 25:31-46; Lk. 1:32-33; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

3 His eternal subjects will be the coming eternal generations of natural people who will continue the same program that Adam and his race would have carried out if man had not fallen (v 13-14, 18, 27; 2:44-45; Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:21; Rev. 11:15; point 8, p. 312, col. 4)

d This is another proof that the spirit of man and his body are two distinct things (Mt. 10:28); that the spirit exists separate from the body (Lk. 16:19-31; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Jas. 2:26; Rev. 6:9-11); and that the spirit is immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note)

e I went up to one (of the many thousands) standing before the judgment thrones (v 10) and he made known to me the interpretation (v 16-27). This was perhaps Gabriel, Daniel's helper in other visions (8:16; 9:21)

f 11th prophecy in Dan. (7:17-27, V 17, 19, 23 are fulfilled; v 18, 20-22, 24-27 are unfulfilled). Next, 8:3

g See 15fold interpretation, p. 874

h The teeth of iron picture the Roman Empire element as revealed in the legs of iron and the feet, part of clay and iron of 2:40-43

i This is something added by the one giving the interpretation, and not mentioned in the description of the beast in v 7-8. They symbolize the Grecian Empire element of the image of 2:39, 45. There would no doubt be 10 claws corresponding to the 10 toes of 2:40-43 and the 10 horns of 7:7-8, 23-24; Rev. 17:8-17

j The 1st and 2nd comings of God the Father to the earth. The Bible not only teaches the 1st and 2nd comings of Jesus Christ to the earth, but also two comings of the Father:

1 The 1st coming of God the Father will be at the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ to the earth (v 9, 13-14, 22; Zech. 14:5; Tit. 2:13). At this time God comes to help Christ defeat and destroy the Antichrist kingdom (v 21-22). He then gives the kingdom over to the Son (v 13-14) and the saints (v 18, 27). Christ will then be king over all the earth (v 13-14, 27; Zech. 14:9; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5). The Father goes back to heaven to remain for the first 1,000 years of the eternal reign of Christ and until He has rid the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10)

2 The 2nd coming of God the Father to the earth will be at the end of the Millennium when Christ has rid the earth of all rebels. God will then become all and all on earth as before rebellion was started by Lucifer and later by Adam (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10). He will then move His capital city from the planet heaven to the planet earth to be among men forever (Rev. 21:1-7, 9-10; 22:1-5)

siah (Isa. 9:1, refs.; Mt. 24:29; 25:31; notes t-x, 2 Th. 1:7)

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, [a]one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and [b]came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given [c]him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

2 The interpretation (7:15-28). (1) The angelic interpreter

15 ¶ I Dăn'iel was grieved in my [d]spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

■16 I came near unto [e]one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

(2) The four beasts: four kings or kingdoms (v 19, 23; 8:21; 2:31-45)

★17 [f]These great beasts, which are four, [g]are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

(3) Ninth and last world empire (2:44-45; Isa. 9:6, refs.)

18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

(4) Daniel's inquiry

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, [h]whose teeth were of iron, and [i]his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

(5) Daniel's further vision of the "little horn" who makes war with the saints "until" 3 things happen

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the [j]Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

(6) Fourth beast: fourth kingdom of Daniel and the sixth of Rev. 17:8-17 - Rome (2:40, refs.)

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, [k]which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the [l]whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

(7) Ten horns: ten kings of the ten kingdoms making the fifth world empire of Daniel and the seventh of Rev. 17:8-17 - Revised Rome (Dan. 2:41, refs.)

24 And the [a]ten horns [b]out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise:

(8) "Another... after" the ten horns: the little horn, the Antichrist, the king of the sixth kingdom in Daniel and the eighth of Rev. 17:8-11 - Revived Grecia (Dan. 2:39b and 7:11, refs.)

and [c]another shall rise [d]after them; and he shall be diverse [e]from the first, and [f]he shall subdue three kings.

(9) His war with the saints and the time and length of his reign (8:23-25; 9:27; 11:35-45; 12:1, 7; Mt. 24:15-31; 2 Thess. 2:1-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2; 19:11-21)

25 And [g]he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall [h]wear out the saints of the most High, and [i]think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

(10) The judgment of the nations ending the reign of the "little horn" or Antichrist and all earthly kingdoms and the establishment of the eternal kingdom of Messiah (2:44-45; 7:9-14, 18; 8:25; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-36; Isa. 9:6, refs.; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 22:5)

26 But the judgment shall sit, and [j]they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy [k]it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under [l]the whole heaven, shall be given [m]to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and [n]all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Dăn'iel, [o]my cogitations much [p]troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER 8

VIII Daniel's second vision: the ram and the he-goat. 1 The vision (8:1-14).

(1) The time

IN the [q]third year of the reign of king Bĕl-shăz'zar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Dăn'iel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shu'shan in the a The 10 horns symbolize 10 kings who will rule 10 kingdoms that are yet to be formed inside the old Roman Empire (v 24). See 8 mountain kingdoms and Israel, p. 311 of N. T.

b No revived Roman Empire taught:

If, as many Bible students teach, there will be a revived Roman Empire, we are to expect only one king over one kingdom formed inside the old Roman Empire territory. This is not what is stated here, though. It is not one horn on the beast symbolizing one king reigning from Rome over one kingdom, as was true of the old Roman Empire, but 10 kings out of this kingdom. This means that there will be a revised Roman Empire, not a revived empire. This further means that there must be another great European, Asiatic, and African war to form 10 future kingdoms out of the 24 present states of the old Roman Empire territory (v 23-24). That these 10 kingdoms are yet future and will exist and reign together inside the old Roman Empire territory is clear from 10 proofs given in 8 mountain kingdoms, p. 311 of N.T. They will not include all the world - only the then Roman Empire, only a part of southern Europe, western Asia, and northern Africa. See 10 kings, not barbarous tribes, p. 874

c Another, refers to an 11th horn, the little horn, symbolizing an 11th king who will come out of one of the 10 kingdoms and use it to overthrow 3 others (v 7-8, 20, 23-24; 8:20-25; 11:35-45). The other 6 of the 10 will then submit to him, the Antichrist, without further war. God at that time will put it into the hearts of all the 10 to agree and give their power to the beast to fulfill prophecy (Rev. 17:8-17). See The little horn, p. 874

d After them, after the 10 kingdoms are formed inside the old Roman Empire territory, the little horn or Antichrist shall arise, and not before them. See 16 Antichrist fallacies, p. 874

e Different from the 10 kings

f If he subdues 3 kingdoms, then he does not come in peace to obtain a kingdom, as some teach

h Chaldee, bela, wear out or down, afflict i Chaldee, sĕbar, purpose, hope. He will change times and laws and they will be given into his hands for 3 1/2 years (v 25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5)

j Like all other ambitious world conquerors he will come short of conquest of the whole world (v 26; 8:24-25; 11:40-45; Rev. 19:11-21)

k To reveal the events that will end this age of grace is the primary purpose of this vision (v 26-27; 8:24-26; 9:27; 11:40-45; Rev. 4:1-19:21)

l This is to be taken literally, not figuratively, as in the references to the extent of the world empires of 2:38, 39, 40; 7:23; Rev. 13:8, 16. There is no limitation to the extent of the coming kingdom of God, as with the human kingdoms in the times of the Gentiles. See Extent of Antichrist's reign, 308

m 3 times in this chapter it is stated that the saints of God will take over the kingdoms of the world following the kingdom of Antichrist (v 18, 22, 27). Also, 3 times is it stated that the kingdom will be eternal (v 13-14, 18, 27)

n All earthly kingdoms will eventually be under God as before rebellion started by Lucifer and later by Adam (v 27; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21-22)

o Chaldee, rayon, thought, mental conception p Baffled me, indicating that Daniel did not fully comprehend the extent of his vision

q This vision came 2 years later than the one in ch. 7, giving additional information on some questions. Each vision was complete in itself, but both helpful to an understanding of the whole truth of the future. This vision was originally recorded in Hebrew, the Chaldee section (2:4-7:28) having been completed. The time of the vision was at the end of the reign of Belshazzar which corresponds to the time of the handwriting on the wall of ch. 5, for he only reigned a little more than 2 years. If Babylon had not fallen yet, then it must be understood that Daniel was on official business in Persia (v 2). Shushan was the chief city of Persia a The Hebrew name of a region lying east of Babylonia and extending to the mountains of Media to the northeast, and along the Persian Gulf to the borders of ancient Persis in the south. Its 2 divisions were Elam proper in the north and Anshan in the south, the latter being an independent kingdom until it was annexed by Persia about 600 B.C. Cyrus the Great was hereditary "Prince of Anshan." The capital of Elam was Susa or Shushan. The Elamites were from Shem (Gen. 10:22). Elam was a rival of Babylonia. They were allies for a long period due to a common enemy, the Assyrians, who, under Assurbanipal conquered Elam and Babylonia about 645 B.C. Susa was taken and many Elamites and others were deported to Samaria (Ezra 4:9; 2 Ki. 17:24). Upon the breaking up of the Assyrian Empire by Nebuchadnezzar and the Medes about 616 B.C. the Assyrian Empire was divided among the Medes, Lydians, and Babylonians. About 553 B.C. Cyrus the Great, king of the Persians and a subject of the Median king, revolted and captured the Median king. The Persians conquered Lydia, Babylon, and Egypt and held sway over them until Alexander the Great, about 336 B.C.

f Referring to Cyrus the Persian who was king of the Medes and Persians after Darius the Mede. Under him and his successors Persia attained to a greater power than ever under the Medes g The Medes and Persians conquered Lydia to the north, Babylon and other countries to the west, and Egypt to the south. Subduing all, they did according to their own will and became great (v 4) h The acknowledged symbol of Greece. Caranus, the first king going with many Greeks to seek a new habitation in Macedonia was advised by an oracle to take goats for guides. Seeing a herd fleeing from a storm, he followed them to Edessa and there built the seat of his empire. He called the place Aegea, the goats' town and the people Aegeadae, the goats' people, names derived from aigos, goat. He chose a goat as the emblem on his standards. Aegea was the burying place of Macedonian kings. Alexander called his son by Roxana, Alexander Aegus - Alexander the goat

i Again we have a whole put for a part of the earth, as is the case so often when Gentile world powers are referred to (2:38, 39, 40; 4:11-12, 20-22; 7:19, 23). The Antichrist kingdom is as limited as the others (see p. 308 of N.T.)

n 4 kingdoms were formed out of his empire. They would be known today as Greece, Turkey, Syria, and Egypt

o Out of one of these 4 divisions of the old Grecian Empire will come the little horn or future Antichrist who will become great in Egypt, Iraq, Iran, and Palestine (v 9; 11:40-45) q Heb. tsaba, a mass of persons or things, especially organized for war. The words host and hosts are used 475 times of various armies of earth and of heaven, as well as the mass of stars, etc. The term host of heaven is used of the sun, moon, and stars (Dt. 4:19; 17:3; 2 Ki. 17:16; 21:3-5; 23:4-5; 2 Chr. 33:3-5); of the angels (1 Ki. 22:19; 2 Chr. 18:18; Neh. 9:6); and here of the high priest, the priests and the Levites (v 24-25; 12:7). It is a technical term for the ministers of the temple (Num. 4:23-43; 8:24-25). The host may also include palace, which is in the province of E'lăm; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the [b]river of Ū'la-ī.

(2) Ram: Medo-Persia (v 20)

3 [c]Then I lifted up mine eyes, and [d]saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had [e]two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher [f]came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing [g]westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

(3) He-goat: Grecia (v 21)

5 And as I was considering, behold, an [h]he goat came from the west on the face of [i]the whole earth, and [j]touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable [k]horn between his eyes.

(4) War: Medo-Persia, Grecia

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with [l]choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

(5) The four horns. See v 22

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the [m]great horn was broken; and [n]for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

(6) "Little horn": Antichrist

9 And [o]out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the [p]pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the [q]host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to [r]the prince of the host, and [s]by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 [t]And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, [u]and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, [v]How long shall be the vision [w]concerning the [x]daily sacrifice, and [y]the transgression of desolation, to give both [z]the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; [a]then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

2 The interpretation (8:15-27). (1) The angelic interpreters (7:15-16)

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Dăn'iel, had seen the vision, and [b]sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me [c]as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard [d]a man's voice between the banks of Ū'la-ī, which called, and said, [e]Gă'bri-el, [f]make this man to understand the vision.

(2) Time of fulfillment (2:27-30; 7:26-27; 8:26; 11:35; 12:1-9)

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, [g]I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he [h]said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a [i]deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, [j]Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in [k]the last end of the indignation: [l]for at the time appointed the end shall be.◂

(3) The ram: Medo-Persia (2:39a and 7:5, refs.)

20 [m]The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Mē'di-ă and Pĕr'sĭă.

(4) The he-goat: Grecia (2:39b; 7:6, 24b and 7:25, refs.)

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grē'çĭă: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

(5) The four horns: Greece, Turkey, Syria, Egypt

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

(6) The "little horn" (7:11, 21-22, 24b and 7:25, refs.)

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

(7) His power and war on the saints (7:25, refs.)

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

(8) His exaltation (7:25; 2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:1-7, 12, 15-18; 17:8-17)

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy a See Time-passages of Daniel, p. 876

b Daniel, as usual, sought for the true meaning of his vision so as to pass on to us a picture of world events at the end time. Gabriel was sent to give him the interpretation, and no man has a right to interpret the interpretation. He has only the right to comment upon it and relate facts to counteract the many false interpretations about it c All angels have the appearance of a man (v 15; Heb. 13:2, note). God also has the same kind of appearance (Ezek. 1:26-27), for man was made bodily in the image and likeness of God (Gen. 1:26-28; 9:6; Jas. 3:9. See notes, Jn. 4:24)

d This is a peculiar place to have a voice speak. Whoever it was it sounded exactly like a man and could have been, for there were at least 2 men in heaven - Enoch and Elijah - whom God could have used; or it could have been God or an ordinary angel. God used redeemed men to impart the Revelation to John (Rev. 19:10; 22:8-9), and the same could have been true of part of Daniel e One of God's chief angelic princes (v 16; 9:21; Lk. 1:19, 26)

f If Gabriel had the ability to make the vision clear to Daniel, who had the ability to write it clearly, then we should have the ability to understand the vision without change or interpretation of it

g Note the effects of angelic and the Divine Presence (v 17-18; 10:5-11; Ezek. 1:28; Mt. 17:6; Rev. 1:17; Gen. 15:12)

h 13th prophecy in Dan. (8:17, unfulfilled). Next, v 19. This proves that the main object of the vision is to predict events at the end of this age in which we live, or just before the 2nd advent of Christ and His eternal reign (Cp. v 19, 23-26; 2:40-45; 7:23-27; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7-13; Rev. 4:1-19:21)

i See 6 examples of deep sleep, p. 877

j 14th prophecy in Dan. (8:19-26. V 20-22 are fulfilled; v 19, 23-27 are unfulfilled). Next, 9:24

k See The last end of God's wrath, p. 877

l At the end of this age and at the 2nd advent, the time for the fulfillment of the vision is appointed (v 19, 23-25; 2:44-45; 7:23-27; 9:27; 11:36-45; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14). The time of the end is stated in v 25 as being when the little horn stands up against Christ.

the worshippers (Rev. 11:1-2). They are pictured under the figure of stars of heaven (v 10). The fact that the host will be trodden under the foot of man proves it refers to the Jewish people on earth, and not literal stars of heaven (v 10, 13)

r This refers to the high priest himself

s The daily sacrifice will be taken away by the little horn or Antichrist (9:27; 12:11; Mt. 24:15; Rev. 13:1-18) and the place of his sanctuary, will be cast down (v 11; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2). The place where the sacrifices were offered (the altar) will be destroyed and taken away, and the image of the beast will be set up to be worshipped (Rev. 13:11-18; 14:9; 15:2; 16:2; 20:4)

t A great many people against the daily sacrifice will be given to him because of abounding sin (v 12)

u The little horn will cast down the truth to the ground and prosper in all his plans for a time (v 12)

v Question 12. Next, 10:17. See The 2,300 days, p. 875

w See 4 main subjects of the vision, p. 876

x This refers to the daily offerings and animal sacrifices of the Jewish temple (11:31; 12:11; Num. 4:16; 28:24; 29:6; Ezra 3:4; Ezek. 45:23). The passage cannot be fulfilled until the Jews have a temple in Jerusalem and begin to offer such sacrifices again. It could not refer to the past, for it has a latter day fulfillment (v 19, 23-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1-13; Mt. 24:15-31; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 13 and 17)

y This is the same as the abomination of desolation of 9:27; 12:11; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-3; 13:11-18

z See The sanctuary, p. 876

a Christ is this and more (v 25; Rev. 1:5) b This is the central truth of the vision - the cutting off of 2,300 daily evening and morning sacrifices by the future Antichrist (v 9-14, notes)
c This is the peculiar way of saying that the prophecy will not be fulfilled for a long time. In fact, it has been over 2,600 years since the prophecy was given and yet the main part of it remains to be fulfilled in the future great tribulation (v 9-14, 20-25; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 13)

d No doubt Daniel had fasted long to get this answer, like he did on some other occasions (9:3; 10:2-3). Otherwise, seeing a vision in itself would not make one sick
e It would appear that Daniel was in Shushan on business for Belshazzar or Nebonidus, rulers of Babylon (v 1, Cp. 1:21; 5:29-31; 6:28)

f Naturally, none would be able to understand the vision of empires and future events, apart from the interpretation given. This does not mean that the language was difficult to understand, but that comprehension of events in such distant future was difficult. Now, in the light of the history of many of these things we can easily understand the last end of them if we will (v 9-14, 23-25)
Continued ignorance of the plain facts comes from men changing what is written to what is not written in order to harmonize with past interpreters who understood little about these matters and who sought for a spiritual and mystical instead of the literal meaning. For example, some have claimed that the he-goat which touched not the ground as he went refers to the modern airplane. How ridiculous in view of v 21 which says the he-goat is the kingdom Greece

g The vision was seen about a year after the one in Dan. 8, Cp. 5:30-31 with 8:1
h This was no doubt Astyages or Xerxes, the son of Ahasuerus or Cyaxares. Ahasuerus is an appellative and used of 4 kings of Medo-Persia. The Gr. form is Xerxes. Both Cyaxares and Astyages were called Ahasuerus, the appellative meaning the Mighty. See note f, 5:31
i The Medes were Japhethites (Gen. 10:2; 2 Ki. 17:6; 18:11; 1 Chr. 1:5; Ezra 6:2; Esther 1:3-19; 10:2; Isa. 13:17; 21:2; Jer. 25:25; 51:11, 28; Dan. 5:28-31; 6:1-16; 8:20; 9:1; 11:1; Acts 2:9). They were remarkable as the first leaders of the Aryan race in its struggle with the Semites for freedom and supremacy

3 periods of 70 years:

1 The servitude began in the 4th year of Jehoiakim, and the 1st year of Nebuchadnezzar, when the Judean kingdom passed under the Chaldean rule for 70 years (Jer. 25:1; 2 Ki. 24:1-7). This period closed with the fall of Babylon through Darius the Mede (Astyages, 5:31)
2 The captivity began with the carrying away to Babylon of Jechoniah in the 8th year of Nebuchadnezzar (7 years after the servitude of point 1, above. 2 Ki. 24:8-16) and 11 years before Jerusalem was destroyed (Ezek. 40:1)
3 The desolations of Jerusalem is a term referring to the complete destruction of Jerusalem and captivity of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar to the 11th year of Zedekiah (2 Ki. 24:17-25:2; Lev. 26:32-35). The desolations of Jerusalem began about 19 years after the first siege of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Ki. 24:1-5), about 11 years after the second siege (2 Ki. 24:8-16), and at the time of the third and final siege (2 Ki. 24:17-25:4)
By the time of Daniel's prayer and vision of ch. 9 the servitude had ended and the captivity and the desolations of Judah and Jerusalem were soon to end

l This was the usual procedure of Daniel when he wanted a definite answer (v 3; 2:18; 6:10; 8:16, 27; 10:2-3) m Daniel here confesses for the sinful people with whom he identifies himself by "we" and "us" (v 5-19). Cp.

CHAPTER 9

IX Daniel's third vision: the seventy weeks of years.
1 Time and occasion

IN the [g]first year of [h]Dā-rī'us the son of Ā-hăs-ū-ē'rus, of the seed of the [i]Mēdes, [j]which was made king over the realm of the Chăl-dē'ans;
2 In the first year of his reign I Dăn'iel understood by [k]books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

2 Daniel's prayer and confession for himself and Israel: 12 sins of Israel

3 ¶ And [l]I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:
4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, [m]and made my confession, and said, O Lord, [n]the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;
5 We have [o]sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have [p]rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:
6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which [q]spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.
7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us [r]confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Jū'dah, and to the inhabitants of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and unto [s]all Ĭs'ra-el, that are near, and that are far off, through [t]all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.
8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.
9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;
10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his [u]servants the prophets.
11 Yea, [v]all Ĭs'ra-el have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore [w]the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mō'sĕs the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.
12 And [x]he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: [y]for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.
13 As it is written in the law of Mō'sĕs, all this evil is come upon us: [z]yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.
14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.
15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought [a]thy people forth out of the land of Ē'gўpt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.
16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, [b]let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from [c]thy city Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, [d]thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm and thy people are become a [e]reproach to all that are about us.
17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.
18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.
19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are [f]called by thy name.

3 The angelic interpreter (8:15; 10:12)

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Ĭs'ra-el, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;
21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gā'brĭ-el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched a The despised prophets were recognized by Israel after they had suffered and many of their predictions had been fulfilled. Cp. Heb. 1:1-2; 2 Ki. 17:13; Isa. 44:26; Lam. 2:17; Zech. 1:6

b The term all Israel here and in the majority of places refers to all the tribes of Israel, not excluding Judah, as some teach today (see note a, Acts 13:16)

c The curse God promised that would come upon them if they rebelled (Lev. 26:14-17, 29-39; Dt. 27:15-26; 28:15-62; 29:20; 31:17)
d God will always confirm His Word and curse those who sin and bless those who obey (v 12; Gal. 6:7-8; p. 284) e This is one of the greatest proofs of God confirming a curse as well as a blessing, according to His Word. God cannot lie, so what He orders as the penalty for sin will be meted out as surely as reward for obedience

f 3fold guarantee of blessing from God:
1 Prayer and confession of sin (v 3, 4-6, 17, 20)
2 Turning from iniquity (v 13; Isa. 55:7)
3 Understanding and obeying truth (v 4-10, 13; Jn. 8:32-36; Rom. 1:16) g Israelites, even in apostasy and dispersion are considered the chosen people of God. He is going to bring them to repentance and eternal obedience and fulfill the covenants made with them (Isa. 11:10-12; 59:20-21; 66:7-8; Ezek. 37; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Lk. 1:32-33; Rom. 11:25-29)
h 10 requests of Daniel:
1 Let Your anger and fury be turned away from Jerusalem and Mt. Zion (v 16)
2 Hear my prayer (v 17, 18, 19)
3 Hear my supplications (v 17)
4 Cause Your face to shine upon Your sanctuary (v 17)
5 Incline Your ear to hear (v 18)
6 Open Your eyes (v 18)
7 See our desolations (v 18)
8 Forgive our sins (v 19)
9 Hearken and do (v 19)
10 Defer not my answer (v 19)
i Jerusalem has been chosen by God to be the capital of His eternal kingdom on earth (Ps. 2:6; 48:2; 87:2; 102:16; 132:13; Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek. 48; Zech. 14)

This time Gabriel did not interpret a vision that had been seen, but gave a simple direct prophecy of events concerning Israel and Jerusalem from Daniel's day to the end of all Gentile oppression of Jews. No interpretation is needed. All that is required is to read and believe what is written for our learning. If Daniel was commanded to understand the vision and consider it, then we are to do likewise

h Not upon the desolate place, but upon the one making the temple desolate

i This was 5 years after the vision of the 70 weeks of Dan. 9 (Cp. v 1 with 9:1)

j This was not Darius the Mede of 5:31; 6:1; 9:1. He was a Persian prince and became king of the Medo-Persian Empire after Darius had reigned 2 years. There are no less than 4 traditions about the birth of Cyrus. Herodotus says that he was the son of Mandane, daughter of Astyages who sought to kill the child because of dreams he had of his own defeat at his hands. Xenophon says he was the son of Cambyses, king of Persia, that he was educated in Persia and was later sent for by Astyages who made him commander-in-chief of his armies. Nicolaus says that Cyrus was the son of Atradates, a Mardian bandit, and that he became the adopted son of Artembares, cup-bearer to Astyages, later becoming prominent in the service of Astyages. The truth of the matter seems to be that Cyrus was the son of Astyages and Queen Esther of the book of Esther; and this is also clear from the notes on p. 490. This being true, then many prophecies of Isaiah take on new interest and meaning. Cyrus was the subject of a number of prophecies of Isaiah concerning the restoration of Israel from Babylon and the rebuilding of Jerusalem and the Jewish temple after the captivities. See notes on Isa. 44:28–45:1

In the Bible his name was predicted 175 years before he was born, the prediction even foretelling his decree to liberate the Jews and rebuild Jerusalem (2 Chr. 36:22–23; Ezra 1:1–8; 3:7; 4:3–5; 5:13–17; 6:3, 14; Isa. 44:28; 45:1)

12). All wars lost or won on earth are results of wars lost or won by these heavenly armies

Not only over every government of this world are there good and evil spirit beings seeking to influence and carry out the will of their masters, but over every individual life the same is true (Mt. 18:10; 2 Cor. 10:4–6; Eph. 2:2; 6:10–18; Heb. 1:14; Jude 9). Satan, himself, is active along the line of seeking to defeat God's purpose in the lives of His children (1 Chr. 21:1; Job 1:6; 2:1; Zech. 3:1; Mt. 4:1–11; 2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; 6:10–18; Jn. 3:8; Rev. 12:12). Michael is the prince of Israel (11:21; 12:1). The prince of Grecia is referred to in v 20

q The words prince and princes are from the Heb. sar, which means a chief ruler. It is generally rendered prince in this book (1:7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 18; 8:11, 25; 9:6, 8; 10:13, 20, 21; 11:5; 12:1)

r See 4 angels named in Scripture, p. 878

CHAPTER 10

X Daniel's fourth vision: Israel in the last days under the Antichrist. 1 Time, place, and occasion

IN the [i]third year of [j]Çy'rus king of Pĕr'sĭa [k]a thing was [a]revealed unto Dăn'iel, whose name was called Bĕl-te-shăz'-zar; and the thing was true, but the [b]time appointed was long: and he [c]understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Dăn'iel was mourning [d]three full weeks.

3 I ate [e]no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the [f]four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is [g]Hĭd'de-kĕl;

2 Vision of Messiah (Rev. 1:13)

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold [a]certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'phăz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

3 The effect (Isa. 6; Ezek. 1; Rev. 1)

7 And I Dăn'iel [i]alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a [j]great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained [k]no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 [l] And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

●11 And he said unto me, O Dăn'iel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: [m]for unto thee am [n]I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

4 Angelic interpreter (8:15; 9:20–23)

●12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Dăn'iel: for [o]from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come [p]for thy words.

5 Gabriel detained by the angelic forces of Satan over Persia

13 But [q]the [r]prince of the kingdom of Pĕr'sĭa withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Mī'chaĕl, [s]one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the [t]kings a Note the price Daniel paid for this revelation and the method whereby he received it (10:2–12:13). Divine revelations have always had an impressive effect upon their receivers (Dan. 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10–12; Isa. 6; Rev. 1; Gen. 15)

b The time for fulfillment was in the far distant future (v 14, 35). Even yet (1959 A. D.) it has not been completed. At least all of 11:35–12:13 is yet to be fulfilled. The Heb. vetsaba gadol, means long warfare. The true idea is that these will be many wars before all these things are fulfilled. It could be called "The vision of wars." See p. 878

c If Daniel understood the vision before the now historical section (11:2–34) was fulfilled, we today can surely understand the vision after the fulfillment of this section. The whole vision is very plain, as we shall see d This is a long time for a man to be in fasting, prayer, and constant emotional strain

e This is the same as saying that he was on a total fast, not on a diet as some today call a Daniel's fast

f The 24th day of our April g Only found twice in Scripture (v 4; Gen. 14). It is better known as the Tigris, a more modern name not found in Scripture. Euphrates is mentioned 21 times, for along its winding course many biblical events took place

h 9fold description of Messiah, p. 878

i This proves that one person can see a vision while others cannot even though they are present. Cp. Acts 9:7; 22:9

j 2fold effect upon Daniel's companions:
1 A great quaking fell upon them
2 They fled to hide themselves (v 7)

k 10fold effect upon Daniel, p. 878

l It appears that the person described in v 5–6 is Gabriel, but no angel is thus described in Scripture unless this is an exception. The vision is in almost every detail like that of the Son of man in Rev. 1:12–17. The two visions seem to refer to the same person. In 8:13–19 Gabriel is instructed by another person to make the vision known to Daniel. The same is no doubt true here. The person described in v 5–6 directs Gabriel to make this revelation known to Daniel. The fact is clear in 10:11–12 that someone sent him

m Note the divine and angelic appearances in the book (3:25; 4:13, 17, 23; 6:22; 7:16; 8:13, 14, 16–26; 9:21; 10:4–12, 16, 18, 20; 12:1, 5–6)

n Here is an example of prayer being delayed (v 12–13). Such delays should never hinder faith or cause one to give up seeking an answer that is promised by God. They should only urge one to renew his efforts and to hold on in prayer and faith until the answer is realized (Lk. 18:1–8)

o I am come to answer the prayer that you have prayed. This shows exactly what Daniel prayed for and demonstrates that the very words said in prayer are heard and can be answered (Mt. 7:7–11). Too many times religious teachers today argue that what we ask may not be granted, but that God will give to us what we need and what is best for us. In other words, God will substitute something in the place of whatever we have asked for. There is not a word in Scripture which teaches such a doctrine. God has promised to give all men what they ask for in prayer, believing – even the exact things that they say in words (Mt. 7:7–11; 17:20; 21:21–22; Mk. 11:22–24; Jn. 15:7) p This is the satanic prince or ruler of the kingdom of Persia, one ruling the kingdom of Persia for Satan who is recognized in Scripture as being the god and ruler of this world, having usurped man's dominion (Mt. 4:8–9; 12:24–30; Jn. 8:44; 12:31; 2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2; 6:10–18; 1 Jn. 3:8; Rev. 12:7–12; 16:13–16; 20:1–10)

Over all the governments of this world Satan has his trusted angels who are responsible to him for carrying out his will in those governments. He seeks to hinder God's plan in the fulfillment of prophecy regarding world kingdoms. God also has trusted angels and they carry out His will concerning what He has predicted to take place in the kingdoms of this world (v 11–21; 11:1; 12:1). Hence, the wars between these two groups of angels in the heavenlies (v 13, 20–21; 11:1; 12:1; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7–

7 Further effect on Daniel

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one [e]like the [f]similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 [g]For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 [h]Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, •19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

8 The Prince of Grecia

20 Then said he, [i]Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and [j]now will I return to fight with the prince of Pĕr'şiá: [k]and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grē'çiá shall come.

▸21 But I will shew thee that which is [l]noted in the scripture of truth: [m]and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Mī'chaĕl your prince.

CHAPTER 11

10 History from Darius to the future Antichrist (11:1-34). (1) Five years before Gabriel had helped Michael overthrow the satanic forces over Babylon so that the Prince of Persia might come [n]ALSO I in the first year of Dā-rī'us the Mēde, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

(2) Four more kings over Persia before Alexander the Great

§2 And now will I shew thee the truth. [o]Behold, there shall stand up yet [p]three kings in Pĕr'şiá; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grē'çiá.◂

(3) A mighty King: Alexander the Great (8:21)

3 And a [q]mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

(4) Division of Greece into four kingdoms (8:22)

4 And when he shall stand up, his [r]kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and [s]not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for [t]his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

(5) King of the south: Ptolemy Lagidae, one of Alexander's generals who seized Egypt on the death of Alexander. King of the north: Seleucus I, one of Alexander's princes and a general who seized Syria, Babylon, and Media and became greater than Ptolemy of Egypt

5 ¶ And [u]the king of the [v]south shall be [w]strong, and [x]one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

(6) League between Egypt (south) and Syria (north) through the marriage of Berenice, daughter of Ptolemy Philadelphus, to Antiochus Theos, the third king of Syria

6 And [y]in the end of years [z]they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: [a]but she shall not retain the power of the arm; [b]neither shall he stand, nor his arm: [c]but she shall be given up, and [d]they that brought her, and [e]he that begat her, and [f]he that strengthened her in these times.

(7) Branch of her roots: a brother of Berenice, Ptolemy Euergetes, who invaded Syria (north) to avenge the murder of Berenice by Laodice who was divorced by Antiochus so he could marry Berenice

7 But [g]out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in [h]his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the [i]king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Ē'ğўpt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; [j]and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into [k]his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

j When I leave you I will have another fight with the prince of Persia (the satanic ruler of Persia). This is simply the continuation of the war of v 13-14 k The prince of Grecia is the satanic ruler prince of the Grecian Empire that caused Alexander the Great to be so successful in 13 years as to destroy the Medo-Persian Empire completely. This prince of Grecia is the spirit now confined to the abyss who will come out in the last days and cause the human Antichrist to revive the old Grecian Empire, so that they all can oppose Jesus Christ at Armageddon. See col. 3, p. 310 of the N.T.

not reign over Syria). This was fulfilled, for Antiochus II, left her and her infant son in Antioch and returned to live with his divorced wife, Laodice, who was responsible for all three being killed (note j, above)
l This predicts the death of Antiochus II by Laodice who poisoned him and put her own son on the throne (note j, above)
m Berenice was divorced (note k, above) n The Egyptian women who accompanied Berenice from Egypt strove to defend her when she was murdered and many were killed
o Lit., "he whom she brought forth", referring to the son of Berenice who was killed with her (note j, above) p This refers to her own father who gave her to Antiochus for a wife (note j, above) q A branch of the same roots from which Berenice sprang. Her brother, Ptolemy III, who had just succeeded to the Egyptian throne, at once invaded the Seleucid realm to avenge his sister who was murdered at Antioch. He annexed the eastern provinces to Egypt and ravaged the coasts of Asia Minor with his navy, 246 B.C. (v 7-9)
r His Ptolemy, the father of Berenice who is referred to in v 6, as he that strengthened her s This was Seleucus II, son of Laodice who suffered defeat by Ptolemy III. He not only entered into the fortress of the king of the north, but plundered Seleucia, Susa, and Babylonia, even penetrating to the borders of India. Ptolemy III could not enjoy the fruit of his great victories due to trouble in his own country (v 9). He did take many captives back to Egypt and the Egyptian gods which Cambyses, king of Persia, took from Egypt 300 years before (v 8). Hence, he was called by the Egyptians Euergetes, benefactor t The death of Seleucus II was due to a fall from a horse. Ptolemy III survived him 4 or 5 years u Come into the kingdom of Seleucus II. This refers to a second invasion of Syria, but, having heard of rebellion in Egypt, Ptolemy III returned there to suppress it. Otherwise he would have wholly destroyed the kingdom of Syria a This is Alexander the Great who carried out the plans of his father, Philip of Macedon, to invade the Persian Empire. The war began in 336 B.C. when Alexander came to the throne of Greece and Macedon. He had only 35,000 soldiers and $75,000 to start the war with while the Persian king had a yearly revenue of $11,000,000, many millions in the treasury, and hundreds of thousands of soldiers, besides a great navy. He had fully 50,000 Greek soldiers hired with Greek generals. But, in 13 years Alexander conquered the whole Persian Empire and beyond. He literally did according to his will, fulfilling v 3 b This refers to the breaking up of the Grecian Empire into 4 divisions after the death of Alexander the Great. The period from Alexander to the conquest of these 4 kingdoms (336-100 B.C.) by the Romans is called the Hellenistic or Alexandrian Age. For a time the generals of the army agreed to rule the various parts of the empire until Alexander's son by Roxane became of age to take the throne, but they all really desired to become king of the province held. In 311 B.C. the child and his mother were murdered. Then the struggle for power became an open contest. Antigonus, one of the most able generals of Alexander, used Syria as a base to conquer the whole empire for himself. In 301 B.C. he was defeated by 4 other generals and slain. The 4 great generals then divided the empire. See p. 877 c This simply means that Alexander's kingdom was to be divided among others who were not of his posterity nor according to the dominion by which he ruled. In 15 years not one of Alexander's family, including 3 wives, 2 sons, his brother and wife, and mother, was left alive d His kingdom was to be plucked up, even for others besides the 4 generals that would seize the greatest part of his empire. Minor parts of the empire did go to others from which they were taken e Ptolemy I, king of the south, the founder of the Egyptian division of the Grecian Empire, which continued 323-30 B.C. when Rome took over Egypt. See Ptolemy I, p. 879
f South with reference to Judea g He became strong, for he added Cyprus, Phoenicia, Caria, Corinth, etc. to his kingdom of Egypt h This was Seleucus I, called Nicator, the Conqueror, founder of the Seleucid Empire, 312-280 B.C. He lost out to Antigonus who conquered Babylonia in 316 B.C. Seleucus fled to Egypt and distinguished himself as one of the commanders of Ptolemy I, hence he is called a prince of Ptolemy (v 5). In the victory won by Ptolemy at Gaza, 312 B.C., the way was opened for Seleucus to return to Babylonia. In 9 years he won the whole of the eastern part of Alexander's empire. In 301 B.C. he added Syria and part of Asia Minor to his empire. The Seleucid era was from 312-65 B.C. when the kingdom of Syria was reduced by Pompey to a Roman province i Lit., after some years: about 65 years. Thus a number of historical events are passed over at this point. Cp. 2 Chr. 18:2 j They: the kings of the north (Syria) and of the south (Egypt) shall make a league together. Having been in a bloody war for several years, they agreed to terminate it in 250 B.C. by the marriage of Berenice, daughter of Ptolemy II Philadelphus, king of Egypt 285-247 B.C., to Antiochus II Theos, the king of Syria, 262-246 B.C. The marriage was on condition that Antiochus would put away his wife, Laodice, and her children, and this he did. Since Berenice brought an immense fortune to her husband, it seemed that all would go well. But after a while Antiochus recalled his former wife, Laodice, and her children; and she, fearing that he might later recall Berenice, caused him to be poisoned and Berenice to be murdered with her son. She then set her own son Callinicus (Seleucus II) upon the throne. He was called Antiochus II. Antiochus I reigned 280-262 B.C.
k Berenice shall not retain the power of the Syrian throne (her posterity shall a The sons of Seleucus II, Seleucus III (Ceraunus, or Thunderbolt) and Antiochus III, called the Great. Seleucus II did assemble a great multitude of forces to recover his father's dominions, but was poisoned by two of his own generals after a reign of 2 years. His brother, Antiochus III, was then proclaimed king, so that only one of the sons actually started a war against Egypt. He retook Seleucia and regained Syria. He seemed disposed to invade Egypt, as he came to his fortress, even to the borders of Egypt (v 10)

b Ptolemy Philopater, "Lover of Father" or Tryphon, son of Euergetes, reigned 221-204 B.C. Antiochus the Great of Syria declared war on him about 219 B.C. Philopater defeated Antiochus in the battle of Raphia near Gaza, 217 B.C. (v 11). He became greatly exalted destroying and oppressing many in his own land, especially the Jews (v 12). He was not to be strengthened by his victories due to the constant decline of his kingdom brought about by permitting favorites to rule or ruin (v 12) c Antiochus III, called the Great, who ruled 223-187 B.C. 14 years after his defeat at Raphia, he returned to fight the Egyptians with a greater army than before and with many riches from his campaign in restoring the eastern parts of his empire (v 13)

d Antiochus the Great and Philip of Macedonia united in conquering Egypt. In 198 B.C. Egypt was defeated and Palestine was again under the Seleucid's e This was Ptolemy V, called Epiphanes, the Illustrious. He was only 5 years old at this time, when Philopater died. Rome for the first time interfered to make Antiochus surrender his conquests. Not daring to disobey Rome, Antiochus made peace with Ptolemy and betrothed to him his daughter Cleopatra, 193 B.C.

f The Jews who rejected their religion and joined Ptolemy under Scopas, the Egyptian general defeated by Antiochus the Great in 198 B. C.

g To take the side of Syria to help fulfill the prophecy of liberating Judea. In doing so they fell under the wrath of the Egyptians, for Scopas came with a large army, while Antiochus was engaged in other parts, and subdued Palestine taking much spoil into Egypt

h This refers to Antiochus the Great coming to recover Judea. He defeated Scopas, taking several fenced cities; and none of the Egyptian generals were able to oppose him (v 15-16)

i This refers to Antiochus the Great coming against Ptolemy and doing as he pleased in his conquests (v 16)

j Antiochus the Great was helped by the Jews who supplied him with provisions and assisted him in reducing the garrison of Scopas in the citadel at Jerusalem. Antiochus showed the Jews great favor at this time, bringing back the dispersed and freeing the priests from all tribute k Palestine was greatly reduced to poverty through the long wars

l Antiochus the Great had purposed to march into Egypt, but chose instead to make a covenant of peace with Ptolemy, giving him his own daughter, Cleopatra (v 17)

m Antiochus the Great acted as if being influenced by nothing but upright views in his covenant with Ptolemy (v 17)

n This term denotes the beauty of Cleopatra o Antiochus planned to corrupt Cleopatra causing her to be a snare to Ptolemy, but instead she helped her husband and put him on guard against her father (v 17)

p After making peace with Egypt, Antiochus the Great fitted out a great fleet of ships, subdued most of the maritime places on the coast of the Mediterranean and took many islands, including Rhodes, Samos, Colophon, and others (v 18)

q This refers to the Roman consul who defeated Antiochus, causing him to withdraw from Greece to Asia. The Romans then defeated him in Asia Minor, compelling him to abandon all the country north of the Taurus. Thus the reproach Antiochus planned to cause Rome to suffer was turned upon himself (v 18)

(8) Defeat of Antiochus the Great by Ptolemy III of Egypt (south)

10 But [a]his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And [b]the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

(9) Antiochus the Great (Syria, north) renews the war after fourteen years and defeats Ptolemy V (Egypt, south)

13 For [c]the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times [d]there shall many stand up against [e]the king of the south: [f]also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves [g]to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So [h]the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 [i]But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: [j]and he shall stand in the glorious land, [k]which by his hand shall be consumed.

(10) Antiochus the Great and Ptolemy V come to terms: Antiochus gives Ptolemy his daughter who later helps her husband defeat the plans of Antiochus

17 [l]He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and [m]upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him [n]the daughter of women, [o]corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

(11) Antiochus next makes war on Greece but is turned back by the Roman prince Scipio who defeats him at Magnesia near Smyrna

18 [p]After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: [q]but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 [a]Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

(12) Seleucus, the son of Antiochus the Great sends Heliodorus to plunder the temple at Jerusalem and exact money from Israel (2 Macc. 3:4). This king is soon poisoned and is succeeded by Antiochus Epiphanes 20 [b]Then shall stand up in his estate a [c]raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: [d]but within few days [e]he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

(13) Antiochus Epiphanes and his dealings with Israel are pictured in 11:21-34. A He obtains his rule by flattery

21 And [f]in his estate shall stand up a vile person, [g]to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: [h]but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

B He makes a league with the high priest; deals deceitfully and becomes strong 22 And [i]with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, [j]also the prince of the covenant.

23 And [k]after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: [l]for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 [m]He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; [n]and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers: he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and [o]he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

C Makes war against Ptolemy of Egypt who is betrayed and killed and his army defeated 25 And [p]he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: [q]for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And [r]both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

D Antiochus returns in glory and victory and sets his a This refers to Antiochus the Great turning back to his own fort in Antioch. He was obliged to raise 15,000 talents for Rome, to pay for the war. He marched into his eastern provinces to exact the unpaid taxes and perished in a war in Luristan, 187 B.C. (v 19)

b The tax raiser who succeeded Antiochus the Great was his son, Seleucus IV, called Philopater, who reigned 187-176 B.C. His kingdom then consisted of Syria, Cilicia, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Babylonia, Media, and Persia

c Seleucus IV was called a raiser of taxes because he was compelled to pay a yearly war indemnity exacted by Rome. He raised money from many new sources, even sending his minister, Heliodorus to Jerusalem to plunder the temple. Seleucus IV was assassinated by Heliodorus who sought to be king d What is meant by the few days is not stated. It could not be that he ruled only a few days, for he reigned 11 years. This perhaps refers to his quick death from the time he sought to plunder the Jewish temple at Jerusalem to get the money deposited there, which is here called the glory of the kingdom (v 20)

e This refers to the manner of death of Seleucus IV - not in anger and not in battle fighting with the enemy, but basely and treacherously assassinated by one in whom he trusted. He died of poison f This refers to Antiochus IV, called Epiphanes, the Illustrious, who reigned 175-163 B.C. All of v 21-34 refers to him. Several details are given concerning things which the last Syrian king, the Antichrist, will also do, and that more completely. See 10 proofs Antiochus not the Antichrist, p. 872

g The true heir, Demetrius, another son of Seleucus IV, was being held in Rome as a hostage. This gave Antiochus Epiphanes the opportunity of seizing the throne

h See How Antiochus Epiphanes became king, p. 872

i With the help of the arms of his supporters his competitors for the throne were overthrown and broken

j Not only were his competitors overthrown but the high priest, Onias was deposed and Jason, who had given him a great sum of money was installed in his place (2 Macc. 4:4-10) k The agreement between Antiochus Epiphanes and Jason was broken and Antiochus put wicked Menelaus in the position of high priest because he offered him more money than Jason did. Thus he acted deceitfully in his agreement with Jason (v 22)

l This refers to his coming back from Rome where he had been a hostage for the payment of the tax laid on his father. On his return Antiochus found but few to espouse his cause of becoming king, for the people were divided among many claimants to the throne. Being supported by the king of Pergamos and his brother, his few followers increased until he became strong enough to get the throne (v 23)

m After becoming king, Antiochus Epiphanes laid claim on Coelesyria, Palestine, and Phoenicia, so war broke out between Syria and Egypt (v 23)

n This refers to the policy of Antiochus in dividing the spoils of war among his friends and subjects, as well as his own revenues. He spent much in public show and in many ways manifested his liberality more than all other kings before him. He would even go out in the street and throw handfuls of money to any who would get it (v 24)

o Antiochus planned in various ways to prevent an invasion of his kingdom by Egypt, and strengthened the strongholds of defense on his borders while making preparation for a war on Egypt. This he did for a time (v 24)

p After much preparation Antiochus Epiphanes finally made war on Egypt and was victorious, Ptolemy was taken prisoner. Antiochus then had himself crowned king of Egypt (171-167 B.C.)

q This refers to using means of corruption to turn away from Ptolemy certain key men who helped defeat Egypt (v 25). They that were fed by Ptolemy were corrupted by Antiochus and caused the fall of Egypt (v 26)

r See Deceitfulness of Antiochus Epiphanes and Ptolemy Philometor, p. 876 heart to break his Jewish covenant and plunder Palestine

28 "Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

E He leads a second expedition into Egypt but is turned back by a mandate from Rome in league with Cyprus. He then turns against the Jews and many apostate Jews help him to pollute the temple and place the abomination of desolation: a sow on the temple altar and doing away with Jewish sacrifices 29 [b]At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 ¶ For [c]the ships of Chĭt'tim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and [d]return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take [e]away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

F He is resisted by the Maccabees who do exploits but are oppressed by him many days

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: [f]but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: [g]yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 [h]Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

11 Wars between Syria and Egypt in the last days: a prophetical description of the last king of the north, Antichrist, and his conquests of the nations and his dealings with Israel.

(1) The time of the vision

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, [i]even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

(2) The character of "the king" of the north (7:25 and 8:25a, refs.)

36 [j]And [k]the king shall do [l]according to his will; "and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and [n]shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, [o]and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 [p]Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But [c]in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause [d]them to rule over many, and [e]shall divide the land for gain.

(3) War between Syria (north) and Egypt (south) at the end time: Antichrist (Syria, north) is victorious over Egypt (south) and many countries up to the middle of Daniel's seventieth week when the "eighth" or Revived Grecian Empire is formed (7:24; 8:23-25; Rev. 11:7; 13:1-18; 16:10; 17:3, 8-14, 16-17; 19:19-21)

40 And [f]at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into [g]the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 [h]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: [i]but these shall escape out of his hand, even E'dom, and Mō'ab, and the chief of the children of Am'mŏn.

42 [j]He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and [k]the land of E'gўpt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of E'gўpt: and the [l]Lĭb'ў-ans and the E-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ans shall be at his steps.

(4) New adversaries in the north and east in the middle of the week after he has conquered and gotten control of the ten kingdoms of Revised Rome. He conquers these in the last 3 1/2 years and then brings them into Palestine to destroy Israel as he intended to do in the middle of the week when he broke his covenant with them and planted his tabernacle in the glorious holy mountain (v 45; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Mt. 24:15)

44 [m]But tidings out of the east and out of the north [n]shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great [o]fury to destroy, and [p]utterly to make away many.

a Antiochus, after conquering Egypt, returned to Antioch with the spoils of Egypt (1 Macc. 1:19-20). Hearing that there had been great rejoicing in Jerusalem because they heard a report of his death, he turned against the Jews (v 28)

b Antiochus Epiphanes made a 2nd invasion of Egypt, but it was not as successful as the first when Egypt was conquered and plundered. The former refers to his victory over the Egyptian army at Pelusium, and the latter to his subjugation of all Egypt, except Alexandria (v 29)

c The reason given here for Antiochus not continuing his war on Egypt is the ships of Chittim coming against him (v 30). This refers to the Romans who ordered him to cease his war on his two nephews. Antiochus said he would consult with his friends, but the Roman legate drew a circle around him demanding that he give his answer before stepping out of the circle. Antiochus yielded to the Roman demand and left the country after being within 7 miles of Alexandria. This is what grieved him (v 30)

d while in Egypt he heard that Jason, who had been deceived by him and deposed of the high priesthood, had gathered an army and marched against Jerusalem to take it from the wicked Menelaus who was beseiged in the castle (see notes j and k, v 22-23). Antiochus then came against Jerusalem and took it by storm; slew 40,000 Jews; sold many as slaves; boiled swine's flesh and sprinkled the broth in the temple and on the altar; broke into the holy of holies; took away the golden vessels and other sacred treasures; restored Menelaus to office; and made Philip, a Phrygian, governor of Judea (1 Macc. 1:24; 2 Macc. 5:21). He also prohibited Jewish worship and consecrated the Jewish temple to Jupiter Olympius. After taking away the Jewish sacrifices in the Jewish temple, Antiochus offered a swine upon the altar and made the temple desolate of divine worship (v 30-31; 1 Macc. 1:44-50). All this brought about the rebellion of the Jews under the Maccabees (v 32-34). This war with Antiochus lasted about 4 years after which he died in a war in Persia

This ends the historical section of this vision (v 2-34), which was all prophecy when Daniel received the revelation of these events. Other kings continued in Syria and Egypt until these countries were taken over by the Romans about 30 B.C.

e This is not the same as cutting off the daily sacrifices and setting up the abomination of desolation by the future Antichrist (8:9-14, notes; 9:27; 12:7; Mt. 24:15; Rev. 13). There have already been over 2,100 years since Antiochus caused this abomination of desolation (1 Macc. 1:44-50)

f A reference to the exploits of the Jews under the Maccabees (v 32-33; 1 and 2 Macc.)

g See note d, above

h The Jews received little help in all their struggles with Antiochus Epiphanes

i This verse emphasizes the fact that the main purpose of the vision was to show what would befall Israel in the last days (v 35; 10:14)

j From here to the end of the book the future Antichrist and events connected with the last Syrian king before the 2nd advent of Christ are predicted. See 10fold purpose of Daniel 10-12, p. 879 k The last Syrian king of the last days, the Antichrist. See p. 879

l Antichrist will do according to his will until the 2nd advent, then he will do what he will not want to do (7:11; 8:25; 9:27; 11:45; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:20; 20:10)

m Cp. 7:25; 8:25; 1 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13

n Cp. 7:8, 11, 20, 25; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13

he will lead his armies to victory against the combined nations, east and north of his 10 kingdoms. See Russia not king of the north, p. 879 n Heb. bahel, to tremble inwardly; palpitate; be alarmed; agitated; to hasten (v 44; Gen. 45:3; 1 Sam. 28:21; 2 Sam. 4:1; 2 Chr. 32:18; Job 4:5; 23:16; Ps. 30:7; 48:5; 83:17; 90:7; 104:29)

o Heb. chema, heat; fury

p Heb. kalah, complete; wholly consume a He will prosper until the indignation (Heb. zaam, froth at the mouth; rage; fury, especially, God's displeasure at sin) be accomplished, for it shall be finished in due time (v 36). This refers to the tribulation wrath of God in the seals, trumpets, vials, and woes that will come upon men for their sins during Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 6:17; 15:1). It no doubt also refers to the end of sins for Israel and all men in general when Christ comes to rid the earth of all rebellion and sin (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:3-7). This is proof that this king is yet future and that he will be the last one before God puts down sin on earth. He could be none other than the beast of 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 13:18; 17:12-17; 19:11-21; Dan. 7:25-27; 8:25; 9:27; 11:36-45. Cp. Jehovah's indignation (8:19; 9:16; Isa. 10:23, 25)

b 7 things about Antichrist, deities, p. 880

c In place of the God of his fathers he will honor the god of forces by dedicating gold, silver, precious stones, and pleasant things to it in all strongholds (v 38-39)

d Referring to the god of forces, and the strange god whom he will honor (v 38)

e He will be liberal, sharing the spoils and riches taken from many sources, and in this he will be similar to Antiochus Epiphanes (v 24)

f This definitely identifies the time of fulfillment of the main purpose of the vision (v 40; 8:19; 9:27; 11:35, 45; 12:1, 7-13). The vision concerns the very end of the Gentile world powers symbolized by the image of Dan. 2 and the beasts of Dan. 7 and 8; Rev. 13; 17:8-17. At the time of the end of this age in which we live, "shall the king of the south (Egypt) push at him (that is, the king of the north); and the king of the north (Syria) shall come against him (that is, the king of the south) like a whirlwind" with his armies and navies and conquer many countries (v 40)

Revival of the Grecian Empire

The above quotation refers to the little horn or Antichrist coming out of the 10 horns of Revised Rome, and after them to get power over them in the first half (3 1/2 years) of Daniel's 70th week. He subdues 3 of them (7:23-24). The others submit to him without further struggle (Rev. 17:12-17). He comes from Syria, one of the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire (8:9, 23; 11:36-45) and overthrows the other 3 divisions - Greece, Turkey, and Egypt. He thus revives the old Grecian Empire, which is symbolized by a leopard (7:6; Rev. 13:1-2). The other 6 kingdoms of the old Roman Empire submit to him, making him their leader in a war with the north and east (v 44; Rev. 17:12-17)

g The countries here are the ones of the old Grecian Empire divisions as dealt with in this chapter, as well as 8:8-9, 20-23

h After Antichrist from Syria has conquered Greece, Turkey, and Egypt and the countries making up these last day divisions of the Grecian Empire, he then breaks his covenant with the Jews (9:27), entering into Palestine as well as taking over the many countries of the other 6 kingdoms of Revised Rome (v 41)

i Antichrist kingdom limited. Here, 3 countries escape out of his hand even though they border on his empire (v 41). See 15 other proofs, p. 308 of N. T.

j The countries referred to here must be the 3 kingdoms he will subdue (7:24), besides the rest of the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome that will submit to him (Rev. 17:12-17), plus Libya and Ethiopia (11:43)

k If the wars of v 5-34 are only between Syria and Egypt, and if the last day war of v 40-43 is between Syria and Egypt, ending with the overthrow of Egypt (the king of the south) by Syria (the king of the north), then it settles the question as to where Antichrist comes from. He arises from Syria and will fulfil 7:8, 19-27; 8:9-14, 22-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1-7; Rev. 6:1-8; 13:1-18; 16:13-16; 17:8-17; 19:19-21

m This verse predicts the 3rd tri-continent war of the future (see 3 tri-continent wars, p. 879). It literally predicts that plans of war against him and his 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire will become known to Antichrist and a The Antichrist, or king of the north (Syria) will make his capital the Jewish temple in Jerusalem between the Dead Sea and the Mediterranean Sea in the glorious holy mountain, Mount Moriah; yet he shall come to an end at Armageddon (v 45; 7:11, 26-27; 8:25; 9:27; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:19-21)

b His end will be the lake of fire (7:11; Isa. 11:4; Rev. 19:20; 20:10) c His army will be destroyed except a 6th part (Ezek. 39:2). His supernatural backers (Satan, angels, and demons) will be cast into the bottomless pit (Rev. 20:1-3; Isa. 24:21-22), and he will be left alone to die as all men must do (v 45; Rev. 19:20)

d At that time: 4 great events take place:

1 At that time the Antichrist plants the tabernacle of his palace in the temple of Israel on Mount Moriah (11:45; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)

2 At that time Michael stands up and casts Satan and his angels to the earth to be among men (12:1; Rev. 12:7-12)

3 At that time the great tribulation begins (in the middle of Daniel's 70th week; 3 1/2 years before the 2nd advent - 12:1; 8:24-25; 9:27; Jer. 30:6-7; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 10:1-19:21)

4 At that time Daniel's people are delivered (translated), every one (144,000) that shall be found written in the book of life (12:1; Isa. 66:7-8; Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5, notes). See Book of life (12:1; Ex. 32:32-33; Ps. 56:8; 69:28; Lk. 10:20; Rev. 3:5; 13:8; 20:12, 15; 22:18-19)

f See The tribulation, p. 880

g The same time of trouble as Mt. 24:21

h This is a very clear proof that the 144,000 Jews will be translated as the manchild of Rev. 12:5. After this they are seen in heaven, as explained on p. 307 of the N. T.

10 proofs Antiochus Epiphanes not Antichrist (11:21):

1 The expression in his estate is used in v 7, 20, 21, 38 of immediate succession, or taking the place of without a time break of over 2,000 years as would be the case if Antichrist had been referred to in v 21-34

2 There is no break mentioned in v 21 as would be the case if there was to be a long period between Seleucus IV of v 20 and the future Antichrist of v 35-45. There is such a break at the end of the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes, v 34, and the beginning of the prophecy of the future Antichrist in v 35 where it is clear that the reference is to the end time

3 The kingdom was not given to Antiochus Epiphanes (v 21), but in the case of Antichrist, he is given a crown (Rev. 6:1-2) and power to rule (Rev. 13:1-5)

4 Antiochus Epiphanes was forced to go back into his own land by the Romans (v 28-30), but Antichrist is not to be so forced by the Romans or anyone else until Christ comes. He will do according to his own will (v 36)

5 Antiochus Epiphanes made 2 invasions of Egypt (v 25-31), while Antichrist will make only one (11:40-45)

6 In the 2nd invasion of Egypt Rome forced Antiochus Epiphanes to return to Syria (v 29-30), but when Antichrist takes Egypt (11:40-45) the Romans will surrender to him (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17, notes)

7 Antiochus Epiphanes was deeply grieved at the Roman opposition but finally yielded to their demand to liberate Egypt (v 30-31), while Antichrist will have no such opposition nor will he yield to Rome or any other power desiring to liberate Egypt (11:40-45; Rev. 17:12-17, notes)

8 The exploits of the Maccabees are definitely referred to in v 32-33, as proved in the books of 1 and 2 Maccabees of the Apocrypha (1 Macc. 1:10-24, 54; 2 Macc. 4:4-22; 5:11-21; 6:2)

9 The spoiling of Israel many days by the sword, flame, and captivity could not apply to Israel in the days of Antichrist, for the woman representing Israel at that time reaches the wilderness safely, without destruction or captivity (Rev. 12:6, 14-17)

(5) Sets his throne in the Jewish temple at Jerusalem (2 Thess. 2:4; 7:25 and 8:25a, refs.)

(6) The great tribulation of the last 3 1/2 years of the 70th week. The translation of the 144,000 of Rev. 7:1-8; 12:5; 14:1-5

AND[d]at that time shall Mī'chaĕl stand up, [e]the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be[a] time of trouble, such [f]as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and[h]at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

12 The resurrections (Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6; 1 Cor. 15)

▸2 [i]And many of them that sleep in the [j]dust of the earth shall awake, [k]some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

13 Rewards for the righteous

3 And [i]they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

14 The book sealed to the end

●4 But thou, O Dăn'iel, [m]shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall [n]run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

15 Question of the angel

5 ¶ Then I Dăn'iel looked, and, behold, [o]there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to [b]the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

16 Answer: 3 1/2 years tribulation (Mt. 24:15-21; Rev. 13)

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, [d]when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be[e]for a time, times, and an half; and [f]when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

17 Daniel's question

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, [g]what shall be the end of these things?

18 The answer: two additional periods following the 3 1/2 years

●9 And he said, Go thy way, Dăn'iel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

▸10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 [h]Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

●13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand [l]in thy lot at the end of the days. ◂

c Question 15. Next, v 8

d This is the same action as that of the angel (Christ) in Rev. 10:1-6, and concerns the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (v 7; 7:25; Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5). During this time the vision will be completed and the end of the age will come

e See the 3 "time" periods of Dan. 12, p. 882

f Antichrist will not destroy the Jewish nation. He will only scatter them and their power; and then all things will be finished concerning their eternal restoration (v 7; 9:24; Ezek. 37; Rom. 11:25)

g Question 16. The last question in Dan. What will follow these events of the 3 1/2 years during which time Antichrist will scatter the Jewish nation?

The 10fold answer to Daniel:

1 Go thy way, Daniel. Cp. v 13
2 The vision is sealed until the time of the end (note m, v 4)
3 Many shall be purified
4 Many shall be made white
5 Many will be tried
6 The wicked will increase wickedness
7 The wicked will not understand the vision, but the righteous will (v 10) 8 From the time the daily sacrifice will be taken away (v 11; 8:9-14; 9:27), and from the setting up of the abomination of desolation there will be 3 periods:
(1) 1,260 days (v 7)
(2) 1,290 days (v 11) above)
(3) 1,335 days (v 12. See note e,
9 Blessed is the man that waits and lives up to the end of the 1,335 days (v 12)
10 You will have a part in these events of the days following the 1,335 days (v 13)

b See note e, above

i This assures Daniel a part in these things after his resurrection (v 13). It teaches saints shall judge the world and rule forever under the Messiah (v 13; 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Lk. 22:30; 1 Cor. 6:2-4; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 2:27; 5:10; 12:5; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

l Lit., it refers to those who make others wise, and those who win souls and turn many to righteousness (v 3; 2 Tim. 3:15-17)

m Close up the words; seal the book, for the main purpose of the book concerns things at the time of the end (v 4; 2:28-29, 43-45; 7:17-27; 8:17, 19, 23; 9:27; 10:14; 11:35, 45)

n A prediction of increased travel and knowledge. See note on modern inventions: Knowledge increased, p. 882

o Here is another divine visitation to Daniel. See note m, 10:11

10 The whole passage (v 21-34) was too literally fulfilled concerning Antiochus Epiphanes, not to refer to him as we shall see in the comments on this passage. It seems very clear that prophecy of the future Antichrist begins in v 35

How Antiochus Epiphanes became king (11:21):

Antiochus Epiphanes was on his way from Rome when his father, Seleucus IV, died. Heliodorus who poisoned the king had already declared himself king, as had several others, but Antiochus came home peaceably (not in war) and using flattery obtained the kingdom. He flattered Eumenes, king of Pergamos, and Attalus his brother, and got their assistance. He flattered the Romans, and sent ambassadors to court their favor, paying them tribute which was in arrears. He flattered the Syrians, gained their favor, and took the throne with their backing. Here Antiochus Epiphanes is called a vile person because he was every man's companion. He resorted to the common shops and taverns, drank with the lowest characters, and sang debauched songs with them. For this he was called by some Epimanes, the Madman

Summary of Daniel

Date and place: Written from Babylon and Shushan about 606 or 616 to 536 B.C.

Author: Daniel, a captive prince from Judah (1:3-6), an interpreter of dreams and visions (1:17; 2:12-49; 4:8-27; 5:10-31), prime minister under several kings (2:46-49; 5:29; 6:1-3), and prophet of God (Dan. 7:28; 8:1; 9:21-23; 10:1-12; 12:4-13). See notes on Dan. 1

Theme: Prophecies of the Gentile world kingdoms from Daniel's day to the Millennium and eternal kingdom of God on earth (2:38-45; 7:17-27; 8:20-25; 9:24-27; 11:40-12:13). Daniel also records history of Babylon and Medo-Persia under Nebuchadnezzar (2:1-4:37), Belshazzar (5:1-31; 7:1; 8:1), Darius the Mede (6:1-28; 9:1), and Cyrus the Persian (10:1-11:1). The universal theory that the book of Daniel covers the whole length of the times of the Gentiles is false. Daniel saw these times as happening from his day on, but that does not prove their entire length was predicted by him. He only saw the world kingdoms that were to oppress Israel from his day to the setting up of God's kingdom on earth. He could not predict the history of the oppression of Israel by the Egyptians and Assyrians before his day. There are 8 world empires in the times of the Gentiles. See p. 873

Statistics: 27th book of the Bible; 12 chapters; 357 verses; 11,606 words; 16 questions; 218 verses of history; 79 verses of fulfilled and 60 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 7 commands; 4 promises; and 16 messages from God

The Image Interpreted (2:38)

The great image of the dream of 5 different materials represents 5 great world empires: Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome, and Revised Rome made up of 10 kingdoms in the last days (2:44-45; 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17)

1 The head of gold (v 32, 35, 38)

The head of gold portion of the great image represents the 1st of 5 kingdoms in the vision - Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar's own kingdom (v 37-38; Jer. 15:4; 24:9; 25:1-12; 29:16). The 5 kingdoms succeeded each other as the time came for them to fulfil God's plan in punishing Israel. They all existed before they were used to punish Israel in the times of the Gentiles, and each in turn, after fulfilling her mission with Israel, was absorbed in the succeeding kingdom. Babylon conquered Israel in the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, about 616 B.C. and continued in power for 70 years (9:2; Jer. 25)

Nebuchadnezzar reigned 43 years and was succeeded by Evil-Merodach (2 Ki. 25:27; Jer. 52:31), and Nabonidus and Belshazzar who reigned jointly until Babylon was overthrown (Dan. 5). This empire oppressed Israel for 70 years, 616 B.C. to 546 B.C. (Jer. 25).

2 The breast and arms of silver (v 32, 35, 39)

This part of the image symbolizes the Medo-Persian kingdom which succeeded Babylon at the end of the 70 years' captivity of the Jews. It was the 2nd kingdom of the dream to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles (2:39; 5:1-31; 8:20; 9:1; 10:1; 11:1-3; 2 Chr. 36:22; Ezra 1:1-3). The two arms symbolize the two nations making the dual kingdom, the Medes and the Persians. This kingdom was inferior to the Babylonian Empire as silver is to gold. It was not inferior in power for it overthrew Babylon, but in form of government, wealth, luxury, and glory (Isa. 13:19). In Babylon the king was the absolute power (Dan. 5:19), but in Medo-Persia law was superior to the king who could not alter a law even for the best good of his subjects (Dan. 6:1, 14). Similarly, in the 3rd and 4th kingdoms, the forms of government were inferior as well as their wealth and glory. Babylon took Israel captive (Jer. 25) and Medo-Persia liberated them (Isa. 44:28; 45:1-5; Ezra 1:1-4; 6:1-14). Medo-Persia continued until Alexander the Great who founded the old Grecian Empire, 334 B.C.

3 The belly and the thighs of brass (v 32, 35, 39)

This part of the great image symbolizes the 3rd or Grecian Empire under Alexander the Great which also dominated Israel in the times of the Gentiles (2:39; 8:20-21; 11:1-34). This 3rd empire became the greatest in territory of the first three kingdoms. Alexander started from Greece and Macedon and conquered all the territories of the other two kingdoms and even part of India. The Grecian Empire began to decay with the death of Alexander. His vast territory was divided into four parts, as we shall see when we study Dan. 8

4 The legs of iron (v 33-35, 40)

This part of the great image symbolizes the old Roman Empire which followed Greece in the domination of Israel. It was the 4th kingdom of the dream to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles (2:40; 7:23-24; 9:26; Lk. 2:1; 20:20-24; Jn. 11:48; Mt. 24:1-2; Acts 16:21; 22:25-29). This kingdom was to be stronger than all the preceding kingdoms as iron is stronger than gold, silver, and bram. Though called the 4th this is not the last of the Gentile world kingdoms to persecute Israel in the times of the Gentiles. There will yet be two kingdoms which will reign over Israel before the coming of their Messiah to deliver them and set up the kingdom of God in the earth forever. The two legs of iron represent the eastern and western divisions of the old Roman Empire

5 The feet and toes of iron and clay (v 33-35, 44)

This part of the image represents the future revised Roman Empire, the 5th kingdom in the image to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles (2:31-43; 7:23-25; Rev. 17:12-17). This, the last part of the image, was to be destroyed by the stone from heaven, Revised Rome was to be a divided kingdom, partly strong and partly weak, as symbolized by the two materials of the feet and toes. The clay represents the rule by the masses and the iron the rule by kings. These two forms of government will not mix even as iron and clay will not mix. The final outcome will be that the Iron will again become predominant. Kings will again rule inside the Roman Empire territory. The 10 kingdoms will be formed therein and be ruled by 10 kings (v 44-45; 7:7-8, 23-24). These 10 kingdoms represented by the 10 toes will exist in the last days before the coming of Christ and will be destroyed at His coming (Rev. 17:8-17; 19:11-21). They will be ruled by 10 kings during the first 3 1/2 years of the 70th week, then by the Antichrist the last 3 1/2 years (2:44,45; 7:7-14; 7:17-25; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:8-17; 2 Th. 2:1-12). The 10 kingdoms will form what is known to Bible students as the Revised Roman Empire dealt with in ch. 7 and Rev. 17:12-17, notes

The stone that smote the image (v 34-35, 44-45) symbolizes the kingdom of heaven headed by the Lord Jesus Christ who will, at His 2nd coming, destroy the kingdoms of this world (v 35, 44, 45; 7:13-27; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Zech. 14:1-21; 2 Th. 1:7-11; 2:4-8; Jude 14; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:7). Christ Himself is called a "stone" (Ps. 118:22; Mt. 21:44; Eph. 2:19-22; 1 Pet. 2:6-8). The phrase "without hands" is an expression emphasizing the absence of all human instrumentality and the act of God alone (2:45; 8:25; Job 34:20; Lam. 4:6)

It will be noted in the outline of the text that Babylon is called the 3rd, Medo-Persia the 4th, Greece the 6th, Rome the 6th, and Revised Rome the 7th world empire. This simply means that they are the 3rd to the 7th of the 8 world empires to oppress Israel in the times of the Gentiles. Two empires oppressed Israel before Babylon - Egypt and Assyria, the 1st and 2nd. The 8th will be the kingdom of Antichrist (Rev. 17:9-11, notes). These 5 kingdoms are the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th of the book of Daniel, but the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th of the book of Rev. 17:8-11. See The times of the Gentiles, below.

The times of the Gentiles (2:38-45; Lk. 21:24)

By the term the times of the Gentiles we mean the administration of the Gentiles, as the rod of chastening upon Israel, to further God's purpose concerning them. It began with Israel's first oppression by the Gentiles in Egypt, and will continue with the history of Israel through this dispensation of Grace. It will end at the return of the Messiah in glory when He will deliver Israel from the Gentiles and exalt them as the head of all nations in the Millennium and forever (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25; Rev. 19:11-20:10)

Door of mercy open to Gentiles

This dispensation of the Gentiles is mentioned only in Lk. 21:24 and referred to in Rom. 11:25 as the fulness of the Gentiles. The term in Romans is often taken to mean that a time will come when God will no longer save Gentiles, but will give salvation only to the Jews. Such a doctrine is not once mentioned in the Bible. During the future tribulation both Jews and Gentiles can and will be saved (Acts 2:16-21; Rom. 1:16; 10:11-13; Rev. 7:9-17)

The term the fulness of the Gentiles could not mean that God will some day cut off Gentiles from salvation and become a cruel tyrant, damning the souls of men in eternity regardless of what those men may desire to do about their own destiny. This term means the same as the times of the Gentiles and has nothing to do with the salvation of the Gentiles. It refers to political domination over the Jews by the Gentiles, off and on, from the Egyptian bondage to the 2nd coming of Christ

Regarding the whole length of the times of the Gentiles it has already been over 3,700 years and will continue until the 2nd advent of Christ, who will deliver the Jews from the Gentiles under Antichrist and set up an earthly kingdom over them forever (Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-10; Dan. 2:44; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Isa. 9:6-7)

It is generally taught that the times of the Gentiles are 2,520 years, based upon a human theory about the seven times of Lev. 26, where God predicted that when Israel sinned He would punish them seven times for their sins. It is believed that a prophetic year is 360 days long and that one can make a day mean a year when he so pleases. Thus, a year of 360 days is made a period of 360 years. Seven times 360 years makes 2,520 years. Many teach that these 2,520 years began with the fall of Jerusalem under Nebuchadnezzar about 606 B.C. Others teach they began at certain other dates in the past. This is why we have many endings for the times of the Gentiles. The following are some of the dates given in modern books of prophetical students for the ending of the times of the Gentiles: 1914, 1917, 1918, 1925, 1927, 1932, 1935, 1937, 1938, 1942, 1945, 1948, 1954, 1958. It stands to reason that all these dates cannot be right. Furthermore, it is clear that there is no definite date stated in the Bible for the ending of the times of the Gentiles, or someone would have found it by now. That the Bible does not teach such a false theory of 2,520 years as the whole length of the times of the Gentiles is clear from the following points:

1 The expression seven times is used 23 times in the O.T. The Hebrew word for times is paham, meaning a stroke. It does not, in any one place, mean a set period of time as does the Hebrew word iddawn used in Dan. 2:21; 4:16; 23, 25; 7:25; 12:7

2 If the word time means a period of 360 days it cannot also mean 360 years. No one has been given authority to change a day to a year in any passage he pleases. If God who knows the difference between the words day and year said days in a certain scripture He meant days, and if He said years He meant years. Just because He commanded Israel to wander in the wilderness 40 years according to the number of days the spies were in Canaan (Num. 14:33-34) and appointed years according to the same number of days in the case of Ezekiel (Ezek. 4:5-6), we need not conclude that in every place in prophecy the word days means years and years means days. Even in these passages days meant days and years meant years, for the spies were in Canaan 40 actual days, not 40 years. If it is biblical to make days and times mean years whenever we please to prove a human theory, then let us be consistent and do this with all passages where these words are found

If seven times means 2,520 years in one passage, it surely means it in all passages unless otherwise stated. According to this we would then have Jacob bowing down to Esau 2,520 years (Gen. 33:3), the Jews sprinkling blood of their sacrifices 2,520 years during each day (Lev. 4:6, 17; 8:11), the cleansing of each leper for 2,520 years (Lev. 14:7, 16, 27, 51), Israel marching around Jericho 2,520 years on the seventh day (Josh. 6:4, 15), Elijah's servant looking for rain for 2,520 years (1 Kings 18:43), and the resurrected child sneezing 2,520 years (2 Kings 4:35)

An objection may be that these are historical facts and we are not to give seven times a meaning of 2,520 years except in prophetical passages. But we answer that this is just as ridiculous, for we would have Naaman dipping himself in Jordan 2,520 years, for the prophecy was that if he should do this seven times he would be clean (2 Kings 5:10-14). Nebuchadnezzar would have been a maniac for 2,520 years, for the prophecy was that he would be one for seven times (Dan. 4:16, 23, 25)

3 The expression seven times is used 4 times in Lev. 26, and if 1 seven times means 2,520 years, then the other 3 also mean the same. Then, 4 times seven times would mean 10,080 years during which Israel was to be punished. Furthermore, according to Lev. 26:14-17, if Israel broke His covenant, God predicted He would send 8 different plagues upon them. These, He predicted before mentioning the 1st seven times. This explains why He said, "If ye will not YET for all this (the former 8 plagues) hearken unto me, THEN (after the period taken up by the 8 plagues) I will punish you seven times MORE for your sins," etc.

It is clear from Lev. 26:27-39 that the whole 4, seven times of punishment was to be before Israel was to be scattered among the nations, and anyone knows that 10,080 years did not take place before this. Thus it is clear that the 2,520 year theory of the whole length of the times of the Gentiles based upon one of the 4 seven times of Lev. 26 is false and proves nothing as to its length

The phrase seven times means severity of punishment instead of 2,520 years, when a parent says "I will whip you seven times harder than I did yesterday," we certainly do not believe he means to beat a child 2,520 years. Such is merely a figure of speech expressing severity of punishment, and that is all God intended to express in Lev. 26. He wanted Israel to know that if one punishment would not correct them and bring them to repentance, He would bring more severe punishments upon them and finally abandon them to captivity among the nations

Because there have been about 2,500 to 2,600 years from Daniel's day to ours is no proof that the times of the Gentiles are 2,520 years long. Neither does the fact that Daniel pictured Gentile oppression of Israel from his day to the 2nd advent of Christ prove that he saw the full length of the times of the Gentiles, nor does it prove that these times started in his day. Daniel merely predicted the oppressions of the Gentiles from his day on, not the beginning of them back in Egypt or the whole length of them. He could not have foretold what was already history concerning Gentile oppression of Israel

John, in Rev. 17:8-18, predicts events concerning the beast, the 8th and last kingdom that will oppress Israel, in the times of the Gentiles. He explains that the 7 heads on the beast are 7 kingdoms that precede the 8th and last kingdom which will fight against Christ at His 2nd advent. He says that 5 of these have already passed away before his day, that 1 is in his day (the 6th, or old Roman Empire), that the 7th is yet to come between the 6th, and the 8th (the Revised Roman Empire made up of 10 kingdoms, as foretold by the 10 toes on the image of Dan. 2:40-44, and the 10 horns of Dan. 7:7-8, 23-24; Rev. 13:1-8; 17:8-17), and that the 8th will be the last kingdom on earth before Christ comes to the earth. The 5 that have passed away before John's day are: Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Greece. They are the only empires oppressing Israel before John's day that could be referred to. See notes on Rev. 17:8-17; note c, Ps. 80:13; p. 311 of N.T.

4 We know that the Gentiles in Egypt oppressed Israel for a much longer period than Nebuchadnezzar and Babylon did, for when Moses was born Israel was already being oppressed, as proved by the law to kill all male children. He was 80 years old when he led Israel out of Egyptian bondage. Israel was in Babylon only 70 years (Jer. 25:11). What would this oppression of Israel be called if not the times of the Gentiles? Then, after this kingdom oppressed Israel off and on for hundreds of years, the Assyrian Empire oppressed them and took the 10 tribes captive. This was 133 years before Babylon took the 2 tribes captive. What was this but the times of the Gentiles? It is but a human theory that the times of the Gentiles began with Nebuchadnezzar. The fact is, they had already been going on for about 1,200 years by the time of Nebuchadnezzar. See p. 311 of N.T.

5 If the whole length of the times of the Gentiles was to be 2,520 years, then they have already ended, for 2,520 years of 360 days each (as a year is supposed to be by this theory) make 907,200 days. But from 606 B.C., when Judah was taken to Babylon, at which time, according to most prophetical scholars, the times of the Gentiles began, to 1968 A. D. there have already been 2, 564 years of 365 1/4 days or a total of 936, 501 days. This makes a difference of 29, 301 days between the two periods or approximately 80 years. According to this the times of the Gentiles ended around 1878 and that is long before any modern prophetical student has placed a date for their ending.

Thus it is clear that the times of the Gentiles began with the first oppression of Israel by the Gentiles and that they have continued as the Gentiles have oppressed the Jews off and on for over 3, 711 years up to 1959 A. D. The Jews are still being oppressed by the Gentiles, and Jerusalem is still being trodden down by them and will be until the 2nd coming of Christ, except for a short period when Israel will again have control of the city before Antichrist breaks his 7-year covenant with them in the future (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 11:1-2). The Scriptures show clearly that Christ will deliver the Jews from the Gentiles at His second advent (Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 21:24; Rom. 11:25; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; 8:20-25; Rev. 11:1-2, 15; 19:11-21). Because Jerusalem will be trodden down of the Gentiles during the last 42 months of this age, it is certain that the times of the Gentiles will continue until then (Rev. 11:1-2; Dan. 9:27; 11:45-12:7). How many more years there will be before Daniel's 70th week begins and the Antichrist comes to make this 7-year covenant with the Jews is not stated in Scripture, and all speculation is valueless. The times of the Gentiles have already continued through 6 world empires - the Egyptian, Assyrian, Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Grecian, Roman; and they will continue through 2 more in the near future - the Revised Roman made up of 10 kingdoms, and the Revived Grecian made up of the same 10 but headed by the Antichrist who will be defeated by Christ at His 2nd advent (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 13:1-8; 17:8-17).

10 kings, not barbarous tribes (7:24)

Some teach that the 10 toes and 10 horns of Dan. 2 and 7 are 10 barbarous tribes which overran the old Roman Empire between 351-474 A. D. They interpret the little horn of Dan. 7 and 8 and the beast of Rev. 13-20 to be the papacy, but the following points disprove this:

1 The 10 toes and 10 horns are explained by God to be "ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as KINGS one hour with the beast. These shall make war on the Lamb. . . these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate. . For God hath put in THEIR HEARTS to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give THEIR KINGDOM unto the beast, UNTIL the words of God shall be fulfilled" (2:44; 7:24; Rev. 17:8-17). They are 10 persons who will rule 10 kingdoms for "forty and two months" or the last 1260 literal days at the end of this age, and who will help the beast fight against Christ at Armageddon - not 10 tribes of the 4th and 5th centuries A. D. (7:24-27; 8:25; Rev. 13:5; 17:14-17; 19:19-21).

2 The 10 kings will reign over 10 kingdoms that will yet be formed inside the old Roman Empire - not 10 tribes of the past (2:44; 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17; 19:19-21).

3 The God of heaven is to set up a kingdom on earth "in the days of these kings" (2:44-45; Rev. 19:11-20:7). He did not set up such a kingdom in 351-474 A. D. and has not yet done so. See proofs When will the kingdom be set up? p. 875.

4 The 10 kings will all be in existence at the same time and place, do the same things and continue the same length of time (2:44; 7:7-8, 19-27; Rev. 13:1-3; 17:12-17). They will be in existence and be reigning over the 10 kingdoms before the beast comes (7:7-8, 19-27). They will make the 7th of the 7 kingdoms that precede the beast who forms the 8th kingdom (Rev. 17:8-11). All this is yet future, so could not be 10 tribes of the past (Rev. 17:12-17; 19:19-21).

5 The little horn of Dan. 7 and 8 is the same as the beast of Rev. 13-20 as can be seen by a comparison of them in these scriptures. See The little horn, col. 2. Since the little horn of Daniel and the beast of Revelation are the same and are yet future, as proved by their war on Christ at His 2nd advent (Rev. 17:12-17; 19:19-21), and since they both will have the 10 kings under them at that time, the 10 kings could not be 10 tribes of the past.

6 Not one detail of Daniel or Revelation has ever been fulfilled with the papacy or 10 barbarous tribes outside the empire that overran the Roman Empire centuries ago. Tribes could never be 10 personal kings as is required of the prophecies of these books. No 10 tribes ever did exist at the same time and place, making agreement to give the papacy power to rule for 3 1/2 years. God did not set up His kingdom in 351-474 A. D.

7 There were 21 tribes or more which overran the Roman Empire and not 10, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica under the subjects "Lombards" and "Suevi." Any group of 10 of these could not exist together to fight against Christ at Armageddon, as required in Rev. 17:14; 19:19-21.

8 The papacy did not overthrow 3 of these tribes and force the others to submit, as predicted of the little horn and the beast (7:8, 19-24; Rev. 17:12-17).

9 No 10 kings have ever come from inside the Roman Empire to fulfill the prophecies, as required in Dan. 7:24, "Out of this kingdom" means from within. The tribes that overran the Roman Empire were from outside that empire.

10 No 10 tribes have ever been of one mind to give their power to the papacy, as foretold in Rev. 17:12-17 of the beast.

11 No papacy has ever come from one of the four divisions of the old Grecian Empire as will be true of the little horn of the future, as seen in Dan. 8:9-14, 23.

12 No papacy has made constant war on saints as the little horn will do when he comes "UNTIL" Christ comes (7:19-22; Rev. 13:1-7, 16-18).

We can, therefore, say without reservation that the theory that the 10 kings are 10 tribes that overran the Roman Empire 351-474 A. D. is unbiblical and unhistorical. The scores of pages in some books devoted to the history of the papacy do not prove anything as far as the fulfillment of Daniel and Revelation are concerned, for these events will be fulfilled "AFTER THE CHURCHES" as proved in Rev. 4:1, note.

Russia will be defeated:

Russia must be defeated before the 10 kingdoms can be formed, for she controls Albania, Rumania, Bulgaria, and Hungary, which are countries of the old Roman Empire territory. Russia will not give up these states without war.

The little horn (7:24)

Dan. 7:24 states that, "The ten horns out of this kingdom (the 4th, Rome) are ten kings that shall arise: and ANOTHER shall arise AFTER them; and he shall be diverse from the first (the 10), and he shall subdue three kings (of the 10)." This will give him 4 of the 10 kings. The other 6 of the 10 will agree to give their power to this little horn and he will form the 8th kingdom of Rev. 17:8-17.

It is clear that the little horn arises AFTER the 10 horns and not BEFORE them and that he does not have a thing to do with causing the rise of the 10. He does not revise the Roman Empire and is not on the scene of action until after the 10 kingdoms are fully formed. These facts exclude the possibility of some ruler, the pope, or any man now prominent in world affairs as being the Antichrist of the future.

Sensational writings declaring that some present or historical man will be the future Antichrist are unscriptural, and cause much confusion. The 10 horns are the last form of the old Roman Empire and are within the same territory. They were first seen on the beast before Daniel saw the little horn come up out of the 10 horns. Daniel said, "I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn" (Dan. 7:8). This "little horn" is yet in the future, and is the same as the "beast" in Rev. 13 as proved by the following:

1 Both are conquerors (7:8, 20-24; Rev. 6:1-2).

2 Both speak blasphemies (7:8, 20-26; Rev. 13:5).

3 Both prevail against saints (7:21-25; Rev. 13:7).

4 Both control the 10 horns (7:20-25; Rev. 13:1; 17:12-14).

5 Both change the times and laws (7:11, 21-27; Rev. 13:1-7).

6 Both are slain and given to the burning flame by the same person and at the same time (2:44-45; 7:9-11, 18, 25-27; Rev. 19:11-21).

7 Both were to reign over the 10 horns "until the Ancient of days came, . and the saints possessed the kingdom" (2:44-45; 7:8-11, 18, 21-22, 25-27; Rev. 17:12-14; 19:11-21).

8 Both are destroyed at the second coming of Christ (2:44-45; 7:9-14; Rev. 19:11-21).

9 Both continue for the same length of time (7:25; Rev. 11:2-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; 19:11-21).

10 Immediately following both, the Kingdom of Heaven is set up (2:44-45; 7:9-14, 21-27; Lk. 1:32-35; Isa. 9:6-7; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-6).

11 Both come out of the 10 kingdoms and subdue 3 others (7:7-8, 23-24; 8:8-9, 20-24; Rev. 6:1-2; 13:1-5; 17:12-17).

12 Both rise "after" the 10 horns (7:7-8, 23-24; 8:23; Rev. 13:1-7; 17:12-17).

13 Both are kings of fierce countenance (7:8-25; 8:23; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:12-17; 2 Th. 2:8-12).

14 Both cause craft to prosper (7:8, 20-26; 8:25; 2 Th. 2:4-12; Rev. 13:1-18).

15 Both exalt themselves (7:8, 20-26; 8:25; 2 Th. 2:4-12; Rev. 13:1-18).

16 Both fight against Christ at His coming (7:20-25; 8:25; Rev. 17:12-17; 19:11-21; 2 Th. 2:8-12).

17 Both shall be destroyed "without hand" (2:44, 45; 7:9-11, 22-27; 8:25; Rev. 19:11-21; 2 Th. 2:8-12).

18 Both do according to their own will for the same length of time (7:25; 8:24; 11:36; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:5-7).

19 Both will be alive at the 2nd coming of Christ (7:11; 8:22-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 19:19-21).

20 Both will cause the great tribulation (7:21-27; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7; Mt. 24:15-31; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 7:14; 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6).

21 Both will do away with the Jewish sacrifices in Jerusalem (7:25; 8:24; 9:27; 11:35-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15).

22 Both will reign from the Jewish temple in Jerusalem (8:9-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:7; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2; 13:1-18).

23 Both will disregard the God of their fathers (7:11; 19:25; 8:22-25; 9:27; 11:38-39; Jn. 5:43).

24 Both will honor Satan and get their power from him (8:24; 11:35-45; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-4).

16 Antichrist fallacies (7:24)

1 That Antichrist will revive the Roman Empire and reign from Rome is false. The Roman Empire will never be revived, nor will Antichrist have a part in the formation of the 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire territory. He is to come after them, and not before them (v 23-24).

2 That Antichrist will come from Rome and Italy is false. He will come from Babylon and future enlarged Syria. See notes, 8:9-10, 20-23; 11:35-45.

3 That Antichrist will be Nimrod, Antiochus Epiphanes, or any Egyptian, Assyrian, Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Grecian, or Roman king of the ancient past is false. He is not to be any resurrected man of the past, for he will be slain by Christ at Armageddon which means he will be a mortal man (4 things concerning Antichrist, p. 829).

4 That Antichrist will be Mussolini, Hitler, Stalin, the Pope of Rome, or some other man who has recently lived is false. None of these men have come from Syria and some are not from the Roman Empire territory at all as is true of Antichrist (7:7-8, 23-24; 8:9, 20-23; 11:36-45). That one of these recent men will be resurrected as the Antichrist is as false as the theory in point 3, above, which see.

5 That Antichrist will be Judas Iscariot because both are called son of perdition is false. (See note d, Jn. 17:12; 4 things concerning Antichrist, 859)

6 That Antichrist will be a present magician in Syria is false. Antichrist will not be revealed or come into prominence in any sense until after the 10 kingdoms are formed and until after the rapture of the church (see notes on p. 230, 30¢ of N. T.

7 That Antichrist will be any man now prominent in world affairs is false, for the reason given in point 6, above.

8 That Antichrist will be a child of the devil, a direct offspring of Satan, imitating the incarnation of God in the flesh is false. (See notes on Jn. 6:70; 8:44 and p. 310 of N. T. No such doctrine is found in Scripture.

9 That Antichrist will be an incarnation of Satan is false. Satan is symbolized by the dragon (Rev. 12:9) who will give his power to the beast or Antichrist (8:24; 11:36-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-5; 16:13-16; 19:20; 20:10).

10 That Antichrist will be the opposite of Jesus Christ in birth, sonship, ministry, death, burial, resurrection, and power is false. No statement is found in Scripture to prove one of these claims. The word Antichrist simply means against Christ, not like Him. See 21 facts about, p. 230 of N. T.

11 That Antichrist will rule America and be a world-wide dictator is false. See Extent of reign, p. 308 of N. T.

12 That Antichrist will kill every person in the world who does not take his mark and worship him is false. See Extent of his reign, p. 308 of N. T.

13 That Antichrist will come up from the bottomless pit is false. See the study of The Beast, p. 310 of N. T.

14 That Antichrist will come from Russia or Germany is false. These countries were never inside the old Roman Empire our of which Antichrist must come (v 7-8, 23-24).

15 That Antichrist will bring universal peace and prosperity is false. He will not see peace from the time he comes until he is slain by Christ at Armageddon. In his rise he will overthrow 3 kingdoms (v 7-8, 20, 23-24), then make war on Palestine and overthrow many countries (11:40-43). In the last 3 1/2 years of this age he will use the 10 kingdoms to fight against the countries north and east of his Roman Empire territory kingdom (Dan. 11:44). After conquering Russia and other northern and eastern countries he will lead them against Christ to destroy the Jews, and be defeated by Christ at Armageddon (Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21). No statement is made showing that he will bring universal prosperity. The statement by peace destroy many (8:25) refers to his covenant of peace to Israel (9:27). Among the nations he is to go forth conquering and to conquer (v 7-8, 23-24; 11:36-45; Rev. 6:1-2).

16 That the head wounded to death (Rev. 13:3, 12) refers to the assassination of Antichrist and his resurrection from the dead is false. This refers to a kingdom being destroyed and revived as the 8th and last kingdom, not to a man being killed and resurrected (8 mountain kingdoms, p. 311 of N. T.)

15fold interpretation (7:17-27)

1 The 4 beasts are 4 kings or kingdoms in succession (v 17, 23-24; 2:39-43; 8:20-23; Rev. 17:9-11).

2 The God of heaven will set up a kingdom in the days of the 10 kingdoms and the little horn (v 18, 27; 2:44-45; Rev. 17:8-17).

3 The kingdom of heaven and of God will be given to the saints to rule over (v 13-14, 18, 27; Mt. 13:41-50; 25:31-46; Rom. 8:17-18; 1 Cor. 6:2; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 11:15; 20:4-6; 22:4-5).

4 The reign of Christ and his saints will be eternal (note c, 7:14).

5 The subjects of the eternal kingdom will be the coming eternal generations of natural people of all races (note c, 7:14).

6 The 4th beast is the 4th kingdom, the old Roman Empire which shall devour the territories of the first 3 beasts (v 7-8, 19, 23).

7 The 10 horns are 10 kingdoms out of the 4th kingdom, the old Roman Empire territory. They are yet to be formed (v 7-8, 20, 23-24; Rev. 17:9-17).

8 The little horn is the Antichrist who will come up among the 10 kingdoms and after they are formed (v 7-8, 20, 23-24; Rev. 17:8-17)

9 The little horn shall be different in power from the 10 kingdoms (v 7-8, 20, 23-24; 8:20-23; 11:36-45; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:8-17)

10 The little horn shall subdue 3 of the 10 kingdoms in his rise to power over them (v 7-8, 20, 23-24; 8:20-23; 11:36-45; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:8-17)

11 The little horn shall speak great things (4 things concerning, p. 859)

12 The little horn shall make war on the saints (v 21, 25; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7; Rev. 11:7; 13:7; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6). He shall prevail against them

Until 3 things happen:

(1) Until the Ancient of days comes to the earth with Christ at the 2nd advent to defeat and destroy the little horn (v 21-22, 26-27; 8:23-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:7; Rev. 17:8-17; 19:11-21)

(2) Until judgment is given to the saints (v 22; 1 Cor. 6:2)

(3) Until the time for the saints to possess the kingdom (v 18, 22, 27; Mt. 25:31-46; Lk. 22:30; Rom. 8:17-18; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 11:15; 20:4-6; 22:4-5)

13 The little horn shall change times and laws for 3 1/2 years (v 25; 12:7; Rev. 13:5)

14 The little horn shall come to an end when the Ancient of days comes and the judgment is held (v 26; 8:25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:7; Rev. 19:11-21)

15 The kingdom of the little horn, and all other world kingdoms shall be given to God, Christ and the saints of the most high to become the kingdom of God on earth forever (v 13-14, 18, 27; 2:44-45; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10; Zech. 14)

When will the kingdom be set up?

1 At the return of the King from glory (Mt. 25:31-46; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; 8:18-22; Zech. 14; 2 Th. 1:7; Jude 14; Rev. 17:14; 19:11-20:7)

2 When Jerusalem is surrounded by armies (Zech. 14)

3 After the church is raptured (1 Cor. 15:51-58; 1 Th. 4:13-17), for the church comes back to earth with Christ to help Him set up the kingdom and reign over the nations (Zech. 14:1-5; Jude 14; Rev. 1:4-5; 5:10; 17:14; 19:11-21). It is not until after the days of the church that Christ comes to build again the house of David (Acts 15:13-18; Isa. 9:6-7; 11:1; Hos. 3:4-5; Lk. 1:32-35). The church is raptured before the coming of the Antichrist (2 Th. 2:7-8) and Antichrist makes his appearance before Christ comes (2 Th. 2:1-6), so Christ's kingdom cannot be set up until these events take place

4 After the future tribulation, for Christ does not come to the earth with the saints until then (Mt. 24:15-31; Zech. 14:1-21; Dan. 12:1-13; Rev. 19:11-21)

5 After the great apostasy and the revelation of the Antichrist, for Antichrist is destroyed at Christ's coming to earth, so he must be here when Christ comes (2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 19:11-21; Dan. 7:18-27; 8:16-27; 9:27; 11:36-12:13)

6 At the time the Antichrist is destroyed and Satan is bound for 1,000 years (Rev. 5:10; 20:1-7). During the Church Age and the future tribulation period Satan is loose (1 Pet. 5:8; Rev. 12:12-17; 13:1-8; 20:1-7). The devil is still loose, so we are still in the Church Age and will be until Christ comes to bind the devil

7 After the first resurrection, for the saints reign with Christ on earth for 1,000 years (Rev. 5:9-10; 20:1-6). Therefore, the saints must first be resurrected. This is the period of suffering for Christ, not the period of reigning with Him (Rom. 8:16; 1 Cor. 15:20-58; 2 Cor. 5:6; Phil. 1:23; 3:20-21; Col. 1:24; 2 Tim. 2:12; 3:12). The 1,000 years are between the resurrection of the righteous and that of the wicked (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

8 At the time Ezekiel's temple is built (Ezek. 40:1-43:7). The reign of Christ will be set up in Jerusalem in Ezekiel's temple (Ezek. 43:7), therefore, the kingdom cannot be set up until then. Christ will build this temple when He comes, but the kingdom naturally will not and cannot be set up in the temple until it is built (Isa. 9:6-7; 52:1-8; 62:6-12; Ezek. 36:24-36; 41:1; 43:7; Zech. 6:12-13; 14:1-21; Lk. 1:32-35; Acts 15:13-18)

9 After Israel is gathered back from all countries (Ezek. 20:33-36; 36:17-38; 37:1-28; Hos. 3:4-5; Dan. 9:27)

10 When Israel is repentant (Zech. 12:10-14; 13:1-9; 14:1-21; Mt. 23:37-39; 24:15-31; 25:31-46; Rom. 11:25-29)

11 When the Jews are delivered from the armies of the nations and become a blessing to all the families of the earth (Gen. 12:1-3; Ps. 2:6-8; Isa. 9:6-7; 25:6-9; Zech. 9:9-11; 14:1-21; Acts 15:13-18; Lk. 1:32-35)

12 In the days of the 10 kings of Revised Rome and Revived Grecia (Dan. 2:40-45; 7:18-28; Rev. 17:8-18)

13 At the end of the times of the Gentiles (Lk. 21:20-24; Rom. 11:25-29; Acts 15:13-17)

14 When it is God's time to put down rebellion on earth (Acts 1:7-11; 3:19-21; 1 Cor. 15:24-29)

15 At the destruction of the earthly kingdoms of Daniel and Revelation (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14; Zech. 14)

16 After all of Rev. 4-19 is fulfilled, for Christ comes in Rev. 19-20 to set up the kingdom

According to these facts mentioned above the kingdom is yet in the future and will follow all these events. Christ, Himself taught in the following passages that the kingdom would follow His 2nd advent (Mt. 16:21-27; 19:28; 20:20-23; 23:37-39; 24:3-31; 25:31-46; 26:29, 64; Acts 1:6-7; 3:19-21; Jn. 14:3; Lk. 9:26; 19:11-27; Rev. 5:9-10; 11:15; 20:1-7)

The apostles taught that the kingdom was to be in the future following the 2nd coming of Christ (Acts 1:7-11; 1 Pet. 1:7; 5:4; 2 Pet. 1:16; 3:3-4; Jas. 5:7; 1 Jn. 2:28; Jude 14; 1 Tim. 6:14-15)

10 proofs earth not desolate during the Millennium:

1 The Gr. word for bottomless pit is abussos and means an unmeasured abyss. It is translated bottomless pit (Rev. 9:11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1-3) and deep (Lk. 8:31; Rom. 10:7). It is insensible to teach the abyss beneath is the surface of the earth, as can be seen by these passages. It is in the lower parts of the earth. Satan is already on the earth when he is cast into the pit (Rev. 20:1-3). In Rev. 12:7-14 it states that he will be cast out to earth and will be here during the last 3 1/2 years of this age, until Armageddon (Rev. 19:11-20:7)

2 The prophets foretold a literal earthly kingdom to be set up at the 2nd advent, not after the Millennium (2:44-45; 7:9-14, 18-27; Isa. 32:1; 35:1-10; Jer. 31:27-40; 32:37-44; Ezek. 37:1-28; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Acts 15:13-18; Jude 14; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-15). If there is to be an earthly kingdom, then there will be subjects for Christ to reign over during this time

3 The kingdom will be on earth and saints will reign on earth, not in heaven: "the kingdom UNDER THE WHOLE HEAVEN shall be given to the saints... The Lord shall be king OVER ALL THE EARTH... we shall reign ON THE EARTH" (Dan. 2:35, 44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 26-27; Zech. 14:1-21; Mt. 25:31-46; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 11:15; 20:1-10)

4 The disciples understood it to be a literal earthly kingdom (Lk. 19:11; 22:29-30; Acts 1:7; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 1:5; 2:26-27; 3:21; 5:10; 11:15; 1 Cor. 6:2-3; 2 Tim. 2:12)

5 At the end of the Millennium Satan will be loosed out of the abyss "to deceive the nations WHICH ARE IN THE FOUR QUARTERS OF THE EARTH" where they have been the whole 1,000 years (Rev. 20:7-10; Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; Dan. 7:14)

6 Jesus taught that saints would not judge and separate the righteous from the wicked (Mt. 13:49-50; 24:31; 25:31-46). It is, therefore, folly to talk about the examination of sins of men by the saints as being a kingdom

7 Christ reigns on earth for the purpose of ridding the earth of rebellion so there must be people here to reign over (1 Cor. 15:24-28)

8 God promised that He would never make the earth desolate again (Gen. 8:22; 9:12, 16; 17:7, 19; 2 Sam. 7:Ps. 89:3-4, 35-37; Isa. 9:6-7; Ezek. 43:7; Lk. 1:32-33; 1 Chr. 17:7-15, 22-27; 22:10)

9 All the 50 points about the Millennium (p. 311 of N. T.) prove the earth to be inhabited during that time

10 The many promises of eternal generations of natural people from Noah's time into eternity prove there will not be a period of 1,000 years desolation on the earth. See point 8, 21 other "new" things, p. 312 of N. T.

36fold vision of the ram and he-goat (8:3):

1 A ram stood by the river Ulai
2 He had 2 horns
3 The horns were high
4 One horn was higher than the other
5 The higher horn came up last (v 3)
6 The ram pushed westward, northward, and southward
7 No beast could stand before him
8 No beast could deliver from him 9 He did according to his will 10 He became great (v 4)
11 An he-goat came from the west, covering the face of the whole earth
12 He was going so fast he touched not the ground as he went 13 He had a notable horn between his eyes
14 He came to the two-horned ram
15 He ran into him in the fury of his power (v 6)
16 He was moved with anger against him
17 He smote the ram and broke his horns
18 There was no power in the ram to stand against the he-goat
19 He cast the ram down to the ground and stamped upon him
20 None could deliver the ram out of the hands of the he-goat (v 7)
21 The he-goat became very great 22 When he was strong the great horn between his eyes was broken
23 In its place came up 4 notable horns toward the 4 winds of heaven (v 8)
24 Out of one of them came forth a little horn
25 The little horn became exceeding great toward the south, east, and the pleasant land (v 9)
26 The little horn became great even to the host of heaven
27 It cast down some of the host of heaven to the ground
28 It stamped upon them (v 10)
29 The little horn magnified himself even to the prince of the host 30 By him the daily sacrifice was taken away
31 The place of his sanctuary was cast down (v 11)
32 An host was given him against the daily sacrifice because of sin abounding on every hand
33 The little horn cast down the truth to the ground
34 He practiced and prospered (v 12)
35 One saint speaking to another asked, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden down (v 13)?
36 The answer was, Unto 2,300 days (evening-morning sacrifices); then shall the sanctuary be cleansed (v 14)

2,300 days not 2,300 years (8:13)

The question of 8:14 is: How long will the daily sacrifice be cut off and the transgression that makes the temple desolate of divine worship, continue? The answer, Unto 2,300 days (literally, 1,150 evening and 1,150 morning sacrifices, v 26), or 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days. Then shall the sanctuary be cleansed of the abomination of desolation (v 14). This is 110 days short of the full 1,260 days that the 2 witnesses will be here and Jerusalem will be trodden under foot by the Gentiles (Rev. 11:1-3), that Israel will flee into the wilderness (Rev. 12:6, 14), and Antichrist will be given power over nations (Rev. 13:5; Dan. 7:25; 9:27). This explains Mt. 24:22 "but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." These 110 days could be the last 110 days of the 1,260 day period during which time the Jews somehow will get control of the temple again by the help of the two witnesses and other means. Scripture teaches that the Jews will have control of Jerusalem again at the end of this time when Antichrist comes from the northern war to fight Armageddon (Zech. 14:1-5).

The theory that the 2,300 days are to be 2,300 years from 457 B.C. to 1844 A.D. is false. No man has any authority to make or even any example in Scripture of making a day a year and a year a day. Just because God cursed Israel to wander in the wilderness for 40 years according to the number of days the spies were in Canaan (Num. 14:34), and because Judah was to be punished 40 years according to the number of days Ezekiel lay upon his side (Ezek. 4:6), is no proof that a day means a year and a year means a day in prophecy. Even in these passages a day was a day and a year was a year. Upon the year-day theory is based many fallacies as:

1 The fallacy of the whole length of the times of the Gentiles being 2,520 years. See The times of the Gentiles, p. 873

2 The 2,300 days being 2,300 years which are fulfilled in connection with the papacy

3 The 1,260 days of Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5 being 1,260 years - from 538-1798 A.D. when the papacy was given power over the saints. See note, 12:7. All date setting for the end of the times of the Gentiles and the 2nd advent of Christ is based upon juggling these Bible periods to suit the whim of the individual Bible speculator

The year-day theory foolish

If it were a law in Scripture that a day meant a year and a year meant a day we would have to believe that:

1 Abraham's seed was to be afflicted by the Gentiles for only 400 days (Gen. 15:13)

2 Joseph saved the corn of 7 days instead of 7 years and there was a famine in Egypt 7 days instead of 7 years (Gen. 41:26-54)

3 The spies were in Canaan 40 years not 40 days and Israel wandered in the wilderness 40 days instead of 40 years (Num. 14:33-34)

4 Within 65 days Israel would not be a people yet it was literally 65 years (Isa. 7:8)

5 Moab would be destroyed in 3 days instead of 3 years (Isa. 16:14)

6 Isaiah walked barefoot 3 days instead of 3 years (Isa. 20:3)

7 Tyre was to be forgotten 70 days instead of 70 years (Isa. 23:15-17)

8 Hezekiah had 15 days added to his life instead of 15 years (Isa. 38:5)

9 A child shall die being 100 days old instead of 100 years in the Millennium, and a sinner being 100 days old shall be accursed (Isa. 65:20). This would make the time of accountability for children under 100 days

10 Israel was in captivity to Babylon for 70 days and not 70 years (Jer. 25)

11 Ninevah was to be destroyed in 40 years instead of 40 days (Jonah 3:4)

12 Jonah sat under a booth outside Ninevah for 40 years to see if the city would be destroyed (Jonah 3:4; 4:5)

13 Adam was given 120 more days to live instead of 120 years (Gen. 6:3)

14 Noah and animals stayed 7 years in the ark instead of 7 days before the rains came (Gen. 7:4-10)

15 It rained upon the earth 40 years instead of 40 days (Gen. 7:12)

16 The flood of Noah prevailed upon the earth 150 years instead of 150 days before it began to recede. Then it receded another 150 years (Gen. 7:24; 8:3). At the end of another 40 years he sent forth a raven. Then 7 years later he sent forth a dove that returned. In still another 7 years he sent forth another dove that never did return (Gen. 8:6-12). It would be too old to return after all the years of flood and receding waters - over 354 years

17 Ezekiel lay upon his left side 390 years and upon his right side 40 years instead of that many days (Ezek. 4:4-9)

18 Jonah was 3 years in the whale's belly and Christ was 3 years in the tomb instead of 3 days (Mt. 12:40)

How ridiculous to change the literal meaning of God's word! Not only is it clear from the above that 2,300 days refers to 2,300 evenings and mornings

(v 26), but that it concerns the daily sacrifices (v 11-13), which were offered every morning and evening (Num. 28:3-4; 1 Chr. 16:40). Hence, the 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days are the whole and actual length of the doing-away with daily sacrifices in the temple before they are offered again by the Jews when the sanctuary is cleansed of the abomination of desolation. Literally, 2,300 sacrifices will be cut off from the temple during this period. The question could be, How many daily sacrifices will be cut off (v 13)? The answer is 2,300

The papacy and the 2,300 days:

To teach the papacy is the little horn ruling from 476-1844 A.D., and the 2,300 days are years, 457 B.C. to 1844 A.D. is unscriptural because:

1 The little horn will come from Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt (8:9; 20-23). The papacy did not. It arose in Rome, Italy

2 The little horn will do away with the daily sacrifice in Israel for the 2,300 days (v 9-14). The papacy did not come into existence until several centuries after the Jews had ceased having sacrifices in 70 A.D. They will again have sacrifices when they build a temple in Jerusalem (v 9-14; 9:27; Rev. 11:1-2). No papacy will fulfill 2,300 years after this is done

3 All this prophecy (8:3-25) will be fulfilled in connection with the old Medo-Persian and Grecian empires (v 20-25), not Italy where the papacy is located

4 The little horn is a man (v 9, 20-23; 7:7-8, 20, 23-24; Rev. 13:18); the papacy is a religious system

5 The little horn will fight against Christ at His 2nd advent (v 20-25; 7:23-27; Rev. 17:12-17; 19:19-21); the papacy will not

6 The little horn will rule the 10 kings (8:20-25; 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17); the papacy will not

7 The little horn is yet to come (8:20-23; 7:23-24; Rev. 13; 17:8-17); the papacy has already come

8 The little horn will come after the 10 kings (7:23-24; Rev. 7:12-17); the papacy has already been in existence some 13 centuries

9 To teach that the little horn is the papacy which began in 476 A.D. and to teach also that the 2,300 days began 457 B.C. is to contradict ourself as well as the Bible, which requires us to believe that the little horn is the one who cuts off the daily sacrifices for the whole 2,300 days (v 9-14). The Grecian Empire was not formed until 121 years after 457 B.C. when some say the 2,300 days began. Greece was not divided until 323-301 B.C. The little horn is yet to come in the last days out of one of these divisions. Therefore the papacy could not be the little horn existing many centuries before the little horn is to come into existence

10 Not one detail of this prophecy (8:3-25) or the ones in 7:3-27; 9:24-27; 11:3-45; 12:1-13; Rev. 4:1-22:5 has ever been fulfilled in connection with the papacy, which came into existence about 610 A.D. and is not once mentioned in Scripture

11 The papacy never has waxed great in the south (Egypt), the east (Syria, Irak, Iran), or in Palestine. The little horn will become great in those directions (v 9, 20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45)

12 The papacy has never fulfilled v 10. The little horn will fulfill it (v 9-10, 20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7-13)

13 The papacy has never exalted itself against the high priest of Israel, cast down the sanctuary, or cut off daily sacrifices, for there has not been such a high priest, temple, or sacrifice since the existence of the papacy. The little horn will accomplish these things (v 11-14, 20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13 and 17)

14 The papacy has never desecrated a temple of God at Jerusalem, as predicted in v 11-14 and never will do so. The little horn will (2 Th. 2:4)

15 There never has been a period of either 2,300 days or 2,300 years of abomination of desolation in a Jewish temple at Jerusalem by the papacy, nor will there ever be such a period of temple desecration. For about 1,900 years there has been no temple at Jerusalem; and there will not be one for some time yet. No 2,300 years could possibly be fulfilled with the future temple, for it will be given to the Gentiles for about 3 1/2 years, according to the true meaning of 2,300 days - 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days (v 11-14; 9:27; 11:40-45; Rev. 13 and 17). The little horn only rules for 3 1/2 years (7:25; 8:14; 9:27; 12:7-13; Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5). Then he is destroyed by Christ at His 2nd advent (7:23-27; 8:20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; Rev. 19:11-21)

16 Regardless of who fulfills v 9-14, the passage concerns the daily sacrifice being cut off and the abomination of desolation being set up instead (v 11-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:7-11; Mt. 24:15; Rev. 13). Since the papacy has never had such relationship with a Jewish temple or daily sacrifices for any part of 2,300 years it could not be the reference here. The whole vision of Dan. 8 primarily concerns the daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation and it will be fulfilled in this connection (v 11, 13, 14, 26)

4 main subjects of the vision (8:13):

1 The daily sacrifice cut off (v 11-14)

2 The transgression of desolation (v 13; 9:27; 11:45; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)

3 The sanctuary to be trodden under foot (v 13; 9:27; 11:45; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-3)

4 The host to be trodden under foot (v 13; note q, 8:10)

The sanctuary (8:13)

Heb. qodesh, a sacred place or thing. Trans. sanctuary 68 times and nearly every time of the earthly tabernacle and temple of worship. Not the same word as miqdash, (v 11), a consecrated place or thing. Trans. sanctuary 64 times

Some teach that this sanctuary is the heavenly one and that Christ entered into it in 1844 and began examining the sins of the people to determine who shall have part in the 1st resurrection; that this work will end in 2,000 A.D. and then God's people will be forever free from their sins; that during this judgment both righteous and the wicked remain in the graves; and that the wicked will be judged during the Millennium

There is no truth in these claims. God is just and will not judge any person who is not resurrected and present at the judgment to give an account of himself. Saved men are to be judged after their resurrection and they will be present when judged (Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10). Sins of saints are cleansed in this life, not at some imaginative investigative judgment (Mt. 1:21; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 3:5-10; Rev. 1:5). No judgment of God goes on during the Millennium. The wicked will be resurrected at the end of the Millennium and will stand personally before God then (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

This one not the heavenly sanctuary:

1 Daniel is speaking of the Jewish temple on earth (v 9-14; 9:27; 12:11. Cp. Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2)

2 The whole prophecy concerns earthly events (v 3-25)

3 The sanctuary is to be in the kingdom of the little horn (v 9-14)

4 He is the one who desecrates it, so it has to be on earth (v 9-14)

5 No daily sacrifice is ever mentioned as being in heaven (v 11-14)

6 No heavenly sanctuary could be made desolate by a man (v 13)

7 Out of 137 times the word sanctuary is found it is used only 2 times of the heavenly one (Ps. 102:19; Heb. 8:2)

8 Elsewhere in Daniel only the earthly one is mentioned (9:17, 26; 11:31)

9 In no prophecy is the heavenly one referred to 10 Only the earthly one is referred to as being cast down (v 11-14)

11 No heavenly sanctuary could be cast down and trodden under foot (v 11-14)

12 Only an earthly sanctuary would need cleansing from an abomination (v 14)

13 No cutting off of a daily sacrifice in a heavenly one could be possible by any man on earth (v 11-14)

14 No man could cast down and tread under foot ministers of an heavenly sanctuary (v 1-14)

Time-passages of Dan. (8:14)

At the end of the 2,300 evenings and mornings (v 11-13, 26), or the 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days shall the sanctuary be cleansed of the abomination of desolation (v 13-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:11; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13:11-18). No scripture says that the abomination of desolation will actually be in the temple 1,260 days, so if v 14 says the daily sacrifices will be taken away after 2,300 evenings and mornings this settles the question, and we have to guess about the additional 110 days making up the 1,260 days of the whole period

Note all the time-passages:

The time-passages and what events will take place are clearly stated:

1 War on the saints and having power to change the times and laws will last exactly 3 1/2 years (7:25)

2 The daily sacrifices (evening and morning, v 26) being cut off and the transgression of desolation will last 2,300 evenings and mornings (1,150 days) or 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days (8:14)

3 In the midst of the week (7 years) Antichrist shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease (9:27). It seems that the sacrifices will cease by the middle of Daniel's 70th week or at the beginning of the 1,260 days

4 He shall make it desolate, even until the consummation (9:27). This indicates until the age end or until the full end of that which is determined to be poured out upon the one making the temple desolate; but it does not necessarily refer to the last day of the period. The end of cutting off the daily sacrifices could be 110 days before the actual judgment upon the Antichrist who is making the temple desolate

5 All things shall be finished at the end of 3 1/2 years or the 1,260 days (12:7), but the cleansing of the temple of the abomination could be 110 days before this (8:14)

6 From the time the daily sacrifice shall be taken away shall be 1,290 days (12:11) and 1,335 days (12:12). This is an additional 30 and 75 days to the 1,260 (see notes, 12:7-13). It is again emphasized that the daily sacrifices will be taken away at the beginning of the 1,260 and 1,290 day periods

7 When you shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel (Mt. 24:15; Dan. 8:14; 9:27; 12:7-11), THEN let the Jews flee into the mountains (Mt. 24:16-21). They will flee for the whole 1,260 days (Rev. 12:6, 14). Again it is clear that the daily sacrifices will be taken away at the beginning of the 1,260 days, so the 110 days before the end of this period for the cleansing of the sanctuary must be at the end of the 1,150 days (8:14)

8 The temple will be given to the Gentiles, and the holy city shall they tread under foot 42 months (Rev. 11:1-2). It does not say here how long the temple will be desolate during these 42 months, so we have to rely again upon the 2,300 evenings and mornings of Dan. 8:13-14 for this information. The city being trodden under foot 42 months could simply mean that the city will not be completely rid of Gentile dominion until the 42 months are up. It does not say that the Jews could not by the help of the 2 witnesses of Rev. 11 and by other means get control of the city the last 110 days before it is finally delivered from the Gentiles. It is clear from Zech. 14:1-5, 14 that the Jews do get back into the city at the end of these 42 months. It must be remembered that Antichrist by this time, will have been in war with Russia, Germany, and other northern and eastern nations for nearly 42 months (Dan. 11:44). It may be that he will need all the available man power of his armies to conquer these countries and will take most of the army men from Jerusalem and Palestine. This would so weaken him in Palestine that the Jews could gain control of the city again. It is certain that they will be in the city by the time Antichrist conquers the enemies of the north and east, for he will then gather his vast armies against Jerusalem to battle to retake the city and exterminate the Jews. Half of Jerusalem will be taken again by him before Christ suddenly appears in the heavens with all the saints to deliver Jerusalem and the Jews from the Gentile armies at Armageddon (Zech. 14:1-5, 14; Joel 3; Rev. 19:11-21). This could explain the 110 days short of the 1,260 days of the whole period (Dan. 8:13-14)

9 The two witnesses will prophesy and do miracles to protect Israel and win her to God again for 1,260 days (Rev. 11:3-11). With their help, it can be seen how the Jews could get control of Jerusalem again for the last 110 days of this period. They will be the leaders of Israel during this time like Moses and Aaron were when Israel came out of Egypt (Ezek. 20:33-38; Mal. 4:5-6; Rev. 11)

10 Israel will flee into the wilderness for 1,260 days (Rev. 12:6). This will exclude the remnant of the woman who remain in the land (Rev. 12:17) and many of the Jews who will return to get control of the city the last 110 days while Antichrist is in a death struggle with his enemies in the north and east (Dan. 11:44)

11 The time Israel flees from Judea into the mountains is stated as being a time (1 year), times (2 years), and half a time (1/2 year). She is helped by the Arabs during this time (Rev. 12:14). One thing is certain Judah will have an army fighting at Jerusalem when Antichrist comes down from the north (Ezek. 38-39) to retake Jerusalem (Zech. 14:1-4)

12 Antichrist will be given power over the nations for 42 months (Rev. 13:5). The 12 scriptures of this study are all that mention a definite time element in Daniel and Revelation. All refer to the 3 1/2 years, 1,260 days, or 42 months except Dan. 8:13-14, which gives 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days, or 110 days short of the 1,260-day period of the other passages. With these facts in mind we can see how the sanctuary could be cleansed 110 days earlier than the complete liberation of Jerusalem at the end of the 1,260 days. At least, nothing is said in any one of these 12 passages to indicate that the daily sacrifice will be cut off and the abomination of desolation placed in the sanctuary for the full 1,260 days

The only other theory is that the 2,300 days mean 3 years, 2 months and 10 days that Antiochus Epiphanes made the temple desolate, 165 B.C. and that this is a type of the future Syrian king making the temple desolate. But since there is no grounds for inserting him into this plain revelation of events in connection with the little horn or future Antichrist, we must dismiss this theory. Only one man is involved in the language of Dan. 8:9-14, 23-25, so it is unscriptural to insert Antiochus Epiphanes or any second man into the picture

Since this is true, and since it is unscriptural to make the 2,300 days to mean years, we conclude that they will be literally fulfilled with the cutting off of 2,300 evening and morning sacrifices in the future Jewish temple by the coming Antichrist

Deceitfulness of Antiochus Epiphanes and Ptolemy Philometor (11:27)

The hearts of these kings, Antiochus Epiphanes of Syria and Ptolemy Philometor of Egypt, whom Antiochus took prisoner, were equally deceitful. Antiochus, the uncle of Ptolemy, pretended to have the interest of Ptolemy at heart, since the Alexandrians had rebelled and made Ptolemy's brother their king. When Antiochus came to Memphis, he and Ptolemy had frequent conferences at the same table. They both professed love for each other, yet both were planning how to ruin the other. Neither one prospered with his lies (v 27). The reason Antiochus did not prosper was because the Romans demanded that he surrender Egypt. In this he yielded but retained Coelesyria, Palestine, and Phoenicia. Ptolemy did not prosper because of this settlement demanded by the Romans. The reason given in v 27 is: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. That is, the end of the appointed time was not yet come

The last end of God's wrath (8:19)

The last end of the wrath of God upon the one - the little horn - that will cause the wrath of God to be poured out

1 Antichrist's wars (v 9; 7:23-24; 9:24; 11:36-45; Rev. 19)

2 His martyrdom of saints (v 10-14, 24; 7:21; 9:27; 11:36-45; Rev. 13:11-18)

3 His taking away the daily sacrifices in the future Jewish temple (v 11-14; 9:27; 12:7-11; Mt. 24:15; Rev. 13)

4 His placing the abomination of desolation in the temple (v 11-14; 9:27; 11:45; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2; 13)

5 His casting down the sanctuary or sacred place of sacrifice (v 11-13)

6 His causing many to rebel against God (v 12; Rev. 13:11-18; 16:2, 10-11)

7 His increasing sins among men (v 12, 23; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13; 16:10-11)

8 His casting down the truth to the ground (v 12; 7:25; 2 Th. 2:4, 8-12)

9 His trampling the host under his feet (v 13, 24-25; 7:21; 9:27; 11:40-45; Rev. 13)

10 His fierceness against God and man (v 23; Rev. 13)

11 His yieldedness to the devil (v 24; 11:36-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13)

12 His ruthless destruction of life and property (v 24; 11:36-46; Rev. 13)

13 His deceptions (craftiness, v 25; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13; 19:20)

14 His self-exaltation (v 25; 7:25; 11:36-45; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)

15 His stubborn stand against Christ (v 25; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:19-21). See other facts about him under Anti-Christ, in the Index

The angelic interpretation (8:20)

This vision deals with only 2 of the kingdoms represented by the metals of the image of Dan. 2, and 2 of the 4 beasts of Dan. 7 - the Medo-Persian and Grecian empires. The purpose of the vision is to narrow down the coming of the little horn or future Antichrist, geographically, from 10 to 4 of the 10 kingdoms, and to reveal that his kingdom will be the Revived Grecian Empire instead of the Revised Roman Empire

Since Antichrist is seen coming out of one of the 4 divisions of the old Grecian Empire, we can eliminate entirely the other 6 kingdoms of the Revised Roman Empire as being the area from which he will come. In Dan. 7 he is seen coming out of one of the 10 kingdoms of the Revised Roman Empire. He uses the one kingdom he comes from to overthrow 3 others of the 10 which are the 3 other divisions of Greece. (The 4 kingdoms of the Grecian Empire of ch. 8 make 4 of the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome of ch. 7). Thus Antichrist revives the Grecian Empire by coming out of one of the 4 divisions of Greece and overthrowing the others. The 6 other kingdoms of Revised Rome, which were never a part of the Grecian Empire will submit to him without further war, and his kingdom will then become the 8th of Rev. 17:8-17, which immediately succeeds the 7th or Revised Rome

The Antichrist arises at the beginning of the 70th week of Daniel (9:27), and in 3 1/2 years conquers the whole 10 kingdoms which he will rule for the last 3 1/2 years of this week (7:23-25; 11:36-46; Rev. 13:5; 17:8-17). Before he gets power over the 10 kings they reign as independent sovereigns and form the 7th, or Revised Roman Empire (2:40-43; 7:7-8, 23-24). After he gets control of them they continue as subordinate kings for the last 3 1/2 years of the week, making the 8th and last of the successive kingdoms in the times of the Gentiles (Rev. 17:8-17)

18 parts to the interpretation:

1 The ram represents the old Medo-Persian Empire, the same as the silver on the image of 2:32, 39 and the bear of 7:5. It is the 2nd of the 4 beasts of ch. 7, and the 4th of the 8 kingdoms of Rev. 17:8-11 that make up the whole length of the times of the Gentiles (v 20; notes on v 3 and 11:1-2)

2 The 2 horns on the ram represent the 2 kings of Media and Persia (v 20; notes e and f, v 3), the same as the 2 arms of silver of 2:32, 39 and the 2 sides of the bear of 7:5. (See note f, 2:39). They symbolize Darius the Mede (5:31; 6:1; 9:1; 11:1) and Cyrus the Persian (1:21; 6:28; 11:1-2; 2 Chr. 36:22-23; Ezra 1:1-4)

3 The rough he-goat is the old Grecian Empire (v 21; notes h, i and j, v 5; 11:3-4), the same as the belly and thighs of brass in the image of 2:32, 39, and the leopard of 7:6. (See note f, 2:38)

4 The great and notable horn between the eyes of the he-goat represents the first king, Alexander the Great, who founded the old Grecian Empire in 13 years (v 21; note k, v 5; 11:3)

5 The great horn being broken represents the death of Alexander the Great (v 22; note m, v 8; 11:4)

6 4 horns growing out of the head of the he-goat in the place of the great horn represent 4 kingdoms being formed out of the old Grecian Empire after the death of Alexander the Great (v 22; note n, v 8; 11:4)

7 The 4 kingdoms arising not in Alexander's power represent the 4 generals of Alexander carving out 4 kingdoms of their own in their own rights (v 22; note n, v 8; 11:4). Daniel predicted the old Grecian Empire would be divided into 4 parts or kingdoms (v 22), in the same sense he predicted the old Roman Empire would be divided into 10 parts or kingdoms (2:40-43; 7:23-24)

Alexander died at the height of his conquests, when about 33 years of age. His brother, Philip Aridaeus, and his 2 sons, Alexander Aegus and Hercules, kept up the show and name of the Macedonian kingdom for a time, but they were all murdered within 15 years. Thus the great horn and his regal family were all dead. The governors of provinces usurped the title of king. Antigonus, one of 5 generals, was slain in the battle of Ipsus, which reduced the number to 4 who seized upon the old Grecian Empire and divided it into 4 kingdoms

4 divisions of the Grecian Empire:

(1) Cassander took Greece, Macedon and the western parts of the empire

(2) Lysimachus took Asia Minor, or present Turkey and Thrace, the northern part of the empire

(3) Seleucus took all the eastern parts of the empire, including Syria and Babylon, or the modern states of Syria, Lebanon, Irak, and Iran

(4) Ptolemy took the kingdom of Egypt, the southern part of the empire. Thus Alexander's empire was literally divided toward the four winds of heaven (v 8)

All these divisions except the extreme eastern part of the kingdom of Seleucus were conquered by the Romans and made a part of the old Roman Empire out of which will be formed the 10 kingdoms of the last days. These 4 divisions of Greece will become 4 of the 10 kingdoms. They would be known today as Greece, Turkey, Syria, and Egypt

8 In the latter time of their kingdom reveals the time of the coming of Antichrist and the complete fulfillment of the prophecy. These kingdoms will not cease to exist before the little horn or the Antichrist comes from one of them (v 23; note o, v 9; note d, 7:24; 9:26-27; 11:36-45). Since they are all still in existence, and since the Antichrist has not yet come, his coming from one of them must be future

9 When transgressors are come to the full is the 2nd statement here revealing the time of the coming of the Antichrist. He will come in the last days when sin and iniquity shall abound and the time has come for transgressors on earth to be dealt with and put down (v 23; 7:21-22; 9:27; 11:36-45; Mt. 24:4-26; 2 Th. 2:3-12; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:1-4; Rev. 13:1-18; 16:1-17; 18:2-3, 24). This will be after the 10 kingdoms are formed (7:23-24), after the rapture of the church (2 Th. 2:7, note), during the fulfillment of all the events of Rev. 4:1-19:21, and just before Christ comes to put down all sin and transgressors (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

10 A king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. This reveals the character of the Antichrist, showing the type of person the little horn will be when he comes out of Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt in the latter time of their existence (v 23; 7:20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 2 Th. 2:3-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 16:13-16; 19:20; 20:4-6)

11 His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power. This reveals that he will come after the working of Satan and have all the power Satan can endue a man with (v 24; 7:25; 11:36-39; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-5, 12-18; 16:13-16; 19:20)

12 He shall destroy wonderfully. This means he shall be distinguished as a destroyer of men (v 24-25; 7:21, 25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7; Mt. 25:15-22; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:12-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 19:19-21; 20:4-6)

13 He shall prosper and practice. This literally means prosper and push forward or cross over. The idea is that of a blitz-krieg, extremely rapid and violent in warfare (v 24-25; 7:21, 25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7; Rev. 6:1-2; 13:1-18; 16:13-16; 19:19-21)

14 He shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. This refers primarily to the destruction of the new and then powerful Jewish nation in Palestine (v 24-26; 7:21, 25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 13:1-18). Israel will be invincible until Antichrist is given power over them by God who will allow them to be defeated and almost exterminated to bring them to complete and eternal repentance so He can fulfill the everlasting covenants made with their fathers (Ps. 60:8-12; Isa. 16:1-5; Jer. 30:3-9; Ezek. 20:33-44; Zech. 8:3-8, 20-23). Fully 2/3 of Israel will be destroyed (Zech. 12:2-3, 9; 13:8-9; 14:1-15), as well as multitudes of Christians (Rev. 7:9-21; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

15 He shall cause craft (Heb. mirmah, deceit) to prosper in his hand. This refers to his coming with all deceivableness of unrighteousness to further his cause (v 25; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:14; 19:20)

16 He shall magnify himself in his heart (v 25). This refers to exalting himself even above God (11:36-39; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 13)

17 He shall destroy many by peace (v 25). This refers to his covenant of peace with Israel and his sudden breaking of it to destroy them (v 25; 7:21; 9:27; 11:36-45; Rev. 12:13-17; 13:12-18)

18 He shall stand up against the Prince of princes, but he shall be killed without hand (v 25). This will be the battle of Armageddon (11:45; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21)

6 examples of deep sleep (8:18)

1 Adam (Gen. 2:21)
2 Abraham (Gen. 15:12)
3 Saul and his army (1 Sam. 26:12)
4 Israel (Isa. 29:10)
5 Daniel (twice, 8:18; 10:9)
6 Eutychus (Acts 20:9)

The 70 weeks (9:24)

There are 14 main parts to this prophecy. Without a clear understanding of them many other prophecies cannot be fully understood

1 Meaning of the 70 weeks. The phrase 70 weeks literally means 70 sevens (Heb. for week is shabua, seven)

70 sevens of years because:

(1) Daniel's prayer, to which this vision was an answer, did not concern days, but years (9:2)

(2) The last seven is one and is divided into 2 parts, the last half explained to be 3 1/2 years, as proved in col. 3-4, p. 877

(3) If the last half of the 70th week is 3 1/2 years, then the first half is also 3 1/2 years, making the one seven of v 27 to be 7 years

(4) If the last or one seven is a period of 7 years, the other sevens are also 7 years each. The whole period, therefore, is 70x7 = 490 years

2 Division of the 70 weeks or 70 sevens. They are divided into 3 main periods:

(1) The 1st division - 7 sevens, 49 years for the rebuilding of Jerusalem (v 25)

(2) The 2nd division - 62 sevens, 434 years from the completion of the city at the end of the 49 years to the time Messiah is cut off or crucified for men (v 25-26)

(3) The 3rd division - one seven, 7 years, the last 7 years of this age, ending with the 2nd advent of Christ to fulfill the 6 events of v 24

3 Whom do the 70 weeks concern? The whole 490 years are determined (Heb. chathak, cut off; marked off; decreed) to be fulfilled concerning thy people (Daniel's people) and thy holy city (Daniel's native city, Jerusalem) to fulfill the 6 events of v 24. They do not concern the church in any sense. In fact, the church was not begun until after the 69th week, and it will be raptured before the 70th week begins (notes, 2 Th. 2:7-8; Rev. 4:1)

4 When do they concern Israel and Jerusalem? Not during any time that she has been scattered among the nations. The 70 weeks concern Israel as a nation at Jerusalem. Since Israel was scattered and her city and temple destroyed in 70 A.D., since the 6 events of v 24 have not yet been fulfilled, and since the 69th week ended at the crucifixion of Christ, the 70th week is the only part left to be fulfilled. During this time the 6 events of v 24 will be fulfilled. Still in the future, it will be fulfilled when Israel as a nation gets control of Jerusalem again

5 6 things to be done in the 70 weeks of Daniel (v 24):

(1) To finish (put an end to) transgression. The Heb. word pasha means revolt; rebel; sin against lawful authority. It is often trans. transgression (Ps. 51:13; Isa. 43:27; etc.). This transgression has reference to the sins of Israel at Jerusalem, the culmination of their sins when they will be saved from all sin at the return of their Messiah who will turn ungodliness from Jacob and convert the nation in a day (Rom. 11:25-29; Isa. 66:7-10; Ezek 36:24-30)

(2) To make an end of sins concerning Israel and Jerusalem. This has never been done, but will be accomplished at the 2nd advent of Christ (Ezek. 36:24-30; 37:24-27; 43:7; Zech. 14). The Spirit of repentance will be poured out upon Israel just before the 2nd advent; and a fountain for sin and uncleanness will be opened to the whole nation at that time (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)

(3) To make reconciliation (atonement) for iniquity. The Heb. kaphar, to cover: make atonement. This was done for Israel and all others on the cross (Isa. 53; Col. 1:20; 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24), but Israel as a nation has not yet experienced this covering for sin. They will be fully reconciled to God at the 2nd advent of Christ (Isa. 1:18-20; 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Mt. 23:37-39; Rom. 11:25-29)

(4) To bring in everlasting righteousness, when transgression comes to an end; when an end of sin is made; and when full atonement for all sin is experienced by Israel, then everlasting righteousness concerning Israel and Jerusalem will be ushered in (Isa. 9:6-7; 12:1-6; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Ezek. 43:7; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rom. 11:25-29; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10; 21:1-22:5)

(5) To seal up the vision and prophecy. The prophecies concerning Israel and Jerusalem and their eternal restoration under their Messiah will be fulfilled. The word for prophecy here should have been trans. prophet. It could also mean that there will be no more need for inspired men to rebuke Israel at Jerusalem in the attempt to lead them to God and righteousness when the Messiah comes, "for all shall know the Lord from the least unto the greatest of them" (Isa. 11:9; 66:7-10; Jer. 31:31-40; Rom. 11:25-29)

(6) To anoint the most holy. This refers to the cleansing of the holy of holies, the temple, and the city of Jerusalem from the abomination of desolation, the sacrilege of Gentiles, and to the anointing of the Millennial temple of Ezek. 40-43; Zech. 6:12-13. The most holy is never used of a person, nor would the Jews ever associate this term with their Messiah who is always distinguished by the simple title, Messiah. Therefore, to teach this refers to man crowning Christ is out of harmony with Scripture. Man is not to anoint and crown Christ. This has already been done by God, the Father (Lk. 22:29; Acts 1:7; 2:36; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1:1-

3; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; Dan. 7:13-14)

6 When do the 70 weeks begin? With the commandment to restore and build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince (v 25). There were 3 decrees for the restoration of Jerusalem:

(1) The first decree was given during the 1st year of the reign of Cyrus, king of Persia (Ezra 1:1-4; 3:8; Isa. 44:28; 45:1-4; 46:11). Cyrus reigned 9 years, then Cambyses, his son, reigned 7 years. In the son's reign the work on the temple ceased (Ezra 4:1-24)

(2) Darius I of profane history reigned 35 years. In the 2nd year of his reign he confirmed the decree made by Cyrus 18 years before. The temple was finished in the 6th year of his reign, but the city was not restored. Xerxes reigned 21 years (Dan. 11:1-3) during which time the city was not yet completed

(3) Artaxerxes reigned 41 years. In the 20th year of his reign in 452 B.C., he gave Nehemiah the 3rd decree "to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince" (v 25-26; Neh. 2:1-6:19). From this point the 70 sevens or 490 years are counted. At this point the first division of the 490 years, the 7 sevens or 49 years for the restoration of Jerusalem with street and the wall, even in troublous times began (v 25). Nehemiah restored the walls in 52 days after he reached Jerusalem, but this was by no means the full restoration. That took place during the next 49 years. Thus the 3rd decree to restore Jerusalem was 94 years after the first one by Cyrus

7 Crucifixion of the Messiah. This was to be after the 62 sevens, or 434 years, and was to follow the 7 sevens or 49 years of the restoration of Jerusalem (v 25-26). Christ was crucified at the end of the 69th week, not in the middle of the 70th week. The 70th week did not end when Stephen was stoned, for the 6 events of point 5, above, were not fulfilled then, nor have they been fulfilled since then. They cannot be fulfilled with Israel and Jerusalem until the rapture of the church and the revelation of the future Antichrist (notes, 2 Th. 2:7-8; Rev. 4:1)

8 The people of the prince that shall come (v 26). This refers to the Romans who fulfilled this prophecy of the destruction of the city and temple and brought the desolations of v 26. This was fulfilled 70 A.D. (See notes, Lk. 19:41-44; 21:20)

9 The prince that shall come (v 26). This refers to Antichrist who will come from the Roman Empire territory, that is, the Grecian portion, and from the people who destroyed the city and temple of Israel in 70 A.D. (v 26; Lk. 21:20-24). He will come from among the 10 kingdoms yet to be formed inside the old Roman Empire territory (7:23-24)

10 The church age - the great interval between the 69th and 70th weeks (v 26-27). This period was not seen by the prophets, but it is clear here that certain things were to happen between the crucifixion of the Messiah and the Antichrist who makes the 7-year covenant with Israel in the latter days (v 26-27)

11 12 great events between the 69th and 70th weeks:

(1) Christ was to be crucified at the end of the 69th week (v 26)

(2) The Romans were to destroy Jerusalem and the temple between the crucifixion at the end of the 69th week and the 70th week (v 26-27)

(3) There was to be a war between the Romans and Israel between the 69th and 70th weeks (v 26-27)

(4) Israel was to be defeated by the Romans between the 69th and 70th weeks, or their city and temple could not be destroyed (v 26-27)

(5) Israel was to be scattered among the nations by the Romans between the 69th and 70th weeks, or the end of this war would not be as a flood to carry them away (v 26-27; Lk. 21:20-24)

(6) Desolations of Israel and their city and temple were to follow the end of the war between Israel and the Romans (v 26; Lk. 21:20-24). When Christ comes to defend Israel from Antichrist, Jerusalem and the temple will be rebuilt, not destroyed (Zech. 6:12-13; 14:1-21; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21)

Historically, all the above events were fulfilled by the Romans. They crucified Christ about 31 A.D. and destroyed Jerusalem 70 A.D. These events did not happen in either the 69th or the 70th week. Jerusalem was destroyed about 39 years after the crucifixion of Christ which ended the 69th week

(7) The prince that shall come was to come after the destruction and desolations of Jerusalem (v 26-27). Since the Jews were led away captive among all nations in 70 A.D. the prince that shall come could not confirm a covenant with Jews to fulfill v 27. This remains to be done in the future

(8) Jerusalem must be restored as the capital of Israel and a temple rebuilt before Antichrist can come and confirm the 7-year covenant with many Jews to fulfill v 27

(9) The city and sanctuary were to be destroyed by the Romans, as in v 26. They must be restored before the 7-year covenant of v 27 can be made, for the temple is to be made desolate again in the midst of the 7 years. If it was destroyed in 70 A.D. then it could not possibly be made desolate again until its restoration first. Since it has never been restored from 70 A.D. until now, the fulfillment of v 27 must be future

(10) Israel being broken off because of unbelief at the crucifixion of Christ, must be restored again to their own land and get control of Jerusalem before the 6 events of point 5, above, can be fulfilled. Just before the crucifixion Jesus wept over Jerusalem saying, "How often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and you would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate... you shall not see me henceforth, till you shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Mt. 21:43; 23:37-39; 24:2; Lk. 21:20-24). This is the official rejection of Israel as a nation until the 2nd advent of Christ. God could not have fulfilled the 70th week with them immediately following the crucifixion because of cutting them off at this time. The 70th week remains to be fulfilled when God deals with them as a nation again (Ezek. 37). He cannot do this until the new nation of Israel gets control of Jerusalem again, for the whole 70 weeks concern Israel and Jerusalem (v 24). Neither can the 70th week be fulfilled until the temple is built again in Jerusalem (v 26-27)

(11) The prince that shall come from the Roman Empire territory is the one referred to in v 27 that shall confirm the covenant with many Jews for 7 years. He does not come until after the future 10 kingdoms are formed inside the old Roman Empire territory (7:23-24), and until after the rapture of the church (2 Th. 2:7, note; Rev. 4:1, note). Therefore, the 70th week is after these 2 events

The 70th week will be the last 7 years of this age, between the rapture and the 2nd advent (v 27). It will be the future tribulation period ending with the 2nd advent. All of Mt. 24-25; Rev. 4:1-19:21; Dan. 7:19-27; 8:9-14, 22-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; 12:1-17, and many other passages will be fulfilled during these 7 years. The great tribulation will be during the last 3 1/2 years (Jer. 30:4-9; Dan. 12:1; Mt. 24:15-24; Rev. 11:1-19:21). The first 3 1/2 years will be a lesser tribulation due to the fact that Antichrist will be only rising to power (Dan. 7:23-24; Mt. 24:4-14; Rev. 6:1-9:21). See 68 post-rapture events, 62 of which will be fulfilled in the 70th week, p. 306 of N.T.

(12) The present church age rightfully comes in between the 69th and 70th weeks, during which time Israel is rejected of God and scattered among the nations. There is a postponement of the fulfillment of the 70th week immediately following the end of the 69th week due to Israel's rejection and her house being left desolate until God restores it again in the days of the coming of Christ. "When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in glory" (Ps. 102:16)

12 The covenant between Antichrist and Israel (v 27). The terms of this covenant are not listed, but it is clear it will be a non-aggression pact, perhaps even a military alliance that will enable the Antichrist to gain power over the 10 kingdoms during the first 3 1/2 years of the 70th week (7:23-24; 8:23-25; Rev. 17:8-17). It will include the protection of Israel in their national establishment and restoration and assure them at least temporary peace (8:25; 9:27; 11:36-45). The length of the covenant is to be 7 years (v 27)

13 The middle of the week (v 27). The Antichrist in 3 1/2 years gets power over the 10 kingdoms (7:23-24; Rev. 17:8-17). He then breaks his covenant with Israel, enters and takes over Palestine, and makes the Jewish temple his capital building (7:21-25; 8:9-14, 22-25; 9:27; 11:36-45; Mt. 24:15-24; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:1-18; 17:8-17). He will then do away with all Jewish sacrifices in the temple and set himself and his image in the temple to be worshipped as God. This will continue 2,300 evenings and mornings, or 3 years, 2 months, and 10 days of the 1,260 days of the last 3 1/2 years of the 70th week (8:9-14; p. 343; 9:27; 11:45; Mt. 24:15-22:2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:1-18)

14 The end of the 70th week (v 27). The beast worship and the abomination will continue from the middle of the 70th week through the judgments that will be poured out upon the one making the temple desolate (v 27). These judgments will consist of the plagues caused by the 2 witnesses (Rev. 11:3-11), the vial judgments (Rev. 15-16), ending with Antichrist's defeat and destruction at Armageddon (Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

10 things that end this age:

1 The 7th vial (16:17-21)
2 Destruction of Babylon (16:19; 18:1-24)
3 The 2nd advent of Christ (19:11-21)
4 The battle of Armageddon (19:11-21)
5 Judgment of nations (Mt. 25:31-46)
6 Separation of tares from wheat (Mt. 13)
7 Regathering of Israel (Mt. 24:29-31; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37)
8 Conversion of Israel (Rom. 11:25-29)
9 Liberation of Jerusalem (Zech. 14)
10 Fulfillment of the 6 things of point 5, above

25 things end here:

1 Daniel's 70th week (9:27)
2 Dispensation of Grace (Mt. 3, refs.)
3 The tribulation (9:27; 12:1; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 6:1-19:21)
4 Satan's activities on earth for a 1,000-year period (Rev. 20:1-10)
5 The times of the Gentiles. See p. 341
6 The wrath of God (Rev. 6:17; 15:1-16:21)
7 Rebellion of Israel (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Mt. 23:37-39; Rom. 11:25-29)
8 Desolations of Jerusalem (Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 21:20-24)
9 Gentile world kingdoms (Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 23-27; Rev. 17:8-17; 19:11-21)
10 Persecution of Christians (Zech. 14:9; Mt. 13:40-43; 25:31-46; Rev. 20) 11 Reign of Antichrist (Rev. 19:19-21)
12 Beast worship (Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
13 Revived Grecian Empire (Dan. 8:22-25; 11:36-45; Rev. 13:5; 19:19-21)
14 Freedom of demons and fallen angels (Isa. 24:21-22; Rev. 12:7-12; 20:1-3)
15 Satanic miracles (2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-5, 12-17; 16:13-14; 19:20) 16 The first resurrection (see 5 raptures in the first resurrection, p. 175)
17 Dispersion of Israel (Mt. 24:29-31; Isa. 11:10-12; Ezek. 37)
18 Ministry of the 2 witnesses (Rev. 11:7-12)
19 Man's independent rule on earth (Zech. 14:9; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5)
20 Blindness of Israel (Rom. 11:25-29)
21 Satan's dominion of the earth (Rev. 12:7-12; 20:1-10)
22 The 70 weeks or 490 years (Dan. 9:24)
23 The time, times, and half a time (Dan. 7:25; 12:7; Rev. 12:14)
24 The 42 months (Rev. 11:2; 13:5)
25 The 1,260 days (Rev. 11:3; 12:6)

The vision of wars (10:1)

1 The war between Gabriel and the satanic princes of Persia who captured him and sought to keep him from giving this vision of wars to Daniel (10:12-13, 20)
2 That between the Persians and Greeks (10:20-21, 11:2-3; 8:20-21)
3 War of the Medes and Persians with the Babylonians (11:1; 5:25-31)
4 That of the generals of Alexander the Great seizing control of his empire and dividing it into 4 parts (11:4; 8:8, 22; p. 345)
5 The 1st war between Syria and Egypt, 2 of the 4 divisions of Alexander's empire (11:5)
6 The 2nd war between Syria and Egypt (11:7-9)
7 The 3rd war between Syria and Egypt (11:10-12)
8 The 4th war between Syria and Egypt (11:13-16)
9 The 5th war between Syria and Egypt (11:17)
10 The war between Syria and Greece and Rome (11:18-19)
11 The 1st war between Syria and Israel (11:20)
12 The 2nd war between Syria and Israel (11:21-24)
13 The 6th war between Syria and Egypt (11:25-27)
14 The 3rd war between Syria and Israel (11:28)
15 The 7th war between Syria and Egypt (11:29-31)
16 The 4th war between Syria and Israel (11:32-34)
17 War between Syria and God (11:36-39)
18 The 8th and last war between Syria and Egypt (11:40-42)
19 The 5th war between Syria and Israel (11:41)
20 War between Syria and other nations (11:41)
21 Syrian war with the Libyans and Ethiopians (11:43)
22 War between Syria and the 10 kingdoms under her and Russia and the nations north and east of the old Roman Empire territory (11:44)
23 The 6th and last war between Syria and Israel (11:45; Zech. 14:1-5, 14)
24 War between Syria and Christ at His 2nd advent (11:45; 7:21-22, 25-27; 8:23-25; 9:27)
25 War in heaven between Michael and his angels and Satan and his angels (12:1; Rev. 12:7-12)

8fold description of Messiah (10:5)

1 His clothing was fine linen (v 5; 12:6-7, Cp. Rev. 1:13; 19:8; Ex. 28:4-12)
2 His loins were girded with a golden girdle (v 5. Cp. Rev. 1:13)
3 His body was like a beryl (v 6. Cp. Rev. 4:3). The beryl is a gem of blue-green or other color combinations
4 His face was as the appearance of lightning (v 6. Cp. Rev. 1:16; 10:1)
5 His eyes were as lamps of fire (v 6. Cp. Rev. 1:14; 19:12)
6 His arms like polished brass (v 6. Cp. Rev. 1:14; 10:1)
7 His feet like polished brass (v 6. Cp. Rev. 1:14; 10:1)
8 His voice was like a multitude (v 6. Cp. Rev. 1:14; 8:5; 10:2-4; 11:15; 14:2; 16:17-18; 19:6; Ps. 29, note)

10fold effect upon Daniel (10:8)

1 Strength went from me (v 8)
2 My comliness (Heb. hod, beauty) was turned to corruption (Heb. mashchith, destruction; marred; made ugly, v 8)
3 I fell into a deep sleep, face down (v 9)
4 A hand touched me and set me upon my knees and hands (v 10)
5 I then stood upright trembling (v 11)
6 I had great fear (v 12)
7 I fell again, face down (v 15)
8 I became dumb (speechless, v 15)
9 My lips were touched by the angel and I was able to speak again so I complained of being strengthless and unable to breathe properly (v 16-17)
10 I was again strengthened and made capable of receiving the revelation (v 18-12:13)

4 angels named in Scripture (10:13)

1 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12; Ezek. 28:11-17)
2 Michael (v 13, 21; 12:1; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7)
3 Gabriel (8:16; 9:21; Lk. 1:19, 26)
4 Abaddon or Apollyon (Rev. 9:11)
This proves there are ranks among angels (v 13; 1 Th. 4:16; Jude 9)

4 Persian kings (11:2)

1 Cyrus reigned 9 years after Astyages or Darius the Mede had taken Babylon in 538 B.C. and reigned 2 years (note j, 10:1)

2 Cambyses, the son of Cyrus, reigned 7 years over Persia, 527-520 B.C. (point 6, p. 878, col. 1)

3 Darius I reigned 35 years, 520-485 B.C.(pt.6,p. 848,col.1).He was the first king of Persia to invade Greece, but was defeated at the battle of Marathon 490 B.C.

4 Xerxes reigned 21 years, 485-464 B.C. (6, p. 878, col. 1).He was the Persian king that stirred up all against the realm of Grecia, fulfilling 11:2. He also was defeated by the Greeks in 480-479 B.C.

Darius had conquered Thrace as far west as the Strymon river and added it to the Persian Empire. This brought the Greeks and Persians face to face in a death struggle, and a crisis in history. Persia had completely adopted Oriental culture. She represented the fullest possible growth of the ancient civilizations of Egypt and Babylon. She was rooted deeply in the traditions of the past and was unable to produce a better civilization

The Greeks, on the other hand, were a fresh and youthful people. They were giving the world new ideas of literature, art, and individual rights in self-government. If the Persians had conquered the progress of the world would have been set back many centuries. When the two powers started to fight it was a war which could only end in the destruction of one type of civilization or the other, the Western or Eastern. The struggle was not continuous, but broke out again and again over a period of 150 years. During this time the Greeks were developing in unity and culture. By 337 B.C. they were united in one nation under Philip of Macedon. In 336 B.C. Alexander the Great came to the throne. His northern Greek subjects rebelled. He soon crushed the rebels and was recognized as head of all Greek forces for a war against Persia which Philip had been making preparation for. In 13 years Alexander the Great had conquered the whole Persian Empire and the Greeks had become the masters of the known world

Kings of Persia after Xerxes:

1 Artaxerxes I, surnamed "The long-armed" reigned 40 years, 464-424 B.C.

2 Xerxes II reigned only 1 year, 423 B.C.

3 Darius II reigned 19 years, 423-404 B.C.

4 Artaxerxes II reigned 46 years, 404-358 B.C.

5 Artaxerxes III reigned 20 years, 358-338 B.C.

6 Darius III reigned 8 years, 338-330 B.C.

This is the king that was defeated by Alexander the Great whose empire succeeded the Medo-Persian Empire as the 5th world empire oppressing Israel in the times of the Gentiles, and the 3rd world empire of Dan. 2:37-45; 7:3-8; 8:3-8, 20-21

Michael and Gabriel (11:1)

Here Gabriel explains to Daniel that 2 years previous to this revelation he had stood with Michael to confirm and to strengthen him when it was his responsibility to overthrow the prince of Babylon so that the prince of Persia might come (11:1). Now, Michael was standing by Gabriel to help him overthrow the prince of Persia so that the prince of Grecia might come (10:20-21). God has to defeat the satanic rulers of certain kingdoms before the succeeding one can come to fulfill His prophetic word. He has already predicted the rise and fall of world empires in the times of the Gentiles, so to fulfill His word He must wage war against satanic forces who constantly seek to hinder such fulfillment (2:38-45; 7:3-12, 19-27; 8:20-25). See 8 kingdoms, p. 311 of N.T.

Ptolemy I (11:5)

He was the son of Lagus, Macedonian nobleman of Eordaea, one of Alexander's trusted generals, and among the 7 bodyguards of his person. Ptolemy I played a principal part in Alexander's campaigns in Afghanistan and India. His first occupation of Palestine was in 318 B.C. He left there in 315 B.C. due to a war with Antigonus. In 312 B.C. he and Seleucus, the fugitive satrap of Babylonia, invaded Palestine and defeated Antigonus at Gaza. Again Ptolemy I occupied Palestine and again a few months later he had to leave because his general lost another battle and Antigonus then entered Syria in force. He also lost Cyprus at this time. In 305-6 B.C. Antigonus invaded Egypt but was defeated. In 302 B.C. Ptolemy I joined in a coalition in a war against Antigonus. He invaded Palestine a 3rd time. On the report that Antigonus had won a great victory against Lysimachus in Asia Minor he left Palestine again. But when he learned Antigonus was defeated in 301 B.C. by Lysimachus and Seleucus, he entered Palestine the 4th time. The other members of the coalition had decided to give Palestine to Seleucus because they considered Ptolemy had deserted the coalition; and so, for the next 150 years the Seleucid and Ptolemaic dynasties fought over Palestine. Ptolemy I died in 283 B.C. leaving a strong realm after 50 years of wars

7 restored blessings of Nebuchadnezzar (4:36):

1 His understanding returned (v 34)
2 His reason returned (v 36)
3 The glory of his kingdom was restored
4 His honor and brightness returned
5 His counsellors and lords sought after him again (v 36)
6 He was re-established in his kingdom
7 Excellent majesty was added to him

10fold purpose of Daniel 10-12: to (11:36)

1 Give further information of what will befall Israel in the last days (10:14)
2 Complete the revelation as to where the Antichrist comes from (11:2-45)
3 Complete the revelation of the book of Daniel of Gentile world powers that will oppress Israel before the 2nd advent of Christ (2:37-45; 7:17-27; 8:20-25)
4 Give further information of the little horn or Antichrist (11:36-12:7)
5 Identify Antichrist as the king of the north (11:36-45, notes)
6 Complete the revelation of the Revised Roman and Revived Grecian empires (2:40-43; 7:23-24)
7 Narrow down the coming of the Antichrist, geographically, from the 10 kingdoms of Dan. 2 and 7 and the 4 kingdoms of Dan. 8 to one of these kingdoms - Syria (7:23-24; 8:9-14, 20-25; 11:36-45)
8 Explain more fully when, why, and how the Antichrist will come (7:23-24; 8:9-14, 20-25; 9:27; 11:36-45)
9 Complete the revelation of the last day wars (2:40-45; 7:23-24; 8:9-14, 20-25; 11:40-45)
10 Show the operation of satanic powers over the kingdoms of this world (10:12-21; 11:1; 12:1)

Antichrist, the king of the north

Dan. 11:36-12:13 definitely identifies the Antichrist as the king of the north (Syria) at the time of the end. The whole purpose of this vision was to show "what shall befall thy people (Israel) in the latter days" (Dan. 10:14) under the last Syrian king who is foreshadowed by Antiochus Epiphanes (Dan. 11:21-34), and to narrow down the coming of Antichrist, geographically, from the 4 divisions of Grecia to one - the Syrian division

The visions of Dan. 2 and 7 were given to show the formation of 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire and reveal that the Antichrist would come out of one of these 10 kingdoms and lead these nations against Christ at His 2nd advent. The purpose of Dan. 8 was to give additional information to that of Dan. 2 and 7 - to narrow down the coming of Antichrist, geographically, from the 10 kingdoms to the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire which will make up 4 of the 10 kingdoms of the Revised Roman Empire before Antichrist comes. The purpose of the last vision (Dan. 10:1-12:13) was to narrow down the coming of Antichrist, geographically, from the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire to one of these divisions, the Syrian, and complete the visions of Daniel concerning the last days and the reign of the Messiah. Dan. 11:36-12:13 gives the third and last description of the Antichrist in Daniel

The little horn, king of the north, the man of sin, and the beast of Revelation are the same - the future Antichrist

1 All do according to their will (Dan. 11:36 with Dan. 7:25; 8:24; 2 Th. 2:10-12; Rev. 13:5-7)
2 All exalt themselves, above every god (Dan. 11:36, 37 with Dan. 7:25; 8:25; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)
3 All speak marvelous things against God of gods (Dan. 11:36 with Dan. 7:8, 11, 20, 25; Rev. 13:1-7; 2 Th. 2:4)
4 All prosper TILL indignation (tribulation, Dan. 8:19; Rev. 6-19) be accomplished (Dan. 11:36 with Dan. 8:9-11, 21, 22, 25-27; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:11-21)
5 All refuse to regard the God of their fathers (Dan. 11:37 with Dan. 7:25; 8:25; Rev. 13:1-7; 2 Th. 2:4; Jn. 5:43)
6 All honor a god whom their fathers knew not (Dan. 11:38-39 with Dan. 8:24; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 13:1-4)
7 All exist at the time of the end and will be successful in conquests in the same territories (Dan. 11:40-42 with Dan. 7:8, 11-12, 20-26; 23-25; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 13:1-10; 17:8-17)
8 All reign from Jerusalem "in the glorious holy mountain" and have their thrones in the temple (Dan. 11:45 with Dan. 9:27; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2; 12:1-17; 13:1-18)
9 All cause the greatest time of trouble ever on the earth (Dan. 12:1 with Dan. 7:21-27; 8:19, 24-25; 9:27; Mt. 24:15-23; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 15:2-4; 20:1-6)
10 All war on Israel during the same time and length (Dan. 12:7 with Dan. 7:21-22, 25-26; 8:24; Rev. 13; Mt. 24:15-23)
11 All take away the daily sacrifices and cause the abomination of desolation (Dan. 12:11 with Dan. 7:25; 8:24-25; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)
12 All come to an end (Dan. 11:45 with Dan. 7:8-11, 21-22, 25-27; 8:25; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:10)

From where does Antichrist come?

Daniel saw the little horn coming out of one of the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire (Dan. 8:8-9, 21-23). This was to be "in the latter time of their kingdom" and so it must yet be in the future, for these kingdoms still exist (Dan. 8:23). These 4 divisions are known today as Greece, Turkey, Syria, and Egypt. In Dan. 7 we have the Antichrist coming from 10 kingdoms inside the Roman Empire and if we did not have the vision of Dan. 8 we could believe that he could come from England, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Albania, or some other part of the old Roman Empire territory outside the 4 divisions of the Grecian Empire. But since we have in Dan. 8 the narrowing down of Antichrist's coming, from 10 kingdoms to 4 of the 10 and definitely limiting his coming as from Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, then we must limit his coming as from one of these 4 countries

If the Antichrist is coming from Greece, Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, then it is certain that he cannot come from Italy, the Vatican, England, America, Germany, Russia, or any country of the world other than one of these 4. See notes, p. 877 for proof that Antichrist will come from Syria

3 great future tri-continent wars:

1 The 1st tri-continent war will be for the purpose of forming the 10 kingdoms inside the old Roman Empire territory, fulfilling Dan. 7:23-24. The 24 states now inside this territory will be reduced to 10 kingdoms. This will require a war in Europe, Asia, and Africa and the defeat of Russia who now controls part of the territory. These 10 kingdoms will be the Revised Roman Empire symbolized by the 10 toes on the image of Dan. 2, and the 10 horns of the beasts of Dan. 7, Rev. 12, 13, and 17

2 The 2nd tri-continent war will take place after the 10 kingdoms are formed and the Revised Roman Empire continues a short space (Rev. 17:10). The little horn or future Antichrist will come from one of these 10 kingdoms and from among them to form the 8th kingdom of Rev. 17:8-17. In this 2nd war he will overthrow 3 of the 10 kingdoms before the others submit to him (Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17)

3 The 3rd tri-continent war will be after Antichrist gets power over the 10 kingdoms, in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, or 3 1/2 years before the 2nd advent of Christ (Rev. 13:5). The 10 kingdoms under Antichrist will fight this 3rd war with the countries of the north and east of the old Roman Empire territory (Dan. 11:44). When Antichrist conquers these new enemies he will lead the nations down to Jerusalem to battle and then Christ will come to defeat them at Armageddon (Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

Prophetical sensationalism (11:43)

When Mussolini took Libya and Ethiopia in 1935 thousands of Bible students hailed him as the Antichrist, claiming Dan. 11:43 was being fulfilled. This, plus the fact of his dream of the revival of the Roman Empire, caused many to teach that he was truly the Antichrist, but how far wrong they have been. This and all other foolish speculations of the past about Hitler, Stalin, the pope of Rome, and others should cure students of further guessing concerning the fulfillment of prophecy but this seems impossible. Speculation still goes rampant through the land without check. Some have gone so far as to find the U.S.A. in the name of Jer-USA-lem. Others see the U.S.A. in Isa. 18, in the white horse rider of Rev. 6, and the two-horned lamb of Rev. 13. Innumerable speculations have been advanced concerning the name of the Antichrist, the mark of the beast, and a host of other things of Scripture. Some even find flying saucers, atom bombs, H-bombs, the airplane, automobile, radio, television, and other modern inventions in Scripture, while the truth is that not one of these is mentioned apart from the general statement that "knowledge shall be increased" (Dan. 12:4). See the notes given with the various passages used to prove modern inventions, for the true meaning of such passages (22 modern inventions, p. 882)

Libya and Ethiopia could be conquered by any number of men, if the Lord tarries, without fulfilling Dan. 11:43. Unless one conquers after the 10 kingdoms are formed (7:24), after the rapture of the church (2 Th. 2:7, notes), comes from Syria and makes a 7-year covenant with Israel (8:9-14; 9:27) he cannot fulfil this prophecy. There would be no sensational speculation about prophecy if men would watch the time element and other facts that identify a true fulfillment

Russia not king of the north (11:44)

Many teach that Russia is the king of the north of Dan. 11, but this is impossible for the following reasons:

1 Russia never was a part of the old Roman Empire out of which 10 kingdoms must be formed in the last days and out of which Antichrist must come (7:8, 23-24)

2 Russia never was a part of the old Grecian Empire, or the 4 divisions of that empire after the death of Alexander the Great, out of which Antichrist must come (8:9-14, 20-23)

3 Russia is not once referred to in the wars of Dan. 11:4-34. These were eventually fought between Syria and Egypt in a period of about 150 years, ending with the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes, as seen in the notes on that section of Scripture. Therefore, to insert Russia into the future war between the future king of the north (Syria) and the king of the south (Egypt) is adding to God's Word. One might as well identify the U.S.A., Britain, or any other country we want to as the king of the north as to do so with Russia

4 If Russia is the king of the north of Dan. 11:4-45, then what countries are north of Russia that will make war on Russia, fulfilling the war tidings from the north and east of this king of the north of v 44? There are no countries north of Russia that could make war on her, fulfilling this verse. Hence, Russia is entirely out of the picture in Dan. 11

5 In the past Russia bordered the Syrian division of the 4 divisions of the old Grecian Empire, so in the formation of the 10 kingdoms this will perhaps be true of the border between future Syria and Russia. Hence, Russia could be the only country to fulfil making war on Syria at that time, for Turkey will have already been conquered by him and made a part of the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome, under the king of the north (7:23-24; Rev. 17:8-17)

Another fallacy about Russia:

The only other major fallacy about Russia is that she will invade Palestine, fulfilling Ezek. 38-39. Many are the speculations regarding Russia being the country from which Antichrist comes, of hes fulfilling Dan. 11:40-45; Ezek. 38-39, and of her invading Palestine before the battle of Armageddon. Not one of these theories is true. Even if Russia did invade Palestine before Armageddon, no particular prophecy would be involved. Ezek. 38-39 could not be fulfilled by any such war, for these two chapters are to be fulfilled at Armageddon only, and not in some war before then. See notes on Ezek. 38-39

If Bible scholars will recognize one thing, not only will Ezek. 38-39 be clear for them, but also Dan. 11:44. That one thing is, Antichrist from Syria will get power over the 10 kingdoms of Revised Rome in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, and then the war between him and his 10 kingdoms and the countries east and north of the old Roman Empire territory will be fought. Antichrist will conquer the eastern and northern countries and become the ruler of Russia by conquest, not by being a native of Russia and coming from her (v 44). At that time he will become the Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal of Ezek. 38-39, at the end of this war or near the end of the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week. Then, and then only, will Ezek. 38-39 be fulfilled. The Antichrist will lead the newly conquered countries, together with the 10 kingdoms, and other nations that will co-operate with him, through the ministry of the 3 unclean spirits (Rev. 16:13-16), to their end at Armageddon (Ezek. 38-39; Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)

Thus the king of the north (Syria), will war on the countries north and east of Syria, and they will be defeated, for Antichrist will go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly make away many (v 44). Many, if not all the nations north and east of the old Roman Empire territory, will unite to put down this new conqueror who, in 3 1/2 short years will have gained complete mastery of all the 10 kingdoms of the Roman Empire territory. Realizing he is set upon complete world conquest they will know that they must defeat him or be defeated eventually by him. So, before he recovers from his bloody wars inside the Roman Empire, they will unite to put an end to his conquests. Antichrist could perhaps conquer more of the world if it were not for Christ's coming to earth to save Israel when half of Jerusalem is taken (Zech. 14). Thus, Antichrist's dream of being a total world-wide dictator will come far short of his goal. Christ will be the one and only world-wide ruler other than Adam and Noah of the human race and Lucifer of the angelic race

7 facts: Antichrist and deities (11:37)

1 He will disregard the God of his fathers, the true God (v 37; Jn. 5:43)
2 Reject the gods that women desire
3 Reject every idol god (v 37)
4 Exalt himself above every idol god, and even the true God (v 36-37, 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13)
5 He will honor the god of forces (v 38)
6 Honor a god whom his fathers knew not (v 38)
7 Honor a strange god (v 38-39)
See 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13:1-18

The tribulation (12:1; Rev. 6-19)

The time and length of the tribulation

The tribulation will begin to affect Israel before the 70th week begins; how long before is not certain, but when Antichrist rises at the beginning of the week, Israel will be undergoing persecution from the 10 kings of Revised Rome dominated by Mystery Babylon. When Antichrist comes he will make a 7-year covenant with Israel assuring them of protection in their continued establishment as a nation (Dan. 9:27). Because the Jews will not submit to Mystery Babylon, there will be a widespread persecution and "they shall be hated of all nations" during the time of the beginning of sorrows when Antichrist will be endeavoring to conquer all these nations (Mt. 24:4-12). Antichrist will need Jewish moral and financial support in his rise over these nations, so he will make an alliance with them for 7 years. Therefore, the time of the tribulation will be during the whole of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27). It will end at the 2nd advent (Mt. 24:29-31; Rev. 19:11-21)

The divisions of the tribulation:

1 The first division takes in the first 3 1/2 years of the 70th week and is termed the lesser tribulation. It is not to be as great in severity as the last 3 1/2 years, because of the protection of Israel by the Antichrist during that time. Israel's persecution then will be from a source entirely different from that of the last division. In these first 3 1/2 years she will be persecuted by Mystery Babylon and the 10 kings. This division takes in the fulfillment of Rev. 6:1-9:21. The judgments of the 6th seal and first 6 trumpets come in this period, thus proving tribulation during this time

2 The last division takes in the last 3 1/2 years of the week and is termed the great tribulation because it will be more severe in persecution upon Israel than the first 3 1/2 years. Antichrist, who will protect Israel the first 3 1/2 years, will break his covenant with her in the middle of the week and become her most bitter enemy. He will then try to destroy her, which act will call for the judgments of the 7 vials of the last 3 1/2 years. This part of the tribulation includes the fulfillment of Rev. 10:1-19:21, Jesus, Daniel, Jeremiah, and many others speak of this time of Israel's trouble as being worse than any other time that has ever been on earth or ever will be (Dan. 12:1; Jer. 30:4-11; Mt. 24:21, 22; Rev. 11:1, 2; 12:14-17; 13:5-7)

The purpose of the tribulation:

1 To purify Israel and bring them back to a place where God can fulfill the everlasting covenants made with their fathers (Isa. 2:5-22; 16:1-5; 24:1-25; 26:20, 21; Ezek. 20:33, 34; 22:17-22; Rom. 11:25-29)

2 To purify Israel of all rebels (Ezek 20:33, 34; 22:17-22; Zech. 13:8, 9; Mal. 3:3, 4)

3 To plead with and bring Israel into the bond of the new covenant (Ezek. 20:33, 34; 36:24-28; Jer. 30:3-11; Zech. 12:10-13:9; Mal. 4:3, 4)

4 To judge Israel and punish them for their rejection of the Messiah and make them willing to accept Him when He comes the 2nd time (Ezek. 20:33, 34; Zech. 12:10-13:9; 14:1-15; Mt. 24:15-31)

5 To judge the nations for their persecution of Israel (Isa. 63:1-5; Joel 3; Rev. 6:1-19:21)

6 To bring Israel to complete repentance (Zech. 12:10-13:9; Rom. 11:26-29; Mt. 23:39)

7 To fulfill the prophecies of Dan. 9:24-27; Rev. 6:1-19:21; Mt. 24:15, 29

8 To cause Israel to flee into the wilderness of Edom and Moab to be persecuted by the nations that they will have to turn to God for help (Isa. 16:1-5; Ezek. 20:33-35; Dan. 11:40-12:7; Hos. 2:14-17; Mt. 24:15-31; Rev. 12)

The character of the tribulation

God's wrath will be poured out upon mankind for their wickedness and corruption which will exceed the days of Noah and Lot (Gen. 6; Mt. 24:37-39; Lk. 17:22-37; 2 Tim. 3:1-12). Words cannot describe the utter rebellion and wickedness of men during this period of final struggle between God and the devil over possession of the earth (Rev. 11:15; 12:7-12; 19:11-21; 20:1-3). Men will reject the truth until God turns them over to the "strong delusion" of the Antichrist who will cause them to believe a lie and be damned (2 Th. 2:8-12; 2 Pet. 3:1-9). Even after God pours out His judgments upon men, they will still defy Him (Rev. 9:20, 21; 6:2-11; 17:1-18; 18:1-24)

Will the tribulation be world-wide?

The old theory that the tribulation will be world-wide is not stated even in one scripture. On the contrary, the Bible is clear that the Antichrist will not reign over the whole world, but only over the 10 kingdoms formed inside the old Roman Empire. See p. 308. Most of the judgments of the trumpets and vials are stated as being only upon a 3rd or 4th part of the earth (Rev. 8:7-12; 9:12-21), and upon "the men which had the mark of the beast" and "upon the seat (throne) of the beast: and his kingdom" (Rev. 16:2, 10, 12). However, nothing is said as to the limitation of the demon-locusts or of the extent of the devil's wrath when he is cast out (Rev. 9:1-11; 12:7-12)

When we speak of the tribulation we mean the troubles that God's people will have to undergo, especially the Jewish people, as Daniel's 70th week concerns only Israel and their city, Jerusalem. The last half of the week will be "the time of Jacob's trouble" and these troubles will primarily concern Israel (The 70 weeks, p. 847-848). The tribulation will not be world-wide, even if it covers all lands that Christians live in after the rapture. Unknown tribes of people in the interior of heathen lands will not know of the tribulation caused by the Antichrist, as is clear on p. 308 of the N. T.

The resurrections (12:2)

There are two main kinds of resurrection: spiritual and material. Spiritual resurrection is that of the spirit being quickened from death in trespasses and sins. Such a resurrection causes one to be renewed in the glorious likeness of God (1 Cor. 11:7; Eph. 4:21-24; Col. 3:10; 1 Jn. 3:9). It is taught in Eph. 2:1-6; 5:14; Rom. 6:11 and takes place only in this life. When physical death comes all possibility of such spiritual resurrection has passed (Eccl. 11:1; Heb. 9:27; Rev. 22:11). Material resurrection is that of the body to which we shall confine the rest of our study

Kinds of material resurrection:

There are two kinds of material or physical resurrection: the righteous to life before the Millennium; and the wicked to damnation after the Millennium (12:3; Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). There will be 1,000 years between the two resurrections (Rev. 20:4-6)

1 The fact of a resurrection. The following Bible characters taught it: Job (19:25-27), Isaiah (26:14-19), Daniel (12:2), David (Ps. 16:10; 17:15; Acts 2:31), O. T. saints (Heb. 11:35), N. T. saints (Mt. 28; Mk. 16; Lk. 24; Jn. 20-21; Acts 2; 4; etc.), Jesus (Mt. 16:21; 22:23-31; Lk. 14:14; 20:27-36; 24:13-45), Matthew (28:1-20), Mark (16:1-18), Luke (24:1-49), John (19-21; Rev. 20:4-6), Mary (Jn. 11:24), Herod (Mt. 14:2), Peter (1 Pet. 1:3; 3:21), Paul (Acts 17:18, 32; 23:6; 24:15, 21; Rom. 1:4; 6:5; 8:34; 1 Cor. 15; Phil. 3:10-11; Heb. 6:2; 11:35)

2 The resurrections foretold (Isa. 26:14-19; Dan. 12:2; Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:41-42; 20:19; 27:63; 1 Th. 4:14-17; 1 Cor. 15; Rev. 20:4-6; Jn. 5:28-29)

3 Examples of resurrection - temporary and permanent:
(1) Temporary (see 10 resurrections, note 5, Mt. 9:25)
(2) Permanent - raised to immortality to life forever in their bodies. Christ "the firstfruits" was the first of all permanent resurrections (1 Cor. 15:1-23). Then there were many O. T. saints resurrected after His resurrection (Mt. 27:53)

4 The order of the resurrection (1 Cor. 15:20-34). See 5 raptures, p. 175, N. T.

5 Qualifications for the 1st resurrection (see 10 qualifications, p. 227, N. T.

6 The method of the resurrection (1 Cor. 15:35-50). Paul illustrates the method of the resurrection by the death and resurrection of a grain of wheat or some other grain (see Resurrection, p. 190 of N. T.)

The 1st resurrection (Rev. 20:4-6; Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29)

This is the resurrection of all the just, the blessed, and holy, from Adam to the Millennium. It covers the period of time from Christ's resurrection to the resurrection of the tribulation saints and the two witnesses and includes the various companies of redeemed. There are 5 raptures in the first resurrection, p. 175 of the N. T. All who have part in this resurrection will have a part in ruling with Christ. He will not rule with just a select few, as taught by some (Rev. 20:4-6). This resurrection may be called the out resurrection: that is, a resurrection out of or from among the dead (Lk. 14:14; 20:35-36; Phil. 3:11-14; 1 Th. 4:14-17; 1 Cor. 15:51-58; Heb. 11:35; Rev. 20:4-6). Just as Christ came out from among the dead as the firstfruits of the dead, so at the rapture, the dead in Christ will come forth from among the wicked dead according to the above passages. Even the tribulation saints will come out from the wicked dead (Rev. 20:4-6). "The wicked dead live not again until the thousand years are finished" (Rev. 20:4-6)

The Greek expression ek nekron, out of the dead, is used 49 times and teaches a select resurrection from the dead - the righteous selected from among the wicked - but it does not teach a select resurrection of some righteous from among the remaining righteous (Mt. 17:9; Mk. 9:10; Lk. 24:46; Acts 3:15; 4:10; 10:41; 13:30; 17:31; Rom. 1:4; 4:24; 6:4-9; 8:11; 1 Cor. 15:12, 20-23; etc.). The theory that a few of the righteous will be selected from among the righteous is a mere human invention based upon a few historical stories of the O. T. which were never intended as types. There is a lack of even one plain scripture on the subject. All the dead and living in Christ will be in the 1st resurrection - not just a few of those in Christ. All who are out of Christ will be raised together after the Millennium to be judged and cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

The resurrection of the righteous:

1 The first resurrection (Rev. 20:4-6)
2 The resurrection of the just (Lk. 14:14)
3 The resurrection of life (Jn. 5:29)
4 A better resurrection (Heb. 11:35)
5 The resurrection of (from among) the dead (Phil. 3:10-15)

The 2nd resurrection (Dan. 12:3; Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6)

This is the resurrection of all the wicked from Adam to the end of the Millennium. It will take place after the Millennium and will also include those wicked who die during the Millennium (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). They will be raised with immortal bodies to be tormented in hell forever (Mt. 10:28; Jn. 5:28-29; 12:24; Dan. 12:2; Acts 24:15; 1 Cor. 15:21, 34-50; Rev. 14:9-12; 19:20; 20:4-6, 11-15). The theory that only the righteous will be raised to immortality is false, not being founded on one scripture. The method of the resurrection of the just and unjust is plainly taught and illustrated by a grain of wheat or any other grain. See p. 190 of N. T. So what makes the difference between the two resurrections? Does not a bad or poisonous seed reproduce in the same way that a good seed does? Do not both go through the same process? The resurrection of men follows this same process, the only difference being in the glory of one over another. Both the saved and unsaved will be immortal as is plainly taught in all Scripture. The wicked bodies will exist in conscious torment forever (note, Lk. 12:5). See Immortality, p. 881

No soul-sleep taught in Scripture (12:2)

All scriptures used to teach soul-sleep clearly refer to the body which does sleep in the dust of the earth until the resurrection of the body (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29). The body is the only part of man that dies at physical death (Jas. 2:26). The reason it dies is because the inner man, the life of the body, leaves the body. It then goes back to dust and is spoken of as being asleep (Gen. 3:19; Eccl. 3:19-21; Mt. 9:24; Jn. 11:11; 1 Cor. 11:30; 15:6, 18, 20, 51; 1 Th. 4:13-17)

Soul-sleep scriptures examined:

Every scripture used by those who teach soul-sleep refers to the body and not to the soul and spirit, as can be seen by an examination of the so-called proof texts themselves, in the following:

1 Sleep in the dust (Job 7:21; Ps. 22:15; 146:4; Eccl. 3:19-20; Dan. 12:2). The body only was made of dust and that is what will return to dust again (Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Eccl. 3:20). The soul and spirit are not made of material substances as the body so they will not return to dust. See pt. (14), p. 620, col. 1 for the difference between the material and spiritual natures of man

2 Death - a falling asleep (Acts 7:60; 13:36; 1 Cor. 15:6, 18, 20, 51; 1 Th. 4:13-17; 5:10; 2 Pet. 3:4). This is true as far as the body is concerned, for the body is the only part men can see as falling asleep. No man could see the soul and spirit, or the invisible part of man whether it fell asleep or not. In Acts 13:36 that which fell asleep was laid in a tomb and saw corruption. That seeing corruption definitely refers to the flesh is clear from Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:23-32. In these passages it was the flesh that saw no corruption while the soul went to hell. In David's case his flesh saw corruption (Acts 13:36). In all the other passages above the thing that fell asleep was the flesh or body (1 Cor. 15:35). Naturally, the body falls asleep when the spirit leaves it (Jas. 2:26)

3 Death is spoken of as sleep with thy fathers and slept with his fathers (Dt. 31:16; 2 Sam. 7:12; 1 Ki. 2:10; 11:21, 43). This refers to the body falling asleep, as in points 1 and 2, above

4 No difference between man and beast in death (Eccl. 3:19-20). This is used as conclusive proof by false cults that both man and beast become extinct at death, but an honest acknowledgement of facts here will show that it refers to the body, not the soul. It says, All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. There can be no argument against this, for both men and beasts were made of dust as far as the body is concerned (Gen. 2:7, 19). All bodies do return to dust again, but nothing is said here, or in any other place, that the souls and spirits or the real invisible and intangible parts of men and beasts were made of dust. On the contrary, this same passage proves there is a distinction between man and beast as far as their spirits are concerned, for the spirit of man goeth upward, and the spirit of beast goeth downward to the earth

5 No consciousness in death (Ps. 6:5). This verse must be understood with other facts. In physical death there is no remembrance, because the body dies and has no soul or spirit in it that could cause the body to continue having memory and consciousness. The body without the spirit is dead (Jas. 2:26). It is not the chemical make-up of the body that has consciousness or it would continue after the spirit leaves the body. The soul and spirit make the body conscious as long as they are in the body, but when they leave the body it is dead and therefore, cannot be conscious

The statement in this verse about the grave (Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits, see p. 620) not containing anyone who praises God is no doubt literally true, for hell is a place of torment in fire and who would praise God in such circumstances? That there is consciousness in sheol is clear from many scriptures (see Hell, p. 620-622). It does not say here or elsewhere that people in sheol are extinct and unconscious, and could not praise God. It is clear that in hell men do cry and desire to get out of hell, as in Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9-11; etc.

6 The dead praise not the Lord (Ps. 115:17). This is true as far as the body is concerned, for it is lifeless, unconscious and goes into dust again when the soul and spirit leave it (Jas. 2:26). The souls of the dead after leaving the bodies, if they are righteous, continue to praise God in full consciousness (Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11), but the wicked who go to hell will have no praise for God. Their sole interest will be to escape such a literal burning hell and that will be impossible (Lk. 16:19-31)

7 In the day of death his thoughts perish (Ps. 146:4). This also is true as far as the body is concerned. The body cannot possibly have thoughts when the inner man leaves it (Jas. 2:26). Souls and spirits after leaving the body continue to have thoughts in heaven (Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11) and in hell (Isa. 14:9-11; Lk. 16:19-31; p. 620-622)

8 The dead know not anything (Job 14:21; Eccl. 9:5-6). Again, we repeat these facts are true regarding the body, but not the soul and spirit. How could a dead body of dust be conscious, have memory, love, hatred, and envy with the soul and spirit gone from it? Dust cannot have these experiences whether it is shaped into bodily form or otherwise. The soul and spirit continue to know and they have emotions and desires after leaving the body, as proved in many scriptures on Hell, p. 620-622

9 The dead come out of the graves (Mt. 27:52; Jn. 5:28-29). As to the bodies which die at physical death, they are put into graves but the souls and spirits never go to graves, as proved in many scriptures on p. 620-622. If one knew that a body was still alive because the spirit was still in it, he would not put that body in the grave. It could not see corruption with life in it. Furthermore, it would be breaking the law to bury a live body; this would be murder and incur the death penalty

10 David is not yet ascended into heaven (Acts 2:34). This is true as to his body, but not true as to his soul and spirit, for all souls were taken to heaven as captives, who had died before Christ's resurrection (Ps. 68:18; Eph. 4:8-10). Every just man's spirit is in heaven (Heb. 12:22-23). Every person who dies bodily goes to heaven as an inner man (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Rev. 6:9-11) and the body is buried in the grave to await its resurrection (Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2). One does not die spiritually at physical death, for he is either dead or alive spiritually in his lifetime. If he is spiritually dead in sins (Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Tim. 5:6), at physical death his soul will go to hell and his body in the grave to await their re-union in the 2nd resurrection (Rev. 20:6, 11-15). If he is alive spiritually at physical death, his soul will go immediately to heaven and his body to the grave until their re-union in the first resurrection (Rev. 20:4-6; 1 Th. 4:13-17). To prove that David's body is what is referred to as the part which has not yet ascended, see Acts 13:36 where it plainly reveals what it was that saw corruption

Thus it is clear that soul-sleep is a fallacy, but body-sleep is a reality

14 proofs future immortality of body:

1 The Bible promises immortality for the body in the resurrection. See Rom. 2:7; 1 Cor. 15:42-54; Phil. 3:21; 1 Tim. 6:16; 2 Tim. 1:10. The body is the subject of these passages and therefore will be resurrected immortal to house the immortal soul and spirit. See 25 proofs of immortality, 270 of N. T.

The Scriptures throughout teach even present immortality of the soul and spirit (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4). Bible writers made many references to a future resurrection, judgment, and life beyond the grave for both the righteous and the wicked in body, soul and spirit (Job 19:25-27; Ps. 16:9-11; Isa. 26:14-19; Dan. 12:2, 3, 13; Mt. 6:20; 10:28; 12:32; 13:50; 18:8-9; 19:27-30; 22:23-33; 23:15; 25:31-46; Mk. 9:43-48; Lk. 16:19-31; 23:43; Jn. 11:24-26; 12:24, 48; Acts 1:3; 2:25-36; 3:26; 4:2, 10, 33; 5:31; 7:59; 10:40-42; 13:34-37; 17:31, 32; 23:8; 24:15, 21; 26:8; 1 Cor. 15; 1 Th. 4:13-17; Phil. 3:20-21; Col. 3:4; Heb. 11:8-19, 35-40; 12:23; Rev. 20:4-15; 21:8; 22:15)

These are just a few of many scriptures teaching a life after death - the wicked in eternal hell (notes, Ps. 9:17; Lk. 12:5), and the righteous with eternal life (Dan. 12:2; Mt. 25:41, 46; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15:21-54; Rev. 20:11-15). Jesus and Paul illustrated the resurrection by seed (Jn. 12:24; 1 Cor. 15:35-54). Just as every seed can live again when it dies, so every man will live again in the resurrection, and bodily like the seeds

The greatest proof of immortality of body is found in Jesus Christ (Lk. 24:39; Jn. 2:19; 10:17-18). His resurrection is the guarantee of that of all men (1 Cor. 15:2 Cor. 5:1-8; Phil. 1:21-24; 3:20-21)

2 The difference between the material and spiritual natures of man proves the immortality of the soul and spirit and the future immortality of the body. See 21 proofs, A-U, p. 619, col. 1

3 The doctrine of future immortality of the body has never been disproved. We have more proof for this doctrine in Scripture than we do for what life is. We have no scripture explaining what odor is, what electricity is, and what atoms are, yet we believe in them. It is a law of logic that an assumed believable faith not discredited has a right to be. Faith in God and immortality is native to the soul. It has a right to be just as much as nature has a right to exist. Both were created to exist and both do exist as proved by actual demonstrations, illustrations and continued reproductions in nature

4 Natural laws demand immortality of the body. Hundreds of thousands of creations prophesy and proclaim the resurrection of the body to a future existence either in heaven or in hell. The invisible things are clearly seen by the visible (Rom. 1:20). Innumerable seeds and plant life rise again to live and reproduce their own kind eternally. Each seed and each plant verifies the doctrine of immortality and a future life. Paul used seeds to illustrate the future and eternal life of the body (1 Cor. 15:35-54). Bad and poisonous seeds also reproduce the same as good ones do. So also is the resurrection of the dead (Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2). Man was created to live forever in body, soul, and spirit, and he would have done so from Adam's time on, if he had not sinned. Resurrection is necessary to bring the body back from dust to be punished for sin or rewarded for righteousness (Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15; Dan. 12:2)

5 Spiritual laws prove immortality of the body. The soul and spirit are the immaterial parts of man which know, reason, and make one conscious of things about him. By these faculties man knows there is immortality. He is fearful of the reality of immortality of body if he sins, and is happy about it if he lives right, proving that the laws of consciousness and of being know and recognize a future life of rewards and punishment

The wicked have described in horror the damnation of the damned in hell and proclaimed in the dying hour their eternal destiny to be one of torment and remorse. Newport, Voltaire, Paine, Hume, Altamont, Allen, Hobbes, Mason, and others have all testified at death about their wrathful destiny in the hands of an insulted God. Numerous are the dying testimonies of saved men regarding the glory and wonders of the beautiful world they were going into eternally. Not only men named in Scripture but men in all generations have died in the peace and glory of heaven. Man is the only earth creature that has faculties to make him capable of self-consciousness and God-consciousness. This is the line of demarcation between man and beast

6 Death is a blunder and an abortion if there is no resurrection of the body to immortality. Death is real (Heb. 9:27). It is an enemy (1 Cor. 15:24-28). The vindication of God as a perfect Worker and a just Judge requires life after death. The present is too brief to receive justice and meet opportunities that come. Men merely begin a work and leave it undone. Thousands die in infancy. What incompleteness and waste of life if death ends all. Life becomes a hopeless mockery and an infinite series of abortions under these circumstances. But with immortality, all who desire life and continuation of their greatest plans, find life takes on a new meaning (1 Cor. 15:19)

7 Justice demands that all men live again eternally that they might receive of the things done in the body whether they be good or bad (Mt. 10:41-42; 16:27; 19:28-30; Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:9-10; Heb. 9:27; Rev. 20:11-15). Mere extinction of being would be unjust and improper as a penalty. It would be a guarantee of freedom from punishment and would encourage sin and rebellion. Such would never permit the degrees of punishment corresponding to degrees of guilt (Mt. 10:15; 11:22; 12:41; 16:27; 23:14; Mk. 6:11; 12:40; Lk. 10:14; 11:31-32; 20:47; Rev. 20:11-15). Extinction of being for each rebel would make lies of all these scriptures. Degrees of guilt demand immortality of the body as well as of the soul of the wicked, just as obedience to God demands life for the saints to enjoy the fruit of their works. If death ends all, the conscience and the Bible tell many lies and they are a cheat and a farce. Here some sinners prosper through sin and cheating and many saints live in poverty because they do not seek gain unjustly as sinners do

The ungodly steal, cheat, get gain by every conceivable means and live off the labour and ignorance of the poor, The brewer lives off the society which he damns by his product. Thousands of the poor are robbed and forced to support him. The arrogant mistress lives in pleasure and sin while the virtuous girl toils in the sweatshop denying herself pleasure of sin because she has a hope of the future. Life is so inequitable and changeable. The wicked take advantage of the righteous and thousands cry for help, refusing to break God's laws to get revenge. Where is justice going to be meted out if not in a life to come?

8 The purpose of existence teaches immortality. If the universe exists only for itself, it is abnormal and a deviation from the common rule of all creation as demonstrated in nature. If it exists for anything less than itself, it is waste. If it exists for something greater than itself, what is that something? The answer is that it exists for God, to glorify Him and carry out the purpose for which He created it (Rev. 4:11). Man was given dominion on earth to rule it forever (Gen. 1:26-28; Ps. 8). He was created an eternal creature in order to rule it forever. Man's fall and continued sin do not do away with God's eternal plan. They only postpone it until the final restitution of all things (Acts 3:21; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10). Then man will become eternal in body as he is in soul and spirit now. This will be necessary for him to rule forever (Dan. 7:18, 27; Rev. 5:10; 22:4-5), for that requires immortality of body, soul, and spirit

9 The brevity of life demands immortality of the body. Man never ceases to live in soul and spirit (note m, 1 Pet. 3:4), so brevity of life could only refer to the body that is soon cut down and goes to dust again. The works of man outlive him, so if he should never live again, then his works are better and greater than he is, and this is unreasonable to believe. Everything in nature and creation operates contrary to this belief. Does the life of flowers cease to exist in the future because they have died in the winter? Does the falling of the leaves in autumn prove the tree is forever dead and lifeless? Shall the seeds be powerless to produce if the tree falls in death? No, indeed. Over 80,000 seeds testify constantly of an eternal existence. They are a lower form of life than man and yet when they die they live again, for this is the creative purpose and natural law for each one of them. Are they greater than man, the highest of creation? Shall the works of man's hands be more eternal than he is? Shall his plans end because he is temporarily cut off due to Adam's sin? This would be a creative blunder, for the brevity of life demands life again for all men to correspond with their own creative make-up

tality of the body. Elephants live hundreds of years; trees thousands of years; and other parts of creation lower than man exist eternally. Shall we accuse God of creating and running a world out of balance? Shall we accuse Him of making the lower creations to outlive the higher? Shall moral and spiritual creations live less than the brute and material creations? Such would condemn the Creator and insult creation as represented by man, the lord of creation on earth. There must be another life for all men, for these inequalities to be adjusted. Man could have lived forever had he not sinned. He will live again and forever in the final restitution of all things - some to everlasting glory and some to everlasting shame and contempt(Dan. 12:2;Jn. 5:28-29)

11 The universal human desire demands immortality of the body. This desire is in every man, even the lowest rebels against God. God has made hungers in the human breast, each of which has a corresponding satisfaction or answer as: water for thirst; food for hunger; friends for the social nature; home for homesickness; God for spiritual hunger; and immortality for the desire of a future life. We accept justice and believe in it because of universal conscience.

Why not accept belief in immortality because of the universal hunger for it? If you should find a dog yearning for eternal life, thinking about it, and reasoning how to get it, you would say that the animal had a high nature and spiritual faculty you never dreamed of. Take away that power in man and he will be like a dog and will die like one. No man of sound mind will agree that he does not have a higher nature than a dog or that he is as incapable of higher and spiritual things as a dog. This proves he knows he has natural and higher faculties than an animal. Such power not only teaches immortality to him and demands it for him, but guarantees it to him

12 Moral nature in man demands immortality of the body. No man can explain the origin of moral nature and moral obligation apart from the truth of immortality. Moral nature demands a set of laws based upon rewards and punishments for obedience and sin. Nations who have conformed to moral law have advanced to the highest culture and those who have denied it have sunk into depravity (Rom. 1:17-32). Nations that endure must not only have mentality but morality. Our moral nature affirms in many ways that there is a future life and that we must prepare to get the good out of it or we will suffer the consequences of sin forever (Ps. 9:17; Rev. 14:9-14; 20:11-15)

13 Universal instinct to worship God and meet certain standards that will better the future and eternal existence proves immortality of the body. Nature causes the birds to go north and south and to know when to mate. The ants, the bees, and all other creatures know by instinct how to carry on their own peculiar life for the future. Everything in creation obeys its natural instincts except unregenerated man. He is capable of choice power to better himself or to degenerate to unnatural living, now and forever. He has outstanding instincts to worship and prepare for eternal life. Is man the only creature that nature lies to and fools? Why do not animals have the same natural craving for immortality? This proves man, of all creation capable of worship and preparing for eternity to better himself (1Jn. 3:1-3; 2Cor. 7:1; Heb. 12:14-15; Gal. 5:24; 2 Cor. 5:17-21)

14 Man's constitution demands immortality of body. He was created to live forever physically, as well as in soul and spirit. Sin cut him off from this and hindered the original plan. Jesus came to restore all to man. Being constituted to live bodily forever proves the possibility of immortality. Man's creation in God's own image and likeness demands it; the eternal purpose of God demands it; and the eternal plan of God provides for it, but sinners forfeit their part in the glorious plan by sin(Pr. 1:22-33; Mt. 25:31-46; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13). Even they will exist bodily forever as an eternal monument of God's justice to all coming generations throughout all eternity (Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15; 21:8; 22:15)

3 "time" periods of Dan. 12 (12:7):

1 The "time, times and an half," or the 3 1/2 years (Dan. 12:7), are the 42 months of Antichrist's war on Israel till God purges every rebel from the nation making her willing to do His will (Ezek. 20:33-38; Zech. 13:9; Mal. 3:3). Antichrist could easily destroy Israel in a short time after he breaks his covenant with them, if God were not to interfere. But God will supernaturally cause the ground to open up and swallow the armies of the dragon and Antichrist as they flee after Israel when she goes into the wilderness of Moab and Edom to escape from the hands of Antichrist (11:41; Isa. 16:1-5; Mt. 24:16; Rev. 12:14-17); and He will protect the remnant of the woman which does not flee into the wilderness, through stirring up the countries of the north and east against the Antichrist. He will then leave the remnant during the last 3 1/2 years, going forth to conquer these nations. They will keep him occupied during this time. Then after conquering these countries, he will lead them and many other nations against Jerusalem to destroy it, but God will come and put an end to Gentile dominion and deliver Israel (Zech. 14; Rev. 19). This war between Antichrist and countries of the north and east will cause the persecution of Israel to be shortened as in Mt. 24:22

2 The next period is an addition of 30 days to the 1,260 days of the above mentioned period (v 11)

3 The last period is 1,335 days, an addition of 45 days to the second period

The extra 75 days (the 30 days and 45 days) added to the 1,260 days will complete the 1,335 days of Dan. 12:7-13, the last day of which will be the actual day of the proclamation of the kingdom, when men who have lived through the tribulation will be blessed. It is the actual time when Christ will say to the sheep nations: "Come, ye blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world" (Mt. 25:34). These extra 75 days will be taken up by certain events necessary to the actual proclamation of the kingdom.

18 events of the 75 days:

1 The battle of Armageddon (Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21)
2 Burial of the dead begun (Ezek. 39:8-22)
3 Great earthquake and splitting of the Mt. of Olives (Zech. 14:1-5)
4 Rounding up of the prisoners of the armies of Antichrist and disposition of them (Ezek. 39:2)
5 Rounding up and casting of Satan and every demon and fallen angel into the abyss (Isa. 24:21-22; Rev. 20:1-3)
6 Gathering of Israel by the angels (Isa. 11:10-12; Mt. 24:31)
7 Gathering of the nations to judgment (Mt. 25:31-46)
8 Separation of the tares and wheat (Mt. 13:39-50)
9 Cleansing Jerusalem and beginning its rebuilding for the eternal kingdom (Ezek. 48)
10 Rounding up of all beast worshippers and all who have the mark of the beast to be sent to hell (Rev. 14:9-11)
11 Erection of the Millennial temple (Ezek. 40-46; Zech. 6:12-13)
12 Sending out the resurrected saints as the new earth rulers to take over every inhabited part of the earth (Dan. 7:18, 27; 1 Cor. 6:2; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 22:4-5)
13 Sending out missionaries from Jerusalem to evangelize the nations (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 52:7; Zech. 8:23)
14 Establishing government offices in every part of the earth and publishing the new laws of the kingdom of heaven on earth (Isa. 2:2-4)
15 Division of the promised land in 12 strips and the settlement of the 12 tribes in their portions (Ezek. 48)
16 Settling of the nations in their own portions of the earth (Dt. 32:8; Acts 17:26)
17 Opening of the earth and starting of the Millennial river (Ezek. 47)
18 All necessary work in making the deserts blossom as a rose, waters to spring forth in the deserts, changing the animals, regulating the solar system as it was before the fall, and many other events that will continue throughout the Millennium and new earth forever, as listed on p. 311-312 *

KNOWLEDGE SHALL BE INCREASED (12:4)

Modern inventions are being referred to almost universally as fulfillment of prophecy. The only sense in which this is true, is by fulfillment of Dan. 12:4 - knowledge shall be increased. One can list all present or future inventions and all increase of knowledge under this heading in a general way; but when it comes to finding every new invention in particular in Scripture, we immediately enter the realm of speculation and sensationalism and become unscriptural. It will be seen that such interpretations are fully out of harmony with the Bible

22 modern inventions

1 Automobiles (Nah. 2:3-4). The chariots here were horse-drawn ones, in battle between Nebuchadnezzar and the king of Ninevah, about 616 B.C., as proved in Nah. 1:1; 2:13; 3:1-3. If students reading of the chariots that "shall justle one against another in the broad ways" (Nah. 2:4) would proceed to the next chapter (Nah. 3:2) and read about the "noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots" they would see the prophet, Nahum had rattling chariots, drawn by horses spurred on by the whip, in mind. The fact that the "horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear (3:3)" as well as "the shield (2:3)" in the sunlight to cause the chariots to seem like torches (2:4) flashing in the battle described, should make it understandable that the chariots that "shall rage in the streets" and "run like the lightnings" are definitely not automobiles with their headlights. The sun, shining on the polished metal causing it to flash like a mirror is the idea

2 The airplane, 7 scriptures are said to predict this invention as follows:

(1) As birds flying (Isa. 31:5). Instead of the airplane this refers to the 2nd advent of Christ, when the Lord (not Gen. Allenby in 1917) will come to fight and deliver Jerusalem from the Antichrist, as is clear from a reading of the whole chapter. Not one detail of v 4-9; 31:1-20 was fulfilled in 1917

(2) Ride upon the high places of the earth (Isa. 58:14). This is a figure of blessing in material things and not a reference to riding in airplanes. If planes are meant, then Israel had them when they came out of Egypt, for the same figure is used in Dt. 32:13; 33:29

(3) These that fly as a cloud, and as doves to their windows (Isa. 60:8). The reference here is to the return of Israel in ships on oceans to Palestine in the Millennium. V 9-22 are proof of this

(4) He shall fly as an eagle (Jer. 48:40; 49:22). This refers to Nebuchadnezzar conquering like an eagle pouncing on its prey (Jer. 46:13, 26; 49:30). Babylon is symbolized by a lion with an eagle's wings (Dan. 7:4). The idea is conquest as swift as an eagle (Dt. 28:49). When God bare Israel on eagles' wings out of Egypt did He use airplanes (Ex. 19:4)?

(5) The wings straight (Ezek. 1:23-24). These are the wings of cherubim, not airplanes (Ezek. 1:4-28; 10:1-22)

(6) The goat that touched not the ground (Dan. 8:5). This is plainly a symbol of Greece, not an airplane (Dan. 8:21)

(7) The Chaldeans that fly as an eagle (Hab. 1:8). The reference here is to the swiftness of conquest on horses, as is clear in the verse, itself. See point (4) above

3 Smoke-screens (Amos 8:9). The darkness of this verse is no more a smoke-screen from planes than the darkness in Egypt (Ex. 10:22) or darkness during the crucifixion at midday (Mt. 27:45)

4 Atom bombs (Gen. 19:24-28; Mic. 1:4; Isa. 24:20; 34:4). In the 1st scripture it is stated that God rained fire from heaven upon Sodom (Gen. 19:24). The 2nd and 4th refer to the 2nd advent of Christ, when He will come with flaming fire (Mic. 1:3-4; Isa. 34:4; 2 Th. 1:7-10). The 3rd refers to the great earthquake of the 7th vial (Isa. 24:20; Rev. 16:17-21)

5 Automobile tires (Isa. 3:18). This refers to the round or crescent shaped headbands worn by the daughters of Zion, and not to rubber tires on automobiles

6 Automobile mufflers (Isa. 3:19). This again, refers to the styles of the daughters of Zion, and means light face-veils, not parts of automobiles

7 Satellites (Lk. 21:25). The signs referred to in this passage are to be IN the sun, moon, and stars - not in man-made rockets. They are the same as the sun and moon being darkened, and the stars falling from heaven of Mt. 24:29-31; Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 16:17-21; 19:17-21; Isa. 13:9-11; Joel 2:10-11; 3:15-17. Luke adds, THEN (at that time) shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory (Lk. 21:25-27). Did men see the Son of man coming when satellites were recently shot into the sky?

8 Deep sea divers (Job 38:16)
9 Electricity (Job 38:19-20)
10 Telephones (Job 38:25)
11 T.N.T. (Job 38:22-23). These last 4 scriptures (of points 8-11) are simply some of the questions God asked Job, about 4,000 years ago. They make no reference to modern inventions

12 Flying saucers (Ezek. 1). This chapter with Ezek. 10 describes cherubim, angelic creatures that move God's throne from place to place, as stated. To make them flying saucers or anything else is entirely out of harmony with Scripture

13 Flame throwers (Rev. 9:17). This verse refers to demons out of the abyss, not to modern weapons of war

14 War tanks (Joel 2:3-10). This passage is part of a description of the heavenly saints and angels accompanying Christ to the earth at Armageddon (v 11; Zech. 14:5; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Rev. 19:14)

15 Locomotives (Job 41)

16 Steamships (Job 41). Instead of referring to locomotives and steamships, Job 41 deals with Satan, as is clear from the last verse which says plainly that "he is a king over all the children of pride." See Rev. 12

17 Submarines (Isa. 27:1; 43:16; Hab. 1:14). The 1st passage refers to Leviathan or Satan (called Leviathan by Isaiah), who is symbolized by a serpent (Isa. 27:1; Rev. 12). The 2nd passage simply speaks of God's power as capable of making a way through the sea. The 3rd refers to the destruction of Israel's rulers so that the nation would be like the fish - without leaders

18 Steam shovels (Isa. 41:15-16). This passage predicts that God will use Israel like a threshing machine, to punish their enemies. Steam shovels are not the reference here at all

19 Telegraph (Isa. 5:26; Zech. 10:8). The 1st passage predicts judgment upon Judah by Assyria. The 2nd refers to God regathering Israel. The hissing in both cases refers to His speaking and bringing about these events through proper agencies. Who has ever heard of a telegram doing what is stated in these verses?

20 Robot (Hab. 2:19). This verse refers to dead idols, as do many other scriptures, and not a robot

21-22 Radio and television (Isa. 58:4). The mention of fasting in the verse has been taken by some to mean diet, whereas, "to make your voice to be heard on high" has been thought to be the voice of radio and TV, particularly the programs of dieticians. But this speaks of fasting, not dieting, and prayer to God, not speaking over the radio or television

The above Scripture references, themselves will not allow such extravagant speculations. Is not Dan. 12:4 sufficient in its teaching that we are to have increase of knowledge in the last days?

a This term-the word of the Lord-is used 3 times (1:1, 2; 4:1) b Hosea, salvation. The only man whose name is spelled this way (v 1-2). He is called Osee in Rom. 9:25 c Jewish tradition identifies Beeri with Beerah of Reuben (1 Chr. 5:6). Christian tradition makes Hosea of Issachar d See Hosea the prophet, p. 901 e Hosea claimed that God spoke by him (v 2)
f 26 commands in Hosea, p. 910
g Whoredom referred to here not only meant backsliding from Jehovah, but included literal sex orgies and perversions in connection with idols, as we have seen through the historical books of the O. T.
h 3 things the prophet did:
1 He went-he did not argue with God as Moses did (Ex. 4:16)
2 He took Gomer to wife (v 3)
3 He became a father, Gomer having borne him a son i Gomer, completion; that is, filling up the measure of idolatry (v 3) j 1st prophecy in Hosea (1:4, fulfilled). Next, v 6.

3 predictions-fulfilled:

1 In a little while I will avenge the blood of Jezreel (1:4; 2 Ki. 9:16, 25, 33; 10:11, 14-30)
2 I will cause the kingdom of Israel to cease (the 10 tribes, 1:4; 2 Ki. 17)
3 I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel (1:5; 2 Ki. 18:11)

k Jezreel, God will scatter or sow. The name of Hosea's first son. The meaning was that God would scatter Israel and sow them in all lands; and when His purpose for this was complete He would again sow them in their own land (2:22-23)
l Jehu had carried out God's judgment on the house of Ahab; then he went into the same sins for which he had judged Ahab (2 Ki. 10:31-36). This total destruction of the house of Ahab is called the day of Jezreel. It was an appropriate picture of the terrible destruction in the day of the Lord and Armageddon (v 11) m 2nd prophecy in Hosea (1:6-7, fulfilled). Next, v 9

5 predictions-fulfilled:

1 I will have mercy on the house of Israel no more (1:6)
2 I will utterly take them away (1:6; 2 Ki. 17)
3 I will have mercy on the house of Judah (1:7)
4 I will save the house of Judah
5 I will not save them by carnal means n Lo-ruhamah, I will have mercy no more, or I will not have compassion (v 6. Cp. Rom. 9:25; 1 Pet. 2:10) o This was literally fulfilled. The 10-tribe kingdom was never restored and never will be, as such, again. God did utterly take them away and only those who clung to Judah and all the kingdom of David were restored with them as a nation; the rest were completely destroyed, God did have mercy on the house of Judah and they were restored (v 7). See books of Ezra and Nehemiah p 3rd prophecy in Hosea (1:9-11. V 9 fulfilled; v 10-11 unfulfilled). Next, 2:1

1 prediction-unfulfilled:

You are not My people, and I will not be your God (1:9)

5 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 The number of the children of Israel will yet be as the sand, which cannot be numbered (1:10)
2 In the place where it was said, You are not My people, there it shall be said unto them, You are the sons of the living God
3 Then will the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together (1:11) head
4 They will appoint themselves one 5 They will come out of the land

q Lo-ammi, not My people. This meant that God would cut them off officially as a people, and during that time would refuse to be their God (v 9)
r Regardless of being cut off they would eventually multiply to be great in

863 CHAPTER 1

I Symbolical visions (1:1-3:5). 1 Title, author, and historical background (2 Ki. 15-20; 2 Chr. 26-32)

THE [a]word of the LORD that came unto [b]Hō-sē'a, the son of [c]Bĕ-ē'rī, [d]in the days of Ŭz-zī'ah, Jō'tham, Ā'hāz, and Hĕz-e-kī'ah, kings of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ăsh, king of Ĭs'-ra-el.

2 Marriage: birth of Jezreel: meaning

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hō-sē'a. And the LORD [e]said to Hō-sē'a, [f]Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed [g]great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 [h]So he went and took [i]Gō'-mĕr the daughter of Dĭb'la-ĭm; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 [j]And the LORD said unto him, Call his name [k]Jĕz're-el; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jĕz're-el upon the house of [l]Jē'hū, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Ĭs'ra-el in the valley of Jĕz're-el.

3 Birth of Lo-ruhamah: meaning

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her [m]name Lō'-rŭ-hā'mah: for I will [n]no more have mercy upon the house of Ĭs'ra-el; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Jū'dah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

4 Birth of Lo-ammi: meaning

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lō'-rŭ-hā'mah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 [p]Then said God, Call his name [q]Lō'-ăm'mī: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

5 Future regathering of Israel

*10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 [r]Then shall the children of Jū'dah and the children of Ĭs'-ra-el be [s]gathered together, and appoint themselves [t]one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jĕz're-el.

864 CHAPTER 2

6 Chastening of Gomer: meaning the chastening on Israel

[a]SAY [c]ye unto your brethren, Ăm'mī; and to your [d]sisters, Rŭ-hā'mah.

●2 Plead with your [e]mother, plead: for [f]she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For [g]their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, [h]that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, [i]I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 [j]For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Bā'al.

9 [k]Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her [l]sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will [m]visit upon her the days of Bā'al-ĭm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she [n]decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after [o]her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

7 Wooing of Gomer: meaning the regathering of Israel

*14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and [p]bring her into a 4th prophecy in Hosea (2:1-23. V 1-13 fulfilled; v 14-23 unfulfilled). Next, 3:1. See p. 913

b Only one daughter and two sons (v 3-4, 6, 8-9) c Gomer of v 3 d Just as Gomer had left Hosea so Israel had left God, for whoredoms. The marriage, in both cases was, for a time, dissolved e Gomer had gone back to her former lovers to live as a harlot. This was used to illustrate how Israel had backslidden and gone from Jehovah to serve idol gods (v 5-23) f 7 things Gomer had in harlotry (v 5):

1 Lovers	5 Flax
2 Bread	6 Oil
3 Water	7 Drink
4 Wool

g The prediction is that she would not be happy and successful in her life of harlotry-she would long for her husband again and return to him (v 6-8)
h She did not know that her husband had provided her all the things which her lovers had provided, and more (v 8). She was to be punished and taught a lesson not to play the harlot again (v 9-10)
i Beginning here the judgment of God is applied to Israel (v 11-13). The restoration of Israel is predicted in v 14-23
j It is clear here that the sabbaths of Israel were to be done away with as much as her mirth, feasts, new moons, and other rituals. This is what happened when God made the new covenant-not a single commandment was given regarding the keeping of any particular day as the sabbath. It is plainly set forth in the N. T. that under its terms every man may do as he pleases regarding a sabbath day (Rom. 14:5-6), and that no man is to judge another on this question (Col. 2:14-17); for Christianity is not a religion of days, weeks, years, and rituals (Gal. 4:9-10). See Sabbath in Index k I will punish them for serving Baal, is the true idea (v 11-13)
l See Ezek. 16:11-14; 23:40-42
m The lovers of Israel were the many nations round about, whom they made alliances with and trusted in instead of Jehovah (v 13) in Index n Law of prophetic perspective. See Law o This refers to the flight of the woman of Rev. 12 into the wilderness. See The sunclothed woman, p. 307 of N. T. Many other examples could be given, illustrating how important the study of Dispensational truth really is. See Index on this subject

Christ when all Israel will be saved (v 10; Zech. 12:1-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29) and be gathered (v 11; Isa. 11:10; Ezek. 37) and would again be called the children of God (v 10). That time is yet future; the prediction will be fully fulfilled at the 2nd advent of Christ (Mt. 24:31)
s Then-when Judah and Israel will become sons of the living God, they will be completely gathered (v 10-11)
t The fact that both kingdoms of Israel were to be gathered proves that both were to be scattered. At this time neither kingdom had been defeated or scattered. About 72-90 years after this the 10 tribes were scattered (2 Ki. 17), and 133 years later Judah was scattered (2 Ki. 23-25). Both were gathered after the 70 years of Judah in Babylon; that is, Judah was gathered and those of the 10 tribes who desired to return with her; and both made a nation in the land in the days of Christ. Then, in 70 A. D. they were scattered again (Lk. 21:20-24). Now they are both being gathered in part and will continue in national restoration as a nation until the 2nd advent of Christ who will gather them fully from all parts of the earth (Isa. 11:10-12, notes; Ezek. 37; Mt. 24:31)
u This predicts the reunion of all the tribes of Israel again as one nation ruled by one king (v 11; Ezek. 37)

a 20 things God will do for Israel in the wilderness (v 14-23; Rev. 12:6, 14):
1 Speak comfortably to her (v 14)
2 Give her back her vineyards (v 15)
3 Give her the valley of Achor for a door of hope 4 Bring her back to a spirit of singing
5 Marry her again (v 16)
6 Bring her into a closer relationship with Himself than merely saying My Lord
7 Take the names of Baalim out of her mouth (v 17)
8 Blot out all remembrance of the name of Baalim from her mind
9 Make a covenant for them with the beasts of the earth (v 18)
10 Bring peace to them
11 Make them safe 19)
12 Betroth her unto Himself forever (v
13 Betroth her in righteousness
14 In faithfulness (v 20)
15 Cause her to know Him
16 Make them prosperous (v 21-22)
17 Make her a plant of His own (v 23)
18 Have mercy upon her 19 Call them His people 20 Become their God

b Ishi-my husband (v 16)
c Baali - my Lord (v 16)
d God will make this covenant of peace between Israel and earth creatures, giving man his original dominion (v 18; Gen. 1:26-31). This is not the new covenant so often mentioned in the prophets. See Covenants in Index
e This is abolishing war (v 18; Isa. 2:4)
f This expresses universal safery of man and all creatures on earth (v 18)
g Just as Hosea married Gomer the second time, after she learned her lesson regarding being true to her husband, so the same would happen to Israel regarding her relationship with Jehovah, according to the prediction here. God will marry Israel again and betroth her to Himself forever in righteousness and faithfulness (v 19-20)
h This is very characteristic of Ezekiel who uses such an idea about 75 times to this once in Hosea (v 20)
i In that day and at that day are characteristic of Isaiah in whose book they are found 53 times compared to 4 in Hosea (1:5; 2:16, 18, 21)
j These statements express prosperity (v 21-22) k This pictures the sowing of Israel as a plant of His own in the earth (v 23), indicating their restoration (1:10-11). This is why the word Jezreel, the seed of God, which He will sow is used in v 22
l Quoted in Rom. 9:25, not of the Gentiles only, but as an illustration of what may be true in their case as well as in Israel's, Cp. 1 Pet. 2:10 m 5th prophecy in Hosea (3:1-5. V 4 fulfilled; v 5 unfulfilled). Next, 4:1

6 predictions-fulfilled:
1 The children of Israel will abide many days without a king (3:4)
2 Without a prince
3 Without a sacrifice
4 Without an image
5 Without an ephod
6 Without teraphim

4 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 Afterward (after the many days and the fulfillment of v 4) the children of Israel will return to Palestine (v 5)
2 They will seek the Lord their God
3 They will seek David their king
4 They will fear the Lord and His goodness in the latter days n Hosea was told to go again and love Gomer his wife who had forsaken him for her old lovers. He was to love her as God loves Israel who left Him to go after other gods, and who loved wine (v 1). He took another bag of money and other things with which to buy her back again (v 2); and made a contract with her to abide with him many days and not to play the harlot or be for another man (v 3). This also was applied to Israel (v 4-5)

o Price of Hosea's wife:
15 shekels of silver @ 64¢ each .$ 9.60
1 1/2 homers of barley - 15 3/4 bu. (10 1/2 bu. to an homer) @ $4.00 each bu. 63.00
Total $72.60
The amount of 15 shekels was the redemption price of a slave. The barley (not made into flour) was the most valuable part of the price the wilderness,[a] and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Á'chôr for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of É'gy̆pt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me[b] Ĭ'shi; and shalt call me no more[c] Bā'al-ī.

17 For I will take away the names of Bā'al-ĭm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant[d] for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and[e] I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and[f] will make them to lie down safely.

19 And[g] I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: [h]and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass[i] in that day,[j] I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jĕz'-re-el.

23 And I will[k] sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which[l] were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER 3 865

8 Hosea's divine love for Gomer: buys her for "many days" for himself alone: meaning

THEN[m] said the LORD unto me, "Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Ĭs'ra-el, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.●

2 So I[o] bought her to me for fifteen[p] pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley:

3 And[q] I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For[r] the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

9 Afterward: Israel to be restored under the Messiah (Acts 15:13)

5 [s]Afterward shall the children of Ĭs'ra-el return, and seek the LORD their God, and [a]Dā'vid their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in [b]the latter days.

866 CHAPTER 4

II God's case against Israel (4:1-5:15, Cp. Isa. 1:2, refs.).

1 Eight sins of Israel

HEAR[c] the word of the LORD, ye children of Ĭs'ra-el: for the LORD hath a[d] controversy with the inhabitants of the land,[e] because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. ■

2 By[f] swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

2 Eightfold judgment of Israel

3[g] Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy[h] thy mother.

3 Eightfold moral and spiritual state: eightfold judgment (Cp. Isa. 1:5, refs.)

6 ¶ My people are destroyed for lack of [i]knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up [j]the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

4 Sevenfold idolatry of Israel: fourfold judgment

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their [k]stocks, and their [l]staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have [m]gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow q Hosea must have been a wonderful man to obey the order to obtain a wife of whoredoms in the first place, and to show no resentment at being asked to buy her back again, after she had returned to her old lovers. He seemed to recognize the experience as part of God's eternal message to his people; and being a true servant he did not question the wisdom of God. He simply made a cold contract with his wife to keep herself only to him for the price of $72.60 (note o, above). She was not to go with any other man, and was to keep herself for Hosea for many days (v 3). The many days were applied to Israel being in dispersion and without being a nation (v 3-4). Afterward they were to return to God and become His wife again as Gomer had become the wife of Hosea a second time after being away from him for a time (v 5) r All this has been literally true for many centuries. From 616 B.C. until today they have not had a king or a prince. They did return from Babylon and renew the sacrifices, but since 70 A.D. they have not even had this. They have been without images and teraphim all these years so the prophecy has been literally fulfilled (v 4) s This part remains to be completely fulfilled. It is now in process of fulfillment - the returning part; but seeking the Lord and David their king, and fearing God in the latter days remain to be fulfilled at the 2nd advent of Chirst (v 5, Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21; Mal. 4:5-6; Rom. 11:25-29; Rev. 11:1-2, 15; 20:4-10) a Spouse -one's husband or wife

b This means that God will leave such sinners to follow their own corruption until the time when He will judge them in the next life. I will not punish your daughters (that is, punish them in particular more than you), for you all commit adultery; and the men are separated with whores. All of you may live as you want to in this life, but there is a judgment day coming for every one (v 14) c Your daughters who become temple-women (those consecrated to the unclean worship of heathen idols, by which the most foul corruptions in sex were considered holy duty). Your women commit whoredom and your men are separated with whores and sacrifice to idols with harlots; therefore, the whole nation will fall (v 14)
d Israel of the northern kingdom was past turning back to God, so He advised Judah, as here, to take a lesson from this and not offend Him or go past repentance and the place of surrender to Him (v 15). History records that Judah did not learn her lesson though; and in 133 years after the fall of Samaria she also was destroyed (2 Ki. 17-25). Judah was commanded not to go up to Gilgal where Jeroboam had erected an idolatrous temple, and where they had rejected Jehovah as King many years before. The idea was that they must not go after idols and reject Him. Judah was also told not to go up to Beth-aven. This word, meaning house of naught was substituted for Bethel, house of God in the place were Jeroboam set up the worship of a golden calf (1 Ki. 12:28-33; 13:1; Amos 3:14)
e Has been stubborn, restive, or rebellious like a heifer unbroken to be led by a rope, and who pulls back, refusing to go along (v 16)
f The Lord will permit them to go into dispersion among the heathen (v 16)
g Mated, or united to his idols and will not get a divorce from them (v 17)
h Her rulers love to give sacrifices to the idols, but have contempt for the sacrifices of Jehovah (v 18)
i The spirit of whoredoms has bound her up in her wings (skirts), which has hindered her race; so they will be ashamed of the idol worship (v 19) thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your [a]spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I [b]will not punish [c]your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

5 Warning to Judah

●15 ¶ Though thou, Iṣ'ra-el, play the harlot, yet [d]let not Jū'dah offend; and come not ye unto Gĭl'gāl, neither go ye up to Bĕth-ā'ven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Iṣ'ra-el [e]slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD [f]will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

●17 Ĕ'phrā-ĭm is [g]joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: [h]her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The [i]wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5 867

6 Call to Israel

HEAR ye this, O priests; and [a]hearken, [k]ye house of Iṣ'ra-el; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mĭz'pah, and a net spread upon [l]Tā'bôr. ■

2 And the revolters are [m]profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

7 Sins of Israel and Judah

3 I know [n]Ĕ'phrā-ĭm, and Iṣ'ra-el is not hid from me: for now, O Ĕ'phrā-ĭm, thou committest whoredom, and Iṣ'ra-el is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Iṣ'ra-el doth testify to his face: therefore shall Iṣ'ra-el and Ĕ'phrā-ĭm fall in their iniquity; Jū'dah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall [o]a month devour them with their portions.

●8 Blow ye the cornet in Gĭb'e-ah, and the trumpet in Rā'mah: cry aloud at [p]Bĕth-ā'ven, after thee, O Bĕn'ja-mĭn.

9 Ĕ'phrā-ĭm shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Iṣ'ra-el have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 [q]The princes of Jū'dah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ĕ'phrā-ĭm is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after [a]the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ĕ'phrā-ĭm [b]as a moth, and to the house of Jū'dah [c]as rottenness.

13 When Ĕ'phrā-ĭm saw his sickness, and Jū'dah saw his wound, then went Ĕ'phrā-ĭm to the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an, and sent to king [d]Jā'reb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ĕ'phrā-ĭm as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Jū'dah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, [e]till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

868 CHAPTER 6

III Prophetic repentance of Israel in the last days (Zech. 12:10-14; Rom. 11:25-29)

COME, [a]and [f]let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. ◄

2 [b]After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall [g]live in his sight.

3 [h]Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: [i]his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter [j]and former rain unto the earth. ◄

IV God's case against Israel (6:4-13:8; 4:1. Cp. Isa. 1:2).

1 Divine forbearance

4 ¶ O Ĕ'phrā-ĭm, [k]what shall I do unto thee? O Jū'dah, what shall I do unto thee? for [l]your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

2 Threefold judgment of Israel

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

3 Religious sins of Israel

6 For [m]I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But [n]they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gĭl'e-ăd is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Iṣ'ra-el: there is the whoredom of a The commandment of Jeroboam to worhsip the golden calves and go into idolatry (1 Ki. 12:28; 2 Ki. 10:29-31)

b 10 things God compared to, p. 894
c Moths in a garment and termites, which produce rottenness in wood, prey upon the substance in which they lie hidden; and they slowly but effectively do a work of destruction. This pictures God bringing judgment upon both Ephraim and Judah. The decay caused by moths and that by termites are both slow, yet one (that of the termites) is slower than the other. The reference is to Judah being destroyed more slowly than Ephraim (v 12). The idea is that when men sin God withdraws from them and as they continue in rebellion they become dead to spiritual things d Another name for Tiglath-pileser who punished both Ephraim and Judah (v 13; 2 Ki. 15:27-31; 16:7-10). When the moth and termites had wrought their work on both nations of Israel, then God became a lion to Ephraim and destroyed the nation (2 Ki. 17); later He became a young lion to Judah and destroyed her (2 Ki. 24-25)
e God said He would return to His place till both houses of Israel would acknowledge their sins, and seek Him (v 15; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)
f 8th prophecy in Hosea (6:1-3, unfulfilled). Next, 7:12

7 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 He will heal us (6:1)
2 He will bind us up
3 After two days will He revive us (6:2)
4 In the third day He will raise us up
5 We will live in His sight
6 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord (6:3)
7 He will come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth

g These are to be the words of Israel in the last days, as already symbolized by Gomer (3:2-3) and foretold in 3:5. Cp. Zech. 14:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29
h This should be taken literally. It gives the time that the mourning of Zech. 12:10-13:1 will take place. On the third day after two full days of mourning God will open to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a fountain for sin and uncleanness-so all Israel will be saved (Rom. 11:25-29)
i Live again in eternal life and resurrection from death in trespasses and sins (v 2; Eph. 2:1-10)
j We will live righteously in His sight (v 2), as we lived before in sins in His sight (7:2) k Then (after the three days of national mourning and repentance, and after being raised up to live in His sight) we will know (continue to know), if we follow on to know (if we walk in the light, v 2)
l This refers to the definite preparation and time of the 2nd advent of Christ in the plan of God. His coming is fixed as surely as the morning is eternally fixed to come at a certain time daily (v 2; Gen. 1:14-19; 8:22). His coming to save and bless Israel will be like refreshing rains after a long dry season-even as the latter and former rain upon the earth (v 3) m The former rain fell in October at the seed-time; the latter or spring rain fell in March and April to cause the grain to mature and ripen. One came at the beginning and the other at the end or harvest-time of good things; so in the spiritual realm, God would come down upon Israel to make a complete harvest of the nation (Zech. 10:1; 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)

6 Unconsciousness as to the time left in which to find God
7 The pride of Israel - God testifies to the sinner of his end (v 10. Cp. 5:5) idolatry did cause the nation to be destroyed (v 6, 9-14; 2 Ki. 17) n This refers to the utter fruitlessness of their design to be like other nations. It had no stalk, or wheat on it; and even if it did develop to this point strangers would take the fruit and use it for themselves (v 7)

o For her sins Israel was to be destroyed and dispersed among the Gentiles (v 8) p This pictures Israel making alliances with other nations and committing other sins, for which she was finally destroyed; later she was to be gathered again to her own land (v 9-14)

q Here Jehovah claimed to have written great things, which proves that what Moses and others wrote to Israel was through inspiration from God. Men were the mere instruments (2 Tim. 3: 15-17). It was God who spoke by the prophets in all ages (Heb. 1:1); and in this age He has spoken by His Son (Jn. 7:16; 8:28, 46-47; 12:49; 14:10, 24; 17:8), and by the Holy Spirit (Jn. 16:13; Heb. 2:4) s Return in the sense of making alliances with, trusting in, and submitting to the Egyptians. They never did go back to Egypt as a nation; only a very small group went back after the fall of Jerusalem, and these were cursed for so doing (Jer. 43-44)

869 CHAPTER 7

4 Sins and civil strifes

WHEN I would have healed Ĭş'ra-el, then the iniquity of É'phră-ĭm was discovered, and the wickedness of [b]Sā-mā'rĭ-ā: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.
2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.
3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.
4 They are all adulterers, [c]as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.
5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.
6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.
7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; [d]all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

5 Trust in the nations

8 É'phră-ĭm, he hath mixed himself among the people; É'phră-ĭm is a[e]cake not turned.
9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.
10 And the pride of Ĭş'ra-el testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.
11 É'phră-ĭm also is like [g]a silly dove without heart: they call to É'gÿpt, they go to Ăs-sÿr'ĭ-ā.

6 Captivity to Assyria (2 Ki. 17)

*12 [h]When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.
13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! [i]because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.
14 And they have not cried unto me [j]with their heart, when they [k]howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.
15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.
16 [l]They return, but not to the most High: they are like [b]a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword [c]for the rage of their tongue: [d]this shall be their derision in the land of É'gÿpt.

870 CHAPTER 8

*SET the [e]trumpet to thy mouth. [g]He shall come as an eagle against the [h]house of the LORD, [i]because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. ●
2 Ĭş'ra-el shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.
3 Ĭş'ra-el hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

7 Idolatry of Israel

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.
5 ¶ Thy calf, O Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: [j]how long will it be ere they [k]attain to innocency?
6 For from Ĭş'ra-el was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the [l]calf of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā shall be broken in pieces.

8 Dispersion of Israel

7 For they have [m]sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: [n]it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.
8 Ĭş'ra-el is [o]swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gĕn'tĭles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 Harlotry and idolatry

9 [p]For they are gone up to Ăs-sÿr'ĭ-ā, a wild ass alone by himself: É'phră-ĭm hath hired lovers.
10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.
11 Because É'phră-ĭm hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.
12 [q]I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.
13 [r]They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: [s]they shall return to É'gÿpt.
*14 [t]For Ĭş'ra-el hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Jū'dah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

a They return to their own idols and false gods and not to the living God b They are like a deceitful bow that disappoints the user, and cannot be depended upon. See note d, Ps. 78:57
c The Heb. word for rage here is used often of the wrath of God, but in this passage it is used of the rage and foaming anger of man against God (v 16). According to Jeremiah, the nearer their destruction came the more madly the leaders and false prophets of Judah whipped up contradictions against what God had said, and secured the people under their own lies until their utter destruction. The princes of Judah were singled out for the wrath of Nebuchadnezzar because of this stubborn resistance (Jer. 52:10). This same thing took place in Ephraim perhaps, for here it is revealed that they also had been singled out for destruction (v 16). A like situation prevailed at the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A. D. when the leaders and defenders of the city, maddened by their own curse, poured out the rage of their tongue against the Redeemer whose blood they chose to be upon them and their children (Mt. 27: 25)
d Their boasting of help from Egypt, and their failure to get such help in the time of need against the Assyrians became their derision, mockery, laughter, or cause of ridicule (v 16). In Egypt they trusted, and by Egypt they were ridiculed because of their fall. It was like the man who lives in a society which mocks at those who once trusted in it, courted its favors, and served and preferred it to God. Such are the wages of sin, as so ably expressed by Isaiah when he spoke of the strength of Pharaoh being the shame of Judah, and the trust in Egypt being their confusion (Isa. 33:3-5)

4 They have sown the wind, and will reap the whirlwind (8:7)
5 What is sown will not yield, but if it does strangers will get it
6 Israel will be dispersed among the Gentiles as a forsaken vessel (8:8)
7 Though they have been slaves among the nations, I will gather them (8:10)
8 They will sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes 13)

g The enemy will come as a swift eagle against the house of the Lord (v 1)

3 They will not offer wine offerings to the Lord (9:4) Lord 4 They will not be pleasing to the 5 Their sacrifices will be to them as bread for mourners who refuse to eat
6 They will be destroyed (9:6)
7 Egypt will gather them up and bury them
8 Nettles will be in their treasure houses, and thorns in their homes
9 Israel will know the time of her visitation and the days of her recompense (9:7)
10 God will remember and visit the iniquity of the prophets (9:8-9)
11 The glory of Ephraim will fly away like a bird (9:11)
12 Israel will be cut off in conception, in the womb, and in birth
13 I will destroy their children (9:12)
14 There will not be a man left 15 I will depart from Israel
16 Ephraim will bring forth children to be murdered (9:13)
17 I will drive them out of My house because of their sins (9:15)
18 I will love them no more (meaning that generation, and others should they continue in the same sins)
19 They will bear no fruit, yet if they do have children I will slay them (9:16)
20 God will cast them away (9:17)
21 They will be wanderers among the nations

b 2 great sins of Israel (v 1):
1 Had gone a whoring from God which would cause them to commit other sins
2 Loved reward (took bribes)

c Return in trust, not literally that the whole nation went down into Egypt (v 2, Cp. 8:13; 11:5; Ezek. 4:13)

d This implies captivity to Assyria (v 3; 2 Ki. 17; Ezek. 4:13)

e The bread of mourners was unclean. In fact, everything where the dead were, was unclean (Num. 19:11-14; Dt. 16:14)

f Question 4, Next, v 14

g Many fled to Egypt for protection, but there they died (v 6; Ezek. 29:5)

h Nettles and thorns would grow up in the treasure places and homes of Israel, for the destruction was to be complete (v 6)

i False prophets had continually predicted that the days of visitation would never come, or that they were in the distant future and there was therefore nothing to worry about. God simply told them that the time was near, it would come, and Israel would be the one to know it (v 7)

j 5 facts about a false prophet:
1 He is a fool (v 7)
2 He is mad
3 He is a snare and a fowler in all his ways (v 8) of God
4 He is the cause of hatred in the house
5 He is deeply corrupted by sodomite or sex perversion (v 9)

k This means that they were sodomites and protectors of them, as Benjamin in Judg. 19-20

l 2 comparisons of Israel (v 10):
1 God found Israel and was blessed in His plans for her, like a man being blessed who finds grapes in the wilderness
2 God saw them as a first-ripe fig, which would also be very refreshing; but Israel went into sin and shame

m This was the name of the most filthy and foul god of the heathen, from the standpoint of immoral practices which accompanied the worship (Num. 25). Thus we have another of many references in this book concerning the immorality of Israel

n These verses picture the complete destruction of Ephraim and their dispersion among the nations (v 11-17)

o Here is another comparison-the place of Tyrus compared with the inheritance of Ephraim (v 13)

2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but E'phra-im shall[c] return to E'gypt, and they shall[d] eat unclean things in As-syr'i-a.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as [e]the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 [f]What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: [g]E'gypt shall gather them up, Mem'phis shall bury them: [h]the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation [i]are come, the days of recompence are come; Is'ra-el shall know it: the [i]prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

11 Utter corruption of Israel (Cp. Isa. 1:5, refs.)

8 The watchman of E'phra-im was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, [k]as in the days of Gib'e-ah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Is'ra-el[l] like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to[m] Ba'al-pe'or, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

12 Complete dispersion

11 [n]As for E'phra-im, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 E'phra-im,[o] as I saw Ty'rus, is planted in a pleasant place: but E'phra-im shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: [p]what wilt thou give? [q]give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is [r]in Gil'gal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them[s] no more: all their princes are revolters.

16 E'phra-im is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will [t]cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and [c]they shall be wanderers among the nations.

872 CHAPTER 10

13 Israel's idolatry

IS'RA-EL is an [c]empty vine, he[f] bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

14 Complete overthrow (2 Ki. 17)

2 [g]Their heart is[h] divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; [i]what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as[j] hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sa-ma'ri-a shall fear because of the calves of[k] Beth-a'ven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto As-syr'i-a for a present to[l] king Ja'reb: E'phra-im shall receive shame, and Is'ra-el shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Sa-ma'ri-a, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of A'ven, the sin of Is'ra-el, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains,[m] Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

15 Charge of sinfulness since the days of Gibeah (Judg. 19-20)

9 O Is'ra-el, thou hast sinned from the [n]days of Gib'e-ah: there they stood: the battle in Gib'e-ah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall [o]bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And E'phra-im is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make E'phra-im to[p] ride; Ju'dah shall[q] plow, and Ja'cob shall break his clods.

16 Chance to avert judgment a No more until they come to repentance and quit the sins for which they were driven away and rejected by God (v 15; 5:15)

b Cast them away (v 17). This is something that God said He would do because of the sins of Ephraim, even though they were one time in grace (Ex. 33:17; Jer. 31:2; Gal. 3:8; Heb. 4:2; Jude 4-5). See 8:3; 9:17; 2 Ki. 23:27; 24:20; 1 Chr. 28:9; 2 Chr. 7:20; Jer. 7:15; 15:1; 23:39; 31:37; Mt. 5:13. There is no excusing of sin or passing over it by God; even angels who were one time sinless and in His grace, and who later sinned, will be damned (Mt. 25:41; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7). All God can and will do is to forgive when sin is duly confessed and repented of (1 Jn. 1:9)

c Of whom was the prophet speaking here? Ephraim, the 10-tribe kingdom, as proved in other passages of this book where the name is used no less then 37 times. They were to be wanderers among the nations; so the theory that they would be given a new promised land in England or America and that Judah or the southern kingdom of David would be the only ones dispersed among the nations is false (v 17). See the many predictions of the regathering of all the tribes of Israel from all nations, p. 444 was rejected and man's king set up; where Saul received his message of rejection (1 Sam. 13:4-15; 15:12-33); and where God hated them for their wickedness (v 15. Cp. 4:15; 12:11) a 3 things to do in seeking God (v 12):

1 Sow to yourselves in righteousness. This means to stop sinning and start doing what is right in all things - to consecrate to do that which is good and right. Sowing and reaping always stand out against each other, as labor and reward (2 Cor. 9:6; Gal. 6:7-9)
2 Reap in mercy. This means to accept and appropriate the mercy of God extended to us. If we do not accept mercy from God it will not be ours, for both sowing in righteousness and reaping in mercy are our responsibility. Righteousness is here to do, and mercy is here to receive, but neither will be a man's experience until he does what is right and accepts the mercy provided. See Mt. 5:7; Mk. 11:25-26
3 Break up your fallow ground. This also is the work of man. Each must break up the ground of his own life. Fallow ground is that which has been plowed but not sown; ground not in use; idle ground crusted over and hardened until it needs to be broken up again to receive the seed. Our hearts and wills must be broken and yielded to God. We must make ourselves willing to receive the Word of God and to obey it or seeking Him will not avail us anything. See Mt. 13:3-12, 18-23; Jas. 1:18, 21; 1 Pet. 1:23
b This gives the answer to the question of how long one would seek the Lord-till He comes and rains righteousness upon the seeker (v 12) 7 ways to seek the Lord:
1 With all the heart (Dt. 4:29)
2 Continually (1 Chr. 16:11)
3 By humbling self (2 Chr. 7:14)
4 By prayer
5 By turning from sin
6 By preparing the heart (2 Chr. 19:3)
7 Diligently (Heb. 11:6)
10 blessings of seeking the Lord:
1 He will be found (1 Chr. 28:9)
2 He will hear and answer (2 Chr. 7:14)

4 Life (Ps. 69:22; Amos 5:4-6)
5 Righteousness (10:12)
6 Glory (Rom. 2:7)
7 Honor
8 Immortality
9 Eternal life
10 Rewards (Heb. 11:6)

▸12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to [a]seek the LORD, [b]till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

17 Refusal: judgment inevitable

13 Ye have [c]plowed wickedness, ye [d]have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as [e]Shăl'man spoiled [f]Bĕth-ăr'-bel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Bĕth'-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Ĭs'ra-el utterly be cut off.

873 CHAPTER 11

18 Persistent rebellion (Cp. Isa. 1:2, refs.)

WHEN Ĭs'ra-el was a child, then I loved him, [h]and called my son out of Ĕ'gĭ̆pt.

2 [i]As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Bā'al-ĭm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ĕ'phrā-ĭm also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke of their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

★5 ¶ [j]He shall not return into the land of Ĕ'gĭ̆pt, but [k]the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are [l]bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him.

19 God's forbearance

8 [m]How shall I give thee up, Ĕ'phrā-ĭm? how shall I deliver thee, Ĭs'ra-el? how shall I make thee [n]as Ăd'mah? how shall I set thee as Ze-bō'ĭm? mine heart is [o]turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

★9 [p]I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ĕ'phrā-ĭm: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Ĕ'gĭ̆pt, and as a dove out of the land of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ă: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

20 Sins of Israel

12 Ĕ'phrā-ĭm compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Ĭs'ra-el with deceit: but Jū'dah [q]yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

874 CHAPTER 12

Ĕ'PHRĂ-ĬM feedeth [a]on wind, and followeth after [b]the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ans, and [c]oil is carried into Ĕ'gĭ̆pt.

21 God's mercy to Jacob when he repented

★2 [d]The LORD hath also a controversy with Jū'dah, and will punish Jā'cob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ [e]He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and [f]by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over [g]the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: [h]he found him in Bĕth'-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

22 Application to Israel

6 Therefore [i]turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

23 Characteristics of Israel

7 ¶ [j]He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ĕ'phrā-ĭm said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

24 Israel yet to be converted

★9 [k]And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Ĕ'gĭ̆pt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken [l]by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

25 Idolatry of Israel

11 [m]Is there iniquity in Gĭl'e-ăd? surely they are [n]vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gĭl'-gāl; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

26 God's mercies to Jacob and Israel in their sojourn

12 And [o]Jā'cob fled into the country of Sўr'ĭ-ă, and Ĭs'ra-el served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And [p]by a prophet the LORD brought Ĭs'ra-el out of Ĕ'gĭ̆pt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

27 Israel now unappreciative

Ephraim reproved 874 CHAPTER 12

a That is, I will leave Judah to rule a little while after the destruction of Ephraim (v 12). The purpose of this was to give Judah more time to repent and learn the lessons which the destruction of apostate Ephraim could teach her. However, in the period that followed God had to warn Judah many times and plead with her not to follow the way of Ephraim who had been destroyed; and instead of improving, she became more and more corrupt until He had to destroy her also. This was 133 years after the destruction of Ephraim (2 Ki. 17 with 24-25)
b The alliances of Ephraim with other nations were as wind that is soon passed and gone. The nation's sins increased daily, including lies and deceit (v 1; 11:12)

h The Angel who wrestled with Jacob was God, as proved in v 5-Even the Lord God of hosts. See notes on Gen. 32:24-32 i God found him (Jacob) in Bethel (Gen. 28:17-19). In the time of Hosea Bethel was the seat of idolatry (1 Ki. 12:28-33)
j 4 secrets of perfect union with God:
1 Turn to Him (v 6)
2 Keep mercy - live in grace
3 Keep judgment with God and man
4 Wait on God continually k 5 characteristics of Ephraim (v 7-8):
1 He is a merchant - good business - man
2 He is deceitful in dealings
3 He loves to oppress and defraud
4 He loves to boast of prosperity
5 He is hypocritical - claims innocence when guilty of many sins l 17th prophecy in Hosea (12:9, unfulfilled). Next, v 14. Ephraim is yet to be converted and dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast (v 9). All Israel will be converted at the 2nd advent of Christ (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:26; Isa. 66:8)
m 3 ways God has spoken:
1 By the prophets (v 10; Heb. 1:1)
2 By visions (v 10; Gen. 46:2; Ezek.1)
3 By similitudes (v 10)
n Question 11. Next, 13:10
o Many times idols are referred to as vanity, as here. Their altars were so many as to be compared in number to furrows in a plowed field (v 11) p See Gen. 28-30
q See Ex. 1-12; Dt. 18:18

→ Cont. from column 1

o God's heart was so moved within Him with repentings (compassions) for Ephraim that He was torn between two decisions - to destroy or not destroy. Ephraim was so sinful there was nothing left to do but destroy - hence the pleadings of God for the nation to seek Him and do that which was right so that He would not need to bring judgment. Jehovah was under obligation to destroy if sin continued, as is always the case regarding any man or nation whether under law or grace (v 8) p 15th prophecy in Hosea (11:9-11, unfulfilled). Next, 12:2
8 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger (11:9)
2 I will not return to destroy Ephraim
3 I will not enter the city 10)
4 They will walk before the Lord (11:
5 He will roar like a lion
6 The children will tremble from the west when He shall roar
7 They will tremble like a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of Assyria (11:11)
8 I will place them in their houses
These predictions are yet future, for God destroyed them soon after this. It is at the 2nd advent of Christ when God will not execute His fierce anger anymore, when He will return but not to destroy Ephraim, and when He will be in the midst of Israel (v 9). At this time God will not enter the city to destroy it: instead He will spare it and place the people in their own houses (v 10-11) a 18th prophecy in Hosea (12:14, fulfilled). Next, 13:3. Ephraim will be punished according to what he has sown

b The idea here is that at one time, when Ephraim spoke, he carried weight and was greatly respected; but when he exalted himself and served Baal he lost this respect, and was cut off (v 1; Josh. 24:14). The people now sinned more and more by making and worshipping golden calves and gold and silver images of many kinds (v 2) c 19th prophecy in Hosea (13:3-4, fulfilled). Next, v 7)

2 predictions-fulfilled:

1 Ephraim will soon pass away like a morning cloud, the early dew when the sun comes up, as chaff driven with a whirlwind, and smoke disappearing after coming from the chimney (13:3)
2 Ephraim will know no god but Me (13:4)

d Not only did God know Ephraim in the wilderness-He knew all the other tribes as well. They also knew Him, as is clear from the many records of their salvation and blessing from Him (v 5)

e The thought here is that the more God blessed them, the more they rebelled against Him; as they experienced the goodness of God and their bodies were supplied their hearts became exalted and they forgot Him (v 6)

f 20th prophecy in Hosea (13:7-8, fulfilled). Next, v 10

6 predictions-fulfilled:

1 I will be unto them as a lion (13:7)
2 I will observe them as a leopard in the way
3 I will meet them as a bear bereaved of her whelps (13:8)
4 I will rend the caul of their heart
5 I will devour them like a lion 9)
6 The wild beasts will tear them (13:

g They destroyed themselves because they would not follow God or obey Him. In God was their help and preservation from destruction if they had only realized it (v 9)

h 21st prophecy in Hosea (13:10, unfulfilled). Next, v 14. Here God predicted that He would eventually be their King and save them in all their cities

i Questions 12-13. Next, 14:8

j This refers to their original rejection of God as King and the choosing of an earthly king and princes, thus becoming like the nations who would fight their battles (v 10; 1 Sam. 8-10). Such kings and princes did not prove themselves capable of protecting Israel from their enemies, or they would not have been in their present condition of servitude, weakness, and facing destruction. God here simply told them that they would never be delivered from their enemies or have a true champion until He, Himself came, to be their King and fight their battles (v 10)

k This refers to Saul who was given to them to be their first king (1 Sam. 8-10), and who was taken away in God's wrath (1 Sam. 15:22-28; 16:13-14; 31:1-13; 1 Chr. 10:13-14)

l He will be destroyed as an unwise son, and will suffer the pangs of a travailing woman (v 13)

10 reasons for destruction of Ephraim (10:1):

1 Bringing forth fruit to himself (v 1)
2 Making many altars
3 Making many images
4 A divided heart (v 2)
5 No fear of God (v 3)
6 Swearing falsely (v 4)
7 Sodomy (v 9)
8 Idolatry his worship (v 10)
9 Wickedness (v 13, 15)
10 Trusting in his own way and in the multitude of mighty men (v 13)

10 judgments on Ephraim (10:2):

1 Altars broken down (v 2)
2 Images destroyed (v 2, 5)
3 Kingdom destroyed (v 3, 7, 15)
4 Shame and disgrace (v 6) 9)
5 Destruction of high places of sin (v
6 Thorns and thistles on altars
7 Misery until they plead to die
8 War and defeat (v 10, 14-15)
9 Reaping iniquity (v 13)
10 Destruction of fortresses (v 14-16)

*14 [a]E'phrä-im provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

CHAPTER 13 875

[b]WHEN E'phrä-im spake trembling, he exalted himself in Is'ra-el; but when he offended in Bä'al, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

28 Judgment of Israel

*3 [c]Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of E'gypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

5 I [d]did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 [e]According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

*7 [f]Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

V Final restoration of Israel (13:9-14:9, refs.). 1 Cause of present judgments

9 ¶ O Is'ra-el, thou [g]hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

[h]10 [i]I will be thy king: [j]where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, [k]Give me a king and princes?

11 [l]I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of E'phrä-im is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an [l]unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

2 Redemption promised

*14 [a]I will ransom them from the [b]power of the [c]grave; I will redeem them from [d]death: O death, I will be thy plagues; [e]O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.◂

3 Complete desolation first

15 ¶ Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Sä-mä'ri-ä shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14 876

4 Invitation to return to God

O Is'RA-EL, [a]return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

5 Future confession of Israel

●2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: [b]say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: [b]so will we render the calves of our lips.

*3 [c]Äs'shur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

6 Fourteenfold restoration

▸4 ¶ I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

▸5 I will be as the dew unto Is'ra-el: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lëb'a-non.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lëb'a-non.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lëb'a-non.

8 E'phrä-im shall say, [d]What have I to do any more with idols? [e]I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

a 22nd prophecy in Hosea (13:14-16, V 14 unfulfilled; v 15-16 fulfilled). Next, 14:3

5 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will ransom them from the power of sheol (13:14)
2 I will redeem them from death
3 I will be their plagues
4 I will be the destruction of sheol
5 Repentance (change of mind in these matters) will be hid from My eyes

6 predictions-fulfilled:

1 An eastwind will come, the wind of the Lord from the wilderness, and dry up his water supply (13:15)
2 He will spoil the treasures of the pleasant vessels 16)
3 Samaria will become desolate (13:
4 They will fall by the sword
5 Their infants will be dashed in pieces
6 Women with child will be ripped up

b The authority and bondage of sheol

c Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits, not the grave where the body goes (v 14). See Hell in Index

d Heb. maveth, death; pestilence; ruin. It is the power of being ruined that God will deliver from. Satan had this power until Christ conquered him (Heb. 2: 14-15). God will destroy death (v 14; 1 Cor. 15:24-28). This passage is quoted in 1 Cor. 15:54-55

e Heb. sheol, as defined in note c, above. God will also destroy the power of hell so that it will not touch His people whom He will redeem. Death and hell will only cause those who reject His redemption to be marred, ruined, and punished. Repentance by God or the changing of His mind and plans concerning death and hell will never be; such hope for the rebellious is vain and hid from the very eyes of God eternally (v 14)

f This was the last appeal made by God through the prophet urging them to return to Him and be cleansed of the sins causing them to fall and be destroyed. God even told them what to say in their repentance and turning to Him-Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips (v 1-2)

g See the confession of the publican and compare it with this (v 2; Lk. 18:13). In both testaments one can see the utter simplicity of what a person has to do in faith to obtain forgiveness from God. See Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9

h Quoted in Heb. 13:15. The word calves indicates sacrifice; so in reality this means: We will offer a sacrifice of praise to God as the fruit of our lips (v 2)

i 23rd and last prophecy in Hosea (14: 3-9, unfulfilled)

16 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 Asshur will not save us (14:3)
2 We will not trust in horses
3 We will not say anymore to the work of our hands, You are our gods
4 I will heal their backsliding (14:4)
5 I will love them freely
6 I will be as dew to Israel (14:5)
7 He will grow as the lily
8 He will cast his roots as Lebanon
9 His branches will spread (14:6)
10 His beauty will be as the olive tree
11 His smell will be as Lebanon
12 They that dwell under his shadow will return (14:7)
13 They will revive as corn
14 They will grow as the vine
15 The scent thereof will be as the wine of Lebanon
16 Ephraim will say, What have I to do anymore with idols? (14:8)

j Questions 14-16. The last in Hosea k 3 things God will be to Israel (v 8):

1 An observer-manifesting providence
2 A green fir tree-giving protection
3 A fruit tree-providing all things

9 characteristics of rebels (7:14):

1 Secret sins (v 1)
2 Falsehood and lying (v 1, 13)
3 Obstinate hearts (v 2)
4 Glory in sins (v 3)
5 Love of wine and women (v 4-5, 14)
6 Extreme passions (v 6)
7 Prayerlessness (v 7, 10)
8 Ignorance (v 9, 11)
9 Wicked imaginations (v 15)

Summary of Hosea

Date and place: written in Palestine 781-711 B.C.
Author: Hosea the prophet (1:1-2). See 1:10; 2:23 with Rom. 9:25-26
Theme: the book is one on repentance, backsliders being invited to return to God or suffer the consequences of being cut off. The Lord speaks to Israel through the domestic troubles of the prophet. Hosea was commanded to take a wife of whoredoms to picture the condition of Israel when God called and married her, bringing her into covenant relationship as His people. After having children by him, Hosea's wife, Gomer, left him to go after old lovers. He was then com-

Summary of Hosea continued on p. 896

a This is the only introduction given by the prophet of himself and his calling to the prophetic office. He was a prophet to Judah, and claimed that the word of the Lord came to him. It seems that the entire book of Joel is one prophecy instead of a series as in previous prophetic writings. However, various sections of the prophecy are listed separately for a better understanding of the book as a whole. Joel, like Hosea, mentioned the name of his father; and that is the only personal reference to his family background, the time he lived and prophesied, or the tribe he came from. It seems he wanted to be known only as the instrument of God. Passages in the book which are similar to statements of Isaiah and Amos do not prove that the prophets quoted from one another, for the same Spirit who spoke through one could also speak through another without any copying, as human writers, being involved. Cp. Joel 3:16 with Amos 1:2 and Joel 1:15 with Isa. 13:6

b Joel, the Lord is God. 14 men so-called, p. 327

c The reason he addressed the old men was that they had heard and known much of the past, and what he had to say would make their ears tingle. Among the people of the East reports concerning events of the past were handed down generation after generation for long periods of time; therefore, the prophet wanted them to get his message from God clearly, so that they might pass it on to coming generations (v 2-3) d All inhabitants of the land were also commanded to give ear or listen to the word of the Lord; they would hear of strange things to come, much that would concern them and their descendants

22 predictions-fulfilled:

1 The palmerworm will eat your crops (1:4)
2 Locusts will eat what the palmerworm leaves — custs leave
3 Cankerworms will eat what the locusts leave
4 Caterpillars will eat what the cankerworms leave
5 The new wine will be cut off (1:5)
6 A nation will come up upon My land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are as the teeth of a lion, and his jaws like those of a great lion (1:6)
7 He will lay waste My vine (1:7)
8 He will mark My tree
9 He will make them clean bare 10 He will cast it away
11 The branches will be made white 12 The meat and drink offerings will be cut off from the temple (1:9, 13)
13 Priests will mourn (1:9)
14 The fields will be wasted (1:10)
15 The land will mourn
16 The corn is wasted
17 The new wine is dried up
18 The oil languishes (1:12)
19 The wheat and barley will perish
20 The vine will be dried up
21 The fig tree will languish
22 The pomegranate, palm, apple, and other trees of the field will wither

h See 4 stages of the locust, p. 891

i These 4 words express the completeness of the destroying agencies. The Heb. reads: "Gnawer's remnant, Swarmer eats; Swarmer's remnant, Devourer eats; Devourer's remnant, Consumer eats." Thus 12 Heb. words condense the whole thought, which is the complete and immediate destruction of Judah and Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon (v 4-14) - a foretaste of the latter-day destruction of Palestine in the day of the Lord (1:15:3-21)

j The only nation that will come against Judah in the day of the Lord will be that of the future Antichrist from Syria and Babylon (v 6; Ezek. 38-39; Dan. 11:41-45; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21). His army of that day is called the northern army (2:20)

877 CHAPTER 1

I Immediate desolation of Judah by Babylon (1:1-14).

1 Title, author and a call to hear

THE [a]word of the LORD that came to [b]Jō'el the son of Pĕ-thū'el.

●2 Hear this, [c]ye old men, and give ear, [d]all ye inhabitants of the land. [e]Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

●3 [f]Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

2 The destroyers: symbolical

★4 [g]That which [h]the palmerworm hath [i]left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

3 Call to awake: Babylonian invasion of Judah

●5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep: and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For [j]a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

4 Lament: reason

●8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

5 Howl: reason

●11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

●12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

6 Howl and lament: reason

●13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

●14 ¶ [a]Sanctify ye a fast, call [b]a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

II The day of the Lord (Isa. 2:10, refs.). 1 Destruction in the day of the Lord ★15 [c]Alas for the day! for [d]the day of the LORD is at hand, and as [e]a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 [f]Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 [g]The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2 878

2 Call to alarm

[h]BLOW ye the trumpet in Zi'ŏn, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

3 Supernatural armies of God at Armageddon described (2 Thess. 1:7-10; Rev. 19:11-21; Jude 14; Zech. 14:5)

■2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a [i]great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Ē'dĕn before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.

a Sanctify - used 3 times in Joel:
1 Sanctify a fast (1:14)
2 Sanctify a fast (2:15)
3 Sanctify the congregation (2:16)
The use of the word here, as in all other places in Scripture, indicates that to sanctify means to set something apart for a sacred use. Removing what is sometimes called "the old man" is not the idea, as can be seen, for fasts and many other things mentioned in the Bible as being sanctified do not have such to be "taken out." See Sanctification in Index

b A solemn assembly was a day of restraint, a religious and political gathering of a serious nature (v 14; 2:15; 2 Ki. 10:20; 2 Chr. 7:9; Neh. 8:18; Isa. 1:13). Here it was a call to cry to God for mercy and deliverance

10 The trees will bear their fruit
11 He will give you the former rain moderately (2:23)
12 He will cause the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain to come down for you, in the first month
13 The floors will be full of wheat
14 The fats (vats) will overflow with wine and oil (2:24)
15 I will restore the years that the locust, the cankerworm, the caterpillar, and the palmerworm have eaten (2:25)
16 You will eat in plenty (2:26)
17 You will be satisfied
18 You will praise the name of the Lord your God
19 My people will never be ashamed (2:26-27)
20 You will know that I am in the midst of Israel (2:27)
21 You will know that I am the Lord your God, and none else
22 It will come to pass afterward (after the restoration of Israel) that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh (2:28)
23 Your sons and your daughters will prophesy
24 Your old men will dream dreams
25 Your young men will see visions
26 Upon the servants and handmaids I will pour out of My Spirit (2:29)
27 I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, fire, and pillars of smoke (2:30) ness
28 The sun will be turned into dark-
29 The moon will be turned red like blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord (2:31)
30 It will come to pass that whosoever will call on the name of the Lord will be delivered (2:32)
31 In mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as God has said 32 There will be deliverance in the remnant of Israel whom the Lord will call d Therefore also now. In the day when He will come with His army to take over the kingdoms of the world, turn to Him with all your heart, and rend your heart with fasting, weeping, and mourning, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and He repents (changes His mind) regarding the evil He has done to you (v 12-14). In view of this the elders, priests, ministers, children, and entire congregation were called to fast and pray for mercy (v 15-17)
e Changes His mind because of Israel coming back to Him (v 13)
f Question 4, Next, v 17
g The blessing taken away in the judgment of Judah was to be restored when they would repent and turn back to God (v 14 with 1:9)
h Question 5, Next, 3:4
i Then (when Israel has fully repented as in v 12-17) the Lord will restore them (v 18-19), and remove the northern army (v 20)

4 stages of the locust: (1:4):
1 Palmerworm-the first stage. Heb. gazam, the gnawer. This is the worm stage-just from the egg and without

7 •They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:
8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.
9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.
10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:
11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; [h]and who can abide it?

III Future restoration of Israel (2:12-3:1). 1 Call to repentance (Zech. 12:10)

•12 ¶Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:
•13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and [d]repenteth him of the evil.
14 [e]Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and [f]leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?
•15 ¶ Blow the trumpet in Zi'ŏn, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:
•16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.
•17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, [h]Where is their God?

2 THEN: sixfold restoration

18 ¶[g]Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.
19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

3 THEN: destruction of enemies

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the [a]east sea, and his hinder part toward [b]the utmost sea, and his [c]stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

4 THEN: fourteenfold restoration of land and people

•21 ¶Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.◂
•22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: [d]for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
•23 Be glad then, ye children of Zi'ŏn, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
•24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.
•25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, [f]my great army which I sent among you.
•26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.
•27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Is'ra-el, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

5 AFTERWARD: fivefold spiritual restoration of all peoples

•28 ¶ And it shall come to pass [g]afterward, that I will [h]pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your [i]daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
•29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

6 Signs preceding the second advent of Messiah and the day of the Lord

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, [j]before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
•32 And it shall come to pass, that [k]whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for [l]in mount Zi'ŏn and in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

CHAPTER 3 — 879

IV Battle of Armageddon
1 Judah and Jerusalem restored a The east sea could be the Dead Sea or the Euphrates and the Persian Gulf (v 20) (v 20)

b The utmost sea is the Mediterranean c See Ezek. 39:11-16
d See 90 commands, p. 892
e See details, note c, v 12 f The plague of locusts of 1:4, which was symbolic of the armies of the nations that will make Palestine desolate in the day of the Lord
g Afterward-after the restoration of Israel, as in v 18-27 (v 28)
h 3 great outpourings of the Holy Spirit:
1 On the day of Pentecost and many years following this day (v 28; Acts 2:1-28;31)
2 During the future tribulation (v 28-32; Acts 2:16-21)
3 During the Millennium (v 28; Isa. 32:15; 44:3; Ezek. 36:26-27; 39:29; Zech. 12:10)
The Spirit was also poured out upon Christ in fulness (Isa. 11:1-2; 42:1; 61:1; Mt. 3:16; 12:18; Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38). Believers may have the fulness of the Spirit at any time during this age (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 24:29; Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 1:4-8; 2:33, 38-39; Gal. 3:13-14; 1 Cor. 12; Eph. 1:17-19; 3:16-21)
i Women are not excluded from spiritual gifts and powers (v 28; Acts 2:16-21; 1:14; 2:1-21; 21:9; 1 Cor. 11-14). See note e, Acts 21:9
j These verses (30-32) prove that the Holy Spirit will be poured out upon all flesh, and men will continue to be saved during the future tribulation period, for these signs will take place only during that time and before the great and terrible day of the Lord (v 21; Acts 2:16-21)
k This has always been the case and always will be. When men call upon the Lord for mercy He always gives it; there is no such thing as the door of mercy being closed either to the Jews or Gentiles during any period of this age or any other (v 32; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 10:9-14; 1 Jn. 1:9)
l The Jews will be saved as a nation during this time (v 32; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)

wings
2 Locust. Heb. arbeh, the swarmer. It is still in the first skin. The word is used of little ones without legs or wings
3 Cankerworm. Heb. yelek, the devourer. The third stage when it casts off its first skin and develops little wings so it can leap a little, but not fly
4 Caterpillar. Heb. hasil, the consumer. The locust fully matured, with long wings and legs, and able to devour all before it

15 curses of the day of the Lord (1:15):
1 A day of destruction from God (1:15) (2:2)
2 A day of darkness and gloominess
3 A day of clouds and thick darkness
4 A day of invasion of earth by the armies of the Lord coming from heaven (2:2-11)
5 A day of devouring fire destroying all before it (2:3)
6 A day when men will be much pained and discouraged (2:6)
7 A day when supernatural beings and all heavenly armies will appear on earth to destroy multitudes (2:4-11; 3:14)
8 A great and terrible day with only a few living through it (2:11, 31)
9 A day preceded by a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit (2:28-32)
10 A day when all nations gathered against Jerusalem will be destroyed (3:2-16; Zech. 14:1-5, 14-16; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 19:11-21)
11 A day of war and destruction (2:1; 3:9-16)
12 A day of judgment for the nations (3:11-12; Mt. 25:31-46)
13 A day of decision-one to decide the rulership of the earth forever (3:14-16; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-10)
14 A day of darkness of the sun, moon, and stars (3:15; Mt. 24:29-31)
15 A day of great earthquakes (v 16; Zech. 14:4-5; Rev. 16:17-21)

a 4th section of the prophecy of Joel (3:1-16, unfulfilled; will be fulfilled at the battle of Armageddon and the day of the Lord). Next, v 17

14 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 In those days and at that time, when I bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will also gather all nations (3:1-2)
2 I will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat (3:2)
3 I will plead with them there for My people and for My heritage whom I scattered among the nations, parting My land among the Gentiles
4 I will raise them out of the place where you have sold them (3:7)
5 I will recompense upon your own head
6 I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of Judah (3:8)
7 They will sell them to the Sabeans and to a people far off
8 Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near and let them come up (3:9-12. Cp. Jer. 6:4)
9 I will judge them in the valley of Jehoshaphat (3:12-14)
10 The sun and moon will be darkened
11 The stars will withdraw their shining (3:15)
12 The Lord will roar out of Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem (3:16)
13 The heavens and earth will shake 14 The Lord will be the hope of His people and the strength of the children of Israel

b In those days and in that time-when I bring the Jews back from all lands and they have a new nation in Palestine with Jerusalem as the capital, I will gather all nations against them (v 1-2; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21) c Again indicates that it was done before this, which was true when they returned from Babylon under Ezra and and Nehemiah. The next time will be the second time, fulfilling Isa. 11:10-12 (see notes there). The second time is now in process of fulfillment and it will be completed at the 2nd advent of the Messiah (Mt. 24:31)
d References to Judah, Jerusalem, and Zion in the prophecy indicate that Joel prophesied to Judah. In fact, the 10 tribes had been taken into captivity and the northern kingdom completely destroyed before Joel prophesied, as we gather from internal evidence in the prophecy. There is not the slightest mention of the 10 tribes so it must be that they were not in existence as a kingdom at that time
e 7 reasons for judgments on Gentiles:
1 They have cast lots for My people (v 3)
2 Given boys to be harlots
3 Sold daughters for wine
4 Lived in drunkenness
5 Taken My silver and gold (v 5)
6 Taken My pleasant things into idol temples
7 Sold My people as slaves (v 6)
f Questions 6-7. Last ones in Joel g This refers to Philistia
h The sons of Greece (v 6)
i In v 9-12 we have reference to the preparation for war in fulfillment of v 2; Zech. 14:2; Rev. 19:19

30 Fear not, O land (2:21)
34 Be glad and rejoice
35 Be not afraid, you beasts of the field (2:22)
36 Be glad, you children of Zion (2:23)
37 Rejoice in the Lord your God
38 Proclaim this among the Gentiles
39 Prepare war (3:9)
40 Wake up the mighty men
41 Let all the men of war draw near 42 Let them come up
43 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears (3:10)
44 Let the weak say, I am strong
45 Assemble yourselves and come, all you heathen (3:11)
46 Gather yourselves together round about 47 Cause your mighty ones to come 48 Let the heathen be wakened, and come to the valley of Jehoshaphat (3:12)
49 Put you in the sickle (3:13)
50 Come, get you down

FOR, behold, [c]in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring [b]again the captivity of [c]Jū'dah and [d]Jē-rū'sā-lĕm,

2 Mobilization of the nations (Zech. 14:1-3; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:19)

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jē-hŏsh'a-phăt, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Īs'ra-el, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 Reasons for judgment on the nations

3 And [e]they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 [f]Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zi'dŏn, and all the [g]coasts of Păl'es-tine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 The children also of Jū'dah and the children of Jē-rū'sā-lĕm have ye sold unto [h]the Grē'çians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Jū'dah, and they shall sell them to the Sā-bē'ans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

4 Tenfold proclamation for mobilization and war

●9 ¶ [i]Proclaim ye this among the Gĕn'tiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

●10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

●11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jē-hŏsh'a-phăt: for [a]there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

5 Tenfold destruction of the armies of Antichrist (Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14; Rev. 14:14-20; 19:11-21; Isa. 34)

●13 [b]Put ye in the [c]sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 [c]The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The [c]LORD also shall roar out of Zi'ŏn, and utter his voice from Jē-rū'sā-lĕm; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Īs'ra-el.

V Future restoration of Israel after the Battle of Armageddon. 1 Lord reigning in Zion

●17 [f]So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zi'ŏn, my holy mountain: then shall Jē-rū'sā-lĕm be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.◂

2 Material blessings of Israel

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Jū'dah shall flow with waters, and [d]a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shĭt'tim.

3 Israel avenged on her enemies

19 Ē'gўpt shall be a desolation, and Ē'dom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Jū'dah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

4 Judah an eternal people

20 But [b]Jū'dah shall dwell for ever, and Jē-rū'sā-lĕm from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for [f]the LORD dwelleth in Zi'ŏn.

a This not only refers to Armageddon, but to the judgment of the nations (v 12; Mt. 25:31-46)
b In these verses (13-16) we have a reference to the battle of Armageddon and the destruction of the many armies of the nations of the Antichrist, by the Lord, in fulfillment of Isa. 63:1-5; Ezek. 38:39; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21
c See Rev. 14:14-20; 19:15
d This will be a literal happening at the 2nd advent of Christ (v 15; 2:30-32; Mt. 24:29-31)
e God will personally lead His armies of heaven against those of the Antichrist (v 16; 2:11; Isa. 63:1-5; Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21)
f 5th and last section of the prophecy of Joel (3:17-21, unfulfilled; will be fulfilled at the 2nd advent of Christ and the day of the Lord, which lasts throughout the Millennium)

12 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 You will know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain (3:17; Ezek. 48:30-35)
2 Then (when the Lord personally and visibly dwells in Zion among men) Jerusalem will be holy (3:17; Zech. 14:16-21)
3 There shall no strangers pass through her anymore (3:17)
4 In that day the mountains will drop down new wine (3:18)
5 The hills will flow with milk
6 All the rivers of Judah will flow with waters
7 A fountain will come forth of the house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shittim (3:18; Ezek. 47:1-12; Zech. 14:8)
8 Egypt will be a desolation (3:19)
9 Edom will be a desolate wilderness
10 Judah will dwell forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation (3:20) 11 I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed (3:21)
12 The Lord will dwell in Zion

g This refers to the source of the great river of Ezek. 47:1-12
h Judah will include all the children of Israel from all the tribes in that day, for all will be there (v 20; Ezek. 37; 48:1-29); and Jerusalem will be their eternal city (Ezek. 48:30-35)
i The prophecy ends, like that of Ezekiel, with the fact of God living visibly on earth with men. Cp. Ezek. 48:30-35

50 commands in Joel (1:3):

1 Hear this, you old men (1:2)
2 Give ear, all you inhabitants
3 Tell your children (1:3)
4 Let your children tell their children
5 Awake, you drunkards (1:5)
6 Weep and howl, you drinkers of wine
7 Lament like a virgin in sackcloth for the husband of her youth (1:8)
8 Be ashamed, you husbandmen (1:11)
9 Howl, you vinedressers
10 Gird yourselves and lament, you priests (1:12)
11 Howl, you ministers of the altar
12 Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of God (1:13)
13 Sanctify you a fast (1:14)
14 Call a solemn assembly
15 Gather the elders and all inhabitants to the house of the Lord
16 Cry unto the Lord
17 Blow you the trumpet in Zion (2:1)
18 Sound an alarm in My holy mountain
19 Let the inhabitants of the land tremble
20 Turn you to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning (2:12)
21 Rend your heart, and not your garments (2:13)
22 Turn unto the Lord your God
23 Blow the trumpet in Zion (2:15)
24 Sanctify a fast
25 Call a solemn assembly
26 Gather the people (2:16)
27 Sanctify the congregation
28 Assemble the elders
29 Gather the children and babies
30 Let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet
31 Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar (2:17)
32 Let them say, Spare Your people, O Lord, and give not Your inheritance to reproach

Summary of Joel

Date and place: written in Palestine about 795-755 B.C.
Author: Joel the prophet (1:1). See 2:28-32 with Acts 2:11-21
Theme: the immediate and latter-day destruction of Israel by Babylon, and the future Antichrist; the battle of Armageddon; and the restoration of Israel in the day of the Lord. Joel, Isaiah, Ezekiel, and Zechariah all speak of the future outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon all flesh (2:28-32; Isa. 32:15; 44:3; Ezek. 36:26-27; 37:14; 39:29; Zech. 12:10-13:1)
Purpose: to make clear the sufferings of Israel because of her backslidings; to assure her of God's blessings when she comes to repentance and obedience to His will; and to state again the blessings of future and eternal restoration under the Messiah. See headings of the text Statistics: 29th book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 73 verses; 2,034 words; 7 questions; 50 commands; 10 promises; 69 verses of prophecy; 11 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 59 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and only 1 distinct message from God (1:2-3:21)

a Note the contrast in comparing the introduction of this book with Hos. 1:1 and Joel 1:1 where it says: the word of the Lord, whereas, here it says: the words of Amos. This does not mean that he spoke of himself, for in v 3 it says: Thus saith the Lord. The words of Amos then were the words of the Lord. Cp. 3:1; 7:16

b Shepherds. Of all the writing prophets Amos is the only one mentioned as having a secular background. He was a shepherd and a gatherer of sycomore fruit (1:1; 7:14). Jeremiah and Ezekiel were priests (Jer. 1:1; Ezek. 1:3)

c Saw, implying by visions (v 1)

d Amos prophesied concerning the 10 tribes or Ephraim, called Israel here (v 1)

e His ministry covered part of the reigns of Uzziah of Judah and Jeroboam of the 10 tribes (v 1)

f Before a well-known earthquake of that day (v 1; Zech. 14:5) g 1st prophecy of Amos (1:2-2:16. 1:2 unfulfilled; 1:3-2:16 fulfilled). Next, 3:1

32 predictions-fulfilled:
1 I will punish Damascus (1:3)
2 I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad (1:4)
3 I will break also the bar of Damascus (1:5)
4 I will cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven
5 I will cut off the one that holds the sceptre from the house of Eden
6 The people of Syria will go into captivity unto Kir
7 I will punish Gaza (1:6)
8 I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which will devour the palaces (1:7)
9 I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod (1:8)
10 I will cut off the one who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon
11 I will turn My hand against Ekron
12 The remnant of the Philistines will perish
13 I will punish Tyrus (1:9)
14 I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which will devour the palaces thereof (1:10)
15 I will punish Edom (1:11)
16 I will send a fire upon Teman, which will devour the palaces of Bozrah (1:12)
17 I will punish Ammon (1:13)
18 I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour the palaces thereof (1:14)
19 The king of Ammon will also go into captivity, he and his princes together (1:15)
20 I will punish Moab (2:1)
21 I will send a fire upon Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kirioth (2:2)
22 Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet
23 I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof (2:3)
24 I will slay all the princes thereof with him
25 I will punish Judah (2:4)
26 I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem
27 I will punish Israel (2:6)
28 The flight will perish from the swift, and strength from the strong (2:14)
29 The mighty will not deliver himself
30 Neither will he stand that handles the bow (2:15)
31 He that is swift of foot will not deliver himself; neither will the horseman deliver himself
32 He that is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked in that day (2:16)

4 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 The Lord will roar from Zion (1:2)
2 He will utter His voice from Jerusalem mourn
3 The habitations of shepherds will 4 The top of Carmel will wither

h Reasons for judgment on nations:
1 Syria: Because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments (1:3)
2 Philistia: because they carried away captives to deliver them to Edom (1:6)

I Prophecies against six Gentile powers (1:1-2:3. Cp. Isa. 13-23; Jer. 45-51; Ezek. 25-32; Zeph. 2). 1 Title, author, and historical background (2 Ki. 14:23-15:7; 2 Chr. 26)

THE [c]words of Á'mos, who was among the [a]herdmen of Tĕ-kō'á, which he [c]saw [d]concerning Ĭs'ra-el [e]in the days of Ŭz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ăsh king of Ĭs'ra-el, [f]two years before the earthquake.

2 Announcement of judgment

[g]2 [b]And he said, The LORD will roar from Zī'ŏn, and utter his voice from Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Cär'mel shall wither.

3 Against Damascus (Isa. 17:1)

[g]3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Dă-măs'cus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; [b]because they have threshed Gĭl'e-ăd with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of [h]Hăz'a-el, which shall devour the [i]palaces of Bĕn-hă'dăd.

5 I will break also the bar of Dă-măs'cus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Á'ven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the [k]house of Ĕ'dĕn: and the people of Sȳr'ĭ-á shall go into captivity unto Kĭr, saith the LORD.

4 Against Philistia (Isa. 14:28)

[g]6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gā'zá, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Ĕ'dom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gā'zá, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ăsh'dŏd, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ăsh'ke-lŏn, and I will turn mine hand against Ĕk'rŏn: and the remnant of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

5 Against Tyre (Ezek. 26:1, refs.)

[g]9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tȳ'rus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Ĕ'dom, and remembered not the [l]brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tȳ'rus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

6 Against Edom (Jer. 49:7, refs.)

[g]11 Thus said the LORD; For three transgressions of Ĕ'dom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did [c]pursue [b]his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire [c]upon Tĕ'man, which shall devour the palaces of Bŏz'rah.

7 Against Ammon (Jer. 49:1, refs.)

[g]13 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ăm'mŏn, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [d]ripped up the women with child of Gĭl'e-ăd, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of [e]Răb'bah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

881 CHAPTER 2

8 Against Moab (Isa. 15:1, refs.)

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Mō'ab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he [f]burned the bones of the king of Ĕ'dom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Mō'ab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kĭr'ĭ-ŏth: and Mō'ab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the [g]judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

II Prophecies against Judah and Israel (2:4-16). 1 Against Judah by Babylon (Isa. 13-14)

[g]4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Jū'dah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked.

5 But I will send a fire upon Jū'dah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm.

2 Against Israel by Assyria (2 Ki. 17)

[g]6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Ĭs'ra-el, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor [f]for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his

f The deed committed is not recorded elsewhere - mentioned only here (v 1). It shows the awful hatred that existed in the heart of the king of Moab against the king of Edom. This was perhaps occasioned by the war of 2 Ki. 3:26-27. The time of victory over Edom and the putting of the bones of the king in lime had to be after this and before the prophecy of Amos

12 Gave Nazarites wine to drink (v 12)
13 Forbade the prophets to prophesy
14 Provoked God to anger (v 13)
i This perhaps refers to taking the property of the poor who were forced to give their shoes to the oppressor in the gate of the city as a sign of possession-that they were giving their property over to him (v 6). It was the custom in Israel that when one sold his property to another he would take off his shoes and give them to the new owner to signify giving up all rights to the land he had walked upon, as the owner. See note o, Ps. 60:8 father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge[a] by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 ¶[b]Yet destroyed I the Ăm'-ôr-ite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Ē'gўpt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Ăm'ôr-ite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Năz'a-rītes. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Iş'ra-el? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Năz'a-rites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

882 CHAPTER 3

III Controversy: God and "the whole house of Israel" (3:1-4:13). 1 Call to hear and answer

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Iş'ra-el, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Ē'gўpt, saying,●■

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

2 Call to see Israel's sins

●9 ¶[c]Publish in the palaces at Ăsh'dŏd, and in the palaces in the land of Ē'gўpt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Sā-mā'rī-ā, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

3 Captivity to Assyria

■11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

■12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Iş'ra-el be taken out that dwell in Sā-mā'rī-ā in the corner of a bed, and in Dā-măs'cus in a couch.

■13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'cob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Iş'ra-el upon him, I will also visit the altars of Bĕth'-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

883 CHAPTER 4

4 Sins and judgment of Israel

HEAR this word, ye kine of Bā'shăn, that are in the mountain of Sā-mā'rī-ā, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.●■

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

5 Israel's hypocrisy at Bethel

●4 ¶Come to Bĕth'-el, and transgress; at Gĭl'găl multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Iş'ra-el saith the Lord GOD.

6 God's five judgments have not broken Israel, but hardened her

6 ¶And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the a The sin here was breaking the law on pledges, which said the pledged garments should be returned to their owners by sundown so that they would have covering for the night (Ex. 22:26; Dt. 24:13-17). Furthermore, the law specified one altar and one place of sacrifices, and this was broken many times by multiplied altars for many gods (v 8)

b 3 former blessings cited to magnify the crime of their continued rebellion:
1 I destroyed the Amorite (giants) whose height was like cedars, and whose strength was like the oaks (v 9; Josh. 17:15-18)
2 I also brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you 40 years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorites (v 10; Ex. 12-19; Dt. 29:4)
3 I raised up your sons for prophets, and your young men for Nazarites (v 11)

c Question 1. Next, 3:3

d God bore them and the weight of their sins and rebellions for many centuries. They were now becoming such a load that He could not bear them much longer; so He determined to be relieved by letting the nations destroy them and disperse them in order to break their rebellious spirit if at all possible

e 2nd prophecy in Amos (3:1-15, fulfilled). Next, 4:1
10 predictions-fulfilled:
1 I will punish you for all your iniquities (3:2)
2 Publish in the palaces of Ashdod, and in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the tumults and the oppressed in the midst thereof (3:9)
3 An adversary will be round about the land (3:11) from you
4 He will bring down the strength
5 Your palaces will be spoiled
6 As the shepherd takes out of the mouth of a lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch (3:12)
7 In the day that I will visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Bethel (3:14)
8 The horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground
9 I will smite the winter house with the summer house (3:15)
10 The houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end

f Against you-the children of Israel, the whole family (all the tribes) which I brought out of Egypt. This shows that God deals with all Israel in His various prophecies concerning the nation. We are not to divide the children of Israel into two sections, supposing that one will fulfil certain parts of the plan of God and the other will fulfil certain other parts, God's plan for Israel in the future is for all the tribes, the whole house of Israel, and not for Judah only or for Ephraim only. The whole 13 tribes are the ones He made contracts with, gave promises to, and made predictions to concerning the Messiah coming into the world through them. In view of this special calling, God had a right to punish them and otherwise deal with them on a different basis from the way He dealt with any other nation on earth (v 2)

g Questions 2-10. Next, 5:18

h Cp. 2 Cor. 6:14-18

10 sins of Israel (8:4):
1 Swallowing up the needy (v 4)
2 Causing the poor to fail
3 So covetous and greedy as to begrudge the keeping of religious holy days of the new moons (v 5)
4 Longing for the weekly and other sabbaths to be over in order to sin (v 5-6) smaller
5 Cheating by making the ephah
6 Cheating by making the shekel heavier
7 Falsifying the balances by deceit
8 Taking advantage of the poor (v 6)
9 Taking over property of the poor by accepting their shoes as a sign of possession 10 Selling bad wheat for good wheat

a 28 commands in Amos:
1 Hear this word the Lord has spoken (3:1)
2 Publish in the palaces of Ashdod, and in the palaces of Egypt (3:9)
3 Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria
4 See the great tumults, and the oppressed in the midst thereof
5 Hear you, and testify in the house of Jacob (3:13)
6 Hear this word, you kine of Bashan, which oppress the poor (4:1)
7 Come to Bethel, and transgress (4:4)
8 Multiply transgression at Gilgal
9 Bring your sacrifices every morning
10 Bring your tithes after 3 years
11 Prepare to meet your God (4:12)
12 Hear you this word which I take up against you (5:1)
13 Seek not Bethel (5:5)
14 Do not enter Gilgal
15 Pass not to Beer-sheba
16 Seek the Lord and you will live (5:6)
17 Seek Him that makes the 7 stars and Orion (5:8)
18 Seek good, and not evil (5:14)
19 Hate the evil (5:15)
20 Love the good
21 Establish judgment in the gate
22 Take away from Me the noise of songs (5:23) (5:24)
23 Let judgment run down as waters
24 Let righteousness run down as a mighty stream
25 Pass unto Calneh and see (6:2)
26 From there go to Hamath the great 27 Then go down to Gath
28 Hear this, you that swallow up the needy (8:4) b This expresses the fact that a very small remnant of Israel and Syria would be saved in the destruction of the northern kingdom of Samaria (v 12) c 4 great judgments upon Israel:

1 The idol altars at Bethel will be destroyed (v 14)
2 The winter and summer houses will be destroyed (v 15)
3 The houses of ivory will perish
4 The great houses will come to an end

d 3rd prophecy in Amos (4:1-13, fulfilled). Next, 5:1
4 predictions-fulfilled:
1 The days will come upon you, that He will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks (4:2)
2 You will go out at the breaches in the wall, every woman through the breach that is before her (4:3)
3 You will be cast into the palace (fortress)
4 You will have to meet your God, O Israel (4:12)

e Here Israel is referred to as cows of Bashan on the mountains of Samaria (v 1). Hence, in v 3 the translators used the word cow of the people escaping through the breaches in the wall of Samaria, made by the enemy

f 3 sins of Israel:
1 They oppress the poor (v 1)
2 Crush the needy
3 Drunkenness

g The days will come upon you, that you will go into captivity, led away with fishhooks (v 2). Certain pagan nations led their captives by fishhooks or iron rings in their lips; others led their prisoners by a hook in the nose (v 2; Isa. 37:29)

h These breaches were to be made in the city walls by the enemy, and through these the people were to go out, single file, like cows (v 3)

i Here we have divine irony, the Lord speaking as if He meant for them to continue in wickedness, filling up the cup of their iniquity before the judgment fell because of their sins (v 4-5. Cp. Mt. 23:32)

j See 5 judgments that did not break Israel-judgments that only hardened her (note a, v 7)

10 things God compared to (Hos. 5:12):
1 A moth (5:12)
2 Rottenness, or a worm (5:12)
3 An old lion (5:14; 11:10)
4 A young lion (5:14)
5 The rain (6:3)
6 The latter and former rain (6:3)
7 A ploughman (11:4)
8 A leopard (13:7)
9 A bear bereaved of her whelps (13:8)
10 The dew (14:5)

a 6 judgments that did not break Israel:
1 I have sent famine and you have not returned to Me (v 6)
2 I have withheld rain from you, when there were three months to the harvest. I caused it to rain upon one city, and not upon another; one piece was rained upon and not another. Several cities wandered into one city to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet you have not returned to Me (v 7-8)
3 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew; when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees were increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet you have not returned to Me (v 9)
4 I have sent pestilence among you after the manner of Egypt; your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps come up unto your nostrils: yet you have not returned unto Me (v 10)
5 I have overthrown some of you, as I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet you have not returned to Me (v 11)

b From the fact that all these judgments did not cause Israel to turn back to Him, God concluded that there was only one thing to do immediately - destroy them as a nation and scatter them among the Gentiles. In view of this He commanded them to prepare to meet their God (v 12) c 8 things to "prepare":

1 Yourselves to meet God (v 12)
2 A way for yourselves (Dt. 19:3) 16)
3 Your hearts (1 Sam. 7:3; 1 Chr. 29:
4 Themselves without fault (Ps. 59:4)
5 Mercy and truth (Ps. 61:7)
6 Work (Pr. 24:27) 3:3)
7 The way of the Lord (Isa. 40:3; Mt.
8 The ways of the people (Isa. 62:10)

7 predictions-fulfilled:
1 The virgin of Israel is fallen (5:2)
2 She will rise no more
3 She is forsaken upon her land with none to raise her up
4 The city that went out by a thousand will leave an hundred (5:3)
5 The city that went forth by an hundred will leave ten
6 Gilgal will go into captivity (5:5) 7 Bethel will come to nought

k The message of Amos was still against the northern kingdom, predicting her fall and destruction (v 1-3)

l Israel is here pictured as a virgin who has fallen so low that she will never rise again

m This verse predicted that only ten per cent of Israel would be left in the land after the greater number were destroyed or taken into captivity n 3 fold admonition to seek God:

1 Seek you Me, and you will live (v 4). It will not pay you to seek the gods of Bethel, Gilgal, or Beersheba; for they will all go into captivity (v 5). I will always be alive and present; no one will ever take Me into captivity, so it would be wise of you to seek Me. This is the only way that you will live
2 Seek the Lord, and you will live (v 6). If you do not, then you will receive the judgment that is soon to come upon all the other gods in whom you trust. Then you will have no god (v 6-7) 3 Seek Him that:
(1) Makes the seven stars and Orion (v 8)
(2) Turns the shadow of death into morning
(3) Makes the day dark with night
(4) Calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them upon the face of the earth
(5) Strengthens the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled

7 And[a] also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of E'gypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sŏd'-om and Gō-mŏr'rah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 Meeting with God inevitable

●12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Is'ra-el: and because[b] I will do this unto thee, [c]prepare to meet thy God, O Is'ra-el.

13 For, lo, [d]he that formeth the mountains, and [e]createth the wind, and [f]declareth unto man what is his thought, that [g]maketh the morning darkness, [h]and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, [i]is his name.

IV Lamentations, judgments, and admonitions (5:1-6:4). 1 Lamentation: Israel's destruction to be 90 per cent

HEAR ye this word which I take up [j]against you, even a lamentation, O house of Is'ra-el. ●■

2 The [k]virgin of Is'ra-el is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; [l]The city that went out by a thousand shall leave [m]an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Is'ra-el.

2 Threefold admonition to avert judgment

■4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Is'ra-el, [n]Seek ye me, and ye shall live:

●5 But seek not [o]Beth'-el, nor enter into Gil'gal, and pass not to Be'er-she'ba: for Gil'gal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth'-el shall come to nought.

●6 Seek the LORD, [a]and ye shall live; [b]lest he break out like fire in the [c]house of Jō'seph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth'-el. ◂

7 Ye who [d]turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

●8 Seek him that maketh [e]the seven stars and Ō-rī'ŏn, and turneth [f]the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: [g]that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 [h]That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

3 Tenfold sins and judgment

10 [i]They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

★11 [k]Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

4 Fourfold admonition to avert coming judgment

●14 [l]Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

●15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: [m]it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Jō'seph.

5 Fivefold lamentation: reason

■16 [n]Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

6 Woe to those who desire the day of the Lord: reason

18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! [o]to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no

a The second time in this chapter that men are promised life if they will seek Jehovah, who is referred to as the Great God, the Creator, the Omniscient One, the Master of All (v 6, 8; 4:13)

b In other words: If you do not seek Me, then I will break forth like fire and devour the house of Joseph (the 10-tribe kingdom) and there will be none to quench it in Bethel (v 6)

c This term the house of Joseph confirms it beyond doubt that the prophet was speaking of the 10-tribe kingdom of Samaria, and not of Judah in Jerusalem (v 6. Cp. v 15)

d 2 things people of this class do (v 7):
1 Turn judgment to wormwood. This means they do not appreciate the sweetness of justice; and through stubbornness they choose the gall and wormwood of judgment rather than give up sin. Cp. Dt. 29:18-20
2 Leave off righteousness in the earth. They work against truth and righteousness, and encourage evil (Dan. 8:12; Rom. 1:18)

e The name of the 7 stars-Pleiades (Job 9:9)

f See notes on Job 9:9; 38:21

g Heb. tsalmaveth, the shade of death; the nearness of death; death coming over one. The expression shadow of death is found 18 times in Scripture (Job 3:5; 10:21-22; 12:22; 16:16; 24:17; 28:3; 34:22; 38:17; Ps. 23:4; 44:19; 107:10, 14; Isa. 9:2; Jer. 2:6; 13:16; Mt. 4:16; Lk. 1:79)

h 9:6; Job 38:34; Isa. 48:13

i That makes destruction come upon the strong, so that the fortress will be taken (v 9)

j 8 sins of Israel:
1 Hatred of reprovers of wrong (v 10)
2 Abhor the righteous
3 Oppression of the poor (v 11)
4 Rob the poor-take advantage of others who are more needy farms
5 Live in pride over fine houses and 6 Afflict the just (v 12)
7 Take bribes
8 Turn aside the poor in the gate, that is, pervert justice to the poor. Cp. v 15 k 5th prophecy in Amos (5:11-13, fulfilled). Next, v 16

3 predictions-fulfilled:
1 You have built houses of hewn stone, but you will not live in them (5:11)
2 You have planted pleasant vineyards, but you will not drink of the wine from them
3 The prudent will keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time (5:13)

l 4 commands-the secret of life:
1 Seek good, and not evil, that you may live; and God shall be with you (v 14)
2 Hate the evil (v 15)
3 Love the good
4 Establish judgment in the gate

m It may be. This calls attention to the uncertainty on Israel's part to do good, hate evil, love the good, and establish judgment-not to any uncertainty on Jehovah's part to bless them should they comply with the conditions of blessing (v 15. Cp. Ex. 32:30; 2 Ki. 19:4; Joel 2:14)

n 6th prophecy in Amos (5:16-20, unfulfilled). Next, v 27

1 I hate 4 I will not accept
2 I despise 5 I will not regard
3 I smell 6 I will not hear

1 The feast days (v 21)
2 Solemn assemblies
3 Burnt offerings (v 22)
4 Meat offerings
5 Peace offerings of fat beasts
6 Noise of songs (v 23)
7 Melody of the viols

c God always puts emphasis on just judgment and righteousness. Here the command is to let them run down as waters of a mighty stream or waterfall (v 24). Men need a flood of these blessings to do away with injustice and unrighteousness in the earth

d An inexhaustible flow of water

e Question 14. Next, 6:2

f The answer to this question is No. See Dt. 32:17; Josh. 5:5-7; Jer. 7:22-23; Ezek. 20:8, 16, 24

g God did not question here the fact that they did offer sacrifices in the wilderness; His objection was that the sacrifices were not always to Him. The unto Me is emphatic. If God is not served alone and with the whole heart, He is not served at all. He regards no offering, but the offerer himself. Moses said that Israel sacrificed to devils and not to God during part of this time (Dt. 32:17). Ezekiel declared that they went after their idols (Ezek. 20:16)

h Here God accused Israel of bearing the tabernacle of their Moloch and the images of Chiun, which they made themselves, and for which they would go into captivity to Assyria beyond Damascus (v 26-27)

i Heb. sikkuth, booth. This was perhaps a small portable shrine, such as those made by Demetrius in the days of Paul (Acts 19:24). The images were also perhaps small ones that could be carried around as charms

j See notes i and j, Acts 7:43; and Facts about false gods, p. 116 k The worship of these idols was evidently some form of star-worship, as suggested by the words the star of your god (v 26). Moses made no mention of this special worship of Israel in his writings, so we have to depend upon the reference here for our information

l 7th prophecy in Amos (5:27-6:14, fulfilled). Next, 7:1

2 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountains of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came! (6:1)
3 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive (6:7)
4 The banquet of them that stretched themselves will be removed 5 I will deliver up the city with all that is therein (6:8)
6 It will come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die (6:9)
7 A man's uncle will take him up, and he that burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and will say to him that is by the sides of the house, Is there any with you? and he will say, No. Then shall he say, Hold your tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the Lord (6:10)
8 The Lord commands, and He will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts (6:11)
9 I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel (6:14)

21 ¶I hate, I despise [b]your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

●23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

●24 [c]But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a[d]mighty stream.

8 Idolatry and judgment

25 [e]Have [f]ye offered [g]unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Iṣ'ra-el?

26 [h]But ye have borne [i]the tabernacle of your [j]Mō'lŏch and Chī'un your images, [k]the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

WOE to them that are at ease [a]in Zi'ŏn, and trust in the mountain of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Iṣ'ra-el came!

●2 Pass ye unto [c]Cāl'neh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hā'math the great: then go down to Gāth of the Phī-lĭs'tines: [b]be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 [d]Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon [e]beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and [f]invent to themselves instruments of musick like Dā'vid;

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction [g]of Jō'ṣeph.

10 Captivity to Assyria

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the [h]first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, [i]I abhor the excellency of Jā'cob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there [j]remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, [k]and he that burneth him, to bring out the [l]bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, [m]Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: [b]for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶[c]Shall horses [4]run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Iṣ'ra-el, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in [c]of Hē'math unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7 886

V Signs - prophecies (7:1-9:15). 1 Grasshoppers: destruction

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, [a]he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.■

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: [b]by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

■3 The LORD [c]repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

2 Fire: destruction

■4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

■6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

3 Plumbline: no more mercy

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

■8 And the LORD said unto me, Ā'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Iṣ'ra-el: I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And the [d]high places of Ĭ'ṣaac shall be desolate, and the [e]sanctuaries of Iṣ'ra-el shall be laid waste; and [f]I will rise against the house of Jĕr-o-bō'am with the sword.

4 The sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste
5 I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword

g 3 visions of Amos:
1 Grasshoppers destroying the land. This was changed in answer to prayer for mercy by Amos (v 1-3)
2 Fire destroying the land. This was also changed by the prayer of Amos (v 4-6)
3 A plumbline. Amos did not pray about this (v 7-9)

h Questions 21-23. Next, 8:2

i Changed His mind (v 3, 6). God has done this many times in answer to the prayers of His people. He has also changed His mind when it became necessary in the fulfillment of His own plan; that is, when it became necessary to curse and not bless He did not hesitate to do what was needed, always working toward the ultimate goal of ridding the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28). See Repented in Index

j Referring to idolatrous altars

k The sanctuaries of Ephraim were destroyed when Samaria, Bethel, Gilgal, and other centers of idolatry were destroyed (2 Ki. 17). The temple of Solomon was destroyed when Judah was destroyed (2 Ki. 23-25)

5 Invent instruments of music like David's to soothe the guilty conscience (v 5)
6 Live in drunkenness (v 6)
7 Take pride in anointing themselves with chief ointments, but are not willing to fast and pray because of the judgments coming upon Joseph 8 Rejoice in a thing of nought - their idol (v 13; 5:26)

r The frames of the beds were inlaid and ornamented with ivory. The houses of ivory, as in 3:5, were thus decorated also, not made entirely of ivory s There was no sin in inventing instruments like those of David, but the use they were making of them was sinful. The passage makes no reference whatsoever to musical instruments or singing in the church (v 6). Music is commanded in the church (note 1, Eph. 5:19); and God, Himself allows it in heaven

t Again, Joseph is put for the 10-tribe kingdom (v 6; 5:5, 15)

u This teaches that Ephraim also went into captivity in different groups, as did Judah later (v 7; 2 Ki. 15:19-20, 27:31; 16:9-17:23)

v The reason God abhorred the very people He had loved was because of their sins and stubborn rebellions (v 8)

w Any remaining after the siege would die of pestilence, and their bodies would be burned (v 9-10) x Here and in 1 Sam. 31:12 are the only two references to the burning of corpses in Israel. Both were exceptional cases in Israel; but such was practiced by the Hittites

y Bodies that had been burned and reduced to bones (v 10) a Then-when Amos had predicted judgment upon the sanctuaries of Israel and the sword upon the house of Jeroboam (v 9), Amaziah, the priest of the idolatrous worship in Bethel, sent to tell Jeroboam of the prediction against him, accusing the prophet of conspiracy (v 10-13)

b This reveals the effect the prophecies of Amos had on Israel. The land was not able to bear his words (v 10). When a prophet is able to get his message across to any people to this extent, it often causes the same effect on men living in rebellion. Revival or riot is usually the result when God is represented by His ministers in times of apostasy and backsliding

c 9th prophecy in Amos (7:11, fulfilled). Next, v 16

2 predictions-fulfilled:

1 I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword (7:9, 11)

2 Israel will surely be led away captive out of their own land (7:11)

d Fulfilled in that a sword was raised up against his house (v 9, 11, Cp. 2 Ki. 15:10). Jeroboam did not take note of the statements of Amaziah, as far as we know

e Amaziah then dealt with Amos, telling him to flee into the land of Judah and prophesy there-not in Bethel again, for it was the king's chapel and court (v 12-13)

f Sanctuary - one of several of Israel which were to be destroyed (v 9). The sanctuary of God could never be called the sanctuary of man; and no high priest in Jerusalem would say this of the temple there

g Then-when Amos was confronted with Amaziah and commanded to go to Judah to prophesy, he answered: I was no prophet or a prophet's son; I was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycomore fruit when the Lord said, Go, prophesy unto My people Israel. He then made a direct prediction against Amaziah (v 16-17)

5 Saying, [p]When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

8 Judgment and wanderings

*■7 [q]The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Já'cob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 [r]Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and [s]it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of E'gўpt.

■9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that [t]I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And [u]I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

■11 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of [v]Să-mâ'rĭ-â, and say, Thy god, O Dăn, liveth; and, The manner of Bĕ'er-shĕ'bá liveth; even [w]they shall fall, and never rise up again.

9 Striking the lintel: complete destruction

[x]I SAW the Lord standing upon the [i]altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: [j]and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.■

2 [k]Though they dig into [l]hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Căr'mel, I will search and take them out thence: and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them; and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

4 Though they climb up into heaven, from there will I bring them down

5 Though they hide in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there (9:3)

6 Though they hide from Me in the bottom of the sea, there will I command the serpent, and he will bite them

7 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there will I command the sword and it will slay them (9:4)

8 I will set My eyes upon them for evil, and not for good

9 All that dwell in the land will mourn (9:5)

10 It (the destruction) will swell like a flood, and subside like the flood (the Nile) of Egypt

h This is one of many times God has been seen by natural man. Amos saw Him standing upon the altar (v 1); and He caused the lintel and posts to shake. Cp. Isa. 6:1-4. See 44 appearances of God, p. 63

i Perhaps this was the same altar where Jeroboam once stood (1 Ki. 13:1)

j Cut the capital of the posts-cut the pillars at the head (9:1)

k The idea in these verses (2-4) is that God is everywhere and no man can escape His presence or power when He wishes to find him and punish him. His power extends to heaven and hell, the highest mountain and the deepest sea, so He can find anyone in the uttermost parts of the earth and slay him or spare him as the case may be (v 3, 4)

l Heb. sheol, the unseen world of departed spirits; the place of the soul, not the place of the body. See Hell in Index

m Heb. ma'alah, elevation; climactic progression; degrees; going up to heaven; spheres; ascensions. It is trans. stories (v 6); stairs (2 Ki. 9:13; Neh. 3:15; 12:37; Ezek. 40:6; 43:17); steps (Ex. 20:26; 1 Ki. 10:19-20; 2 Chr. 9:18-19); degrees (2 Ki. 20:9-11; 1 Chr. 17:17; titles to Ps. 120-134; Isa. 38:8); go up (Ezra 7:9). The stories of heaven here refer to the spheres one would have to go through or the ascensions he would have to make to reach the planet heaven itself

Summary of Amos

Date and place: written in Palestine about 824-810 B.C.

Author: Amos the prophet (1:1; 7:8; 8:1-2)

Theme: God's messages of judgment upon various nations, Gentiles and Jews, because of their sins and rebellion against Him; the controversy between God and Israel; how Israel could avert judgment; and the final restoration of the nation under their Messiah

Purpose: the prophet's main purpose is to show how God deals with sin, sending judgment upon all men who sin, whether Jews or Gentiles. He is careful to explain why judgment would come upon each nation. In particular He makes it clear to Israel that, even though they are chosen and blessed as God's people, they would not escape His judgment. The prophet points out the backslidings of the nation and states in detail God's case against them. The whole house of Israel, not 10 tribes or 2 tribes only, were, at that time facing complete destruction if they did not amend their ways (2:4-9:10). Regardless of these plain warnings of immediate judgment, Israel continued in sin and rebellion until it was necessary for God to keep His word concerning the destruction of the nation. Amos finishes his book with a note of encouragement, Israel was to be completely regathered and restored; and the nation was to be blessed under the Messiah (9:11-15)

Statistics: 30th book of the Bible; 9 chapters; 146 verses; 4, 217 words; 28 commands; 31 questions; 2 promises; 117 predictions; 121 verses of prophecy; 8 unfulfilled verses of prophecy; 113 verses of fulfilled prophecy; and 35 distinct messages from God (1:2, 3, 6, 9, 11, 13; 2:1, 4, 6; 3:1, 11, 12, 13; 4:1; 5:1, 4, 16; 6:1; 7:1, 3, 4, 6, 8, 15, 17; 8:2, 4, 7, 9, 11; 9:1, 7, 13, 15)

manded to buy her back as his wife again, and to make a contract that she would never again go after former lovers. The experience was used to teach Israel that she must now return to God, after forsaking His covenant and going after other gods; and He would marry her again and enter into an eternal covenant relationship with her. The theme of Hosea could be summed up by two words, Lo-ammi, meaning "not My people," and Ammi, meaning "My people" (1:9; 2:1). The message in 2:14-23 concerns the restoration of Israel to God after the many days of 3:4-5, at which time they will be His eternal people. The message in 6:1-3 concerns the return of Israel to God by repentance, and that in 13:14; 14:3-9, God redeeming them eternally

Purpose: to record and predict Israel's backslidings from God for many days, during which time they were to be scattered among the nations, and be without a king, prince, sacrifice, image, ephod, and teraphim (1:9; 3:4-5); to reveal the final and eternal restoration of Israel; and to assure them of God's forgiveness and eternal blessing (6:1-3; 14:3-9)

Statistics: 28th book of the Bible; 14 chapters; 197 verses; 5, 175 words; 16 questions; 26 commands; 10 promises; 298 predictions; 152 verses of prophecy; 17 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 134 verses of fulfilled prophecy; and 10 distinct messages from God (1:2, 4, 6, 9; 2:1; 3:1; 4:1; 5:1; 13:9)

Summary of Habakkuk

Date and place: written in Palestine about 679-648 B.C.

Author: Habakkuk the prophet (1:1)

Proof of authorship: we have the testimony of the book itself that it was written by Habakkuk (1:1; 3:1)

Theme: the vindication of the holiness and justice of God. Habakkuk alone, of all the prophets, seemed more concerned about the character of God being vindicated than about Israel escaping punishment. The whole prophecy is a conversation between the prophet and God, opening with an appeal to Him to end injustice in the earth. God answers declaring that a terrible day of retribution is coming upon Judah from Babylon (1:1-11). Habakkuk makes another appeal to God (1:12-17), which is answered in the 2nd chapter; it concerns more judgments to come. Chapter 3 is the prophet's prayer for Israel to be revived

Purpose: to answer the prophet's questions and make it clear that unless Judah would conform to God's will they could only expect punishment and destruction as a nation

Statistics: 35th book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 56 verses; 1, 476 words; 12 questions; 1 command; no promises; 20 predictions; 11 verses of prophecy; 12 distinct messages from God (1:5; 2:2) b 3 great works of God (v 6):

1 Built spheres of heaven
2 Founded His troop in the earth
3 Calls for the waters of the sea and pours them back upon the earth

c Questions 29-31. Last ones in Amos d You are just like the Ethiopians or any other people who are not under My covenant. You do not need to pride yourself as being past judgment merely because you are the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, for I will judge you as quickly for sin as I would anyone else (v 7)

e The island of Crete

f Supposed to be lower Mesopotamia

g 14th and last prophecy in Amos (9:8-15. V 8 is fulfilled; v 9-15 unfulfilled)
2 predictions-fulfilled:
1 I will destroy the sinful kingdom of Israel from off the face of the earth (9:8)
2 I will leave a remnant and not utterly destroy the house of Jacob
21 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 I will command and sift the house of Israel among all nations, like corn (wheat) being sifted in a sieve (9:9)
2 No worthy one will fall to the earth
3 All the sinners of My people who feel secure and say that judgment will not come upon them will die by the sword (9:10)
4 In that day when Israel will be sifted, I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen (9:11)
5 I will close up the breaches made in it
6 I will raise up the ruins
7 I will build it as in the days of old
8 They will possess the remnant of Edom, and all the heathen (9:12)
9 The days come that the plowman will overtake the reaper (9:13)
10 The treader of grapes will overtake the sower of seed
11 The mountains will drop sweet wine
12 All the hills will melt
13 I will bring again the captivity of My people Israel (9:14)
14 They will build the waste cities
15 They will inhabit them
16 They will plant vineyards
17 They will drink the wine of it 18 They will make gardens
19 They will eat the fruit of them
20 They will plant them upon their land
21 They will no more be pulled out of their land which I have given them (9:15)

h This could be none other than the 10-tribe kingdom of Israel (v 8). Here God promised to destroy it from the face of the earth. Only a remant from all the tribes was to be left so that the house of Jacob would not be utterly destroyed (v 8)

i The house of Israel was to be sifted like wheat in a sieve, yet no one worth saving would fall to the earth. All the sinners who felt secure in sin and said that evil could not overtake them would die by the sword (v 10)

j Prevent or precede

55 sins of Israel in Hosea (Hos. 4:2):
1 Whoredom, including all forms of sex perversion before idols (1:2; 2:2-4; 4:10-18; 5:3-4; 6:10)
2 Adultery (2:2; 3:1; 4:2; 7:4)
3 Unfaithfulness (2:3, 13; 6:7; 8:11)
4 Willful ignorance (2:8; 4:1; 5:4; 6:6; 11:3)
5 Idolatry (2:8-13; 4:12-17; 5:11; 6:8; 8:4-11; 9:1; 10:1-9; 11:2; 13:1-2) 9:4) 6 Hypocrisy (2:11; 4:8; 6:6; 8:13-14;
7 Forgetting God (2:13; 8:14; 13:6)
8 Lustfulness (2:5; 9:1)
9 Unthankfulness (2:8; 11:3-4)
10 Swearing (4:2)
11 Lying (4:2; 7:1, 3, 13; 10:13; 11:12)
12 Murder (4:2; 6:9)
13 Stealing (4:2)
14 Forgetting God's law (4:6)
15 Rebellion (4:6; 7:13; 8:3; 13:16)
16 Backsliding and apostasy (4:7-8, 16; 5:2; 7:10; 9:1, 15; 11:7)
17 Unmerciful (4:1; 6:6)
18 Eating the sin offering (4:8)
19 Setting the heart on sin (4:8)

a In that day-the Millennium, when the Messiah comes to restore the kingdom and throne of David, and to reign over the house of Jacob forever (v 11; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10). The expression in that day is particularly used in Isaiah, where it is found 50 times as compared to only 5 in the book of Amos (2:16; 8:3, 9, 13; 9:11)

b This passage is quoted in Acts 15:14-18 where it is clear that it was to be fulfilled after the church age. It reads, "Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for His name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, After this (after taking a people from the Gentiles for the church) I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up." The prophets agree that the tabernacle of David will be set up again; and in Acts 15 it is clear that it will not be until after the rapture of the church-after the taking out of the Gentiles a people for His name. It is also clear that this has never been fulfilled as yet, for Simeon made these statements about the time of the destruction of Jerusalem and the dispersion of Israel among the nations (Lk. 21:20-24). Since 70 A.D. the Jews have not had a kingdom with a king ruling in Jerusalem on the throne of David, so the reference must be to the future when Messiah will set up this kingdom and establish the throne of David again (v 11; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10) c David's tabernacle refers to his throne and kingdom, which are now fallen. They were overthrown in 616 B.C. and have been fallen down ever since; they will not be raised up again until after the church age-at the 2nd advent of Christ

d As in the days of old-when David was king. David will become the future king of Israel under the Messiah (Isa. 9:6-7; 16:5; Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 34:23-24; 37:24-25; Hos. 3:4-5)

e Cp. v 12 with Acts 15:17. Here it is stated that Israel will possess the remnant of Edom and all the heathen, while in Acts 15:17 the purpose given is, that all men might seek the Lord. Both will be literally true. Israel will possess their enemies and when David's kingdom is set up again and He and Messiah reign, men will seek the Lord in a greater way than ever before. Cp. Isa. 11:9

f These verses (13-15) go into some detail about the restoration of Israel, at the time the throne of David and his kingdom will be set up again under the Messiah

g Again-proving it is not the first time that captives of Israel have been brought from among the heathen (v 14). This refers to the 10 tribes as well as the others, so they have been gathered before as well as Judah. In fact, all the tribes were gathered after the Babylonian captivity, as seen in Ezra and Nehemiah. Cp. Isa. 11:10-12

h Here the 10 tribes, to whom Amos was a prophet, are promised their own land-the land of Palestine, and not a new promised land in another part of the world-and it will never be taken from them again

b Concerning Edom, the enemy of this prophecy, as well as that of Joel 3:19. Cp. other prophecies against Edom (Isa. 34:5-17; Jer. 49:17-22; Ezek. 25:12-14; 35:1-15) c These are the words of the ambassador among the heathen-a call to war against Edom (v 1)

d 5 facts about Edom:
1 God had made her small among the heathen (v 2)
2 She was greatly despised by others
3 She was proud in heart (v 3)
4 She thought herself secure in her rock stronghold-Sela or Petra
5 She exalted herself as an eagle (v 4)

e Question 1. Next, v 5

f 1st prophecy in Oba. (v 4, fulfilled). Next, v 7. This prediction concerns the defeat and destruction of Edom. Today Sela or Petra is a deserted place, and such it has been for many centuries. See Sela-Petra in Index

g Questions 2-3. Next, v 8

h 2nd prophecy in Oba. (v 7-10, fulfilled). Next, v 15

8 predictions-fulfilled:
1 All the men of your confederacy have brought you to the border (v 7)
2 The men that were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you
3 They that eat your bread have wounded you
4 The wise men of Edom will be destroyed (v 8) (v 9)
5 The mighty men will be dismayed
6 Every one will be cut off by slaughter
7 Shame will cover you (v 10)
8 You will be cut off forever

i Question 4. Last one in Obadiah

j In that day-the day when these things will be fulfilled (v 8)

k Edom was long known for wisdom and its wise men (Jer. 19:7). Eliphaz of Job 4:1 was an example of such human wisdom. See the record of his discourses in the book of Job. Edomites were no doubt included in the reference to "the wisdom of all the children of the east country," as a counterpart to the wisdom of Egypt (1 Ki. 4:30)

l 10 reasons for Edom's destruction:
1 Violence against Jacob his brother (v 10)
2 Was an enemy of Judah at the time of their destruction (v 11)
3 Gave assent to the judgment on Judah (v 12)
4 Rejoiced at Judah's downfall
5 Spoke proudly in the day of the distress of Judah
6 Entered fallen Jerusalem as an enemy to take a spoil (v 13)
7 Looked on the affliction of Judah in the day of calamity (disdainfully)
8 Laid hands on the substance of Judah when they were defeated
9 Stood at the crossways to kill those of Judah that would escape (v 14)
10 Delivered up captives of Judah to be destroyed

m As a kingdom the Edomites were to be destroyed forever (v 10)

7 proofs this people are supernatural (Joel 2:2):
1 There has never been any like them appearing on earth before (v 2)
2 Nor will there be any like them again for many generations-until the end of the Millennium when Satan and his angels and demons will appear on earth in an effort to take it over, at which time God will send this army of heaven against them (v 2; Isa. 24:22; Rev. 20:7-10)

I Destruction of Edom (Jer. 49:7)

THE vision of [a]Ō-ba-dī'ah.
Thus saith the Lord GOD [b]concerning Ē'dom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, [c]Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.
2 Behold, [d]I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.
3 ¶ The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, [e]Who shall bring me down to the ground?
4 [f]Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.
5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) [g]would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?
6 How are the things of Ē'sąu searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!
7 [h]All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.
8 [i]Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the [k]wise men out of Ē'dom, and understanding out of the mount of Ē'sąu?
9 And thy mighty men, O Tē'man, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Ē'sąu may be cut off by slaughter.

II Edom's unpardonable sin

10 [l]For thy violence against thy brother Jā'cob shame shall cover thee, and thou [m]shalt be cut off for ever.
11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, even thou wast as one of them.
12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Jū'dah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.
13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;
14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

III Edom in the day of the Lord

15 [n]For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.
16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

IV Extermination of Edom

17 ¶ But [o]upon mount Zī'ŏn shall be deliverance, and there shall be [p]holiness; and the house of Jā'cob shall [q]possess their possessions.
18 And the house of Jā'cob shall be a fire, and the house of Jō'şeph a flame, and the house of Ē'sąu for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there [r]shall not be any remaining of the house of Ē'sąu; for the LORD hath spoken it.

V Restoration of Israel

19 And [s]they of the south shall possess the mount of Ē'sąu; and they of the plain the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnęs: and they shall possess the fields of Ē'phrā-ĭm, and the fields of Sā-mā'rĭ-ą: and Bĕn'ja-mĭn shall possess Gĭl'e-ăd.
20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Ĭş'ra-el shall possess that of the Cā'nāan-ītes, even unto Zăr'e-phăth; and the captivity of Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, which is in Sēph'a-răd, shall possess the cities of the south.
21 [t]And saviours shall come up on mount Zī'ŏn to judge the mount of Ē'sąu; and [u]the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

a 3rd and last prophecy in Oba. (v 15-21, unfulfilled)
21 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 The day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen (v 15)
2 As you have done to Judah so will it be done to you (v 15. Cp. v 10-14)
3 Your reward will return upon your own head (v 15)
4 As you have drunk upon My holy mountain, so the heathen shall drink continually, and swallow down; and they shall be as though they had never been (v 16)
5 Upon mount Zion will be deliverance (v 17)
6 There will be holiness
7 The house of Jacob will possess their possessions
8 The house of Jacob will be a fire (v 18)
9 The house of Joseph will be a flame
10 The house of Esau will be stubble, and they will kindle in them
11 They (the house of Israel) will devour them
12 None of the house of Esau will be left alive
13 They of the south (Judah) will possess the land of Esau (v 19)
14 They of the plain of Philistia will also be possessed by them
15 They will possess the fields of Ephraim 16 They will also possess the fields of Samaria
17 Benjamin will possess Gilead
18 The captivity of the host of the children of Israel will possess the land of the Canaanites, even to Zarephath (v 20)
19 The captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the south
20 Saviours will come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau (v 21)
21 The kingdom will be the Lord's

Summary of Obadiah

Date and place: written in Palestine about 899-795 B.C.
Author: Obadiah the prophet (1:1)
Theme: a vision concerning Edom being punished in the immediate future and also in the future day of the Lord, for her sin of mistreating Israel. Edom had ever been bitter against God's people; so He predicted the destruction of that nation in this prophecy and the eternal possession of their land by Israel
Purpose: to demonstrate and predict once more the blessings and curses of the Abrahamic covenant-the promise to bless them that bless, and curse them that curse the descendants of Abraham (v 10-21 with Gen. 12:1-3)
Statistics: 31st book of the Bible; 1 chapter; 21 verses; 670 words; 1 command; 4 questions; no promise; 30 predictions; 12 verses of prophecy; 5 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 7 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and 3 distinct messages from God (v 1, 7, 15)

43 Eating unclean things (9:3)
44 Sodomy (9:9) (9:7-9)
45 Allowing themselves to be misled
46 Selfishness (10:1, 13)
47 Fruitlessness (10:1)
48 Doublemindedness (10:2)
49 Perjury (10:4)
50 Ignoring God (11:7)
51 Making unholy alliances (12:1)
52 Provoking God (12:14)
53 Covetousness (12:3) 54 Self destruction (13:9)

a The word or message of Jehovah came to Jonah, the contents of which are stated in v 2 (v 1). Cp. the same message as repeated with little variation when the prophet was finally ready to obey (2:2). This or a like expression is found 7 times in the book (1:1; 2:10; 3:1, 3; 4:4, 9, 10)

b Jonah was a historical character (v 1; 2 Ki. 14:25) - the only man so-named in the O.T., which adds to the fact that he was a type of Christ. The name is spelled Jonas in the N.T. (Mt. 12:39-41; 16:4; Lk. 11:29-32). Peter's father was named Jona or Jonas (Jn. 1:42; 21:15-17). Both Peter and Jonah (2 Ki. 14:25) came from Galilee, so the statement of the Pharisees, as in Jn. 7:52, is not true

c 8 commands in book of Jonah:
1 Arise, go to Nineveh (1:2)
2 Cry against it
3 Arise, call upon your God (1:6)
4 Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea (1:12)
5 Arise, go to Nineveh (3:2)
6 Preach unto it the preaching that I bid you
7 Let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God (3:8)
8 Let them turn every one from His evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands

d Nineveh was built by Asshur in the days following the flood of Noah (Gen. 10:11-12). It was the capital of Assyria, situated on the river Tigris, and was first called Nina, from the patron goddess of the city. Nineveh is the subject of both the books of Jonah and Nahum (1:2; 3:2-7; 4:11; Nah. 1:1; 2:8; 3:7). Zephaniah also makes predictions concerning the place (Zeph. 2:13). See 2 Ki. 19:36; Isa. 37:37; Mt. 12:41; Lk. 11:30-32

e This illustrates the mercy of God. The God of Israel warns all men of their sinful ways, seeking to turn them from destruction. Jonah knew that his God was merciful and that is why he was fleeing; he did not want Him to show mercy to the enemies of his people. He wanted them destroyed (4:2); but it would be unlike God to fail or refuse to warn man of coming destruction and give him an opportunity to avoid it (v 2; Gen. 19:20-22)

f He arose to flee from God's presence and the place where He told him to go, thinking no doubt that if he did not warn Nineveh, God would destroy the inhabitants-the enemies of his people (v 3; 4:2)

g See note, 1 Ki. 10:22

h Being in the presence of God is wonderful to one who loves Him, but a terrible thing if he is an enemy. Multitudes have longed for the presence of God, wanting to live in it all their days; but Jonah was willing to sacrifice this coveted place, and even give his life to save his people from Nineveh and the Assyrians. The fact is he did sacrifice his life trying to save them when he was thrown into the sea (v 12-15)-and right there he became a type of Christ. From the presence is found 3 times here (v 3, 10)

i Joppa, on the Mediterranean coast in north Philistia (v 3; Josh. 19:46; 2 Chr. 2:16; Ezra 3:7; Acts 9:36-42; 10:5-8, 23, 32; 11:5, 13)

j He paid the fare to get away from the presence of the Lord, but it was to cost him more than that before the journey was over. He was to pay with his life; and the cargo of the ship would be lost besides (1:5) k See 23 acts of Jonah, p. 901

l 15 acts of God:
1 Commanded Jonah to go preach to Nineveh (1:2) (1:4)
2 Sent out a great wind into the sea
3 Prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah (1:16)
4 Spoke to the fish (2:10)
5 Commanded Jonah a second time (3:2)
6 Saw their works (3:10)
7 Repented of the evil
8 Refused to destroy Nineveh
9 Questioned Jonah (4:4)
10 Prepared a gourd (4:6)
11 Made it come up in a night, over Jonah (4:8, 10)

890 CHAPTER 1

I Jonah's first commission (1:1-2)

NOW the [a]word of the LORD came unto [b]Jō'nah the son of Ă-mit'ta-ī, saying,

2 [c]Arise, go to [d]Nin'e-veh, that great city, and [c]cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

II Jonah's disobedience and judgment (1:3-17; Mt. 12:38-42). 1 Disobedience: twofold going "down" from God

3 But Jō'nah rose up [f]to flee unto [d]Tär'shish [h]from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [i]Jŏp'pā; and he found a ship going to Tär'shish: [j]so [k]he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tär'shish from the presence of the LORD.

2 The Lord's storm

4 ¶ But [l]the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

3 The mariner's prayers (Ps. 107)

5 Then the [m]mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jō'nah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

4 Jonah requested to pray

●6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, "What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

5 Casting lots: Jonah chosen

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and [n]the lot fell upon Jō'nah.

6 Jonah's confession

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And [o]he said unto them, I am an Hē'brew; and I [p]fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

7 The solution for the storm

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What [q]shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

●12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

8 Efforts to save Jonah: failure

13 Nevertheless the men rowed [r]hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

9 Jonah cast overboard: result

15 So [b]they [c]took up Jō'nah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea [d]ceased from her raging.

10 Blessing from Jonah's sin

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

11 God's prepared submarine

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to [e]swallow up Jō'nah. And Jō'nah was in the belly of the fish [f]three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2 891

III Jonah's re-consecration 1 Jonah's prayer

THEN Jō'nah prayed unto the LORD his God [g]out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; [g]out of the belly of [h]hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life [g]from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

2 Sacrifice and vows

8 They that observe lying a They not only rowed hard, but they prayed fervently hoping to save Jonah (v 13-14). It was impossible to win their battle though, because they were dealing with a stubborn backslider in the hands of God (v 4, 14-17)

b As a last resort they gave Jonah to the sea. They had done everything else they could but this; and since Jonah, himself had told them this was the only way to escape, they finally agreed to do it. Then the raging sea became a great calm (v 15) c Took up with reverence and care, as in Gen. 47:30; Ex. 28:12, 29

d 10 miracles in book of Jonah:
1 A great wind and tempest (1:4)
2 The lot falling on Jonah (1:7)
3 The great calm in the sea (1:15)
4 Jonah in the belly of the fish 3 days and 3 nights, and coming out alive (1:17)
5 The fish vomiting out Jonah
6 Jonah's resurrection from the dead (2:10; Mt. 12:40, notes)
7 A miracle of grace (3:5-10; 4:11)
8 Preparation of the gourd-making it a great vine to cover a man, in one night (4:6, 10)
9 Preparation of the worm (4:7)
10 The vehement east wind (4:8)

e Jonah was not miraculously kept alive; he died when thus swallowed up. He became a true type of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The as and so of Mt. 12:40 require the death and resurrection of Jonah in the type f The Heb. idiom three days can be used for any part of 3 days, but when the word nights is used with it the term can only mean 3 literal days and literal nights (v 17; Mt. 12:40)

g Then-when he found himself in the body of the whale and his soul in sheol (v 1)

h 16 unusual places to pray:
1 At altars of animal sacrifices (Gen. 12:7-8; 13:4) 23-33)
2 Walking in the open field (Gen. 18:
3 At a well (Gen. 24:12-14)
4 At a wrestling (Gen. 32:24-29)
5 On a talking ass (Num. 22:34)
6 In chains bound to a mill (Judg. 16:28-31) 26)
7 On an ash pile (Job 2:8, 13; 3:1-8 In the belly of a fish (2:1)
9 In hell (2:2; Lk. 16:19-31)
10 Standing in a river (Lk. 3:21-22)
11 In a wilderness (Lk. 5:15-16)
12 At a grave (Jn. 11:41-42)
13 On a cross (Lk. 23:34-46)
14 In a dungeon (Acts 27:23-35)
15 In a shipwreck (Acts 27:23-35)
16 Under an altar (Rev. 6:9-11)

i Jonah prayed from both places-the belly of the fish, and hell; for he was in both places, his soul being in hell between the time of his death and resurrection (v 1-2)

j Heb. sheol, the unseen world, the place of departed souls, not the grave where the body goes at death (v 2). See Hell in Index k This should be enough proof that Jonah was dead while in the fish's belly (v 6-7; Mt. 12:40, notes)

o The lot told them of the person, but not the case, so they appealed to Judah again (1:7-8) p He said, but he did not tell them the whole story (v 9 with 4:1-3)

q Had he truly feared Jehovah he would have obeyed Him (v 9)

r Jonah chose to die instead of being obedient to God (v 11-12) a This means that those who worship idols forsake the mercy of God by their sin. Before mercy is shown sin must be confessed and put away (v 8; Pr. 28:13; 1 Jn. 1:9)

b Jonah came back to consecration and obedience; and the Lord spoke to the fish to vomit him out (v 9-10) c Later Jonah's rapid thoughts and words while dying and coming back to life again, after 3 days and 3 nights, were written down by him, through inspiration (v 1-10) d The second time he was commissioned and sent to Nineveh (v 1; 1:2) e A city of 3 days journey, or 64 miles around (v 3-4). It was about 18 mi. long and 14 mi. wide - much larger than Babylon. It had walls about 100 ft. high and broad enough to allow 3 chariots abreast on it; and there were 1,500 towers with arable ground between them
f 1st and only prophecy in Jonah (3:4); besides this there is the prophetical type of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Mt. 12:40, notes). The prophecy here was conditional, to be fulfilled if the people did not repent. Had it been unconditional no mercy would have been shown; and perhaps God would have even overthrown the city without notice or warning. Had no mercy been intended should the people repent, then no preaching would have been necessary. Nineveh could not have believed God with no word of God to believe, for faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God (Rom. 10:17)
g This was just what Jonah feared would take place - that God would be merciful and spare the city (v 5; 4:1-3). Christ, Himself referred to the right attitude of the people of Nineveh (Mt. 12:41; Lk. 11:30-32)
h 6 things Nineveh did to obtain mercy:
1 Believed God (v 5)
2 Proclaimed a fast
3 Put on sackcloth, from the least to the greatest
4 The king laid aside his robe, covered himself, and sat in ashes (v 6)
5 A decree was made by the nobles that no man or beast should eat food or drink water, that all should be covered with sackcloth, and that everyone should cry mightily to God (v 7-8)
6 It was also decreed that all men should turn from their evil way and violence (v 8)
i Question 8. Next, 4:2
j As usual God saw the works of repentance and turning from sin on the part of the people as a whole, so He repented (changed His mind) about destroying the city. He spared it (v 10; 4:11) k It displeased Jonah exceedingly when Nineveh repented and God spared its 120,000 inhabitants (v 1). In fact, he became angry instead of appreciating the fruitful ministry the Lord had given him

23 acts of Jonah (1:3):

1 He paid the fare (1:3)
2 Went down into the ship from the presence of the Lord
3 Lay down (1:5)
4 Went to sleep
5 Made confession (1:8-9)
6 Made his choice to die instead of obeying God (1:12)
7 Prayed out of the fish's belly (2:1-9)
8 Fainted and died (2:7; Mt. 12:40, notes)
9 Remembered the Lord (2:7)
10 Renewed his consecration after being resurrected (2:7-9; Mt. 12:40, notes)
11 Arose, and went to Nineveh (3:3)
12 Began to enter the city (3:4)
13 Cried and said, Yet forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown
14 Was displeased and angry at God's mercy (4:1)
15 Prayed and begged to die (4:2)
16 Went out of the city (4:5)
17 Sat on the east side of the city
18 Made a booth
19 Sat under it in the shadow
20 Became exceedingly glad for the gourd (4:6) 21 Fainted (4:8)
22 Wished himself to die
23 Justified himself (4:9) vanities [c]forsake their own mercy.

9 [b]But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

3 Ejection of Jonah

■10 ¶ [c]And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jō'nah upon the dry land.

892 CHAPTER 3

IV Jonah's second commission. 1 Jonah's obedience

AND the word of the LORD [d]came unto Jō'nah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nin'e-veh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jō'nah arose, and went unto Nin'e-veh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'e-veh was an [e]exceeding great city of three days' journey.

★4 [f]And Jō'nah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nin'e-veh shall be overthrown.

2 Repentance of Nineveh: mercy

5 ¶ [g]So the people of Nin'e-veh believed God, [h]and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nin'e-veh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nin'e-veh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

●8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 [i]Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ [j]And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

893 CHAPTER 4

V Jonah's correction. 1 Jonah's anger

BUT [k]it displeased Jō'nah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 Jonah's complaint: answer

2 And [a]he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, [b]was not this my saying, when I was [c]yet in my country? Therefore I [d]fled before unto Tär'shish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, [e]O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

■4 ¶ Then said the LORD, [f]Doest thou well to be angry?

3 Jonah's home-made booth

5 So Jō'nah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, [g]till he might see what would become of the city.

4 God's guard: Jonah's gladness

6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jō'nah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'nah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

5 God's worm: Jonah's sorrow

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jō'nah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

6 Jonah's lesson

■9 And God said to Jō'nah, [h]Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

■10 [i]Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare Nin'e-veh, that great city, wherein are more than six-score thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

Summary of Jonah

Date and place: written in Palestine about 853-824 B.C.
Author: Jonah (1:1; 2:1; 4:1; 2 KI. 14:23-27; Mt. 12:39-41; 16:4; Lk. 11:29-30)
Theme: the book is a story of a bigoted Jew who, after being chastened of the Lord for disobedience, preached to and converted the whole city of Nineveh
Purpose: to show why the destruction of Nineveh and the Assyrian empire was delayed by God for almost a century; to illustrate the fact that God's mercy and salvation are for both Jews and Gentiles who will repent and turn to Him; and to typify and illustrate the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, as seen in notes q-s, Mt. 12:40
Statistics: 32nd book of the Bible; 4 chapters; 48 verses; 1,321 words; 8 commands; 12 questions; no promise; 1 verse of fulfilled prophecy; and 6 distinct messages from God (1:2; 2:10; 3:2; 4:4, 9, 10)

What good was his prayer? A man who is angry at the mercy and pleasure of God does not need to expect his prayers to be answered. Think of it! A man who had caused 120,000 people to become converted to God and His will became angry because his ministry was fruitful! This shows only one thing - that Jonah was deeply patriotic and put this above the souls of men and the will of God
b Question 9. Next, v 4
c This shows that he had settled it in his mind not to go to Nineveh when God called him in his own country (v 2) d 4 reasons Jonah fled toward Tarshish:
1 God is a gracious God (v 2)
2 He is merciful
3 He is slow to anger
4 He repents or changes His mind not to destroy men when they turn from sin to righteousness. Applying this to Nineveh Jonah concluded that it would not benefit Israel for the Ninevehites to repent and turn to God, for God was going to use them to punish Israel e Think of a man becoming so angry at the saving of 120,000 people from death and destruction - his own converts - and so angry at the goodness of God that he would pray to die!
f Question 10. Next, v 9
g He was still hoping that God would destroy the city and his own converts of 120,000 people. He could only wait and see what God would do. In the meantime his anger continued unabated; and the story ends with him still being angry (v 6-11). The only bright spot in Jonah's upset world was the gourd vine to give him shade (v 6). Then God sent a worm to remove it in a night so it withered (v 7). Afterward the east wind blowing vehemently and the sun beating down upon the prophet's head became a trial to him. He fainted and again wished to die (v 8). God came to him while in his fainting state and asked him again if he thought he was justified in being angry for the gourd, Jonah answered that it was well for him to be angry, even to death (v 9). Then Jehovah drove the point home to him, reasoning that if he had been merciful and pitied the gourd for which he had not labored, neither made it to grow - something which came up in one night and perished in another - that he should at least be satisfied with God having compassion and mercy on a great city, to spare the many inhabitants and their stock (v 10-11) h Questions 11-12. Last ones in Jonah
i The final end of the story is not recorded. It is not known how long he remained angry, whether he ever overcame this feeling, or how long Nineveh remained in a state of faith to God. The answer to these and other questions wait for eternity to make clear. Many good lessons are possible by a careful application of the facts of this book to our lives. We can all profit by the mistakes of Jonah and learn to be patient and merciful to our fellowmen, to do God's work without being forced to do it, and to appreciate life and all it holds without living in anger until death, as Jonah contended was well to do in his case (v 9-11)

Hosea the prophet (Hos. 1:1)

Hosea was a prophet to the 10-tribe kingdom, but he had warnings for Judah also. He prophesied in the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, king of Israel. The period must have been at least 72 years, for if he prophesied during the last 2 years of Jeroboam, there would be 38 years in the rest of the time of Uzziah's reign to be counted, besides 16 years of Jotham's reign and 16 years of Ahaz's reign (making a total of 72 years); and this would not include any time of his prophesying in the reign of Hezekiah (v 1). The book of Hosea points to the soon destruction of the 10 tribes and the fall of Samaria (predicted in 13:16), which took place in the 6th year of Hezekiah. The book is quoted in the N. T. in Mt. 2:15; 9:13; 12:7; Rom. 9:25-26; 1 Cor. 15:55; 1 Pet. 2:5, 10

God's Case against Judah and Israel - Second Advent of the Messiah - The Millennial and Eternal Kingdom

894 CHAPTER 1

I God's case against Judah and Israel (1:1-2:13). 1 Title, author, subject and historical background (2 Ki. 15-20; 2 Chr. 26-32)

1 THE [a]word of the LORD that came to [b]Mi'cah the Mo'-ras-thite in the days of Jo'tham, A'haz, and Hez-e-ki'ah, kings of Ju'dah, which he saw [d]concerning Sa-ma'ri-a and Je-ru'-sa-lem.

2 Second advent of Messiah

2 [e]Hear, all ye people; [f]hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

3 Sins of Judah and Israel

5 For the transgression of Ja'-cob is all this, and for the [g]sins of the house of Is'ra-el. [h]What is the transgression of Ja'cob? is it not Sa-ma'ri-a? and what are the high places of Ju'dah? are they not Je-ru'sa-lem?

4 Captivity of Israel to Assyria (2 Ki. 17)

6 [i]Therefore I will make Sa-ma'ri-a as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the [j]hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

5 Lamentation for Israel

8 Therefore [k]I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Ju'dah; [m]he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Je-ru'sa-lem.

10 ¶ Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aph'rah roll thyself in the dust.

11 [n]Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Sa'phir, [o]having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Za'a-nan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-e'zel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Ma'-roth waited carefully for good: but evil came down [e]from the LORD [b]unto the gate of Je-ru'sa-lem.

13 O thou inhabitant of La'-chish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: [c]she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zi'on: for the transgressions of Is'ra-el were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Mor'esh-eth-gath: the houses of Ach'zib shall be a lie to the kings of Is'ra-el.

15 Yet will I bring [d]an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Ma-re'shah: he shall come unto A-dul'lam the glory of Is'ra-el.

16 [e]Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

895 CHAPTER 2

6 Seven sins of all Israel

1 WOE to them [f]that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

7 Judgment on all Israel

3 [g]Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

8 Lamentation for Israel

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [k]cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

9 Sins and judgment on Jacob

6 [l]Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Ja'cob, [l]is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? [k]do not my words do good to him that [l]walketh uprightly?

8 [m]Even of late my people [n]is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away a Micah also claimed that the word of the Lord came to him, thus following the prophetic formula of the minor prophets with but few exceptions (v 1. Cp. Hos. 1:1; Joel 1:1; Amos 1:1-3; Jonah 1:1; Zeph. 1:1; Hag. 1:1; Zech. 1:1). Several spoke of the burden or vision (Oba. 1; Nah. 1:1; Hab. 1:1; Mal. 1:1)

b Micah, who is like Jehovah. ?Micah's note ?, Judg. 17:1

c Micah was a contemporary of Isaiah in Judah, and of Amos and Hosea in Ephraim in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (1:1; Isa. 1:1; Hos. 1:1; Amos 1:1)

d Micah was a prophet of Judah to both Ephraim and Judah-Samaria and Jerusalem (v 1). He was from Mareshah or Moresheth-gath (v 1, 15), between Judah and Philistia

e 1st prophecy in Mic. (1:2-4, unfulfilled). Next, v 6

3 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 The Lord will come forth out of His place (1:3)
2 He will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth
3 The mountains will melt under Him, and the valleys shall be cleft as wax before a fire, and as waters that are poured down a steep place (1:4; Zech. 14:4)

f 20 commands in the book of Micah:

1 Hear, all you people (1:2)
2 Hearken, O earth, and all therein
3 Declare it not in Gath (1:10)
4 Weep not at all
5 Roll yourself in the dust in the house of Aphrah (1:11)
6 Pass away, inhabitant of Saphir (1:11)
7 Bind the chariot to the swift beast, inhabitant of Lachish (1:13)
8 Make yourself bald (1:16)
9 Poll for your delicate children
10 Enlarge your baldness as the eagle
11 Arise and depart (2:10)
12 Hear, O heads of Jacob (3:1, 9)
13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion (4:13)
14 Gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops (5:1)
15 Hear now what the Lord says (6:1)
16 Arise, contend before the mountains
17 Let the hills hear your voice
18 Hear, O mountains, the Lord's controversy with Israel (6:2) (7:8)
19 Rejoice not against me, my enemy
20 Feed Your people with Your rod (7:14)

g The general sins of both houses of Israel concerned the idolatrous places and worship in Samaria and Jerusalem (v 3)

h Questions 1-4. Next, 2:7

i 2nd prophecy in Mic. (1:6-16, fulfilled). Next, 2:3

17 predictions-fulfilled:

1 I will make Samaria a heap (1:6)
2 I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley
3 I will discover the foundations thereof
4 All the graven images will be beaten to pieces (1:7)
5 All the hires (harlots) thereof will be burned with fire
6 All the idols will I lay desolate
7 They will return to the hire of an harlot
8 I will wail and howl (1:8)
9 I will go stripped and naked
10 I will make a wailing like the dragons, and the mourning as the owls
11 He (the Assyrian invader) is come to the gate of Jerusalem (1:9)
12 He will receive of you his standing (1:11)
13 You will give presents to Moresheth-gath (1:14)
14 The houses of Achzib will be a lie to the kings of Israel
15 I will bring an heir to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah (1:15)
16 He will come unto Adullam the glory of Israel
17 You will go into captivity (1:16)

j A term for the hire of an harlot. Much wealth was made in idolatry through harlotry in connection with the worship of idols, many women being consecrated to give themselves for this kind of hire (v 7)

a It was from the Lord in the sense that He had decreed the punishment of these places for rebellion against Him and His people in Jerusalem. God spoke of the Assyrian as being the rod of His chastening of certain nations whom He desired to punish (Isa. 10:5-19; 36:1-37:38)

b The Assyrian did come as far as the gates and walls of Jerusalem and then he was stopped by a supernatural intervention of God (Isa. 36:1-37:38)

c Lachish was one of the best fortified cities of Judah, and one of the last to fall to the Assyrians who took all the defenced cities before going against Jerusalem. It is spoken of here as the beginning of the sin of the daughter of Zion. In what way is not stated. Lachish was even a source of the sins of the 10 tribes, and their transgressions were found in her (v 13)

d This was Sennacherib, whom God appointed as heir to the inhabitant of Mareshah (v 15)

e Making the head bald in mourning was forbidden under the law (Dt. 14:1), but since Judah had become like the heathen, she might as well mourn like them (v 15)

f See 7 sins of Israel, p. 906

g 3rd prophecy in Mic. (2:3-6, fulfilled). Next, v 10

10 predictions-fulfilled:

1 Against this family (of Israel) do I devise an evil, from which you will not remove your necks (2:3)
2 Neither will you go haughtily to escape this calamity
3 In that day one will take up a parable against you (2:4)
4 You will lament with a doleful lamentation
5 You will say, We are utterly spoiled
6 He has changed the portion of my people
7 How has he removed it from me
8 Turning away he has divided our fields
9 You will have none that will cast a cord by lot in the congregation (2:5)
10 They will not prophesy to them (2:6)

h This refers to a custom by which the land around a village was divided by lot to the various families each year. The word cord refers to the portion of land marked out by it (v 5) i The people and false prophets had forbidden Micah to prophesy. Referring to this prohibition God forewarded them of the consequences (v 6)

j Questions 5-7. Next, 3:1

k It is always true that God's words are acceptable with and they do good to those who walk uprightly; but to those who sin they are words of condemnation and even eternal punishment

l 7 blessings to those who walk uprightly:

1 Salvation (Ps. 7:10; Pr. 28:18)
2 Live in God's presence (Ps. 11:7)
3 Abide in God's tabernacle (Ps. 15:2)
4 All good things (Ps. 84:11)
5 A buckler (Pr. 2:7)
6 A sure walk (Pr. 10:9)
7 Good (2:7)

m Israel had sinned against God from the days of the 12 sons of Jacob until this time, more or less, so here they were accused again of being the enemy of Jehovah and not His friend. Their continual sins were sufficient proof of their hatred of right, and of being His enemy (v 8)

n See 5 sins of Israel, p. 906

k The prophet took up wailing because of the invader and the destruction of Judah and Jerusalem (v 8-15)

l This expresses the fact that nothing could prevent her utter ruin, inasmuch as the nation had utterly filled up her measure of iniquity (v 9)

m Referring to the Assyrian invader who destroyed the 10-tribe kingdom and then came against Jerusalem, but was destroyed by an angel without taking the city (2 Ki. 17:1-19:37; Isa. 36-38)

n That is, go into exile (v 11)

o These statements (v 11-16) picture the Assyrians terrorizing, destroying, and taking into captivity many of the places outside Jerusalem and in Philistia a 4th prophecy in Mic. (2:10-13. V 10 fulfilled; v 12-13 unfulfilled). Next, 3:6

1 prediction-fulfilled:

I will destroy you, even with a great destruction (2:10)

7 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will surely assemble all of Jacob (2:12)

2 I will surely gather the remnant of Israel

3 I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold

4 They will make great noise by reason of the multitude of men them

5 The breaker is come up before

6 They have broken up, and have passed through the gates

7 Their king will pass before them, and the Lord ahead of them

b See Lying spirit of falsehood, p. 906

c Here we have another prophet predicting the gathering of Israel from among the nations in the days of the 2nd coming of the Messiah (v 12). The prophecy concerns all of thee, meaning all of the tribes of Israel, all of Jacob, and not only a few of Judah. All were to be brought back to their own land, into one fold. See scriptures on regathering of Israel, p. 444

d See The breaker, p. 906

e After the breaker comes up before them to destroy them, after Jerusalem is taken, and half the city has gone into captivity, their own King, the Messiah, will come suddenly and lead them to victory over the breaker - the Anti-christ. The Messiah will then reign over the house of Jacob, and of His kingdom there will be no end (Zech. 14:1-5, 14; Lk. 1:32-33; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

f Question 8. Next, v 11

g See 21 sins of Israel, p. 906

h Alluding to idolatrous practices of the heathen around the altars of Baal-biting an olive in their mouths and crying peace, of which the olive was a symbol (v 5)

5 predictions-fulfilled:

1 You will have such darkness that you will not be able to divine (3:6)

2 The sun will go down upon your prophets, and the day will be dark over them

3 Then the seers will be ashamed (3:7)

4 The diviners will be confounded

5 There will be no message from God through any of them

j Contrasting the utter darkness and lack of messages from God on the part of the false prophets, Micah declared that he was full of power by the Holy Spirit, and of judgment, and of might, to declare the sins of his people (v 8)

n Israel and all Gentiles will be eternal peoples and worship the same God forever; so the idea of all nations walking after their own gods is simply emphasizing the consecration of Israel to Jehovah eternally, Israel who has been prone to walk after every other god but Jehovah, will then be stedfast in Him alone (v 3) my glory for ever.

10 [a]Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking [b]in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

10 Second advent of Messiah

12 ¶I will surely assemble, O Já'cob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Ís'ra-el; I will put them together as the sheep of Bŏz'rah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 [d]The breaker is come up before them: [e]they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3 896

II Prophecy to rulers of Israel. 1 Their eight sins

●AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Já'cob, and ye princes of the house of Ís'ra-el; Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 [f]Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

2 Abandoned by God

▸4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

3 Judgment on the prophets

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that [h]bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

*6 [i]Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be/ dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

4 Micah contrasted with the false prophets of 3:5-7

8 ¶/But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Já'cob his transgression, and to Ís'ra-el his sin.

5 Eight sins of the leaders

●9 Hear this, I pray you, [a]ye heads of the house of Já'cob, and princes of the house of Ís'ra-el, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zí'ŏn with blood, and Jê-ru'să-lĕm with iniquity.

11 The [b]heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, [c]Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

6 Complete destruction of Jerusalem and the temple

*12 [d]Therefore shall Zí'ŏn for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jê-ru'să-lĕm shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER 4 897

III Millennial restoration (Cp. Isa. 2:1, refs.). 1 Extent and supremacy of Messiah's kingdom

BUT in the/last days it shall come to pass, that [e]the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and [f]people shall flow unto it.■

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Já'cob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for [g]the law shall go forth of Zí'ŏn, and the word of the LORD from Jê-ru'să-lĕm.

2 Universal peace (Isa. 2:1-4)

3 ¶ And he shall/judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into [k]plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: [l]nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

3 Universal prosperity (Zech. 3:10)

4 [m]But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

4 Universal religion (Mal. 1:11)

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and [n]we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

5 Restoration of Israel to an eternal nation under Messiah (2 Sam. 7)

■6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have a The heads of the house of Jacob is a term found 2 times in this book-both in this chapter (3:1, 9. Cp. v 11) b 3 sins of the ruling classes (v 11):

1 Judges judge for reward
2 Priests teach only for hire
3 Prophets divine only for money
All three classes were to be supported, but they were to judge for the sake of justice, teach without a fee for everything taught, and prophesy without charging for every prediction or counsel offered anyone from God

The Babylonian captivity was to come before all this (v 9-10)

b Questions 10-12, Next, 6:3

c The reason for these birth pangs of Israel was her utter defeat and destruction by Babylon. This was fulfilled to the letter in the taking of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar in 616 B.C.

d See Battle of Armageddon, p. 906

e Emphasizing the fact of Israel being the only nation that will be co-operating with Christ in the battle of Armageddon. These nations will be gathered against thee (the Jews) and against Jerusalem (Zech. 14:3, 14-15)

f See Mobilization in ignorance, p. 906

g Earthly Israel is here commanded to arise and thresh, meaning to arise and conquer the mighty nations under the Antichrist. This again confirms the fact that Israel only will be on Christ's side in the battle of Armageddon (v 13; Zech. 14:14)

h See 5 great latter-day truths, p. 915

i 8th prophecy in Mic. (5:1-15. V 1-2 fulfilled; v 3-15 unfulfilled). Next, 6:13. See p. 906

j Judah is here called daughter of troops, because of her bands of men employed in highway robbery and bloodshed (v 1; 2:8; 3:2). The word troops is almost always used of such bands. Now they are called to resist the inroads of the invader entering Palestine and making war. The invader referred to was the Roman general who destroyed Jerusalem 70 A.D. (v 1; Lk. 21:20-24). This was the only power that laid siege to Jerusalem in the days of the first advent of the Messiah, when He was smitten on the cheek (v 1; Mt. 27:30)

k They-the mockers and persecutors of the Messiah, both Jews and Romans (v 1; Mt. 26:67; 27:30)

l Christ will not only be the Judge of Israel, but of all men (v 1; Mt. 25:31-46; Acts 17:31)

m Bethlehem was to be the birthplace of the Messiah (v 2); and this was literally fulfilled (Mt. 2:1)

n The Messiah was to come from Judah (v 2; Gen. 49:10); and this was also literally fulfilled (Mt. 1:1-18; Lk. 3:23-38; Heb. 7:14; Rev. 5:5)

o Christ will be the eternal ruler of Israel and all other nations (v 2; Isa. 9:6-7; Ezek. 43:7; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-5, 9, 16-21; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5). Already there has been a period of nearly 2,000 years between His coming from Judah as man, and His coming from heaven to be the ruler of Israel and others. There are many scriptures that plainly teach the two comings of the Messiah-once to be born and to die for the redemption of men, and again as the King to rule (v 2; Isa. 9:6-7; 52:13-15; 61:1-2; Zech. 9:9-10) p The person who was to be born in Bethlehem of the tribe of Judah of the nation of Israel was to be God-an eternal Being whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting (5:2; Isa. 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1-3, 14; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8; 2:8; 22:13). As man He had a beginning, was begotten, and was brought into being, but as God He had no beginning, was not begotten, and did not come into being (note f, Acts 13:33)

q Therefore, in view of the rejection of the Judge of Israel at His first advent, as in v 1-2, He will give them up (reject and disperse them as a nation, Lk. 21:20-24), until the time that she which travails (when Israel travails for herself and is born again in a day at the 2nd advent of Christ, Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 10:12-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29) has brought forth: then the remnant (who have not yet been gathered from all nations) of His (the Messiah's) brethren shall return (be gathered, Isa. 11:10-12) unto the afflicted;

7 And [d]I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zi'ŏn from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zi'ŏn, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jĕrū'sā-lĕm.

6 Babylonian captivity first

9 [b]Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? [c]for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zi'ŏn, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Bāb'ў-lon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

7 How the kingdom will be set up (Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19-20)

11 ¶ Now [d]also many nations are gathered against [e]thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zi'ŏn.

12 But [f]they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

●13 [g]Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zi'ŏn: for [h]I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5 898

8 First advent of Messiah and his redemptive work first necessary as a guarantee for eternal restoration

NOW gather thyself in troops, O [j]daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: [k]they shall smite the [j]judge of Iş'ra-el with a rod upon the cheek.●

2 But thou, [m]Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm Ĕph'ra-tah, though thou be little among the thousands of Jū'dah, yet [n]out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be [o]ruler in Iş'ra-el; [p]whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

9 Israel to be given up until her national repentance

3 [q]Therefore will he give them up, until the time that [r]she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Iş'ra-el.

10 Israel to be delivered from the Antichrist by the Messiah at His second advent (Isa. 14:3-23; 63:1-5; Joel 2:1-3:17; Zech. 14:1-15; Mt. 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21

4 ¶ And [e]he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and [f]they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when [g]the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an shall come into our land: and when he shall [d]tread in our palaces, [e]then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And [f]they shall waste the land of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ā with the sword, and [g]the land of Nim'rŏd in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

11 Israel to be restored at the return of Messiah (Mt. 24:31; Isa. 11:11, refs.)

7 And the [h]remnant of Jā'cob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jā'cob shall be among the Gĕn'tīleş in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will [i]cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy [j]chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER 6 899

IV Jehovah's past and present controversy with Israel (6:1-7:6). I Call to the mountains, hills, and people. Cp. Ezek. 6:2-3; 35:12; 36:1-8; 38:8

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

●2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy, and ye a He-the Messiah, shall stand and feed, . . and be great unto the ends of the earth (v 4). This man shall be the peace (the preserver of Israel) when the Assyrian (the Antichrist) comes into our land and treads in our palaces (v 5)

b They-Israel, His flock

c Antichrist is called the Assyrian, for he will come from the territory Assyria ruled over in ancient times (v 5). For this same reason he can be called the king of Babylon (Isa. 14), the Syrian (Dan. 11:35-45), the Roman prince that shall come (Dan. 9:26-27), and the Grecian (Zech. 9:13), He will come from the territory ruled by Assyria, Babylon, Greece, Syria, and Rome. In the days of Micah and Isaiah the Assyrians had the great empire of Bible lands, so the future Antichrist could rightly be termed the Assyrian. The fact of a latter-day fulfillment of v 3-15 confirms this, that whoever the Assyrian will be, he will fulfil these scriptures in the day that:
1 She which travails has brought forth the manchild and herself (v 2)
2 The remnant of Israel will be gathered to those that have already been gathered from the nations
3 The Messiah will become great to the ends of the earth (v 4)
4 The Messiah will be the peace of Israel and preserve her (v 5)
5 Israel will be victorious over all her enemies (v 5-6)
6 The Messiah will deliver Israel from the Assyrian, when he comes into their land (v 6)
7 The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many nations, like an all-powerful lion among sheep (v 7-8)
8 The enemies of Israel will be cut off (v 9)
9 The horses, chariots, and strongholds will be destroyed (v 10-11)
10 Witchcraft and image worship will be destroyed out of the land, and God's vengeance will be executed upon the heathen (v 11-15)

d The Assyrians in the days of Micah, Isaiah, and Hezekiah did not tread in the palaces of Judah, so this treading refers to that of the future Antichrist when he will take over all of Palestine Jerusalem, and even the future Jewish temple at Jerusalem (v 5; Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:1-2)

e Then, when the Antichrist enters Palestine, shall we (Israel) raise against him seven shepherds and eight principal men (v 5). Just who these shepherds and principal men will be is not revealed, but in that day the prediction will be literally fulfilled

f Whoever they are they will be leaders taking the army of Israel to victory over the Antichrist. Furthermore, they will be under the Messiah who will deliver Israel from the Assyrian when he comes into the land of Palestine (v 6)

g Both Assyria and the land of Nimrod (Babylon) will be defeated in that day by the Messiah and His 15 leaders-He, the Messiah, will deliver us (v 6)

h The remnant of Jacob will be feared among the Gentiles when the world will know the result of Armageddon and realize that Christ is with Israel restoring them as a nation, and taking over the kingdoms of this world (Rev. 11:15). The remnant will be like a lion in a flock of sheep-a beast that could devour if he so desired; otherwise, they will be like dew and showers of rain to the Gentiles (v 7-8). The enemies of Israel will be cut off in those days, as well as all idols and pagan worship (v 9-15)

i In that day-of the battle of Armageddon and the establishment of the kingdom of David by the Messiah (v 10; 4:1-5)

j This refers to war horses and weapons (v 10), all idolatrous cities (v 11), witchcraft and soothsayers (v 12), graven images and their worship (v 13-15). It was provided in the law of Moses that all cities of idolatry should be destroyed (Dt. 13) a His people-Israel. God entered into a controversy with the whole nation, not with Judah only, or with the 10 tribes only (v 1-2); and He mentioned their sins as well as the judgments which were yet to come, because of continued iniquities (6:3-7:6)

b Questions 13-14. Next, v 6
c After asking for the facts-why they were so eternally opposed to Him and His way of life, which was really to their best good, God gave His side of the story:
1 I brought you up out of Egypt (v 4)
2 I redeemed you from the house of slavery and hard bondage
3 I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before you to bring you into this wonderful land (v 5)
4 I protected you from the curses of Balaam and suffered him not to harm you
5 I gave you a true revelation of Myself and My way of life. I made it clear that I do not require costly sacrifices to atone for sin (v 6-7)
6 I did not require your firstborn for forgiveness of your sins, nor any fruit of your body for the sin of your soul
7 I showed you the righteous principles of life - what is good; and all I require is for you to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly before Me
8 I revealed My laws and penalties so that you could know them and the One who has meted out punishment
9 I cannot but demand just weights and measures, and hold every man accountable for his sins, punishing you with sickness, desolation, war, and calamity because of them (v 10-15)
10 You keep the statutes of Omri and the works of Ahab, and walk in their wicked counsels instead of obeying Me and My laws (v 16)
d It is noticable that God, Himself classed Miriam as one of the 3 great leaders of Israel when He brought them out of Egypt (v 4. Cp. Ex. 15-20-21; Num. 12:4, 10, 15; 20:1; 26:59; 1 Chr. 6:3) strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with [a]his people, and he will plead with Ĭs'ra-el.

2 Controversy with the people: sins and judgment

3 O my people, [b]what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 [c]For I brought thee up out of the land of Ĕ'gўpt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Mō'şeş, Aâr'on, and [d]Mĭr'-i-am.

5 O my people, remember now what Bā'lăk king of Mō'ab consulted, and what [e]Bā'laam the son of Bĕ'or answered him from Shĭt'tim unto Ğĭl'gāl; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith [f]shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

3 Controversy with the city: sins and judgment

9 The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ [g]Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

★13 [i]Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For the [k]statutes of Ōm'ri are kept, and all the works of the house of Á'hâb, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

4 Israel completely desolate of righteousness

[a]WOE is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

V Restoration of Israel (7:7-20). 1 Repentance of Israel in the last days (Zech. 12:10)

★7 [b]Therefore [c]I will look unto the LORD; I will [d]wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

●8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

2 Israel's enemies humbled

10 [e]Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, [f]Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

7 Notwithstanding the restoration of the remnant of Israel, the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein (7:13)
8 According to the days of your coming out of Egypt I will show him (the returning Jew) marvellous things (7:15)

a The Bible refers to the sins or good deeds of the inhabitants of a country as making the land either fertile or desolate and the people either prosperous or cursed with poverty. This is an unfailing law plainly stated in Lev. 26 and Dt. 28. Here it is clear that for the fruit of their doings the land was desolate. This means that because of the sins of the inhabitants God's curse was upon the land itself, so that it could not produce (v 13)

b This was a prayer of Micah for Israel, asking God to be their shepherd and rule them, as in the days of old (v 14)

c Here (v 15-17) we have Jehovah's answer to the prayer of Micah of v 14. He promised to answer the petition by doing marvellous things for His people as He had done when He brought them out of Egypt. He declared further that the nations will see His mighty power and be absolutely confounded; they will lay their hands upon their mouths and stop their ears in confusion, at seeing the marvels of God performed for Israel. They will lick dust like a serpent. This-licking the dust thus-is a figure of complete defeat (v 17; Ps. 72:9; Isa. 49:23). Like worms, they will move out of their holes where they have been driven by fear at the judgments of God as well as fear of what Israel might do to them in her exaltation (v 16-17) them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

4 Prayer to God

●14 ¶ Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Cär'mel: let them feed in Bā'shăn and Gĭl'e-ăd, as in the days of old.

5 Judgment on her enemies

15 [a]According to the days of thy coming out of the land of E'gÿpt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 ¶ The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

✱17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their [c]holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

6 Israel's confidence in God

18 [b]Who is a God like unto thee, [c]that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

▸19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt [d]cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

✱20 [e]Thou wilt perform the truth to Jā'cob, and the mercy to Ā'brā-hăm, which thou [f]hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

Summary of Micah

Date and place: written in Palestine about 772-722 B.C.

Author: Micah the prophet (1:1)

Theme: though Micah was a prophet in Judah, his book deals also with Samaria and Gentile nations, reproving all for their sins, and warning of impending judgment and captivity of Israel. He also sees their future restoration in the kingdom of the Messiah and great events of the latter days. God had warned Israel many times (both kingdoms) regarding what would befall them if they continued in sin and rebellion; but they were becoming more openly rebellious and backslidden in heart and life. God was becoming less tolerant of their mock worship, ritualism, and sins; and finding it necessary to invoke the judgment terms of the Mosaic covenant He had to formulate a plan of action that would eventually bring them back to repentance so that He could fulfil with them the everlasting covenants, and yet do so on the grounds of fulfilling righteousness. In the first 3 chapters we have God's case against Israel with predictions of judgment and captivity, and a promise of blessing to the remnant. Chapters 4-5 deal mainly with the Millennium, with a reference to the Babylonian captivity and the first advent of the Messiah (4:9-10; 5:1-2), followed by references to God having to give up Israel to dispersion among the nations until the 2nd advent of the Messiah (5:3), and His war with Antichrist at the time He comes to restore Israel (5:4-15). In 6:1-7:6 God takes up his case against Israel again, and finally the book ends with latter-day events when God's covenant with Abraham will be performed (7:7-20)

Purpose: the book is one of many, expressing the ultimate purpose of God in all His dealings-to bring Israel and all mankind back to the place of conformity to His eternal will and plan, so that the blessings He originally promised man may be finally and completely fulfilled

Statistics: 33rd book of the Bible; 7 chapters; 105 verses; 3,153 words; 20 commands; 23 questions; 2 promises; 123 predictions; 32 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 91 verses of fulfilled prophecy; and 7 distinct messages from God (1:2; 2:1, 5, 9; 4:1, 6; 6:1)

7 sins of Israel (2:1):

1 Devise iniquity (v 1)
2 Plan evil upon their beds
3 Carry out their evil plans in the day
4 Covet fields (v 2)
5 Take them by violence
6 Covet and take away houses by force
7 Oppress a man and his house

5 sins of Israel (2:8):

1 They have risen up against God (v 8)
2 Rob people even of their clothes
3 Have cast the women out from their pleasant houses (v 9)
4 Have robbed their children of My glory forever
5 False prophecy and lying (v 11)

Lying spirit of falsehood (2:11)

A lying spirit of falsehood and deceit, not the Holy Spirit (v 11). Other prophets have spoken of this kind-false prophets. In Ezekiel: Woe unto the foolish prophets that walk after their own spirit and have seen nothing (Ezek. 13:3). In Jeremiah: The prophets prophesy lies... I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart (Jer. 14:14-15). These walked in the spirit, but not the Holy Spirit as the true prophets did. They constantly conversed with their own spirit and that of demons, predicting lies and falsehoods. Here they prophesied of wine and strong drink, because that was the chief thing on their minds and what they continually gave themselves to. They desired to please the rich men, to embolden them in their lives of self-indulgence, and to tell them that they would not be punished. They doubtless did say some good things when quoting God's promises to His people, but would not speak of the curses of God upon sin. This is the secret of success for false prophets even today. The natural man wants a god, and anything which has a mere resemblance of the spiritual will satisfy, for a time at least, even though it is deception

The breaker (2:13)

The breaker-the one making a breach, is none other than the future Antichrist who will seek to destroy all the nations of Israel in the day of the fulfillment of these things. He will conquer Palestine, take over Jerusalem, make the future Jewish temple his capital building, and reign for 42 months; then he will be defeated by Christ at His 2nd advent (Isa. 63:1-6; Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:15; 2 Th. 2:3-4, 8-12; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21)

21 sins of Israel (3:2):

1 Hate the good (v 2)
2 Love the evil
3 The leaders pluck off the skin from My people
4 Pull the flesh from their bones
5 Eat the flesh of My people (v 3)
6 Flay the skin from off them
7 Break their bones
8 Chop them in pieces as for the pot
9 Have behaved themselves ill in their doings (v 4)
10 Prophets make My people err (v 5)
11 Bite with their teeth
12 Cry Peace, but make war on all who do not confirm their whims
13 The leaders abhor judgment (v 9)
14 Pervert all equity
15 Murder (v 10)
16 Commit iniquity
17 Take bribes (v 11)
18 Priests teach for hire
19 Prophets divine for money
20 Lie about God's presence
21 Claim immunity from doing evil

8th prophecy in Mic. (5:1-15)

3 predictions-fulfilled:

1 Gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops: he (the king of Babylon of 4:10) has laid siege against us (5:1)

2 They (the crucifiers of Jesus Christ) shall smite the Judge of Israel (Jesus Christ) with a rod upon the cheek

3 But you, Bethlehem Ephratah, though you are little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall He (the Messiah) come forth unto Me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting (5:2)

20 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will give them (Israel) up, until the time that she (Israel) which travails has brought forth (until Israel repents and turns to God, 5:3)

2 Then (when Israel turns to God and is born in a day, Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29) the remnant of His (the Messiah's) brethren shall return unto the children of Israel

3 He (the Messiah at His 2nd advent) shall stand and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord His God (5:4)

4 They (Israel) shall abide

5 He (the Messiah) shall be great unto the ends of the earth

6 This man (the Messiah) shall be the peace, when the Assyrian (the future Antichrist from Assyria) shall come into our (Israel's) land: and when he shall tread in our palaces (5:5)

7 Then-when Antichrist treads in our palaces-shall we raise up against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men

8 They shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof (5:6)

9 Thus shall He (the Messiah) deliver us from the Assyrian (the Antichrist), when he comes into our (Israel's) land, and when he treads within our borders

10 The remnant of Jacob (those who have not yet been gathered from all nations) shall be in the midst of many people as a dew and showers upon the grass from the Lord (5:7)

11 The remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest and as a young lion among the sheep, with none to deliver them if he tears them to pieces (5:8)

12 Your hand will be lifted up upon your adversaries, and all your enemies will be cut off (5:9)

13 In that day-at the 2nd advent of the Messiah, I will cut off the horses out of the midst of you, and will destroy the chariots (5:10)

14 I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down the strongholds (5:11)

15 I will cut off witchcraft out of your hand; and you will not have any more soothsayers (5:12)

16 Your graven images I will also cut off, and your standing images out of the midst of you (5:13)

17 You will no more worship the work of your hands

18 I will pluck up your groves out of your midst (5:14)

19 I will destroy your cities that are consecrated to such worship

20 I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard (5:15)

Battle of Armageddon (4:11)

Many nations were also to be gathered against Jerusalem besides those in the days of Nebuchadnezzar. Already there have been over 2,600 years between the two events. This gathering of the nations (v 11) will be in the day of the Lord. At the 2nd advent of Christ He will find the many nations of earth already mobilized to make war against Him (Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21). Though they will seek to destroy the Jews, their primary purpose will be to prevent Him from setting up His kingdom in the world. The devil, knowing that he has but a short time (Rev. 12:12), will gather the nations at this time; they will be trained and transported to Palestine to be there at the very day Christ comes from heaven with His armies, which will include all the holy angels (Mt. 16:27; 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10) and resurrected saints of all ages (Dan. 7:18, 22, 27; Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 17:14; 19:11-21). Israel will be the only earthly nation that will co-operate with Christ in this war (Zech. 14:14-15). He will be victorious in the one-day battle; these mighty earthly armies will be completely destroyed, except for a sixth part (Ezek. 39:2). So, instead of defiling Israel, as planned, the nations themselves will be defiled

Mobilization in ignorance (4:12)

The rank and file of the vast armies of the nations will be in ignorance of the real purpose of their mobilization and gathering to Palestine. This says, "they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they His counsel: for He shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor" (v 12). The devil, the Antichrist, the false prophet and perhaps some of the other leaders will know, but the ordinary soldier will no doubt be ignorant of the reason for such a vast multitude gathered together. Certainly, it would not require so many to fight against a few Jews in Palestine a Isaiah predicted that men would go into holes and caves for fear of the Lord in the day of the Lord, at which time He would come to judge the inhabitants of the earth for their sins and their persecution of Israel (Isa. 2:12-21). In Rev. 6:12-17 we read of men crying for the rocks and mountains to fall on them and hide them from the presence of God. Of course, this is several years before the day of the Lord, but it will be in the future tribulation of the 70th week of Daniel, at which time all of Rev. 6:1-19:21 will be fulfilled. This passage refers to the actual day of the Lord, as does Isa. 2:12-21

b Question 23, Last one in Micah

c Here we have evidence of Israel's renewed faith and trust in Jehovah. At this time they recognize Him as being what He really is

10 facts about Jehovah:

1 No god like Him (v 18)
2 He pardons iniquity
3 He passes by the transgression of His people (when they come to repentance)
4 He does not retain anger forever
5 He delights in mercy
6 He will turn again to those who obey and turn to Him (v 19) tents
7 He will have compassion on penitents
8 He will subdue and forgive sins
9 He will cast all confessed sins into the depths of the sea
10 He will perform the truth and mercy that He swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (v 20)

d This is the nearest to the often quoted statement about casting sins into "the sea of forgetfulness" to be remembered no more (v 19)

e Quoted in Lk. 1:72-73

f See Gen. 12:1-3; 26:24; 28:13-15 a The first of three of the minor prophets who speak of the burden of their message (1:1; Hab. 1:1; Mal. 1:1). This is the burden of Nineveh, meaning the oracle of judgment concerning Nineveh. The book is also called the vision of Nahum (v 1). See Burden in Index

b Nahum, compassionate, or full of comfort. He is mentioned only once (v 1) c A village called Elkoshi was located about 24 mi. north of Nineveh. The city of Nineveh itself is mentioned 3 times in this book (1:1; 2:8; 3:7), and is referred to in 3:1, 18. Jonah preached to Nineveh about 87 years before this (Jonah 1:2; 3:2-7; 4:11). Cp. Zeph. 2:13

d 1st prophecy in Nah. (1:2-15. V 7-14 fulfilled; v 2-8, 15 unfulfilled. Next, 2:1. See 10 predictions, p. 910

e See 7 attributes of God, p. 908

f The Lord is possessor of wrath; literally, the Lord of wrath (v 2)

g If God were as quick tempered as man, many things would be completely destroyed in His anger; it is to our advantage that He weighs all matters and makes a merciful and just decision before He acts. It is stated 6 times that He is slow to anger (v 3; Neh. 9:17; Ps. 103:8; 145:8; Joel 2:13; Jonah 4:2). Man is advised to be slow to wrath (Jas. 1:19). Anyone slow to anger is of great understanding (Pr. 14:29), appeaseth wrath (Pr. 15:18), and is better than the mighty (Pr. 16:32)

h God is great in power-omnipotent, absolutely just, and therefore the only Being capable of being Sovereign over all (v 3)

i 20 facts about God:
1 He manifests jealousy (v 2)
2 Demonstrates anger (v 2-3)
3 Takes vengeance on enemies (v 2)
4 Reserves wrath for enemies
5 Is slow to anger (v 3)
6 Has great power
7 Will not acquit the wicked
8 Has His way in the whirlwind
9 Has His way in the storm
10 Stands on the clouds
11 Rebukes the sea (v 4)
12 Makes the sea dry
13 Dries up rivers
14 Causes earthquakes (v 5-6)
15 Will renovate the earth (v 5)
16 None can stand before His wrath (v 6)
17 He is good (v 7)
18 He is a stronghold in the day of trouble
19 He knows them that trust Him
20 He brings judgment when needed (v 8-14)

j Here we have statements expressing the omnipotence of God. He is capable of doing all these things, and has done them in the past when bringing certain judgments. He will also do them in bringing future judgments. God has already rebuked the sea (Ps. 104:7), made it dry (Ex. 14:12), dried up rivers (Josh. 3:17; 2 Ki. 2:8, 14), sent famine to Bashan, Carmel, and Lebanon (2 Sam. 21:1; 2 Ki. 6:25). The mountains have quaked (Ex. 19:18; 1 Sam. 14:15; 1 Ki. 19:11), the earth has been burned by fire and men have been destroyed (Gen. 19:24; 1 Ki. 19:12); and this will happen again in the future (Heb. 12:18-28; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 6:12-17; 8:1-12; 9:1-21; 11:13; 16:17-21; 18:1-24) k See note on all, p. 308 of N. T.

l Questions 1-2. Next, v 9

m These statements with those of v 4-5 could easily refer to the future renovation of the heavens and earth by fire, as in Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 20:7-10 n 3 facts to comfort when in trouble:

1 The Lord is good (v 7)
2 He is a stronghold
3 He knows them that trust Him

o Here the burden of Nineveh begins. The Ninevehites were asked what they imagined against the Lord; then a prediction of utter destruction of the city was made (v 8-9)

p Question 3. Next, 2:11

q Nineveh's destruction was to be complete and final the first time; there would be no need for a second destruction (v 9)

r The people of Nineveh would be destroyed as fully dried stubble (v 10)

901 CHAPTER 1

I Seven attributes of God

1 Title and author

THE [a]burden of Nin'e-veh. The book of the vision [b]of Na'hum the [c]El'kosh-ite.

2 Vengeance of God

§ 2 [d]God is [e]jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is [f]furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 Longsuffering and justice

3 The LORD is [g]slow to anger, and [h]great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: [i]the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 Omnipotence of God

4 [j]He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Ba'shan languisheth, and Car'mel, and the flower of Leb'a-non languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and [k]all that dwell therein.

5 Holiness of God

6 [l]Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? [m]his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

6 Goodness and omniscience

7 [n]The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 [o]But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

II Nineveh's overstepping (Isa. 10:7-11; 36:4-22; 37:3-29)

9 [p]What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: [q]affliction shall not rise up the second time.

*10 For while [r]they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is [s]one come out of thee, that [t]imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

III Judah. 1 Her deliverance

12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when [u]he shall pass through. [v]Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, [w]that no more of thy name be sown: [x]out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

2 Her missionary program in the Millennium (Isa. 52:7; 61:6; 66:19; Zech. 8:23)

*15 Behold upon the mountains the [y]feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O [z]Ju'dah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the [aa]wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

902 CHAPTER 2

3 Judah encouraged against the Assyrian invader (Isa. 36-37)

HE [a]that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: [b]keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. ■

2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Ja'cob, as the excellency of Is'ra-el: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

IV Judgment of Nineveh (2:3-13). 1 Battle in her streets

3 The [c]shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the [d]day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The [e]chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 [f]He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 [g]The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

2 Nineveh's captivity

7 And [h]Hûz'zâb shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 [i]But Nin'e-veh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

3 Nineveh spoiled

9 [j]Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

4 Her utter ruin

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite

a This means that the dynasty of Nineveh to which Sennacherib belonged would come to an end (v 14)

b The house of your gods will be destroyed and the gods cut off; and you will be brought down to your grave (v 14). He was killed in the house of his gods by his own sons (Isa. 37:37-38)

c Isaiah predicted the same things and called attention to the beautiful feet of such ministers in the Millennium (v 15; Isa. 52:7)

d Judah was the only kingdom of Israel then in existence, the northern kingdom having been destroyed by the time of the fulfillment of this prophecy concerning Nineveh (v 15)

e The wicked man will no more pass through you; he will be utterly cut off (v 15). This refers to the last-day Assyrian, the Antichrist (2 Th. 2:8)

f 2nd and last prophecy in Nah. (2:1-3:19, fulfilled). See 47 predictions, p. 908

g The destroyers of Nineveh were Cyaxares of Media, and Nabopolassar, the father of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon

h This was a call to prepare for the siege, for the Lord was about to restore the excellency of Jacob and Israel who had been destroyed by enemies (v 2)

i The shields of the Medo-Babylonian army were dyed red; the soldiers themselves were in scarlet military tunics. The chariots of burnished steel flashing in the sun, with their wheels of lightning-like rapidity of rotation, striking sparks from the stones as they rolled along, gave the appearance of torches and flashes of lightning on the battlefield (v 3-4)

j The day of his preparation-that of the commander of the Medo-Babylonian army-to take Nineveh (v 3) k The highly polished steel chariots were to jostle against one another in the broad streets of Nineveh; and flashing in the sun they would have the appearance of torches and flashes of lightning (v 4)

l He (the king of Assyria, 3:18) preparing the defence shall recount his worthies; they (defenders of Nineveh) shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof (wall of Nineveh), and the defence shall be prepared (2:6)

m This explains the overflowing or overrunning flood of 1:8, that made the fall of the city possible. Tradition says there was a prophecy handed down from their forefathers declaring that Nineveh should not be taken until the river became an enemy of the city first. It happened in the third year of the siege that the river Khusur and the canal to the Tigris running through the city became so swollen by constant rains that the overflow even washed away a portion of the walls; and through this part the invaders entered to take over. The king of Nineveh imagining that the prophecy was being fulfilled cast aside all hope of escape, built a large funeral pyre in the palace, and burned his concubines, his eunuchs, and himself. This could explain the burning of the palace (v 8), and the fire of 3:13, 15

n This was the queen who escaped the burning mentioned by Diodorus and referred to above. There was no account of her being burned with the king. The Sept. reads the empress in this verse (v 7). The Berkeley says the queen, and so do other versions

o This verse pictures the multitude of defenders of Nineveh fleeing away p The great spoil of Nineveh is here pictured and her utter ruin described

dah in the days of Hezekiah (2 Ki. 18:13-19:37; Isa. 36:1-37:38)

t This is as far as he got, except to take the defenced cities of Judah. He had imagined he could take Jerusalem easily; but God stopped him by slaying 185,000 of his army, and he had to return to Assyria (Isa. 37:36-38)

u Sennacherib's army was to be cut down when he passed through Judah (v 12; Isa. 37:26-38)

v Though I have afflicted you (Judah), I will not afflict you anymore by the Assyrian; for I will break his yoke from off you and break your bonds asunder a Question 4. Next, 3:7

b Nineveh is here pictured as a lion's den where the lion-family has been secure and well fed (v 11-12). God promises to destroy the den and all the young in it (v 13) c Nineveh. I will burn all her chariots in the fire (v 13). The modern theory that the chariots of 2:3-4, 13; 3:2 picture the present-day automobile is disproved by these very statements. This is no prediction of our modern vehicles as can be seen from the context and all that is said about the chariots d 6 proofs chariots not automobiles:
1 The prophecy is one of the destruction of ancient Nineveh-not modern horseless carriages (1:1; 2:8, 13; 3:1, 18)
2 The chariots of Nineveh referred to in these verses were horse-drawn vehicles as proved by such statements as "the noise of a whip" and "the pransing of horses" (3:2)
3 The chariots were to be burned in the fire back in ancient times-when Nineveh was destroyed (2:13); and they had no automobiles in those days to burn
4 The riders of these vehicles were horsemen and they fought in a battle with bright, glittering swords and spears (3:3)
5 The seeming "like torches" and running "like lightnings" of 2:4 is easily understood when one thinks of the polished steel, the bright swords and spears flashing in the sunlight on the battlefield. See Knowledge shall be increased, p. 882
6 The prophecy was fulfilled in the battle between the Assyrians and the Medo-Babylonians at least 650 years before Christ (1:11; 2:1-8, 13; 3:18-19)
e 8 reasons for Nineveh's destruction:
1 A bloody city-murders (v 1)
2 Full of lies and deceit
3 Robberies
4 Wars to plunder others
5 Multitude of whoredoms (v 4)
6 Many witchcrafts
7 Drunkenness (v 11)
8 Oppression of others (v 19)
f Here we have a record of the actual battle scene between the Assyrians and the Medo-Babylonians (v 2-3), as we also have in v 13, 15; 2:1-7. The whip, the pransing horses, and the horsemen all identify the vehicles of this war as horse-drawn chariots, and not automobiles (v 2-4)
g This carries out the symbol of whoredoms for idolatry-the worship the city was given over to. Her nakedness was to be uncovered before all nations (v 5-7)
h This was the purpose of the whole prophecy-to show the complete destruction of Nineveh a century after the city had been spared in the days of Jonah (v 7, 13, 15; 2:13)
i Questions 5-7. Next, v 19

2nd prophecy in Nah. (2:1-3:19)

47 predictions-fulfilled:

1 He that dashes in pieces is come up before your face (2:1)
2 The Lord has turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel (2:2)
3 The emptiers have emptied them out, and marred the vine branches
4 The shield of his mighty men is made red (2:3)
5 The valiant men are in scarlet
6 The chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation
7 The chariots shall rage in the streets and justle against one another in the broadways (2:4)
8 They shall seem like torches
9 They shall run like the lightnings
10 He shall recount his worthies (2:5)
11 They shall stumble in their walk
12 They shall make haste to the wall
13 The defence shall be prepared
14 The gates of the river shall be opened, and the palace dissolved (2:6)
15 Huzzab shall be led away captive
16 Her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves (2:7)
17 Nineveh is like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away (2:8)
18 They shall cry, Stand still, but none will look back 19 Take the spoil of silver and gold:

together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 [c]Where is the dwelling [b]of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

5 God the destroyer

13 Behold, I am against [c]thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her [d]chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

903 CHAPTER 3

V Causes of Nineveh's doom.
1 A city of crimes and wars

WOE to [e]the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 [f]The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

2 Judgment from God

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will [g]discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, [h]Nin'e-veh is laid waste: [h]who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

3 Example of judgment on No

8 [a]Art thou better than populous Nō, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ā and Ē'gўpt were her strength, and it was [b]infinite; Pŭt and Lu'bĭm were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

4 Application to Nineveh

11 [c]Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

5 Nineveh asked to prepare

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln.

6 Nineveh to be desolate

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

7 Universal wickedness

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ā: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 [d]There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the [e]bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for [f]upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

a This refers to the conquest of Egypt by the Assyrians some 80 years before. God asked Nineveh if she considered herself better than No of Egypt whom the Assyrians had taken, and whose people they had carried into captivity. If No fell, then Nineveh would also fall, for she was no better morally than No when it fell (v 8). It is revealed here that Assyria had conquered both Egypt and Ethiopia, taking many into captivity (v 9-10)
b 3 "Infinite" things in Scripture:
1 The strength and power of Egypt and Ethiopia (v 9)
2 Job's sins or iniquities (Job 22:5)
3 God's understanding (Ps. 147:5) c God applied the lesson of v 8-10 to Nineveh which was to be destroyed, with many people being taken into captivity (v 11-19). The men of Nineveh who were the defenders would become as weak as women (v 13); and the city would be destroyed regardless of the great amount of preparation for war (v 14-19). Fire was to devour it, and the sword was to destroy the defenders (v 15). The merchants, rulers, and great men would flee like grasshoppers from the hedges on a cold day whenever the sun came up and gave a little warmth (v 17-18). The people were to be scattered all over the mountains (v 18)
d There would be no remedy for the coming destruction. All who would hear of Nineveh's utter desolation would be glad, for she had oppressed many continually (v 19)

for there is no end of her treasures (2:9) 20 She is empty, void, and waste (2:10)
21 The heart will melt, the knees smite together, and there will be much pain in the loins
22 The faces of them will gather blackness
23 I will burn her chariots with fire in the smoke (2:13)
24 The sword will devour the young lions
25 I will cut off your prey from the earth
26 The voice of messengers shall be heard no more 27 There will be a multitude slain, and a great number of carcases (3:3)
28 They will stumble upon their corpses
29 I will discover your skirts upon your face, and show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame (3:5)
30 I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile (3:6)
31 I will set you as a gazingstock
32 All that look upon you shall flee from you (3:7)
33 Nineveh shall be laid waste
34 You shall be drunken, and seek to hide and find strength because of your enemies (3:11)
35 All your strongholds shall be like fig trees with firstripe figs; if they be shaken they will easily fall (3:12)
36 Your men will become as weak as women (3:13)
37 The gates will be opened to your enemies
38 Fire shall devour your bars
39 Fire shall devour you (3:15)
40 The sword shall cut you off
41 Your leaders will flee away (3:16)
42 Your nobles will dwell in the dust
43 Your people will be scattered upon the mountains (3:18)
44 No man will gather them
45 There will be no healing for your bruise (3:19)
46 Your wound will be grievous
47 All that hear the report of you shall clap the hands over your fall: for you have oppressed them continually

Summary of Nahum

Date and place: written in Palestine about 786-757 B.C.
Author: Nahum the prophet (1:1)
Theme: the destruction of Nineveh about 100 years after Jonah. The prophecy is a complement and counterpart of the book of Jonah; the city was literally destroyed as predicted by both prophets-by the Medes and Babylonians under Nebopalassar, father of Nebuchadnezzar Purpose: to make clear that, although God had spared the city of Nineveh because of repentance in Jonah's day, her destruction was now coming because of the inhabitants going back into sin and rebellion against God Statistics: 34th book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 47 verses; 1,285 words; 8 questions; 5 commands; no promises; 72 predictions; 46 verses of prophecy; 6 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; 40 verses of fulfilled prophecy; and 2 distinct messages from God (1:2; 2:1) a The burden, oracle of judgment upon Judah, who was to be destroyed and taken captive by the Chaldeans (1:5-11) b Only 4 of the writing prophets claimed personally that they were prophets. Isaiah called himself a prophet only 3 times (37:2; 38:1; 39:3). Jeremiah is called a prophet in his book 31 times (20:2; 25:2; 28:6, 10-15; 29:1, 29; 32:2; 34:6; 36:8, 26; 37:2-13; 39:9-14; 42:2-4; 43:6; 45:1; 46:1, 13; 47:1; 49:34; 50:1; 51:59). Habakkuk called himself a prophet 2 times (1:1; 3:1). Haggai called himself a prophet 5 times (1:1-3, 12; 2:1, 10). All the others are called prophets by virtue of their writings in which their predictions are found c The prophet evidently had been in intercessory prayer for Judah for some time, and it seemed he would never be heard by God. He longed for an answer, like the psalmist who was in deep distress (v 2; Ps. 18:6, 41; 22:24)

d Question 1. Next, v 12
e 7 sins of Judah (v 3-4):
1 Spoiling
2 Violence
3 Strife
4 Contentions
5 Violating the law
6 Injustice
7 The wicked oppressing the righteous
f 1st prophecy in Hab. (1:5-11, fulfilled). Next, 2:2

16 predictions-fulfilled:

1 Behold you among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I work a work in your days, which you will not believe, though it be told you (1:5; Acts 13:41)
2 I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land (1:6)
3 They will possess dwelling places that are not theirs
4 Their judgment and dignity will proceed of themselves (1:7)
5 Their horses will be swifter than leopards, and more fierce than the evening wolves (1:8)
6 Their horsemen will spread themselves
7 They will come from far
8 They will come as an eagle
9 They will come for violence (1:9)
10 They will sup up as the east wind 11 They will gather captives like sand
12 They shall scoff at kings (1:10)
13 They shall scorn princes
14 They shall deride every stronghold
15 They shall heap up dust and take it 16 Then, after he is victorious, his mind shall change, and he shall pass over and offend, imputing this power to his god (1:11)

g Quoted in Acts 13:41 of the spiritual wonders by the power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christians, which are rejected by the Jews at that time. The first application of this work of wonders was no doubt to the terrible destruction of Judah by the Chaldeans, a destruction which the Jews of that period did not believe could possibly happen. Evidently God supernaturally aided Nebuchadnezzar and his army, and they did wonders by such help from heaven. Thus, the work of wonders could refer to this supernatural aid. In a similar way Paul applied it to the work of wonders and miracles in his day, that is, the work being accomplished in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth h God is spoken of here as the agent raising up the Chaldeans. This emphasizes again the sovereignty of God over all creation. He has the power to raise up kingdoms and cast them down; and He does whatever is needed to fulfil His own word and bring about events He has predicted, to carry out His plan for man. He has foretold all major world powers from the earliest times until the 2nd advent of Christ, that is, powers which have to do with the fulfillment of His plan for Israel, and eventually for all men. He is under obligation to see that this plan is carried out and that certain kingdoms fall and others rise to fulfil it (note p, Dan. 10:13)
i 14fold description of Chaldeans:
1 Bitter (v 6)
8 Fierce (v 8)

904 CHAPTER 1

I Prayer against Israel (1:1-4)

THE[a] burden which Hăb-băk'-kuk[b] the prophet did see.
2 O LORD, [c]how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!
3 [d]Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for [e]spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.
4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

II Prophecy of dispersion (1:5-11). 1 God's work among the nations (Acts 13:37-41)

5 ¶ [f]Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and [g]wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

2 Babylonian captivity

6 For, lo, [h]I raise up the Chăl-dē'ans, that [i]bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.
7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.
8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.
9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.
10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall [j]heap dust, and take it.
11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, [k]imputing this his power unto his god.

III Testimony: God's character

12 ¶ [l]Art thou not [m]from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? [n]we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O [o]mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.
13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and [p]canst not look on iniquity: [q]wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?
14 [r]And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
15 [s]They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.
16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.
17 [t]Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2 905

I WILL stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

IV God's answer to Habakkuk. 1 Write the vision: reason

2 [u]And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.■
3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because [v]it will surely come, it will not tarry.

2 Contrasted characters

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but [w]the just shall live by his faith.

3 The greedy: their reward

5 ¶ Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, [x]he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as [y]hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:
6 [z]Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, [z]Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with [a]thick clay!
7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall [b]bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?
8 [c]Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

4 Woe to the covetous

9 ¶ Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!
10 Thou hast consulted shame

j This refers to the making of ramps up to the top of the wall of a city and taking it thereby (v 10) k All heathen nations, more or less, attributed their success to their idol gods. Nebuchadnezzar had several experiences demonstrating the foolishness of this program. He was brought down to know that Jehovah, the God of Israel, was the only true and living God (Dan. 2:46-48; 3:28-30; 4:32-37)

o 6 facts about God:
1 He is an eternal Being (v 12)
2 A holy Being
3 A just Being
4 A mighty Being
5 A pure Being (v 13)
6 A creative Being (v 14)
p God has to see sin and iniquity, but He does not and cannot countenance such. He keeps an accurate record of all evil and will judge every man according to what he has done-good or bad (Mt. 16:27; Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:12-16; 14:10; 2 Chr. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15) q God is not responsible for sin, even though He looks on it and does not stop it-though He permits free moral agents to commit it. He simply makes a record of every man's sins, warning all that He will bring them to judgment for wrong-doing a Being rebellious, covetous and promoting continual civil strife caused the destruction of many and these things were sin against the soul (v 10)

906 CHAPTER 3

V Prayer of Habakkuk (3:1-19). 1 For national revival

A PRAYER of Hă-băk'kuk the prophet upon [j]Shĭ-gī'o-nŏth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, [k]revive thy work in the midst of the [l]years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

2 God's thirtyfold greatness

3 God [m]came from Tē'man, and the Holy One from mount Pā'ran. Sē'lah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had [n]horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 [c]He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cŭ'shan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Mĭd'ī-an did tremble.

8 [b]Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon [c]thine horses and thy [d]chariots of salvation?

9 Thy [c]bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Sē'lah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Sē'lah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

3 Effect on Habakkuk

16 [f]When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

4 Sixfold consecration

17 ¶ [g]Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 [h]The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

b Questions 10-12. Last ones in Hab.
c His horses are mentioned twice in this prayer (v 8, 15); and they can be understood literally (2 Ki. 2:11; 6:14-17; Joel 2:4; Zech. 1:8; 6:1-6; Rev. 19:11, 14, 21)
d The chariots also can be taken literally (v 8; 2 Ki. 2:11-12; 6:14-17; Ps. 68:17; Joel 2:5; Zech. 6:1)

907 CHAPTER 1

I Immediate judgment on Judah. 1 Title, author, and historical background (2 Ki. 22:1-23:30; 2 Chr. 34-35)

THE word of the LORD which [c]came unto [d]Zĕph-a-nī'ah the son of Cū'shī, the son of Ged-a-lī'ah, the son of Ăm-a-rī'ah, the son of [e]Hĭz-kī'ah, [d]in the days of Jō-sī'ah the son of A'mon, king of Jū'dah.

2 Fourteenfold judgment: Babylonian captivity

2 [f]I will utterly [g]consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and [g]the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon [h]Jū'dah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; and I will [i]cut off the remnant of Bā'al from this place, and the name of [j]the Chĕm'a-rīms with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and [k]them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by [l]Mäl'cham;

6 And [m]them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

II The day of the Lord. 1 Nearness: seven classes punished

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for [n]the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice, that I will [o]punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such [p]as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that [q]leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the [r]fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Mäk'tesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that [s]bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm with candles, and punish the men that are [t]settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

2 Nearness: sevenfold character of that day; reason

14 [a]The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

CHAPTER 2 908

III Judgments on Gentiles by Babylon (Isa. 13-23; Jer. 45-49; Ezek. 25-32; Amos 1:1-2:3). 1 Fivefold admonition to Judah

GATHER yourselves together, yea, [b]gather together, O nation not desired;

2 [c]Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be [d]hid in the day of the LORD'S anger.

2 Against Philistia (Isa. 14:27)

4 [e] For [f]Gä'zä shall be forsaken, and Ăsh'ke-lŏn a desolation: they shall drive out Ăsh'dŏd at the noon day, and Ĕk'rŏn shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Chĕr'e-thītes! the word of the LORD is against you; O Că'nāan, the land of the Phĭl-ĭs'tĭnes, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Jū'dah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ăsh'kelŏn shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their

3 Against Moab and Ammon (Isa. 15:1 and Jer. 49:1, refs.)

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Mō'ab, and the revilings of the children of Am'mōn, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Iṣ'ra-el, [a]Surely Mō'ab shall be as Sōd'om, and the children of Am'mōn as Gō-mōr'rah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will [b]famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship [c]him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

4 Against Ethiopia (Isa. 18:1)

12 ¶ Ye Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anṣ also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

5 Against Assyria (Isa. 10:28, refs.)

13 And he will stretch out his hand [d]against the north, and destroy Ăs-sȳr'ĭ-ā; and will make Nĭn'e-veh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3 909

IV Fourteenfold moral state of Judah (Isa. 1:5, refs.)

[e]WOE to her that [f]is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 The just LORD [g]is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

7 I said, [h]Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, [i]howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

V The last days (Isa. 2:1, refs.). 1 Armageddon (Joel 3; Zech. 14)

8 ¶ Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my [j]determination is [k]to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. ●

2 Conversion of all nations

9 For then will I turn to the people a [l]pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ā my suppliants, even the [m]daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

3 Rebels purged from Judah

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away [n]out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave [o]in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The [p]remnant of Iṣ'ra-el shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

4 Messiah reigning in Zion (Isa. 4:2-4; 9:6-7; Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 20)

14 [q]Sing, O daughter of Zĭ'ŏn; shout, O Iṣ'ra-el; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

15 The LORD hath [r]taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Iṣ'ra-el, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, Fear thou not: and to Zĭ'ŏn, Let not thine hands be slack.

17 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

a Seeing the faithfulness of Abraham and knowing his traits (Gen. 18:19), caused God to have confidence in Israel that they would fear Him and receive instruction so that He would not have to deal with them as rebels and cut them off as apostate backsliders; but they disappointed Him and destroyed His confidence in them. Stubbornly they arose early to corrupt themselves in all their doings (v 7), God still knows though, that eventually He will be able to bring them to repentance and conformity to His will. To this end He is working. He has made numerous predictions concerning this and has revealed that it will be accomplished in the future tribulation (Zech. 12:10-13:1, 8-9; Rom. 11:25-29)
b God is as faithful to punish when men sin, as He is to bless when they obey (v 7; Zech. 13:8-9)
c 3rd and last prophecy in Zech. (3:8-20, unfulfilled)

28 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 Wait upon Me until the day that I rise up to the prey, for My determination is to gather the nations and assemble the kingdoms to pour out My indignation upon them, even My fierce anger (3:8)
2 All the earth will be devoured with the fire of My jealousy
3 Then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, to serve Him with one consent (3:9)
4 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My suppliants, even the daughter of My dispersed, shall bring My offering (3:10)
5 In that day you will be ashamed of all your doings, wherein you have transgressed against Me (3:11)
6 Then I will take away out of your midst them that rejoice in pride
7 You will no more be haughty because of My holy mountain
8 I will also leave in the midst of you an afflicted (not with sickness, for there will be no more disease in that day) and poor people; and they shall trust in the name of the Lord (3:12)
9 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity (3:13)
10 They will not speak lies
11 Neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth
12 They shall feed and lie down, and no man will make them afraid
13 The Lord will take away your judgments (3:15)
14 He will cast out your enemy
15 The King of Israel, even the Lord, will be in the midst of you
16 You will not see evil anymore
17 In that day it will be said to Jerusalem, Fear not; and to Zion, Let not your hands be slack (3:16)
18 The Lord your God in the midst of you is mighty and He will save you (3:17)
19 He will rejoice over you with joy
20 He will joy over you with singing
21 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly (3:18)
22 At that time I will undo all that afflict you (3:19)
23 I will save her that halts
24 I will gather her that is driven out
25 I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame
26 At that time I will bring you again and gather you to your own land (3:20)
27 I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth
28 I will turn back your captivity before your eyes
d The only time this word is found in Scripture (v 8). It is used of God planning to punish all nations at Armageddon. Determinate is used once of the counsel and knowledge of God concerning Christ (Acts 2:23). The word determined is used 10 times of God's plan (2 Chr. 25:16; Isa. 10:23; 19:17; 28:22; Dan. 9:24-27; 11:36; Acts 4:28; 17:26)

Zephaniah, hidden by Jehovah. 4 so-called:
1 The prophet (1:1)
2 A Levite (1 Chr. 6:36-38)
3 A priest (2 Ki. 25:18-30; Jer. 21:1; 29:25-29; 37:3; 52:24-29)
4 A returning exile (Zech. 6:10-14)

Josiah's reign (1:1)

Josiah began to reign about 53 years before the fall of Judah and the destruction of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and 80 years after the captivity of the 10 tribes by Assyria. Zephaniah began to prophesy before the reformation of Josiah was completed, for the remnant of Baal was not yet destroyed (v 1, 4. Cp. 2 Ki. 23). The prophecy therefore must have been given between the 12th to the 18th year of Josiah; this indicates that Zephaniah was a contemporary of Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel

Consume (1:3)

Take away, make an end of. Repeated 3 times here for emphasis (v 2-3). He will utterly consume

5 things God will consume:
1 Man — 4 Fish
2 Beasts — 5 Stumbling-blocks
3 Fowls

7 classes to be cut off (1:4):
1 Man from off the land (v 3)
2 The remnant of Baal (v 4)
3 The name of the Chemarims with the priests
4 Them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops (v 5)
5 Them that swear by Jehovah but serve Malcham
6 Them that turned back from the Lord
7 Them that have not sought Jehovah, nor inquired of Him (v 6)

The day of the Lord (1:7)

The mention of the day of the Lord in v 17-18 indicates that this section of the prophecy is to be fulfilled in the future, at the 2nd advent of Christ

14 facts about the day of the Lord:
1 It is the day of the Lord's sacrifice; this definitely refers to the destruction of the multitudes at the battle of Armageddon (v 7-8; Isa. 34:6; Jer. 46:10; Ezek. 39:17-21; Rev. 19:11-21)
2 His bidden guests in that day are to be the beasts and fowls who will eat the dead bodies -those slain at Armageddon (Ezek. 39:17-21; Mt. 24:27-28; Lk. 17:34-37; Rev. 19:17-21)
3 Princes, king's children, robbers, merchants, and all other classes will be destroyed in that day (v 8-18)
4 It will be a day of desolation and destruction of houses and vineyards, and especially of men who should have enjoyed their homes and crops (v 13)
5 It is a great day of the Lord (v 14)
6 A day of wrath (v 15)
7 A day of trouble and distress
8 A day of wasteness and desolation
9 A day of darkness and gloominess
10 A day of clouds and thick darkness
11 A day of trumpet and alarm (v 16)
12 A day of distress upon men so that they will walk like blind men (v 17)
13 A day of bloodshed
14 A day of the Lord's wrath when men will not escape (v 18)

7 classes to be punished (1:8):
1 Princes-king's children (v 8)
2 All such as are clothed in strange apparel (v 9)
3 Those that leap on the threshold (v 9)
4 Those that fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit
5 Merchant people (v 11)
6 Those that bear silver
7 Those settled on their lees (v 12)

5fold admonition of Judah (2:1):
1 Gather yourselves together (v 1)
2 Gather together, O nation not desired; before the Lord's anger come upon you (v 1-2)
3 Seek you the Lord (v 3)
4 Seek righteousness
5 Seek meekness: it may be that you shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger

8 facts about Jehovah (3:5):
1 He is just (v 5)
2 He is in the midst of His people
3 He will not commit sin
4 He brings judgment to light
5 He does not fail man
6 He punishes the nations (v 6)
7 He makes their streets waste and their cities desolate
8 He punishes His own people (v 7)

30 similitudes of Israel (Hos. 7:8):
1 Whore (1:2)
2 Divorcee (2:1-13) 1-5)
3 A divorcee remarried (2:14-23; 3:
4 A backsliding heifer (4:16)
5 Troops of robbers (6:9)
6 Heated oven (7:4-7)
7 An unturned cake (7:8)
8 A silly dove (7:11)
9 A deceitful bow (7:16)
10 A dishonored vessel (8:8)
11 A wild ass (8:9)
12 Wild grapes (9:10)
13 A first-ripe fig
14 An empty vine (10:1)
15 A working heifer (10:11)
16 Fallow ground (10:12)
17 A bird out of Egypt (11:11)
18 A dove out of Assyria
19 A morning cloud (13:3)
20 Early dew
21 Chaff
22 Smoke
23 A lily (14:5)
24 Lebanon (14:5-6)
25 An olive tree (14:6)
26 Corn (14:7)
27 Wine
28 Wind
29 A vine
30 A green fir tree (14:8)

Destruction of Ephraim (Hos. 8:1)

Again, the reason is clearly given for the destruction of Ephraim 12 reasons stated here:

1 They have transgressed My covenant
2 Transgressed My law
3 Cast off the thing that is good (v 3)
4 Set up kings without God (v 4)
5 Made princes without God
6 Made idols of gold and silver
7 Hired lovers (heathen) to help them instead of trusting Jehovah (v 9)
8 Made many altars of sin (v 11)
9 Counted God's word as a strange thing (v 12)
10 Have eaten the sacrifices
11 Forgotten their Maker (v 14)
12 Built temples to idols

10 curses for these sins:
1 War (v 1)
2 Defeat and pursuit by enemies (v 3)
3 They will be cast away (v 5)
4 Their idols will be broken (v 6)
5 They will reap the whirlwind (v 7)
6 Strangers will reap their crops
7 They will be swallowed up (v 8)
8 Dispersed among the Gentiles
9 God will punish them (v 13)
10 Their cities will be devoured by fire (v 14)

Law of prophetic perspective (Hos. 2:14)

The present dispensation of grace comes in between what was predicted to happen, as in v 13 and that predicted in v 14-between the judgment of God upon Israel which is referred to in v 11-13 and the future full restoration of Israel to eternal blessing referred to in v 14-23. There are many such examples in Scripture where a long time exists between the events mentioned in two statements. They come under what we call the law of prophetic perspective. See Law in Index

26 such examples in Scripture:
1 The whole pre-Adamite world and the reign of Lucifer and his fall come between Gen. 1:1 and 2
2 The present dispensation comes in, in the middle of Ps. 118:22
3 And in the middle of Isa. 9:6
4 The middle of Isa. 53:10
5 The middle of Isa. 61:2
6 The middle of Lam. 4:22
7 Between Dan. 9:26 and 27
8 Between Dan. 11:34 and 35
9 Between Hos. 2:13 and 14
10 Between Amos 9:11 and 12
11 Between Micah 5:2 and 3
12 Between Hab. 2:13 and 14
13 Between Zeph. 3:7 and 8
14 Between Zech. 9:9 and 10
15 In the middle of Mal. 3:1
16 In the middle of Mt. 10:23
17 In the middle of Mt. 12:20
18 Between Lk. 1:31 and 32
19 In the middle of Lk. 21:24
20 Between Acts 15:14 and 15-16
21 In the middle of 1 Cor. 15:23
22 In the middle of 1 Pet. 1:11
23 In the middle of Rev. 1:19
Sometimes two whole dispensations come in between verses or parts thereof. Points 24, 25, and 26 are 3 such examples:
24 Between Acts 17:30 and 31
25 Between the first part of 1 Cor. 15: 23 and 24
26 Between Eph. 1:9 and 10

4th prophecy in Hosea (Hos. 2:1)

18 predictions-fulfilled:
1 I will not have mercy upon her children (2:4)
2 I will hedge up your way with thorns, and make a wall, that she will not find her paths (2:6)
3 She will follow after her lovers, but she will not overtake them (2:7)
4 She will seek them, but shall not find them
5 Then she will say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then it was better with me than now
6 I will return, and take away My corn in the time thereof (2:9)
7 I will take away My wine
8 I will recover My wool and My flax that I gave to cover her nakedness
9 I will discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers (2:10)
10 None will deliver her out of My hand
11 I will cause all her mirth to cease
12 I will cause her feast days to cease
13 I will cause her new moons to cease
14 I will cause her sabbaths to cease
15 I will cause her solemn feasts to cease (2:11)
16 I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, and make them a forest (2:12)
17 The beasts of the field will eat them
18 I will visit upon her the days of Baalim (2:13)

24 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 I will allure her (2:14)
2 I will bring her into the wilderness
3 I will speak comfortably unto her 4 I will give her vineyards from thence 5 I will give her the valley of Achor for a door of hope (2:15)
6 She will sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as the day when she came out of the land of Egypt
7 In that day you will call Me Ishi; you will call Me Baali no more (2:16)
8 I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth (2:17)
9 They will be remembered by their name no more
10 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the fowls of heaven, and the creeping things of the ground (2:18)
11 I will break the bow and sword and the battle out of the earth
12 I will make them lie down safely
13 I will betroth you unto Me forever (2:19)
14 I will betroth you in righteousness, judgment, lovingkindness, and mercies
15 I will even betroth you unto Me in faithfulness (2:20)
16 You will know the Lord
17 In that day I will hear the heavens
18 The heavens will hear the earth
19 The earth will hear the corn, wine, and oil (2:21-22)
20 They will hear Jezreel (2:22)
21 I will sow her unto Me in the earth
22 I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy (2:23)
23 I will say to them which are not My people, You are My people
24 They will say, You are my God

The above predictions of Israel being redeemed again and becoming the wife of Jehovah a second time will be fulfilled in the last 3 1/2 years of this age. The prophecy should be studied in connection with Rev. 12-a passage with similair predictions of Israel going into the wilderness where God will plead with them like He did through Moses and Aaron in coming out of Egypt. See p. 307 of the N. T.

5 Restoration of Israel

18 a I will b gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.
19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that c afflict thee: and I will save her that d halteth, and gather her that e was driven out; and I will e get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.
20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your b captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

Summary of Zephaniah

Date and place: written in Palestine about 679-648 B.C.
Author: Zephaniah the prophet

Proof of authorship: we have the testimony of the book itself that Zephaniah wrote it (1:1)

Theme: judgment of God upon both Jews and Gentiles for their many sins; and His goodness to the godly of both classes. The book opens with a message regarding immediate judgment upon Judah by Babylon, then depicts their judgment in the future day of the Lord (1:1-18). Chapter 2 is devoted to immediate judgments of God upon Gentiles by Babylon-Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia, and Assyria. The prophet then returns to the immediate judgment upon Judah by Babylon, and also makes predictions regarding Israel in the future day of the Lord, in the reign of the Messiah (3:1-20)

Purpose: to make it clear to Judah that unless they would consecrate to do the will of God judgment would surely come; and to encourage the godly of the nation regarding the fact that final and complete restoration under the Messiah would come

Statistics: 36th book of the Bible; 3 chapters; 53 verses; 1,617 words; no questions; 14 commands; 4 promises; 86 predictions; 45 verses of prophecy; 5 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 40 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and 4 distinct messages from God (1:2; 2:1; 3:1, 8)

910 CHAPTER 1

I Occasion and theme

1 IN the [c]second year of Dā-rī'us the king, in the [b]sixth month, in the [c]first day of the month, came the word of the LORD [d]by Hăg'ga-ī [a]the prophet unto [f]Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of [g]Shĕ-ăl'-tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and [h]to Jŏsh'u-a the son of [i]Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people /say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

II Prophecy to restored Judah. 1 Ninefold judgment: reason (cp. Isa. 5:5, refs.)

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hăg'ga-ī the prophet, saying,

4 [k]Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts; [l]Consider your [m]ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [n]Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and [o]build the house; [p]and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. [q]Why? saith the LORD of hosts. [r]Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 [s]Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

2 The work encouraged (Ezra-Nehemiah)

12 ¶ [t]Then Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'tī-el, and Jŏsh'-u-a the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Hăg'ga-ī the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 [u]Then spake Hăg'ga-ī the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD [v]stirred up the spirit of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and the spirit of Jŏsh'-u-a the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 [a]In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'us the king.

911 CHAPTER 2

III Message on the temples. 1 Concerning Solomon's temple

1 IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Hăg'ga-ī, saying,

2 Speak now to Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'tī-el, governor of Jū'dah, and to Jŏsh'u-a the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 [c]Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 [d]Yet now [e]be strong, O Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Jŏsh'u-a, son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 [f]According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of E'gypt, so [g]my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

2 Renovation of the heaven and the earth (Heb. 1:10; 12:25-29; 2 Pet. 3:6-13; Rom. 8:19-23)

6 [h]For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [i]Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

3 Messiah's second advent and the millennial temple (Ezek. 40)

7 [j]And I will shake all nations, and [k]the desire of all nations shall come: and [l]I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

IV Message to the priests. 1 Questions: right answers

10 ¶ [m]In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD by Hăg'-ga-ī the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [n]Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the a This message is dated the 2nd year of Darius the king, who was Darius I of profane history, or Hystapis. This was 16 years after the decree by Cyrus (Ezra 1:1-4)

5 distinct messages of Haggai:
1 The 1st day of the 6th month of the 2nd year of Darius I (1:1-11)
2 The 24th day of the 6th month of the 2nd year of Darius I (1:12-15)
3 The 21st day of the 7th month of the 6th year of Darius I (2:1-9)
4 The 24th day of the 9th month of the 2nd year of Darius I (2:10-19)
5 The 24th day of the 9th month of the 2nd year of Darius I (2:20-23)

b This would be our August-September c The 1st day would be the time of the feast-day or sabbath of the full moon d Haggai, festival. The first prophet after the captivities to Babylon (v 1, 3, 12; 2:1, 13-14, 20; Ezra 5:1; 6:14)
e See note b, Hab. 1:1
f Zerubbabel, sown in Babylon. Of the royal line of Judah through David - governor of Judah as a Persian province (v 1, 12-14; 2:2-4, 21-24; 1 Chr. 3: 19; Ezra 2:2; 3:2, 8; 4:2-3; 5:2; Neh. 7:7; 12:1, 47; Zech. 4:6-10). Called Zorobabel (Mt. 1:12-13; Lk. 3:27)
g Shealtiel, I have asked of God, Son of Jechoniah or Jehoiachin, king of Judah, who was taken captive to Babylon (v 1, 12, 14; 2:2, 23; Ezra 3:2, 8; 5:2). Called Salathiel (1 Chr. 3:17; Mt. 1: 12; Lk. 3:27)
h Joshua, Jehovah is salvation. First high priest after the captivities to Babylon (v 1, 12-14; 2:2-4; Zech. 3:1-9; 6: 11). See Joshua in Index
i Josedech, Jehovah is righteous (v 1, 12-14; 2:2-4; Zech. 6:11)
j This proves that the building of the temple after the captivities had not yet begun (v 2)
k Question 1. Next, v 9
l 9 commands in book of Haggai:
1 Consider your ways (1:5, 7)
2 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood (1:8)
3 Build the house
4 Speak now to Zerubbabel (2:2)
5 Be strong (2:4)
6 Fear ye not (2:5)
7 Ask now the priests (2:11)
8 Consider now from this day and upward, consider it (2:18)
9 Speak to Zerubbabel (2:21)
m 5 experiences of returned exiles:
1 Sow much, bring in little (v 6)
2 Eat, but do not have enough
3 Drink, but not filled
4 Clothed, but with not enough to keep warm
5 Earn wages which do not meet needs n Consider occurs 5 times (v 5, 7; 2:15, 18)
o The returning exiles were commanded to gather material and build the temple, with the view of starting the ancient Mosaic worship again (v 8) p 2 promises to Israel concerning temple:
1 I will take pleasure in it (v 8)
2 I will be glorified
q Question 2. Next, 2:3
r 2 reasons Jews did not prosper:
1 Because God's house was waste and no effort was made to rebuild it (v 9)
2 Because every man was selfish and all provided themselves with houses and enjoyed them; there was no concern for the house of God s 3 curses for neglecting God's house:
1 No dew from heaven (v 10)
2 No crops
3 Drought upon the land, mountains, corn, new wine, oil, crops, men, cattle, and labor of man (v 11)
t Then-when Haggai gave God's message commanding the rebuilding of the temple, the people obeyed the voice of the Lord and the words of the prophet; and they feared the Lord (v 12) u Then-when the people obeyed the word of the Lord, agreeing to rebuild the temple, Haggai gave his second message to them, saying, I am with you, saith the Lord (v 13)
v The secret of accomplishing any work for God-if men will obey as directed (v 14). It is remarkable that all the rulers and people were stirred to obey-

a It is questioned by some whether the second message of Haggai of v 13 was uttered on this date; but there is nothing to the contrary. At least, it is a distinct message from that of v 3-11 b About one month and 3 days after the work on the temple, of 1:12-15, was encouraged, Haggai gave another message to Judah-the third one (v 1-9). The actual work on the temple was not begun until the 24th day of the 9th month (v 18) c Questions 3-5. Next, v 11 d After asking questions regarding who had seen the first temple and how they saw it now (in desolation) compared to Solomon's temple, God then encouraged the people to be strong, and work, for He was with them (v 4-5)
e Used 3 times for emphasis (v 4) f Here God renewed His original covenant with them, as made when He brought them forth from the land of Egypt. From His standpoint it had never been changed; it had been broken only by Israel, and this was the reason for all the judgments which had come upon them. Now that they were ready to obey and carry out the terms of the contract He was ready to bless them again and fulfil to the letter all that He had promised (v 5). It is the same regarding the new covenant. If men will obey, He will bless; but if they disobey He will curse, regardless of how much fellowship and consecration have been previously experienced. One thing, and one thing alone, will cut men off from God, in any age and under any contract-sin. This is even true of angels and other beings. Sin is sin in the eyes of God; and He makes no pets of any, whether of the human race or otherwise. The penalty has to be executed according to the sin committed g My Spirit remains among you (v 5). This could only refer to the Holy Spirit speaking by the prophets, and to His anointing and blessing upon all who, under the old covenant, believed and obeyed (Neh. 9:20; Isa. 63:10-14)
h 1st prophecy in Hag. (2:6-9, unfulfilled). Next, v 18

6 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea and dry land (2:6)
2 I will shake all nations (2:7)
3 The desire of all nations shall come
4 I will fill this house with glory (2:9)
5 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former 6 In this place I will give peace

i See Future renovation of earth, p. 915
j Not only will God shake the heavens and the earth in the renovation at the end of the Millennium (v 6), but He will also shake all nations at the beginning of the Millennium (v 7). That this refers to a time at the beginning is clear from the fact that it will take place when the desire of all nations shall come, and when God fills the temple with His glory. God's glory never did fill the temples of Zerubbabel and Herod; and it will not fill the future tribulation temple; but it will fill the millennial house, as described in Ezek. 43:7; 44:4

far different from what it had been about 70 years before and during this time, when not a leader and but few of the people listened to Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel and others who proclaimed God's message to them. If they had listened to these others they would not have gone into captivity; but they would not hear. Now, after the complete destruction of their society and worship which had continued over 1,000 years, they were ready to listen with fear (v 12-15) skirt of his garment, [a]and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 [b]Then said Hăg'ga-ī, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

2 Application to Judah

■14 [c]Then answered Hăg'ga-ī, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer is unclean.

▶19 [g]Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: [h]from this day will I bless you.

V Messiah's second advent to overthrow Gentile nations

■20 ¶[i]And again the word of the LORD came unto Hăg'ga-ī in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

§21 [j]Speak to Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, governor of Jū'dah, saying, I will [k]shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will [l]overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, [m]every one by the sword of his brother.

■23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, my servant, the son of Shĕ-ăl'tĭ-el, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have [n]chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

a To this the priests agreed-that if any did carry meat in their garments and touched other things with their skirts-bread, pottage, wine, or oil- they would be unclean (v 12). This would necessitate cermonial cleansing before the priestly work could be carried on again

b Then-after the prophet received a clear answer to the first question he asked another-if one who is unclean by a dead body touches bread, pottage, wine, oil or something else would it be unclean? The priests agreed that it would be (v 13) c Then-after receiving a definite answer to both his questions, the prophet made an application to Israel. Just as these things would be unclean if touched by an unclean person or thing, so the people or nation of Israel were unclean as well as the work of their hands and the things they offered (v 14). Now, however-from this day and upward-they were to be blessed (v 15-19)

d This verse pictures the curse that was upon Israel up to the obedience of the people in building the temple. Having been cursed with blasting and mildew and hail, their crops were not as in normal times. Instead of 20 measures to an heap they harvested only 10; and their vineyards produced only 20 vessels of wine instead of the usual 50 (v 16-17). This is what Moses said God would bring to pass if Israel failed to obey (Dt. 28:22)

e 2nd prophecy in Hag. (2:18-19, fulfilled). Next, v 21. The prediction was that from that day and forward-from the laying of the temple foundation, God would bless them with crops and in every other way, as He had promised for obedience in Lev. 26 and Dt. 28

f This shaking of the heavens and the earth will take place first at the 2nd advent of Christ and the day of the Lord, and even during the tribulation preceding this (v 21; Rev. 6:12-17; 16:17-21); it will happen again in a more complete sense at the renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire (v 21; 2:6; Heb. 1:10-12; 12:26-27; 2 Pet. 3:10-13, notes)

g The overthrow of thrones and the destruction of the power of the kingdoms of the heathen will be at the 2nd advent of Christ when He takes over all the kingdoms of this world (v 22; Isa. 63:1-5; Ezek. 38-39; Zech. 14:1-21; Lk. 1:32-33; 2 Th. 1:7-10; 2:8-12; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21)

h Figurative of many being killed this way (v 21; Zech. 14:12-13). The same meaning should be given here as to the word all, as on p. 308 of N. T.

i God revealed His choice of Zerubbabel as governor of Judah; he was to be the Lord's signet or seal (v 23). It is clear that no king was chosen for Israel after the captivities. Zerubbabel was called governor (1:1, 14; 2:2, 21; Zech. 9:7; 12:5-6). God had sworn that no man of Jehoiachin or Jeconiah, also called Coniah, would ever rule as king in Israel again, and this has been literally true (Jer. 22:30, note). Israel was to abide many days without a king, prince, sacrifice, and ephod, or a teraphim before being restored as a kingdom under the Messiah and David (Hos. 3:4-5; Acts 15:13-18)

The desire of all nations (2:7):

The word desire is put here for the object of the desire, which does not consist of things; it must refer then to Him alone, who can and will satisfy the desire of all nations. Cp. 1 Sam. 9:20; 2 Chr. 21:20. In the day of fulfillment there will be a universal longing for deliverance, peace, and safety which only God can bring. First, the world will be deceived into thinking that Antichrist can meet that universal desire, since he will claim to be God and Christ combined; but sudden destruction will come upon them (1 Th. 5:1-3; 2 Th. 2:3-4). Then the desire which they thought would be realized in Antichrist will be fulfilled in Jesus Christ, at His 2nd advent. The longing really centers around that which the person will bring to the nations-not silver and gold, but light and truth to disperse darkness and ignorance, liberty to do away with slavery, moral restoration to dispel depravity, salvation to dispel ruin, and peace and prosperity to do away with wars and insecurity. Since the passage has a latter-day fulfillment it should be understood in the light of the 2nd advent of Christ who will accomplish all this-and not to a universal desire of nations at His first advent. In His day all nations will be blessed in Him (Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4:1-6; Zech. 14:9, 16-21)

Future glory (2:7)

This also has a latter-day application, for every other statement is definitely to be fulfilled in the end time (v 7-9). Hence, it refers to the glory that will come to the latter house in the Millennium. It seems from the statements this house and this latter house that the reference is primarily to Zerubbabel's temple, but it could be understood of the new temple which will be built in the day of the fulfillment of the entire prophecy-in the day of the Lord and the 2nd advent of Christ. Not only do we have the time element to consider here, but the statement of the house being greater in glory than Solomon's temple (v 9), which could never apply to the temple of Zerubbabel, that of Herod, or even the one in the tribulation period. It could only apply to the millennial temple which Christ will build when He comes (Ezek. 43:1-7; 44:4; Zech. 6:12-13). All 6 predictions of this prophecy await fulfillment at the 2nd advent of Christ

Summary of Haggai

Date and place: written in Palestine about 557-525 B.C.

Author: Haggai (1:1-3, 13; 2:1, 10, 13; 2:20)

Theme: the unfinished temple being built to restore the worship of God at Jerusalem, after the Babylonian captivities. Haggai was specifically raised up of God to encourage the exiles returned from Babylon that they might take fresh hope and build. In his book he rebukes the people for living in ceiled houses and at ease while the house of God lies waste (1:2-15). He gives a message to the leaders of the new nation of Israel, urging them to be strong because of God being with them to help them in all their problems. He points to the day of future glory for the new temple; and also speaks of future and eternal glory of the Messiah (2:1-9). Twice he refers to the future renovation of the heavens and earth by fire at the end of the Millennium (2:6, 20-23). See Heb. 12:24-28, notes; 2 Pet. 3:5-13, notes. The prophet refers to the Messiah as the desire of all nations (2:7, note)

Statistics: 37th book of the Bible; 2 chapters; 38 verses; 1,131 words; 8 questions; 9 commands; 3 promises; 14 predictions; 9 verses of prophecy; 6 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 3 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and 5 main distinct messages from God (1:1, 12; 2:1, 10, 20). See note a, 1:1. These 5 messages could be broken down to no less than 23 distinct parts, for in them the prophet makes 23 claims that God spoke by him (1:1-3, 5, 7, 12-13; 2:1, 4, 6-11, 14, 17, 20, 23)

Travail of Israel (Mic. 5:3)

Israel is often pictured as a woman in travail (v 3; 4:9-10; Isa. 66:7-8; Jer. 30:6-9; Mt. 24:8; Rev. 12). They are the only people spoken of in Scripture as going through travail in the last days

2 future travails of Israel:

1 When she brings forth the manchild of Rev. 12:1-6 (v 3; Jer. 30:6-9)

2 When she travails for herself to be born again in a day at the 2nd advent of Christ (v 3; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)

The travail of v 3 can apply to both future experiences of Israel-when she brings forth the manchild, and when she, herself is delivered. The first travail is to take place before her travail for herself, for according to Isa. 66:7-8 before her travail when she was to be delivered, she brought forth a manchild. In the fulfillment, after this travail she will flee into the wilderness of Edom and Moab where she will be for 3 1/2 years; then she will travail for herself and be delivered or born again in a day at the 2nd advent of Christ (Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29)

5 great latter-day truths (Mic. 4:13)

1 Only Israel will fight with Christ against the Antichrist and his armies (v 13; Zech. 14:14)

2 God will make their horn iron (v 13)

3 He will make their hoofs brass (v 14). Both these expressions-this one and the one about making their horn iron-are symbolic of the strength of oxen treading on the threshing floor, to which Armageddon is compared; and they refer to the completeness of the destruction of the opposing armies under Antichrist (Isa. 41:15; Jer. 51:33.) God has promised that every soldier in Israel's army will be like an hearth in the fire among the wood, like a torch among the sheaves, and like David-devouring their enemies (Zech. 12:5-9)

4 They will beat in pieces the many nations gathered against them (v 13; Zech. 12:1-9; 14:14-15)

5 The wealth of the nations will be consecrated to God (v 13; Zech. 14:14)

Future renovation of earth (2:6)

Quoted in Heb. 12:26-27 of the future renovation of the heavens and the earth by fire, when certain things will be removed and others will remain. One which will remain will be the kingdom, as stated by Paul, and which proves it will be eternal. We know that the earth and the heavens are also eternal, for that is so stated many times in Scripture (Ps. 72:17; 89:29-37; 104:5; Eccl. 1:4). See notes on 2 Pet. 3:10-13

3 perfect earths; 3 sinless careers and 2 sinful careers of the earth:

1 First perfect earth: when it was first created in the beginning (Gen. 1:1; Eccl. 3:11) a This was the actual day of the laying of the temple foundation-the 24th day of the 9th month (v 19)

b Question 8, Last one in book of Haggai

c From this day I will bless you (v 19). Many times, in the lives of individuals, God has started His blessings on a certain day (Josh. 3:7); and the same is true regarding a nation (Ex. 12:14; Dt. 2:25)

d The fifth and last message of Haggai to Israel (note a, 1:1). This one was delivered the same day the temple foundation was laid (v 18, 20)

e 3rd and last prophecy in Hag. (2:21-23, unfulfilled)

7 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will shake the heavens and the earth (2:21)

2 I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms (2:22)

3 I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen

4 I will overthrow the chariots and those that ride in them

5 I will overthrow the horses and their riders

6 They will be slain every one by the sword of his brother

7 In that day I will take you, O Zerubbabel, My servant, and will make you as a signet: for I have chosen you (2:23)

2 First sinless career of the earth: when Lucifer and the pre-Adamites lived without sin (Gen. 1:1; Ezek. 28:11-17)

3 First sinful career of the earth: when Lucifer, the pre-Adamites, and over 1/3 of God's angels rebelled (Gen. 1:2; Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17). See The pre-Adamite world, p. 54

4 First imperfect earth: when cursed and flooded at the fall of Lucifer and the pre-Adamites (Gen. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:5-6)

5 Second perfect earth: when God restored it to a second habitable state (Gen. 1:3-2:25; Ex. 20:9-11)

6 Second sinless career of the earth: when Adam and Eve lived without sin (Gen. 2:7-35)

7 Second sinful career of the earth: from the time when Adam and Eve sinned until now (Gen. 3; Rom. 5:12-21). This sinful career will continue until the end of the Millennium (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 20:1-10)

8 Second imperfect earth: when cursed at the fall of Adam and Eve (Gen. 5)

9 Third perfect earth: when it will be renewed and made perfect again at the end of the Millennium (Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:5-13; Rev. 21-22)

10 Third and eternal sinless career of the earth: when man will continue eternally without sin (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21-22)

a The 8th month of the 2nd year of Darius I was 2 months after Haggai began to prophesy (v 1 with Hag. 1:1), or about one month after the temple foundation was laid in Jerusalem (v 1 with Hag. 2:18)

h See 10 visions of Zechariah, p. 928
i The riders of the horses-red, speckled, and white-are invisible agencies of God sent forth into the earth to accomplish various missions. They are God's scouts that report conditions to Him. These reported that all the earth was still and at peace (v 8-11). The horses are not symbolic at all, but real and literal creatures, actual spirit horses created to live on the planet heaven and used by those going back and forth between earth and heaven for the purpose seen here, and perhaps in many other capacities. That spirit horses do exist is clear from v 8-11; 6:1-8; 2 Ki. 2:11; 6:14-17; Rev. 19:11-21 j Heb. sarup, bright red; bay. The Heb. for red here is adom, rosy; or ruddy. One was bright red and the other a lighter color, a rosy red (v 8; 6:1-8)
k Question 4, Next, v 12
l This Angel was the same as the man among the myrtle trees, of v 8-10. The other riders were angels. The passage affirms this fact, that both God and angels can and do ride horses-spirit horses

7 proofs this Angel was God:
1 Zechariah addressed Him as Lord (1:9, 13, 20)
2 He spoke as God (1:14-17)
3 Others reported to Him (1:11)
4 He called Himself Lord (2:3, 5)
5 As Lord He rebuked Satan (3:1-2)
6 He gave commands to others, as God, using such terms as My ways, My charge, My house, My courts, My servant the Branch (3:3-8)
7 He called Himself the Lord of hosts (3:9; 4:6)

m The riders on the other horses are explained to be persons whom the Lord had sent forth to walk to and fro through the whole earth (as scouts) to report regarding conditions in the various nations (v 10-11). This is evidently one of the ways God receives information concerning many things. See Gen. 11:5-8; 18:20-22; 22:12

o 4th prophecy in Zech. (2:1-13, unfulfilled). Next, 3:8

8 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein (2:4)
2 I will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her (2:5)
3 You will be gathered from the land of the north and from the 4 winds where I have scattered you (2:6)
4 I will come and dwell in the midst of you (2:10)
5 Many nations shall be joined to the Lord in that day, and shall be My people (2:11)
6 I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the Lord has sent Me unto you
7 The Lord shall inherit Judah His portion in the holy land (2:12)
8 I will choose Jerusalem again p Measuring in this passage refers to the restoration and enlargement of Jerusalem under the Messiah, who is spoken of here as being sent of God to be in the midst of Israel (v 1-3, 9-12)

912 CHAPTER 1

I Message to restored Judah. 1 Title, author, and historical background (Ezra 6:1, 12, 15)

IN the [a]eighth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD [b]unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of [c]Bĕr-e-chi'ah, the son of [d]Id'dō the prophet, saying,

2 Admonition to return to God

2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.
3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [e]Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.◂
4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.
5 [f]Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

II Ten visions (1:7-6:8).
1 First vision: (1) Spirit horses (6:1-8; 2 Ki. 6:17; Rev. 19:14)

7 [g]Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'băt, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Bĕr-e-chi'ah, the son of Id'dō the prophet, saying,
8 [h]I saw by night, and behold [i]a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, [j]speckled, and white.

(2) Invisible agencies of God

9 Then said I, [k]O my lord, what are these? And [l]the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.
10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, [m]These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.
11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

(3) Judgment on Judah's enemies

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, [n]how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm and on the cities of Jū'dah, against which thou hast had indignation these [o]three-score and ten years?
13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.
14 So the angel that [p]communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [q]I am jealous for Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm and for Zī'ŏn with a great jealousy.
15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

(4) Judah yet to be restored

16 [r]Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a[s]line shall be stretched forth upon Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm.
17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zī'ŏn, and shall yet choose Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm.

2 Second vision: four horns

18 [t]Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold [u]four horns.
19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, [v]What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have [w]scattered Jū'dah, Is-ra-el, and Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm.

3 Third vision: four carpenters

20 [x]And the LORD shewed me four [y]carpenters.
21 Then said I, [z]What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gĕn'tiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Jū'dah to scatter it.

913 CHAPTER 2

4 Fourth vision: (1) Man with the measuring line

1 [a]LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a [b]measuring line in his hand.
2 Then said I, [c]Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jĕ-ru-sā-lĕm, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.
3 And, behold, the angel that

a Question 5, Next, v 19
b This was to be the whole time of the Babylonian captivity (v 12; Jer. 25:11-12; Dan. 9:2). At this point both Daniel and the Angel were concerned about the fulfillment of the predictions of Jer. 24. Since this Angel was one of the Divine Persons of the Trinity, it demonstrates that God was as interested in the return of Israel, after the 70 years, as Daniel. God does not forget His predictions c The Lord God now spoke to the Angel who talked with the prophet; and His words were good and comfortable, which He passed on to Zechariah (v 13-19)
d Angels can commune with men (v 14; Heb. 1:14; note n, Heb. 13:1)
e 3fold displeasure of God:
1 I am jealous for Zion and Jerusalem with great jealousy (v 14)
2 I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease (v 15)
3 I was but a little displeased with them until they helped forward the affliction of My people f 1st prophecy in Zech. (1:16-17, fulfilled). Next, v 18

6 predictions-fulfilled:
1 I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies (1:16)
2 My house shall be built in it
3 A line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem (she shall be enlarged)
4 My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad (1:17)
5 The Lord will yet comfort Zion
6 The Lord will yet choose Jerusalem

g The measuring line for rebuilding the city (v 16-17; 2:1-9)
h 2nd prophecy in Zech. (1:18-19, partly fulfilled). Next, v 20. This prophecy of the scattering of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem was fulfilled 749 B.C. by Assyria (2 Ki. 17), 616 B.C. by Babylon (2 Ki. 24-25), and 70 A.D. by Rome; and the Jews will be driven out of Palestine once more in the future days of Antichrist (Dan. 11:41-45; Rev. 12:6, 14)
i 4 horns. Horns are symbolic of kings and kingdoms (v 18-19; Dan. 7:8, 23-24; Rev. 17:12-17); this refers to 4 kings or Gentile powers that would be permitted to scatter Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem (v 17). Since v 16-17 predict a future restoration under the Messiah, it is only logical to think that the 4 horns which did this before Zechariah's day are not the only powers referred to; others must be included who would scatter them after the prophet's day up to the time of the future fulfillment of the regathering under Christ. This line of thought better fits the exact facts of history and prophecy. Of the 8 great world powers who oppressed Israel, in the whole length of the times of the Gentiles, only 4 empires have scattered and will yet scatter Israel, Judah, and Jerusalem. See The times of the Gentiles, p. 873

4 Gentile powers scattering:
1 Assyria (2 Ki. 15:29; 17:1-41)
2 Babylon (2 Ki. 24:1-25:30)
3 Rome (Dan. 9:26; Lk. 21:20-24)
4 Future Revived Greece (Rev. 12:6, 14)

4 Gentile powers not scattering:
1 Egypt (2 Ki. 23:33-37)
2 Medo-Persia (Ezra 1:1-4; Neh. 2)
3 Greece (Dan. 8:21)
4 Revised Rome (Dan. 7:23-24) talked with me went forth, and another angel went out[a] to meet him,

(2) Jerusalem under Messiah

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this[b] young man, saying, [c]Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her [d]a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the[e] midst of her.

(3) Israel regathered

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for [f]I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 [g]Deliver thyself, O Zī'ŏn, that dwellest with the daughter of Băb'ў-lon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [h]After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

(4) Messiah reigning in Zion

10 [i]Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zī'ŏn: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

(5) Conversion of all nations

11 And [j]many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt [k]know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit Jū'dah [l]his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm again.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his [m]holy habitation.

914 CHAPTER 3

5 Fifth vision: (1) Joshua the high priest and Satan

AND he shewed me [n]Jŏsh'u-á the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Sā'tan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Sā'tan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Sā'tan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm rebuke thee: [o]is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

(2) Priesthood restored (Ex. 28)

3 Now Jŏsh'u-á was clothed with [p]filthy garments, and [q]stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

(3) Charge to Joshua

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Jŏsh'u-á, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [r]If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, [s]then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and [t]I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

6 Sixth vision: (1) God's servant, the Branch

8 [u]Hear now, O Jŏsh'u-á the high priest, thou, and [v]thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, [w]I will bring forth my servant [x]the BRANCH.

(2) His anointing (Mt. 3:16, refs.)

9 For behold [y]the stone that I have laid before Jŏsh'u-á; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in [z]one day.

(3) Universal prosperity (Mic. 4)

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, [a]shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4 915

7 Seventh vision: (1) The golden candlestick and the two olive trees (Rev. 11:3-4)

AND [b]the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, [c]What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And [d]two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

(2) Anointing of Zerubbabel with the Spirit and power

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, [e]This is the word of the LORD unto Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, saying, Not by a 2 conditions of blessing (v 7):

1 If you will walk in My ways
2 If you will keep My charge

b 3 Blessings of obedience (v 7):
1 Then you shall also judge My house
2 You shall keep My courts
3 I will give you places to walk among those that stand by c This verse could be classed as conditional prophecy - the high priest receiving certain blessings if he met certain conditions. The places to walk are ways among the angels that stand by, in the presence of God. That it could refer only to angels is clear from the fact that they are all he saw in the vision thus far (v 1-6). Cp. Ps. 102:21; 2 Tim. 5:21; Heb. 1:14

d 5th prophecy in Zech. (3:8-10, unfulfilled). Next, 4:7
5 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 I will bring forth My servant the Branch (3:8)
2 Upon the stone that is laid before Joshua shall be 7 eyes (3:9)
3 I will engrave the engraving thereof
4 I will remove the iniquity of the land in one day
5 In that day you shall call every man from under his own vine and fig tree (3:10)

e Joshua, his fellow priests, and the Levites with him were to be something special-men to be wondered at, because of this holy life, walk, and work (v 8)

f It was to Joshua that the angel made the prediction concerning God's servant, the Branch, being sent from Jehovah as a Prince and a Saviour (v 8)

g The Branch was now made a proper name, by Zechariah, through inspiration. He is the man whose name is called the Branch (v 8; 6:12). Previously, prophets had predicted Him to be the branch of the Lord (Isa. 4:2), and the branch of David (Isa. 11:1; Jer. 23:5; 33:15)

h The stone here is symbolic of the Messiah, called the Branch (Isa. 28:16; Ps. 118:22; Mt. 21:42; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20-21; 1 Pet. 2:4-7). What is engraved upon the stone is not stated; but we do know that in that day the sins of Israel will be removed and there will be universal peace and prosperity (v 9-10). The 7 eyes no doubt refer to the same thing symbolized in 4:10 and Rev. 5:6, note d i The one day will be the day of Christ's visible return to earth when all Israel shall be saved and ungodliness turned from Jacob (Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rom. 11:25-29). Israel will mourn and repent for 3 days; on the 3rd day they will live (Hos. 6:2)

j This expression of sitting under the vines and fig trees is one of universal peace and prosperity (1 Ki. 4:25; Mic. 4:4). People calling their neighbors to eat with them in peace and prosperity is the idea here k The angel showing the prophet these visions came again and waked him, showing him a golden candlestick with a bowl on the top of it, having 7 lamps thereon, and 7 pipes to the lamps. He also showed the prophet 2 olive trees, one on the right and the other on the left side of the candlestick and its bowl. They poured oil into the bowl which fed the 7 lamps. The olive trees are explained to be the two anointed ones that stand before the Lord of the whole earth (v 11-14; Rev. 11:4)

l Questions 10-12. Next, v 7

m These symbolize the two witnesses of Rev. 11:3-11, the two anointed men who have been translated without death, to stand before the God of the whole earth (v 11-14; Rev. 11:4) n The purpose of this vision was to encourage Joshua and Zerubabbel in their work of restoring the temple and the nation of Judah after the Babylonian captivity. First they were shown that the true source of power was not by might, nor by human power, but by the Holy Spirit anointing (v 5-7); and Israel was assured that despite the hinderance of the work on the temple, Zerubbabel would finish it (v 8-10). Then, the angel explained what the 2 olive trees symbolized, further assuring Zerubbabel that God would be with him in his work as He was with the two anointed men now standing before Him (v 11-14) a This and many hundreds of other facts in Scripture about angels and other spirit beings, verify the fact that they are persons with personal bodies which are limited to one place at a time, that they go from place to place like human beings, and that they can contact each other and even men (v 3; note n, Heb. 13:2). See Spirit world in Index.

b Heb. na'ar, a boy from the age of infancy to adolescence; child; young man. According to this Zechariah was not an old man but a very young one when he began his ministry (v 4) c Jerusalem is the subject of this prophecy, not Samaria the capital of the 10 tribes, The capital of Judah, which means all Israel in the restoration, will be greatly enlarged and inhabited with an overflowing population. God will be like a wall of fire to her, round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her (v 5)

d The idea of the wall of fire is perhaps taken from the watch-fires around armies or the unwalled camps of nomad people (v 5, Cp. Isa. 26:1; 33:21; 60:18)

e Christ will be in the very midst of Israel, ruling personally and visibly on earth in those days (v 5; Isa. 9:6-7; 52:7; Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

f See Dispersion of Israel, p. 929

g This immediate gathering of Israel from Babylon is the reference here and not the present and future restoration. Zechariah lived and prophesied at the very time of the going back of the Jews from Babylon to make a nation in their own land for the first coming of Christ (v 7)

h See For His own glory, p. 929

i See Judah rejoicing, p. 929

j Many nations (Gentiles) shall be joined to the Lord and be the people of the Messiah when He dwells in the midst of men on earth (v 11; Dan. 7:13-14, 18, 22, 27; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

k When all the predictions of note o, 2:1 are fulfilled, Israel and the other nations will know fully that God has sent the Messiah (v 11). At that time the Lord shall inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land; He will choose Jerusalem again as His capital city (v 12), and be living in His holy habitation (v 13)

l If Judah here refers only to the actual tribe of Judah, or even included Benjamin, then the others of the 13 tribes will have no part in this program and will never be restored to their own land as predicted by scores of prophecies. A normal and simple understanding of the prophecies will not allow such exclusion of the 10 tribes though, so we must recognize the truth that Judah includes all the 13 tribes in the gathering of the final restoration. Only then will all prophecies regarding the gathering of both houses of Israel be fulfilled

m His holy habitation on earth will be the rebuilt earthly Jerusalem and the holy oblation and its temple (6:12-13; Ezek. 40-48); His heavenly habitation will be the New Jerusalem in particular during the Millennium (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 3:12, 21-22)

n This was not Joshua, the leader of Israel in the conquest of Canaan, but a high priest after the Babylonian captivity. Zechariah saw him standing before (in the presence of) the angel of the Lord, and Satan standing by to resist him. The Lord rebuked Satan and refused to permit him to stop the restoration of Judah and Jerusalem. Twice Satan was rebuked (v 1-2)

o Question 9. Next, 4:2

p Joshua was evidently ministering in garments that were not holy or proper for high priests. His filthy garments were taken away, his iniquity was cleansed, and he was clothed with the appropriate attire. The high priest's mitre was also placed upon his head (v 3-5). Then the angel that stood by gave him a charge concerning conditions he should meet to be the high priest, and be blessed (v 6-7). After that he was given a prophecy regarding the coming of the Messiah and the salvation of Israel (v 8-10)

q This is one of many personal and visible appearances of God and of angels to men. See 44 appearances of God, p. 63; note n, Heb. 13:2

might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

★7 [a]Who [b]art thou, O [c]great mountain? before Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth [d]the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

(3) Zerubbabel to finish the restoration temple

■8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 [e]For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl with [f]those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

(4) The olive trees explained (Rev. 11:3-4)

11 ¶Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

■12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5 916

8 Eighth vision: (1) Flying roll, 20 ft. 10 in. X 41 ft. 8 in.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a [g]flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the [h]length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

(2) This is the curse

★3 [i]Then said he unto me, [j]This is [k]the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name, and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall [l]consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

9 Ninth vision: (1) The Ephah

★5 ¶Then [m]the angel that [n]talked with me went forth, and said unto me, [o]Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.■

■6 And I said, [p]What is it? And he said, This is an [q]ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there [r]was lifted up a [s]talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

(2) This is wickedness

■8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

(3) Ephah taken to Shinar: literal Babylon rebuilt (Rev. 18)

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

■11 And he said unto me, [t]To build it an house in the land of Shi'när: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER 6 917

10 Tenth vision: (1) Four chariots and spirit horses (1:7, refs.)

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and [u]looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were [v]mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses.

(2) Invisible agencies: God's judgment from the north quieted (Jer. 1:13-16; 4:6; 13:20; 25:9; Ezek. 26:7)

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, [w]What are these, my lord?

■5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The [x]black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and [y]the grisled go forth toward the south country.

¶7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

■8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north

a 6th prophecy in Zech. (4:7-10, fulfilled). Next, 5:3
5 predictions-fulfilled:
1 Who are you, O great mountain? you will become a plain before Zerubbabel (4:7)
2 He shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings of Grace, grace
3 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of the house, and his hands will finish it (4:9)
4 You will know that the Lord of hosts has sent me to you 5 They shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven, which are the eyes of the Lord running to and fro through the whole earth (4:10)

b Question 13. Next, v 10

c The great mountain was symbolic of a great man, Darius I, who made a decree that the work on the temple should cease (Ezra 4). His opposition was to cease like a mountain being removed or becoming a plain (v 7; Ezra 5-6) d The headstone refers to the chief top-stone or crowning stone of the building. It was customary for the chief magistrate to lay the foundation and also the chief top-stone of the wall (Ezra 3:10). This was to be laid with shoutings of Grace, grace unto it (v 7)

e Questions 14-18. Next, 5:6

f Those 7 eyes in the stone of 3:9, which served as a plummet in the hands of Zerubbabel

g Then, after applying the message to Zerubbabel, the angel explained the full meaning of the olive trees. They represented the two anointed ones (men) who, having been translated without seeing death, stand before the God of all the earth until the time they are to appear on earth again as the two witnesses of Rev. 11:3-11 (v 14)

h Then, after the first 7 visions had been received, fully explained, and recorded, the angel showed him a flying scroll on which was written curses upon those who commit sin (v 1-4)

i Flying scroll

j The size of the scroll unrolled was 10 by 20 cubits-20 ft. 10 in. by 41 ft. 8 in., counting 25 in. to the cubit

k Then, after seeing the scroll and learning of its size, the prophet received an explanation of what it contained (v 3-4)

l 7th prophecy in Zech. (5:3-4, fulfilled). Next, v 5
6 predictions-fulfilled:
1 This is the curse that goes forth over all the earth, for everyone that steals will be cut off (5:3)
2 Everyone that swears shall be cut off
3 I will bring it forth (5:4)
4 It shall enter into the house of the thief
5 It shall enter into the house of him that swears falsely by My name
6 It shall remain in the midst of the house, and shall consume it with the timber and the stones thereof

m It seems the curse was limited to those who steal and lie, but perhaps many other sins were also listed on such a large scroll. We have a complete list in both the law and the gospels, as well as in the prophets and psalms

n The judgment against these evils was to be so fierce as to consume all the timbers and stones of the buildings of thieves and liars (v 4)

o Then, after showing the prophet the scroll vision, the angel showed him an ephah with a woman in it; this was symbolic of the next truth to Israel (v 5) p 8th prophecy in Zech. (5:5-11, unfulfilled). Next, 6:12

2 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 They will bear the ephah of wickedness to the land of Shinar to build an house (5:8-11)
2 It shall be established there upon her own base (5:11)

q When it is said that God or angels have talked with men we are to understand it in the literal sense. Heavenly beings have a language all their own (1 Cor. 13:1), yet they also know the languages of man. Even an ass has used man's language (Num. 22:28-30). Men can use angelic languages by the Spirit (1 Cor. 13:1) a The last two visions were of things flying in the air-a scroll and an ephah. Upon seeing the ephah the prophet inquired as to what it was and was told of the woman in the middle of the measure having a talent of lead for the lid on it. Two other women with wings like those of a stork lifted the ephah up between heaven and earth, then bore it to the land of Shinar and set it upon her base (v 6-11)

b Question 19. Next, v 10

c An ephah was a measure of about 1 bushel and 3 pints d When the lid, made of a talent of lead, was lifted up a woman was seen sitting in the middle of the ephah (v 7). A talent of lead weighed over 122 lbs., which was an extreme weight for a lid to an ephah; and yet it did not hold the woman (or wickedness) down. This illustrates the power of wickedness e The angel explained that this woman represented wickedness (v 8). The two women carrying the ephah seemed to be borne forward by the wind. What they symbolized, if anything, is not stated, nor are the wind and stork wings referred to in particular. The main theme of the vision was wickedness-building a house for it and establishing it upon its base. An ephah was a measure of commerce, and where it was to be established is clear-in the land of Shinar or Babylon (v 9-11). One thing is certain-Babylon will be the center of activities in the East during the last days, in commerce, religion, and politics. It will be rebuilt and become the capital of the Antichrist. He will come from Syria which will take in Babylon in those days, for the Syrian division of the old Grecian empire included all the countries of Syria and Irak. The coming of Antichrist from Syria and Babylon will be in perfect harmony with all scriptures. We see from Isa. 13-14; Jer. 50-51; Rev. 14:8; 16:17-21; 17:1-18; 18:1-24 that Babylon will play a great part in latter-day events, not only as the political capital of the kingdom of the Antichrist but as the headquarters for a religious system called Mystery Babylon. It will be a great commercial center of earth as pictured in Rev. 18. Antichrist will reign from Babylon during his rise to power over the 10 kingdoms of Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12-17, as taught in Isa. 14. Then, he will leave Babylon to make his capital in Jerusalem the last 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week, and will reign there during the 42 months of his power over all nations (Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; Rev. 13:5; 17:12-17). This passage (v 5-11) pictures the restoration of Babylon as the seat of wickedness in the last days

f Question 20. Next, 6:4

g To build wickedness a house in the land of Shinar-Babylon. It shall be built there and established there upon her base (v 11)

h This was the 10th time the prophet looked and saw a vision (v 1; note h, 1:8). This time 4 chariots came out from between mountains of brass, red horses being harnessed to the first, black horses to the 2nd, white horses to the 3rd, and grisled and bay horses to the 4th. These were explained to be the 4 spirits of the heavens which go from standing before the Lord of the whole earth. The black horses go to the north country, and the white after them; the grisled and bay horses go toward the south, and walk to and fro through the whole earth. A voice reported that those going north "have quieted My Spirit in the north country" (v 4-8). This must be taken literally of actual and real heavenly beings who are no doubt spirit creatures. That there are such horses and other creatures on the planet heaven, and no doubt, on other planets, is clear from the fact that the visible things on earth clearly show the invisible things in heaven (Rom. 1:20; 2 Ki. 2:11; 6:14-17; Rev. 19:

i See Mountain of brass, p. 929 11:21)

j Question 21. Next, 7:3

k The colors are not symbolic any more than the various colors of creatures on earth. They merely show that there are many varieties of created things in heaven, as we have on earth

l Grisled-speckled, or dappled, and of an iron gray color a This literally means they had appeased God's wrath being poured out upon the north country (v 8). By this time God had been angry with Israel for many years; but now His wrath was turned on the enemies of Israel, because they had overstepped their commission and had also fulfilled their time for punishment

b Zechariah was here commanded to take certain men of the Jews who had come back from Babylon - metal smiths, to make crowns for Joshua, the high priest (v 9-11). They were to be to them for a memorial in the temple of the Lord (v 14)

c 9th prophecy in Zech. (6:12-13, unfulfilled). Next, v 15

5 predictions - unfulfilled:
1 Behold, the Man whose name is the Branch; and He shall grow up out of His place, and build the temple of the Lord (6:12); even He shall build the temple of the Lord (6:13)
2 He shall bear the glory (6:13)
3 He shall sit and rule upon His throne
4 He shall be a priest upon His throne
5 The counsel of peace shall be between them both

d Speak to Joshua the high priest

e Christ is called the Man in both testaments (v 12; 1 Tim. 2:5). He is also called the Branch (v 12; 3:8; Isa. 4:2; 11:1; Jer. 23:5; 33:15)

f Technically, this one statement of this prophecy has already been fulfilled in the birth and first coming of Jesus Christ (v 12; Isa. 11:1; 53:2; Jer. 33:15). We have here one of many passages referring to the two advents of the Messiah, in one verse, as if they were the same; but we know now from the fulfillment of this first statement and the lack of fulfillment of the second that two distinct comings are referred to. Already there have been 1900 years between them

g See Rebuilding of the temple, p. 929

h Not only will He build the temple of the Lord at His 2nd advent, but Christ will also bear the glory, and rule upon His eternal throne as a King-priest (v 13). This will be the throne of David and the kingdom will be that of David restored to eternal glory and power (v 13; Isa. 9:6-7; Hos. 3:4-5; Amos 9:11-15; Lk. 1:32-33; Acts 15:13-16)

i This confirms the priesthood of Christ, as well as His kingship. He will be a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek (Ps. 110:4; Heb. 5:6, 10; 6:20; 7:1-21). Thus the 3fold office of Christ is: Prophet (Dt. 18:15-18), Priest (Ps. 110:4); and King (Ps. 2:6; Isa. 9:6-7; Mic. 5:2; Mt. 2:2; 21:5; 25:31, 34, 40; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

j This refers to both offices being combined in one person, the Lord Jesus Christ, with neither being exalted higher than the other. The kingship and priesthood of Israel will be combined in Christ, and there will be no enmity between the two offices as when two men filled them

k The memorial of crowns in the temple spoke of God's faithfulness in restoring the kingdom and priesthood to Israel through their Messiah (v 14)

l 10th prophecy in Zech. (6:15, fulfilled). Next, 8:3

3 predictions - fulfilled:
1 They that are afar off shall come and build in the temple of the Lord (6:15)
2 You shall know that the Lord of hosts has sent me unto you
3 This shall come to pass if you will diligently obey the voice of the Lord your God

m In the 4th year, the 4th day of the 9th month of the reign of Darius I, which was about 2 years after he began his ministry, certain men of the returned captives inquired of him concerning fasts (v 1-3). This means that Zechariah had received the 10 visions of chs. 1:1-6:8 during these 2 years

III Prophecies - sermons to encourage restored Judah (6:9-8:23). 1 A sign: (1) Joshua crowned

■9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
●10 aTake of them of the captivity, even of Hĕl'da-ī, of Tō-bī'jah, and of Jĕ-dā'iah, which are come from Bāb'ȳ-lon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Jō-sī'ah the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah;
●11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Jōsh'u-ā the son of Jōs'e-dĕch, the high priest;

(2) Messiah to build the millennial temple and be a priest-king in it (Ezek. 40:1-43:7) of which Joshua and the restoration temple were only types

●12 bAnd cspeak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold dthe man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and eshe shall build the temple of the LORD: ■

(3) Crowns a memorial of the faithfulness of God to Judah

14 And the crowns shall be to Hĕ'lem, and to Tō-bī'jah, and to Jĕ-dā'iah, and to Hĕn the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah, for ka memorial in the temple of the LORD.

(4) Many captives will come and help Zerubbabel build

CHAPTER 7 — 918

2 Inquiry of the fasts (Isa. 58)

AND it came to pass min the fourth year of king Dā-rī'us, that the word of the LORD came unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in nChis'leū;
2 When they had sent unto the house of God Shĕ-rē'zer and Rĕ'gem-mĕ'lech, and their men, to pray before the LORD.
3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, osaying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

3 God's answer: (1) Their fasts a mere form; they should have heeded the prophets

■4 ¶Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,
●5 Speak unto all the people of the land, band to the priests, saying, cWhen ye fasted and mourned in the dfifth eand seventh month, even fthose seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, geven to me?
6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat hfor yourselves, and drink for yourselves?
7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the iformer prophets, when Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

(2) Why their prayers were not heard and judgments had come

■8 ¶ And jthe word of the LORD came unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, saying,
●9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, kExecute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:
●10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.
11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.
12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: mtherefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.
13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:
14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

919 CHAPTER 8

(3) God's purpose still unchanged: Israel to be blessed

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zī'ŏn with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.
■3 cThus saith the LORD; pI am returned unto Zī'ŏn, and will dwell in the midst of Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm: and Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.
■4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; qThere shall yet old men and old women dwell in the a Then, when the Jews inquired about the fasts they had been observing for many years, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah rebuking them for their hypocrisy and revealing why their prayers had not been heard (7:5-14). There is no prediction in this section. The word of the Lord was not all prediction, but primarily instruction regarding how to live, showing what God's will is, in daily life. Cp. 1 Cor. 14:3

b Not only the people in general, but also the priests were living in hypocrisy. God accused them of not fasting once in the way that they should have, in all the 70 years of the captivity (v 5). What they did was from a selfish motive (v 6)

c Questions 23-25, Next, 8:6

d The month Ab, August. This was a fast to commemorate the destruction of Jerusalem. It was held on the 10th day of the month (Jer. 52:12-13)

e The 7th month, Tisri, October. On the 3rd day a fast was held to commemorate the murder of Gedaliah by Ishmael (Jer. 40:8; 41:1-3, 15-18)

f The 70 years of captivity (Jer. 25:11-14; Dan. 9:2)

g It is noticeable that not one of the feasts or fasts that God had commanded is even mentioned here. Every observance was something new which they had started and kept during the 70 years only; and each one had to do with calamity upon Jerusalem and the remnant left after the city was destroyed

h Not for God's glory, but for themselves, was the accusation of God here (v 6)

i The former prophets - the ones who were sent of God before the captivities and who had promised blessing and victory if they would obey, as they seemingly were willing to do now (v 7)

j The second message of God to the nation in this chapter, without the predictive element (note a, above) k 7 commands to the former generation:

1 Execute true judgment (v 9)
2 Show mercy and compassions
3 Oppress not the widow (v 10)
4 Oppress not the fatherless
5 Oppress not the stranger
6 Oppress not the poor
7 Let none of you imagine evil in his heart against a brother

l 4fold rebellion of former generation:
1 They refused to hearken (v 11)
2 They pulled away the shoulder
3 They stopped the ears that they could not hear the law
4 They made their hearts as adamant stone against the law and words of Jehovah (v 12) m 4fold judgment on former generation:

1 God's wrath came upon them (v 12)
2 When they were in distress and cried to God He would not hear (v 13)
3 I scattered them like a whirlwind among the nations whom they did not know (v 14)
4 I made their land desolate

8 predictions - unfulfilled:
1 I am returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem (8:3)
2 Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth
3 It shall be called the mountain of the Lord of hosts, the holy mountain
4 There shall yet old men and women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age (8:4)
5 The streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing (8:5)
6 It will be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant and in My eyes (8:6)
7 I will save My people from the east country, and the west country; and will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem (8:8)
8 They shall be My people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness b This is one of a number of plain scriptures stating that men will marry and have children in the Millennium, and even in the New Earth period forever (v 5; Isa. 65:20-25; Mt. 25:46). This is what God commanded man to do before the fall (Gen. 1:26-29); and the fall did not do away with His original plan - it merely postponed some phases of it until the final restoration in the New Earth period

d Again we have a prediction of the regathering of Israel from all parts of the earth - from east to west, to be placed again in their own land, and for eternity (v 7-8; Isa. 11:10-12, notes). In that day they will be the people of God in truth and righteousness (v 8)
e God now urged the present generation to be strong and to obey the present prophets who were there to encourage the building of the temple (v 9-17)

2 Your seed shall be prosperous (8:12)
3 The vine shall yeild her fruit
4 The ground shall give her increase
5 The heavens shall give their dew
6 The remnant shall possess these things
7 You shall be a blessing instead of a curse among the Gentiles (8:13)
8 I will save you from the heathen, and you shall be a blessing j 7 blessings promised by God:
1 Prosperity (v 12)
2 Vines will yield their fruit
3 The ground will give her increase
4 The heavens will give their dew
5 The remnant of Israel shall possess and enjoy all these things (v 13)
6 Salvation from among the Gentiles
7 The Jews a blessing among men k Note here that God called the returning exiles from Babylon both the house of Judah and the house of Israel. This proves that some from each of the 13 tribes came back from Babylon to become one and the same people again. They were repeatedly called Jews in the days of Christ, the apostles, and the early church, as can be seen from the N. T. record (v 13. See note a, Acts 13:16)
l God was under obligation to curse previous generations in Israel as He had promised. He could do nothing else but mete out such punishment. Now He promised the new and obedient generation that He would do well by them and Jerusalem (v 14-15)
m 6 things commanded of new generation
1 Speak every man the truth with his neighbor (v 16)
2 Execute judgment of truth
3 Have peace in your gates
4 Let none imagine evil in his heart against his neighbor (v 17)
5 Do not love a false oath
6 Love the truth and peace (v 19)

¶9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [e]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [f]the prophets, which were [g]in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was [h]no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

¶11 [i]But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed [j]shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, [k]O house of Jū'dah, and house of Iş'ra-el; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

■14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As [l]I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm and to the house of Jū'dah: fear ye not.

●16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

¶17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

■18 ¶ And [m]the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

*19 [n]Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, [a]and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the [b]house of Jū'dah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

(6) Jerusalem to be the religious center of the earth

■20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall [c]yet come to pass, that there [d]shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily [e]to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and to pray before the LORD.

(7) Jews yet to evangelize the nations as purposed in Abraham (Nah. 1:15, refs.)

■23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [f]In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

920 CHAPTER 9

IV First burden for Israel (9:1-11:17. Cp. Isa. 13:1; Nah. 1:1). 1 Deliverance from enemies

THE [a]burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hā'drach, and Dā-mās'cus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Iş'ra-el, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hā'math also shall border thereby; Tȳ'rus, and Zī'dŏn, though it be very wise.

3 And Tȳ'rus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ăsh'ke-lŏn shall see it, and fear; Gā'zà also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ĕk'rŏn; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gā'zà, and Ăsh'ke-lŏn shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ăsh'dŏd, and I will cut off the pride of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes.

7 And I will take away his blood [b]out of his mouth, and [c]his abominations from between his teeth: but [c]he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Jū'dah, and Ĕk'rŏn as a Jĕb'u-site.

8 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of [d]him that passeth by and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through

b The house of Judah will include the other tribes of Israel, for they will all be gathered together and made one nation in that day when Christ comes to reign (v 19; Isa. 11:10 12, notes)
c This suggests that God found it difficult to bring Judah and Jerusalem to the place of blessing. He is yet to make them to be blessed and to fulfil their original calling. Judah will be the ruling tribe over all the others (Gen. 49:10), and Jerusalem will be the religious, political, commercial, and cultural center of the world, under the Messiah - the very capital of the Messiah, where He will reign over all nations eternally, not only for 1,000 years (v 20-22; 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4). See Jerusalem in Index

k The Antichrist invading Palestine

a Quoted in Mt. 21:4. This was a definite prediction that the Messiah would be the King of the Jews, or Israel (v 9)

b 4 facts about Israel's King:
1 He is just, righteous (v 9)
2 He has salvation (v 9; Mt. 1:21)
3 He is lowly (v 9; Mt. 11:29)
4 He will appear to Israel riding on an ass (v 9; Mt. 21:1-11; Mk. 11:8-10; Lk. 19:36-40; Jn. 12:12-19)

c Here we have another example of the 1st and 2nd comings of the Messiah being referred to in the same passage - v 9 referring to the 1st advent, and v 10 to the 2nd. The present dispensation of over 1900 years takes place between the predicted happening of v 9 and that of v 10

d This refers to the battle of Armageddon when the Antichrist and his hosts will be destroyed (v 10; 14:1-15; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2-3; Rev. 19:11-21), after which the Messiah will have dominion over all the earth, and speak peace to all the nations (14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; 11:4-12; 35:1-8; 65:20-25; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 20:1-10)

e This is one way of expressing the idea of universal dominion (v 9; 14:9; Ps. 72:8; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14)

f Zion of v 9, 13

g The covenant by which the prisoners of Zion escaped, or will yet escape, is the new covenant (v 11; Mt. 26:28; Heb. 8:6; 9:15). Just what prisoners are definitely referred to here is not stated, but it is likely to the persons who will be held as prisoners literally in the day of the coming of the Messiah. They are called prisoners of hope in v 12, and it is clear that they will be alive at the time of this fulfillment, when Israel will be delivered from Antichrist and saved by the Lord at His 2nd advent (v 12-17)

h Here the remnant of Israel is commanded to turn (return) to the stronghold, which evidently refers to the Lord, Himself who is declared to be the stronghold of His people in the day of trouble (v 12; Joel 4:16; Nah. 1:7)

i Both Judah and Ephraim are spoken of as being a bow in the hands of God, and as a sword in the hands of a mighty man to help God in the battle of Armageddon against Antichrist who, with his armies surrounding Jerusalem, will have taken the city at the very moment Christ comes to earth to deliver Israel (v 13; 14:1-5, 14-15). If both Judah and Ephraim will be used of God in that day, then both will be gathered back to Palestine by this time to fulfil this passage; therefore, not only Judah, but also Ephraim will be gathered from all nations in sufficient numbers to fight in this battle for their own existence

j This is one of a number of scriptures predicting the revival of the Grecian Empire under Antichrist to fight against Israel in the last days. See p. 310-311 of N. T. When we read here of the sons of Zion being raised up against the sons of Greece we are to understand it as a reference to the battle of Armageddon when warriors of the Revived Grecian Empire of Dan. 8 and 11 will be fighting against the sons of Zion, or the Jews and Israelites, at the 2nd advent of Christ (v 13). In this battle the Lord will literally be seen over the sons of Zion (v 14; 14:1-5; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2:11; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21). The arrow of the Lord that will go forth as lightning must refer to the flaming fire with which Christ and His angels will come. The blowing of a trumpet by God will be literally true in that day (Isa. 27:13; Joel 2:1, 15; Mt. 24:31). The Lord of Hosts will defend His people (v 15) and save them (v 16)

k They shall devour and subdue their enemies (v 15). Judah or Israel will be the only earthly people fighting against the Antichrist, along with Christ and His armies in the battle of Armageddon (14:14)

l 16th prophecy in Zech. (10:1-12, unfulfilled). Next, 11:1. See p. 929

6 Judah made strong to fight at Armageddon (14:14; 12:4-9)

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock [b]the house of Jū'dah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

8 Dispersion and regathering of Israel in one view

9 And [g]I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Ĕ'gўpt, and gather them out of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ā; and I will bring them into the land of Gĭl'e-ăd and Lĕb'a-non; and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ā shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Ĕ'gўpt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

922 CHAPTER 11

9 First advent and rejection of Messiah, and the result. (1) The wrath (Mt. 24:2; Lk. 21:20-24)

[h]OPEN thy doors, O Lĕb'a-non, that the fire may devour thy cedars.●

●2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bā'shăn; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the a The houses of Judah and Ephraim are again mentioned, indicating, as in other scriptures, that all the tribes will be gathered together to their own land where they will fulfill these prophecies. The reason Judah is mentioned more often is that this was the ruling tribe of all Israel (Gen. 49:10). In fact, out of him came forth the corner stone, the nail, the battle bow, and the one who will expel every oppressor (v 4) b The Sept. reads, "from him every expeller of oppression." The thought is not that every oppressor comes from Judah, but the one that will expel every oppressor (v 4) c Judah or Israel in that day will be supernaturally aided in their part of the fighting, in the battle of Armageddon (12:8). They will fight, because the Lord is with them in person, visibly; and such supernatural Presence will confound the horses and their riders (v 5; 9:14; 14:1-5; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2:11; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21)

d The terms house of Judah, house of Joseph, and Ephraim are used in this passage of the same people - the Jews who will be gathered back from all nations in that day (v 6-7)

e Here we have the Jews of the northern kingdom mentioned in particular, as Judah is referred to in v 5 (v 7)

16 predictions - fulfilled:
1 Fire will devour the cedars of Lebanon (11:1)
2 The mighty will be spoiled (11:2)
3 The oaks of Bashan will come down
4 The shepherds shall howl, for their glory is spoiled (11:3)
5 The pride of Jordan will be spoiled (11:4)
6 I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land (11:6)
7 I will deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king
8 They shall smite the land
9 I will not deliver them out of their hand
10 I will feed the flock of the slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock (11:7)
11 I will cut off three shepherds in one month (11:8)
12 I will cut asunder My staff called Beauty, that I might break My covenant which I made with the people (11:10)
13 It will be broken in one day (11:11)
14 They will sell Me (the Messiah) for thirty pieces of silver (11:12)
15 The thirty pieces of silver will be cast unto the potter in the house of the Lord (11:13)
16 I will then cut asunder My other staff called Bands, and will break the the brotherhood between Judah and Israel (11:14)

10 predictions - unfulfilled:
1 I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off (11:16)
2 He will not seek the young
3 He will not heal that which is broken
4 He will not feed that which stands still 5 He shall eat the flesh of the fat
6 He will tear their claws in pieces
7 Woe to the idol shepherd that will leave the flock (11:17)
8 The sword shall be upon his arm and upon his right eye
9 His arm shall be clean dried up 10 His right eye shall be utterly darkened howling of the [a]shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of [b]young lions; for the [c]pride of Jôr'dan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; [d]Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and [e]their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand [f]I will not deliver them.

(2) Cause of the wrath: A Symbol of beauty (graciousness) and bands (union)

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took [g]unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 [h]Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 [i]Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the [j]rest eat every one the flesh of another.

B Beauty (graciousness) cut off: no more mercy on Israel until Messiah's second advent (Mt. 23:39; Rom. 11:25-27)

10 [k]And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And [l]it was broken in that day: and [m]so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

C Messiah sold by the flock

12 [n]And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 [o]And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. [p]And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the [q]potter in the house of the LORD.

D THEN: bands (union) was cut off: Israel again dispersed (Lk. 21:20-24; Ezek. 37:1-25)

14 [r]Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [s]Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Jû'dah and Iş'ra-el.

10 Antichrist to come to Israel to teach them how to appreciate a good shepherd (Jn. 5:43)

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee [t]yet the instruments of a [u]foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, [v]which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the [w]idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! [x]the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

923 CHAPTER 12

V Second burden for Israel (12:1-14:21. Cp. 9:1; Isa. 13:1). 1 Siege of Jerusalem by Antichrist (14:1-5; Ezek. 38-39; Rev. 19)

THE [a]burden of the word of the LORD for Iş'ra-el, saith the LORD, [b]which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. ■

2 Behold, I will make Jê-rụ'-să-lêm a [c]cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Jû'dah and against Jê-rụ'să-lêm.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jê-rụ'să-lêm a burdensome stone for all people: [d]all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

2 Messiah's second advent: Judah's part at Armageddon (14:14)

4 [e]In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite [f]every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Jû'dah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And [g]the governors of Jû'dah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jê-rụ'să-lêm shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Jû'dah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jê-rụ'să-lêm shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jê-rụ'să-lêm.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Jû'dah [h]first, that the glory of the house of Dă'vid and the glory of the inhabitants of Jê-rụ'să-lêm do not magnify themselves against Jû'dah.

8 In that day [i]shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jê-rụ'să-lêm; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as Dă'vid; and the house of Dă'vid shall be as God, as [j]the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that [k]I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jê-rụ'să-lêm.

a Shepherds is a term often used in Scripture when the reference is to rulers (v 3-8; 10:3; Isa. 44:28; Ezek. 34)
b The young rulers or princes c The pride of Jordan was the great oaks which grew on the banks, even hiding the river in places until one came to its edge; these were lurking places for wild animals (v 3) d God commanded the Gentile oppressors to feed the flock of Israel whom they had:
1 Slain (v 5)
2 Sold into slavery
3 Not pitied at all -even becoming rich through selling them, and yet not considering they had done any wrong
e The rulers of Israel do not have any more pity on the flock than the Gentile overlords who oppress them (v 5)
f Very seldom has the Lord used this kind of statement-I will not deliver them; He has often said, I will deliver them. This verse is evidently referring again to coming captivities of Israel - this time by the Romans. This seems clear from the fact that it is in a passage which speaks of the first advent of the Messiah. Thus, even before the full restoration of the nation in the days of the return from Babylon, God predicted a second dispersion (v 1-6)
g Two staves - the shepherd's crook or staff, and his club. One I called Beauty (graciousness) and the other Bands (union). I took them with Me when I led the flock to feed them in the fields (v 7)
h The 3 shepherds of Israel who were cut off in a single month are not named, but the reference could be to the 3 leaders of the Jews in their war with the Romans. There were 3 last princes of the Asmonean line -John, Simeon, and Eleazar, who died in a brief period during the war (v 8)
i Then said I (the Messiah), I will not feed you, but will abandon you to be cut off (v 6, 9)
j The remnant left in the city of Jerusalem in the siege were to lack food and be so starved that some would eat others (v 9; Lk. 21:20-24, notes) k The Messiah is pictured here as taking His staff, even Beauty, and breaking it, signifying the breaking or abolishment of the old covenant made with Moses and all the people (v 10). Nothing is more clear in Scripture than the fact of the complete abrogation of the law of Moses so that the new covenant could be made by Christ. See Law of Moses in Index
l The law of Moses was fulfilled, and it came to an end with Christ on the cross (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:13-25; Col. 2:14-17); it literally came to an end in one day, as predicted here. The 10 commandments and other parts of that law were absolutely abolished; now only the commandments of the new covenant are in force. See Law in Index
m The humble and lowly who waited upon Him recognized the truth -that the covenant of Moses had been broken, completely annulled, and replaced by the new covenant. See 85 old and new covenant contrasts, p. 201 of N.T.
n God predicted the sale of the Messiah by apostate Israel for 30 pieces of silver-$19.20, counting each piece to be worth 64¢ (v 12). This was fulfilled by Judas and the leaders of Israel (Mt. 25:14-16; 27:3)
o This predicted the use of the 30 pieces of silver to buy a place in the potter's field to bury Judas in (v 13; Mt. 27:3-10) p Quoted in Mt. 27:9
q See Mt. 27:5-10; Acts 1:18-20
r Then, after the rejection of the Messiah, the abolishment of the old covenant, and the fulfillment of v 1-13, He cut asunder the staff called Bands (union). The meaning of this was that the united nation of Judah and Ephraim would be dispersed again (v 14). It came to pass in 70 A.D. when the 13 tribes were again scattered among the nations (Lk. 21:20-24) s The fact that Judah and Israel were together again as one nation after the captivities to Babylon and Assyria, and that this brotherhood was to be broken again in the second dispersion proves that the 10 tribes were not lost as to identity as some claim. God fully a Worthless shepherd. Judah and Israel had rejected the proper use of their rulership and all had gone into apostasy - the people as well as the leaders; therefore, God would allow the chief false shepherd to deceive and rule them so that they might learn to appreciate the Good Shepherd (v 15-17) b 7 sins of the false shepherd (v 16-17):

1 Refusing to visit the sheep that are cut off or are perishing
2 Not seeking the straying young ones
3 Not healing the broken or wounded
4 Not feeding the ones too weak to stray
5 Eating all the flesh of the fat
6 Tearing their claws in pieces
7 Leaving, or forsaking the flock
c Not only will Antichrist set himself up to be worshipped as God, but an image will be made of him to be set up as an idol to worship (v 17; 2 Th. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:16-18)
d The sword will make his right arm and right eye useless. His arm shall be clean dried up and his eye made blind (v 17). Some have tried to force the meaning of this before the proper time of fulfillment and have therefore interpreted the prophecy as referring to the late Kaiser of Germany; but the prediction concerns no man except the future Antichrist, and in him it will have a literal fulfillment when the time comes e See 17th prophecy in Zechariah, p. 929
f The second burden mentioned by the prophet (9:1; 12:1)
g 3 great creative works of God (v 1):
1 Stretching out the heavens (Isa. 42:5; 44:24; 45:12, 18; 48:13)
2 Laying the foundation of the earth (Ps. 24:2; 102:25; 104:2-5)
3 Forming the spirit in man (Gen. 2:7; Num. 16:22)
h God's supernatural defense of Jerusalem will be so terrible that all nations fighting against the Jews will tremble and shake for fear of the Lord who will be visible over Israel (v 2; 9:14; 14:5a; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2:11; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 1:7; 19:11-21)
i All that seek to destroy the Jews and Jerusalem will be cut off (v 3; 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-19)
j In that day is a term used 16 times in this one prophecy - a term used so often by Isaiah when referring to the Millennium k Every horse and rider in the armies of the Antichrist (v 4) l 4 facts about the governors of Judah:
1 They will have faith in God and in the inhabitants of Jerusalem (v 5)
2 They will be like an hearth of fire among the wood (v 6)
3 They shall be like a torch of fire in a sheaf of wheat 4 They shall devour all the people round about, on the right and left m Some versions render it, as at the first n The Lord will personally defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem when they are about to be destroyed (v 8; 14:1-5). He will help earthly Israel by protecting them and making them mighty and powerful in battle, and by giving them also the assistance of the heavenly armies of angels and saints. These will be led by Jesus Christ (v 8; Isa. 63:1-6; Joel 2:11; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:19-21)
o The Angel of the Lord before them no doubt refers to Christ, Himself as the leader of all Israel and the heavenly armies, as in passages in note n, above p Only a tenth part of the vast armies of the nations at Armageddon will be left after the battle (v 9; Ezek. 39:2) recognized the entire nation as being in the land in one brotherhood after the captivities, and predicted He would be forced to scatter them again for the sin of selling and crucifying His Son (v 12-14)

t Yet, The prophet had predicted the betrayal of Jesus and the destiny of the betrayer; and now he had something to predict that was yet to come - the last-day imitator of the true Shepherd, the Antichrist (v 15-17) a This will be the time of Israel's conversion, at the 2nd advent of Christ (12:10-13:1); it will also be the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy (Joel 2:28; Acts 2:16-21), the time when the nation will be born in a day (Isa. 66:7-8). Of course, the Spirit of grace and of supplications must come first. The mourning and repentance will last 2 days and continue into the 3rd day when God will raise them up to live in His sight (Hos. 6:1-3). Then they will say, "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Mt. 23:37-39). All Israel will be saved at this time and the Redeemer will come from the heavenly mount Zion to the earthly one (Rom. 11:25-29). Thus the national conversion of Israel, the end of the times of the Gentiles, the end of the fulness of the Gentiles, the end of Israel's rebellion, the battle of Armageddon, a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit, the end of the age of grace, and other wonderful events will take place at this time-the 2nd advent of Christ

b 2fold outpouring of the Spirit (v 10):
1 Upon the house of David-Judah
2 Upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem

c 7fold nature of the outpoured Spirit:
1 The Spirit of grace - unmerited favor
2 Spirit of supplications-pleading
3 Spirit of recognition-look upon Me whom they have pierced (v 10; Rev. 1:7)
4 Spirit of mourning for the Messiah
5 Spirit of bitterness and remorse for Him
6 Spirit of privacy and personal concern (v 11-14) (13:1)
7 Spirit of forgiveness and cleansing

d This identifies the Jews as the ones responsible for the sufferings and death of the Messiah (v 10). Peter confirmed this (Acts 2:23)

e Heb. dakar, thrust through; pierce (v 10). Cp. Jn. 19:34, 37; Rev. 1:7

f Having been the ones who pierced Him, or had Him pierced, the Jews will then, in that future day, lament and mourn in bitterness over their deed, upon seeing Him and the marks of His wounds. They will at last make supplication to Him for mercy and forgiveness (v 10-14)

g 4fold kind of mourning:
1 Bitter mourning (v 10)
2 Great-universal or national (v 11)
3 Long-3 days (Hos. 6:1-3)
4 Privately-all apart (v 11-14)

h This was where Josiah, king of Judah, was slain and great mourning was made for him (2 Chr. 35:22-25)

i 4 houses named here (v 12-13):
1 The house of David (2 Sam. 7)
2 House of Nathan (Lk. 3:31)
3 House of Levi (Num. 3:17)
4 House of Shimei (Num. 3:18)
Two of these belong to the house of David-the kingly line (Mt. 1), and the common line of Nathan (Lk. 3); two belong to Levi-the whole priestly line, and the Gershon line of Levi

j It was the Jewish custom for the men to live in one apartment and the women in another; and they also worshipped separately. Here the ancient custom is referred to as mourning apart (v 11-14)

k The fountain being opened to them refers to the Jews finally accepting the cross of Christ as the only way of salvation and deliverance from sin and uncleanness, and their only hope for national preservation as a people (v 1. Cp. Isa. 53; Mt. 26:28; Col. 1:20; 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Rev. 1:5; 5:8-10)

l This means that none of the names of idols so often mentioned in the Bible will ever be named anymore or worshipped as before. The fountain will cleanse away all sin, uncleanness, false prophecy, and unclean spirits from the people (v 1-5) m When any man will yet prophesy by an unclean spirit, as in v 2, his father and mother will be the first to accuse their own son and execute him without mercy (v 3-5). This will be in harmony with Dt. 13:6-11; 18:20

n The false prophets, not the true ones

o Ancient prophets wore rough camel skins for garments, as did Elijah (2 Ki. 1:8) and John the Baptist (Mt. 3:4)

3 Conversion of Israel:

(1) The outpoured Spirit: the crucified Messiah revealed

12 And [a]I will pour [b]upon the house of Dā'vid, and upon the inhabitants of Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, [c]the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom [d]they have [e]pierced, and they shall mourn [f]for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be [g]in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

(2) Repentance of Israel (Isa. 64)

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, as the [h]mourning of Hă'dăd-rĭm'mon in the valley of Mĕ-gĭd'don.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the [i]house of Dā'vid apart, and [i]their wives apart; the family of the house of Nā'than apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Lĕ'vī apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shĭm'ĕ-ī apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

924 CHAPTER 13

(3) Israel accepts the cross

IN that day there shall be [k]a fountain opened to the house of Dā'vid and to the inhabitants of Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm for sin and for uncleanness.

(4) Idolatry and spiritualism destroyed

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will [l]cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

(5) False prophets executed

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall [m]yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the [n]prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they [o]wear a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

(6) Crucified Messiah revealed

6 [p]And one shall say unto him, [q]What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I [r]was wounded in the house of [s]my friends.

(7) How Israel's redemption was purchased (Mt. 26:31)

7 ¶ [t]Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

4 Purpose of the tribulation: rebels purged from Judah

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

925 CHAPTER 14

5 The day of the Lord (Isa. 2:10, refs.). (1) Begins at Armageddon

BEHOLD, [a]the day of the LORD cometh, and [b]thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For [c]I will gather all nations against Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm to battle; and [d]the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 [e]Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, [f]as when he fought in the day of battle.

(2) Messiah's second advent: physical changes in Palestine

4 ¶ And [g]his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Ŏl'ĭvĕs, which is before Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm on the east, and the mount of Ŏl'ĭvĕs shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Ā'zăl: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [h]earthquake in the days of Ŭz'zī'ah king of Jū'dah: and the [i]LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 [j]And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be [k]one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

(3) River of the sanctuary (Ezek. 47:1-12. Cp. Rev. 22:1-2)

8 And it shall be [l]in that day, a 2 kinds of friends:

1 Real and actual friends who follow and obey (Jn. 15:13-15)
2 Potential friends-those who can become actual friends through the wounds given Him (v 6). Christ accepted these wounds and the sufferings of the cross to make it possible for them to become actual friends

b See Fellow of Jehovah, p. 930

c Two parts of Israel will be destroyed in the future great tribulation, leaving only one part to be preserved alive to fight against Antichrist and make up the nation that will be born in a day at the 2nd advent of Christ (v 8-9; 14:14; Rom. 11:25-29)

d The day of the Lord begins with the 2nd advent of Christ and lasts to the end of the Millennium, at which time the day of God begins and continues through eternity (v 1; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; 2 Pet. 3:10-13)

e This refers to the spoil of the vast armies of Antichrist that will be gathered in abundance (v 1, 14)

f This refers to the mobilization of the nations to Armageddon (v 2; Ezek. 38-39; Joel 3; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:11-21)

g The city will be taken the second time by Antichrist at the very end of the tribulation period and just before the 2nd advent of Christ. The houses will be rifled; the women will be ravished; half the city will go into captivity. Then, suddenly, Christ will make His appearance with His armies and defeat Antichrist in a one-day battle; at this time He will take over the kingdoms of this world to reign forever on earth (v 2-9; Isa. 63:1-6; Ezek. 38-39; Joel 2-3; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10)

h Then-when Jerusalem is half taken and when it seems that all Israel will be totally destroyed, the Lord will come to fight the nations under Antichrist, and set up His kingdom on earth to remain eternally (v 3; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21)

i This perhaps refers to the fighting against the Egyptians as in Ex. 14:14; 15:3

j The literal feet of Christ which have the nail prints in them will actually stand on the mount of Olives; and the mountain being split at that time will go east and west to make a very great valley (v 4). Israel will flee as they fled before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. The Lord God and Christ will come with all the resurrected saints and angels of heaven (v 5; Mt. 25:31; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21)

k See Amos 1:1

l This is none other than God, the Father, who will come to the earth visibly with Jesus Christ and the saints (v 5; Dan. 7:22; Tit. 2:13; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:11-21). The Bible teaches the 1st and 2nd advents of God the Father, as well as Jesus Christ (note j, Dan. 7:22)

m On the very day Christ appears on earth and the battle of Armageddon is fought, the light will neither be clear nor dark; but at evening time it will become light. This perhaps refers to the change in the light of day and night in the Millennium. The light of the day will be 7fold brighter, and the light of the night will be as that of the present day (v 7; Isa. 30:26)

n The battle will last only one day; by evening it will be over and the new light increase will take effect (v 7; Isa. 30:26)

o In that day-the day of Christ's 2nd advent, the living waters shall go forth from Jerusalem, half toward the Mediterranean and half toward the Dead Sea, as explained in Ezek. 47:1-12, notes

p The Messiah is here spoken of in contrast with the false prophets of v 1-5. This will yet be literally fulfilled, when He will refer such people to the time of His sufferings and death, the time when these wounds were received (v 6; Jn. 20:25; Col. 2:14)

q Question 27. Last one in Zechariah r Several scriptures speak of the wounding of the Messiah (v 6; Isa. 53:5; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

s What friends!

that [a]living waters shall go out from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; half of them toward the [b]former sea, and half of them toward [c]the hinder sea: in [d]summer and in winter shall it be.

(4) Extent of Messiah's reign

9 And the [e]LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

(5) Physical changes in Palestine (Isa. 35)

10 [f]All the land shall be turned as a plain from Gĕ'bā to Rim'mon south of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Bĕn'ja-mīn's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hă-nān'e-el unto the king's winepresses.

(6) Jerusalem restored (Ezek. 48)

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall be safely inhabited.

(7) How the armies at Armageddon will be destroyed (Ezek. 38:17-39:7; 2 Thess. 1:7-10; Rev. 19)

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

(8) Spoil and Judah's part at Armageddon (10:3; 12:4-9)

14 And Jū'dah also shall fight at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; and [a]the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

(9) Plague on the animals (vs. 12)

15 And so shall [b]the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

(10) Mosaic feasts established

16 ¶ [c]And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(11) Judgment on disobedient nations in the Millennium

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Ĕ'gўpt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Ĕ'gўpt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(12) Character of the kingdom

20 ¶ [d]In that day shall there be upon the [e]bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm and in Jū'dah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Cā'nāan-īte in the house of the LORD of hosts.

a The new river emerging from under the sanctuary located just north of Jerusalem, will flow south through the city and then divide into two parts. Half will flow into the Mediterranean and half into the Dead Sea. In summer and in winter it will flow and create life wherever it goes (v 8; Ezek. 47:1-12, notes)

b The former sea is the Dead Sea to the east

c The hinder sea is the Mediterranean to the west (v 8)

d Summer and winter are both eternal (v 8; Gen. 8:22). The commonly quoted statement the time will come when one cannot tell the summer from the winter except by the falling of the leaves is false and not in the Bible. All seasons are eternal, according to Scripture

e This refers to Jesus Christ, who is also Jehovah as much as the Father and the Holy Spirit. It is the Lord Jesus Christ that will reign over all the earth during the Millennium (v 9; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Mt. 25:31-46; Lk. 1:32-33; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14-15; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10). God, the Father, will not come down to live and reign on earth until after the Millennium (Rev. 21:1-27; 22:1-5)

f This explains certain changes on the surface of the earth at the beginning of the Millennium (v 10. Cp. v 5; Isa. 35). A great plain will be made and the site of Jerusalem will be raised and inhabited in her place (v 10-11; Ezek. 48:30-35)

g 3 ways Antichrist's armies destroyed:
1 By a plague causing the flesh to consume away while they stand upon their feet. The eyes will consume away in their holes, and their tongues will consume away in their mouths (v 12). This will happen to both men and beasts (v 15)
2 A great tumult from the Lord will be among them and they will destroy one another (v 13)
3 Judah will fight and destroy many (v 14)

Zechariah (1:1)

Zechariah, Jehovah remembers. 27 so-called:
1 The prophet (v 1, 7; 7:1, 8; Ezra 5:1; 6:14; Neh. 12:16)
2 A Reubenite (1 Chr. 5:7)
3 A Levite gate-keeper (1 Chr. 9:21; 26:2, 14)
4 An uncle of Saul (1 Chr. 9:37)
5 A Levite musician (1 Chr. 15:18, 20; 16:5)
6 A priest (1 Chr. 15:24)
7 A Kohathite (1 Chr. 24:25)
8 Another gate-keeper (1 Chr. 26:11)
9 A Manassehite (1 Chr. 27:21)
10 A prince of Judah (2 Chr. 17:7)
11 Father of Jahaziel (2 Chr. 20:14)
12 Son of Jehoshaphat (2 Chr. 21:2)
13 Son of Jehoiada-another prophet (2 Chr. 24:20-21)
14 A man of vision (2 Chr. 26:5)
15 Son of Asaph (2 Chr. 29:13)
16 Another Kohathite (2 Chr. 34:12)
17 Another prince (2 Chr. 35:8)
18 A returning exile (Ezra 8:3) 19 Son of Bebai, an exile (Ezra 8:11-20 Another returned exile (Ezra 10:26)
21 Another prince of Judah (Ezra 8:4)
22 Son of Amariah (Neh. 11:4)
23 A Shilonite (Neh. 11:5)
24 Son of Pashur (Neh. 11:12)
25 A priest (Neh. 12:16)
26 An Asaphite (Neh. 12:35, 41)
27 Friend of Isaiah (2 Chr. 26:5; Isa. 8:2)

Berechiah (1:1)

Berechiah, blessed of Jehovah. 7 so-called:
1 Father of Zechariah (v 1, 7). Called Barachias (Mt. 23:35)
2 Father of Asaph (1 Chr. 6:39; 15:17)
3 Son of Zerubbabel (1 Chr. 3:20)
4 Son of Asa (1 Chr. 9:16)
5 A Levite door-keeper (1 Chr. 15:23)
6 An Ephraimite (2 Chr. 28:12) 18)
7 A returned exile (Neh. 3:4, 30; 6: Iddo (1:1)

Iddo, affectionate. 8 so-called:
1 Grandfather of Zechariah (v 1; Ezra 5:1; 6:14)
2 Father of Ahinadab (1 Ki. 4:14)
3 A Gershonite (1 Chr. 6:21)
4 Chief in Manasseh (1 Chr. 27:21)
5 A seer (2 Chr. 9:29; 12:15; 13:22)
6 A priest (Neh. 12:4, 16)
7 A Nethinim or temple porter (Ezra 8:17)
8 An exile (Ezra 10:43)

a The wealth of the nations will be gathered from the battlefield and divided in the midst of Judah (v 1, 14)

b The plague here is the same one mentioned in v 12-13. In this verse we have only the explanation that it will affect both men and beasts of the armies of the Antichrist in the same way (v 14)

c In these last verses (16-19) we have the explanation of what will happen to those who are left of all the nations who will fight against Jerusalem under the Antichrist. If they have not taken the mark of the beast (Rev. 14:9-11), and if they have not persecuted Christ's brethren, the Jews (Mt. 25:31-46), and if they are otherwise worthy of entrance into the kingdom they will be left here to live as natural men on earth-to multiply and replenish the earth, as God originally commanded (Gen. 1:26-31). They will be permitted to establish themselves in the earth and live through the entire 1,000 years, if they remain obedient, not committing any sin worthy of death (Isa. 65:20-25). They will be required to go up (at least representatives) to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles yearly (v 16); and if they do not go up as required, there will be no rain upon their land (v 17-19). If any rebel with Satan at the end of the 1,000 years, then fire will come down from God out of heaven and devour them (Rev. 20:7-10)

d The last two verses (20-21) simply explain the absolute holiness of the kingdom. The word holiness itself will be on the bells of the horses and on every pot in Jerusalem. Sacrifices will be continued as a memorial to the work of Christ on the cross, as explained in Ezek. 40-46; and there will never be a Canaanite in the eternal temple - the Lord's eternal capital (Ezek. 43:7)

e The theory that saints will spend eternity in heaven, and that all things in the future will be spiritual only, is contradicted throughout Scripture. It is clear that God made all material creations and the living creatures in them to continue forever, as they were created. Here we have many natural and earthly things mentioned as continuing - bells, horses, men, bowls, houses, pots, animal sacrifices, and other things which must be understood literally in connection with the Millennium and the New Earth period, as we understand them now. God made a contract with Noah stating that all animals and men would continue forever, as well as all seasons on the earth (Gen. 8:22; 9:1-16). Hundreds of plain, simple statements in Scripture confirm the fact that God's plan for natural man is eternal. Had there been no fall, as by Adam and Eve, there would have been no sin, or death for sin, and therefore no resurrection for people who had died before all things became restored. Furthermore, there would be no resurrected saints reigning over eternal coming generations. As it is now, the plan will be carried out with resurrected saints ruling as kings and priests under God and Christ; from the planet earth they will help the Godhead to administer the affairs of all creations in space

Summary of Zechariah

Date and place: written in Palestine about 557-525 B.C.

Author: Zechariah the prophet-one of 3 prophets after the exile, the others being Haggai and Malachi (1:1, 7; 4:8; 6:9; 7:8)

Theme: the immediate and future restoration of Israel as a nation again in Palestine, particularly their eternal restoration under the Messiah. The book is primarily Messianic in message and concerning this, the prophet's vision and clearness of thought are almost without parallel. The book opens with 10 visions (1:7-6:8); then we have prophecies and sermons to encourage restored Judah as a nation (6:9-8:23). In chs. 9-11 we have messages concerning the deliverance of Judah from enemies, the 1st and 2nd advent of the Messiah, the Grecian Empire under Antichrist, material and spiritual rain, the battle of Armageddon at the 2nd advent of the Messiah, the rejection of the Messiah at His 1st advent, the dispersion, and the regathering of Israel in the last days. Chs. 12-14 picture the siege of Jerusalem by Antichrist, the Messiah's 2nd advent, Judah's part in the battle of Armageddon, the repentance and conversion of Israel, and the millennial and eternal reign of the Messiah over all nations. See headings of the text

Purpose: to encourage and inspire Judah in their national restoration after the Babylonian captivities; and to assure them of God's present and future blessings in fulfillment of the convenants made with their fathers

Statistics: 36th book of the Bible; 14 chapters; 211 verses; 6,444 words; 27 questions; 35 commands; 4 promises; 226 predictions; 122 verses of prophecy; 31 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 91 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and 59 distinct messages from God (1:1, 3, 4, 7, 9, 12, 13, 14, 16, 17, 19, 21; 2:2, 4, 5, 8; 3:2, 4, 7, 8; 4:2, 5, 6, 8, 12; 5:2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 11; 6:5, 7, 8, 9, 12; 7:1, 4, 8; 8:1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 11, 14, 17, 18, 20, 23; 9:1; 11:4, 13, 15; 12:1, 4, 13:8)

4 carpenters (1:20):

4 carpenters, Heb. charash, metal smiths; fabricators; artificers; carpenters; craftsmen; engravers; masons; workers; builders. The idea here is that in the restoration of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem, under the Messiah, the powers that scattered them will be defeated by the carpenters, and full restoration will be accomplished. They are to undo all that the 4 horns of the Gentiles have done; these, the carpenters, smiths, or whatever they are, will fray (Heb. charad, terrify; cause to fear; make afraid; discomfit; drive away) the horns of the Gentiles (the 4 Gentile world powers who scattered all Israel). This could only refer to:
1 Christ (Mt. 24:29-31; Rev. 19:11-21)
2 The heavenly angels (Mt. 24:31; 2 Th. 1:7-10)
3 Resurrected saints (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14-15; Rev. 19:14)
4 Revived earthly Israel (Zech. 14:14)

a The last of 3 minor prophets who begin their books as a burden of the word of the Lord (v 1; Nah. 1:1; Hab. 1:1) b Malachi uses the term Israel of the returned captives of Judah and Israel (v 1, 5; 2:11, 16; 4:4). The same people are called Judah 3 times (2:11; 3:4). Zechariah uses both Judah and Israel of the same people - the Jews who were returning from captivity (Zech. 1:19; 8:13; 11:14); he uses Judah alone 22 times (Zech. 1:12, 19, 21; 2:12; 8:13-19; 9:7, 13; 10:3, 6; 11:14; 12:2-7; 14:5, 14, 21) c Malachi. My messenger. Found only here in Scripture (v 1) d 14 statements of God to Israel and 10 rebellious answers of Israel to God:
1 I have loved you, saith the Lord. Yet you say, Wherein have You loved us? (1:2)
2 The priests despise My name. And you say, Wherein have we despised Your name? (1:6)
3 You offer polluted bread upon My altar. And you say, Wherein have we polluted You? (1:7)
4 You have profaned My table. You say, The table of the Lord is polluted ...His meat is contemptible (1:12)
5 You said also, what weariness is it! and you have snuffed at it (1:13)
6 You brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick for offerings. Should I accept such offerings?
7 Judah has dealt treacherously (2:11)
8 Judah has profaned the holiness of the Lord which He loved 9 You have practiced hypocrisy - weeping and crying in insincerity so that He will not regard your offerings. Yet you say, Wherefore? (2:13)
10 You have wearied the Lord with your words. Yet you say, wherein have we wearied Him? (2:17)
11 Even from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto Me and I will return unto you. But you said, Wherein shall we return? (3:7)
12 Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me. But you say, Wherein have we robbed You? In tithes, offerings (3:8)
13 Your words have been stout against Me. Yet you say, What have we spoken so much against You? (3:13) 14 You have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept His ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of hosts? (3:14)

f Quoted in Rom. 9:13
g Hate as used here is an idiom of preference, as in Lk. 14:25-27, not a term expressing personal malice or jealousy in the sense that we now use it (v 1). This is the 6th of 12 cases in Scripture where God made the choice of the younger over the older brother. Here it was because of the disposition and attitude toward Him. Esau was a fornicator and destitute of hunger for God in his life (Heb. 12:16-17), while Jacob was the type that loved the Lord and hungered to do His will. See 30 lessons from Jacob and Esau, p. 22
h Jackals. Cp. Isa. 13:22; 34:13; Jer. 9:11; 10:22; 49:33; 51:37

2 In every place incense shall be offered unto My name
3 A pure offering will be offered in My name

926 CHAPTER 1

I God's love for Jacob and hatred for Esau (Jer. 49:7, refs.)

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Is'ra-el by Mal'a-chi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not E'sau Ja'cob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Ja'cob,

3 And I hated E'sau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas E'dom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Is'ra-el.

II Sins of Israel (1:6-2:17). 1 Sins of the priests (1:6-2:9). (1) Despising the name of God

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

(2) Their sinful offerings

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

(3) God's millennial purpose: a universal pure religion

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gĕn'tiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

(4) Their hypocrisy and corrupt offerings to God (cp. Isa. 1:10, refs.)

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

927 CHAPTER 2

(5) Commandment to the priests

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

(6) Judgment on the priests

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Lĕ'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

(7) Tenth or Levitic Covenant (Num. 25:10-13; Gen. 1:14, note)

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

(8) Disobedience and judgment

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Lĕ'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made a This verse will be literally fulfilled in the Millennium under Christ (v 11). It teaches a universal pure religion among all nations

b This expression is found 24 times in this short prophecy
c One would think that the priests would have acceptable tables with clean, good cloths on them, but they became careless and acted as if any kind of service was good enough for God; thus the tables and the fruit and meat thereof became contemptible (v 12)
d The service and worship of God were a drudgery to them, so naturally things in God's house were neglected. They snuffed - complained by snivelling (v 13)
e This was contrary to the law, which demanded the best and most perfect animals for sacrifice (Lev. 1:3, 10; 3:1, 6; 4:3, 23, 28, 32; 5:15, 18; 6:6; 9:2-3)
f Question 12. Next, 2:10
g The deceiver in this case was a man who had perfect animals, but offered the imperfect to God, making it appear that this was the best sacrifice he possessed (v 14)
h Here God claimed to be a great King with a name that was dreadful among the heathen. He had been making appeals to Israel, as in v 6-14, for proper respect and reverence - that which was due Him and the kind worthy of His greatness and position as Lord and Sovereign of all creation i It seems that the priests were the ones more responsible for the backsliding and apostasy in Israel than any other group. Now God gave them a special commandment upon which their future blessings were based (v 1-2)
j 3rd prophecy in Mal. (2:2-4, fulfilled). Next, 3:1
6 predictions - fulfilled:
1 I will send a curse upon you (2:2)
2 I will curse your blessings
3 I will corrupt your seed (2:3)
4 I will spread the dung of your solemn feasts upon your faces
5 One shall take you away with it
6 You shall know that I have sent this commandment to you (2:4)
God declared: If you will not hear, and if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to My name all these things will come upon you. This is clearly conditional prophecy; and since the priests did not obey, every detail was fulfilled upon them and the people they corrupted (v 2; Lk. 21:20-24)
k Num. 25:10-13; Dt. 33:8-10 l I gave them the life and peace, because he feared and revered Me (v 5). This seems to be a reference to Levi (Ex. 32:26-29), and to Phinehas (Num. 25:10-13) m The law was in his mouth for teaching others, and iniquity was not found in his lips. He walked with Me in peace and equity, and turned many from their sins (v 6) n Knowledge, especially of the law. They (the people) should seek such knowledge at the mouths of the priests and pass it on to their children (v 7; Dt. 17:9-11)
o 5 messengers in book of Malachi:
1 Malachi - My messenger (1:1)
2 The true priest (2:7)
3 John the Baptist (3:1)
4 The Messiah (3:1-3)
5 Elijah (4:4-5)
p 5 sins of the priests (v 8):
1 Departed out of the way
2 Caused many to stumble at the law
3 Corrupted the covenant of Levi
4 Did not keep God's ways (v 9)
5 Were partial in the law, that is, had respect of persons in administering the law (v 9)
q The priests were to receive a special judgment (v 9)

you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have[a] been partial in the law.

2 Sins of the people (2:10-17). (1) Judah's treachery to God and man

10 [b]Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the [c]covenant of our fathers?

■11 ¶ [d]Jū'dah hath [e]dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Iṣ'ra-el and in Jē-ru'sā-lēm; for Jū'dah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath [f]married the daughter of a strange god.

(2) Judgment for treachery

12 The LORD [g]will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jā'cob, and him that [h]offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

(3) Judah's hypocrisy

13 And this have ye [i]done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

(4) Treachery to wives: warning

14 ¶ Yet ye say, [k]Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

■15 And [l]did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

■16 For the LORD, the God of Iṣ'ra-el, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

(5) God accused of injustice

■17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

III First and second advents of the Messiah (3:1-6). 1 Messiah's first advent (Mt. 3:1; 11:10; Mk. 1:2; Lk. 1:76; 7:27)

[a]BEHOLD, [m]I will send [n]my [o]messenger, and he [p]shall prepare the way before me: and [q]the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to [r]his temple, even [s]the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 Messiah's second advent: rebels purged from Israel (Joel 2:11)

2 [t]But who may abide [u]the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Lē'vī, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

3 THEN: Israel restored

4 [v]Then shall the offering of Jū'dah and Jē-ru'sā-lēm be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

4 Full justice will be meted out to all: eight sins of Judah

■5 And I will come [w]near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness [x]against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress [y]the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

▸6 [z]For I am the LORD, [a]I change not; therefore ye sons of Jā'cob are not consumed.

IV Sins of Israel (3:7-15). 1 Judah's backslidings

■7 ¶ Even from the days of your fathers ye are [b]gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. [c]Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, [d]Wherein shall we return? ◂

2 Robbery of God: curse

■8 ¶ Will a man [e]rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? [f]In tithes and offerings.

9 [g]Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

3 Command and challenge

■10 Bring ye all the [h]tithes into the [i]storehouse, ◂

4 Sevenfold blessing

[j]that there may be meat in mine house, [k]and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not [l]open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

■11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

■12 And all nations shall call a Had respect of persons in administering the law (v 9)

b Questions 13-15. Next, v 14
c See One Father, p. 930
d The Mosaic covenant
e The Israel of 1:1 is called Judah here and in 3:4, Judah is also called Israel in this same verse (v 11)
f 4 sins of Judah (v 11):
1 Dealt treacherously
2 Committed an abomination
3 Profaned the holiness of Jehovah
4 Married the daughter of a strange god
g The men of Judah had lived in sin with the women who were temple prostitutes to a strange or foreign god (v 11). This was a common practice in the worship of many idols, not only in Judah and Israel, but in all pagan lands round about h The Lord promised to cut off those who committed the sins of v 11, whether masters or scholars, priests or prophets, rulers or the people. They would be cut off from the tabernacles of Jacob (v 12)
i The one who makes an offering to an idol as if offering it to the Lord of hosts (v 12)
j Done again, proving that they had lived in hypocrisy before. They were acting like hypocrites, covering the altar of the Lord with tears, and weeping, and crying out. They had done this so often that the Lord would not regard their offerings anymore, or receive them with good will at their hand (v 13) k Questions 16-20. Next, 3:2. Wherefore - why does he not accept our offerings? The reason given was that of men dealing treacherously with the wives of their youth, the companions by covenant (v 14)
l God made two persons out of one in the beginning - the man and his wife; and had He wanted more than one wife for man He would have created more at that time. The passage here expresses God's hatred of divorce-putting away (v 16). The Berkeley reads: "Anyone with intelligence does not act that way; for what did that one do, who was seeking offspring from God? So watch out for your feelings lest you be unfaithful to the wife of your youth. For I hate divorce" (v 15-16) m 4th prophecy in Mal. (3:1-5. V 1 fulfilled; v 2-5 unfulfilled). Next, v 17

3 predictions - fulfilled:
1 I will send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me (3:1)
2 The Lord whom you seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom you delight in 3 He shall come, saith the Lord

5 predictions - unfulfilled:
1 He shall sit as a refiner of silver (3:3)
2 He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering of righteousness
3 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and in former years (3:4)
4 I will come near to you to judgment (3:5)
5 I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, the swearers, and those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless; and a witness against those that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me n Quoted in Mt. 11:10; Mk. 1:2; Lk. 1:76; 7:27. This then refers to the generation in the Lord's day, and not to the time of Malachi. It is the answer to the question of 2:16, Where is the God of judgment?

o John the Baptist (Mt. 2:3; 11:10; Mk. 1:2-3; Lk. 1:76; 3:4; 7:26-27; Jn. 1:23). Cp. Mt. 22:2-3; Isa. 40:3-5 p Prepare - by moving obstacles out of the way (Isa. 40:3; 62:10)
q The Lord, referring to the Messiah who suddenly made His appearance in Jerusalem by a triumphant entry (Mt. 21:12-23; Mk. 11:11-27) r His temple. This suggests that the temple of Zerubbabel was built for Him; the temple that He did come to was called My Father's house (Jn. 2:16)

a Christ is this messenger of the covenant who was predicted to make a new covenant between God and man (v 1; Isa. 42:6; 49:8; 45:3; 57:8; 59:21; 61:8; Jer. 31:31; Heb. 8:6; 12:24; 13:20)
b Questions 21-22. Next, v 7
c Another instance of the 1st and 2nd advents referred to in the same passage. The present dispensation comes in between the events of v 1 and those of v 2. V 1 refers exclusively to the 1st advent of Christ to the Jews and to His temple in the days of John the Baptist, while v 2-3 refer to His 2nd advent in judgment. He shall come then like a refiner's fire, a refiner of silver and gold, and fuller's soap; and He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver that they might offer the offerings of righteousness to the Lord. This is proved by following verses which predict the restoration of Israel (v 4), judgment upon all classes of sinners (v 5), the making up of His jewels (v 17), the regathering of Israel (v 18), the day of the Lord (4:1-3), and the return of Elijah to convert Israel at the time of the coming of that day (4:5-6) d Then - at the 2nd advent of Christ to judge and purify men, the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant to the Lord, as in the days of old - in the former years (v 4)
e He will come personally and visibly to the earth to judge men at the judgment of the nations, and to destroy many for various sins (v 5; Mt. 24:31-46)
f 5 classes in Judah:
1 Sorcerers (v 5)
2 Adulterers
3 False swearers
4 Oppressors
5 The fearless
g 4 classes oppressed by rulers:
1 The hireling, of his wages (v 8)
2 The widow
3 The fatherless - orphans
4 The stranger, of his rights h This was God's reason for not wholly consuming Israel in her sins (v 6)
i See I change not, p. 930

j This expresses the fact that many generations have gone away from God. From the days of your fathers takes us back to the days of coming out of Egypt, and even before then (v 7) k After many generations of asking Israel to return to Him, God was still commanding their return. He promised here to return to them if they would turn to Him; but Israel could not see that they had left Him, so how could they see that they needed to return? (v 7)
l Questions 23-25. Next, v 13
m Defraud. Used here and in Pr. 22:22 n The tithes and offerings belong to God by virtue of covenant agreements with man; and to use them for personal gain is robbery of what rightly belongs to Him (v 8-9)

o Robbing God of tithes and offerings brings a curse; and this applies not only to Israel but to other nations, for He is no respecter of persons. Paying tithes was practiced before the law (Gen. 14:20; 28:22), and commanded under grace in the N. T. (Mt. 23:23; Rom. 2:22; 1 Cor. 9:7-14; 16:2; Gal. 6:6; Heb. 7:1-10)

p See Tithing in Index
q The storehouse in Israel was the temple and cities of the Levites; but in the church it would be considered the place where one receives his spiritual help, where his gospel needs are supplied and where he meets his responsibility in the work of God, in evangelizing the world and supporting the ministery
r The purpose of tithes and offerings was to support the priesthood and the work of God in general (v 10; 1 Cor. 9:7-14) s Here God challenges men to prove Him regarding the rewards of tithing (v 10) t 4 rewards of tithing (v 10-12):
1 Meat in God's house - no lack of means or money to carry on His work
2 Opening of the windows of heaven to pour out a blessing so great that there will not be room enough to receive it
3 Rebuke of the devourer so that he will not destroy the crops
4 Recognition of God's blessings by all men a The blessing of God will make any land a delightsome one, as proved by the fact that the deserts will blossom as a rose and waters will spring forth therein when the Messiah reigns (Isa. 35)

b This certainly was true, for Israel had been in constant rebellion for generations except during a few periods of revival. Even as seen in this small prophecy, Israel was so backslidden as to answer back 10 times out of 14, when God spoke to her (note d, 1:2) c Questions 26-27. Last ones in Malachi d Then-when men begin to fear the Lord. At that time God hearkens; He hears their conversation of reverence; and a book of remembrance is written for them (v 16)
e 5th and last prophecy in Mal. (3:17-4:6, unfulfilled)

10 predictions-unfulfilled:
1 I will come to make up My jewels (3:17)
2 I will spare them, as a man spares his own son
3 Then you will be able to judge (discern) between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves and one who does not (3:16)
4 The day comes that shall burn as an oven (4:1)
5 All the proud and wicked shall be burned up like stubble
6 To you that fear My name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in His wings (4:2)
7 You shall grow up like calves in the stall
8 You shall tread down the wicked; they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in that day (4:3)
9 I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord (4:5)
10 He shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse (4:6)

f In that day-the day God makes up His jewels He will spare them, as a man sparing his own son that serves him (v 17)

34 A spiritual house (1 Pet. 2:5)
35 Strangers and pilgrims (1 Pet. 2:11)
36 Little children (1 Jn. 2:1, 12)

h Then-at the 2nd advent of Christ, Israel will return to their own land; and they will be able to discern between the righteous and the wicked (v 18; Mt. 24:29-31; Rom. 11:25-29)

32 sins in Malachi (Mal. 1:6)
1 Dishonoring God (1:6)
2 Irreverence
3 Despising the name of God
4 Offering polluted bread to God (1:7)
5 Contempt for God's table (1:7, 12)
6 Offering the lame and sick animals to God in sacrifice (1:9, 13)
7 Profaning God's table (1:12)
8 Insincerity (1:13)
9 Deception (1:14)

you blessed: for ye[a] shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 Murmuring, insincerity, and continued rebellion against God (cp. Isa. 1:2, refs.)

13 [b]Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, [c]What have we spoken so much against thee?
14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

6 The wicked are exalted and delivered from judgment and justice

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

V The day of the Lord (3:16-4:6). 1 Preparation for the day of the Lord: the faithful remnant (cp. Isa. 1:9, refs.)

16 [d]Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

2 Messiah's second advent to make up His jewels

17 [e]And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, [f]in that day when I make up my [g]jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

3 Regathering of Israel (Isa. 11:11, refs.)

18 [h]Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER 4 929

4 Destruction of the ungodly (2 Thess. 1:7-10; Jude 14)

FOR, behold, [a]the day cometh, that shall [b]burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

5 Salvation to the righteous

2 ¶ But unto you that [c]fear my name shall [d]the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his [e]wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

6 Wicked to be trodden under the feet of the righteous at Armageddon (Ezek. 38:22; 39:6-16)

3 [f]And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Last admonition to Judah

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Mō'ses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Hō'reb for all Is'ra-el, with the statutes and judgments.

8 Last prophecy to Judah before Messiah's first advent. Elijah in person to return to minister to Judah just before Messiah's second advent (Rev. 11)

5 ¶ Behold, [h]I will send you Ē-lī'jah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:
6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

a The day of the Lord, the 2nd advent of Christ (v 1), called the great and dreadful day of the Lord (v 5) b The fire that will burn up the proud and the wicked like stubble, leaving nothing of their bodies, will be the fire and brimstone spoken of in Ezek. 38:17-23, and the flaming fire that will go out before Christ and His angels and saints (2 Th. 1:7-10). This does not refer to hell fire, as some teach, but to the battle of Armageddon on the day of Christ's 2nd advent. It has no more reference to hell than the fire which destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19:24), or that which consumed many in Israel (Num. 11:1). The wicked will not be cast into hell, all on a certain day, as they will be burned at this time; they go to hell one by one, and not bodily at all, until the 2nd resurrection. Then, they will be cast into the lake of fire, not to be burned up, but to be tormented day and night forever in their indestructible body (Isa. 66:22-24; Mt. 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:41-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15). The burning up of this passage is simply that of the physical body to cause death. The soul and spirit only of such persons will go to hell to be in a conscious state of torment until the 2nd resurrection and judgment (Lk. 16:19-21). See Hell in Index
c Revere My name d This no doubt refers to the 2nd advent of Christ, the Sun of righteousness, who will bring healing to every person on earth; none will be sick when He reigns (Isa. 33:24; 35:5-7; Ezek. 47:12)
e Heb. kanaph, an edge or extremity; wing; something overspreading. Here it refers to the healing rays or beams that will extend from Christ to heal all men on earth (v 2)
f This refers to earthly Israel and others at the battle of Armageddon who will literally tread on the ashes of those burned up by the fire and brimstone falling from heaven (v 3; Ezek. 38:17-22; 2 Th. 1:7-10)
g This is the last command in the O. T.-a command to remember the law of Moses which, at that time had about 500 more years to be in force before being abolished and annulled on the cross of Christ (2 Cor. 3; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 7-10). No such command was ever given in the new covenant, so we are to consider this a particular requirement for the period before Christ
h This is part of the last prophecy in the O. T. It concerns the return of Elijah the prophet (not John the Baptist or some other man) to the earth, from heaven, shortly before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord (v 5-6). At that time there will be one of the greatest spiritual awakenings in the history of mankind. The hearts of fathers and sons, all children and parents, will be turned toward one another; families will be united in Christ; the Holy Spirit will be outpoured upon all flesh and even all of Israel will be saved as a result of the ministry of Elijah and Enoch as in v 5-6; and Rev. 11:3-10; and all of Acts 2:16-21; Rom. 11:25-29; Isa. 66:7-8 and other scriptures will be literally fulfilled. All this will come to pass instead of a curse upon the earth!

THE END OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Summary of Malachi

Date and place: written in Palestine about 557-525 B.C.
Author: Malachi the prophet-one of 3 prophets after the exile, the others being Haggai, and Zechariah Proof of authorship: we have the testimony of the book itself that Malachi wrote it (1:1)

Theme: accusations from God and denials from Israel that He is rightfully accusing them of evil. There are 14 statements of accusations from God and 10 rebellious answers from Israel (p. 925). One of the greatest evidences of backsliding is a person's hyper-critical spirit, his readiness to question everything, even God's own statements, and his willingness to find fault with everybody, even the Lord. The book of Malachi is a rebuke against the many sins of Israel, of which 32 are listed therein (col. 1). The prophet pronounces the moral judgment of God upon the exiles returning from Babylon more than Haggai and Zechariah do. Furthermore, his book contains some of the most wonderful prophecies we have of the 1st and 2nd advent (3:1-5), and of the ministry of Elijah and Enoch preceding the 2nd advent (3:17-4:6)

Purpose: to rebuke the returning exiles for their many sins; to point out to them, at the very outset of their return and restoration as a nation, that God would not tolerate their sins anymore than He did the sins of their fathers (for which they went into ruin, destruction as a nation, and captivity); to warn them of coming judgment if they would continue in sin; and to reveal to them certain events of the future in connection with the Messiah at His 1st and 2nd advents

Statistics: 39th book of the Bible; 4 chapters; 55 verses; 1,783 words; 27 questions; 32 sins of Israel; 5 commands; 5 promises; 30 predictions; 19 verses of prophecy; 6 verses of fulfilled prophecy; 13 verses of unfulfilled prophecy; and 28 distinct messages from God (1:2, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14; 2:1, 4, 8, 11, 16, 17; 3:1, 5, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 17; 4:1)

God's ways and thoughts (Isa. 55:9)

This idea of God's ways and thoughts being higher than man's is connected with the idea of pardon from God (v 6-9)

6 aspects-His ways and thoughts higher:

1 In pardon. Men never would have planned pardon for enemies, as God did-for those who devote themselves to destroying their plans, works, and purposes. Men seek revenge on all such and harbor malice and hatred, whereas God planned redemption and untold glories for His enemies (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 5:8)

2 In number of offences. Under favorable and special circumstances men forgive a few times, but they are prone not to forgive after repeated offences. God forgives freely many times and as completely and lovingly the last time as the first (Mt. 12:31; 18:21-22; 1 Jn. 1:9)

3 In number of offenders. Men may pardon one person or a few who injure them, but the greater the number the less they are inclined to forgive. God forgives all, regardless of the number of offenders (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)

4 In kinds of offences. Men usually limit themselves as to what kind of offences they will forgive, but God has no qualifications on this point, except the offence of rejecting the only means of help He can offer (Mt. 12:31-32)

5 In degree of offences. Men will forgive if an offence is small enough not to be of any great injury to them; but God will forgive the greatest and most aggravated offence against Him (Isa. 53, notes; Jn. 3:16)

6 In mode of pardon. Men may be willing to forgive if it does not cost them much, and they can see that such is to their advantage; but God gave the most precious gift of heaven that He might have a basis of forgiveness for His enemies.God redeems on the basis of personal suffering and having substituted Himself to be punished instead of His enemies. He forgives by the very one whom men sought to destroy, the one made to endure the most horrible sufferings ever laid upon a human being. He blesses by faith in the blood atonement and the death of an innocent person. Man would have punished the guilty and satisfied justice; but God punished the innocent to justify the guilty. In fact the whole program of reconciliation of enemies to God is on such a high level that men never could have planned it

30 examples of higher ways:

1 Living and acting on faith regarding what is not seen, even what seems impossible to be true, while man lives by what he sees and understands is possible (Heb. 10:38-39)

2 God plans for eternity; man for time

3 God the spiritual; man the material

4 God consecrates Himself to the highest good of all; man to self-gratification

5 God works in miraculous and mysterious ways; man in the ordinary way

6 God's ways are supernatural; man's natural

7 God's ways are unlimited; man's limited

8 God exalts through humility; man through self-exaltation

9 God's way up is down; man's is to climb up without going down (humbling self) first

10 God controls by love; man by force

11 God gives justice without reward; man gives it for reward and personal gain

12 God wins respect by goodness; man by wealth and power

13 God redeems by death; man by money

14 God's program is carried on without outward show; man's by show and splendor

15 God's way is to take no thought for the morrow; man's way is made up of constant worry, planning, and fretting

16 God's way is to give alms, pray, and fast in secret-not to be seen of men; man's is by public demonstration

17 God's way is to bring peace on earth by man's personal surrender; man's way is by force of arms and conquest

18 God's healing is through the Saviour's sufferings and death; man's by remedies

19 God's way of social life is to make feasts for the poor, lame, maimed, and outcast (Lk. 14:12-15); man's way is to make them for friends who are well provided for, the rich, and influential

20 God's way is to put away grudges and all bitterness (Heb. 12:15); man's is to hold them and seek revenge

21 God's way is not to take a matter (between brethren) to law (1 Cor. 6); man's is to do this

22 God's way is to lend, hoping nothing in return (Mt. 5:42; Lk. 6:30-38); man's is not to lend without security and gain

23 God's way is to judge not (Mt. 5:42; Lk. 6:30-38); man's is to judge

24 God's way is to do unto others as one would wish to be done unto (Mt. 7:12); man's is to take advantage of others regardless of the outcome

25 God's way is to rejoice and glory in persecution and trouble (Mt. 5:10-12; Rom. 5:1-5); man's is to fight back, resent, and take revenge

26 God's way is to be kind to enemies, and feed them (Mt. 5:44-46; Rom. 12:20); man's way is to show hatred and repay them for their wrong-doing

27 God's way is to be friendly with the lowest and all other classes (Mt. 9:10-13); man's is to show respect of persons, preferring those who can return them personal gain

28 God's way is to forgive 490 times (Mt. 18:21); man's to forgive a few times, and only when necessary

29 God's way is not to boast or seek His own things (1 Cor. 13); man's is to brag and seek things for self

30 God's way is to labor and give to others (Eph. 4:28); man's to labor for self only, and ignore others

God's ways, thoughts, purposes, and acts are, generally speaking, different from those of man. His plan of creation and redemption are different from what man's would have been, as well as His way of government. Truly, just as the heavens are infinitely higher than the earth, so God's way and thoughts are above man's. Cp. Ps. 57:10; 89:2; 103:11

Sinners enter the Millennium (Isa. 65:20):

The theory that every person who enters the Millennium will be born again, and that the only sinners on earth during that time will be born in that period is erroneous

9 proofs sinners enter Millennium:

1 There is no statement in Scripture saying that all men who enter the Millennium will be righteous or born again. We cannot teach this from Mt. 25:34 because the righteousness of that passage consists of doing right by Israel whether one is born again or not. Any man can feed, clothe, visit, and do the other things said regarding the sheep nations of Mt. 25:31-46 who enter the Millennium, without being born again. If these things constituted the new birth then many on earth today who are living in sin would have to be classed with the born-again ones; and this, the Scriptures would not agree to. The judgment of the nations, as in Mt. 25 will be to determine who is worthy of entrance into the kingdom; and being born again is not stated as a qualification either here or elsewhere

2 It has to be admitted that there will be sinners in the Millennium by children being born in the period as such; can it not also be admitted that sinners could enter the Millennium? If God would allow people to be born in sin and live during that time, why would He kill every sinner on earth before then, permitting none to enter that period? That would be unjust and very much unlike the Lord and His plan as revealed in Scripture. Merely living at one time or another does not justify the death penalty; it is the breaking of death-penalty laws that determines death in any period. That there will be sinners on earth during the Millennium is clear from v 20; 11:3-5; Zech. 14:16-21; Rev. 20:7-10. Thus, in the absence of statements showing that there will be sinners born within that period it seems evident that some will enter it from a previous age

3 The only statement in Scripture indicating the salvation of men at the 2nd advent of Christ concerns all Israel in Palestine (66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1, 9; Rom. 11:25-29). There is no statement even saying that all the Jews still scattered throughout the world will be converted at this time, much less all the Gentiles in all parts of the earth, many of whom will not know anything about the 2nd coming of Christ, Armageddon, the judgment of the nations, or Christ's rule in earth until the missionary and civil rulers go out from Jerusalem to extend this government to all parts of the earth. The idea of a blanket government falling suddenly upon all men in all parts of the earth and automatically taking over all the heathen is unscriptural as is the idea that every heathen will be suddenly killed by the 2nd advent of Christ, without an opportunity to hear and know the gospel and a privilege to accept or reject it

4 The truth is that Christ and His armies will land in Jerusalem at His 2nd advent and fight the battle of Armageddon on the first day of His arrival (Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21). Then the nations will be gathered to judgment to determine who is worthy of death for mistreatment of Israel-not every person in every nation on earth, but those responsible in various governments who have had dealings with Israel in the last days (Mt. 25:31-46). After that the resurrected saints and earthly missionaries of Israel will be sent out from Jerusalem to preach the gospel (to everyone including sinners brought into the Millennium from the previous age), and to take over all parts of the earth until the whole is brought under the subjection of Christ (2:2-4; 11:9; 52:7; 66:19-21; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21). How fast and with what immediate success the kingdom of Christ will extend over the entire earth is not known. There may be some local wars in heathen lands with ignorant tribes in the interior of certain continents where they have not heard of Jesus Christ in all their lives. These peoples will be some of the sinners entering the Millennium as such

5 It is plainly stated in 2:2-4 that many, when they hear of Christ and His reign in Jerusalem, will say, "Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths: for out of Zion will go forth the law (civil laws of the government), and the word of the Lord (the gospel) from Jerusalem. And He (the Messiah) shall judge among many nations, and shall rebuke many people." Why would He need to judge and rebuke if all at that time are already born again, and love Him enough to surrender to Him? If missionaries are right in telling us that at least a billion people in the world have never heard of the name of Jesus Christ, then it stands to reason that there will be multitudes of sinners from the present age for the millennial missionaries to convert. For this reason the Word of the Lord will go out from Jerusalem (2:2-4) and salvation will be offered to all men in that period (52:7; 66:19-21). Those who refuse to send representatives to Jerusalem to worship Christ will have no rain upon them (Zech. 14:16-21). This alone implies that all who enter the Millennium will not be born again and obedient to the Lord's government

6 From Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 22-27; Rev. 11:15 and other scriptures we learn that all kingdoms of this world will become the kingdoms of God and of Christ. No passage even hints that these kingdoms will be made up entirely of born-again people or that the new birth is the necessary qualification for continuing to live on the earth after God sets up His kingdom among men. What we do read of these kingdoms is that there will be sinners here at that time (65:20), men will need to be judged and rebuked (2:2-4; 11:3-5; Mic. 4:3), kingdoms that will not submit will be destroyed (60:12), men will still need the gospel of salvation (11:9; 52:7), they will still disobey (Zech. 14:16-21), there will be enemies here to put down (1 Cor. 15:24-28), and that the final act of putting them down and bringing all things to the complete obedience of God will take place at the end of the 1,000 years (Rev. 20:7-10)

7 Zech. 8:23 speaks of heathen submitting because of hearing about God reigning in Zion-when Jewish missionaries go out from Zion and Jerusalem to win them (cp. 52:7). This indicates the entrance of sinners into the Millennium from a previous age

8 From Zech. 14:16-21 we learn that the people who are left on earth after Armageddon (not those born in the Millennium after this battle) will be required to obey the government and send representatives to Jerusalem year by year-or be punished. If all these were to be born-again people there would be no question of obedience and no threat of punishment

9 In 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 20:7-10 it is clear that there will be enemies here throughout the entire 1,000 years; so we must conclude that those at the very first of the period will be sinners who have entered the Millennium from a former age. The purpose of Christ's reign will be to put these enemies under His feet. The final conquering will take place at the end of the 1,000 years, when Satan leads a final rebellion against God, accompanied by all the sinners who have lived through the Millennium

35 commands in Zechariah (Zech. 1:3):

1 Turn you unto Me (1:3)
2 Be not as your fathers (1:4)
3 Cry yet saying (1:17)
4 Run, speak to this young man (2:4)
5 Deliver yourself, O Zion (2:7)
6 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion (2:10)
7 Be silent, O all flesh, before the Lord (2:13)
8 Take away the filthy garments from him (3:4)
9 Let them set a fair mitre upon his head (3:5)
10 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows (3:8)
11 Lift up your eyes now, and see what is this that goes forth (5:5)
12 Ger you hence, walk to and fro through the earth (6:7)
13 Take of them of the captivity, which are come from Babylon, and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah (6:10)
14 Take silver and gold and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the high priest (6:11)
15 Speak unto him saying (6:12)
16 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests (7:5)
17 Execute true judgment (7:9)
18 Show mercy and compassions every man to his brother
19 Oppress not the widow, the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor (7:10)
20 Let none of you imagine evil against his brother in his heart
21 Let your hands be strong, you that hear My prophets these days (8:9)
22 Speak every man truth to his neighbor (8:16)
23 Execute judgment of truth and peace in your gates
24 Let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbor (8:17)
25 Love no false oath
26 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion (9:9)
27 Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem
28 Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope (9:12)
29 Ask you rain of the Lord in the time of the latter rain (10:1)
30 Open your doors, O Lebanon (11:1)
31 Howl, fir tree (11:2)
32 Feed the flock of the slaughter (11:4)
33 Cast it unto the potter (11:13)
34 Take unto you yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd (11:15)
35 Awake, sword, against My shepherd, and against the man that is My fellow (13:7)

10 visions of Zechariah (Zech. 1:8):

1 Spirit horses and riders-invisible agencies of God (1:7-17)
2 The 4 horns-Gentile powers, or kings that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem (1:18-19)
3 The 4 carpenters-Gentile powers or kings that have scattered Judah

(1:20-21)
4 Man with a measuring line-restoration of Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem under the Messiah (2:1-13)
5 Joshua the high priest and Satan-the priesthood restored to Israel and Satan defeated (3:1-7)
6 Joshua, his fellows, and God's servant, the Branch, and the Stone-coming of Messiah and His reign (3:8-10)
7 The 2 golden candlesticks and 2 olive trees-2 anointed men standing before God in heaven, the 2 witnesses (4:1-14; Rev. 11:3-11)
8 The flying scroll-judgment on the wicked for sins (5:1-4)
9 Women in an ephah-rebuilding and restoration of Babylon (5:5-11)
10 The 4 chariots and spirit horses-invisible agencies of God (6:1-8)

Dispersion of Israel (Zech. 2:6)

I have scattered you in all lands and among all peoples as the four winds blow in all parts of the earth (v 6). This was in fulfillment of Dt. 4:27; 28:64 and other earlier scriptures of the O. T. as well as some in the N. T. (Lk. 21:20-24). Since this prophecy the Jews have been established; but they went into sin again, crucified their Messiah, and had to be scattered another time. It is from this second scattering that they are now being gathered. They will continue to be gathered until the 2nd advent of Christ; then the final ones will be brought back to their own land to live forever under the reign of Christ (Isa. 11:10-12, notes; Mt. 24:31)

For His own glory (Zech. 2:8)

This could read, For His own glory, or as the Sept. reads, "He behind glory sent Me" against the nations that plundered you. The Messiah is the one speaking here for the Lord of hosts, and the one referred to as I and Me. He tells Israel that the Lord of hosts hath sent Me unto (against) the nations (Gentiles) which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of His (the Lord of host's) eye... I (Messiah) will shake My hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and you shall know that the Lord of hosts hath sent Me (v 8-11)

Judah rejoicing (Zech. 2:10)

Judah and Zion, meaning all the tribes of Israel in the future restoration, are commanded to sing and rejoice, for the Messiah has come to dwell in the midst of them. It is Christ, and not God, the Father, who will dwell in the midst of Israel, in Jerusalem, and in the holy temple of the Millennium (Ezek. 43:7; 48:35; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10). God, the Father, will not come to live in the midst of men on earth until He moves His capital city, the New Jerusalem, from the planet heaven to the planet earth after the Millennium (Rev. 21:1-22:8). Then, all three members of the Divine Trinity will live on earth among men eternally

Mountains of brass (Zech. 6:1)

These mountains were evidently some on the planet heaven, there being none like them on earth. Inasmuch as there are streets of gold, gates of pearls, and foundations garnished with all manner of precious stones, in heaven, it may reasonably be assumed that there are also some mountains of brass, as well as silver and gold (Rev. 21:9-21). There is no reason for making these mountains, horses, and chariots symbolic; if they were representative of something the symbolism would be explained as in the other visions. It is evident that here we have a revelation of such literal creatures being in existence-spirit beings who go to and fro through the whole earth as God's scouts. It seems they travel from heaven to earth and back again whenever occasion requires it as in the case of the chariot, horses, and horsemen which took Elijah to heaven (2 Ki. 2:11), and those which protected Elisha (2 Ki. 6:14-17)

Rebuilding of the temple (Zech. 6:12)

Ezekiel devoted 9 full chapters to the subject of the rebuilding of the millennial temple, the sanctuary, the holy oblation, and Jerusalem, as they will be when Messiah reigns (Ezek. 40:5-48:35); but he did not reveal who the chief builder would be. Zechariah is very plain here, showing that Christ will be the one to build the future eternal temple (v 12). This will not be the future Jewish temple in Jerusalem in the days of Antichrist, who will take over Palestine for 3 1/2 years, for that house will be destroyed when the city is divided by the great earthquake under the 7th vial (Rev. 11:13; 16:17-21), and when the mount of Olives is completely removed (Zech. 14:1-5). The one referred to here will not be built until the 2nd advent of Christ to take over the kingdoms of this world (v 12-13; Rev. 11:15)

Old age (Zech. 8:4)

This must be understood in a figurative sense as referring to long life, and not taken to mean that men and women will be so feeble that they will need to walk with canes. The fact is that there will be no sickness when this is fulfilled-the lame will leap like an hart, and men who do not sin and rebel will live eternally (v 4-5; Isa. 33:24; 35:5-7; 65:20-25; Mt. 25:34, 46). For those who do not rebel, and who are alive and worthy of entrance into the new earth after the Millennium, there will be no more death, tears, pain, suffering, of any other part of the curse which causes men to grow old and feeble (Rev. 21:2-7; 22:1-5)

4 fasts of Israel (Zech. 8:19):

1 Fast of the 9th day of the 4th month (Tammuz, July). On that day the city of Jerusalem was broken up by Nebuchadnezzar (Jer. 52:6-7)

2 Fast of the 10th day of the 5th month (Ab, August). On that day the temple and houses of Jerusalem were burned (Jer. 52:12-13)

3 Fast of the 3rd day of the 7th month (Tisri, or Ethanim, October), the day Gedaliah was slain (Jer. 40:8; 41:1-3, 15-18)

4 Fast of the 10th day of the 10th month (Tebeth, January), the day the king of Babylon set his face against Jerusalem (Ezek. 24:1-2)

Note that all of these facts had to do with calamity upon Judah and Jerusalem-not one was in honor of God, to serve Him. For this reason He told them that they did not fast unto Him, but for themselves (7:5-6). Regardless of this however, the Lord predicted here that even these fasts would be blessed and filled with joy and gladness when He fully restored Jerusalem and the nation. Such fasts commemorating their calamities would then be a joyful time because of the wonderful blessings upon them in the days of their Messiah

2 things all nations can do (Zech. 8:21):
1 Pray to the Lord in Jerusalem (v 21-22; 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4)
2 Seek the Lord (v 21-22)

These are the two main things which God has sought to bring to pass on earth from the earliest times of man's rebellion. It will have taken Him over 6,000 years to accomplish His plan regarding this matter by the time these predictions are fulfilled. There will be some rebels in the Millennium who will not choose to serve God, so Satan will be loosed at the end of that period to give them the opportunity they desire; he will lead them in an attempt to overthrow the government and take over the earth again. But theirs will be a vain hope, for they will be defeated and destroyed (Rev. 20:7-10). In the new earth, those from the millennial period who continue to live in all eternity to come, will be willing subjects of God and will honor and worship Him, as man would have done if sin had not caused his original fall (Isa. 66:22-24; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:3-7; 22:1-5)

In those days (Zech. 8:23)

In those days-when the Messiah is reigning and it will become known in all parts of the world, even in the remote places outside civilization, that He is taking over all the earth, this will be literally fulfilled in many nations. There is no special significance to the word ten. The number could have been five, twenty, or any other, and it would have conveyed the same idea-that of people in all nations inquiring whether God really reigns in Jerusalem (v 23; 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; Mic. 4). It will take some time for the facts to be known everywhere-that a change in world governments is taking place, and that Christ, David, the apostles, and resurrected saints are taking them over (14:1-21; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10). It will require months and maybe years to establish this universal reign fully, bring all men into submission to it, have the laws published and taught to the people of the whole earth, and to bring about universal peace and prosperity. The purpose of the 1,000-year reign of Christ will be to put all enemies down and to rid the entire earth of its last rebels. This much we can rely upon, that the change will be made as quickly as possible, that wars and battles will be avoided wherever they can be, that much will be accomplished by miraculous powers being demonstrated in the healing of the heathen and otherwise winning them over by the gospel program, and that Christ's rule will be one of patience and as much peace as possible until the plan of God is fully realized and all rebels are destroyed (Isa. 65:20; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10)

2 dispersions of Israel (Zech. 10:9):

This has been done twice in the past-once when they were taken to Babylon (2 Ki. 25), and another time when Rome led them away captive among all nations (Lk. 21:20-24). It was predicted here that they would finally remember God in all countries where they lived with their children; and when they would return to their own land (v 9). They were to be brought again to Palestine-gathered from all parts of the earth. In the complete fulfillment of this there would be so many returning that there would be no room to receive them (v 10). This certainly suggests a great boom in Palestine and the East when the Messiah reigns. In that time there will be a spiritual revival and men will walk up and down in the name of the Lord, giving glory to Him (v 12)

15th prophecy in Zech. (Zech. 10:1-12)
27 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 The Lord will make bright clouds, and give rain to every one grass in the field (10:1)
2 My anger was kindled against the shepherds (10:3)
3 I punished the goats
4 The Lord has made Judah as a goodly horse in the battle
5 They shall be as mighty men (10:5)
6 They shall fight because the Lord is with them
7 The riders on horses shall be confounded
8 I will strengthen the house of Judah (10:6)
9 I will save the house of Joseph 10 I will bring them again to place them
11 I will have mercy upon them
12 They shall be as though I had not cast them off
13 I will hear them
14 They of Ephraim shall be like mighty men (10:7)
15 Their heart shall rejoice as through wine
16 Their children shall see it and be glad Lord 17 Their heart shall be glad in the 18 I will hiss for them and gather them
19 They shall increase as they have increased (10:8)
20 They shall remember Me in far countries and shall live with their children and turn again (10:9)
21 I will bring them again out of many countries; and place shall not be found for them (10:10)
22 He shall pass through the sea with affliction, and smite the waves of the sea (10:11) up
23 All the deeps of the river shall dry
24 The pride of Assyria shall be brought down 25 The sceptre of Egypt shall depart
26 I will strengthen them in the Lord
27 They shall walk up and down in His name (10:12)

17th and last prophecy in Zech. (12:1-14:21. Only 13:7 has been fulfilled)
4 predictions-fulfilled:

1 The sword will be against My shepherd and My fellow (13:7)
2 He shall be smitten
3 The sheep shall be scattered
4 I will care for the little ones

75 predictions-unfulfilled:

1 I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and Jerusalem (12:2)
2 In that day I will make Jerusalem a burdensom stone for all people (12:3)
3 All that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all people of the earth be gathered against it
4 In that day I will smite every horse with astonishment (12:4)
5 I will smite his rider with madness
6 I will open My eyes upon the house of Judah
7 I will smite every horse of the people (the invaders) with blindness
8 The governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the Lord (12:5)
9 In that day I will make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf (12:6)
10 They shall devour all the people round about 11 Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place
12 The Lord shall save the tents of Judah first (12:7)
13 In that day the Lord shall defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem (12:8)
14 He that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David 15 The house of David will be as God, and as the angel of the Lord before them
16 In that day I will seek to destroy all nations that come against Jerusalem (12:9)
17 I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplications (12:10)
18 They shall look upon Me whom they have pierced 19 They shall mourn for Him, as one that mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn
20 In that day there shall be great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddon (12:11)
21 The land shall mourn, every family apart, and their wives apart (12:12-14)
22 In that day there shall be a foundation opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanness (13:1)
23 In that day I will cut off the names of idols out of the land (13:2)
24 They shall no more be remembered
25 I will also cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land
26 When any man shall yet prophesy, then his father and mother shall say to him, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of the Lord (13:3)
27 In that day the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision (13:4)
28 The prophets will no longer wear rough garments to deceive, but will seek to avoid prophecy (13:4-5) 29 One shall say to Him, What are these wounds in Your hands?
30 Then He shall say, Those with which I was wounded in the house of My friends (13:6)
31 In all the land, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third part shall be left therein (13:8)
32 I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined (13:9)
33 I will try them as gold is tried 34 They shall call on My name, and I will hear them
35 I will say, It is My people God
36 They shall say, The Lord is my 37 The day of the Lord comes, and your spoil shall be divided in the midst of you (14:1)
38 I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle (14:2) 39 The city shall be taken 40 The houses shall be rifled
41 The women shall be ravished
42 Half the city shall go forth into captivity
43 The rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city
44 Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when He fought in the day of battle (14:3)

45 His feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east (14:4)
46 The mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley
47 Half the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half toward the south
48 You shall flee to the valley of the mountains as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah (14:5)
49 The Lord My God shall come, and all the saints with You
50 In that day the light shall not be clear, nor dark (14:6)
51 It shall be one day which shall be known to the Lord, not day, nor night; but at evening time there shall be light (14:7)
52 In that day living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half toward the former sea, and half toward the hinder sea (14:8) winter
53 This will be in summer and in 54 The Lord shall be King over all the earth (14:9)
55 In that day there shall be one Lord, and His name one 56 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem (14:10)
57 It shall be lifted up and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses (14:10)
58 Men shall dwell in it (14:11)
59 There shall be no more utter destruction
60 Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited
61 This shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth (14:12)
62 In that day a great tumult from the Lord shall be among them (14:13)
63 They shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor
64 Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem (14:14)
65 The wealth of the heathen shall be gathered round about, gold, silver, and apparel, in great abundance
66 The plague will also be upon all the animals that shall be in the army of the Antichrist (14:15)
67 Every one that is left of all the nations that come against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles (14:16)
68 Whoever will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, even upon them there shall be no rain (14:17)
69 If the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, they will have no rain (14:18)
70 This will be the plague the Lord will smite the heathen and other nations with that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles (14:18-19)
71 In that day there shall be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD (14:20)
72 The pots in the Lord's house shall be like the bowls before the altar
73 Every pot in Jerusalem shall be HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD OF HOSTS (14:21)
74 All that sacrifice shall come and take them and boil their sacrifices in them
75 In that day there shall be no more a Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts

Fellow of Jehovah (Zech. 13:7)

This verse stands wholly unconnected, unless we see it in the light of looking back from future glory to the time of His rejection and sufferings, when Isa. 53 was fulfilled. The sword was to touch the life of One who was a Man and a Fellow of Jehovah (v 7). The Heb. for fellow is awmeeth, from a primitive root meaning to associate with; companionship; comrade; kindred man; another fellow of the same kind and nature. It proves that there is more than one person in the Godhead. This Shepherd is a fellow-God, another-God, a comrade-God, an associate-God, a kindred-God. Only here is the word trans. fellow; elsewhere it is trans. another (Lev. 19:11; 25:17); and neighbour (Lev. 6:2; 18:20; 19:11, 15, 17; 24:19; 25:14, 15); but even these renderings uphold the idea that the reference is to another person of the same kind and nature. In this passage both persons are called Lord (v 7; 14:9). In v 6-7 Jehovah speaks of what Israel will say concerning the Messiah; in v 7 Jehovah calls the Messiah My Shepherd, the Man that is My Fellow, and says: smite the Shepherd (My shepherd, not Me) and the sheep shall be scattered: and I (the Lord of hosts) will turn Mine hand upon the little ones. If the Lord calls another person My Shepherd, and My Fellow, then there must be two persons referred to

One Father (Mal. 2:10)

All men have one father in the original created parent; God is not the creator of each person after that, as reproduced by man. Technically, God only created one man and one woman; all others are reproductions of the original pair. God gave man and all other creatures power in themselves to reproduce themselves. To be a child of God and have the authority to call Him Father, one should be born again of the Holy Spirit and be adopted into His family (Jn. 3:3-5; Rom. 8:14-16). Sinners are not children of God. The doctrine of the universal brotherhood of men and the universal Fatherhood of God is foreign to Scripture. Men are either children of the devil by choice and nature or children of God by choice and nature. Cp. Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 3:8. This principle not only holds true in sonship and fatherhood, but also in creation. One has to be created anew in Christ to be considered created of God as an individual; otherwise he is a creation of God only through the creation of the first parents (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 2:10; 4:24). The sinner, being a child of the devil, and destined to wrath (Eph. 2:1-3; 1 Jn. 3:8-10) becomes the creation of God only through choice and consecration to the same end to which God is consecrated

I change not (Mal. 3:6)

I change not. This could only refer to basic character, and to keeping covenant, not to acts of judgment or mercy when needed. God has repented or changed His mind when it became necessary because of free moral agents rebelling to the point of judgment; and this was in keeping with His character. He is absolute in holiness and justice, and is morally and divinely obligated for the good of all to judge the few or all if need be - or to show mercy to one and all should they meet the conditions of mercy. God does not and cannot change His original and eternal plan and purpose, but He can and does change some ways and means of fulfilling the plan. See Repent in Index

The minor prophets:

The 12 prophets (Hosea through Malachi) are called the lesser or minor prophets, not because they are less important or less inspired, but only because the prophecies are considered shorter. This is not technically true altogether, for the book of Zechariah, having only 211 verses compared to Daniel's 357, has 6,444 words compared to Daniel's 5,175. Regarding the major prophets there are others not so recognized which could have been classed as such if we regarded the number of predictions made. Moses and David made many more predictions than Daniel, for instance. In the Hebrew Bible the O.T. prophets were divided into two groups:

1 The former prophets (Joshua to 2 Kings. See Zech. 1:4; 7:7, 12)

2 The latter prophets (Isaiah to Malachi, with the exception of Daniel)

The book of Daniel was placed with the Hagiographa, Sacred Writers in the Hebrew Bible, which included Psalms, Proverbs, Job, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, Esther, Ezra, Nehemiah, 1 and 2 Chronicles, Besides this division and the above two the only other one was the Law, or the 5 books of Moses. The 12 minor prophets were considered one nation. Of the 12 books, 6 are dated; and they may be divided thus: 9 before the captivity, and 3 after it

BETWEEN THE TESTAMENTS

Between the testaments, Israel continued in her struggles for existence and restoration during the period between Malachi and the events of the N.T. Ezra and Nehemiah left a settled form of government in Palestine, ruled by a council of elders and priests who formed an ecclesiastical court, and who interpreted the law and enforced obedience. They were the Great Synagogue of 120 members which ruled for 150 years, until Simon the Just, about 292 B.C.

They held that the law was given in a 2fold form: the written law consisting of brief official enactments, and the oral law of more copious details passed down from Moses to Joshua and the elders that outlived him, and on to the prophets, being conveyed by Jeremiah to Ezra who gave it to the Great Synagogue, to whom Nehemiah gave a complete library of the sacred books (2 Mac. 2:13). To the Great Synagogue (of which Ezra was the founder and president) the Jews owe acknowledgement for the 613 Precepts, and the oral tradition which may be considered the groundwork of the Talmud - referred to by Christ (Mt. 5:21, 27, 31, 33, 38, 43; 15:2-6; Mk. 3-13) and the apostles (Gal. 1:14; Col. 2:8; 1 Pet. 1:18) as the tradition of the elders and doctrines and commandments of men

Ezra and Nehemiah set up synagogues in many towns for worship, schools of instruction, and local courts where men were tried for crimes against the state and society. Attached to each synagogue was a body of rulers - civil magistrates and ecclesiastical presbyters. During this time Palestine was ruled by Persia and formed only a part of a province under the Satrap of Syria

In 331 B.C., after the victories of Alexander the Great, of Greece, over Persia, he took possession of Syria, allowing the Jews to retain self-government and their own religion. When he built Alexandria in Egypt, he invited many Jews to settle there, giving them equal rights with his other subjects. It was here that the famous Septuagint version of the O.T. into Greek was made, about 294-289 B.C., by the Jews of this city

When Alexander died his kingdom was divided among his 4 generals, Cassander took Greece and Macedonia; Lysimachus took Asia Minor; Seleucus took Syria, Babylon, Persia, Media, and other eastern parts; and Ptoloemy took Egypt. Most of the 3rd century B.C. was taken up with wars between these rival kings. During this time the Roman power began to be felt and after a series of struggles the Romans conquered Greece and Macedonia, about 200 B.C. Rome fought Macedonia and Syria again in a war, 200-207 B.C., and won. Again, in 168 B.C. the Macedonian kingdom fought Rome, lost in the conflict, and came to an end. Both Greece and Macedonia became a part of the Roman empire

In all this time (331-165 B.C.) the Syrian and Egyptian divisions of Alexander's empire fought with each other, off and on, over the possession of Palestine. It was during this time that Dan. 11:1-34 was fulfilled, ending with the reign of Antiochus Epiphanes who took Jerusalem about 170 B.C. and polluted the temple, compelling the Jews to sacrifice to idols. He erected the statue of Jupiter on the altar of burnt offerings, sacrificed swine, burned the Scriptures, and prohibited the worship of Jehovah. At this time the Maccabees arose - an Asmonian family. Under them the Jews became victorious. Jerusalem was liberated and true worship of God was re-established in December, 165 B.C. It was then the Feast of Dedication was instituted; and it continued until the time of Christ. The Maccabean family were able to hold the main sway in Judea, but were forced to make some terms with the Romans under whose protection they retained considerable freedom

In 47 B.C. Julius Caesar gave Hyrcanus and his heirs all rights of the high priesthood, and the right of appeal to Caesar for all Jews. Exemption from all tribute every 7th year was also granted to the Jews because they neither sowed nor reaped in that year. Furthermore, they received freedom from military service, and were given the right to meet and assemble together according to their own customs and laws. All this was ratified by the Roman senate in 44 B.C. For maintenance of order and general political government a Roman official presided over all Syria

In 37 B.C. Herod the Great, by the aid of Roman troops, deposed the last Asmonian prince, Antigonus, and became the nominal sovereign of the Jews, subject to Rome. He betrayed his people to the Romans, fostered immorality, cultivated alien customs, encouraged mistrust, corrupted the priesthood, and massacred many nobles. He built the temple on a magnificent scale. This loss of temporal power drove the Jews to a state of pride over the past and made them rebellious in heart against the Romans. Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers became more esteemed than priests and Levites. From the much confusion and controversy among the Jews over interpretations of the law and prophecy came the two great sects - the Pharisees and Sadducees. When the nation rebelled against the Romans, in 70 A.D., they were defeated and scattered among the Gentile nations

486 What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?(15:14)
487 When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel? (15:17)
488 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the Lord? (15:19)
489 Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? (15:22)
490 How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? (16:1)
491 How can I go? (16:2)
492 Comest thou peaceably? (16:4)
493 Are here all thy children?(16:11)
494 Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? (17:8)
495 Am not I a Philistine and ye servants to Saul? (17:8)
496 Have ye seen this man that is come up? (17:25)
497 What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? (17:26)
498 Who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? (17:26) (17:28)
499 Why camest thou down hither?
500 With whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? (17:28)
501 What have I done? (17:29)
502 Is there not a cause? (17:29)
503 Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? (17:43)
504 Whose son is this youth? (17:55)
505 Whose son art thou, thou young man? (17:58)
506 What can be have more but the kingdom? (18:8)
507 Who am I? (18:18)
508 What is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king? (18:18)
509 Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed? (18:23)
510 Wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? (19:5)
511 Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? (19:17)
512 Why should I kill thee? (19:17)
513 Where are Samuel and David? (19:22)
514 Is Saul also among the prophets? (19:24)
515 What have I done ? (20:1)
516 What is mine iniquity ? (20:1)
517 What is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? (20:1)
518 Why should my father hide this thing from me? (20:2)
519 Why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? (20:8)
520 If I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? (20:9)
521 Who shall tell me? (20:10)
522 What if thy father answer thee roughly? (20:10)
523 Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day? (20:27)
524 Do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness? (20:30) 32) 525 Wherefore shall he be slain? (20:
526 What hath he done? (20:32)
527 Wherefore shall he be slain? (20: 37)
528 Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? (21:1)
529 Now therefore what is under thine hand? (21:3)
530 Is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? (21:8)
531 Is not this David the king of the land? (21:11)
532 Did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? (21:11)
533 Wherefore then have ye brought him to me? (21:14)
534 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? (21:15)
535 Shall this fellow come into my house? (21:15)
536 Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds: That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? (22:13)
537 Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? (22:13)
538 And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? (22:14)
539 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? (22:15)
540 Shall I go and smite these Philistines? (23:2)
541 How much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? (23:3)
542 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? (23:11)
543 Will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? (23:11)
544 Will the man of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? (23:12)
545 Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Jeshimon? (23:19)
546 Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? (24:9)
547 After whom is the king of Israel come out? (24:14) (24:14)
548 After whom dost thou pursue?
549 Is this thy voice, my son David? (24:16)
550 If a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? (24:19)
551 Who is David? (25:10)
552 Who is the son of Jesse? (25:10)
553 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be? (25:11)
554 Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? (26:1)
555 Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? (26:6)
556 Who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless? (26:9) 14) 557 Answerest thou not, Abner? (26:
558 Who art thou that criest to the king? (26:14) 15) 559 Art not thou a valient man? (26:
560 Who is like to thee in Israel? (26:15)
561 Wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? (26:15) (26:17)
562 Is this thy voice, my son David?
563 Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? (26:18)
564 What have I done? (26:18) 18)
565 What evil is in mine hand? (26:
566 Why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? (27:5)
567 Whither have ye made a road to day? (27:10)
568 Wherefore then live yest thou a mare for my life, to cause me to die? (28:9) 569 Whom shall I bring up unto thee? (28:11) 12) 570 Why hast thou deceived me? (28:
571 What sawest thou? (28:13)
572 What form is he of? (28:14)
573 Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? (28:15)
574 Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the Lord is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? (28: 16) (29:3)
575 What do these Hebrews here ?
576 Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day? (29:3)
577 Wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? (29:4)
578 Should it not be with the heads of these men? (29:4)

579 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands? (29:5)
580 What have I done? (29:8)
581 What hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? (29:8) (30:8)
582 Shall I pursue after this troop?
583 Shall I overtake them? (30:8)
584 To whom belongest thou? (30:13)
585 Whence art thou? (30:13)
586 Canst thou bring me down to this company? (30:15)
587 Who will hearken unto you in this matter? (30:24)

1093 Wherefore then hast Thou brought me forth out of the womb? (10:18)
1094 Are not my days few? (10:20)
1095 Should not the multitude of words be answered? (11:2)
1096 Should a man full of talk be justified? (11:2)
1097 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? (11:3)
1098 When thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed? (11:3)
1099 Canst thou by searching find out God? (11:7)
1100 Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? (11:7)
1101 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? (11:8)
1102 Deeper than hell: what canst thou know? (11:8)
1103 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder Him? (11:10)
1104 He seeth wickedness also: will He not then consider it? (11:11)
1105 Who knoweth not such things as these? (12:3)
1106 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this? (12:9) 11) 1107 Doth not the ear try words? (12:
1108 And the mouth taste his meat? (12:11)
1109 Will he speak wickedly for God? (13:7) (13:7)
1110 And talk deceitfully for Him?
1111 Will ye accept His person? (13:8)
1112 Will ye contend for God? (13:8)
1113 Is it good that He should search you out? (13:9)
1114 Or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock Him? (13:9)
1115 Shall not His excellency make you afraid? (13:11) (13:11)
1116 And His dread fall upon you?
1117 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand? (13:14)
1118 Who is he that will plead with me? (13:19)
1119 How many are mine iniquities and sins? (13:23)
1120 Wherefore hidest Thou Thy face, and holdest me for Thine enemy? (13:24)
1121 Wilt Thou break a leaf driven to and fro? (13:25)
1122 Wilt Thou pursue the dry stubble? (13:25)
1123 Dost Thou open Thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with Thee? (14:3)
1124 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? (14:4)
1125 Where is he? (14:10)
1126 If a man die, shall he live again? (14:14) (14:16)
1127 Dost Thou watch over my sin?
1128 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? (15:2)
1129 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? (15:3)
1130 Or speeches wherewith he can do no good? (15:3)
1131 Art thou the first man that was born? (15:7) (15:7)
1132 Wast thou made before the hills?
1133 Hast thou heard the secret of God? (15:8)
1134 Dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself? (15:8)
1135 What knowest thou that we know not? (15:9)
1136 What understandest thou, which is not in us? (15:9)
1137 Are the consolations of God small with thee? (15:11)
1138 Is there any secret thing with thee? (15:11)
1139 Why dost thine heart carry thee away? (15:12)
1140 What do thy eyes wink that thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth? (15:12-13) 1141 What is man, that he should be clean? (15:14)

1142 And he that is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? (15:14)
1143 He putteth no trust in His saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in His sight. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water? (15:15-16)
1144 Where is it? (15:23) (16:3)
1145 Shall vain words have an end?
1146 What emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? (16:3)
1147 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased? (16:6)
1148 Are there not mockers with me? (17:2)
1149 Doth not mine eye continue in their provocation? (17:2)
1150 Who is he that will strike hands with me? (17:3)
1151 Where is now my hope? (17:15)
1152 As for my hope, who shall see it? (17:15)
1153 How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? (18:2)
1154 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight? (18:3)
1155 Shall the earth be forsaken for thee? (18:4)
1156 Shall the rock be removed out of his place? (18:4)
1157 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words? (19:2)
1158 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? (19:22)
1159 Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me? (19:28)
1160 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth? (20:
1161 Where is he? (20:7) 4)
1162 As for me, is my complaint to man? (21:4)
1163 Why should my spirit be troubled? (21:4)
1164 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power? (21:7)
1165 What is the Almighty that we should serve Him? (21:15)
1166 What profit should we have, if we pray unto Him? (21:15)
1167 What pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of months is cut off in the midst? (21:21)
1168 Shall any teach God knowledge? (21:22) (21:28)
1169 Where is the house of the prince?
1170 Where are the dwelling places of the wicked? (21:28)
1171 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? (21:29)
1172 Do ye not know their tokens, that the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? (21:30)
1173 Who will declare his way to his face? (21:31)
1174 Who shall repay him for what he hath done? (21:31)
1175 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood? (21:34)
1176 Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself? (22:2)
1177 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? (22:3)
1178 Is it gain to Him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? (22:3)
1179 Will He reprove thee for fear of thee? (22:4)
1180 Will He enter with thee into judgment? (22:4) 5) 1181 Is not thy wickedness great? (22:
1182 And thine iniquities infinite? (22:5)
1183 Is not God in the height of heaven? (22:12)
1184 Thou sayest, How doth God know? (22:13)
1185 Can He judge through the dark cloud? (22:13)
1186 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden? (22:15)
1187 What can the Almighty do for them? (22:17)
1188 Will He plead against me with His great power? (23:6)
1189 He is in one mind, and who can turn Him? (23:13)
1190 Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know Him not see his days? (24:1)
1191 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth? (24:25)
1192 Is there any number of His armies? (25:3)
1193 Upon whom doth not His light arise? (25:3)
1194 How then can man be justified with God? (25:4)
1195 How can he be clean that is born of a woman? (25:4)
1196 The stars are not pure in His sight. How much less man, that is a worm? (25:6)
1197 And the son of man, which is a worm? (25:6)
1198 How hast thou helped him that is without power? (26:2)
1199 How savest thou the arm that hath no strength? (26:2)
1200 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? (26:3)
1201 How hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is? (26:3)
1202 To whom hast thou uttered words? (26:4)
1203 And whose spirit came from thee? (26:4)
1204 These are parts of His ways: but how little a portion is heard of Him? (26:14)
1205 But the thunder of His power who can understand? (26:14)
1206 What is the hope of a hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul? (27:8)
1207 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him? (27:9)
1208 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? (27:10) (27:10)
1209 Will he always call upon God?
1210 All ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain? (27:12)
1211 Where shall wisdom be found? (28:12)
1212 Where is the place of understanding? (28:12)
1213 Whence then cometh wisdom? (28:20)
1214 Where is the place of understanding? (28:20)
1215 Whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished? (30:2)
1216 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? (30:25)
1217 Was not my soul grieved for the poor? (30:25)
1218 I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid? (31:1)
1219 What portion of God is there from above? (31:2)
1220 And what inheritance of the Almighty from on high? (31:2)
1221 Is not destruction to the wicked? (31:3)
1222 And a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity? (31:3)
1223 Doth not He see my ways, and all my steps? (31:4)
1224 What then shall I do when God riseth up? (31:14)
1225 And when He visiteth, what shall I answer Him? (31:14)
1226 Did not He that made me in the womb make him? (31:15)
1227 And did not one fashion us in the womb? (31:15)
1228 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door? (31:34)
1229 Why dost thou strive against Him? (33:13)
1230 Should I lie against my right? (34:6)
1231 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water? (34:7)
1232 Who hath given Him a charge over the earth? (34:13)
1233 Or who hath disposed the whole world? (34:13)
1234 Shall even he that hateth right govern? (34:17)
1235 Wilt thou condemn him that is most just? (34:17)
1236 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou are wicked? (34:18) (34:18)
1237 And to princes, Ye are ungodly?
1238 How much less to Him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? (34:19)
1239 When He giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? (34:29)
1240 And when He hideth His face, who then can behold Him? (34:29) 1241 Should it be according to Thy mind? (34:33)
1242 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's? (35:2)
1243 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? (35:3)
1244 And, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin? (35:3)
1245 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against Him? (35:6)
1246 Or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto Him? (35:6)
1247 If thou be righteous, what givest thou Him? (35:7)
1248 Or what receiveth He of thine hand? (35:7)
1249 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven? (35:11)
1250 Will He esteem thy riches? (36:19)
1251 God exalteth by His power: who teacheth like Him? (36:22)
1252 Who hath enjoined Him His way? (36:23)
1253 Or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity? (36:23)
1254 Can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of His tabernacle? (36:29)
1255 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of His cloud to shine? (37:15)
1256 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of Him which is perfect in knowledge? (37:16)
1257 How thy garments are warm, when He quieteth the earth by the south wind? (37:17)
1258 Hast thou with Him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass? (37:18)
1259 Shall it be told Him that I speak? (37:20)
1260 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge? (38:2)
1261 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? (38:4)
1262 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? (38:5)
1263 Or who hath stretched the line upon it? (38:5)
1264 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? (38:6)
1265 Or who laid the corner stone thereof; when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? (38:6-7)
1266 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb? (38:8)
1267 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it, and brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors, and said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed? (38:9-11)
1268 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place; that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it? (38:12-13)
1269 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? (38:16)
1270 Or hast thou walked in the search of the depth? (38:16)
1271 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? (38:17)
1272 Or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death? (38:17)
1273 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? (38:18)
1274 Where is the way where light dwelleth? (38:19)
1275 And as for darkness, where is the place thereof, that thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof? (38:19-20)
1276 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? (38:21)
1277 Or because the number of thy days is great? (38:21)
1278 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? (38:22)
1279 Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? (38:22-23)
1280 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth? (38:24)
1281 Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning or thunder; to cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man; to satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth? (38:25-27)
1282 Hath the rain a father? (38:28)
1283 Or who hath begotten the drops of dew? (38:28)
1284 Out of whose womb came the ice? (38:29)
1285 And the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it? (38:29)
1286 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands or Orion? (38:31)
1287 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his seasons? (38:32)
1288 Or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons? (38:33)
1289 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? (38:33)
1290 Canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth? (38:33)
1291 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee? (38:34)
1292 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are? (38:35)
1293 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? (38:36)
1294 Or who hath given understanding to the heart? (38:36)
1295 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? (38:37)
1296 Or who can stay the bottles of heaven, when the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together? (38:38)
1297 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lions? (38:39)
1298 Or fill the appetite of the young lions, when they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait? (38:39-40)
1299 Who provideth for the raven his food? (38:41)
1300 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? (39:1)
1301 Or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve? (39:2)
1302 Canst thou number the months that they fulfill? (39:2)
1303 Or knowest the time when they bring forth? (39:2)
1304 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? (39:5)
1305 Or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass? (39:5)
1306 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib? (39:9)
1307 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? (39:10)
1308 Or will he harrow the valleys after thee? (39:10)
1309 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? (39:11)
1310 Or wilt thou leave thy labour to him? (39:11)
1311 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn? (39:12)
1312 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? (39:13)
1313 Or wings and feathers unto the ostrich? (39:13)
1314 Hast thou given the horse strength? (39:19)
1315 Hast thou clothed his neck with thunder? (39:19)
1316 Canst thou make him afraid as the grasshopper? (39:20)
1317 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom and stretch her wings toward the south? (39:26)
1318 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high? (39:27)
1319 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct Him? (40:2)
1320 I am vile, what shall I answer Thee? (40:4)
1321 Wilt thou also disannul My judgment? (40:8)
1322 Wilt thou condemn Me, that thou mayest be righteous? (40:8) 9) 1323 Hast thou an arm like God? (40:
1324 Or canst thou thunder with a voice like Him? (40:9)
1325 Canst thou draw out leviathan with an hook? (41:1)
1326 Or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down? (41:1)
1327 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? (41:2)
1328 Or bore his jaw through with a thorn? (41:2)

1329 Will he make many supplications unto thee? (41:3)
1330 Will he speak soft words unto thee? (40:3)
1331 Will he make a covenant with thee? (40:4)
1332 Wilt thou take him for a servant for ever? (41:4)
1333 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? (41:5)
1334 Or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens? (41:5)
1335 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? (41:6)
1336 Shall they part him among the merchants? (41:6)
1337 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? (41:7) (41:7) 1338 Or his head with fish spears?
1339 Shall not one be cast down at the sight of him? (41:9)
1340 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before Me? (41:10)
1341 Who hath prevented Me, that I should not repay him? (41:11)
1342 Who can discover the face of his garment? (41:13)
1343 Or who can come to him with his double bridle? (41:13)
1344 Who can open the doors of his face? (41:14)
1345 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? (42:3)

164 questions in Psalms:

1715 Is there a God beside Me? (44:8)
1716 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? (44:10)
1717 Shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? (44:19)
1718 Shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? (44:19)
1719 Is there not a lie in my right hand? (44:20)
1720 Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? (45:9)
1721 Or thy work, He hath no hands? (45:9)
1722 What begettest thou? (45:10)
1723 What hast thou brought forth? (45:10)
1724 Who hath declared this from ancient time? (45:21)
1725 Who hath told it from that time? (45:21)
1726 Have not I the Lord? (45:21)
1727 To whom will ye liken Me, and make Me equal, and compare Me, that we may be like? (46:5)
1728 Will not ye declare it? (48:6)
1729 How should My name be polluted? (48:11)
1730 Which among them hath declared these things? (48:14)
1731 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? (49:15)

1732 Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? (49:21) 21)

1733 Who hath brought up these? (49:

1734 These, where had they been? (49:21)

1735 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? (49:24)

1736 Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? (50:1)

1737 Which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? (50:1)

1738 When I came, was there no man? (50:12)

1739 When I called, was there none to answer? (50:2)

1740 Is My hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? (50:2) 2)

1741 Have I no power to deliver? (50:

1742 Who will contend with me? (50:8)

1743 Who is mine adversary? (50:8)

1744 Who is he that shall condemn me? (50:9)

1745 Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of His servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? (50:10)

1746 Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? (51:9)

1747 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? (51:10)

1748 Who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; And forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? (51:12-13)

1749 Where is the fury of the oppressor? (51:13) 19)

1750 Who shall be sorry for thee? (51:

1751 By whom shall I comfort thee? (51:19)

1752 What have I here, saith the Lord, that My people is taken away for nought? (52:5)

1753 Who hath believed our report? (53:1)

1754 To whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? (53:1)

1755 Who shall declare His generation? (53:8)

1756 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? (55:2)

1757 And your labour for that which satisfieth not? (55:2)

1758 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? (57:4)

1759 Against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? (57:4)

1760 Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks? (57:5)

1761 Should I receive comfort in these? (57:6)

1762 Of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast not remembered Me, nor laid it to thy heart? (57:11)

1763 Have not I held My peace of old, and thou fearest Me not? (57:11)

1764 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and Thou seest not? (58:3)

1765 Wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and Thou takest no knowledge? (58:3)

1766 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? (58:5)

1767 A day for a man to afflict his soul? (58:5)

1768 Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? (58:5)

1769 Wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord? (58:5)

1770 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? (58:6)

1771 To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavey burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? (58:8)

1772 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out of thy house? (58:7)

1773 When thou seest the naked that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? (58:7)

1774 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? (60:8)

1775 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? (63:1)

1776 This that is glorious in His apparel, travelling in the greatness of His strength? (63:1)

1777 Wherefore art Thou red in Thine apparel, and Thy garments like him that treadest in the wine fat? (63:2)

1778 Where is He that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? (63:11)

1779 Where is He that put His Holy Spirit within him? (63:11)

1780 That led them by the right hand of Moses with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them to make Himself an everlasting name? (63:12)

1781 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? (63:13)

1782 Where is Thy zeal and Thy strength, and sounding of Thy bowels and of Thy mercies toward me? (63:15)

1783 Are they restrained? (63:15)

1784 Why hast thou made us to err from Thy ways, and hardened our heart from Thy fear? (63:17)

1786 Wilt Thou hold Thy peace, and afflict us very sore? (64:12)

1787 Where is the house that ye build unto Me? (66:1) (66:1)

1788 Where is the place of My rest?

1789 Who hath heard such a thing? (66:8) 8)

1790 Who hath seen such things? (66:

1791 Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? (66:8)

1792 Or shall a nation be born at once? (66:8)

1793 Shall I bring forth to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? (66:9)

1794 Shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? (66:9)

194 questions in Jeremiah:

1795 What seest thou? (1:11)

1796 What seest thou? (1:13)

1797 What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they are gone far from Me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? (2:5)

1798 Where is the Lord that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt? (2:6)

1799 Where is the Lord? (2:8)

1800 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? (2:11)

1801 Is Israel a servant (2:14)

1802 Is he a homeborn slave? (2:14)

1803 Why is he spoiled? (2:14)

1804 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forgotten the Lord thy God, when He led thee by the way? (2:17)

1805 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? (2:18)

1806 Or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? (2:18)

1807 How then art thou turned into a degenerate plant of a strange vine unto Me? (2:21)

1808 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? (2:23)

1809 Who can turn her away? (2:24)

1810 Where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? (2:28)

1811 Wherefore will ye plead with Me? (2:29)

1812 Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? (2:31)

1813 A land of darkness? (2:31)

1814 Wherefore say My people, We are lords; we will come no more unto Thee? (2:31)

1815 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? (2:32)

1816 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? (2:33)

1817 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? (2:36)

1818 If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and becomes another man's, shall he return unto her again? (3:1)

1819 Shall not that land be greatly polluted? (3:1)

1820 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto Me, My Father, Thou art the guide of my youth? (3:4)

1821 Will He reserve His anger for ever? (3:5)

1822 Will He keep it to the end? (3:5)

1823 Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? (3:6)

1824 How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? (3:19)

1825 How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee? (4:14)

1826 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? (4:21)

1827 When thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? (4:30)

1828 O Lord, are not Thine eyes upon the truth? (5:3) (5:7)

1829 How shall I pardon thee for this?

1830 Shall I not visit for these things? (5:9)

1831 Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (5:9)

1832 Wherefore doeth the Lord our God all these things unto us? (5:19)

1833 Fear ye not Me? (5:22)

1834 Will ye not tremble at My presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? (5:22) (5:29)

1835 Shall I not visit for these things?

1836 Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (5:29)

1837 What will ye do in the end thereof? (5:31),

1838 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? (6:10)

1839 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? (6:15)

1840 To what purpose cometh there to Me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? (6:20)

1841 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; and come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? (7:9-10)

1842 Is this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? (7:11)

1843 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? (7:17) (7:19)

1844 Do they provoke Me to anger?

1845 Do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? (7:19) (8:4)

1846 Shall they fall, and not arise?

1847 Shall he turn away, and not return? (8:4)

1848 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? (8:5)

1849 No man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? (8:6)

1850 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the Lord is with us? (8:8)

1851 They have rejected the word of the Lord; and what wisdom is in them? (8:9)

1852 Were they ashamed when they had committed abominations? (8:12)

1853 Why do we sit still? (8:14)

1854 Is not the Lord in Zion? (8:19)

1855 Is not her king in her? (8:19)

1856 Why have they provoked Me to anger with their graven images, and with the strange vanities? (8:19)

1857 Is there no balm in Gilead: Is there no physician there? (8:22)

1858 Why then is not the health of the daughter of My people recovered? (8:22)

1859 I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of My people? (9:7)

1860 Shall I not visit them for these things? (9:9)

1861 Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this? (9:9)

1862 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? (9:12)

1863 Who is he to whom the mouth of the Lord hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through? (9:12)

1864 Who would not fear Thee, O King of nations? (10:7)

1865 What hath My beloved to do in Mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? (11:15)

1866 Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? (12:1)

1867 Wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously? (12:1)

1868 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? (12:4)

1869 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? (12:5)

1870 If in the land of peace wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? (12:5)

1871 Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? (13:12)

1872 Where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? (13:20)

1873 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? (13:21)

1874 Shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? (13:21)

1875 Wherefore come these things upon me? (13:22)

1876 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? (13:23)

1877 Wilt thou not be made clean? (13:27)

1878 When shall it once be? (13:27)

1879 Why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? (14:8)

1880 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? (14:9) dah? (14:19)

1881 Hast Thou utterly rejected Ju-

1882 Hath thy soul lothed Zion? (14:19)

1883 Why hast Thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? (14:19)

1884 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? (14:22)

1885 Or can the heavens give showers? (14:22)

1886 Art not Thou He, O Lord our God? (14:22)

1887 Whither shall we go forth? (15:2)

1888 Who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? (15:5) 5)

1889 Or who shall bemoan thee? (15:

1890 Or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest? (15:5)

1891 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? (15:12)

1892 Why is pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? (15:18)

1893 Wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail? (15:18)

1894 Wherefore hath the Lord pronounced all this great evil against us? (16:10)

1895 Or what is our iniquity? (16:10)

1896 Or what is our sin that we have committed against the Lord? (16:10)

1897 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods? (16:20)

1898 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (17:9)

1899 Where is the word of the Lord? (17:15)

1900 Cannot I do with you as this potter? (18:6)

1901 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? (18:14)

1902 Or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? (18:14)

1903 Shall evil be recompensed for good? (18:20)

1904 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow that my days should be consumed with shame? (20:18)

1905 Who shall come down against us? (21:13)

1906 Or who shall enter into our habitations? (21:13)

1907 Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this great city? (22:8)

1908 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? (22:15)

1909 Did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? (22:15)

1910 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know Me? (22:16)
1911 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? (22:28)
1912 Is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? (22:28)
1913 Wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? (22:28)
1914 Who hath stood in the counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard His word? (23:18)
1915 Who hath marked His word, and heard it? (23:18)
1916 Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off? (23:23)
1917 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? (23:24)
1918 Do not I fill heaven and earth, saith the Lord? (23:24)
1919 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? (23:26) (23:26)
1920 What is the chaff to the wheat? 1921 Is not My word like a fire? (23:29)
1922 And like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? (23:29)
1923 What is the burden of the Lord? (23:33)
1924 What burden? (23:33)
1925 What hath the Lord answered? (23:35)
1926 What hath the Lord spoken? (23:35)
1927 What hath the Lord answered thee? (23:37) 37)
1928 What hath the Lord spoken? (23:
1929 What meet thou, Jeremiah? (24:3) ed? (25:29)
1930 Should ye be utterly unpunish-
1931 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without inhabitant? (26:9)
1932 Did not Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? (26:19)
1933 Did he not fear the Lord, and beseught the Lord, and the Lord repented Him of the evil which He had pronounced against them? (26:19)
1934 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the Lord hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? (27:13)
1935 Wherefore should this city be laid waste? (27:17)
1936 Why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you? (29:27)
1937 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? (30:6)
1938 Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces turned into paleness? (30:6)
1939 Why criest thou for thine affliction? (30:15)
1940 Who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto Me? (30:21)
1941 Is Ephraim My dear son? (31:20)
1942 Is he a pleasant child? (31:20)
1943 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? (31:22)
1944 Is there any thing too hard for Me? (32:27)
1945 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the Lord hath chosen, He hath even cast them off? (33:24)
1946 Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to My words? (35:13)
1947 How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? (36:17)
1948 Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? (36:29) (37:17)
1949 Is there any word from the Lord?
1950 What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison? (37:18)
1951 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? (37:19)
1952 If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? (38:16)
1953 If I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me? (38:15)
1954 Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath send Ishmael the Son of Nethaniah to slay thee? (40:14)
1955 Wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? (40:15)
1956 Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; in that ye provoke Me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? (44:7-8)
1957 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? (44:9)
1958 When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men? (44:19)
1959 Did not the Lord remember them, and came it not into His mind? (44:21)

There are more than twice as many questions in the Old Testament as in the New Testament, that is, 2, 272 in the one and 1, 022 in the other. These 3, 294 questions of the Bible cover almost every phase of human life both here and hereafter. Furthermore, they reveal many things about God and His wonderful works and dealings with man and all other creations. Merely reading them should prove a blessing to the seeker of truth. Lessons can be learned from them and light received on a great number of subjects

1 Basis for Christian work (Mt. 28:19-20; 13:19-23; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:46-53; Acts 1:8; 8:4; Rom. 12:1-8; Eph. 4:1-13; 2 Tim. 2:15; 4:2; Heb. 4:12; 1 Pet. 3:15; Ps. 126:5-6; Pr. 11:30; Isa. 55:10-11; Dan. 12:3)

2 Examples, importance of Christian work:

(1) Personal work (Jn. 1:36-51; 3:1-13; 4:10-30; Acts 8:26-40; 9:17; 13:6-13)
(2) Cottage meeting work (Mt. 8:14-18; Mk. 2:1-12; Acts 2:42-47; 5:42; 10:23-48)
(3) Prayer meeting work (Acts 3:1; 4:23-31; 12:5-19; 20:20; 28:30)
(4) Jail work (Acts 16:25-35)
(5) Bible school work (Acts 19:9-10; 2 Ki. 6)
(6) Teaching, preaching, healing work (Mt. 4:23-25; 10:1-20; Lk. 10:1-17; Acts 2:16-47; 3:1-11; 5:12-16; 6:8; 8:5-9; 9:32; 10:1-21:17)
(7) Open air - street work (Mt. 5:1; 24:3; Acts 16:12-13; 17:22)
(8) Pastoral, missionary, evangelistic work (Mt. 16:15-20; Acts 13:1-5; 15:12; Eph. 4:11-16; 1Tim. 3:5; 4:16)

Note: personal work should be done daily. It reaches all classes: a brother (Jn. 1:4-45); rulers (Jn. 3:2; Acts 13:6-12; 24:24-26; 26:27); outcasts (Lk. 7:28); Christians (Acts 18:26-26); business men (Mt. 4:18-22; Mk. 2:14); travellers (Lk. 20:30-37; Acts 8:26-30); sinners (Lk. 23:43; Jn. 4:6-30); all men (Acts 17:17)

3 50 "do not's" for Christian workers:

(1) Do not wait for impressions (2 Tim. 4:2)
(2) Do not argue (Mt. 7:6)
(3) Do not always attempt to prove truth or spiritual things (Isa. 55:10-11)
(4) Do not always try to explain spiritual things (1 Cor. 2:14)
(5) Do not be in the habit of telling own experience - point the seeker to God's Word (2 Tim. 2:15; 4:2)
(6) Do not exalt self above the sinner (1 Cor. 9:19-23)
(7) Do not overwork the personal pronoun "I". Exalt Christ (Jn. 16:13-16)
(8) Do not give Scriptures from hear-say. Have the Bible ready to give (Rom. 3:4)
(9) Do not hurry over any Scripture. Emphasize what is needful (2 Cor. 13:1)
(10) Do not raise unnecessary objections. Sinners will do this (2 Tim. 2:15)
(11) Do not condemn sinners who stand already condemned (Jn. 3:16-21)
(12) Do not insist on going to an altar or any special place of prayer. Insist on an immediate surrender (2 Cor. 6:2)
(13) Do not dwell on the sins and habits of a seeker (2 Cor. 6:17)
(14) Do not give too many points (Mt. 10:16)
(15) Do not permit one to lead you from one subject to another for the sake of argument (2 Tim. 2:25)
(16) Do not state your idea or belief. Give what the Word says (Jn. 16:7-11)
(17) Do not act victorious or proud when you score a point (Gal. 2:13)
(18) Do not be led to side issues (Jn. 3:3-5)
(19) Do not tell sad stories. Point the sinner to Christ (Jn. 3:16)
(20) Do not talk all the time. Answer the inquirer wisely (1 Pet. 3:15)
(21) Do not cross a seeker in non-essential things. If you do not agree with him say nothing (Pr. 11:30)
(22) Do not leave one case for another unless you are through dealing with the present one (Mt. 1:16-20)
(23) Do not talk too loud or get excited. Be calm and prayerful (Jn. 3:1-13)
(24) Do not be over-zealous or force anyone to follow Christ (Mt. 7:6; 10:16)
(25) Do not be indifferent to those seeking God. If you are not working do not hinder others (1 Tim. 3:15)
(26) Do not intrude. This may confuse the seeker and the worker (1 Cor. 14:33)
(27) Do not interrupt any worker. Conversation can wait (Rom. 13:10)
(28) Do not crowd around a seeker. This may embarrass or confuse (1 Cor. 14:40)
(29) Do not tell seekers to think it over. Bring to a decision at once if possible (Mt. 13:19; 2 Cor. 6:2)
(30) Do not have bad breath or noticable body odor (1 Cor. 6:19-20)
(31) Do not be a hypocrite (Rom. 2:21-24)
(32) Do not hurry the seeker if he wants to pray (Lk. 13:1-5; 18:13-14)
(33) Do not tell persons they are saved. The Spirit will bear witness (Rom. 8:16; 1 Jn. 1:9)
(34) Do not insist on keeping sinners on their knees (Lk. 18:9-14)
(35) Do not let a sinner go away unsatisfied or doubtful if you can persuade him to have faith in God's word (Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9)
(36) Do not insist that a sinner get saved the same way you did. Circumstances and dispositions are different (Jn. 3:16)
(37) Do not emphasize emotions. Faith first; feelings next (Eph. 2:8-9)
(38) Do not lean on sinners. Their sins are heavy enough (Jn. 16:8)
(39) Do not pray long prayers. Pray briefly along the line of thought you have been directing the sinner (Dan. 9:20)
(40) Do not be discouraged. Be faithful and leave results with God (1 Pet. 5:8-9)
(41) Do not look upon any case as being hard (1 Tim. 1:15)
(42) Do not discuss church conditions or Christian failures with sinners. They know these things (1 Pet. 2:21)
(43) Do not act familiar with the opposite sex. In general, men should work with men and women with women (1 Th. 5:22)
(44) Do not act indifferent to any human need (Rom. 12:11)
(45) Do not be discourteous, or make the sinner think he is untouchable (Mt. 11:19)
(46) Do not try to force anyone to accept the Bible as God's Word (Mt. 7:6)
(47) Do not lose patience with weak people (Gal. 5:22-23)
(48) Do not be careless or half-hearted in dealing with men. Eternal souls are at stake (Lk. 19:10)
(49) Do not lose sight of the value of a soul. Jesus died that each man might live (Mk. 8:32; Jn. 3:16; 1 Cor. 6:20)
(50) Do not fail to instruct new converts regarding how to live a Christian life (see point 4, below)

4 Qualifications for Christian workers:

(1) Workers must be Christians:

Unless one is soundly converted, understands Christian experiences, and doctrines he will be powerless to help others

How to become a Christian:

A Recognize that you are a sinner and hopelessly lost without God (Rom. 3:12, 23)

B Believe the good news that God sent Jesus Christ to take your place, die in your stead, and pay the full penalty for sin (Rom. 5:8); that He not only died, but was buried, was resurrected, and is alive forever to be your advocate before God (1 Cor. 15:1-5; 1 Jn. 2:1-2); and that "He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him" (Heb. 7:25)

C Confess that you are a sinner, guilty before God and hopelessly lost. As you pray realize that "If thou shalt CONFESS WITH THY MOUTH the Lord Jesus, and BELIEVE IN THINE HEART that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For WITH THE HEART man believeth unto righteousness; and WITH THE MOUTH confession is made unto salvation. . . For WHOSOEVER SHALL CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9)

D Rely on God's promises, not upon your own feelings or theories (Rom. 1:16)

E Declare and realize that you are saved by faith in the blood of Jesus Christ and the gospel, and that you are forgiven by God and cleansed from all sin because you have met the terms of God which are proper faith and confession of sins (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 3:25; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9)

(2) Christian workers must live right:

How to get converted is the first part, but how to live a Christian life is the last part. It is the important part

How to live a Christian life:

A Believe the gospel and the entire Word of God at all times, and walk in the light as you receive it (1 Jn. 1:7)

B Walk by faith in newness of life by sight or by feelings, for "the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him" (Heb. 10:23-39; Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26)

C Read the Bible daily. Search it. Mediate on it day and night to feed and nurture the spiritual life (Ps. 1:1-3; 119:105; 2 Cor. 10:4-7; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 2:2)

D Pray to God daily as your heavenly Father in the name of Jesus Christ, casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you (1 Jn. 16:23-26; Phil. 4:5-6; 1 Pet. 5:7)

E Claim all the benefits of the promises of God and appropriate by faith all that He has promised (2 Cor. 2 Pet. 1:1-4)

F Keep your mind stayed upon God (Isa. 26:3) and grow in grace, in all the virtues of grace and of God (Phil. 4:8; 1 Pet. 2:4-10; 2 Pet. 1:4-11; Jude 20-24)

G Recognize at all times your own weaknesses as well as God's strength and keeping power (1 Cor. 10:12-13; 1 Pet. 1:5). Faith is the victory that overcomes the world (1 Jn. 5:1-4)

H Confess the Lord Jesus Christ frequently and daily as your personal Saviour (Mt. 10:32-33). Be busy at soul-winning and keep occupied in all phases of Christian work possible (Pr. 11:30; Dan. 12:3)

I Avoid temptations and shun evil companions (Ps. 1; Pr. 1:10-16; 1 Tim. 4:6-16). Resist sin and Satan (Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9), make friends with God's people, and strive to be a blessing to them and all others (Rom. 12; 1 Cor. 13; Col. 3:5-10)

J Attend church regularly (Heb. 10:25), co-operating with the pastor in all of his many labours (Mt. 28:19-20; Acts 1:8; 2 Cor. 6:1; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:15-17)

K Seek God constantly for the full anointing of the Holy Spirit, the fruit and gifts of the Spirit, and yield to, and obey the Holy Spirit in all things (Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-17; 15:26; 16:7-13; Acts 1:8; 2:38-39; 5:32; Rom. 12; 1 Cor. 12; Gal. 5:16-26; Eph. 5:18; 6:10-18; 1 Th. 5:19)

(3) Workers must know the Bible (see Bible in the index)

(4) Christian workers must work in love:

God desires work from a loving and willing heart (Jn. 3:16; 1 Cor. 13; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; 1 Jn. 3:1-4:21)

(5) Christian workers must have faith in God's Word (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 10:10; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15)

(6) Christian workers must use wisdom (Mt. 10:16; Jas. 1:5-8; 3:15-18)

10 true elements of soul-winning:

A Tact - ability to do and say the right thing at the right time and place (Jn. 4:7-34; 8:1-11; Acts 8:28-39)

B Contact - proper approach (Jn. 4:7-34; Acts 8:30)

C Knowledge - clear understanding of the Word of God and how to use it (2 Tim. 2:15; 3:15-17)

D Faith - absolute conviction regarding God, His word, and gospel results (Isa. 55:10-11; Mt. 13:3-23; Heb. 11:6)

E Love and compassion - devotion to and mercy on lost souls (Mt. 9:36; Lk. 19:10)

F Zeal - eagerness to win souls (Ps. 69:9; Jn. 2:17; Rom. 9:1-2; 1 Cor. 9:19-27)

G Patience - self-control, calmness, endurance, perseverance, forbearance (Gal. 5:22-23)

H Faithfulness - true to duty, calling, vows, and obligations (Lk. 16:10-12; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; Rom. 12:1-2; 1 Pet. 3:10-11)

I Appreciation - keenly aware and sensitive of the value of lost souls (Mk. 8:32-38; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 9:1-2)

J Responsibility - morally and legally obligated and responsible for the salvation of lost souls (Mk. 16:15; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:8; Phil. 2:12-16)

(7) 15 reasons why all should work:

A God has commanded it (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:47-50; Acts 1:8)

B To show the genuineness of their faith and love (Jn. 15:10-14; Jas. 1:22-27; 2:14-26; 1 Jn. 3:14-22)

C God chose and regenerated them for that purpose (Jn. 15:16; Eph. 2:10)

D Christ died that they might work (2 Cor. 5:15-21; Tit. 2:14)

E Scriptures were given to qualify them for work (2 Tim. 3:16-17)

F Sufficient help is offered to enable them to work (2 Cor. 9:8; 10:3-6; Eph. 6:11-18)

G That they may be blessed and rewarded (Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:13-15; 2 Cor. 5:10)

H That God might be glorified (Mt. 5:16; Jn. 15:8; Tit. 3:8)

I That they might be patterns to others (Tit. 2:7; 1 Tim. 1:16; 1 Pet. 2:21)

J They have a stewardship committed to them (Lk. 19:11-27; 1 Cor. 4:1-2)

K It is their privilege (1 Cor. 1:26-31; Eph. 3:8; 1 Tim. 1:11-12)

L It is the greatest work (Jas. 5:19-20)

M It pays well in joy and happiness (Mal. 3:17; Mt. 19:29)

N Success is assured beforehand (Isa. 55:10-11; 1 Tim. 4:16; Jas. 1:25)

O The world is lost (Jn. 3:16-21; 2 Cor. 4:4; 1 Jn. 5:19)

(8) Where a Christian should work: In all the world - the uttermost parts of the earth (Mt. 13:38; 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 1:8)

(9) When a Christian should work: Now, not tomorrow (Jn. 4:35-36; 2 Cor. 6:1-2; Eph. 5:14-17). One does not have to wait for an opportunity. He can start now - next door - with the first person he meets. God will hold all responsible for what is done in this matter (Ezek. 3:18; 1 Cor. 3:11-15)

(10) How to do Christian work: by personal evangelism with all one contacts and has the opportunity to speak to; by giving out tracts; by witnessing publicly; by house to house visitation; by preaching, teaching, and practicing the Word of God; and by all other available means

PART TWO - Quick answers to excuses

In doing personal work 3 things must be done by way of preparation:
1 Learn to give at least 2 Scriptures to answer each excuse given by the one dealt with 2 Memorize the verses that best answer the various excuses
3 Learn the meaning of the verses and be able to answer excuses intelligently

Excuses of the weak and fearful:

The following is a list of the most commonly used excuses and scriptures that will answer them

1 I am too weak to live a Christian life (Mt. 1: 21; Isa. 26:3; 2 Cor. 9: 8; 1 Pet. 1:5; 1 Jn. 4:4; 5:4; Jude 24)
2 The Christian life is too hard to live (Pr. 13:15; Mt. 11:28-30; Rom. 8: 23; 1 Cor. 10:13; Gal. 6:7-8; Jas. 4:7; 1 Jn. 1:9)
3 I will have to give up too much (Mt. 6:33; Mk. 8:34-38; 10:29-31; Rom. 8:32; 1 Cor. 2:9; Ps. 34:9-10; 84: 11)
4 My friends and relatives would make fun of me (Mt. 5:10-12; 10:36-37; Jn. 15:18-20; Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 6: 14-18; 1 Pet. 4:14)
5 I am afraid I cannot hold out (Rom. 14:4; 1 Cor. 10:13; Phil. 1:6; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 7:25; 1 Pet. 1:5; 2 Pet. 2:9)
6 I am afraid I cannot forgive my enemies (Mt. 6:14-15; 18:27-35; Lk. 17:1-5; Eph. 4:32; Phil. 4:13; Col. 3:8)
7 There are some things I cannot give up (Rom. 6:11-23; 8:1-5, 12-13; 2 Cor. 5:17-21; Col. 3:2; Tit. 2: 11-12; 1 Jn. 1:9)
8 I do not have enough feeling or conviction (Mk. 16:16; Jn. 1:12; 3:16-21; 16:8-11; Rom. 1:16; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9)
9 It is too hard to get saved (Jn. 1:12; 3:15-22; Acts 2:38-39; 3:19; Rom. 1: 16)

Excuses of the deceived:

1 I believe all will be saved (Mt. 7: 13-14; Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:18; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; Gal. 5:19-21; Rev. 21:8; Ps. 9:17)
2 I will have another chance after death (Pr. 9:17; Pr. 29:1; 1 Cor. 6: 9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:8; 22:14-15)
3 I must become better before I become a Christian (Isa. 1:18; 55:7; 64:6; Jer. 13:23; Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 3:5; 1 Jn. 1:9)
4 There is no harm in living like the world (Jn. 15:18-19; 17:16; Rom. 12:1-2; 2 Cor. 6:14-18; 1 Jn. 2: 15-17; Jas. 4:4)
5 Salvation is not for everybody (Jn. 3:16; 6:37; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-13; Tit. 2:11-12; Rev. 22:17)
6 No one can really know that he is saved (Jn. 3:36; 5:24; Rom. 8:14-16; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:3; 3:15; 5:13)
7 I am satisfied with my religion (Mt. 18:3; 14:6; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5: 19-21; Rev. 21:8, 17; 22:14-15)
8 If I live right it matters not what I believe (Mt. 1:16; 16:16; Jn. 3: 14-22; 8:24; 14:6; Acts 2:38-39; 3: 19)
9 I keep the law, so I will be all right (Rom. 3:10-23; Gal. 2:16; 3:6-29; Eph. 2:8-9; Jas. 2:10)
10 All men are children of God (Mt. 13:39; Jn. 8:44; Acts 13:10; Rom. 8:9-16; 2 Tim. 2:19; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; 4:1-6)
11 I lead a good moral life and do the best I can (Isa. 64:6; Lk. 16:15; 18:9-14; Rom. 3:10-23; Jas. 2:10; 1 Jn. 3:8-10)
12 God will save me when He wants to (Mt. 18:3; Mk. 1:15; 16:16; Lk. 13:1-5; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)
13 God is too good to damn anyone (Mt. 7:13-14, 21; Mk. 1:15; 16: 16; Lk. 13:1-5; Jn. 3:16-18; 5:40; Pr. 1:24-33)
14 There are too many things I cannot understand, (Way of salvation simple, Jn. 1:12; 3:16; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9)

Excuses of open rebels:

1 I do not believe in God (Ps. 41:1; Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:16-18; Rom. 1: 20; 3:1-20; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
2 I do not believe the Bible to be the Word of God. (See Bible in Index)
3 I do not believe in hell (Ps. 9:17; Isa. 66:22-24; Mt. 10:28; 13:38-50; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20; 20: 11-15; 21:8; 22:15)
4 I do not believe in the atonement (Lev. 17:11; Mt. 26:28; Rom. 5: 6-21; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9: 22; 1 Pet. 1:18-23)
5 I do not believe in any church (Mk. 1:15; 16:16; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 1:16; Gal. 1:4; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:7, 9)
6 I cannot believe what I do not understand. (Point out many things one does not understand; 1 Cor. 2: 14; 2 Cor. 4:3-4)
7 I do not believe in the virgin birth (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:31-35; Rom. 8:3; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 2:9-18)
8 I do not believe in a hereafter or immortality (Mt. 17:3; Lk. 16:19-31; 23:43; Rev. 6:9-11. (See Immortality in Index)
9 I do not believe in the diety of Jesus Christ (Isa. 9:6-7; Mic. 5:1-2; Mt. 1:18-25; Jn. 1:1; 5:19-23; Phil. 2: 5:11; Col. 1:15-18; 2:9; Heb. 1:1-8; 1 Jn. 5:7-8)
10 I do not believe in the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ (Lk. 24: 39; Jn. 20:20-29; 1 Cor. 15; Zech. 13:6)

Excuses of Backsliders:

1 God will not take me back (2 Chr. 7:14; Ps. 51; Mt. 18:21-35; Gal. 4: 19; 6:1; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:1-2; Jas. 5:19-20; Rev. 2:5)
2 I have committed the unpardonable sin (notes on Mt. 12:31-32; Heb. 6: 4-6; 10:26-29)
3 I cannot be lost regardless of what I do (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 3:17; 6:9-11; 9:27; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Th. 3:8; 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 3:6, 11-12; 6:4-6; 10:26-29; Jas. 5:19-20; 1 Pet. 2:20-22; Rev. 3:5; Ex. 32:32-33. (See Backsliding in Index)

Excuses of procrastinators:

1 Some other day; I have plenty of time (Pr. 27:1; 29:1; Isa. 55:6; Lk. 12:20; 2 Cor. 6:2; Heb. 2:3; 3:15)
2 I am too young to be a Christian (Eccl. 12:1, 13-14; Isa. 55:6; Pr. 8:17; Mt. 18:3; 2 Cor. 6:2)

The Gospel of the King and Kingdom - Christ is Presented as Jehovah's King, "Behold thy King" (Zech. 9:9)

1

I Pre-ministerial Events (Mk. 1:1; Lk. 1:1; Jn. 1:1)

1 Concerning Jesus Christ

THE book of the generation of Jē'sus[a] Christ, the[b] son of Dā'vid, the son of Ä'brā-hăm.

2 Concerning ancestors (Lk. 3:23-38; 1 Chr. 1:1-4:23)

(1) 14 lay generations

2 [c]Ä'brā-hăm begat I'saac; and I'saac begat [c]Jā'cob; and Jā'cob begat [j]Jū'das and his brethren;

3 And Jū'das begat [g]Phā'rēs and Zā'rä of [h]Thā'mar; and Phā'rēs [i]begat Ēs'rom; and Ēs'rom begat Ä'ram;

4 And Ä'ram begat Ä-mĭn'a-dăb; and Ä-mĭn'a-dăb begat Nä-ăs'son; and Nä-ăs'son begat Säl'mŏn;

5 And Säl'mŏn begat Bŏ'ŏz of [j]Ra'chăb; and Bŏ'ŏz begat Ō'bed of Ruth; and Ō'bed begat Jēs'se;

(2) 14 royal generations

6 And Jēs'se begat [k]Dā'vid the king; and Dā'vid the king begat Sŏl'o-mon of her that had been the[i]wife of Ū-rī'as;

7 And Sŏl'o-mon begat Rŏ-bō'am; and [m]Rŏ-bō'am begat Ä-bī'ä; and [n]Ä-bī'ä begat Ä'sä;

8 And Ä'sä begat [o]Jŏs'a-phät; and Jŏs'a-phät begat [p]Jō'ram; and Jō'ram begat [q]Ō-zī'as;

9 And Ō-zī'as begat Jō'a-thăm; and [r]Jō'a-thăm begat [s]Ä'chăz; and Ä'chăz begat Ēz-e-kī'as;

10 And [t]Ēz-e-kī'as begat Mä-nās'sēs; and [u]Mä-nās'sēs begat Ä'mon; and Ä'mon begat [v]Jō-sī'as;

11 And Jō-sī'as begat [w]Jĕch-o-nī'as and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Băb'ў-lon:

(3) 14 lay generations

12 And after they were brought to Băb'ў-lon, Jĕch-o-nī'as begat [x]Sā-lā'thi-el; and Sā-lā'thi-el begat Zō-rŏb'a-bĕl;

13 And Zō-rŏb'a-bĕl begat Ä-bī'ud; [y]and Ä-bī'ud begat Ē-lī'a-kim; and Ē-lī'a-kim begat Ä'zōr;

14 And Ä'zôr begat Sā'dŏc; and Sā'dŏc begat Ä'chim; and Ä'chim begat Ē-lī'ud;

15 And Ē-lī'ud begat Ē-le-ä'zar; and Ē-le-ä'zar begat Mät'than; and Mät'than begat Jä'cob;

16 And Jä'cob begat [z]Jō'seph the husband[o] of Mā'rў, of whom was born Jē'sus, who is called Christ.

(4) Sum of Jewish ancestors: Abraham to Jesus Christ (Cp. Lk. 3:23-38)

17 [b]So all the generations from Ä'brā-hăm to Dā'vid are fourteen generations; and from Dā'vid until the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

3 Concerning Jesus Christ: His virgin birth (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Lk. 1:26-56; 2:1-39; Jn. 1:14; Rom. 8:3; Gal. 4:4; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:5-6; 2:6-9, 14-18)

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jē'sus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mā'rў was[a] espoused to Jō'seph, before they came together, she was found with child[b] of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

19 Then Jō'seph her husband, being a[c]just man, and not willing to[d]make her a publick example, was minded to[e]put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold,[f] the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a[g]dream, saying, Jō'seph, thou son of Dā'vid, fear not to take unto thee Mā'rў thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

*21 [h]And she shall bring forth a son, and thou [i]shalt call his name [j]jē'sus: for he shall[k]save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

*23 [m]Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Ĕm-măn'u-el, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Jō'seph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And [n]knew her not[o] till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name [j]jē'sus.

2

4 Concerning the Magi from the East (Cp. 1 Chr. 12:32; Dan. 1:17-20; 2:10-11, 21-29, 47; 4:18-27)

NOW when Jē'sus was born [p]in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'ä in the days of Hĕr'od the king, behold, there came[q] wise men from the east to Jē-rų'sä-lĕm,

2 Saying,[r] Where is he that is born[s] King of the Jews? for we have seen his[t]star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When[u] Hĕr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jē-rų'sä-lĕm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the[v] chief priests and[w] scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'ä: for thus it is written by the prophet,

*6 [x]And thou Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, in a Gr. Christos. "Anointed." Used in N. T. 577 times. Like the name "Jesus" it has no reference to deity, but to the humanity of the Son of God, who became the Christ or the "Anointed One" 30 years after He was born of Mary (Mt. 3:16; Jn. 3:34; Isa. 11:1; 42:1-5; 61:1; Acts 10:38). God "made" Him both Lord and Christ (Acts 2:36). The Heb. is "Messiah" (Dan. 9:24-26; Jn. 1:41; 4:25)

b Son of Abraham and David by direct descent (v 2-16; Rom. 9:5), and by promise (Gen. 12:1-3; Gal. 3:6-22; Isa. 11:1; Mt. 22:41-46; 2 Tim. 2:8). "Son of David" is used 9 times of Christ in Matthew (1:1; 9:27; 12:23; 15:22; 20:30-31; 21:9, 15; 22:42). David is mentioned first because he was the most illustrious of His ancestors, as king and prophet and because his line is singled out by later prophets as the one of Abraham's seed through whom the Messiah was to come

g See 1 Chr. 2:4-12; Ruth 4:13-22 for the names of Pharez to Jesse (Mt. 1:3-5)

h Four women in this genealogy, Rahab and Ruth were Gentiles, Tamar and Bathsheba were Jews. Thus Christ descended from both Jews and Gentiles. Rahab was an harlot (Jos. 2:25). Both Tamar and Bathsheba committed adultery (Gen. 38; 2 Sam. 11:1-5), Ruth was a pure woman (Ruth 3:11)

i Gr. gennao. When used of the father it means to beget or engender. When used of the mother it means to bring forth. Trans. be born (1:16); conceive (1:20); gender (Gal. 4:24); beat (Lk. 1:13)

j Rahab (Josh. 2:1-24; 6:25; Jas. 2:25)

k David's line in Mt. is the royal line through Solomon. His line in Lk. 3:23-38 is through Nathan, another son (2 Sam. 5:14), and Heli, the father of Mary. Both lines were necessary in fulfilling prophecy. God had cursed Jechoniah (Coniah or Jehoiachin) of the royal line and sworn that no seed of his should ever sit on the throne of David and reign in Jerusalem (Jer. 22:24-30). God had also sworn to David that his line through Solomon would forever sit on his throne (2 Sam. 7). The only way this could be fulfilled was for Jesus, the Son of David through Nathan and Mary, to become the legal heir to the throne of David through Joseph of the kingly line (Lk. 1:32-33; Isa. 9:6-7; Rev. 5:5; 22:16). Jesus, being the foster Son of Joseph and the first-born in the family, became the legal heir to David's throne through Joseph.

l Bathsheba (2 Sam. 11; 1 Kl. 1:11-31)

m Rehoboam (1 Kl. 11:41-12:24)

n Abijam (1 Kl. 14:31-15:8)

o Jehoshaphat (1 Kl. 15:23-24; 22:2-50)

p Jehoram (2 Kl. 8:16-24)

q Azariah or Uzziah (2 Kl. 15:1-7). Between Jehoram and Uzziah three kings reigned that are not mentioned in this genealogy (Ahaziah, 2 Kl. 8:25-26; Jehoash, 2 Kl. 12:1; and Amaziah, 2 Kl. 14:1-2). All names are not necessary in a royal genealogy

r Jotham (2 Kl. 15:32-38)

s Ahaz (2 Kl. 16:1-20)

t Hezekiah (2 Kl. 18:1-20:20)

u Manasseh (2 Kl. 21:1-18)

v Josiah (2 Kl. 22:1-23:30)

w Jechoniah or Coniah (2 Kl. 24:6-16). Between him and Josiah were two more kings that are not listed here (Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim, 2 Kl. 23:31-24:6). Following him Zedekiah reigned and then the kingdom of Judah came to an end (2 Kl. 24:6-25:30)

x 1 Chr. 3:17-19; Ezra 3:2; 5:2

y The 9 men from here to Joseph are not mentioned elsewhere in Scripture z All Joseph's in Scripture: 5 in O. T. (Gen. 30:24; Num. 13:7; 1 Chr. 25:2; Ezra 10:42; Neh. 12:14) and 6 in N. T. (Mt. 1:16, 27:57; Lk. 3:24, 26, 30; Acts 1:23).

a Mary, the wife of Joseph, and the mother of 4 sons besides Jesus, and at least 3 daughters. See note d, Lk. 8:19

b 42 generations named, but some not listed here (notes p and v, v 8, 11) a Espoused among Hebrews was the only legal part of marriage, and could not be broken off except by a bill of divorce. All legal documents were signed and contracts completed at this time. All contracts specified a time between the espousal and actual marriage relationship (Gen. 29:18; Dt. 20)

b Lk. 1:35; Jn. 1:14; Phil. 2; Heb. 2 c Gr. dikaios, righteous (v 19; 13:49)

d Expose her to public shame and death, as required by law (Dt. 22:25-28)

e Divorce her privately (Dt. 24:1-4)

f Gabriel (Lk. 1:26). Four such appearances to Joseph (1:20, 24; 2:13, 19)

g First of 6 dreams in N. T. and all in Mt. 1:20; 2:12, 13, 19, 22; 27:19

h 1st O. T. prophecy in Matthew (v 21, fulfilled, v 25). Next, 2:13

i Last of 7 persons named before birth: Ishmael (Gen. 16:11); Isaac (Gen. 17:19); Solomon (1 Chr. 22:9); Josiah, (325 years before birth, 1 Kl. 13:2; 2 Kl. 22:1); Cyrus (175 years before birth, Isa. 44:28-45:1); John the Baptist (Lk. 1:13, 60-63); Jesus (1:21)

j Used 979 times in the N. T. It is the earthly name of God's Son. As God, He was not called Jesus or Christ. Jesus is the Gr. form of the Heb. Yehoshua, rendered Joshua 215 times, meaning "Saviour" or "God Who is Salvation."

k Gr. sodzo. Used 94 times in the N. T. of salvation from sin (Mt. 1:21; Heb. 7:25); danger (Mt. 14:30; 27:42); spiritual conflict (Jn. 12:27; 1 Tim. 4:16); sickness (Jas. 5:15); hell (Jn. 3:16-18; Mk. 16:16); slavery (Jude 5)

l Gr. hamartia (note v, Jn. 1:29)

m 1st O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mt. (1:23; Isa. 7:14). Next, 2:6

n Heb. idiom for co-habitation and fatherhood (Gen. 4:1, 17, 25; 19:5)

o She had other sons (note d, Lk. 8:19)

p Fulfilling Mic. 5:2. Bethlehem was 5 miles south of Jerusalem q Gr. magoi, wise men. Their number, nationality, and country are unknown. They were a priestly hereditary caste that uttered prophecies, explained omens, interpreted dreams, and practiced divination (Dan. 2:2, 48; 4:9)

r Question 1, Next, Mt. 3:7

s Tacitus and Suetonius testify that in the East at this time there was a general expectation of a king to be born in Judea who was to rule the whole world. Daniel predicted His coming and being "cut off" to be 483 years after the post-Babylonian captivity commandment to restore Jerusalem (Dan. 9:24-26). Jesus was born to rule and will do so forever after His second advent (Lk. 1:32-33; Jn. 18:37; Isa. 9:6-7; Rev. 11:15; 22:1-5)

t See Num. 24:15-19

u Herod the Great, son of Antipater, an Idumean, and Cypros, an Arabian woman. Antipater was made Procurator of Judea by Julius Cæsar, 47 B. C. Herod was made governor of Galilee when 25 years old and was made king of Judea, 37 B. C. He rebuilt the Jewish temple (Jn. 2:20). At his death in 4 B. C. his kingdom was divided. His son, Herod Antipas, reigned over Galilee and Perea, 4 B. C. to 39 A. D. (Lk. 3:1-2). He killed John the Baptist (Mt. 14:1). Another son, Archelius, was made ruler of Judea and Samaria (Mt. 2:22). He is called "Philip" in Mt. 14:3. Philip was succeeded by Herod Agrippa I, 37 A. D. In 40 A. D. he took over all the original territory of Herod the Great. He is mentioned in Acts 12. He was succeeded by Herod Agrippa II (Acts 25:13; 26:32)

j Indicating haste, proving the visit of the magi was at Nazareth, if they had been at Bethlehem the family would not have gone to Nazareth to live before going into Egypt, as in Lk. 2:39. In no place is it stated that the magi went to Bethlehem, that they obeyed Herod, that the visit was immediately after His birth, or that the star led them to a manger. All these are traditions passed on to us the land of Jū'dā, art not the least among the princes of Jū'dā: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Iṣ'ra-el.

7 Then Hĕr'od, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mā'rĭ his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Hĕr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

5 Concerning Jesus Christ:
(1) Flight into Egypt

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'seph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ē'gўpt: and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hĕr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Ē'gўpt:

15 And was there until the death of Hĕr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Ē'gўpt have I called my son.

(2) Slaughter of Children:
First plot to kill Jesus
(Mt. 26:3, refs.)

16 ¶ Then Hĕr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mў the prophet, saying,

18 In Rā'mā was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rā'chel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

(3) Return from Egypt
(Cp. Lk. 2:39; Hos. 11:1)

19 ¶ But when Hĕr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'seph in Ē'gўpt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Iṣ'ra-el: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Iṣ'ra-el.

22 But when he heard that Ar-chĕ-lā'us did reign in Jū-dæ'ā in the room of his father Hĕr'od, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Gāl'ĭ-lee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Năz'a-rĕth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Năz-a-rēne'.

3 CHAPTER 3

II Ministry of John the Baptist (11:2; Mk. 1; Lk. 3; Jn. 1:6, 15, 19; 3:23)

1 Three-fold message

IN those days came John the Bāp'tĭst, preaching in the wilderness of Jū-dæ'ā,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Ē-sā'ĭas, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

2 His simple life (Mk. 1:6; Cp. Mt. 11:8)

4 And the same Jōhn had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

3 His success (Mk. 1:5; Lk. 3:7–15; Jn. 1:19–28)

5 Then went out to him Jĕ-rў'sā-lĕm, and all Jū-dæ'ā, and all the region round about Jôr'dan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jôr'dan, confessing their sins.

4 Thirteen-fold message

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and Săd'ducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'brăham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'brā-hăm.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the e Son of Zacharias and Elizabeth (Lk. 1:5–20, 39–80)

f Literally, baptizer (Jn. 1:31).

g Preaching is a part of prophecy (1 Cor. 14:3). John was the greatest of prophets in this respect (Mt. 11:9–11). He also foretold certain events (v 2–3, 11–12; Jn. 1:29–33; 3:30)

John Preached 30 doctrines:
1 Repentance (3:2–8; Mk. 1:4)
2 Kingdom of heaven at hand (3:2)
3 Prophecy (3:3–12; Jn. 1:15–34)
4 Water baptism (3:11; Jn. 1:31)
5 Restitution (3:8; Lk. 3:8)
6 Godliness (3:3–10; 14:4)
7 Wrath to come (3:7; Lk. 3)
8 Against pride (3:9; Lk. 3:7)
9 Miracles (3:9; Lk. 3:8)
10 Heaven and hell (3:10–12; Lk. 3)
11 Spirit baptism (3:11; Jn. 1:33)
12 First advent (3:11; Jn. 1:29)
13 Second advent (3:12; Lk. 3:17)
14 Judgment on sin (3:10; Lk. 3)
15 Salvation (Lk. 3:6; Jn. 1:29)
16 Love to others (Lk. 3:11)
17 Honesty in business (Lk. 3:13)
18 Absolute justice (Lk. 3:14)
19 Jesus God's Lamb (Jn. 1:29)
20 Jesus the Spirit baptizer (3:11; Mk. 1:8; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:33)
21 Jesus God's Son (Jn. 1:34)
22 Jesus the sin-bearer (Jn. 1:29)
23 Unworthiness of man (Jn. 1:27)
24 Jesus the bridegroom (Jn. 3:29)
25 Greatness of Jesus (Jn. 3:30)
26 Jesus from heaven (Jn. 3:31–36)
27 Rejection of Jesus (Jn. 3:32)
28 Jesus the truth (Jn. 3:30–36)

7 Baptisms in Scripture:
1 John's baptism in water (Mt. 3; Mk. 1; Lk. 3; 7:29–30; Jn. 1:31–33; 3:23–26; 10:40; Acts 1:5; 11:16; 19:3).
2 Christ's baptism in water (Jn. 3:22; 4:1–2)
3 Baptism in suffering (Lk. 12:50)
4 Baptism in the cloud and in the sea (1 Cor. 10:2)
5 Christian baptism in water (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:16; Acts 2:38–41; 8:12–16, 36–38; 9:18; 10:47–48; 16:15, 33; 18:8; 19:5; 22:16; 1 Cor. 1:13–17; 1 Pet. 3:21)
6 Baptism into Christ and into His body (Rom. 6:3–7; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27; Col. 2:12)
7 Baptism in the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:11, 14; 20:22–23; Mk. 1:8; 10:38–39; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:33; 7:37–39; Acts 1:5; 11:16; 19:2–3)

3 Baptisms for Believers:
1 Into Christ or into His body at repentance and the new birth (no. 6, above). Called "one baptism" (Eph. 4:5), because it is the only baptism that saves the soul and brings into the body of Christ
2 Water baptism after one is saved (no. 5, above and note a, v 11)
3 Spirit baptism, the enduement of power for service. It can take place before water baptism (Acts 10:44–

a 10 reasons forgiveness not by WATER:
1 Gr. eis, a preposition trans. with baptism "unto" (Mt. 3:11), and "for" (because of, by reason of, on account of) in Mk. 1:4; Lk. 3:3; Acts 2:38
eis is translated "for" (because of) 84 times; "on" 53 times; "upon" 23 times; "for this same purpose" (Rom. 9:17; Col. 4:8); "for this cause" (Jn. 18:37; 1 Pet. 4:6); "for this purpose" (Acts 26:16; 1 Jn. 3:8); and "for that intent" (Acts 9:21)
2 On all occasions confession of sins was required and was made before baptism (Mt. 3:8, 11; Mk. 1:5; Lk. 3:8-14)
3 Only believers were baptized after repentance and faith in Christ (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:16; Acts 2:38, 41; 8:12-13, 37; 16:14-15, 31-33; 18:8; 19:1-7), and, in some cases, after receiving the Holy Spirit (Acts 9:17-18; 10:44-48)
4 Christ who knew no sin was baptized: Christ submitted to baptism for two reasons: 1 To fulfill righteousness (v 15). 2 To be manifest to Israel (Jn. 1:31)
5 Only a symbol of the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ (1 Pet. 3:21)
6 Not essential to salvation (1 Cor. 1:13-21)
7 Faith in the blood of Christ brings remission of sins (26:28; Rom. 3:24-25; 4:1-25; 5:1-11; 8:2; 10:4-10; 1 Cor. 15:1-5; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-9; Gal. 3:19-29; Jn. 3:16; Acts 10:43; 13:38-39; 1 Cor. 1:18-21; 1 Jn. 1:9; 5:1)
8 O. T. saints, including John and all in Lk. 1:15, 41, 46, 67, 2:25-38 who were filled with the Spirit were saved without water baptism
9 Christ forgave sins without baptism (Mt. 9:1-7; Lk. 7:36-50; 18:9-14; 19:1-9; 23:43; Jn. 4:49-53; 7:31; 8:30-31; 11:45; 12:11, 42; Acts 3:1-11, 16; 4:10-12; etc.)

e Question 3. Next, 5:13, John desired the Spirit baptism Christ came to give (Jn. 1:31-34). John was filled (Lk. 1:15), but never baptized with the Spirit, which was not given until Christ was glorified (Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 1:4-8, 33-34)
f Both were sent of God and had to fulfill what they were sent to do g Would such statements as "out of the water" (v 16; Mk. 1:10), "they went down both into the water, . . they were come up out of the water" (Acts 8:38-39), and others express baptism by burial or by sprinkling?
h God claims Jesus as His own Son (Cp. Mt. 17:5; Jn. 12:28; Heb. 1:1-4) k Hunger always leaves after a few days of fast and returns after a long fast of about 40 days or when all toxic poisons have been expelled from the body. The breath at this time becomes as sweet as a baby's. Any normal healthy person can fast this long without any harm. Starvation only begins after hunger returns in such cases. One must use water in long fasts and break the fast gradually. Fasting, 629 of O. T.

III Final preparation of Jesus for His ministry: 1 Water baptism (Mk. 1:9; Lk. 3:21; Jn. 1:31).

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'şus from Gāl'ĭ-lee to Jŏr'dan unto Jŏhn, to be baptized of him.
14 But Jŏhn forbad him, saying,[e] I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

CHAPTER 4

3 Temptation (Mk. 1:12; Lk. 4:1; Heb. 2:9-18; 4:14; 5:9)

THEN was Jē'şus led up of the spirit into the wilderness[i] to be tempted of the devil.
2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was[k] afterward an hungred.
3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
●4 But he answered and[l] said, It is written,[m] Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.
5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city,[n] and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,
●6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, [o] He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.◂
●7 Jē'şus said unto him, It is written again,[p] Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him[q] all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;
9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt[r] fall down and worship me.
●10 Then saith Jē'şus unto him, Get thee hence, Sā'tan: for it is written, [o] Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, [c] behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

3 Begins to preach the Kingdom (Mk. 1:15. Cp. Mt. 4:23; 10:7; 24:14)

●17 ¶ From that time Jē'şus began to preach, and to say, [i] Repent: for the [j] kingdom of heaven is at hand.

4 Call of Peter and Andrew (Mk. 1:16; Lk. 5. Cp. Jn. 1:40)

18 ¶ And Jē'şus, walking by the[k] sea of Gāl'ĭ-lee, saw two brethren, Sī'mon called Pē'tēr, and[l] Ăn'drew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
●19 And he saith unto them, [m] Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.◂
20 And they straightway[n] left their nets, and followed him.

5 Call of James and John (Mk. 1:19; Lk. 5:10)

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, [o] Jāmes the son of Zĕb'e-dee and Jŏhn his brother, in a ship with Zĕb'e-dee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.
22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

6 Second tour of Galilee (Mk. 1:38; Lk. 4:42. Cp. Mt. 4:12; 9:35)

23 ¶[p] And Jē'şus went about all Gāl'ĭ-lee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of[q] sickness and all a An expression of complete surrender, submission, and adoration b Quoted from Dt. 6:13 c Ending the temptations, which were:

1 Use Your miraculous powers to supply ordinary and personal needs at my command
2 Prove Your sonship by special demonstration of God's protection. Be reckless and make a side-show of Your power
3 Use my power, influence, worldly organizations and kingdoms and become great among men whom You seek to get power over d Mt. 11:1-14; 14:1-12, notes
e Not mentioned in O. T. (note x, 11:23) f 7th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mt. (4:14-16; Isa. 9:1-2). Next, 8:17
g Gen. 49:21; Josh. 19:32
h Gr. phos, underived and absolute light - the opposite of all darkness. Therefore, used especially of God (1 Tim. 6:16; 1 Jn. 1:5) and of Christ (Jn. 1:4-10) i Repentance is one of the main themes of the Bible, being found 110 times from Gen. 6:6 to Rev. 16:11. See 8 original words for "repent," p. 34
j Lit., kingdom from the heavens headed by Jesus Christ for the purpose of re-establishing the kingdom of God over this rebellious part of God's realm. Only found in Matthew because it is the gospel of Jehovah's King. It is a dispensational term and refers to Messiah's kingdom on earth. Offered by both John and Jesus (Mt. 3:2; 4:17; 10:7). It was rejected so was postponed until Christ comes to set up the kingdom (Mt. 11:12, 20-24; 27:22-25 Lk. 19:11-27; Acts 1:6-7; 3:19-26). It is now the realm of profession (Mt. 13:11-17, 30, 38-43, 47-50). The parables of the kingdom apply to this age. At the end Christ will come and set up a literal earthly kingdom forever (Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-20:10; Zech. 14; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Lk. 1:32-33). During the first 1,000 years of His eternal reign He will put down all rebellion and rid the earth of all rebels. Then God will become all and all as before rebellion (Rev. 20:1-10; 21:1-22:5; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10). Anything said of the kingdom of heaven can also be said of the kingdom of God, because the former is only the earthly dispensational aspect of the latter. There are many things said of the kingdom of God however which cannot be said of the kingdom of heaven (see note e, Mt. 19:24)
k A fresh water lake, called also the Sea of Tiberias, Gennesaret and Chinnereth (Lk. 5:1; Jn. 21:1; Josh. 12:3; 13:27; Dt. 3:17)
l First of Christ's disciples (Jn. 1:33-42). He returned to his fishing until his call with his brother, Peter (Mt. 4:18; Mk. 1:17). He became one of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:2; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:14; Acts 1:13). Mentioned in Mk. 1:29; 13:3; Jn. 6:8; 12:22. Tradition says he was of the tribe of Reuben, that he evangelized Scythia, becoming Russia's patron saint, and that he was stoned and crucified in Greece or Scythia
m The call to soul-winning compared to fishing. To follow is an idiom of discipleship (2 Kl. 6:19) n Leaving all is required of all men. It is an idiom of putting God first in life (Mt. 19:27-30; Lk. 14:33)
o English form of "Jacob." Brother of John and son of Zebedee (Mt. 4:21; 20:20; Mk. 1:19; Lk. 5:10-11). One of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:2; Mk. 3:17; Lk. 6:14; Acts 1:13). One of three most intimate with Jesus (Mk. 5:37; Mt. 17:1-8; 26:36-46). See also Mk. 13:3-4; Lk. 9:54; Jn. 21:1-14. First martyr among the apostles (Acts 12:1-2). Tradition says that he was of the tribe of Levi through his father and of Judah through his mother - of both the priestly and royal house, that he preached in India with Peter, and later in Spain, becoming the patron saint of Spain p First traveling evangelist and missionary (Cp. Mt. 9:35; Mk. 6:6). Note His threefold work as He "went about" (Mt. 9:35, note; Acts 10:38)
q Gr. therapeuo, to wait upon mentally, to relieve of disease. Trans. heal 38 times and cure 5 times manner of [a]disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all [b]Sȳr'ĭ-ȧ: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with [c]devils, and those which were [d]lunatick, and those that had the [e]palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Găl'ĭ-lee, and from Dē-căp'o-lĭs, and from Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm, and from Jū-dæ'ȧ, and from beyond Jôr'dan.

5 CHAPTER 5

7 Sermon on the Mount (5:1-7:29). (1) Introduction

AND seeing the [f]multitudes, he went up into a [g]mountain: and when he [h]was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, [i]saying,

(2) 8 beatitudes. Cp. Lk. 6:20

★3 [j]Blessed are the poor in spirit: for [k]theirs is the kingdom of heaven.◂

▸4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

▸5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

▸6 Blessed are they which do [l]hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

▸7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

▸8 Blessed are the [m]pure in heart: for they shall see God.

▸9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

▸10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

▸11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

★12 [n]Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.◂

(3) Similitudes of believers (Mk. 4:21; Lk. 8:16; 11:33)

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the [o]salt have lost his savour, [p]wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the [q]light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light [r]a candle, and put it under [s]a bushel, but on a [r]candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

●16 Let your light so shine before men, "that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

(4) Christ came to end the law (Rom. 10:4)

★17 ¶ [t]Think not that I am come to [b]destroy [c]the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to [d]fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth [e]pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

(5) Laws of the Kingdom (5:17-6:18). A They are as binding as the laws of Moses ▸19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least [g]commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called [h]great in the [i]kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, [j]That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

B They transcend the law of Moses (5:21-38): (a) On murder

●21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, [k]Thou shalt not kill; [l]and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

●22 But [m]I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother [n]without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, [o]Rā'cȧ, shall be in danger of the [p]council: but whosoever shall say, Thou [q]fool, shall be in danger of [r]hell fire.◂

(b) On restitution and prayer (Lk. 12:58)

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

●24 [s]Leave there thy gift before the [t]altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

(c) On civil suits

●25 Agree with thine [u]adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast [v]paid the uttermost farthing.

(d) On committing adultery (15:19; 19:18; Gal. 5:19)

●27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, "Thou shalt not commit adultery:

●28 But I say unto you, [x]That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

●29 And if thy right eye [y]offend thee, [z]pluck it out, and cast it a Gr. nosos, trans. disease 6 times (Mt. 4:24; Mk. 1:34; Lk. 4:40; 6:17; 9:1; Acts 19:12); sickness 5 times (Mt. 4:23; 8:17; 9:35; 10:1; Mk. 3:15); and infirmity 1 time (Lk. 7:21). Not malaida, disease in Mt. 4:23; 9:35; 10:1

b A district of 10 cities, of which Damascus was the chief c See note on Demons, p. 632 of O. T.

d Gr. selenizomai, from selene, the moon, to be moon-struck, that is, insane. Found only here and in 17:15.

e Gr. paralutikos, to be paralyzed (v 24; 8:6, 9:2; Mk. 2:3-9; Lk. 5:24; 5:18; Acts 8:7; 9:33)

f Always the result of a miraculous, God-honored ministry. Found 16 times in Mt. and only 7 times elsewhere

h Posture of oriental teachers. (Cp. 9:10; 13:1; 15:29; 18:2; 26:55; 24:3; Mk. 3:32; 4:1; 9:35; 12:41; Jn. 6:3; 8:2). Men marvelled at the gracious words of His mouth, not at His bodily gestures i Not the same sermon as in Lk. 6:17-49, which was "in a plain."

j Happy - used 9 times here of people who have godly characteristics as:
1 Broken spirit (v 3; 11:28-30; Ps. 51:17; Isa. 57:15; 66:2)
2 Penitent spirit (v 4; Isa. 61:2; Jas. 4:9; 2 Cor. 7:9-11)
3 Mild-tempered, gentle spirit (v 5; 11:29; Ps. 37:11; 1 Pet. 3:4)
4 Hungering-thirsting spirit for righteousness (v 6; Ps. 34:10; 42:1-3; 63:1; 84:2; Jn. 7:37-39)
5 Compassionate and merciful spirit (v 7; 18:27; 1 Pet. 3:8)
6 Pure spirit (v 8; Phil. 4:8; 1 Tim. 1:5; 3:9; 5:22; 1 Pet. 1:22)
7 Spirit of wisdom and mediation (v 9; Rom. 14:19; 1 Cor. 13)
8 Longsuffering and forgiving spirit (v 10-12; 10:16-28; 1 Cor. 13; 1 Pet. 3:14-17; 4:3-19)

k 4th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (5:3-12). Eight prophetical promises are being fulfilled. Will be completely fulfilled at the second coming of Christ. Next, 5:17

l An idiom for a strong desire (Jn. 7:37, note)

m Gr. katharos, trans. clean (Jn. 13:11, note). This takes place at the new birth (2 Cor. 5:17; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18; Eph. 4:24; 2 Th. 2:13)

n Acts 5:41; 16:25; 1 Pet. 4:13

o Salt is a seasoning and preservative chemical, but if left on the bare earth, or exposed to the sun, rain, and air it loses its savour and is worthless (Cp. Mk. 9:50; Lk. 14:34-35)

p Question 4. Next, 5:46

q Believers become lights of divinity in the kosmos, social system of men. See note h, Mt. 4:16 r Gr. luchnos, oil lamp. Wax candles as we know them were unknown in Bible times. Lamps were made of various materials - clay, brass, silver, and gold, and with one to several bowls into which the oil and a flax wick were put to make light (Ex. 25:31-35; 30:27). Oil was made of olives which was used in cooking, lighting lamps, and personal adornment (Ex. 25:6; 27:20; 29:2, 23)

s Gr. modius, about 1 peck

t Lamp stand for lamps and extra oil

u The purpose of all good works among men is to glorify the heavenly Father (Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7-8; Tit. 2:14; Rev. 4:11)

15 things that glorify God:
1 Bodily healing (Mt. 9:8; 15:31; Lk. 5:25-26; 13:13; Acts 4:21)
2 Bodily resurrection (Jn. 11:4)
3 Christ's work of redemption (Jn. 13:3-32)
4 Answered prayer (Jn. 14:13)
5 Bearing much fruit (Jn. 15:8)
6 Completing God's work (Jn. 17:4)
7 Salvation of Gentiles (Acts 13:48)
8 Miracles among Gentiles (Acts 21:20; 4:10-11)
9 Gifts ministered properly (1 Pet. 4)
10 Offering praise (Ps. 50:23)
11 Good works (Mt. 5:16; 1 Pet. 2:12)
12 Martyrdoms (Jn. 21:19) 19-20)
13 Clean bodies (1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20) 14 Christian profession (2 Cor. 9:13) 15 Liberality (2 Cor. 9:13)

b Pull down as in Mt. 26:61

c First of 15 times Christ used this term (5:17-18; 7:12; 11:13; 12:5; 22:40; 23:23; Lk. 10:26; 16:16-17; 24:44; Jn. 7:19-23; 8:17; 10:34; 15:25)

d Gr. plero, to satisfy, expire, and to end by fulfilling like other prophecies when fulfilled (Mt. 1:22; 2:15, 17, 23; 4:14; 8:17; 12:17; 13:35)

e Gr. parerchomai, pass away, be changed, or pass from one condition to another. They will never pass out of existence, but they will be changed and purified by fire becoming renewed again (Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-29; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rom. 8:21-24; Rev. 21:1). They remain forever (Eccl. 1:4; Ps. 72:17; 89:36-37; 104:5). They will pass away in the same sense old things pass away when one becomes a new creature in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

f "Jot" is the smallest letter and "tittle" the smallest ornament placed upon certain Hebrew letters. Every jot and tittle of the whole law or contract at Sinai was fulfilled, ended, and abolished in Christ and "done away" by Him when He made the new contract (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Acts 15:5-29; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; 5:1-5, 18; Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 7:11-28; 8:6-18; 9:1-22; 10:1-18; Rom. 10:4)

g The laws and commandments of the new contract are just as binding as those in the old contract (Jas. 2:10). There are over 1,050 commands in the new contract, plus many other teachings not expressed in the form of commands. See N.T. commands, p. 313

h See notes e and f, Lk. 7:28

i See note j, Mt. 4:17

j Note their self-righteousness in Mt. 12:22-30; 15:1-14; 16:12; 23:1-33; Lk. 11:39-54; 18:9-14; Rom. 10:1-3; Gal. 1:14; 2:14; Phil. 3:2-6

k Ex. 20:13; Dt. 5:17

l Not a quotation of any scripture, so must be an old comment on it

m Christ speaks with authority in making the laws of the new contract (Mt. 7:29; 26:28; Jn. 1:17)

n Men must have just and lawful causes to be angry and even then they are to keep their temper under strict control (Eph. 4:26). The fruit of the Spirit is temperance or self-control (Gal. 5:22)

o An Aramaic word of utmost contempt and scorn, as Eng. "You!" or, scoundrel, wicked rascal p The Sanhedrin, composed of 71 judges presided over by the high priest, or a local council of each synagogue composed of 3 or more men

q Gr. moros, a wicked reprobate, destitute of all spirituality

r Gr. gehenna (Heb. Ge-Hinnim, Valley of Hinnom), near Jerusalem where perpetual fires were kept to burn all refuse and purify the air to prevent pestilence (Isa. 30:33; Jer. 7:31-32; 19:6-14; 2 Ki. 23:10). Used 12 times of hell, the place of eternal punishment of the wicked (Mt. 5:22, 29, 30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15, 33; Mk. 9:43-47; Lk. 12:5; Jas. 3:6). It is the same as "the lake of fire" (Rev. 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8); "furnace of fire" (Mt. 8:12; 13:42, 50; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30; Lk. 3:17); and a place of eternal "fire and brimstone" (Mt. 25:41, 46; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:10-15; 21:8; Isa. 66:22-24). See note, Lk. 12:5

s A Christian requirement (Cp. Mt. 18:15-17, 21-35)

t 228 times in Scripture; 24 times in the N. T. It means "a place of sacrifice" or "a place to meet with God." Christians should have such a place (Mt. 5:23-24; Heb. 13:10; Rom. 12:1-3) u Opponent at law. Under Roman law an adversary could force his opponent to go before the judge (Mt. 18:28-30). If he would settle on the way to the judge he would not be tried in court (Lk. 12:58-59)

v In the case of some debt

w Ex. 20:14; Dt. 5:18

x With continual longing with the mind made up to commit the act if at all possible (Jas. 1:13-16). It becomes a state of the heart and is as deadly as the act itself (1 Sam. 16:7; Mk. 7:19-23)

y To cause a moral fall and loss of the soul by some means z Nothing is to be gained by changing the literal meaning a Giving the reason why one should get rid of the offending member. Would it not be more profitable to do this literally than to have all members cast into eternal hell? Jesus is simply emphasizing the terribleness of eternal hell. There is a better method than this provided by the gospel. If one will become a new creature in Christ by the new birth this problem of sinful members will be solved (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Gal. 5:16-26; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2:29; 3:6-10; 5:1-5, 18). See Mt. 18:8-9, notes

b Used 2 times of the whole body going to hell (v 29-30; 10:28; Lk. 12:5, note; Rev. 20:11-15) c Used 3 times here (v 22, 29-30; 18:8-9; Mk. 9:43-48; Isa. 66:24)

d Dt. 24:1-4; Isa. 50:1; Jer. 3:8

e Gr. apoluo, to loose (Mt. 18:27); release (Mt. 27:15-26); let go (Lk. 14:4); set at liberty (Acts 26:32); send away (Mt. 14:15-23); dismiss (Acts 15:30); put away (Mt. 1:19; 5:31-32; 19:3-9; Mk. 10:2-12; Lk. 16:18); and divorce (Mt. 5:32)
Put away here means divorce and was so understood by the Jews. If the divorce was granted for fornication, a sin God looked upon as most serious, the putting away was legal, Christian, and sanctioned by Christ. It made the contract null and void as before marriage (Cp. Dt. 24:1-4)

f A legal document dissolving the marriage bonds. Called "writing of divorcement" (v 31; 19:7) and "bill of divorcement" (Dt. 24:1-3; Isa. 50:1; Jer. 3:8; Mk. 10:4). See notes, 19:1-12; Mk. 10:2-4; 1 Cor. 7

g Fornication in the Bible means: adultery of married or single people (Mt. 5:32; 19:9; 1 Cor. 7:2; 10:8; 1 Th. 4:3; Rev. 9:21); incest (1 Cor. 5:1; 10:8); idolatry and adultery in honor of idol gods (2 Chr. 21:11; Isa. 23:17; Ezek. 16:15, 26, 29; Acts 15:20, 29; 21:25; Rev. 2:14-21; 14:8; 17:2-4; 18:3-9; 19:2); natural harlotry (Jn. 8:41; 1 Cor. 6:13-18); spiritual harlotry (Ezek. 16:15, 26, 29; Rev. 17:2-4; 18:3-9; 19:2); sodomy and male prostitution (1 Cor. 6:9-11; Heb. 12:16; Jude 6-7; Rom. 1:24-29; 2 Cor. 12:21; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 5:3; Col. 3:5). Do all these scriptures apply to single people only? If not, then fornication does not apply only to single people as some teach h Adultery is unlawful relationship between men and women, single or married. Out of 69 times the sin is referred to in Scripture, only two passages speak of spiritual adultery (Jer. 3:3-12; Ezek. 16:37). This term is not used in the broader sense of all forms of unchastity as is fornication. All adultery is fornication, but all fornication is not adultery

i Lev. 19:12; Num. 30:2; Dt. 23:21

j Gr. epiorkeo, swear falsely. Making vows by heaven, earth, or any other thing that we have no power to change is forbidden (Mt. 5:33-37; Jas. 5:12), but making vows and taking oaths to speak the truth is always right (Mt. 5:33; Heb. 6:16; Gen. 22:16; 28:20)

k Ex. 21:24; Lev. 24:20; Dt. 19:21

q 4 commands in v 44:
1 Love your enemies
2 Bless them that curse you
3 Do good to those that hate you
4 Pray for your persecutors

These are four of over 1,050 commands in the N.T. to be obeyed by Christians. Hence, the universal impression in Christendom there are 10 commandments to obey is far from truth. See N.T. commands, p. 313 from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy [b]whole body should be cast into hell.

●30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into [c]hell.

(e) On divorce and re-marriage (19:1; Lk. 16:18)

●31 It hath been said, [d]Whosoever shall [e]put away his wife, let him give her a [f]writing of divorcement:

●32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, [g]saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to [h]commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

(f) On making vows (James 5:12; Ps. 15:4; 76:11)

●33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, [i]Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

●34 But I say unto you, [j]Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jĕrȳ'sā-lĕm; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

●37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

(g) On retaliation (Mt. 18:21; Lk. 6:29; 17:1)

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [k]An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

●39 [l]But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

●40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

●41 [m]And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

●42 [n]Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

(h) On love (Lk. 6:27; Jn. 13:34; 15:9; 17:26)

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [o]Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and [p]hate thine enemy.

●44 [q]But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

▸45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 [a]For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the [b]publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

●48 Be ye therefore [c]perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6 6

(i) On almsgiving (5:42; 6:1; 19:21; Lk. 11:41; 12:33)

TAKE [d]heed that ye do not your [e]alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no [f]reward of your Father which is in heaven.

●2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as [g]the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, [h]They have their reward.

●3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

▸4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

(j) On prayer: alone with God (Lk. 11:1; 18:1; Jn. 14:12; 15:7)

●5 ¶ And [i]when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

●6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy [k]closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

(k) On prayer: the Father's omniscience (Mt. 6:25; 11:25; Rom. 11:33)

●7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

●8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: [m]for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

(l) On prayer: the model prayer (Lk. 11:2)

●9 [n]After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 [o]Thy kingdom come. [p]Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 [q]And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:

a Questions 5-8, Next, 6:25

b Tax-gatherers. Used 17 times. They were despised by the Jews, so any reference to being less than this class was the lowest thing that could be said of anyone religious. They were classed with sinners (Mt. 9:10-11; 11:19; 21:31-32). Many repented and were baptized (Lk. 3:12; 7:29). One of them became an apostle (Lk. 5:27-29; 19:1-10)

c Gr. telelos, complete in conformity to God's laws
What a Christian must be:
1 Broken in spirit, burdened for others, meek, humble, hungry for righteousness, merciful, pure in heart, wise, patient, loving, joyful, and gracious (5:3-12)
2 Salt to preserve and a light to shine (5:13-16)
3 A teacher and keeper of the truth (5:17-19)
4 Free from hypocrisy, selfishness, and grudges (5:20-24)
5 A peace-maker (5:9, 25-26)
6 Free from lusts (5:27-30)
7 A family man (5:31-32)
8 Truthful (5:31-37)
9 Non-resistent to mistreatment (5:38-41)
10 Charitable, neighborly, and God-like in society (5:38-47)
All this is possible through:
1 The new birth (2 Cor. 5:17; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18)
2 By walking and living in the Spirit (Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26)
3 By proper use of Christian weapons (2 Cor. 10:5-7; Eph. 6:10-18; Col. 2:6-10; 3:3-10; 2 Tim. 2:21)

d Gr. prosecho, to hold the mind, pay strict attention to, and apply one's self to (Acts 3:5; 8:6, 10; 1 Tim. 4:1; Lk. 21:34; Heb. 2:1). The phrase is used 29 times in each testament. See note e, Mt. 11:29

e Alms were acts of charity and only solicited by the unfortunate 1 Giving of: to be done with simplicity (6:1-4); with liberality (Dt. 15:11; Rom. 12:8); and cheerfully (2 Cor. 9:7)
2 Enjoined (Lev. 25:35; Dt. 15:7-11; Isa. 58:7; Mt. 5:42; Lk. 11:41; 2 Cor. 9:5; 1 Tim. 6:18)
3 Rewarded (Dt. 14:28-29; 15:10; Mt. 10:42; 19:21; Lk. 12:33)
4 Examples of (Lk. 19:8; Acts 9:36; 10:2; 2 Cor. 8-9)

f Third of 13 times in Mt. Each good deed is to be rewarded if done with the right motive (Mt. 5:12; 6:1, 18; 10:41-42; 16:27; Mk. 9:41; Lk. 6:23, 35; Rom. 14:10-11; 1 Cor. 3:8-15; 9:17-18; 2 Cor. 5:10; Col. 2:18; 3:24; 2 Tim. 4:14; Heb. 10:35; 11:26; 2 Pet. 2:13; Rev. 11:18; 22:12)

g Actors - acting under a mask; feigning principles not adopted, and passions not felt (Mt. 22:18; 23:28; 24:51; Mk. 12:15). They literally sounded trumpets under the pretext of calling the poor; though with no other design than to gratify self by giving alms in public. See note, Job 27:8

h They have their receipt in full

i An idiom of true humility

j The secret to the answer of secret prayer (7:7-11)

k Gr. tameion, storehouse, or room for privacy or retirement; secret chamber (v 6; 24:26; Lk. 12:3, 24)

l Secret giving will be honored openly by God (Cp. 10:40-42)

1 Pray for it to be done on earth (v 10)
2 Make doing it our meat (Jn. 4:34)
3 Seek it as Christ did (Jn. 5:30)
4 Understand it (Eph. 5:17)
5 Do it from the heart (Eph. 6:6)
6 Live it (1 Pet. 2:11-17)
7 For all to be saved (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9)
8 Not be conformed to world (Rom. 12:2)
9 Possess own body in holiness (1 Th. 4:3-4; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:19-20)
10 To ask what you will (Jn. 15:7)

q Do not permit us to be overcome by evil but deliver us from the evil one

For [a]thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever, A-mĕn'.

(m) On prayer: conditions of answered prayer (Mt. 7:7; 17:20; 18:18; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22; Jn. 15:7)

▶14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(n) On fasting (Mt. 9:15; 17:21; Lk. 5:33)

●16 ¶ Moreover when ye [b]fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: [c]for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, [d]They have their reward.

●17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

▶18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: [e]and thy Father, [f]which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

(6) Warnings to believers (6:19–7:29): A Against trust in riches (13:22; 19:16; Lk. 12:15; 1 Tim. 6:17)

●19 ¶ Lay [g]not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

●20 [h]But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither [i]moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:◀

21 [j]For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

B Against double-mindedness (Lk. 16:9. Cp. Jas. 1:5; Heb. 10:38)

22 [k]The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be [l]single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be [m]evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be [n]darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 [o]¶ No man can serve two masters: [p]for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [q]Ye cannot serve God and [r]mammon.

C Against worry and anxiety (Lk. 12:22. Cp. Phil. 4:6; 1 Pet. 5:7)

●25 Therefore I say unto you, [s]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. [t]Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one [u]cubit unto his [v]stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even [w]Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

▶30 [x]Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the [y]oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [z]O ye of little faith?

●31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these [a]things do the Gĕn'tiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

●33 [b]But seek ye first the [c]kingdom of God, and his [d]righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.◀

●34 [e]Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

7 CHAPTER 7

D Against mote hunting (Lk. 6:41; Jn. 7:24; 8:7)

JUDGE [f]not, that ye be not judged.

2 [g]For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 [h]And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out [i]the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a [j]beam is in thine own eye?

●5 Thou [k]hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

E Against careless dispensing of sacred things

●6 ¶ [l]Give not that which is holy unto the [m]dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before [n]swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

F Against unbelief: the infinite Fatherhood of God and the certainty of answered prayer (6:25; Lk. 11:5; 18:1)

▶7 ¶ [o]Ask, and it shall be given you; [p]seek, and ye shall find; [q]knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

▶8 For [r]every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be [s]opened.

i Only 5 times in Mt. (6:33; 12:28; 19:24; 21:31, 43), but "kingdom of heaven" is used 30 times. (See note j, 4:17)
j See "righteousness," Rom. 3:26, note k Do not fret about tomorrow, for the morrow will have its own troubles. The care of each day is enough to master. Thoughtful preparation for the future is not rebuked, but fretting about it is condemned. See note s, 6:24
l Do not find fault with anyone except self or you will expose your own criminal tendencies and disposition m Main reason not to do this (Gal. 6:7–8) n Questions 17–18, Next, v 9
o Gr. karphos, a twig, straw, chaff, or any particle of dust (v 3; Lk. 6:41) p Gr. dokos, a wooden beam (v 3; Lk. 6:41). Why concentrate upon the splinter in your brother's eye, if you are blind to the log in your own eye?
q See also Lk. 13:15; Job 20:4–5; 27:8; Ps. 11:9
r Do not force truth upon rebels who reject it, or give holy things to faultfinders, mote-hunters, evil speakers
s Used figuratively of 9 classes:
1 Homosexuals (Dt. 23:18)
2 Anyone despised (1 Sam. 17:43; 24:14; 2 Sam. 9:8; 16:9; 2 Kl. 8:13)
3 Satanic powers (Ps. 22:20)
4 Wicked men (Ps. 22:16; 59:6, 14)
5 False prophets (Isa. 56:10; Phil. 3:2)
6 Deceived people (Mt. 7:6; Rev. 22:15)
7 Fools (Prov. 26:11)
8 Gentiles (Mt. 15:26–27; Mk. 7:27–28)
9 Backsliders (2 Pet. 2:20–23)
t Used figuratively of 3 classes:
1 Indiscreet women (Prov. 11:22)
2 Deceived people (Mt. 7:6)
3 Backsliders (2 Pet. 2:20–22)
u Gr. aiteo, to ask (Jn. 15:7; Mt. 21:22; Jas. 1:5–8; 1 Jn. 3:22; 5:14–16); to crave (Mk. 15:43); to beg (Mt. 27:58); to desire (Mk. 11:24); and to require or demand (Lk. 1:63; 1 Cor. 1:22; Lk. 12:48; 1 Pet. 3:15). The idea here is to demand something that is due one because of family and rede mptive rights. Five times it is found in v 7–11. The first letters of ask, seek, and knock spell "ASK." It is God's will that we ask and get what we want (Ps. 23:1; 34:9–10; 84:11; Mk. 11:24; Jn. 15:7, 16)
v Seeking must be with the whole heart (Dt. 4:29; 2 Chr. 7:14; 11:16; 15:2; Pr. 8:17; Lk. 15:8; Col. 3:1; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5–8; 1 Pet. 3:11)
w The third way of getting an answer to prayer (Lk. 11:5–13; 18:1–8). To ask implies want; seeking implies loss; and knocking implies need. One must ask with confidence and humility; seek with care and application; and knock with earnestness and perseverance (Lk. 11:4–8) x No exception to the rule for anyone. If there is it is because of the failure to ask in faith, nothing wavering (Jas. 1:5–8), to seek diligently (Heb. 11:6), and to knock with importunity (Lk. 11:5–13; 18:1–18). The only reason for unanswered prayer to a Christian is "unbelief" (Mt. 17:17–21; Jas. 1:5–8; Heb. 11:5). Unbelief is caused by wrong teaching (Rom. 10:17). The promises are unlimited (Ps. 34:9–10; 84:11; 91:1–12; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22–24; Jn. 15:7, 16), so if there is a limitation in answer there is a limitation of faith, not of God's will or power y The door is never opened in the East until the one who knocks is first questioned (Lk. 11:5–8). Note the threefold assurance of an answer – receiveth, findeth, it shall be opened z Questions 19–21, Next, v 16

he give him a stone?
10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?
▸11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

G Against selfishness: the golden rule (Lk. 6:31)

●12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

H Against wrong choices: two ways (6:24; 7:24; Lk. 6:47)

●13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:
14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

I Against false prophets and deceptions (24:4, 24)

●15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.
16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

J Against mere profession of salvation (Lk. 13:22-30)

★21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.◂
▸22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
▸23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

K Against insecurity: two foundations (7:13; Lk. 6:47-49)

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:
25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.
26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:
27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.
28 And it came to pass, when Jĕ'sus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:
29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8

8 Jesus heals the leper (Mk. 1:40; Lk. 5:12)

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
3 And Jĕ'sus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
4 And Jĕ'sus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Mō'sĕs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

9 Centurion's servant healed (Lk. 7:1-10)

5 ¶ And when Jĕ'sus was entered into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,
6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.
7 And Jĕ'sus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.
8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.
9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
10 When Jĕ'sus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'ra-el.
★11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Ā'brā-hăm, and Ī'saac, and Jā'cob, in the kingdom of heaven.◂
▸12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
13 And Jĕ'sus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

10 Peter's mother-in-law healed (Mk. 1:29; Lk. 4:38)

a If wicked fathers see to it that their children get what they ask and that they are fed, clothed, happy, prosperous, healed, protected, and free from suffering, to the fullest extent of their ability, HOW MUCH MORE will the heavenly Father do for His children "that ask Him," Luke adds, "give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him" (Lk. 13:9-13)
b If deliverance from dangers, preservation from evil, bodily healing and health, material prosperity, or any other answer to prayer is a "good thing," then ask to receive it and no longer question the will of God in the matter. It is already His will or this teaching of v 7-11 is false c A summary of all the teachings of v 1-12, about judging, fault-finding, mote-hunting, dispensing holy things, and parental responsibility. In fact, it is the sum of the law and the prophets d Cp. Lk. 13:24-27 and note the reasons for entrance into the two ways (Dt. 30:15; 1 Ki. 18:21; 2 Pet. 2:2, 15). See also the two destinies here and in Mt. 25:46; Jn. 5:28-29; Gal. 6:7-8. Up to physical death destruction can be cancelled by repentance (Lk. 13:1-5; Jn. 3:16-20; Acts 3:19; 1Jn. 1:9) and life can be cancelled by sin (Gen. 2:17; Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 8:12-13)
e An allusion to strict observance of the golden rule of v 12, and to repentance and walking the Christian way of life to the end of the narrow way
f An allusion to the careless sinful way of life of the wicked, intimating that it is easier to be revengeful and covetous; to take advantage of another to enrich self rather than walk according to the golden rule g This way of life leads to destruction, which does not actually come until the end of the road (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Heb. 9:27). The reason is that destruction can be cancelled by turning from sin to God (Acts 26:18)
h This narrow way is leading to life but it cannot be given as an unforfeitable right until the end of the narrow way (notes on Jn. 6:27; 10:1-28; 15:1-8)
i Keep away from false prophets or teachers (note c, 1 Jn. 4:1) j 7 ways false prophets are known:
1 By outward general conduct (v 15; 5:20; 6:1-24; 23:1-33; 2 Tim. 3:5)
2 By inward state (v 15; 5:22, 28; 23:25-28; Mk. 7:21-23)
3 By the kind of fruit in works produced (v 16-20; 23:1-24; 2 Cor. 11:13-15; Phil. 1:15-17; 3:3, 17-19)
4 By the kind of fruit in doctrines taught (v 16-20; 12:33-37; 15:1-9; 16:12; 23:1-33; 1 Tim. 4:1-6; 6:3-5; 2 Tim. 3:1-8; 4:1-4; 2 Pet. 2)
5 By professing to do, not doing the will of God (v 21; 5:20; 23:1-33)
6 By satanic backing (v 22; 24:24; Acts 8:9-13; 13:6-13; 16:16-24; 2 Cor. 11:13-15; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 16:13-16; 19:20)
7 By their destiny (v 23; 25:41, 46; 2 Cor. 11:13-15; Rev. 19:20; 20:10-15)

f First of 133 times in the Gospels, 84 times in Acts, and 150 times in the rest of the N. T. Jesus is called "Lord." Jesus calls Himself "Lord" (Mt. 7:21-22; 21:3), as well as do prophets (Isa. 40:3 with Mt. 3:3 and Mal. 3:1 with Mk. 1:2; Lk. 2:27); angels (Lk. 2:11); and God and the Holy Spirit (Ps. 110:1-5; Mt. 22:43-45; Mal. 3:1; Acts 2:36). Two Lord's are mentioned sitting side by side (Ps. 110:1-5; Mt. 22:43-45)
g Constant questioning of God's will every time one prays is the greatest hindrance to answered prayer. All men who believe in God believe He can do all things, but few believe He will. It is always God's will for every child of His to get what he wills (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:20-22; 5:13-14). See note, Lk. 5:12 h First of 8 cases Jesus touched in healing people (v 3, 15; 9:29; 17:7; 20:34; Mk. 1:41; 7:33; Lk. 5:13; 7:14; 22:51). Many others touched Him and were healed (Mt. 9:21; 14:36; Mk. 3:10; 5:28; 6:56; 8:22; Lk. 6:19)
i God never says "No" to anyone who comes to Him in faith (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:1-15; 15:7, 16; Jas. 1:5-8)
j Not one gradual healing is recorded in the life of Jesus. Some use Jn. 4:52; Mk. 8:23-25 as excuses for unbelief and as proof of gradual healing, but in both cases the persons were healed within the hour.
k Tell no man - for 4 reasons:
1 He did not want to set forth His claim to Messiahship this early in His ministry and hasten the controversy He knew that His works would cause. Even later He forbad His disciples to make it known (Mt. 16:13-20). He made no public claim of it at first, but simply did the works that the prophets had predicted the Messiah would do (Mt. 11:1-6)
2 He wanted people to fulfill the law and offer the testimony that Moses commanded in such cases (Lev. 14:4, 10, 21-22). In each case it would have to be known to the priests how one was cleansed and this should be sufficient proof of His Messiahship to the priests. The Jewish rabbis taught that cleansing lepers should be characteristic of the Messiah, so His very works proved it before He was forced by opposition to make such claim for Himself
3 He wanted to shun popularity and human acclaim and the evil effects of mob clamour to make Him King. When this did happen He got away from it all (Jn. 6:15-21). By this time He knew it was time to declare Himself to the people, so never again did He say, "Tell no man," as in Mt. 8:4; Mk. 8:26, 30; Lk. 5:14; 8:56; 9:21
4 Jesus set an example of putting healings to the test before testimony is given for them. Any real healing will stand any kind of test. Any person, maintaining he is healed when he is not, is unscriptural l First of 80 times Moses is mentioned in the N. T. This is proof that he wrote Leviticus, See Lev. 14:4-32

e Both Gr. words, lambano, to take in order to carry away; to remove (v 17; 5:40), and bastazo, to bear or lift with the idea of removal (v 17; Lk. 7:14), plainly mean the same as the Heb. nasa, to bear, to take the debt of sin and sickness upon one's self, and carry it as his own (Isa. 53:4; Lev. 5:1, 17; 16:22; 20:19-20; 24:15). What was it He bore away by taking upon Himself? The case before us is not sins, but our griefs (sicknesses), and sorrows (pains, Isa. 53:4; Mt. 8:17). He did not bear them merely to enter into the fellowship of our sufferings, but to deliver us from them. It would be useless for Him to bear them in our stead if He still left us to bear them. Naturally, sins were borne, but so were all sicknesses and diseases and all evil which sin brought into the world (Rom. 8:17-24; 1 Pet. 2:24). Such were not mere types of spiritual diseases, as some teach, but actual diseases borne by Christ along with sin. The ultimate redemption by atonement is not only to remove all sins, but also all sicknesses with complete redemption of body as well as soul (Rom. 8:11, 17-24; Phil. 3:21; Eph. 5:27). If God deals with sin now, He also deals with disease as clearly revealed in the whole truth (Isa. 6:10; 61:1; Mt. 13:15; Jn. 10:10). "With His stripes we are healed" (Isa. 53:5; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24)
f Feebleness of mind and body, malady, frailty, disease, sickness, weakness. All this Christ bore on the cross, fulfilling Isa. 53. Every infirmity is not a disease or sickness but all these are infirmities (Lk. 5:15; 7:21; 8:2; 13:11-12; Jn. 5:5). Priests had infirmities (Heb. 5:2; 7:28), but not diseases or physical imperfections, for they had to be perfect physically (Lev. 21:17-24). All saints have infirmities or weaknesses of various kinds (Rom. 8:26), but not necessarily sickness and disease (Rom. 14:1-2; 15:1). Paul had infirmities or weaknesses in body because of the sufferings of 2 Cor. 11:24-30; 12:5-10; Gal. 4:13, but there is no indication that he had sicknesses and diseases that Christ died to take from him. His "thorn" was "a messenger (angel) of Satan" who caused these beatings, stonings, etc. (2 Cor. 12:7). Any weakness in body, soul, spirit, faith, ability, etc. is an infirmity. The same Gr. word asthenela is trans. weakness (1 Cor. 2:3; 15:43; 2 Cor. 12:9; 13:4; Heb. 11:34) and infirmity (Rom. 8:26; 15:1; 2 Cor. 11:24-30; Rom. 6:19; Heb. 4:15; 5:2; 7:28)
g Used only 4 times and always of bodily diseases (Dt. 28:59; 29:22; Mt. 8:17; Mk. 3:15). The word "sickness" is used 20 times and "sick" 68 times and not once of spiritual sickness so often referred to by modern teachers. See notes on Mt. 4:23-24

20 And Jē'sus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the [h]Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.
31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick [d]of the palsy, lying on a [e]bed: and Jē'sus [f]seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; [g]thy sins be forgiven thee.
3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.
4 And Jē'sus knowing their thoughts said, [h]Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?
5 For [i]whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

b First whole city (perhaps Gergesa) to reject Jesus. Cp. Mt. 11:20-24; 23:37-39. Rejected Him over swine, an unclean animal forbidden in their law (Lev. 11:1-8). After all, no man rejects God over clean and lawful things (Jn. 3:18-20)

g First fulfillment of Mt. 1:21 on record. This and many other cases of remission of sins were before and without water baptism and other rituals demanded by some modern teachers (v 2, 22; Mk. 5:34; 10:52; Lk. 7:36-50; 8:48; 18:9-14; 9:1-9; 23:43; Jn. 4:49-53; 7:31; 8:30-31; 11:45; 12:11, 42; Acts 3:1-16; 4:12; 10:43; 11:14; 15:9)
h Questions 29-30. Next, v 11
i Controversy over this question still rages. They knew He could heal for this was being done daily, but to forgive sins by the same authority from God was considered blasphemy. Today, we believe that God can and will forgive all sin, but to teach that He still can and will heal all diseases is considered fallacy. God's ability is not questioned, but His willingness to heal all is. Why is this? Is it because God does not love men today as then? Is it because He has made no provision to do so today? Is it because the atonement has failed, prayer is a farce, and the promises are now untrue? God forbid! It is because man has changed, the church has failed, and preachers have refused to carry on the gospel program as started by Christ and guaranteed in the New Testament (Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-17; Acts 1; 1 Cor. 12; Jas. 5:14-16)
It is just as easy for God to heal a body as to save the soul. He will to do both today on the same basis – faith in the name of Jesus (Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16; 16:23-26; Acts 3:16; 4:12). If God could at all do both and He refused to do so, then He would not be the infinite Father Jesus said He was (Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13). He would be less loving and good than an evil father who would gladly heal his child if he had the power
j Gr. exousia, delegated authority and liberty to exercise the full power of attorney in all God's interests; complete authority to act in God's stead as if God Himself were here doing the work; power to act as freely of his own will as one has power to eat and drink (1 Cor. 9:4-6). Christ's power was unlimited in doing the will and works of God on earth (v 6; 4:23-24; 8:17; 10:1-8; Mk. 1:27; Lk. 4:36; 10:19; Jn. 5:27; 17:2). He now has all power in heaven and in earth (Mt. 28:18; Eph. 1:20-23; Col. 2:9-17; Heb. 1:3; 7:25; 1 Pet. 3:22). He now promises to share His earthly power with believers (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

o A despised class to the religious Jews, perhaps because they lived in open sin and made no profession of religion. They are mentioned with publicans 9 times (Mt. 9:10-13; 11:19; Mk. 2:15-16; Lk. 5:30; 7:34; 15:1). It was believed that God would not hear their prayers (Jn. 9:31). All Gentiles were classed as sinners (Gal. 2:15-17). The N. T. classes all men out of Christ as sinners (Rom. 3:19-23; 5:12-21) p Christ came to save sinners, not the righteous (Mt. 9:12-13; Rom. 5:8; 1 Tim. 1:15) q Quoted from Hos. 6:6; 1 Sam. 15:22. I desire acts of mercy on your part rather than sacrifices. If your religion makes you exalted and self-righteous and you consider yourself to be defiled by associating with sinners, your sacrifices are in vain

e New flannel, undressed or unfilled cloth which is easily torn f Gr. neos, freshly made, new in time

g Old dried out wine skins unfit for liquids, especially for wine to ferment in, because the violence of the fermentation would burst them

b Gr. kainos, renewed, not neos, new in existence. Old wine skins to hold wine must be soaked in water to soften them. Then they must be greased with oil or butter to prevent leaking and evaporation. Men only put newly made wine in renewed wine skins and both are preserved

The idea here, if it refers to the saving of sinners of v 10–13, means a complete renewal, as in 2 Cor. 5:17–18; Eph. 4:23–24; Col. 3:10; Rom. 12:2. But if it refers to keeping the old customs, as in v 14–15, then it means that the two systems of religion, the Jewish and the Christian cannot be mixed; to patch the old with the new would make things worse; and to combine the two systems would be destructive to both. The old covenant must give way for the new, but the new cannot be made part of the old because of the new life and freedom impossible with the old

The sinner is not merely reformed, neither are the old Jewish religion and customs merely given a new dress or container by Christianity. Both are new things. The sinner is a new creature and Christianity is a new religion.

18 Answers John's disciples (Mk. 2:18-20; Lk. 5:33-35)

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of Jŏhn, saying,[q] Why do we and the Phăr'ĭ-sees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?
15 [b]And Jē'sus said unto them, Can the [c]children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, [d]when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

19 Parable of garment and bottles (Mk. 2:21; Lk. 5:36)

16 No man putteth a piece of [e]new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.
17 Neither do men put [f]new wine into [g]old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into [h]new bottles, and both are preserved.

20 Woman healed: girl resurrected (Mk. 5:21; Lk. 8:40)

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even [i]now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, [j]and she shall live.
19 And Jē'sus [k]arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.
20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and [l]touched the [m]hem of his garment:
21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.
22 But Jē'sus [n]turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; [o]thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.
23 And when Jē'sus came into the ruler's house, and saw the [p]minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place: [q]for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.
25 But when the people [r]were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the [s]maid arose.
26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

21 Two blind men healed (Cp. 20:29; Mk. 10:46; Lk. 18:35)

27 ¶ And when Jē'sus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of Dă'vid, have mercy on us.
28 And when he was come into the [t]house, the blind men came to him: and Jē'sus saith unto them, "Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.
▸29 Then [u]touched he their eyes, saying, [b]According to your faith be it unto you.
30 And their eyes were opened; and Jē'sus [c]straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.
31 But they, when they were departed, [d]spread abroad his fame in all that country.

22 Dumb man healed: first blasphemy of the Holy Spirit (Cp. 12:24, 31, refs.)

32 ¶ As they [e]went out, behold, they brought to him [f]a dumb man possessed with a devil.
33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Ĭs'ra-el.
34 But the Phăr'ĭ-sees [g]said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

23 Third tour of Galilee (Cp. 4:12, 23; Lk. 4:42)

35 And Jē'sus [h]went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing [i]every sickness and every disease among the people.
36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, [j]he was moved with compassion on them, [k]because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, [l]as sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The [m]harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;
●38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth [n]labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10 10

24 Twelve ordained (Mk. 3:13; Lk. 6:12; 9:1. Cp. Mk. 6:7). (1) Enduement with power.

AND when he had [o]called unto him his twelve disciples, he [p]gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

(2) Names of the apostles (Mk. 3:16-19; Lk. 6:14-16; Acts 1:13-26)

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; [q]The first, Sī'mon, who is called Pē'tēr, and An'drew his brother; [r]James the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and [s]John his brother;
w 3 [d]Phĭl'ĭp, and Bär-thŏl'o-mew; Thŏm'as, and [x]Măt'thew the publican; [y]James the son of Al-phæ'us, and [z]Lĕb-bæ'us, whose surname was Thăd-dæ'us; 4 [d]Sī'mon the Că'năan-īte, and [b]Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, who also betrayed him.

c Gr. embrimaomai, sternly enjoin; to charge at risk of displeasure, indicating that He was definitely seeking to keep His identity unknown to His enemies as long as possible. See reasons why, note k, Mt. 8:4

d Took no heed to His charge of v 30

e Out of Matthew's house (v 9–10, 18, 27–28, 32)

f Dumbness caused by a dumb demon

g First blasphemy of the Holy Spirit, showing their open opposition to Him. They maliciously and knowingly sinned against light (Jn. 3:1–2; Mt. 12:31–32)

h Second general statement of His evangelistic work – teaching, preaching, and healing (Mt. 4:23–24; Acts 10:38).
1 Teaching, Gr. didasko, to instruct; deliver a discourse; to impart knowledge; instil doctrine into another; to explain. Christ was the greatest teacher of men. They marvelled at what He said, not at His gymnastics. Teaching should be carried on in an informal way. The teacher should permit questions until everything is clear (Mt. 13:11, 51; Mk. 8:11; 12:34; Lk. 2:46; 23:9)
2 Preaching, Gr. kerusso, to herald as a public crier; proclaim. Teaching is referred to 168 times and about equally in both Testaments, but preaching is referred to only 5 times in the O. T. and 138 times in the N. T. Preaching is for the purpose of calling the attention of men to truth while teaching is the work of making the truth clear. Every parent was to be a teacher of truth (Dt. 4:1–14; 11:19)
3 Healing. This was His ministry (v 23–24; 9:35; Lk. 4:16–21; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38). Christ commanded every gospel minister to do this work (Mt. 10:1–8; 28:20; Mk. 3:15; 6:7–13; 16:15–20; Lk. 9:2; 10:9; Jas. 5:14–16)

i See notes, Mt. 4:23–24; note b, 13:58

j Characteristic of God and Christ and should be of believers. Compassion is that drawing and agitation of the innermost parts at the sight of any distressed or miserable object. It causes revolting action in the innermost being to bring deliverance from such unlawful and inhuman misery and suffering. Used 9 times of Christ (9:36; 14:14; 15:32; 20:34; Mk. 1:41; 5:19; 6:34; 8:2; Lk. 7:13)

k Exhausted, beginning to lie down like sheep abandoned by shepherds. The scribes and Phatisees had utterly neglected the common man whom they classed as cursed (Jn. 7:49)

l Lost men are compared to lost sheep (Ps. 119:176; Isa. 53:6–7; Jer. 50:6; Mt. 10:6; Lk. 15:4–6) and saved men are compared to saved sheep that were lost (Mt. 10:16; 26:31; Jn. 10:1–29; 21:16, 17; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 2:25)

m Christian work is compared to harvesting wheat (Lk. 10:1–2; Jn. 4:35)

o Called whom He would after praying all night to get the will of God (Mk. 3:13; Lk. 6:12–16)

5 These twelve Jē'sus [a]sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gĕn'tiles, and into any city of the Sā-mär'i-tans enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house[b] of Is'ra-el.

(4) Message and power (Mk. 3:13; 6:7; Lk. 6:12; 9:1)

●7 And as ye go,[c] preach, saying, The[d] kingdom of heaven is at hand.

●8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: [e] freely ye have received, freely give.

(5) Personal equipment

●9 [f] Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your[g] purses, ●10 Nor[h] scrip for your journey, neither [i] two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: [j] for the workman is worthy of his meat.

(6) Their reception

●11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, [k] enquire who in it is worthy; and [l] there abide till ye go thence.

●12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

●13 And if the house be worthy, let[m] your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

(7) Their rejection (Cp. Lk. 10:10)

●14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, [n] shake off the dust of your feet.

★15 Verily I say unto you, [o] It shall be [p] more tolerable for the land of Sŏd'om and Gŏ-mŏr'-rhā in the [q] day of judgment, than for that city.◂

(8) Opposition to the Gospel foretold (v 34, refs.)

A Enmity of religious men

●16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst [r] of wolves: be ye therefore wise as [s] serpents, and harmless as doves.

●17 But [t] beware of men: for they will deliver you up to[u] the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

B Enmity of rulers

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gĕn'tiles.

●19 But when they deliver you up, [v] take no thought how or what ye shall speak: [w] for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.◂

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the [x] Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

C Enmity of relatives

21 [y] And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

D Enmity of the world

▸22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the [a] end shall be saved.

●23 But [b] when they persecute you in this city, [c] flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Is'ra-el, [d] till the Son of man be come.◂

(9) Equality with Christ (Lk. 6:40)

24 [e] The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 [f] It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house [g] Bē-ĕl'ze-bûb, [h] how much more shall they call them of his household?

(10) Warning against hypocrisy (Lk. 12:1-3)

●26 [i] Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.◂

●27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the [j] housetops.

(11) Warning against man fear (Lk. 12:4-12)

●28 And [k] fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to [l] destroy both soul and body in[m] hell.

29 [n] Are not two sparrows sold for [o] a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground [p] without your Father.◂

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

●31 [q] Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

★32 [r] Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.◂

▸33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

(12) Opposition to the gospel again foretold (v 16-23; Lk. 12:11, 49)

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a [a] sword.

35 [b] For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

(13) Discipleship tested (Cp. 8:18; 16:24, refs.)

37 He that loveth father or mother [c] more than me [d] is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more a The Greek word for "sent forth" is apostello, from which comes the word apostle. It means "to send out with a special purpose." Their mission was limited to Jews (v 5-6; Jn. 1:11; Rom. 1:16). Cp. the latter commission to all the world (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:8)

b These were Jews, not Anglo-Saxons (Lk. 7:3; Jn. 1:11, 19; 3:1; Acts 2:5; 10:39; 11:19; Rom. 1:16). Jews are mentioned 200 times and the same people are called [Israel] 78 times in the N. T. Only Jews and Gentiles are recognized in the N. T. (Rom. 3:9, 29; 9:24; 1 Cor. 10:32; 12:13). The Jews then and now make up all the tribes of Israel (Mt. 19:28; Acts 26:7; Jas. 1:1; Rev. 7:4; 21:12). There is not one reference to a distinction between Jews and Israelites, so the Anglo-Saxon theory is purely of human origin. See note a, Acts 13:16 c The work of the first gospel preachers was the same as that of Christ - always confirming what was preached (v 1-8; Mk. 3:14-15; 6:7-13; Lk. 9:6; 10:1-20)

d See note j, Mt. 4:17; note e, 19:24

e The reason men cannot freely give is because they have not freely received f Do not spend your lives making provision for self-support before obeying the call of God. Do not wait to save so much money, or even until you have extra coats or shoes - GO WHEN YOU ARE CALLED and you will be supplied (v 9-10)

g Girdles, which contained pockets for valuables

h A wallet or shepherd's bag to carry provisions

i Extra coats, shoes, and staves to encumber you (v 10; Lk. 9:3; Mk. 6:8)

j Jesus sanctioned and God ordained the support of ministers (v 10; Lk. 8:3; 1 Cor. 9:6-16; Gal. 6:6; Heb. 7:1-10)

k Of good character or of like faith, for a preacher must be careful of his reputation and lodge only with proper and reputable people l Do not gad about or go from house to house (Lk. 10:7). Stay secluded in prayer and study or you will be ensnared, losing your anointing by a life of gossip, overmuch lightness, banquetings, trifling visits

m Let your blessings be upon the home and God will prosper it n Jews considered the dust of heathen lands as defiling compared to that of the holy land (Ezek. 45:1; Amos 7:17), so to shake the dust of any place off their feet meant they recognized it as rejected of God (Mk. 6:11; Lk. 9:5; Acts 13:51)

o 9th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (10:15-26, V 15, 23, 26 are unfulfilled; v 16-22, 24-25 have been and are still being fulfilled). Next, v 32 p Teaching degrees of punishment in hell (Mt. 11:22; 12:41; 23:14; Mk. 6:11; 12:40; Lk. 10:14; 11:31-32; 20:47; Rev. 20:11-15).

q Acts 17:31; Rev. 20:11-15

r A symbol of greedy rulers, hypocrites, and false prophets s Serpents never unduly expose themselves to attack and doves never provoke enmity. Ancients considered serpents as emblems of cunning and wisdom (Gen. 3:1; 2 Cor. 11:3). Used of crafty hypocrites and Satan (Mt. 23:33; Rev. 12:9)

t See note j, Mt. 7:16 u Courts of justice and religion (v 17-18). All synagogues had their councils of 3 to 23 men. They tried all cases that did not go before the Sanhedrin or the supreme court. They could excommunicate (Jn. 9:22), scourge (Dt. 25:3; 2 Cor. 11:24), or stone to death (Dt. 22:24; Jn. 8:5; Acts 7:58; 14:19)

v See note s, Mt. 6:25

w Mk. 13:11; Lk. 21:13-15

x See notes on Jn. 3:34

y The gospel brings division and strife in families and nations, because some love darkness rather than light (Jn. 3:18-21; 2 Cor. 2:16-17; 4:2-4)

10 tests of discipleship:
1 World persecution (v 25; Jn. 15:18)
2 Fearless preaching (v 26-27)
3 Fearless consecration (v 28)
4 Fearless faith (v 29-31; Heb. 11)
5 Bold confession of Christ (v 32-33)
6 Family persecution (v 34-36; 19:29)
7 Putting God first (v 37; 22:37)
8 Bearing cross daily (v 38; Lk. 9:23)
9 Following Christ (v 38; Jn. 10:27)
10 Denying self (v 39; Rom. 8:1-13)

a End of life here, but both end of life and of this age in Mt. 24:4-14

b Note the alternate warnings and instructions on what to do in persecutions - warnings (v 16-18), then instructions (v 19-20); warnings (v 21-22), then instructions (v 23-26)

c Not a cowardly flight, but a wise act to further the gospel. It deprives persecutors of their evil design, and conveys truth to others. If the preacher stayed and was killed he could not help the local flock or start others elsewhere

d The cities of Israel will not be "gone over" (Gr. teleioo, completely evangelized) before the second advent. This is literally true. They were not fully evangelized by the early church because of the persecution of early Christians and because of the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A. D. (Lk. 21:20-24; Acts 8:1-4; 9:1-4; 11:19-21; 12:1). They have not been evangelized as yet and will not be until the Millennium (Isa. 2:1-4; 11:9; Rom. 11:25-29; Zech. 12:10-13:1). Cp. all 4 "till's" (v 23; 16:28; 23:39; 24:34)

e No man can ever expect to be greater than Christ, for He is the only Lord and Christ (Acts 2:36)

f This is the highest position in power and in life for a disciple (Jn. 13:16; 14:12-15; 17:18; 20:21). Being like Christ should be the goal of all. It is not pride to want to imitate Him. In fact, it is a command (1 Cor. 11:1)

14 ways we are to be like Jesus: In 1 Righteousness (1 Jn. 3:7; Jn. 15:10-14; 1 Cor. 1:30; Eph. 1:4; 5:27)
2 Freedom from the world (Jn. 17:14-16; Rom. 12:1; Jas. 4:4; 1 Jn. 2:15)
3 Self crucifixion (Rom. 6; Gal. 2:20)
4 Walking in newness of life (Rom. 6; Gal. 5:16-26; Eph. 4:1-24)
5 Enduring persecutions (Mt. 10:25; Jn. 15:18-20; Mk. 10:30)
6 Works (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:17-18; 9:23; Mt. 17:20; 21:22)
7 Fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:21-22; Jn. 13:34; 15:11-13)
8 Total setting apart for God's work (Jn. 10:36; 17:17-19; 20:21)
9 Walking in the light (1 Jn. 1:7)
10 Unity with God (Jn. 17:11, 21-23)
11 Suffering for others (1 Pet. 2:21-23; 3:18-4:1; Phil. 3:10)
12 Life and conduct (1 Jn. 2:6; 4:17)
13 Enduring temptations (Heb. 2:18; 4:14-16; Jas. 1:2, 12)
14 Manifesting the fulness of God (Jn. 3:34; 7:37-39; 14:12; Eph. 3:19)

g The Philistine god of flies (2 Ki. 1:2). Jews changed it to Beelzebub, the dung god, or lord of the dunghill, a most contemptuous and vile idol. It was identified as prince of demons (Mt. 12:24-32; Mk. 3:22; Lk. 11:15-19)

h Question 35. Next, v 29

i Do not fear man, so as to hide unwanted truth. Speak it in the light and on the housetops (v 26-27. Cp. Lk. 12:1-3)

j Being flat were used for public proclamations and other activities (Dt. 22:8; Josh. 2:6; Judg. 16:27; Neh. 8:16; 2 Sam. 11:2; 2 Ki. 23:12; Isa. 15:3; Acts 10:9)

k Second command here not to fear men, who cannot hurt the soul when they kill the body (Lk. 12:4-12)

l Gr. apollumi, to kill (Mt. 2:13; 12:14); torment (Mt. 8:29; Mk. 1:24); mar (Mk. 2:22); lose (Mt. 10:6, 39, 42); be lost (Jn. 17:12; 2 Cor. 4:3); perish or die (Mt. 8:25); and to ruin (Mt. 3:17), but never to annihilate

m Gr. gehenna, eternal hell where the bodies and souls of all wicked will be marred and tormented forever (Lk. 12:5, note m. See Hell in Index

n Question 36. Next, 11:3

o Gr. assarion, 1 1/2¢. Cp. Lk. 12:6 where the difference in price can be explained by variation of the market price at the time each book was written p Without His knowledge of it (v 29-30)

q Third time in this chapter (v 26-31)

r 10th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (10:32-36, being fulfilled). Next, 11:20 s See notes on v 21; Lk. 12:49-53

t Rabbis taught that this would be the condition in the days of the Messiah. By this Christ claimed to be the Messiah (Mic. 7:5-6). See note s, Lk. 5:32

u This is breaking the first commandment (Mt. 19:29; 22:37; Lk. 14:26-27)

v Three times for emphasis (v 37-38)

a Mk. 8:34; Lk. 9:23; Jn. 10:26, note b Four prophetical promises, 10:39-42, being fulfilled and will be completely fulfilled at the judgment seat of Christ (Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10). See N. T. promises, p. 316
c whoever lives a life of self-gratification will lose it: whoever puts to death the sinful deeds of the body will gain it (Rom. 8:12-13; Gal. 5:16-26)
d Gr. dexomai, accept, approve, embrace, give ear to (2 Cor. 8:17; 11:4). When the minister is thus accepted his message is also embraced as truth. If he will preach Christ and God, both will be received if he is received. If men will not hear of Christ or God they will not receive the minister sent by them e Receiving a false prophet as a true one, or a wicked man posing as a righteous man, will not be rewarded. If a person receives such or bids him God-speed one is a partaker of his evil deeds (2 Jn. 9-11). We cannot receive every teacher of religion and expect to be rewarded even if we make a mistake. We will be judged for the mistake, for we are plainly told, "by their fruits ye shall know them" (Mt. 7:15-20, notes). We must be more intelligent than to give our money and hospitality to every man posing as a minister f A term used of new believers and children (v 42: 18:1-14; Mk. 9:42; Lk. 17; Jn. 13:33; Gal. 4:19; 1 Jn. 2:1, 12-18, 28; 3:7, 18; 4:4; 5:21)
g The minutest details of goodness, if done for the right person and with the right motive will be rewarded (note f, Mt. 6:1) h All the things commanded the first disciples are still in force (Mt. 28:20). The theories of the gospel of the kingdom being for the Jews and not for the church; the grace of God being for the Gentiles or the church and not for Jews; the sermon on the mount and the program of the gospels being for Jews and not for the church; the Gentile church being dealt with only in Acts and the epistles; and the signs, miracles and gifts of the Spirit being for apostles only, are as erroneous and unscriptural as they can possibly be, serving as mere excuses to evade present gospel responsibility

j Question 37, Next, v 7. Note the difference between John's attitude here concerning Christ and before he went to prison (Mt. 3; Lk. 3; Jn. 1:15-36; 3:22-36). It is clear in these passages he had indisputable proof of His Messiahship k The one predicted (Gen. 3:15; 49:10; Num. 24:17-19; Dt. 18:15-19; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; 11:1; 61:1; etc.)
l Jesus answered John by showing the works of the Messiah predicted in Isa. 11:2; 35:5-6; 61:1. These were His credentials (Jn. 5:36; 9:3-4; 10:25, 37-38; 14:10; 15:24; Acts 10:38). These are the divine credentials of all gospel ministers (Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 6:7-13; 16:17-20; Lk. 9:6; 10:1-20; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-15; 15:16; Acts 1:1-8; 2:43; 3:6; 4:30; 5:12-16; 6:3-10; 8:1-17; 9:17, 34; 15:12; etc.)

p Persian reeds were in great quantities on the Jordan. They grew up to 20 ft. high and were fresh green when all else seemed to be dead and dry. They made shelter for birds and animals (Job 40:21). CHAPTER 11 — 11

25 Fourth tour of Galilee (Lk. 8:1. Cp. Mt. 4:23, refs.)

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sus had made an end of [h]commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

26 John the Baptist questions Jesus (Lk. 7:19-23)

2 Now when Jŏhn had heard in the [i]prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,
3 And said unto him, [j]Art thou he [k]that should come, or do we look for another?

27 Jesus answers John by deeds, not words (Lk. 7:21)

4 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, [l]Go and shew Jŏhn again those things which ye do hear and see:
5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.
6 And [m]blessed is he, whosoever shall not be [n]offended in me.

28 Jesus' testimony of John the Baptist (Lk. 7:24)

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jē'sus began to say unto the multitudes concerning Jŏhn, [o]What went ye out into the wilderness to see? [p]A reed shaken with the wind?
8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in [q]soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.
9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and [r]more than a prophet.
★10 For this is he, of whom it is written, [s]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen [a]a greater than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: notwithstanding he that is least in the [b]kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12 And from the [c]days of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the [d]violent take it by force.
13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied [e]until Jŏhn.
14 And if ye will receive it, [f]this is Ē-lī'as, which was for to come.
15 [g]He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

29 Jesus denounces unbelief (Lk. 7:30)

16 ¶ [h]But whereunto shall I liken [i]this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto [j]their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.
18 [k]For Jŏhn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.
19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man [l]gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But [m]wisdom is justified of her children.

30 Jesus predicts judgment on unbelieving cities (Lk. 10:12)

★20 ¶ [n]Then began he to [o]upbraid the cities wherein [p]most of his mighty works were done, because they [q]repented not:
21 Woe unto thee, [r]Chŏ-rā'zin! woe unto thee, [s]Bĕth-să'ĭ-dà! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in [t]Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
▸22 But I say unto you, It shall be [u]more tolerable for Tȳre and Sī'dŏn at the [v]day of judgment, than for you.
23 And thou, [w]Că-pĕr'na-ŭm, which art [x]exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to [y]hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sŏd'om, it would have remained until this day.
▸24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sŏd'om in the day of judgment, than for thee.

31 Jesus rejoices over simplicity of truth (Lk. 10:21)

25 ¶ At that time Jē'sus answered and said, I thank thee, O [z]Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou [a]hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.
26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

d Gr. biazo, to use force, to force one's way into a thing. The idea here is that before John the kingdom could only be viewed in the light of prophecy, but now it was preached, men pressing into it with ardor resembling violence or desperation. They appeared as if they would seize it by force (v 12; Lk. 16:16). It expresses the earnestness that men must have in getting rid of sin, all satanic powers, the world, and in standing true when relatives oppose them (Mt. 10:34-39)
e Until John's ministry, not its end
f Represents Elijah in spirit and power (Lk. 1:17), not Elijah in person (Jn. 1:21) who is yet to come (Mal. 4:5-6 Zech. 4:11-14; Rev. 11:3-11)

12 CHAPTER 12

33 Jesus is Lord of sabbaths (Mk. 2:23; Lk. 6:1-5)

AT that time Jē'şus [i]went on the [i]sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of [k]corn, and to eat.
2 But when the Phăr'ī-seeş [l]saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do [m]that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.
3 But he said unto them, [n]Have ye not read what Dā'vid did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;
4 How he entered into [o]the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the[p]priests?
5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple [q]profane the sabbath, and are blameless?
6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one [r]greater than the temple.
7 But if ye had [s]known what this meaneth, [t]I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.
8 For the Son of man is [u]Lord even of the sabbath day.

34 Withered hand healed on the sabbath (Mk. 3:1; Lk. 6:6)

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:
10 ¶ And, [v]behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [w]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.
11 And he said unto them, [x]What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?
12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.
13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

35 First council to put Jesus to death (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

14 ¶ Then the Phăr'ī-seeş went out, and held a[a]council against him, how they might destroy him.

36 Multitudes healed (Mk. 3:6; Lk. 6:17. Note b, 13:58)

15 But when Jē'şus knew it, he [b]withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he [c]healed them all;
16 And charged them that they should [d]not make him known:
*17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by [e]Ē-şā'ias the prophet, saying, 18 [f]Behold [g]my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Ġĕn'tīleş.
19 He shall not [h]strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.
20 [i]A bruised reed shall he not break, and [j]smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.
21 And in his name shall the Ġĕn'tīleş trust.

37 Blind and dumb healed

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.
23 And all the people were amazed, and said, [k]Is not this the son of Dā'vid?

38 Second blasphemy of the Spirit (Mt. 9:32): The divided kingdom (Mk. 3:22; Lk. 11:15)

24 But when the Phăr'ī-seeş heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by [l]Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb the prince of the devils.
25 And Jē'şus [m]knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:
26 And if Să'tan [n]cast out Să'tan, he is divided against himself; [o]how shall then his kingdom stand?
27 And if I by Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb cast out devils, by whom do your [p]children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.
29 [q]Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.
30 [r]He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me [s]scattereth abroad.

n Satan, who causes sickness by demon oppression (Acts 10:38; Lk. 13:11-16), can take off what he puts on without opposing himself or casting himself out. When he can damn a soul by getting a person to deny the essentials of the Bible that will save the soul, then it is to his advantage to deceive by taking away the sickness. Many accept false religions that promise healing and other benefits. Satan co-operates with these religions, which he himself has founded to deceive men. He heals people without their faith in Jesus Christ and His work on the cross. Such people naturally think that they are in the true religion. They reject Christ and see no need of getting saved from sin or following Christianity. They will be damned for doing so, Satan having won their souls. Demons can go out and come back into a person of their own accord (Mt. 12:43-45). Satan in the last days will thus deceive men by giving them power (Mt. 24:24; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Rev. 13:2; 16:13-16; 19:20) p Disciples, Josephus says that Pharisees practiced exorcism (Ant. VII, 2-5. Cp. Acts 19:13). Jesus named their practice to disprove their accusation about Him. If you and your disciples cast out demons, then it proves that you are also of the devil (v 27-28)

q Question 53, Next, v 34. Note the 3 arguments of Jesus to prove that He was casting out devils by God:
1 Satan's kingdom is not divided, so if I am destroying his kingdom I must be of God, not of Satan (v 25-26)
2 The disciples of you Pharisees who claim to cast out demons by God will judge you if you say that those who cast out demons do so by Satan (v 27)
3 Satan would not permit a weaker one to defeat him, so since he is helpless before Me, then it proves that I am from God and am stronger than he is (v 28-29)

c Gr. aion, a period of time whether long or short. This age refers to the period between the first and second advents (Mt. 24:14, 29-31; Rev. 19:11-21). The age to come refers to the Millennium following the second advent (Rev. 19:11-20:15; Zech. 14; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-27; Eph. 1:10) p Christ approved the story of Jonah and the whale (Jonah 1:17)

q This indicates that Jonah was dead for 3 days and was resurrected as a true type of Christ. If this be not the case, then he could not be a true sign of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Nothing is said about Jonah being preserved alive in the whale's belly. It would be just as easy to believe one as the other. See notes, Jonah 2 r Christ was dead for 3 full days and for 3 full nights. He was put in the grave Wednesday just before sunset and was resurrected at the end of Saturday at sunset. Good Friday should be changed to Good Wednesday. No statement says that He was buried Friday at sunset. This would make Him in the grave only one day and one night, proving His own words untrue (v 40). The sabbath of Jn. 19:31 was not the regular weekly one, but the special sabbath of the feast. See notes on Jn. 19:31; note k, Lk. 9:22

s Some baleen whales are up to 100 ft. long and 40 ft. around, weighing 300,000 lbs. A Mediterranean fish was recently caught and exhibited in Beirut which had a head that weighed 6 tons. A man standing on the lower jaw could not reach the upper jaw, the opening being about 8 ft. across. The April 4, 1896 Literary Digest gave a story of a Mediterranean whale that demolished the harpoon boat. Two men were lost. One was found alive in the whale's belly a day and a half after it was killed. James Bartley lived with no after effects except his skin was tanned by the gastric juices. A pure fish was caught off the Florida coast that weighed 30,000 lbs. It was 45 ft. long and 8 ft. thick. It had a 1500 lb. fish in its stomach besides a large octopus. A man could easily stand up in its stomach. It could have swallowed 10 Jonah's

45 Sermon: mysteries of the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 13). (1) Place: Sea of Galilee

THE same day went Jē'sus [h] out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

(2) 1st mystery: parable of the sower (Mk. 4:1; Lk. 8:4)

3 And he spake many things unto them in [i] parables, saying, [j] Behold, [k] a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the [l] way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into [m] good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9[n] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(3) 1st reason for speaking parables (Mk. 4:10; Lk. 8:9)

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, [o] Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, [p] Because it is given unto you to know the [q] mysteries of the [r] kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

▸12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be [s] given, and he shall have more abundance: but g Used of relatives (Gen. 14:16; 29:12); neighbors (Dt. 23:7); any Israelite (Lev. 19:17; Dt. 22:1-4; Jer. 34:9); any man (Gen. 9:5; 1 Jn. 3:15); a companion (2 Sam. 1:26). It is a fraternal epithet among Christians (v 50; Acts 9:17; 21:20; 1 Cor. 7:12; 2 Cor. 2:13; Heb. 2:11-12; 1 Pet. 1:22)

h V 1-35 were uttered in public by the sea; v 36-52 were spoken in private in the house (4:13; 9:28)

i 10 facts about parables:
1 Gr. parabole, a comparison (Mk. 4:30); figure (Heb. 9:9; 11:19); proverb (Lk. 4:23); and an illustration (Mt. 13:3, 10, 13, 18, 24, 31-36, 53; 15:15; 21:33, 45; 22:1; 24:32; etc.). Parables are extended similes
2 They illustrate truth and make it clear by comparison with something that is already familiar
3 They impart instruction and rebuke without causing offense (2 Sam. 12)
4 They create interest and hunger for further information (Mt. 13:10-17; 2 Sam. 12)
5 The stories are always true and the points illustrated must not be considered false and absurd
6 The historical background and the circumstances and occasion when uttered must be understood
7 Their words and details must be defined literally, not spiritually
8 The similarity between the point illustrated and the illustration must be noted
9 The point illustrated is always stated with the parable or is clear by the occasion uttered 10 The principles of interpretation are given by Jesus Himself. Any interpretation at variance with these principles and with the purpose of the parable is unscriptural and illegal

j Satan is called "the enemy" (v 25, 28, 39; Lk. 10:19; Acts 13:10) k Gr. aion, age, a period of time long or short. It refers to the end of this age, as do all the other places where "the end of the world" is used (Mt. 12:32; 13:39-40, 49; 24:3; 28:20). This age will end at the second advent (Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14:1-5), but the earth and man will continue forever (Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Eccl. 1:4; Ps. 104:5; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Rev. 11:15, 21:3-22:5)

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: [b]because[c]they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

▶15 For this people's heart is [e]waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; [f]lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart,[g]and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 [h]But blessed are your eyes, for they see: [i]and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have [i]not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

(4) Parable of the sower explained (Mk. 4:13; Lk. 8:11)

18 ¶[k]Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the [l]wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and [m]non with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself,[n]but dureth for a while: for when[o]tribulation or[p]persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; [q]and the care of this world, and the[r]deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the[s]good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; [t]which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

(5) 2nd mystery: parable of the tares and wheat

★24 ¶[u]Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [v]The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, [w]his enemy came and sowed [x]tares among the wheat, [y]and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, [z]Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 [a]Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

(6) 3rd mystery: parable of the mustard seed (Mk. 4:30; Lk. 13:18)

★31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [b]The kingdom of heaven is[c]like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

(7) 4th mystery: parable of the leaven (Lk. 13:20)

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is [d]like unto leaven, which a woman took, and [e]hid in [f]three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

(8) 2nd reason for speaking parables (Mt. 13:10; Mk. 4:10; Lk. 8:9)

34 All these things spake Jē'sus unto the multitude in parables; and [g]without a parable spake he not unto them:

★35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [h]I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the [i]foundation of the world.

(9) Parable of the tares and wheat explained. Cp. Mt. 13:18

36 Then Jē'sus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the [j]devil; the harvest is the end of the [k]world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the [l]tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

▶41 The Son of man shall send forth his [m]angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall [n]cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

a Both tares and wheat must grow together until the end of the age (v 39-43, 49-50). Then they will be separated (Mt. 24:29-51; 25:31-46)
b Note j, Mt. 4:17; note e, 19:24 c 16th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (13:31-33, being fulfilled). Next, v 44. Here mustard seed illustrates the kingdom of heaven, not the church (note r, v 11). It illustrates abnormal growth from a small beginning to a tree, becoming a refuge, a home, and a sphere of operation for demon powers
All references to the mustard seed emphasize its smallness and some the greatness of the herb grown from it (Mk. 4:31; Lk. 13:19; 17:6; Mt. 13:32; 17:20). Several varieties in Judea grew rapidly into large herbs 10 to 12 ft. high. Rabbis used this seed to express anything minute. Instead of the kingdom of heaven growing normally and with only wheat in it, tares and demon powers seized upon it and made it the realm of profession becoming the dominating power in it (v 4, 19, 32, 39, 47; 24:24)
d Leaven is figurative of sin (1 Cor. 5:6-8; Gal. 5:9); false doctrines (Mt. 16:6-12; Mk. 8:15-21); and hypocrisy (Lk. 12:1). A woman used figuratively in an evil sense represents wickedness, fallacy, uncleanness, and unfaithfulness (Lam. 1:17); harlotry (Ezek. 16:15, 22, 26, 28-29; 23:1-49; 36:17; Hos. 1:2; 2:2-17; 3:1; Rev. 17); wickedness (Zech. 5:5-11; Rev. 17:5); and false religion (Rev. 17). When used in a good sense women represent Israel (Gen. 37:9-10 with Rev. 12; Ezek. 16); the two covenants (Gal. 4:21-31); and righteousness and purity (2 Cor. 11:2; Rev. 19:7-8), but never the church itself (col. 2, p. 230). Meal symbolizes the Word of God (Mt. 4:4; Jn. 6:47-63)
This illustrates how the kingdom of heaven teachings and the program of God in this age would become corrupted by false doctrines and unscriptural programs until the whole is corrupted (Lk. 18:8; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 3:3-4)
e All false teachings, religious programs, and professed Christian lives seek to hide behind the Word of God f Gr. saton, about 1 1/2 pecks. Three measures was a heaping bushel, the common quantity used by one baking for a large household (Gen. 18:6)
g This applies only to this one discourse, for we find few parables in others h 12th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mt. (13:35; Ps. 78:2). Next, 15:8
i Gr. katabole, to cast or throw down (2 Cor. 4:9; Rev. 12:10). It should have been translated "overthrow" or "casting down of the world" in v 35; 25:34; Lk. 11:50; Jn. 17:24; Eph. 1:4; Heb. 4:3; 9:26; 11:10; 1 Pet. 1:20; Rev. 13:8; 17:8. With the exception of Heb. 11:10, katabole is used with kosmos, social world, and refers to the overthrow of the pre-Adamite world by the flood of Gen. 1:2; 2 Pet. 3:5-6; Ps. 104:5-9; Jer. 4:23-26 and the defeat of Lucifer and his earthly kingdom before Adam (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; Lk. 10:18)
Katabole is not the ordinary word for foundling or foundation. A reference to the founding of the world would require the use of themelios, as in Lk. 6:48-49; 14:29; Acts 16:26; Rom. 15:20; 1 Cor. 3:11-12; Eph. 2:20; 1 Tim. 6:19; 2 Tim. 2:19; Heb. 6:1; 11:10; Rev. 21:14, 19. This word is never used with kosmos, social system, or of ge, the earth. The verb, themelioo, occurs in Mt. 7:25; Lk. 6:48; Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:23; Heb. 1:10; 1 Pet. 5:10. This verb is used only once of the founding of the earth (Heb. 1:10) Katabole, therefore, means the disruption, overthrow, or ruin of the social system before Adam. In Gen. 1:1 we have the themelioo, founding of the earth (Heb. 1:10), and in Gen. 1:2 we have the katabole, overthrow of the social system on the earth by a flood. Note in the first scriptures above that from is used 7 times and before is used 3 times in connection with the overthrow of the social world. Thus the N. T. is very clear that the earth became desolate and empty before it was re-created in the 6 days of Gen. 1:3-31

f Here we have Israel's part in the kingdom or realm of profession in this age. She is like a treasure (Ps. 135:4; Ex. 19:5; Mal. 3:17) hid (lying dormant and failing to fulfill her calling, Rom. 9-11). The field is the world (v 38). The man is Christ (v 34, 37) seeking the treasure (Jn. 1:11-12; Mt. 23:37-39). He joyfully gives His all to buy the field to get the treasure and all else in the field (Phil. 2:5-8; 2 Cor. 8:9; Tit. 2:14; Heb. 12:1-2). The treasure, though found, remains hidden in the world until Christ comes to take possession of it at His second advent (Rom. 11:25-29; Lk. 21:24; Lk. 1:32-33; Isa. 9:6-7)

n Christ authorizes His disciples to be scribes (note w, Mt. 2:4)
o The 8th parable in this discourse illustrates the fact that the kingdom of heaven truths are a mixture of new and old doctrines which will enable disciples to be qualified scribes in the realm of profession. The householder is the same man in all the other parables - Christ (v 3, 24, 31, 37-45)

u Jesus was not the son of Joseph, but the Son of God and Mary (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:33-35; Jn. 3:16)
v Gr. Miriam, not Maria, as in the case of the other Mary's. Six Mary's are mentioned in the N. T. and two Miriams in the O. T. (Ex. 15:20; 1 Chr. 4:17). The Mary's are: mother of Jesus (always clear); Mary Magdalene (Lk. 8:2; 24:10); sister of Lazarus (Mt. 26:7; Lk. 10:39-42; Jn. 11; 12:3); mother of James (Jn. 19:25; Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40); mother of Mark (Acts 12:12); a helper of Paul (Rom. 16:6)

(10) 5th mystery: parable of the hidden treasure

★44 d[e]Again, c the kingdom of heaven is f[g]like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

(11) 6th mystery: parable of the pearl of great price

★45 ¶[h]Again, the kingdom of heaven is [g]like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

(12) 7th mystery: parable of drag-net in the sea.

★47 ¶[i]Again, the kingdom of heaven is [i]like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

(14) 8th mystery: parable of householder

51 Jē'şus saith unto them, [m]Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every [n]scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is [o]like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure [p]things new and old.

46 Jesus at Nazareth: again rejected (Mk. 6:1. Cp. Lk. 4:16)

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jē'şus had finished [q]these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his [r]own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, [s]Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these [t]mighty works?

55 Is not this the [u]carpenter's son? is not his mother called [v]Ma'rў? and [w]his brethren, [x]Jāmes, and [y]Jō'sēş, and [z]Si'mon, and [y]Jū'das?

56 And his [b]sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were [c]offended in him. But Jē'şus said unto them, [d]A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And [b]he did not [c]many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14 14

47 Herod's troubled conscience: murder of John the Baptist (Mk. 6:14; Lk. 9:7-9)

AT that time [d]Hĕr'od the [e]tetrarch heard of the fame of Jē'şus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst; [f]he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For Hĕr'od had laid hold on Jŏhn, and bound him, and put him in prison for [g]Hē-rō'dĭ-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife.

4 For Jŏhn said unto him, It is [h]not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And [i]when he would have put him to death, [j]he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Hĕr'od's [k]birthday was kept, the daughter of Hē-rō'dĭ-as danced before them, and pleased Hĕr'od.

7 Whereupon he promised with an [l]oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being [m]before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here Jŏhn Băp'tĭst's head in a [n]charger.

9 And the [o]king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 [p]And he sent, and beheaded Jŏhn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: [q]and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'şus.

48 Jesus again crosses Galilee: heals the sick (Lk. 9:11)

13 ¶ When Jē'şus heard of it, he [r]departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, [s]they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jē'şus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with [t]compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

49 Five thousand miraculously fed (Mk. 6:32; Lk. 9:11; Jn. 6:1)

15 ¶ And when it was [u]evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jē'şus said unto them, a Mk. 6:4; Lk. 4:24; Jn. 4:44

b Not because their unbelief limited His power, but it kept them from bringing their sick to be healed. Christ made no failure in any one case He undertook to heal. Nor did unbelief of anyone present hinder His healing everyone who came to Him for healing. On the contrary, 23 times it is stated He healed "them all" and "every one" (Mt. 4:23-24; 8:14-18; 9:35; 11:5; 12:15; 14:14, 36-36; 15:30; 19:2; 21:14; Mk. 1:32-35, 39; 3:10; 6:5, 56; Lk. 4:40; 5:15, 17; 6:17-19; 7:21-23; 9:11; 17:17; Acts 10:38)

d Herod Antipas (note u, Mt. 2:3)
e Gr. tetartos, fourth. A ruler over a 4th part of a country, but it came to be used of any governor.
f John was highly esteemed now by the guilty, remorseful Herod g This infamous woman was both neice and wife to Philip and Herod, being the daughter of Aristobulus, son of Herod the Great. She first married Philip, her uncle, by whom she had Salome. Later she left him to live publicly with her brother-in-law, who had been before married to the daughter of Aretas, king of Arabia Petra. Aretas made war on him and destroyed Herod's army, which Josephus says was judgment on him for murdering John the Baptist (Ant. book V, 2)
h Not lawful because she was his neice and his brother's wife (Lev. 18:6, 16; 20:21)
i One of 14 rulers offended by God's servants (see list, Ex. 10:28) k Either on the day of his birth or the day he began to reign. Both were counted as birthdays by kings (Hos. 7:5; 1 Sam. 13:1). Persian kings always granted requests that were presented to them during such entertainment (Est. 5:3; 7:3) l It was common for such oaths to be given on such occasions m What wickedness! This incestuous, bloody, adulterous, depraved mother! She was determined to rid herself and her husband of this troubler of conscience. Jerome says she was so wicked that, after gloating over the head of John, she drew out his tongue and pierced it with a needle a Elisha multiplied bread for 100 men (2 Ki. 4:42–43). Christ multiplied it two times for many thousands (v 21; 15:38; Lk. 9:10–17; Jn. 6:6–10)

b A command of authority (17:17; 21:2) c We have no record of Christ closing His eyes in prayer. Six times He prayed with them open (v 19; Mk. 6:41; 7:34; Lk. 9:16; Jn. 11:41; 17:1)
d It was customary for Jews to give thanks to God at every meal (Mt. 15:36; Mk. 6:41; 8:6; Jn. 6:11; 1 Cor. 10:16)
e Bread was baked in thin cakes, which had to be broken to be divided. To break bread means to eat food (Lk. 24:35; Acts 2:42, 46; 20:7; 27:35; 1 Cor. 10:16; 11:24). Here we have a miracle of the creation of substance f Many Jews were basket carrying peddlers, hence there were always plenty of baskets in a crowd. See note p, 16:9
g They were either afraid to return to Herod's country during the expected commotion over John's death, or were unwilling to embark without Him, perhaps remembering the last experience of the storm on the sea (8:23–26)
h Alone with God in retirement from the world and in prayer and meditation, as He so often was (Mk. 4:10; 6:47; Lk. 9:18, 36; Jn. 6:15). His private praying and conquest of Satan were the secret of His public power. It was by prayer that He received the Holy Spirit (Lk. 3:21). It was by continued prayer that He received fresh anointings of the Spirit for His daily work. He used the same methods to get and keep power that are required of believers (Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Acts 1:14; 8:15; Eph. 6:10–18; Jude 20–24) i Jews divided the night into 3 parts of 4 hours each and Romans into 4 parts of 3 hours each. The 4th watch would be 3:00 to 6:00 in the morning j A notable miracle. Never before had any man walked on water k Gr. phantasma, a phantom. Only here and in Mk. 6:49. Apparition by night has always been a superstition among all nations. To sailors it has always been a sign of shipwreck l Scream; shriek with fear m Peter actually walked on the water until he got his eyes off Jesus and on the storm. Looking at circumstances was the cause of failure n Gr. ischuros. Trans. once boisterous, but strong and mighty 22 times (Mt. 12:29; Lk. 11:22)

If one wants an answer to prayer he must not hesitate as to the lawfulness of the request; must not stagger over the greatness of the promise; must not say yes and no in his determination; and must not waver mentally as to the outcome.
t Another miracle. All these events further convinced them that Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of God u Christ accepted worship many times, proving His Deity (2:2, 11; 8:2; 9:18; 14:33; 15:25; 18:26; 28:9, 17; Mk. 5:6; Lk. 24:52; Jn. 9:38). If He had rejected worship, as one in Rev. 19:10; 22:8–9, it would have proved Him to be just another created being v Second time He was acknowledged by men as the Son of God (Jn. 1:49). Demons also confessed it (Mt. 8:29. Cp. Mt. 16:16; 27:54)

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, [b]Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, [c]and looking up to heaven, [d]he blessed, [e]and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there [h]alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the [i]fourth watch of the night Jē'sus went unto them, [j]walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a [k]spirit; and they [l]cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jē'sus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Pē'tēr answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'tēr was come down out of the ship, [m]he walked on the water, to go to Jē'sus.

30 But when he saw the wind [n]boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to [o]sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jē'sus stretched forth his hand, and [p]caught him, and said unto him, [q]O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou [r]doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and [s]worshipped him, saying, [t]Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the [u]land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt.

35 And when the men of that place [v]had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only [w]touch the [x]hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly [a]whole.

15 CHAPTER 15

52 Jesus rebukes the Scribes and Pharisees (Mk. 7:1)

THEN came to Jē'sus [b]scribes and [c]Phăr'ĭ-sees, which were of [d]Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, saying,

2 [e]Why do thy disciples transgress the [f]tradition of the elders? for they [g]wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, [h]Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, [i]Honour thy father and mother: and, [j]He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a [k]gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [l]hypocrites, well did E-sā'ĭas prophesy of you, saying,

★8 [m]This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 [n]But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

53 True source of defilement: sins that damn the soul (Mk. 7:14; Gal. 5:19, refs.)

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, [o]Hear, and understand:

11 [p]Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, [q]Knowest thou that the Phăr'ĭ-sees were offended, after they heard this saying?

★13 But he answered and said, [r]Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be [s]rooted up.◂

●14 [t]Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Pē'tēr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'sus said, [u]Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the [v]draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; [w]and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

Scribes and Pharisees reproved 15 a Gr. diasodzo, to be saved throughout or completely healed. It is used 8 times and only of bodily salvation (v 36; Lk. 7:3; Acts 23:24; 27:43; 28:1, 4; 1 Pet. 3:20). Not only whole, but perfectly whole. This is the only way Jesus healed. Not one case is recorded of a partial healing. There may be such things, but this is because of partial faith, for the law of faith is: "According to your faith be it unto you" (note w, Mt. 8:13)

b See note w, Mt. 2:4
c See note o, Mt. 3:7
d See note on Josh. 18:28
e Question 69, Next, v 3
f Jews held that the writings of the scribes were more important than those of the law and the prophets – "the words of the elders are weightier than the words of the prophets." Many like statements are found in the Talmuds. Traditions were held to be the finishing touch to the Divine revelation g This was considered no small crime among religionists (Mt. 15:1–9) h Question 70, Next, v 12. You accuse My disciples of breaking the traditions of the elders – I accuse you of breaking the commandments of God. You prefer human inventions in religion more than God's Word (Mt. 16:6–12; 23:1–36; Mk. 3:1–6; 7:1–13; Jn. 5:10–16). Paul also rebuked Jews for the same sin (Gal. 1:13–14; Col. 2:8; 1 Tim. 1:4; 6:20; 2 Tim. 2:14–16; Tit. 1:14; 3:9)
i This meant, not only respect and submission, but also support of parents (Ex. 20:12; Num. 22:17; Dt. 5:12; 27:16; Judg. 13:17; 1 Tim. 5:17)
j Ex. 21:17; Lev. 20:9; Dt. 27:16 k Gr. doron, anything that is dedicated (Mt. 5:23–24; 8:4; 23:18–19; Mk. 7:11; Heb. 5:1; 8:3–4; 9:9; 11:4). It is trans. offering (Lk. 21:4). Children who did not want to support parents used this tradition as an excuse to evade the law. They would enter into a deal with a corrupt priest for a small per cent to dedicate things to God which should go to parents. They then could claim them to be God's and not their own. Thus they would be free from any obligation to parents p No food defiles a man (Rom. 14:1–6, 17–23; Col. 2:14–17; 1 Cor. 8:8; 1 Tim. 4:1–8). Christ referred to foods which are taken into the stomach for nourishment and which go out as waste (v 17), not to unclean habits as liquor, dope, and sins of the heart that defile men (v 19–20)

1 Evil thoughts. Gr. dialogismos, trans. reasoning (Lk. 9:46); imagination (Rom. 1:21); doubtful (Rom. 15:1); doubting (1 Tim. 2:8); disputing (Phil. 2:14); and thoughts (Mt. 15:19; Mk. 7:21; Lk. 2:35; 5:22; 6:8; 9:47; 24:38; 1 Cor. 3:20; Jas. 2:4). Here it means evil thoughts, reasonings, debatings, and other intellectual rebellions against God

2 Murders or slaughters (v 19; Mk. 7:21; 15:7; Lk. 23:19–25; Rom. 1:29; Acts 9:1; Gal. 5:21; Rev. 9:21)

h God's plan was to offer salvation first, including healing, to the Jews before going to the Gentiles (Jn. 1:11; Mt. 10:6; Rom. 1:16). God then planned the same blessing for Gentiles (Mt. 21: 43; Jn. 10:16; Rom. 1:16; 9:24-33; Acts 15:13-18; Eph. 3:1-11)

k Gr. kalos, right, good, proper (v 26; Mk. 7:27; Gal. 4:18; Rom. 14:21)
l Jews were the first children of the kingdom (Mt. 8:12). Their bread here refers to the benefits that the Messiah was to bring to them, which included salvation for the body, soul, and spirit – salvation from sin, sickness, demons, and satanic powers. These are family rights, legal rights, promised rights, human rights, Divine rights, and redemptive rights of all children of God. Children can have whole loaves if dogs can have crumbs (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11: 22-24; Lk. 11:1-13; 18:1-14; Jn. 14: 12-15; 15:7, 16; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15) m Gr. kunaria, little dogs, puppies. Only used twice (v 26; Mk. 7:27). Gentiles were called dogs by the Jews. Christ merely used the common speech of His people (1 Sam. 17:43; 2 Sam. 3:8; 9:8; 1 Ki. 8:13; Mt. 7:6, note). Dogs were not cared for in the East when grown. The term was not offensive. It merely expressed the fact that Gentiles were outside the covenant rights of Israel n The woman acknowledged her position as undeserving and without legal covenant rights to the children's bread, and yet she used the Lord's own words concerning dogs as grounds for further claim for healing. Even dogs have some rights – rights to the crumbs that the master throws away and would give to them. Children have enough bread and to spare, so she claimed the scraps for her daughter and won her case
o Christ could not turn down such faith based upon such claims. If she got healing on these grounds, certainly the children can still get their part of the bread (Mt. 7:9-11). Cp. her faith with that of the disciples (Mt. 6: 30; 14:31; 16:8). Only two people are spoken of as having "great faith" (Mt. 8:10-13; 15:28). Cp. note f, 6:30

54 Syrophenician woman's daughter healed: healing the children's bread (Mk. 7:24)

21 ¶ Then Jĕ'şus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Si'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a[b] woman of Că'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou[c] son of Dā'vid; my daughter is[d] grievously[e] vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her[f] not a word. And his[g] disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the[i] lost sheep of the house of Iş'ra-el.

25 Then came she and[j] worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not[k] meet to take the[l] children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said,[m] Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jĕ'şus answered and said unto her, O woman,[o] great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And[q] her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

55 Jesus heals all sick people by Galilee (Mk. 7:31)

29 And Jĕ'şus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Gă'lĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and[r] cast them down at Jĕ'şus' feet; and he[s] healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: [t] and they glorified the God of Iş'ra-el.

56 Four thousand miraculously fed (Mk. 8:1. Cp. Mt. 14:15, refs.)

32 ¶ Then Jĕ'şus called his disciples unto him, and said,[u] I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him,[v] Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jĕ'şus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes,[w] and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven[c] baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of[h] Măg'da-lā.

57 Jesus again rebukes Pharisees (Mk. 8:10; Lk. 12:54)

THE Phăr'ĭ-sees also with the Săd'du-çees came, and[c] tempting desired him that he would shew them a[d] sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and[e] lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky;[g] but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

*4 A[h] wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and[i] there shall no sign be given unto it, but the[j] sign of the prophet Jō'nas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

58 Leaven of Pharisees and Sadducees explained (Mk. 8:1)

*6 ¶ Then Jĕ'şus said unto them,[k] Take heed and[l] beware of the[m] leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jĕ'şus perceived, he said unto them,[n] O ye of little faith,[o] why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many[p] baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees.

12 modern statements about Christ:

1 Christian Science: Jesus was the off-spring of Mary's self-conscious communion with God... Christ is incorporeal, spiritual... the divine idea of God... Mary's conception of him was spiritual... Jesus Christ is not God

2 Unity: Jesus is the I in man, the self... the divine-idea... Reveal yourself to yourself by affirming, I AM THE CHRIST

3 Spiritualism: Christ is not the Son of God. Any just and perfect being is Christ... nothing more than a medium of a high order... not divine except in the sense that we are all divine

4 Jehovah's Witnesses or Russellism: Jesus Christ was a man – neither more nor less... none other than the archangel Micahel... God created him... is dead – forever dead... suffered everlasting destruction... not resurrected bodily

5 Theosophy: Christ is less an external Saviour than a living presence in the human spirit... in time all men become Christ

6 Rosicrucianism: The Son (Christ) is the highest initiate of the sun period... not the only begotten Son of God

7 Baha'ism: Jesus Christ is only one of many manifestations of God... one of many Messiahs... His sufferings were no more than those of other prophets

8 Mormonism: Jesus is both the Father and the Son

9 Unitarianism: The dogma we deny is the exclusive divinity of Jesus Christ... Our birth was as divine as that of Jesus

10 Modernism: A man so good his deluded followers took him to be a god

11 Christadelphianism: Jesus Christ is not divine

12 Seventh Day Adventism: In his humanity Christ partook of our sinful, fallen nature

John called Him "the only begotten Son" and "the Son of the Father" (Jn. 1:18; 3:16-18; 1 Jn. 4:9; 2 Jn. 3). 16 And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr answered and said, [c]Thou art [d]the Christ, the [e]Son of the [f]living God.

60 First mention of the New Testament Church

17 And Jē'şus answered and said unto him, [g]Blessed art thou, Sī'mon [h]Bär-jō'nà: [i]for flesh and blood hath not [j]revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

65 Second advent predicted (Mt. 24:3-25:46; Rev. 19:11)

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

★27 [z]For the Son of man shall come in the [a]glory of his Father [b]with his angels; and [c]then he shall reward every man according to [d]his works.◀

2 And was [i]transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them [j]Mō'şes and [k]Ē-lī'as talking with him.

4 Then answered Pē'tĕr, and said unto Jē'şus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here [l]three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'şes, and one for Ē-lī'as.

■5 While he yet spake, behold, a [m]bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold [n]a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, [o]they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē'şus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jē'şus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jē'şus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again [p]from the dead.

68 John the Baptist and Elijah (Mk. 9:11-13. Cp. Mt. 11:14; Lk. 1:17; Jn. 1:17-21; Mal. 4:5-6)

10 And his [q]disciples asked him, saying, [r]Why then say the scribes that Ē-lī'as must first come?

★11 And Jē'şus answered and said unto them, [s]Ē-lī'as truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Ē-lī'as is [t]come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Băp'tĭst.

a 24th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (16:27-28, v 27 unfulfilled; v 28 fulfilled). Next, 17:11 b Sufferings are generally mentioned preceding the glory (v 21-27; Rom. 8:18; Col. 3:4; 1 Pet. 1:11). Christ will come the next time in glory, not in sufferings (Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-21) c Mt. 13:41; 24:31; 25:31; 2 Th. 2:7
d This refers to the judgment of the nations at the second advent (Mt. 25:31-46). The righteous dead will be judged before this (notes, 1 Cor. 3:11-15; Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10) and the wicked 1,000 years after this (Rev. 20)
e According to his works, not according to the age in which he lived f Referring to disciples seeing Him transfigured, as He will be in the kingdom when it is set up at the second advent (17:1-8; 2 Pet. 1:16-18)
g See "till's" or great events, p. 34
h Fulfilling the prediction of 16:28
i Takes them aside from the rest, as on other occasions (26:37; Mk. 5:37) j Gr. metamorphoo, to change the form. Only here and in Mk. 9:2; Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 3:18. Cp. transfiguration of Moses (Ex. 34:29-35) and of Stephen (Acts 6:15)

k Moses had been dead over 1700 years and his body was then in corruption (Dt. 34; Jude 9). He evidently was brought up from paradise below the earth (notes, Lk. 16:21-31). This is an example of full consciousness and of a soul wearing clothes between death and resurrection (Rev. 6:9-11; Heb. 12:23; Ps. 16:10). Christ had not yet become the first-fruits of all that had died, so Moses could not have had a resurrected body (1 Cor. 15:20-23)

Moses and Elijah sent to confirm:

1 The abolition of the law (Mt. 11:11-13; Lk. 16:16; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Col. 2:14-17)
2 The fulfillment of prophecies of the sufferings of Messiah (Lk. 24:25-27, 44-45; Jn. 1:45; Acts 13:29-41)
3 Christ as the Messiah, the sole authority from God and the Mediator between God and man (Acts 3:22-23; Heb. 1:1-2; 1 Tim. 2:5)
4 The reality and consciousness of departed spirits (Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 6:9-11; Heb. 12:23; Eph. 4:8-10)
5 The immortality of the soul (1 Pet. 3:4; 4:6; Ps. 16:10; Lk. 20:38)
6 The second advent, rewards and punishments (Mt. 16:27; 24:29-25:46)
7 Bodily resurrection (17:9; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Cor. 15; Rev. 20:4-15)
8 The reality of the future eternal kingdom (16:28; 17:1-9; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 20:1-10)

l Elijah, not yet dead, had then been living in heaven in his earthly body for nearly 1000 years (2 Ki. 2; Mal. 4:5-6; Zech. 4:11-14; Rev. 11:3-11) m Gr. skene, shade, booth, tabernacle (v 4; Mk. 9:5; Lk. 9:33; Acts 7:43-44) n A visible evidence of God's presence (Ex. 13:21-22; 14:19-24; 16:10; 19:9, 16; 24:15-18; 34:5) p A normal thing with men who have met God (Job 42:5-6; Isa. 6; Dan. 8:18; 10:5-11; Acts 9:4; Rev. 1:17)

q Gr. ek, out from or from among. Always used of Christ and saints as being resurrected out from among the dead. All the righteous will be raised from among the wicked dead before the Millennium. The wicked will remain dead until the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). Note the many times the "out resurrection" from among the dead is mentioned (Mk. 6:14; 9:9-10; 12:25; Lk. 9:7; 16:31; 20:35; 24:46; Jn. 2:22; 12:1, 9, 17; 20:9; 21:14; Acts 3:15; 4:2, 10; 10:41; 13:30, 34; 17:3, 31; Rom. 4:24; 6:4, 9, 13; 7:4; 8:11; 10:7, 9; 11:15; 1 Cor. 15:12, 20; Gal. 1:1; Eph. 5:14; Phil. 3:11; Col. 1:18; 2:12; 1 Th. 1:10; 2 Tim. 2:8; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 1:3, 21). a Four (Christ, Peter, James, and John, v 1, 10) came down from the mountain the next day after the transfiguration (Lk. 9:37)
b Ancients always fell down and touched the knees of the person whose kindness was asked (Ex. 9:29, note) c Gr. selēniazomai, moonstruck. The epilepsy was supposed to have been caused by the moon because the attacks were worse at the change and full of the moon. It was really caused by a demon which attacked during this time so as to make others think the moon was the cause (v 18; Mk. 9:17; Lk. 9:38)
d See note d, Mt. 15:22
e The demon sought to kill the boy by this means, so that his life was in continual danger causing the parents much concern f The nine that were at the foot of the mount of transfiguration (v 1) g These were normal disciples according to modern standards which do not demand or expect men to have power over demons as the N. T. promises (Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19; Jn. 14:12) h Questions 86-87, Next, v 19. This applied to the disciples because of their unbelief (v 20), to the father whom He addressed in particular (Mk. 9:17-24), and to the scribes who were questioning the disciples (Mk. 9:16).
i A command of authority and absolute confidence in God j Jesus rebuked the devil, not the moon, for He knew the source of the trouble (Mt. 4:23-24; 10:1-8; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38). See Demons, p. 632 of O. T. k Question 88, Next, v 24. These disciples were at least honest enough to investigate the reason for failure l A simple and a complete answer. This is still the reason for failure to cast out demons and for unanswered prayers of every kind. God promises answers to all alike on condition one is in Christ and doubts not (v 20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)
m "If ye have faith" it will be done-whatever you say, but if you do not have faith it will not be done n Faith, pure and unmixed with doubt as a grain of mustard seed, can even move a literal mountain (v 20). See Faith, p. 201 o The mount of transfiguration, not some difficulty (v 17; Mk. 11:22-24; Lk. 17:6; 1 Cor. 13:2) p As if pointing to a particular place q Nothing promised by God's Word or that is good for His children (Ps. 34:10; 84:11; Mt. 7:11; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16)

v Gr. didrachma, double drachme, about 32¢. This was the temple tax which every Jew paid yearly (Ex. 30:13; 2 Ki. 12:4; 2 Chr. 24:6-9)
w Questions 89-92, Next, 18:1
x This is evidence that Christ paid all taxes and tributes common among the people. Christians are subject to all laws (Rom. 13:1-8) y Anticipating what Peter was going to ask He gave the answer first z Gr. kensos and Latin census, poll or registration tax a As this tax is levied for the temple of which I am Lord, then I am not obliged to pay, and My disciples, like priests that minister, should be exempted from it. But to save any offense we will pay (v 26-27)
b Gr. stater, about 64¢, enough for both Christ and Peter to pay the tax. This is a notable miracle. If the money was in the fish it took a miracle to know it was there. If it was not in the fish it took a miracle to get it to go get the money and bring it to Peter. Jesus here shows another example of material supply. Nothing is impossible to the believer (v 20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16). Gifts of the Spirit are for men today to enable them to repeat the works of Christ that He did by these same gifts (1 Cor. 1:7; 12:1-11; 13:1-3; Jn. 14:12)

14 ¶ And when [a]they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, [b]kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is[c]lunatick, and[d]sore vexed: for[e]ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to[f]thy disciples, and they [g]could not cure him.

17 Then Jē'şus answered and said,[h]O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? [i]bring him hither to me.

18 And Jē'şus [i]rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

70 Prayer and fasting: the cure for unbelief (Mk. 9:28)

19 Then came the disciples to Jē'şus apart, and said, [k]Why could not we cast him out?

▸20 And Jē'şus said unto them, [l]Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith [n]as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto [o]this mountain, Remove hence [p]to yonder place; and it shall remove; and [q]nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit [r]this kind goeth not out but by [s]prayer and fasting.

71 Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mk. 9:30; Lk. 9:44; 16:21, refs.)

★22 ¶ And while they abode in Gāl'ĭ-lee, Jē'şus said unto them, [t]The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

72 Miracle of the tribute money (22:15; Mk. 12:13; Lk. 20:19)

24 ¶ And when they were come [u]to Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, they that received [v]tribute money came to Pē'tēr, and said, [w]Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, [x]Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jē'şus [y]prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Sī'mon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or [z]tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Of strangers. Jē'şus saith unto him, [a]Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a [b]piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18

73 Sermon on discipleship

(1) Carnal man's great question (Cp. Mk. 9:33; Lk. 9:46; 22:24; Mt. 20:20, 24)

AT the same time came the disciples unto Jē'şus, saying, [c]Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

(2) The answer (Mk. 9:33; Lk. 9:46; 22:24; Jn. 13:3-17; Jas. 3:1; 4:5-10)

2 And Jē'şus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

●3 And said, Verily I say unto you, [d]Except ye be [e]converted, and become [f]as little children, ye shall not [e]enter into the kingdom of heaven.

▸4 [g]Whosoever therefore [g]shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

(3) Offences to believers from the world (Mk. 9:42; Lk. 17:1; Jn. 15:18, refs.)

▸5 [h]And whoso shall receive one such little child [i]in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall [j]offend one of these [k]little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a [l]millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

★7 ¶ [m]Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

(4) Offending bodily members (Mk. 9:43-48; Mt. 5:29)

●8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into [o]everlasting fire.

●9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: [p]it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

(5) A warning to all (Mt. 5:23, 38-42; Lk. 17:1)

●10 [q]Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their [r]angels do always [s]behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

(6) The lost sheep: the seeking Saviour (Lk. 15:3; 19:10)

▸11 For the Son of man is come [t]to save that which was lost.

12 [u]How think ye? if a man have an [v]hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which a Question 93, Next, v 12. An old question among disciples to this day, who still classify men in the gospel as to position and rewards contrary to the constant rebuke of Christ (v 3-4; 20:20-28; 23:8-11; Mk. 9:34-37; Lk. 9:46-48; 22:24-27). In these scriptures He did not rebuke men for expecting a literal earthly kingdom or for wanting to be in it, but He made it clear that entrance into, and place and position in it are on a different basis from that of the world. See note j, Mt. 4:17 b The condition of entrance into the kingdom to have a part in its administration. Only Christians who have part in the first resurrection will be kings and priests on earth when Christ comes to reign (Rom. 8:17-18; 1 Cor. 4:8; 6:2-3; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 20:4-6; 22:4-5). Unsaved men will be in the kingdom in the Millennium, but they will not inherit the kingdom and rule it (Isa. 2:2-4; 65:20; 66:19-21; Zech. 8:23; 14:16-21; Rev. 20:7-10). See other "Except's" p. 201

c Meaning, right about face, or a change of direction, a new walk with God (Ps. 19:7, note; 51:13; Lk. 22:32; Acts 3:19; Jas. 5:19)
d Become without worldly ambitions to be the greatest and without lust for money, power, and fame, as little children are, who act among themselves as equals (Mt. 23:5-12)
e This refers to the eternal aspect of the kingdom, not the present realm of profession in this age, for both tares and wheat and good and bad are now in the kingdom (Mt. 13:11). To enter it and have a part in it eternally one must be converted (v 3; Jn. 3:3)
f Used 179 times; 70 in the O. T. and 109 times in the N. T., and expresses free moral agency and personal and individual sovereignty of action
All men are free to obey or disobey:
1 God (Mt. 12:50; Mk. 3:35)
2 Christ (Mk. 8:34; 1 Jn. 3:6, 10; 4:15; 5:1; 2 Jn. 9)
3 The Holy Spirit (Mt. 12:31-32)
4 The Word (Mt. 5:19; 1 Jn. 2:5)
5 Satan (Rom. 6:16-23)
6 Sin (Jn. 8:34; 1 Jn. 3:4-15)
7 Civil laws (Rom. 13:2)
8 God's conditions of salvation (Jn. 3:15-20; 4:14; Acts 2:21; 10:43; Rom. 9:33; 10:9-13; Rev. 22:17)
g The way of greatness in the world is to go up by every means at the expense of all others: the way of the gospel is to go down; to become least and the servant of all, considering the other the better man (Lk. 14:11; 18:14; Jas. 4:6, 10; 1 Pet. 5:3-7; Phil. 2:1-3) h Used 51 times: 41 times in the O. T. and 10 in the N. T. It means the same as "whosoever" of note f, above n Must, as a bitter fountain must send forth bitter water (Jas. 3:11)

o Gr. gehenna, the eternal hell (Lk. 12:5, note). How inconsistent to teach such statements refer to the grave, for all people go to graves at death, but the wicked only go to gehenna. The 12th time in Mt. Jesus mentions eternal hell fire and punishment for the wicked (5:22, 29, 30; 7:19; 8:12; 10:28; 11:23; 13:30, 40-42, 49-50; 16:18; 18:8-9; 22:13; 23:15; 24:51; 25:30-46) p Would it not be better to do this literally than to spend eternity in hell? The whole idea is to get rid of offending members that constantly cause sin.

went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

(7) Discipline of believers (Mt. 5:23; 1 Cor. 5; 1 Tim. 5:20)

●15 ¶ Moreover if thy[b] brother shall trespass against thee, go and[c] tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

●16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

●17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church,[d] let him be unto thee as an[e] heathen man and a[f] publican.

▸18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall[g] bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

(9) Power of united prayer (Mk. 11:22; Jn. 15:7, 16; 16:23)

▸19[h] Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

(10) Simplicity of local churches and Christian worship

▸20 For where[i] two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

(11) Law of forgiveness (6:14; Mk. 11:25; Lk. 17:1)

21 ¶ Then came Pē'tēr to him, and said, Lord,[k] how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

●22 Jē'şus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but,[m] Until seventy times seven.

(12) Forgiveness: parable of the unmerciful servant.

23 ¶ Therefore is the[n] kingdom of heaven[o] likened unto a certain king, which would[p] take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him [q] ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an[r] hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 [b] Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the [c] tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

●35 So [d] likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye [e] from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.◂

b Anyone of the same religious society
c 3 steps in church discipline:
1 Settle all personal differences by yourself (v 15; 5:23-26; Lk. 17:3-4; Lev. 19:17)
2 Confirm your personal efforts by two or three witnesses (v 16; 2 Cor. 13:1; Dt. 17:6; 19:15)
3 Take a stubborn and unforgiving brother before the church and if he refuses all means of reconciliation, then let him be excommunicated (v 17). If men will not forgive, neither will God forgive (Mt. 6:14-15; 18:21-35; Mk. 11:25-26; Rom. 16:17)
d 7 N. T. reasons for excommunication:
1 A trespass (Gr. hamartia, sin, note v, Jn. 1:29) plus an unforgiving spirit (Mt. 18:15-17)
2 False doctrines and offences contrary to Scripture (Rom. 16:17)
3 Hating Christ (1 Cor. 16:22)
4 Disorderly conduct and disobedience (2 Th. 3:6, 14-15)
5 Apostasy (1 Tim. 1:19-20; 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:1-4)
6 Heresy (Tit. 3:10; 1 Tim. 6:3-5)
7 Fornication and other gross sins that damn the soul (1 Cor. 5:1-13; 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Mk. 7:19-21; Rom. 1:18-32; Col. 5:5-10; 1 Tim. 6:3-5)
e Gr. ethnikos, pagan, a Gentile. Used only here and in Mt. 6:7. Be a Christian toward him, as you would a stranger whom you would seek to win to Christ, but have no religious communion with him until he repents. Then forgive him, letting his sin be a thing of the past (Mt. 6:14-15; 18:21-35; 2 Cor. 2:6-11; Gal. 6:1)

g See notes r, s, and t, Mt. 16:19
h The word "again" means "once more" and evidently points to a repeat of the truth of v 18, that every believer can have power to bind and to loose. It is expressed here in another form, that anything asked for by any two in agreement it shall be done (v 19)
i Not only two can condemn a man in a church court of trial (v 16-17), and two can move God to get whatever they ask and agree upon in prayer, but two can constitute a local church with God's presence assured in Christ (v 20) j A clear reference to the omnipresence, omniscience, and omnipotence of Christ among believers; consequently, proof of His Deity

o 39th of Jesus' parables in Matthew. Of the 48 parables in Mt. note the number of two's among them: Two kinds of seasoning (5:13), lights (5:14-15), treasures (6:19-21), creatures (6:26), raiment (6:28-29), eye troubles (7:3-5), animals (7:6), fathers (7:7-11), ways (7:13-14), trees and fruits (7:15-20), foundations (7:24-29), classes (9:11-13), bridegrooms (9:15), cloth (9:16), bottles (9:17), preachers (10:16), sparrows (10:29-31); types of people (11:7-9); kinds of children (11:16-19); types of scholars (11:25); sources of power (12:29); signs (12:40; 16:1-5); possessions (12:43-45); seed (13:24-43); fish (13:47-50); truth (13:52); plants (15:13-14); defilement (15:11-20); doctrine (16:6-12); little ones (18:1-10); sheep (18:11-14); servants (18:23-35); laborers (20:1-16); sons (21:28-32); husbandmen (21:33-46); guests (22:1-14); religion (23:25-28); snakes (23:33); ages (24:37-39); men (24:43-44); servants (24:45-51); attitudes (25:1-13); business men (25:14-30)
Note: Biblical use of the word "parable" is in the widest sense of the term, wherein there is practically no difference between the parable and simile. This broad usage includes simple comparison (Mt. 24:31-32); obscure similitude or dark saying (Mt. 16:11-16; Ps. 78:2; Prov. 1:6); simple allegory (Mt. 13); a maxim or wise sentence (1 Ki. 4:32); a discourse (Job 27:1; 29:1); an adage (Lk. 4:23; 6:39); a type (Heb. 9:9; 11:19)

c The jailers who had charge of prisoners and who also tortured them when ordered to do so d This parable illustrates the necessity of forgiveness and godly treatment of fellow Christians in the kingdom of heaven or realm of profession in this age. The parable may be divided into 4 natural parts:
1 King and his servant (v 23-27):
(1) The reckoning (v 23-24)
(2) Great debt: $290,850,000.00 (v 24)
(3) Impossibility of payment (v 25)
(4) Judgment pronounced (v 25)
(5) Mercy asked - promise given (v 26)
(6) King's compassion (v 27)
(7) Cancellation of the debt (v 27)
2 Servant, fellowservant (v 28-30):
(1) New freedom (v 28)
(2) The reckoning (v 28)
(3) Small debt: only $17.00 (v 28)
(4) Possibility of payment (v 28)
(5) Judgment pronounced (v 30)
(6) Mercy asked (v 29)
(7) No mercy shown (v 28-30)
3 King and His servants (v 31-34):
(1) Knowledge of fellowservants
(2) Compassion of fellowservants
(3) Report of fellowservants (v 31)
(4) The reckoning (v 32)
(5) Reproof for cruelty (v 32-33)
(6) The king's wrath (v 34)
(7) Judgment pronounced (v 34). This was equal to eternal punishment, as he could never pay
4 The application
(1) God cancels all the debt for penitent sinners as this king did for his servant (v 23-27, 35; Mt. 12:31-32; 1 Jn. 1:9)
(2) God demands fair treatment between Christians (v 26-30, 35; 5:38-48; 7:12; Rom. 12:9-21; 1 Cor. 13)
(3) God will not forgive unless man forgives his brother (v 35; 6:14-15; Mk. 11:25-26; Eph. 4:32)
e All issues of sin and righteousness come from the heart (Mt. 15:18-19; Mk. 7:19-21; Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:6-10; 2 Tim. 2:22; Heb. 4:12)

l Divorce (note e, Mt. 5:31)
m This must be kept in mind in dealing with this question. The real issue here is divorce for "every cause," not divorce for fornication which was lawful (Dt. 24:1-4). This was the great controversy among the Jews at this time (note e, Mk. 10:2). Rabbis had made void Dt. 24:1-4. They now permitted divorce on many frivolous grounds, such as careless seasoning of food, causing the husband to eat food which had not been tithed, going into the street with loose or uncombed hair, spinning in the street, loud talk or constant talking in the home, the husband's finding one more beautiful than his wife and many other things p Many today claim that all married people are not joined together by God, so they are free to marry the one God intended them to have. The fact is that God does recognize the marriage of all legally joined as man and wife and will hold them responsible for their vows (Rom. 13:1-10)

q Question 101, Next, v 16. See note f, Mk. 10:4; and note f, Mt. 5:31 r Stating why Moses suffered divorce for fornication. Moses saw that if he did not permit divorce many women would suffer untold hardships from ungodly husbands a Christ defeated His enemies by answering them with Moses, not what Shammai or Hillel said on the question. Hardness of heart and divorce were not intended by God and they will not be in the eternal kingdom when Christ reigns over the natural generations forever (Gen. 8:22; 9:12; Isa. 59:20; Lk. 1:32–33; Rev. 11:15; 22:4–5; Dan. 7:13–14)

b Any man who divorces his wife for any cause, except for fornication, and shall marry another commits adultery. Any man marrying her that is divorced for the cause of her own fornication, commits adultery. This was evidently an unpleasant answer to these scheming men who wished to be free to put away their wives for "every cause."

7 reasons marriage is indissoluble:
1 By divine institution (v 4, 6, 8)
2 By express commandment (v 5–6)
3 By the example of Adam and Eve(6)
4 Because marriage makes a man and woman one in flesh, with complete union of interests, fortunes, desires, joys, sorrows, and a life-long partnership (v 5–6)
5 Because of the evils consequent on divorce to themselves, the children, and others who become entangled in sin by it (v 9; Mk. 7:21; Rom. 1:29–32)
6 Because of the penalties involved by causing such evils (v 9; Gal. 5:19–21; 1 Cor. 6:9–11)
7 Because there is no excuse under the gospel for "hardness of heart" against each other (2 Cor. 5:17–18; Eph. 4:24; Gal. 5:24)

N. T. exceptions to this law:
1 Fornication (v 9; 5:32). One can easily understand this in view of Pr. 2:16–20; 6:24–26; 7:5–23; 9:13–18; 11:22; 30:20–23; etc.
2 Wilful desertion because of Christ and the gospel (1 Cor. 7:12–15)

c See notes g and h, Mt. 5:32

d Divorced for any reason except those allowed by Scripture (v 9; 5:32; 1 Cor. 7:12–15)

e If one has to live with a wife with all the dissatisfaction and unhappiness, as in some cases, it is best not to marry.

f This is not applicable to all men for some do not have wives as He further explained in v 12. Neither the single nor married state is condemned

g An emasculated man, usually one castrated before puberty

Three classes of eunuchs:
1 Those born impotent who are incapable of marriage (v 12; Dt. 23:1)
2 Those made eunuchs by men to be chamberlains and to care for harems and apartments of queens and princesses (v 12; 2 Ki. 20:18; Jer. 29:2; 34:19; 41:16; Isa. 56:4; Acts 8:27–39)
3 Those who make themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven by operation (v 12)

h Let the man who is capable of embracing this way of life receive it i It was common among Jews to take the children to godly men for blessings and prayers

j Again the disciples interfered in the busy life of Jesus (Mt. 15:23; 16:22; Lk. 9:49–50, 53–56)

n Questions 102–104, Next, v 20. The first question reveals the great mistake and the last one the great problem of life. One cannot do anything to merit eternal life, but all may have it by confession of sin and simple faith in Christ (Jn. 3:16–20; Eph. 2:8–9; Tit. 3:5; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rom. 10:9–10)

●18 He saith unto him, Which? Jē'şus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, ●19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: [p]what lack I yet?

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

79 Warning to rich men (6:19; Mk. 10:23; Lk. 18:24)

23 ¶ Then said Jē'şus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a [r]rich man shall [s]hardly enter into the [t]kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a [s]camel to go through the [d]eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the [e]kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, [f]Who then can be saved?

26 But Jē'şus beheld them, and said unto them, [g]With men this is impossible; but [h]with God all things are possible.

80 Apostles' place in the eternal kingdom (Lk. 22:28)

27 ¶ Then answered Pē'tēr and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; [i]what shall we have therefore?

✱28 And Jē'şus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [i]That ye which have followed me, in the [k]regeneration [i]when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve [m]thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Iş'ra-el.

81 Rewards for full consecration (Mk. 10:28; Lk. 18:28–30)

▶29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, [n]shall receive an hundredfold, [o]and shall inherit everlasting life.

▶30 But [p]many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

82 Humility: parable of the laborers in the vineyard

FOR the kingdom of heaven is [q]like unto a man that is an householder, which went out [r]early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [s]penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the [t]marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, [u]Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; [v]and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

e The sovereignty of God over the universe and includes the kingdom of heaven. It is used 72 times and the kingdom of heaven 33 times. Because the kingdom of heaven is part of the kingdom of God some things could be said of both, but there are other things said of the kingdom of God that could not be spoken of the kingdom of heaven

18 contrasts between the two kingdoms:

Kingdom of heaven	Kingdom of God
1 Messiah as king	God as king (Jn. 18:37; Rev. 20:6; 1 Cor. 15:28)
2 From heaven	In heaven and earth (Jn. 18:36; Dan. 7:13; Ps. 103:19)
3 Upon earth only	In heaven-earth (Jn. 18:37; Rev. 5:10; 1 Cor. 15:28)
4 Scope limited	Scope unlimited (Zech. 14:9; Rev. 4:11; 5:11)
5 Political	Moral and spiritual (Isa. 9:7; Dan. 7:14; Rom. 14:17)
6 Future	Past, present and future (Mt. 6:10; 2 Tim. 4:1; Ps. 90:2)
7 Under Christ	God over all (Ps. 2:6; Lk. 1:32–33; Ps. 103:19)
8 Given to Christ	Not given (Dan. 7:13–14; Lk. 1:32; Ps. 10:16)
9 Begins at second advent	Is now (Zech. 14; 2 Tim. 4:1; Ps. 90:2)
10 Under heaven only	Overall (Dan. 7:27; Rev. 11:15; Ps. 103:19)
11 Jewish-earthly	Angelic-heavenly (Isa. 9:7; Lk. 1:33; Rev. 5:11)
12 Local-planetary	Universal interplanetary (Rev. 11:15; Rev. 5:13)
13 Earthly capital	Heavenly capital (Isa. 2:3; Zech. 14; Heb. 12:22)
14 Dispensational in purpose	Eternal in purpose (1 Cor. 15:24–28; Eph. 3:11)
15 Has a beginning	Timeless-endless (2 Tim. 4:1; Mt. 6:10; Ps. 90:2)
16 Tares in it now	Only born again ones in it (Mt. 13:38–50; Jn. 3:5)
17 Comes with outward show	Without show (Mt. 24:29–31; 25:31–46; 2 Th. 1:7–10; Jude 14; Zech. 14:1–5; Dan. 7:13–14; Rev. 19:11–21; Lk. 17:20; Rom. 14:17; 1 Cor. 4:20)
18 "Flesh and blood" inherits it	for it is for earthly, natural people (Ps. 37:11; Mt. 5:5; 25:34; Dan. 7:18, 28; Ezek. 43:7). Does not, for only resurrected, glorified saints inherit all things (Rom. 8:17; 1 Cor. 15:50–58; Rev. 21:7)

Leases were for a year, for life, or were hereditary. This last was the kind here. It is not possible to make all the details fit into the common Jewish or Christian interpretations, such as giving meanings to the fence, tower, etc. The main teaching is clear and that is plainly stated in the point illustrated in v 42-46

Vineyards of Palestine

1 In some vineyards the vines were planted in rows 8 or 10 ft. apart and trained on stakes. In others, they were planted in 2 rows and made to slant toward each other, forming an arch. The stock was allowed to grow 6 to 8 ft. high being fastened in position by strong stakes. The shoots were allowed to grow from one plant to another

Some vineyards were planted on the side of a terraced hill, the old branches being permitted to trail along the ground, while the fruit-bearing shoots were propped up with forked sticks. Still others were planted so that the vines could be trained to grow over heaps of stones, called grape-mounds, to keep the clusters off the ground

2 Vineyards were sometimes fenced with a wall of stone (Num. 22:24; Pr. 24:31) or thorny plants (Ps. 80:12). Sometimes both were used (Isa. 5:5); and again, large mud-bricks about 1 yd. wide, 1 yd. thick, and 2 yds. long were used

3 The wine-press generally consisted of 2 parts - the receptacle for the grapes, and the vat for the juice. Either part, was sometimes called the press. The juice ran our the receptacle into the lower vat to purify the juice of sediment. Some vats were 8 to 10 ft. square and 15 to 20 inches deep, the bottom being slightly sloped toward one end. Another vat lower than this was used at times, for further purification purposes. The grapes were trodden in the receptacle, the juice running out of closely grated holes into the vat (Judg. 9:27; Neh. 13:15; Isa. 63:1-8; Amos 9:13; Rev. 14:17-20; 19:15). As many as 2 to 8 people supported by ropes hung from crossbeams over their heads, would tread on the grapes. The pressure of feet would naturally spatter juice over the garments (Gen. 49:11; Isa. 63:1-8)

4 The tower was a temporary dwelling for the guard, who watched over the vineyard while the fruit was ripening, to keep thieves and wild beasts out. Some towers were mere booths which lasted only a season, while others were more permanent - built of stone (Isa. 1:8, note). Towers were circular or square in shape and 15 to 50 ft. high

b Their answer showed that they understood the parable. The story is similar to the one where Jews killed servants God sent them. Last of all God sent His Son. Now the prediction was that they would kill Him as the husbandmen did the son of the owner of the vineyard they had leased. The husbandmen were destroyed and the vineyard let out to others. This meaning is clear from the application in v 42-46

d 18th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mt. (21:42; Ps. 118:22). Next, 22:44. This applies to Jesus and His rejection by the Jews, who, after a period of rejecting, will accept Him as their Messiah (Mt. 23:37-39; Rom. 11:25-29).
e The Lord had predicted all this and was in the background fulfilling every detail (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 8:32)
f The Lord's plan of redemption is marvelous (Rom. 11:33; Eph. 3:16-19; 1 Pet. 1:10-12)
g 35th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (21:43-44, fulfilled). Next, 23:34 h Gr. ethnos, race or nation, meaning the Gentiles who took the place of Jews in the gospel program (Acts 13:46-49; 15:13-18; Rom. 10:19-11:26)
i Whoever throws himself on the mercy of Christ shall be broken and made contrite (Ps. 34:18; 51:17; 147:3), but whoever rejects His mercy shall be completely crushed (Gr. likmao, be scattered like chaff, v 44; Lk. 20:18). This scattering like chaff refers to the dispersion of the nation (Lk. 21:24). The term "broken in pieces" refers to complete defeat and destruction in Isa. 8:9; Jer. 50:2. Cp. Dan. 2:35, 44-45
j The meaning is clear in v 42-46 k This is the third parable or illustration to the Jews in the temple, the first two being of two sons (21:28-32) and the vineyard (21:33-46). This one illustrates that many are called but few will be chosen (v 14)
l 43rd parable in Mt. (22:1-14)
m Who the king was is not stated n Not the marriage supper of the Lamb of Rev. 19:7-10, but a marriage feast for a certain king's son who got married when these events took place
o Servants of the king, not of God p It was customary for two invitations to be given, one in advance and one when all things were ready. Cp. Esther 5:8 and 6:14; Lk. 14:16-17
q Israel did to God's prophets what these men did to the king's servants (Lk. 11:47-51; 13:34; Acts 7:51). Israel was also dealt with like the enemies of this king (v 7; Lk. 21:20-24)
r Referring to the murderers of v 5-7. The Jewish leaders were like this king's invited guests who were called but were not worthy to be chosen (Acts 13:46)
s The king had to turn to other guests so gathered good and bad wherever they were found, which illustrates God turning to all men, good and bad (Mt. 13:38, 48) and not to Jews only (Jn. 1:11; Mt. 10:6; 15:24). The rejection of Jesus by Israel freed God from all responsibility to them in fulfilling His covenants with them, so His program became a world-wide one for all men (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 1:16; 1 Cor. 12:13)
t This was an unusual happening for all people, good or bad, in the highways - to be invited to such a wonderful banquet. Kings usually gave the most magnificent feasts, which, under ordinary circumstances would attract every person invited. The reasons for so many not accepting the invitation here, are not given, but one thing stands out very clear - the king was not popular with his subjects and they dreaded to face him

The king, not to be outdone, was determined to fill the feast-chamber with guests, and so he sent for all his servants could find, regardless of social position or condition as to clothes. The poorer classes would not have festive apparel, and they were therefore, provided for by the king from his own extensive wardrobe. One of the most interesting details of the parable is that of beggars being clothed with robes of royalty. It was a special mark of honor to receive a garment which had been used by royalty, and kings sometimes showed their liberality by giving freely to others whom they sought to honor men saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, [b]He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

*42 Jĕ'şus saith unto them, [c]Did ye never read in the scriptures, [d]The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the [e]Lord's doing, and it is [f]marvellous in our eyes?

*43 Therefore say I unto you, The [g]kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to [h]a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And [i]whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard his parables, [j]they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

22 CHAPTER 22

94 Parable of the marriage feast (Cp. Lk. 14:16-24)

AND Jĕ'şus answered and spake unto them [k]again by parables, and said,

2 The [l]kingdom of heaven is like unto a [m]certain king, which made a [n]marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth [o]his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and [p]all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and [q]slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but [r]they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 [s]Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, [t]both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the [u]king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, [v]how camest thou in hither not having a [w]wedding garment? And he was [x]speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, [y]Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 [z]For many are called, but few are chosen.

95 Question of tribute money (Mk. 12:13; Lk. 20:19)

15 ¶ Then went the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and took counsel how they might [a]entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Hê-rō'dĭ-anş, saying, [b]Master, [c]we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, [c]What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give [d]tribute unto Çæ'şar, or not?

18 But Jĕ'şus [e]perceived their wickedness, and said, [f]Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a [g]penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Çæ'şar's. Then saith he unto them, [h]Render therefore unto Çæ'şar the things which are Çæ'şar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

96 Question of the resurrection (Mk. 12:18; Lk. 20:27)

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Săd'du-çees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, [i]Mō'şes said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us [j]seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 [k]Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jĕ'şus answered and said unto them, [l]Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in a The king, not God. It was customary for hosts to come in and see their guests after they were assembled (Lk. 14:10)

b Question 127. Next, v 17
c Sometimes garments were provided for all guests and it was an insult of the highest degree to refuse to use the garments provided. In this case, the king, not God, provided the garments, so this has nothing to do with the righteousness of the saints of Rev. 19:7-10 d Was without excuse, for it had been provided for him by the king
e The king sent the insulting guest into prison and torment to pay for his crime against his ruler. This is part of the point illustrated, teaching again the punishment of those who reject Christ (Mt. 8:12; 11:20-24; 13:40-50; 24:51; 25:41-46) f This is the point illustrated by the parable. See note, 20:16 g 3 groups in this plot:

1 Herodians, a political party associated with the fortunes of the Herodian family who believed the doctrines of Herod the Great (Mk. 3:6). They advocated submission to the Romans and freedom to conform to pagan religion as well as to Judaism if it was more convenient and if it helped further their political fortunes and secular gain. The Herodians here could have been courtiers or servants of Herod who was at this time in Jerusalem (Lk. 23:7-15)

2 The Sadducees who questioned Jesus but were also defeated (v 23-33). See note on Sadducees, Mt. 3:7

3 The Pharisees who also took their turn in the plot but were quickly silenced (v 34-46). They then received the most scathing rebuke in all history (Mt. 23). See note on Pharisees, Mt. 3:7. Christ had put them to confusion by the 3 parables of 21:23-22:14. They refused to humble themselves and went out to plot afresh the death of their Messiah. Their hatred was further proved by a choice to team up with the Herodians whom they despised. They had been defeated in Christ's answers on religion, so now they questioned Him on state affairs (v 17)

h Gr. didaskalos, teacher (Lk. 9:38)
i 4fold description of Christ:

1 You are true (Gr. alathias, without reserve, sincere, truthful, frank, honest, genuine, and true)

2 You teach the Way of God in truth (Gr. alatheia, without pretence, falsehood, deceit; with sincerity of mind and purpose; without hypocrisy and lust for personal gain)

3 You are fearless. You are not afraid of men or devils and never act with dread, panic, fear, or timidity as to the outcome of what you say or do

4 You do not court human favor or look on the appearance of any man. You have no respect of persons

o Question 131. Next, v 28. He knew, but He wanted them to answer to their own confusion p Since you know whose coin it is, then act honestly and give it back to Caesar also rendering to God the things that are His. This was the sum of wisdom and relieved Him of a trying situation. If He had answered for Caesar the people would have turned against Him. If He had answered against Caesar He would have inflamed the Romans and the Herodians against Him. By His answer both God and Caesar received what belonged to them and the people were edified by the manifestation of wisdom
q See Dt. 25:5
r Rabbis taught that if a woman has two husbands in this life she will have the first only in the next life s Question 132. Next, v 31
t You are deceived in thinking that there will be marriages in the next life as in this one, and in believing that there will be no resurrection (v 23). You do not know either the Scriptures or the power of God to resurrect men. Men and women in the resurrection will not marry a The purpose of marriage is to replenish the earth and keep the race going. Resurrected saints and angels do not die and do not need to marry to keep their kind in existence. Hence, there is no marriage among angels or resurrected men and women. Jesus did not say that angels were sexless or that they could not marry and have offspring of women. That fallen angels did leave their own first estate and marry the daughters of men and produce races of giants is clear from Gen. 6:1-4, notes. That they who did commit fornication are now in hell is clear in Jude 6-7; 2 Pet. 2:4, notes. Angels are capable of many human activities. See Angels, in the Index

c Quoted from Ex. 3:6, 16. Sadducees held that the books of Moses were the only Scriptures. Christ used them to prove His point. If Jesus claimed these three men were still alive several hundred years after their physical death, then all who cease to live among mortals are still alive. Sadducees believed in the eternal annihilation at death, so Christ's answer that the dead still live and God is not the God of dead bodies but of living souls, not only refuted the annihilation doctrine, but proved they did not know the Scriptures

d Jesus here teaches immortality of the soul and that God is the God of all departed souls. In Luke it is stated that "all live unto Him" (20:38). Many other scriptures teach immortality of the soul (Lk. 16:19-31; 23:43; Mt. 17:3; 2 Cor. 4:18; 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; 1 Pet. 3:4; 4:6; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11; Isa. 14:9; Eph. 4:8-10)

e Believers are promised such wisdom (Lk. 21:15; 1 Cor. 12:8; Jas. 1:5; Jn. 14:12. Cp. Acts 7:10)

f First of 8 times in Scripture (v 35; Lk. 7:30; 10:25; 11:45-52; 14:3; Tit. 3:13). They were scribes (note w, Mt. 2:4)

g Gr. didaskalos, teacher (Lk. 9:38)

h Question 134. Next, v 42. Scribes divided them into 248 affirmative ones to correspond with the number of the members of the body, and 365 negative ones to correspond with days of the year, making 613 commandments, the number of letters in the decalogue. They considered some great and some small, so here Jesus was being tempted as to whether He was in harmony with accepted truth or not i Quoted from Dt. 6:5; 10:12; 30:6

Love to God must come from:
1 The heart: all inward affections
2 The soul: all consciousness
3 The mind: all thoughts

v Questions 139-140. Next, v 33. Pharisees held that they were not responsible to pay vows sworn by the temple or the altar (v 16, 18), but Jesus held that all vows must be paid and that the temple was greater than part of its material and the altar was greater than a gift upon it (v 17, 19-22) marriage, but are[a] as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead,[b] have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32[c] I am the God of Ā'brā-hăm, and the God of Ī'saac, and the God of Jā'cob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

97 Question of the great commandment (Mk. 12:28; Lk. 10:27)

34 ¶ But when the Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard that he had put the Săd'du-çees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a[f] lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36[g] Master,[h] which is the great commandment in the law?

●37 Jē'sus said unto him,[i] Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

●39 And the second is like unto it,[j] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40[k] On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

98 Jesus questions the Pharisees (Mk. 12:35; Lk. 20:39)

41 ¶ While the Phăr'ĭ-sees were gathered together, Jē'sus asked them, 42 Saying, [l]What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, [m]The son of Dā'vid.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth Dā'vid in spirit call him Lord, saying,

*44[n] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If Dā'vid then call him Lord,[o] how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a [p]word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

99 Marks of a Pharisee (Mt. 23:1-33; Mk. 12:38; Lk. 18:9; 20:45)

THEN spake Jē'sus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-sees sit in[q] Mō'sēs' seat:

●3 All therefore [r]whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their[s] works they do for to be[a] seen of men: they make broad their[b] phylacteries, and enlarge the[c] borders of their garments,

6 And love the [d]uppermost rooms at feasts, and the[e] chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And [f]greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Răb'bī,[g] Răb'bī.

100 Warnings against Phariseeism (Mt. 5:20; 6:1-18; Lk. 18:9-14)

●8 But be not ye called Răb'bī: for one is your[h] Master, even Christ; [i]and all ye are brethren.

●9 And call no man your[j] father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

●10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your[k] Master, even Christ.

11 But he that is [l]greatest among you shall be your servant.

▸12[m] And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

101 Eight woes upon the Pharisees (Cp. Lk. 6:24-26; 11:42). (1) WOE: antagonism to God

13 ¶ But woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! for ye[o] shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

(2) WOE: oppression - hypocrisy

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites![p] for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make[q] long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the [r]greater damnation.

(3) WOE: damnation of souls

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites![s] for ye compass sea and land to make one[t] proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him[u] twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

(4) WOE: false vows

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: [v]for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and b A small square box containing a parchment or skin, about 1 1/2 x 18 in., on which were written Ex. 13:1-10; Dt. 6:4-9; 11:13-21. Worn on the arm and forehead. Worn by men only; by common people only during prayers but continually by the Pharisees who sought to enlarge the boxes so as to attract attention. Jesus did not condemn the wearing of them, but the show made of them in public. They became badges of vanity and hypocrisy and amulets to drive away evil spirits

c See note m, Mt. 9:20

d Places of honor (Mk. 12:39; Lk. 20:46)

e Seats in front of the ark, facing the congregation and reserved for the elders and doctors of the law (Mk. 12:39; Lk. 11:45)

f Loved formal salutations in public g A title of a teacher (Jn. 3:2; Lk. 9:38, note). A favorite title claimed by Pharisees (Mt. 23:7). One was made a rabbi by laying on of hands by the Sanhedrin who gave him a key as a sign of the authority conferred upon him to teach others, and a table-book as a sign of diligence in study. The key was worn as a badge of honor and was buried with him. Jews called John (Jn. 3:26) and Jesus such (Jn. 1:38, 49; 3:2; 6:25) even though they were not ordained as rabbis. Cp. Jn. 20:16

h Gr. kathegetes, leader, guide. Here and in v 10

i No one among you is higher than another, or can have from Me any authority over the rest (1 Pet. 5:1-8)

j Gr. pater, generator, nearest ancestor, founder of a race or, in this case, founder of Christianity. Members of the Sanhedrin were called fathers (Acts 7:2; 22:1), but this was not to be a practice among Christians. It is used of God 244 times and of earthly fathers 140 times. It is used of idolatrous priests (Judg. 17:10) and of Abraham, the founder of Israel and great example of faith (Rom. 4:11-18). It is also used of one who converts men to God through the gospel, so this is not the thing Jesus condemns (1 Cor. 4:15). The "fathers" of Mt. 23 were the hypocrites who lorded it over others solely because of religious position and power. Here He condemns all 3 titles that Jewish doctors greatly cherished and that fostered their hypocrisy and religious pride k See note h, above. God and Christ are jealous of these honors for they are the only ones who have any right to these titles. God is the only Father of Christians and Christ is the only leader and head of the church (Eph. 2:20-23; Col. 1:18, 24)

l See note a, Mt. 18:1

m Gr. diakonos, note d, Mt. 20:26

n Religious lordship and domination by any man has no place in Christianity (Lk. 14:11; 18:14; Pr. 16:18)

o Withhold from men the truth and teach false doctrines

s An idiom for doing all in their power to make converts, not to God, but to their own sect

t Gr. proselutos, a newcomer, a convert from a Gentile religion to Judaism (v 15; Acts 2:10; 6:5; 13:43)
Two classes of Jewish proselytes:
1 Proselytes of righteousness, who received circumcision and vowed to keep the whole law of Moses and all requirements of Judaism
2 Proselytes of the gate (Ex. 20:10; Dt. 5:14; 24:16-21), who dwelt among Israel, and although uncircumcised observed the "seven precepts of Noah" which, according to the rabbis were laws against idolatry, blasphemy, homicide, unchastity, theft or plundering, rebellion against rulers, and the use of "flesh with the blood thereof." They were called the scabs of the Jewish church. History records that they were more bitter against Christ and Christians than Jews, fulfilling this verse u Gr. gehenna. Child of gehenna means one destined to hell (note q, Jn. 17:12 and note m, Lk. 12:5)

f This is still the program of many who look at outward appearances in religion more than the inward state of the heart g Since Christ sanctioned tithing then it should be practiced. His teachings were not to confirm the law for a few days and then be abolished. They were to take the place of the law which was "until John," since then the kingdom of heaven is preached (Mt. 11:11-13; Lk. 16:16). If we do away with this doctrine sanctioned by Christ just because it was a part of the law, then we, on the same basis, can do away with more of His teachings which were part of the old contract. The only parts of the law we have a right to reject as part of the N. T. are those that are not found in the N. T. or are not made a part of it h Strain out gnats but gulp down camels

k Ten times this word is used by Christ of the blindness of religious leaders (Mt. 15:14; 23:16-26; Lk. 6:39; Jn. 9:41; Rev. 3:17). Others used it in this sense (Rom. 2:19; 11:7; 2 Cor. 3:14; 4:4; 2 Pet. 1:9). Rejecting light results in blindness (1 Jn. 1:7; 2:11; Jn. 3:19-20). Such people choose to be blind (Jn. 8:39-41; 12:40; Mt. 13:14-16). This is the worst kind of blindness making people worthy of eternal blindness (Mt. 8:12; 25:30-46)

n The way of millions today in churches whose Christianity goes no deeper than what can be seen (1 Sam. 16:7; 2 Cor. 10:7; 2 Tim. 3:5; 1 Pet. 3:3)
o Last of 8 woes for 8 sins (v 13-29):
1 Unwillingness to let common people enjoy religious freedom and pure truth (v 13)
2 Greed and pretended holiness to secure secular ends (v 14)
3 Pretended zeal to win converts to God but with no view in mind other than to make instruments to serve their own oppressions and cruelty (v 15)
4 False doctrines and interpretations of Scripture and ungodly means in escaping responsibility in vows which were made in hypocrisy (v 16-22)
5 Superstition in scrupulously attending little things, and things not commanded; and omitting things of great importance that are definitely enjoined (v 23-24)
6 Maintaining hypocrisy and pretended sainthip by outward religious show (v 25-26)
7 Deep inward depravities and abominations covered only by outward forms of religion (v 27-28)
8 Pretended concern for the holiness of the people which goes no further than whitewashing tombs and bragging about their own supposed regrets for the sins of their fathers while, at the same time, plotting every conceivable means to commit worse sins than their fathers did (v 29-30) p They were worse than their fathers for they killed the Messiah and His followers (Mt. 23:34-36)

s 36th N. T. prophecy in Mt. (23:34-39; v 34-36 are fulfilled; v 37-39 are unfulfilled). Next, 24:2
t Because they rejected greater light, killed the greatest executive of God - the Son from heaven, and stubbornly refused all offers of God's mercy confirmed by the greatest signs and wonders of all times, judgment was to fall in a greater measure than upon any other generation u This was no doubt Zacharlah the prophet (Zech. 1:1), Here we learn of his death in the temple. It could not be the one in 2 Chr. 24:20-21 who was the son of Jehoida by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

(5) WOE: outward show

●23 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, [a]hypocrites! [b]for ye pay tithe of [c]mint and [d]anise and [e]cummin, and have [f]omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these [g]ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
24 Ye blind guides, [h]which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

(6) WOE: false cleansings

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [i]for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are [j]full of extortion and excess.
26 Thou [k]blind Phăr'ĭ-see, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be [l]clean also.

(7) WOE: self-righteousness

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [m]for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
28 Even so ye also [n]outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

(8) WOE: boasting and self-conceit

29 [o]Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, [p]If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.
32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
33 [q]Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

102 Jesus predicts persecution of Christians (10:17)

✱34 ¶ Wherefore, behold, [r]I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:
35 [s]That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Ā'bĕl unto the blood of [t]Zăch-a-rī'as son of Băr-a-chī'as, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.
36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

103 Jesus weeps over Jerusalem: predicts its overthrow (Lk. 13:34; 19:41; 21:12)

37 [u]O Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, [v]and ye would not!
38 Behold, [w]your house is left unto you desolate.
▶39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, [x]till ye shall say, [y]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

24 CHAPTER 24

104 The great Olivet prophecy (Mt. 24-25; Mk. 13, Cp. Lk. 21). (1) Destruction of Jerusalem predicted (Mk. 13:1, Cp. Mt. 23:37; refs.)

AND Jĕ'sus [z]went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the [a]buildings of the temple.
✱2 And Jĕ'sus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [b]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(2) Three great questions (Mk. 13:3, Cp. Lk. 21:7)

3 ¶ And as he [c]sat upon the mount of Ŏl'ĭves, the disciples came unto him [d]privately, saying, [e]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the [f]sign of thy [g]coming, and of the end of the [h]world?

(3) Signs of the second coming of Christ: A Eight signs beginning Jewish sorrows (Mk. 13:5, Cp. Lk. 21:8; Rev. 6-9)

✱4 And Jĕ'sus [i]answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.
5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.
8 [j]All these are the beginning of [k]sorrows.

B Eight signs during the sorrows of Israel (Mk. 13:9)

9 [l]Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and [m]ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.
10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one c Referring to the nation as well as the temple (2 Sam. 7:5, 18-19). Both were destroyed and both will be restored. Israel was here officially cut off as a nation at the end of Daniel's 69th week and will not be dealt with as such until Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27)

1 Because of their sins
2 To take away all possibility of continuing Judaism

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

C 17th sign: abomination of desolation (Mk. 13:14; Dan. 9:27)

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dăn'iel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

D 18th sign: defeat of Israel by Antichrist (Mk. 13:15)

16 Then let them which be in Jū-dæ'á flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

E 19th sign: great tribulation (Mk. 13:19; Dan. 12:1; Rev. 12-19)

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

F Six signs during the great tribulation (Mk. 13:21)

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

(4) Manner and time of the second advent (Mt. 25:31; Mk. 13:24; Lk. 17:22; 21:25; 2 Th. 1:7; 2:8; Jude 14; Rev. 1:7; 19:11; Dan. 7:13; Zech. 14:1-5)

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

(5) Parable of the fig tree (Mk. 13:38; Lk. 21:29)

32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

(6) All signs of this prophecy will take place in one generation (Mk. 13:30; Lk. 21:32-33)

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

(7) Exact date of His coming unknown (Mk. 13:34; Acts 1:7)

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

(8) Christ's coming will bring destruction to many wicked (Lk. 17:22; 1 Th. 5:1; Jude 14)

37 But as the days of Nō'e were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

(9) Armageddon: some destroyed and some left alive (Lk. 17:26; 21:34; Rev. 19:21; Zech. 14:16; Ezek. 39:2)

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one a Gr. telos, the actual end of anything (v 6, 14), not sunteleia, the joining of two ages (Mt. 13:39, 40, 49; 24:3; 28:20; Heb. 9:26). Here telos means the end of life or the age as it may be b Gr. sodzo, note k, Mt. 1:21

c See note on Glad tidings, p. 270 d Gr. oikoumene, civilized world as distinguished from the heathen. Not the same as aion (v 3), or kosmos, social system (v 21)
e To nations, not every individual in every nation, for many will not hear until the Millennium (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9; 66:19-21; Zech. 8:23) f THEN - when the gospel of the kingdom is preached again as a witness to all nations. This could only refer to the original gospel, including preaching, teaching, and healing, as it began with Christ and the early church (Mt. 4:23-24; 9:35; Lk. 4:18; 1 Cor. 4:20). It could not be an announcement of the coming kingdom, for people of nations do that now and pray daily, "Thy kingdom come." This clearly teaches another great outpouring of the Spirit and a revival of the original N. T. program in all fulness (Acts 2:16-21)
g WHEN - this marks the starting point of the middle of Daniel's 70th week when the Antichrist will break his 7 years' covenant with Israel and enter Judea to take over Jerusalem as his capital and the Jewish temple as his capital building (Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 11:1-2; 12:1-17; 13:1-18). All this prophecy from v 15 on must be fulfilled the last 3 1/2 years of this age
h This refers to the Antichrist and his image in the Jewish temple at Jerusalem during the last 3 1/2 years of this age (Dan. 8:9-14; 9:27; 11:45; 12:1, 7, 11; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 20:4-6)

j Into Edom and Moab which escape the Antichrist (Rev. 12:6, 14, notes) k Let Israel flee from Judea without taking time for valuables, less they be overtaken by Antichrist's armies l It will be hard on women with children or those great with child to flee before the swiftness of the invaders m Pray that the invasion will not take place in winter as it would be difficult to flee without preparation at this time; nor on the sabbath, because orthodox Jews hold it unlawful to travel more than a mile on that day (Acts 1:12), so would be overtaken by the invaders n FOR THEN - the great tribulation of the last 3 1/2 years of this age will begin (Dan. 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7, 11; Jer. 30:4-7; Rev. 7:14; 11:1-19:21)
o Curtailed. The persecution itself will be cut short, not the 1260 days themselves (Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; Dan. 12:7) See Time in Index

m Trumpets always sounded at gatherings of Israel (Ex. 19:13-19; Lev. 25:9; 1 Sam. 13:3; 2 Sam. 2:28). This trumpet is predicted in Isa. 18:3; 27:13; Zech. 9:14. p First of 5 parables in Mt. 24-25: the fig tree, illustrating the nearness of His return (v 32-33). Last 5 in Mt.
q It is universally interpreted to mean the Jewish nation, but this could not possibly be the meaning. Just like a fig tree (Luke adds, "and all the trees," 21:29) putting forth its leaves indicates that summer is near, "SO LIKEWISE" the signs of v 4-26 indicate the nearness of Christ's coming. This is all that is meant, so to use a few fig leaves to represent certain events of Israel is just as unscriptural as to pick a few oak leaves to represent truths about Gentiles r The second advent, not the rapture, which is not once referred to in Mt. 24-25. There are no signs of the rapture for it itself is one of the greatest signs of the second advent. There are no prophecies to be fulfilled before the rapture for it could have taken place any time in the past or can take place any time in the future without any sign or prophecy coming to pass (Tit. 2:13; Phil. 3:21). All signs of the coming of Christ point to the second advent and not the rapture. There will be at least 7 years between the two events (2 Th. 2:7, note). The rapture is not the second advent, nor one phase or stage of it, for Christ does not come to the earth at that time. He meets the saints in the air and takes them back to heaven (1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; Rev. 19:1-11). The saints stay in heaven with Him for these years and then return to the earth at the second advent (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21) s The last generation living on earth at the time all these things will be fulfilled. Always used of a particular span of life and not a race of people (note i, Mt. 11:16). This proves that all these things will be fulfilled in one generation only and not in several of them

y THEN - at the second advent, not at the rapture (v 29-31; 25:31-46)

a Taken like the flood "took them all away" or destroyed them (v 39; Lk. 17:27). Did the flood rapture or destroy the people that it took away? So the second advent will not rapture, but destroy many at the battle of Armageddon to make the carcases or dead bodies that will be eaten by the fowls of v 28; Lk. 17:34-37; Ezek. 39:17-22; Rev. 19:17-21. See note b, v 28

b Not destroyed, like Noah and his family were left and not destroyed. At Armageddon many will be left to continue living on earth when Christ reigns (Zech. 14:16-21; Mt. 25:34, 46; Isa. 2:2-4; 66:19-21; Rev. 20:4-10) c In view of the coming of Christ suddenly when He is not expected, you, that will be living on earth after the rapture and at the very coming of Christ, be watchful (v 39-42)

i THEN - at the second advent at the end of the tribulation when Christ comes with His saints (v 3, 27-31, 33, 36, 39-51), not at the rapture when He comes for them (2 Th. 2:7, note). Note the connecting adverbs of time from v 15 to 28: WHEN (v 15), THEN (v 16), FOR THEN (v 21), THEN (v 23). These cover 3 1/2 years from the setting up of the abomination of desolation in the middle of Daniel's 70th week to the second advent at the end of this week. Then in v 29 we have a new time element, the second advent itself, immediately after the tribulation of v 15-28. Note the events connected with this by the same kind of adverb of time. THEN (v 30), THEN (v 40), THEN (25:1)

k 4th parable of Mt. 24-25, illustrating watchfulness in view of His coming (25:1-13)

l Ten young ladies (not Christians) who were friends of a certain girl that got married over 1900 years ago (v 1, 5-10)

m Foolish, because they did not take extra oil in separate vessels to replenish their supply in their lamps should the oil be used up (v 3-4)

n Wise, because they took extra oil in separate vessels besides what they had in their lamps (v 4)

o During the hours before midnight they all became sleepy and slept (v 5) p Jewish weddings were generally celebrated at night, starting at the rise of the evening star, but in this case there was some extra delay and the bridegroom and his friends arrived at midnight

q This was customary. Starting from the home of the bridegroom his friends began crying this and all along the route people would take up the joyous cry until it would get near enough to the home of the bride that it would wake up the sleeping ones (v 6)

r This was the duty of the ones chosen by the bride to welcome the bridegroom (v 1, 6, 10) s THEN - when they heard the cry. They all arose to trim their lamps and get them in order. They all had lamps burning when they went to sleep, but the lamps of the foolish needed more oil. The Gr. reads, "our lamps are going out" (v 8). They asked for oil from the extra that the wise had, but were sent to buy some quickly (v 9)

t Lamp oil, not the Holy Spirit, for He cannot be bought and sold or divided between people at their request. This no more refers to the Holy Spirit than "oil" in Gen. 28:18; 2 Kl. 4:1-6; Lk. 7:46; 16:6; etc.

43[e] But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

●44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

(11) Parable of the faithful servant (Lk. 12:35, 41)

45[f] Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46[g] Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites:[h] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 CHAPTER 25

(12) Parable of ten virgins

THEN[i] shall the[j] kingdom of heaven be[k] likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and[m] took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in[n] their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom[o] tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at[p] midnight there was a[q] cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; [r] go ye out to meet him.

7[s] Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your[t] oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the[u] bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to[v] the marriage: and the[w] door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you,[a] I know you not.

●13[b] Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

(13) Parable of the talents (Cp. Lk. 19:11; Mt. 16:27)

14 ¶ For the [c] kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave[d] five talents, to another[e] two, and to another[f] one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh,[g] and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

▶21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two[i] other talents beside them.

▶23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, [j] Lord, I knew thee that thou art an[k] hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not[l] strawed:

25[m] And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, [n] thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to [o] the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with[p] usury.

28[q] Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

▶29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be a This was true, for they were friends of the bride, not necessarily the bridegroom who is called "Lord" in v 11

b This is the point illustrated by this story of an oriental wedding: You people on earth in the kingdom of heaven take a lesson from these virgins and be always watchful in view of My coming. The details must not be interpreted here any more than if they were used in an illustration outside the Bible. They were necessary in order to make the story to illustrate watchfulness, but to teach various doctrines from them is unscriptural. No less than a dozen false doctrines are based upon the details of this parable

12 false doctrines

1 Two kinds of Christians
2 The oil is the Spirit baptism
3 Wise are those with this baptism
4 Foolish are those without it
5 Born again people do not have the Holy Spirit
6 Rapture will take place at midnight or middle of the tribulation
7 One has to have the Spirit baptism to go in the rapture
8 Only those baptized in the Spirit will be at the marriage of the Lamb
9 Only those baptized in the Spirit will be in the bride of Christ
10 One is not saved until he receives the Spirit baptism
11 The door of mercy will be shut to the Gentiles after the rapture
12 The bride is the church

The truth is there is only one kind of Christian, the born-again (Mt. 13:38-49; 18:3; Jn. 3:3-5; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Rom. 6:7, 18, 22; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:19-24; Eph. 4:24; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:8-10; 5:1-4, 18; Heb. 12:14)

The oil here is not the Holy Spirit (note t, v 8)

Born-again people do receive the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:5; Rom. 8:9-16), but not always the Spirit baptism, which is another experience (Lk. 11:13; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:16-17; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; 8:15-16; 19:1-6)

The rapture will not take place in the middle of the tribulation, but before it (2 Th. 2:7, note)

The Spirit baptism is for the endowment of power from on high to do the works of Jesus (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12; Acts 1:4-8), not save the soul or to qualify one for the rapture

All Christians will be at the marriage supper of the Lamb, for all will go in the rapture (1 Th. 4:16, note)

All Christians will be in the bride of Christ, which is the New Jerusalem and not the church (Rev. 21:2, 9-10). Even O. T. saints will be a part of the city (Heb. 11:10-16. Cp. Heb. 13:14; Jn. 14:1-3)

The door of mercy will never be closed to Jews or Gentiles during the tribulation or any other time. Multitudes will be saved during the tribulation (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 7:1-17; 12:17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)

(14) Judgment of the living nations at Christ's[1] second advent (Rev. 19:11; Zech. 14)

31 [c]When the Son of man shall come in his[d] glory, and all the holy[e] angels with him, then shall he sit upon the[g] throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered[h] all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his[i] sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

▸34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, [j]inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the[k] foundation of the world:

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, [m]Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these [n]my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

▸41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, [o]Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, [p]prepared for the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, [q]when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

▸46 And these shall go away into [r]everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAPTER 26

105 Jesus again foretells His death (Cp. Mt. 16:21, refs.)

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sus had [a]finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

★2 [b]Ye know that after two days is the feast of the [c]passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be[d] crucified.

106 Tenth attempt to kill Jesus (Mk. 14:1; Lk. 22:1. Cp. Mt. 2:16; 12:14; Mk. 3:6; Lk. 4:28; Jn. 5:16; 7:30, 40; 8:59; 10:31; 11:47, 53)

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the[e] palace of the high priest, who was called [f]Că'ia-phās,

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'sus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

107 Second anointing of Jesus (Mk. 14:3; Jn. 12:1. Cp. Lk. 7:36)

6 ¶ Now when Jē'sus was in Bĕth'a-nȳ, in the house of Si'mon the[g] leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an[h] alabaster box of very [i]precious ointment, [j]and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, [k]To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'sus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but [l]me ye have not always.

★12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, [m]she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

108 Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Mk. 14:10; Lk. 22:3)

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Jū'das Is-căr'i-ot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for [o]thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

109 Preparation for the passover (Mk. 14:12; Lk. 22:7)

17 ¶ Now the [p]first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'sus, saying unto him, [q]Where wilt thou that we [r]prepare for thee to eat the passover?

l Questions 146–150, Next, v 44
m The reason and basis of the judgment of the nations. God will curse or bless according to how men have dealt with Israel. He will forever respect and fulfill the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1–3) n The brethren of Jesus according to the flesh (Mt. 10:6; Jn. 1:11; Rom. 9:5)
o Some will be sent to the lake of fire and eternal punishment (v 41, 46; 13:39–50; 24:51; Rev. 14:9–11; 19:20; 20:10). These will make the first-fruits of the second resurrection, which is that of all the wicked dead (Rev. 20:4–6, 11–15). Due to their judgment and entrance into eternal hell here, they will not be resurrected and judged again in Rev. 20:11–15 p Hell was prepared for Satan and his angels and no man needs to go there (Jn. 3:16–20). If he persists in serving Satan then he will have to spend eternity with him (v 41, 46)
q Question 151, Next, 26:8
r Gr. aionios, eternal. It is translated everlasting and eternal of 20 things:
1 God (Rom. 1:20; 16:26)
2 The Holy Spirit (Heb. 9:14)
3 Life (43 times, Mt. 19:16, 29; 25:46; Jn. 3:16, 36; Rom. 6:22)
4 Salvation (Heb. 5:9)
5 Redemption (Heb. 9:12)

8 Covenant (Heb. 13:20)
9 Kingdom (2 Pet. 1:11)
10 Honor and power (1 Tim. 6:16)
11 Consolation (2 Th. 2:16)
12 Glory (2 Th. 1:10; 1 Pet. 5:10)
13 Resurrected bodies (2 Cor. 5:1)
14 Things not seen (2 Cor. 4:18)
15 Habitations (Lk. 16:9)
16 Destruction (2 Th. 1:9)

18 Damnation (Mk. 3:29)
19 Fire (Mt. 18:8; 25:41; Jude 7)

The same Gr. word is translated everlasting and eternal in this same verse and is used equally of the eternity of the punishment of the wicked as of the life of the righteous, so if one is eternal the other one is also everlasting

2 Crucifixion of followers of Jesus (Mt. 23:34; Jn. 21:18)

l The doctrine of the wafer being the very flesh or body of Christ with us is contradicted by Jesus here. We have such wafers always, but we do not have Christ's body with us because He is in heaven and will not come again until the end of the age (Mt. 24:29–31; Rev. 19:11–21; Jude 14; Zech. 14:1–21). Such emblems merely represent His broken body and shed blood. One declared to be only "bread" in Acts 2:42, 46; 20:7, 11; 1 Cor. 10:16–17; 11:23–28

r Preparation for the passover (v 18–19). Peter and John, who represented the company of disciples, went, as was customary, to the temple with the paschal lamb. There, taking turns with others who thronged the temple on the same errand, they killed the lamb, the nearest priest catching the blood in a gold or silver bowl, and passing it next in the row of priests until it reached the one nearest the altar, who instantly sprinkled it toward the altar's base. The lamb was then flayed and the entrails removed, to be burnt with incense on the altar. This was done in the afternoon. When evening came the lamb was roasted with great care. Unleavened bread, wine, bitter herbs, and sauce were also provided for the supper a Nothing is more clear than the fact that Christ did eat the passover. These statements are proof:

1 First day of the feast (v 17)
2 Where shall we prepare it? (v 17)
3 I will keep the passover (v 18)
4 They made ready the passover (v 19)
5 They sat down - did eat (v 20-21)
6 As they were eating (v 26)
7 I desire to eat this passover with you before I suffer (Lk. 22:15)
8 I will not eat again of it until in the kingdom of God (Lk. 22:16)
9 The supper being ended (Jn. 13:2)
10 He riseth from supper (Jn. 13:4)

Why all these statements if He did not eat of the passover? Just because it was a few hours before the regular time for the passover is no proof that He did not eat of it (Jn. 18:28). Was it unlawful if the Lord of creation wanted to eat the passover a few hours before the others, so that He could actually become their passover at the regular time the Jews ate of it? The passover could be eaten in Israel a month after the proper time, so could it not be eaten by Christ a few hours earlier if it was better for Him to do this than not at all (2 Chr. 30:2-5)?

b Israelites coming to the feast at Jerusalem were received by the inhabitants as brothers, and apartments were provided free for them to eat the passover. In return the hosts were given the skins of the lambs and the vessels used in the ceremonies

c Peter and John represented the apostolic band and took a lamb to the temple to be killed (Lk. 22:9). The priest caught the blood and passed it to the one nearest the altar who instantly sprinkled it toward the base of the altar. All this was done about 3:00 p. m. The lamb was then roasted and with unleavened bread, wine, and bitter herbs the feast was eaten (Ex. 12:8)

d There was no law that it had to be eaten standing, for that would be without purpose after entering Canaan. Jews now reclined on couches to eat the passover to show that they were no longer slaves, but free and at rest

e The usual custom was that a cup was filled with wine for every one. A blessing was pronounced, after which the wine was drunk. Then unleavened bread, bitter herbs, and the lamb were brought in. Thanksgiving was offered for the many blessings of life and the food handed around to each guest. A second cup of wine was drunk, after which an explanation of the feast was given with Ex. 12:26-27. The company then sang Ps. 113 and 114, followed by another blessing. Then the food was eaten. After this a third cup of wine was drunk and Ps. 115 and 118 were sung. This is what is referred to in v 30; Mk. 14:26 k This represents My body. The bread was broken, indicating His broken body which was so marred by stripes and beatings that it did not look like a son of man (Isa. 52:14). The bread was unleavened. No leaven was to be found in all the dwellings, signifying no evil in or sin in the Son of God (note d, Mt. 13:33)

l This represents My blood. The wine was "the fruit of the vine" and should not be substituted by water, intoxicants, or anything else (v 29). If any scripture is worth obeying, then it should be obeyed to the letter. No covenant was made without blood (Ex. 24:8; Heb. 9:20), and there can be no remission of sins without it (Heb. 9:22; Lev. 17:11). Christ's own blood atoned for sin and it alone can redeem if accepted for personal atonement and proper terms are met (v 28; Mk. 14:24; Lk. 22:20; Jn. 6:53-56; 19:34; Acts unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; [a]I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the [c]disciples did as Jē'şus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

110 The last passover (Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:14; Jn. 13)
(1) Betrayal foretold

20 Now when the even was come, he [d]sat down with the twelve.

★21 And as they did [e]eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that [f]one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, [g]Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man [h]goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! [i]it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Jū'das, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

(2) Lord's supper instituted (Mk. 14:22; Lk. 22:19; 1 Cor. 11:23)

★26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jē'şus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, [j]Take, eat; [k]this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 [l]For this is my blood of the "new" testament, which is shed for many "for the remission of sins.

▸29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [p]until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Ŏl'ĭvēş.

(3) Jesus foretells Peter's denial (Mk. 14:27; Lk. 22:31; Jn. 13:36)

★31 Then saith Jē'şus unto them, [q]All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [r]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Găl'ĭlee.

33 Pē'tēr answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

★34 Jē'şus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, [s]That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Pē'tēr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

V The sufferings of Christ:

1 Agony in the garden (Mk. 14:32; Lk. 22:39; Jn. 18:1)

36 ¶ Then cometh Jē'şus with them unto a place called [a]Gĕth-sĕm'a-nē, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took [b]with him Pē'tēr and the two sons of Zĕb'e-dee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this [c]cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Pē'tēr, What, [d]could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: [e]the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed [f]the third time, saying the same words.

★45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: [g]behold, [h]the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

2 Eleventh attempt to kill Jesus: betrayal and arrest (Mk. 14:43; Lk. 22:47; Jn. 18:2)

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Jū'das, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and [i]staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jē'şus, and said, [j]Hail, master; and [k]kissed him.

50 And Jē'şus said unto him, [l]Friend, [m]wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jē'şus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [n]one of them which were with Jē'şus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jē'şus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

a A garden just across the Kidron (a valley) from Jerusalem, about 200 yards from the city wall (Jn. 18:1). Gethsemane means "the oil press." It was a favorite place of retirement when Christ was at Jerusalem (Lk. 22:39; Jn. 18:2). It perhaps belonged to Joseph, Nicodemus or another follower living in Jerusalem (Jn. 19:38-39)

b They had witnessed His transfiguration (Mt. 17:1-8) and now they witnessed His agony in the garden (Lk. 22:44, 53)

c The idea here seems to be that the devil tried to kill Christ before He could get to the cross, but God heard His prayer and saved Him from death (Heb. 5:7; Lk. 22:43-44). If Satan could have succeeded in killing Christ anytime from infancy to the cross he could have defeated God's plan of redemption. Christ had to get to the cross where He spoiled satanic powers and triumphed over them (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24). V 42 could also refer to His cup of death on the cross 71 And when he was gone out into the [a]porch, another [b]maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do [c]not know the man.
73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pē'tēr, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech [d]bewrayeth thee.
74 Then began he to [e]curse and to [f]swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the [g]cock crew.
75 And Pē'tēr remembered the word of Jē'şus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

5 And he [p]cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and [q]hanged himself.
6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, [r]It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.
7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

q Pilate was of a mind to let Him go, but the pressure was too great for his weak character r This was a custom to show innocence in any particular matter (Dt. 21:1–10; Ps. 26:6). Pilate had the armed men to prevent His death but he did not use them, so he was inexcusable s The Jews quickly assumed full responsibility for His death. We accept the punishment due for such a crime; let it be upon us and upon our children. They were visited with the same kind of punishment and worse, for the Romans crucified them in such numbers that there were no more crosses or place for them (notes, Lk. 21:20–24). As many as 500 a day were scourged and crucified. Their children for ages have gone through untold sufferings in all lands. They are yet to suffer the greatest time of tribulation that has ever been on earth or ever will be (Mt. 24:15–22; Rev. 6:1–19:21; Dan. 11: 40–45; 12:1; Jer. 30:3–9; Ezek. 20: 33–38; Zech. 13:9; 14:1–5) t A scourge was a Roman implement for severe bodily punishment. It consisted of a handle with about a dozen leather cords with jagged pieces of bone or metal at each end to make the blow more painful and effective. The victim was tied to a post and the blows were applied to the bare back and loins and sometimes to the face and bowels. The flesh was cut in several places by each blow. So hideous was the punishment that the victim often fainted and some died under it. It was designed to get confessions and secrets from its victims, but what could they get from an innocent sinless one (Acts 22:24–25)? Flogging was permitted by the law up to 40 stripes (Dt. 25:3). Jews reduced this to 39 stripes (2 Cor. 11:23–25). If the scourge used on Jesus had 12 thongs and He was hit even 39 times this would make 468 stripes. If some struck in the same place and cut deeper each time one can see how His body, because of the intense hatred back of each blow, was marred more than any other man's (Isa. 52:14)

Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he[a] answered nothing.

13 Then said Pi'late unto him, [b]Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly

8 Jesus condemned: Barabbas released (Mk. 15:7; Lk. 23:13; Jn. 18:39)

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to[c] release unto the people a prisoner, [d]whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Bâ-răb'bas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pi'late said unto them, [e]Whom will ye that I release unto you? Bâ-răb'bas, or Jē'şus which is [f]called Christ?

18 [g]For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, [h]his wife sent unto him, saying, [i]Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in [k]a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders [l]persuaded the multitude that they should ask Bâ-răb'bas, and destroy Jē'şus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, [m]Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They [n]said, Bâ-răb'bas.

22 Pi'late saith unto them, [o]What shall I do then with Jē'şus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, [p]Why what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pi'late [q]saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and [r]washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [s]His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Bâ-răb'bas unto them: and when he had [t]scourged Jē'şus, he delivered him to be crucified.

9 Jesus crowned with thorns is led away to crucifixion (Mk. 15:16; Jn. 19:1)

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'şus into [u]the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole [v]band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a[w] scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a[x] crown of[y] thorns, they put it upon his head, and a[z] reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they [a]spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to [b]crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of [c]Çỹ-rē'nê, Si'mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

10 The crucifixion (Mk. 15:22; Lk. 23:32; Jn. 19:16)

33 And when they were come unto a place called [d]Gŏl'gō-thá, that is to say, a place of a skull,

*34 ¶ They [e]gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

*35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [f]They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down [g]they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, [h]THIS IS JĒ'SUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there [i]two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, [j]Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the [k]chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; [l]himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Is'ra-el, [m]let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

*43 [n]He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

11 The death of Jesus (Mk. 15:33; Lk. 23:44; Jn. 19:28)

45 Now from the [o]sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

*46 And about the ninth hour Jē'şus cried with a loud voice, saying, [p]Ē'lī, Ē'lī, lā'mā sā-băch'tha-nī? [q]that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Ē-li'as.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-li'as will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jē'şus, when he had cried [r]again with a[s] loud voice, b Death by crucifixion was one of the most cruel and shameful deaths that could be devised. It is supposed to have been invented by Semiramis, queen of Nimrod, who founded the Babylonian system of mysteries. See Rev. 17:5. It was a Roman practice inflicted only upon slaves and the worst criminals. The person was nailed to the cross, each hand extended to the utmost stretch. The feet were nailed together, and then the cross was lifted and dropped into the hole with a violent thud which disjointed the whole body. The weight of the body hung on nails through the hands and feet. A victim was left on the cross until he died of pain and untold sufferings

The rending of the veil signified that the middle wall of partition between Jews and Gentiles was broken down (Eph. 2:14-18) and that each believer now could have personal access to God (Heb. 9:8; 10:19-23; Eph. 2:14-18)

62 ¶ Now the[m] next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees came together unto Pī'late,

*63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, [n]After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pī'late said unto them, Ye have a[o] watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and[p] made the sepulchre sure, [q]sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28 — 28

VI Post-resurrection ministry of Jesus: 1 Angelic testimony to the resurrection (Mk. 16:1; Lk. 24:1; Acts 1:11)

IN the[r] end of the[s] sabbath, as it [t]began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē and the other Mā'rў to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, [a]there was [b]a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord [c]descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was [d]like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him[e] the keepers did [f]shake, and [g]became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jē'sus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: [h]for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And [i]go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

2 Testimony of women to the resurrection (Mk. 16:8; Lk. 24:8; Jn. 20:11)

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jē'sus met them, saying, [j]All hail. And they came and [k]held him by the feet, and [l]worshipped him.

10 Then said Jē'sus unto them, Be not afraid: [m] go tell my brethren that they go into Găl'ĭ-lee, and there shall they see me.

3 Testimony of the soldiers to the resurrection of Jesus

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

4 Plot to destroy faith in the resurrection of Jesus

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave [n] large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, [o]Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

5 Testimony of the disciples to the resurrection of Jesus (Mk. 16:12; Lk. 24:13; Jn. 20-21)

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Găl'ĭ-lee, into a mountain where Jē'sus had appointed them.

17 And when they[p] saw him, they worshipped him: but [q]some doubted.

6 The great commission:

a Sometime between sunset Saturday and dawn Sunday, this took place. The resurrection had already happened by the time the women arrived at the tomb before daylight (Mk. 16:4; Lk. 24:2; Jn. 20:1). It is certain that it took place on the first day of the week after the regular weekly sabbath (Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:2, 9; Lk. 24:1; Jn. 20:1, 19) and 3 days and 3 nights after the crucifixion (Mt. 12:40)

n How much is not stated, but they had to pay from 12 to 72 men, depending on how many were used in the change of guard every 3 hours for 3 days. It was many times more than what they paid for the betrayal. That is just like sin. One has to commit much more sin trying to cover up than what he commits in the first sin. Even then, sin is never fully covered by man. It will always be found out. But sin can be forgiven, covered, cleansed, and forsaken by a sinner's confession and faith in the blood of Christ (1 Jn. 1:7-9; Eph. 1:7; Rev. 1:5) o 7 points proving their story absurd:
1 That so many guards under a death penalty would all fall asleep
2 That they could remain asleep during the moving of a big stone and body
3 That several disciples needed to move such a stone and body could be quiet enough not to rouse a single guard
4 That disciples could accomplish this in secret working among soldiers stationed at the very door of the tomb
5 That if the guards were all asleep they could know who took the body
6 That their word was contradicted by hundreds of godly men who were eye-witnesses and would not lie or be bribed like pagan soldiers
7 That the miraculous events from the day of Pentecost on confirmed the truth of Christ's resurrection

b The Father gave all power to the Son after He achieved redemption. It had been His equally with the Father and Holy Spirit before becoming man, but He had become limited while being a man (Lk. 2:40, 52; Phil. 2:7; Jn. 8:28, note). Now His glory is restored (v 18; Jn. 17:5; Eph. 1:20-23; Col. 1:15-18)

that we baptize in the name of, or by the authority of all three persons

c Some argue that these are not names, but the dictionary says that the word name is "any word" or "title" by which any person or thing is known. This is not just any Father, any Son, or any Holy Ghost, but it is "the Father" of Jesus Christ, and "the Son" of the Father, and "the Holy Ghost," the third person of the Divine Trinity. Any Bible reader would know who these three persons are if mentioned by these names in any scripture

d This states what we are to teach all nations to the end of this age - ALL THINGS whatsoever I have commanded you. No man or no church has a right to qua...fy or limit, or to add to or take from any of the original teachings and practices of Christ and the apostles. This means that every jot and tittle of the N. T. from Mt. 1:1 to Rev. 22:21 is the contract we are now under and all of it must be taught and practiced by Christians

e Gr. aion, age, not the end of the earth or man, proving that the gospel program, as originally started, was to continue until Christ comes again

8 orig. words for "repent" (4:17):

1 Heb. nacham, to sigh, breathe strongly, to be sorry (Gen. 6:6; Ex. 13:17; Job 42:6; Jonah 3:10)
2 Heb. shuwb, to turn back (1 Kl. 8:47; Ezek. 14:6)
3 Heb. nocham, regret (Hos. 13:14)
4 Heb. nichum, compassion (Hos. 11:8)
5 Gr. metanoeo, to change the mind for the better morally, to change the attitude toward sin (note c, Lk. 13:3)
6 Gr. metameleomai, to regret consequences of sin, not the cause (Mt. 27:3; 2 Cor. 7:8)
7 Gr. metanoia, a real change of mind and attitude toward sin and its cause, not merely the consequences of it (Mt. 3:8, 11; 9:13; Lk. 24:47)
8 Gr. ametameletos, irrevocable (Rom. 11:29; 2 Cor. 7:10)

18 facts about God in Mt. 5-7: (6:7)

1 Can and will be seen (5:8)
2 Loves peacemakers (5:9)
3 Dwells in heaven (5:16, 34-48; 6:9)
4 Is glorified by good works (5:16)
5 Blesses the just and unjust (5:45)
6 Is perfect (5:48)
7 Rewards obedience (6:1-6, 18)
8 Is omniscient (6:4, 6, 8, 18, 32)
9 Forgives all sins (6:12-15)
10 Is Father to all who obey (5:44-48; 6:4, 6, 8-15, 33; 7:7-11, 13-23)
11 Hates hypocrisy (6:1-8, 16-18; 7:1-5)
12 Hears all prayers (6:6, 33; 7:7-11)
13 Has a kingdom to set up and a will to be done on earth (6:10, 33)
14 His providence is over all (6:11-25)
15 Delivers from evil (6:13, 33; 7:11)
16 Accepts wholehearted service (6:24)
17 Is an infinite Father (7:7-11)
18 Will judge all (7:21-23)

23 elements in the Lord's prayer (6:9)

1 Relationship: Our Father
2 Recognition: which art in heaven
3 Adoration: Hallowed be thy name
4 Anticipation: Thy kingdom come
5 Consecration: Thy will be done
6 Universality: in earth
7 Conformity: as it is in heaven
8 Supplication: Give us
9 Definiteness: this day
10 Necessity: our daily bread
11 Penitence: And forgive us
12 Obligation: our debts
13 Forgiveness: as we forgive
14 Love and mercy: our debtors
15 Guidance: And lead us
16 Protection: not into temptation
17 Salvation: but deliver us
18 Righteousness: from evil
19 Faith: For thine is the kingdom
20 Humility: and the power
21 Reverence: and the glory
22 Timelessness: for ever
23 Affirmation: Amen

Note: first 3 petitions of the prayer make 7 points concerning God; the last 4 petitions make 16 points concerning man

4 "till's" of great events (16:28):

1 Till the second advent (10:23)
2 Till the transfiguration (16:28)
3 Till Israel's conversion (23:39)
4 Till all signs of Christ's second advent are fulfilled (24:34)

14 living things (16:16):

1 God, It is used 32 times; 15 in the O. T. and 17 in the N. T. (Dt. 5:26; Dan. 6:20, 26; Mt. 16:16; etc.)
2 Christ (Heb. 7:25; Rev. 1:18)
3 Word (1 Pet. 1:23)
4 Creatures (animals, Gen. 1:21-28; 2:19)
5 Creatures (cherubim, Ezek. 1)
6 Soul (Gen. 2:7; 1 Cor. 15:45)
7 Substance (Gen. 7:4, 23)
8 Bread (Jn. 6:51)
9 Sacrifice (Rom. 12:1-2)
10 Way (Heb. 10:20. Cp. Jn. 14:6)
11 Stones (1 Pet. 2:4-5)
12 Fountains (Rev. 7:17)
13 Hope (1 Pet. 1:3)
14 Waters (Jn. 4:10-11; 7:37-39)

Binding (16:19)

1 Men with chains (Mt. 12:29; 14:3; 22:13; Mk. 5:3; Acts 9:2, 14, 21)
2 Tares in bundles (Mt. 13:30)
3 Men by Satan's power (Lk. 13:16)
4 Men with obligations (Acts 20:22)
5 Men in marriage bonds (Rom. 7:2; 1 Cor. 7:27, 39)
6 Satan and angels in chains (Rev. 9:14; 20:2)
7 Animals in chains (Mt. 21:2)
8 Men by God's power (Mt. 16:16; 18:18)

Loosing (16:19)

1 Infirmities (Lk. 13:12-16; Mk. 7:35)
2 Satan and angels from chains (Rev. 9:14; 20:3, 7)
3 Men from chains and prison (Acts 16:26; 22:30; 24:26)
4 Men from sin (Rev. 1:5)
5 Men from bonds of death (Acts 2:24)
6 Marriage bonds (1 Cor. 7:27)
7 Satanic powers (1 Jn. 3:8)
8 Animals (Mk. 11:2-4)
9 Earth from bondage and the curse (2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rom. 8:21)
10 Men by God's power (Mt. 16:16; 18:18). One can see from these examples of binding and loosing that it means more than declaring something lawful or unlawful by preaching. It also means to confirm the truth by power as Christ and the apostles did. See Mt. 18:18, refs.

21 characteristics of hypocrites (23:2)

1 Demand respect as teachers (v 2)
2 Teach, but do not practice (v 3)
3 Demand service; not give it (v 4)
4 Seek praise of men (v 5)
5 Parade their religion (v 5)
6 Seek chief banquet places (v 6)
7 Seek chief places in church (v 6)
8 Glory in personal attention (v 7)
9 Glory in titles (v 7)
10 Rob men of truth and life (v 13)
11 Reject truth and life (v 13)
12 Take advantage of widows (v 14)
13 Exhibit long prayers (v 14)
14 Are zealous to win men to their sect, but not to God (v 15)
15 Root and ground converts in hypocrisy, not in God (v 15)
16 Profess to be the only guide in religion, but are blind to truth and practical Christianity (v 16-22)
17 Propagate those parts of religion from which they receive most personal gain and honor (v 16-22)
18 Strain at gnats and swallow camels; stress minor details and omit the fundamentals of religion (v 23-24)
19 Glory in bodily cleanliness, but live in moral filth (v 25-26)
20 Exhibit outward religion and self-righteousness and ignore inward holiness in life and conduct (v 2, 7-28)
21 Pretend to be more righteous than their forefathers (v 29-33)

Parousia - coming (24:3)

Gr. parousia, personal visible presence or appearing. Two appearances:

1 Rapture - personal coming in the air, not to the earth, for the saints (1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-17; 5:23; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 2 Th. 2:1, 7-8; Jas. 5:7-8; 1 Jn. 2:28; Jn. 14:1-3)

2 Second advent to earth with His saints to reign (Mt. 24:3, 27-51; 25:31-46; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14:1-5)

Pass away (24:35)

Gr. parerchomai, to change from one condition or state to another; pass away, as a person passes away in death, or as old things pass away at the new birth (2 Cor. 5:17). It never means annihilation, but a change only. The heavens and earth are eternal (Ps. 72:5-17; 89:3-37; 104:5; Eccl. 1:4) and cannot pass out of existence. They will be "changed" (Heb. 1:10-12; 12:25-28; Rom. 8:21-23), be renovated by fire (2 Pet. 3:5-13), and be renewed (Rev. 21:1), but never pass out of existence. They will be changed but "My words will not be changed"

Summary of Saint Matthew

Date and place: written in Judea, traditionally, 37 A.D.
Author: Matthew, called Levi, son of Alphaeus and brother of James (note n, Lk. 6:16). A publican and one of the 12 apostles (Mt. 9:9; 10:3; Mk. 2:14-15; 3:18; Lk. 5:27-29; 6:12-16; Acts 1:13). He is supposed to have preached in Judea for 15 years, going to Ethiopia and other lands afterward (Acts 2:43). He did not suffer martyrdom
Theme: Jesus Christ is Jehovah's King of the Jews and Saviour of the World. It is peculiarly the gospel to Israel 31 sections not in the other gospels:
1 4 events in infancy: visit of wise men (2:1-15); massacre (2:16-18); flight into Egypt (2:19-22); return (2:23)
2 10 parables: tares (13:24-30); hidden treasure (13:44); the pearl (13:45); the drag-net (13:47); unmerciful servant (18:23-35); laborers (20:1-16); two sons (21:28-32); marriage feast (22:1-14); 10 virgins (25:1-13); the talents (25:14-30)
3 2 miracles: 17:24-27; 20:30-34
4 9 discourses: 5:1-7:29; 11:28-30; 12:36-37; 16:17-19; 18:15-35; 21:43; 23:1-33; 24:1-25:46; 28:18-20
5 6 events of His passion: 27:3-11, 19, 52-53, 62-64, 65-66; 28:2
Statistics: 40th book of the Bible; 28 chapters; 1,071 verses; 23,684 words; 177 questions; 25 O.T. prophecies; 47 new prophecies; 815 verses of history; 256 verses of prophecy - 164 unfulfilled and 92 fulfilled

17 ¶ Go ye[a] therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them[b] in the name of the[c] Father, and of the Son, and of the Hó'lў Ghŏst:
20 Teaching them[d] to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the[e] world. Ā-mĕn'.

18 And Jē'sus came and spake unto them, saying, [a]All power is [b]given unto me in heaven and in earth.

a In view of My authority, I commission you with full power of attorney to carry on the work that I have started (note h, Jn. 16:23)

Great commission 4fold:

1 Go. This applies to all believers, not only preachers. The invitation to salvation is for all alike, so why should not the responsibility of getting the invitation to others be for all alike? We have the same rights, privileges, promises, and provision for equipment for service, so all should help in every possible way to evangelize the world according to our ability and direction from God. There is no excuse for millions of church members leaving this work to a few only who seek to obey the great commission
2 Teach (Gr. matheteuo, to make disciples, enroll as a learner or pupil). Used only here and in 13:52; 27:57; Acts 14:21. Not the ordinary word for teaching, as in point 4 below
3 Baptize all disciples. See note n, Mt. 3:6 and note a, Acts 8:38
4 Teaching (Gr. didasko, give instruction). It is trans. teach, 91 times. The idea here is more that of instructing than of enrolling disciples to be taught

b This means "by the authority of." Here it means by the authority of all three persons and not by the authority of Jesus only. He is the one authorizing us to recognize the others as well as Himself

This will help us to understand Acts 2:38; 8:16; 10:48; 19:5. It is by the authority of Jesus Christ that we baptize at all, and it is by His authority

Date-setting valueless (24:36)

The exact time of the second advent is unknown to men and angels and even Jesus (Mk. 13:32). God only knows (Acts 1:7). So all date-setting of men who think they know more than they can know is valueless. See p. 227

Pre-millennial coming (24:38)

Sin continued up to the very day Noah entered the ark, so sin will continue up to the day of the second coming of Christ. Hence, there is no room for a Millennium of righteousness before Christ's coming. In fact, Christ must come before the Millennium begins (Rev. 19:11-20:10) and sin will continue in the Millennium (Isa. 65:20-25; Rev. 20:7-10; Eph. 1:10). The purpose of the Millennium is to put down all sin and rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28)

Rapture or destruction? (24:39)

Destroyed them all (Lk. 17:27), that is, the ones that needed to be destroyed and saved Noah and family, so Christ will destroy some at His coming and leave some to replenish the earth in the Millennium (Zech. 14:16-21; Isa. 2:2-4; 66:19-21; Rev. 20)

The slothful servant (25:28)

Here we have the truth illustrated by this parable (v 28-30)

The slothful servant was:

1 Ungrateful (v 18)
2 Erroneous in reasoning (v 18, 24)
3 Unjust (v 18)
4 Fault-finding; accusing (v 24)
5 Self-justifying (v 24)
6 Fearful (v 25)
7 Wicked (v 26)

His punishment:

1 Rebuked (v 26)
2 Judged out of his own mouth (v 26)
3 Judged for failure of trust (v 27)
4 Stripped of his talent (v 28-29)
5 Cut off and banished forever from his master (v 30; note n, 13:42)

Crown of thorns (27:29)

Gr. akantha, a thorn (Mt. 7:16; 13:22; 27:29; Mk. 4:7; 4:18; Lk. 6:44; 8:14; Jn. 19:2; Heb. 6:8). It is impossible to tell which species was used, but any of them would be bad enough to wear on the head. See also Judg. 8:7, 16; Pr. 15:19; Ps. 58:9; Eccl. 7:6; Isa. 7:23-25; Hos. 2:6; 9:6; 10:8; Mic. 7:4

SAINT MARK

History of Jesus Christ - Apostles - New Covenant - Christianity - Sermons - Promises - Prophecies
The Gospel of Jehovah's Servant -Christ is Presented as a Lowly Servant -"Behold My Servant" (Isa. 42: 1)

I Ministry of John the Baptist (Mt. 3: Lk. 3; Jn. 1:6-34; 3:23; Isa. 40:3; Mal. 3:1)

1 THE [a]beginning of the [b]gospel of Jē'şus Christ, the [c]Son of God;

★2 As it is written in the prophets, [d]Behold, I send my [e]messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

★3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 Jŏhn did [f]baptize in the wilderness, and [g]preach the baptism of repentance [h]for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him [i]all the land of Jū-dæ'ā, and they of Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jôr'dan, [j]confessing their sins.

6 And [l]John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; [m]and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

★7 And preached, saying, [n]There cometh one mightier than I after me, the [o]latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

▶8 I indeed have baptized you [p]with water: but he shall baptize you with the Hō'lў Ghŏst.

II Final preparation of Jesus for His ministry (Mt. 3:13; Lk. 3:21. Cp. Lk. 2:38)

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jē'şus came from Năz'a-rĕth of Gă'lĭ-lee, and was baptized of Jŏhn in Jôr'dan.

10 And [q]straightway [r]coming up out of the water, [s]he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

■11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [t]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Să'tan; and was with [u]the wild beasts; and the [v]angels ministered unto him.

III Ministry and teaching of Jesus (Mt. 4:12; Lk. 4:14; Jn. 1:35). 1 Jesus begins His ministry in Galilee (Mt. 4:12; Lk. 4:14)

14 Now after that Jŏhn was put in [w]prison, Jē'şus came into Gă'lĭ-lee, [x]preaching the [b]gospel of the [y]kingdom of God, ●15 And saying, [z]The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: [a]repent ye, and [b]believe the gospel.

2 Call of Peter and Andrew (Mt. 4:18; Lk. 5:8)

16 [c]Now as he walked by the sea of Gă'lĭ-lee, he saw Sī'mon and Ăn'drew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

▶17 And Jē'şus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And [b]straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

3 Call of James and John (Mt. 4:21; Lk. 5:10)

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmes the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zĕb'e-dee in the ship with the hired [c]servants, and went after him.

4 Christ makes Capernaum His headquarters (Mt. 4:13; Lk. 4:31)

21 And they went into [d]Cā-pēr'na-ŭm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the [e]synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had [f]authority, and not as the [g]scribes.

5 Jesus casts out an unclean spirit (Lk. 4:33)

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an [h]unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, [i]Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I [j]know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jē'şus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had [k]torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, [l]What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and [m]they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Gă'lĭ-lee.

6 Peter's mother-in-law healed (Mt. 8:14; Lk. 4:38)

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into [n]the house of Sī'mon and Ăn'drew, with Jāmes and Jŏhn.

30 But Sī'mon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and [o]anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left a John's preaching was the beginning of the gospel. "The law prophesied until John... since that time the kingdom of God is preached" (Mt. 11:12-13; Lk. 16:16). All that John preached is part of the gospel we are to preach (note g, Mt. 3:1) b Good news (Glad tidings, p. 270). The object is to emphasize the gospel itself, not so much the many events leading up to it. He does not mention the birth or genealogy of Christ and many other events about John and Jesus, as in Mt. 1-3; Lk. 1-3. Such events would be out of harmony with the purpose of his gospel, which is to present Jesus as a servant of God. Genealogies of servants are never given k This is required before God can forgive (1 Jn. 1:9; Lk. 13:1-5; Rom. 10:9-10). This with faith in the blood of Christ will produce remission of sins (Rom. 3:24-25; Eph. 1:7). Men are to repent and then be baptized. Repentance prepares the soul for remission; baptism is the pledge and figure of it (1 Pet. 3:21)

j Demons knew Jesus and recognized His authority (Acts 19:15). l Questions 3-4. Next, 2:7

m They always obey those that have power over them. When men claim this power and it does not work it is proof that they do not have power (Acts 19:13-16). This case is also proof that it is not necessary for unbelievers to be absent in order for God's power to work. When men claim that opposition present hinders God's power it is an excuse for their powerlessness n Proving they lived in the same house

o Immediately, straightway, note b, Mk. 3:6. See notes on Mt. 8:14-15 a An additional detail to Mt. 8:16. The sabbath was now past so it was not such a sin to be healed, as they thought in Mk. 3:2; Lk. 6:7; 13:10-16; Jn. 5:9-18; 9:14, 16 b He healed all that were sick, which were "many" (Mt. 8:16). He never made a failure (note b, Mt. 13:58). Here we have proof that one may be demon possessed and not diseased

c See note j, 1:24
d A divine supplement to Mt. 8:17. This was no doubt a habit with Him (Mt. 14:23; Mk. 1:35; 6:46; Lk. 6:12; 9:28; 11:1)
e What a contrast between Him and His modern followers who constantly seek crowds to fill their churches
f See note s, Lk. 5:32
g Few, if any, doubt the ability of God, but many doubt the willingness and love of God to do all things for His children today. The reason Christ healed this man and all others was because it was the will of God. He did nothing that was not the will of God (note r, Jn. 8:28)
h An additional detail to Mt. 8:3. See note j, Mt. 9:36
i See note h, Mt. 8:3
j God never did say "No" to any child of His who came to Him in faith and who asked according to the promises, and He never will. Every case of unanswered prayer in Scripture was one which could not be granted for reasons always given. It was something which did not concern anything God had promised or could have done and be just k What could cleanse a man of such disease in a moment aside from God's power? If God can and will do this for a stranger will He not do this for a child?
See note k, Mt. 8:4. It was unlawful to touch any unclean person as it made the one touching also unclean (Lev. 5:1-14; 15:5-27). There is no record of Christ going through ceremonial cleansings every time He touched sick people. This would be an impossibility, for it took a day to become clean (Lev. 15:5-27). In this case, if He healed people every day He would be going through ceremonial cleansing all the time. In many things Christ set aside the law, proving that He considered it a dead thing and ready to be abolished (Rom. 10:4; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; 2 Cor. 3:6-15)
m Lev. 14:1-32
n Moses is mentioned 8 times in Mark (1:44; 7:10; 9:3-4; 10:3-4; 12:19, 26)
o Proclaim or preach, as in v 4, 7, 14, 38, 39. This verse is additional to Mt. 8:4. Even though it was a good thing for him to tell people, it was in disobedience to Christ. Cp. 1 Sam. 15:22-23 p This will again be normal in the life of anyone who does the works of Christ (Jn. 14:12) q Kept coming to Him for days (2:1) r Many days He could not enter the city openly because of the crowds demanding healing (1:45). It seems that He desired to enter on this occasion to get rest, but there was no rest (2:1-12) s In Peter's house where He made headquarters at Capernaum (Mt. 4:13; 8:13; Mk. 1:29)
t "Many" blessings of Christ's ministry:
1 Cast out many devils (Mt. 8:16; Mk. 1:34) 58)
2 Did many mighty works (Mt. 13:
3 As many as touched Him were healed (Mt. 14:36; Mk. 3:10; 6:56)
4 Healed many (Mk. 1:34; 3:10)
5 Cured many of infirmities (Lk. 7:
6 Gave many sight (Lk. 7:21) 21)
7 Many believed in His name (Jn. 2:23; 4:39-41; 7:31; 8:30; 10:42) 37) 8 Did many miracles (Jn. 11:47; 12:
9 Many rulers believed on Him (Jn. 12:42)
10 Did many signs (Jn. 20:30; 21:25)
11 Taught many things (Mt. 13:3; Mk. 6:34) 20:28)
12 Gave His life a ransom for many 13 Shed His blood for many for the remission of sins (Mt. 26:28) 52) 14 Resurrected many bodies (Mt. 27:
15 Suffered many things as our example (Mk. 8:31; 1 Pet. 4:1)
16 Forgave many sins (Lk. 7:47)
17 Gave many power to become sons of God (Jn. 1:12) 32) 18 Showed many good works (Jn. 10:

her, and she ministered unto them.

7 Demons cast out; many healed (Mt. 8:16; Lk. 4:40)

32 And at even,[a] when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed[b] many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; [c] and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

8 Secret of power with God

35 And in the morning,[d] rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Sī'mon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, [e] All men seek for thee.

9 Jesus' first tour of Galilee (Mt. 4:23; Lk. 4:42. Cp. Mt. 4:35)

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore [f] came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Gāl'ī-lee, and cast out devils.

10 Jesus heals a leper (Mt. 8:1; Lk. 5:12)

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, [g] If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jē'şus, [h] moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and [i] touched him, and saith unto him, [j] I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, [k] immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, [l] See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, [m] shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things [n] which Mō'şeş commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to [o] publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jē'şus could [p] no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and [q] they came to him from every quarter.

30 CHAPTER 2

11 Return to Capernaum: heals palsied man (Mt. 9:1; Lk. 5:17. Cp. Jn. 2:12)

AND again he entered into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm [r] after some days; and it was noised that he was in [s] the house.

2 And straightway [t] many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached [u] the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the [v] palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they [w] uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the [x] bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When [y] Jē'şus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, [z] thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 [a] Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [b] who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jē'şus [c] perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 [d] Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the [e] Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth [f] before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, [g] and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

12 Call of Levi or Matthew (Mt. 9:9; Lk. 5:27)

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw [h] Lē'vī the son of Al-phæ'us sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

13 Answers the Pharisees (Mt. 9:10; Lk. 5:30)

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jē'şus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'şus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Phăr-ī-seeş saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, [i] How is it that he eateth and drinketh with [j] publicans and [k] sinners?

17 When Jē'şus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not [l] to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 Answers John's disciples (Mt. 9:14; Lk. 5:33)

18 And the disciples of John and of the Phăr'ī-seeş used to a This is what all true ministers of the gospel will preach. When other things are substituted the man is failing to be true to his duty and to his people.

b A paralytic
c Houses were flat-roofed with railings to prevent people from falling off (Dt. 22:8; Judg. 16:27; 2 Sam. 11:2). They also had trap doors to enter into the house from the top as well as outside stairs. Here it seems the trap door was too small so it was widened by taking up some of the roof (Lk. 5:19). It was easy to get him on the roof by going up the outside stairs with the man d A couch or pallet; not the same word as in Mk. 4:21 e When faith is seen by God, prayer is granted (Mt. 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)
f See note g, Mt. 9:2
g Questions 5-8, Next, v 16

h This is true, but if God gives anyone power to do this, as in the case of Christ, it is not blasphemy. It is still God forgiving sins (v 10). If God gave any man this power, as promised in Jn. 20:23, it would still be God and not man that did the work. If a man was backed up by the same works Jesus did, then we would have to recognize this power also i He had the gifts of knowledge and discernment of spirits, which means He had power to read the minds of men. It was by the Spirit and not by His divine nature that He did this (Isa. 11:2; 61:1; Jn. 3:34)

j See note i, Mt. 9:5
k Jesus did have power to remit sins and did so many times without any of the modern-day ceremonies that are supposed to remit sins. Examples
1 The paralytic (Mt. 9:2; Mk. 2:10)
2 A sinner woman (Lk. 7:48)
3 Zacchaeus (Lk. 19:1-9)
4 The malefactor (Lk. 23:43)
5 Many thousands of unknown men and women were forgiven and healed (Mt. 9:22; Mk. 10:52; Lk. 17:19; 18:42; Jn. 4:53; 8:30-31; 11:45). In fact, forgiveness came with healing in Christ's ministry (Mt. 13:15; Mk. 2:5-12). The same is still true (Jas. 5:14-16)
l Any genuine healing will be manifest before all men. It can stand a thorough investigation by man. The person healed can prove it by being examined by any and all doctors and the trouble will not be found

m God gets glory only in healing, not in the sickness. He may get glory out of some lives in spite of the sickness, but not because of it. Sickness should never be used as an excuse of glorifying God. One can glorify Him much better well than sick. He could testify to the same doctors and nurses while well as when sick if he would do so. He might argue that he never would have contacted them otherwise, but it is just as sensible to argue that he would miss others by being sick. We must be intelligent about biblical doctrines. If sickness is of Satan, as is clear in Mt. 8:17; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38; etc., then it is not of God. If such be of God, then He sent Jesus to destroy His own works. Then believers today are under command to destroy the works of God (Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12). If sickness is of Satan, then healing must be of God, if done in the name of Jesus Christ. As in this case and all others, if God became glorified by healing, then He was not glorified by the sickness. As long as the person was sick God did not get glory. Satan's work continued to be manifest and he was glorified up to the point of healing. To conclude otherwise would mean giving in to fallacy and unbelief manifesting co-operation with Satan. When we quit accusing God of doing the work of Satan, recognize the true source of our trouble and then turn to God as the true source of help we shall begin to receive benefits

f 2nd parable in Mark (2:21–22). Next, 3:27. It illustrates renewal of life with God, how the old and new systems of religion cannot be mixed (note h, Mt. 9:16–17), and how the disciples were going through a process to fit them for the responsibilities of the new religion when He would leave them (Jn. 16:22; Acts 1:2)

h Gr. naos, freshly made wine – new as to time; not renewed i Dried skins unfit for liquid until properly prepared by soaking and oiling so they will not leak
j Men put naos (newly made) wine into kainos (renewed) wine skins that will hold liquid and both are preserved k It was a lawful custom to pluck what one could eat as he passed through fields and orchards (Dt. 23:24–25). It was doing this on the sabbath that was criticized (v 24)

1 Questions 12–14, Next, 3:4. Most criticism of the Pharisees concerned outward religion, the things they held as proof of religion, and which sinners could easily do as well as religious people

10 questions of outward religion:
1 Why do you eat with publicans and sinners (Mt. 9:11; Mk. 2:16)?
2 Why do your disciples not fast as we do (Mt. 9:14; Mk. 2:18)?
3 Why do you work or pluck wheat to eat on the sabbath (Mt. 12:2; Mk. 2:24)?
4 Why do you not keep church laws that our elders have passed (Mt. 15:2)?
5 Why do you not wash your hands before you eat (Mt. 15:2, 20)?
6 Why do you not show us a sign from heaven (Mt. 16:1–4)?
7 Do you pay poll tax (Mt. 17:24)?
8 Do you believe in divorce for every cause (Mt. 19:3, 7)?
9 Who gave you authority to set aside our religion (Mt. 21:23–27)?
10 What is the greatest sin (Mt. 22:35–40)?

o Gr. prothesis, setting forth. The Heb. means bread of face, or bread of My presence. It was always on the table in the tabernacle and temple symbolizing the Divine presence from whom all supplies, material and spiritual came (Ex. 25:30; Lev. 24:5–9). p Meaning rest. Man was not made for rest, but rest was made for man to use for his best good (v 28; 3:1–4; Lk. 6:9; 13:10–16; Jn. 7:22–23)
q Meaning on another sabbath r They had no doubt of His power to heal. They were watching to see if He would break the sabbath by healing on that day s Questions 15–16, Next, v 23. Which is the more lawful – do good or do evil on the sabbath?

t According to some this would prove that Christ was not sanctified and that He had the "old man" in Him, but it only demonstrates that anger is not necessarily a manifestation of sin and Satan. Both God and man have it and will always have it. Without it man would not be capable of waging warfare against sin and Satan, so do not pray to be de-humanized and un-created, but pray to be able to control all faculties in the bounds of the law of God (Gal. 5:22–23)
u Gr. porosis, hardening. Used only here and in Rom. 11:25; Eph. 4:18 ★ 20 [d]But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, [e]and then shall they fast in those days.

15 Parable of garment and bottles (Mt. 9:16; Lk. 5:36)

21 [f]No man also seweth a piece of [g]new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth [h]new wine into [i]old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but [j]new wine must be put into new bottles.

16 Jesus is Lord of sabbath (Mt. 12:1; Lk. 6:1-5)

23 And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, [k]as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.
24 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees said unto him, Behold, [l]why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?
25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what Dā'-vid did, [m]when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?
26 How he went into the house of God in the days of [n]A-bi'a-thăr the high priest, and did eat the [o]shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?
27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the [p]sabbath:
28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER 3 31

17 Withered hand healed on the sabbath (Mt. 12:9; Lk. 6:6)

AND he entered [q]again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.
2 And they [r]watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.
3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.
4 And he saith unto them, [s]Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.
5 And when he had looked round about on them [t]with anger, being grieved for the [u]hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was [v]restored whole as the other.

18 First plot to put Jesus to death (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

6 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees went forth, and [b]straightway took counsel with the [c]Hē-rō'dĭ-ans against him, how they might destroy him.

19 Multitudes healed (Mt. 12:15; Lk. 6:17)

7 But Jē'sus [d]withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Gā'ĭ-lee followed him, and from Jū-dæ'ā, 8 And from Jē-ru'să-lĕm, and from [e]Ĭ-dụ-mæ'ā, and from beyond Jôr'dan; and they about Tyre and Sī'dŏn, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.
9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.
10 For he had healed [f]many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to [g]touch him, as many as had [h]plagues.
11 And [i]unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.
12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

20 Twelve ordained (Mt. 10:1; Lk. 6:12; 9:1. Cp. Mk. 6:7)

13 And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.
[a] 14 And he [j]ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, 15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

21 Names of the apostles (Mt. 10:2; Lk. 6:14; Acts 1:26)

16 And [k]Sī'mon he surnamed Pē'tēr;
17 [l]And Jāmes the son of Zĕb'-e-dee, and [m]John the brother of Jāmes; and he surnamed them Bō-a-nēr'gĕs, which is, The sons of thunder:
18 And [n]An'drew, and [o]Phĭl'ĭp, and [p]Băr-thŏl'o-mew, and [q]Măt'-thew, and [r]Thŏm'as, and [s]Jāmes the son of Al-phæ'us, [t]and Thăd-dæ'us, [u]and Sī'mon the Că'năan-ite, 19 And [v]Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.

22 Jesus accused of insanity (Cp. Mt. 12:46; Jn. 10:20; Acts 12:15; 26:24-25)

20 And the multitude cometh together [w]again, [x]so that they could not so much as eat bread.

a This demonstrates the power of God in creation. A creative act was necessary to make a withered hand normal in a moment of time. But this is nothing compared to creating bodies for all the dead in a moment of time (1 Cor. 15:51–58). A God that can do these things can be depended upon to answer the prayers of His people and meet His own obligation to them according to the promises (2 Cor. 1:20; 2 Pet. 1:4). O ye of little faith!

x The multitude of v 7–8
y The word multitude is a familiar one. Christ's ministry attracted great multitudes of all classes – enemies and friends. At times the throngs were so great that He and His band could not so much as eat (Mk. 3:20). At other times gatherings were so large that people trampled one upon another (Lk. 12:1). Christ's fame spread abroad because of His many miracles and healings so that the sick and suffering put forth every effort to contact Him. Some pressed their way through the crowd merely to touch His garment and all were made whole (Mk. 5:24–34). Others let the sick down through the roof of the house (Mk. 2:4). All who contacted Him for healing were healed without exception. 23 times it is stated that He healed them all (note b, Mt. 13:58). So mighty were His works that Christ drew vast multitudes even out in the desert places where men would go willingly for days without food to hear Him and be healed by Him (Mt. 14:13–21; 15:29–39). Twice on such occasions He fed the hungry multitudes with food miraculously multiplied as He "blessed, and brake, and gave" it to them (Mt. 14:15–21; 15:32–38)

i This should settle the fact of God's willingness to forgive every known sin except the one of blaspheming the Holy Spirit (v 29; Mt. 12:31-32)
j Blasphemy or sin against the Holy Ghost includes any wilful, malicious, and slanderous word spoken against the person and work of the Holy Spirit, or ascribing the work of the Spirit to Satan (Mt. 12:31-32; Heb. 10:26-29). It is unpardonable because it is wilful rejection of light and deliberate insult to the last and only executive of God to man to bring about remission of sins. When men do away with the only agent of God in redemption and the only method of forgiveness, there is no other person to plead their case before God, so their souls are lost eternally. One may blaspheme and insult the Spirit in ignorance and be forgiven (1 Tim. 1:13) k Eternal damnation, eternal judgment, eternal punishment, eternal hell, and like terms are scriptural. See note r, Mt. 25:46

s 4th parable in Mark (4:3-9, 14-20). See notes on Mt. 13:3-9, 18-23. Next, 4:26. It is repeated in Lk. 8:4-8, 11-15 under different circumstances and worded slightly different from Mt. 13:3-9, 18-23

Principal grains were wheat and barley. Fields were generally marked by a natural boundary and cultivated by plows which scratched the surface only a few inches deep. The sod was not turned over to the right or the left, and if the soil was not fertile or properly broken up to receive the seed there would be no crop. Hence, the emphasis of Jesus on properly preparing the ground and making it good by removing the stones, the thorns, and by breaking up the soil to receive seed (v 4-8). The time of plowing for some crops began with the early rains in September and October and continued until March. After the plow was run over the soil crosswise to break it up, the ground was gone over with a wooden harrow. The farmer then walked over it scattering the seed around him which he took from a bag or bushel measure. The grain was then covered with the harrow. Sometimes a flock of sheep or goats was driven over the ground to tread the seed into the soil and give it enough depth of earth to grow and produce properly. (Cp. v 4). Wheat and barley were sown in the fall and harvested in April or May. The word corn in the Bible really means wheat. Indian corn as known to us was not known then, or at least was not planted by Orientals. Fertilizing the seed sown, as practiced in this country, was also unknown to the people of the East 21 And when his[a] friends heard of it, they went out to[b] lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

23 Pharisees blaspheme the Holy Spirit: divided kingdom (Mt. 9:34; 12:24; Lk. 11:15)

22 ¶ And the [c] scribes which came down from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm said, He hath[e] Bê-ĕl'ze-bŭb, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, [f] How can Sā'tan cast out Sā'tan?

24 [g] And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Sā'tan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 [h] No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

24 The unpardonable sin (Mt. 12:31, refs.)

▶28 Verily I say unto you, [i] All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 [j] But he that shall blaspheme against the Hō'lȳ Ghōst hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of[k] eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

25 New standard of relationship (Mt. 12:46; Lk. 8:19)

31 ¶ There came then [l] his brethren and his mother, and, standing [m] without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, [n] Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he[o] looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall[p] do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

32 CHAPTER 4

26 Parable of the sower (Mt. 13:3, 18; Lk. 8:4, 11)

AND he began[q] again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by [r] parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a[s] sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the [t] way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on [b] stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the [c] thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 [d] And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, [e] let him hear.

27 Reason for speaking in parables (Mt. 13:10, 34; Lk. 8:8)

10 And when he was [f] alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the[g] mystery of the[h] kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

★12 [i] That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be [j] converted, and [k] their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, [l] Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

28 Parable of the sower explained (Mt. 13:18; Lk. 8:11)

14 ¶ The [m] sower soweth [n] the word.

15 And these are [o] they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, [p] Sā'tan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are [q] they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are [r] they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are [s] they which are sown on good ground; such as [t] hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, [u] some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

29 Parable of the candle (Lk. 8:16; 11:33. Cp. Mt. 5:13)

21 ¶ And he said unto them,

The parable of the sower

a Unplowed and unprepared ground which could not receive seed or grow it and where birds could easily devour it b Partially prepared ground but the stones were not taken out so the seed could grow and fully develop c Partially prepared ground but the thorns were not all taken out so the seed could germinate and grow normally d The only kind of ground that could produce, but even then some of it was better than other parts, so brought forth varying increases
e See note g, Mt. 11:15
f A necessity even for Jesus who had the fulness of the Spirit (Jn. 3:34). Not only must we be alone with God, but we must have time for rest g See Mystery, p. 175; Mt. 13:11, note h In Mt. 13:11 it is "kingdom of heaven," which is part of the kingdom of God. All parables apply to both these terms. It is in other aspects that there is a difference between the two terms. See notes on Mt. 4:17 and 19:24 i 3rd O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (4:12; Isa. 6:9-10; Mt. 13:14-15, notes). Next, 7:6
j Meaning, right about face, or a change of direction, a new walk with God (Ps. 19:7, note; 51:13; Lk. 22:32; Acts 3:19; Jas. 5:19-20) k This proves that sins are forgiven at conversion, and since this applies to the disciples it proves they were converted (v 11). Hence the conversion of Peter in Lk. 22:32 refers to a reconversion, not original conversion l Questions 19-20, Next, v 21. This implies that if one can understand this parable he can understand all others, for in this one are the principles of interpretation of all of them
m The sower is the Son of man (Mt. 13:37) and His ministers (Mk. 16:15-20; 1 Cor. 1:18-21)
n The seed is the Word of God (v 14; Mt. 13:19; Lk. 8:11; Rom. 1:16)
o This illustrates those who hear the Word of God and refuse to obey it or profit by it (v 15; Mt. 13:19; Lk. 8:12) p This is Satan's first business (v 15; 2 Cor. 4:4; Mt. 13:19; Lk. 8:12) q This illustrates those who hear the Word of God and gladly receive it, but have no depth of consecration, no root to endure, no stability to stand persecution, trial, and misunderstanding which are sure to come. (v 16-17; Mt. 13:20-21; Lk. 8:13)
r This illustrates those who hear the Word and fail to produce fruit because the Word is choked by three things:
1 The cares of the world or the lusts of the flesh (v 19; Mt. 13:22; Lk. 8:14; 21:34; Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Jn. 2:15-17)
2 The deceitfulness of riches or the pride of life (v 19; Mt. 13:22; Lk. 8:14; 1 Tim. 6:8-10, 17; 1 Jn. 2:15-17)
3 The lusts of other things or pleasures and the lust of the eyes (v 19; Lk. 8:14; 21:34; 1 Jn. 2:15-17)
s This illustrates those who hear the Word of God, who wholeheartedly and eternally surrender to obey it and to please God in all things. They get rid of all shallowness, fickleness, and irresponsibility, along with deceitfulness of riches and pleasures, lusts of the flesh, pride of life, and lusts for other things that would hinder them in living for God. They are honest and true and conform to the letter to all known scriptural light as they get to know it (v 20; Mt. 13:23; Lk. 8:15; 1 Jn. 1:7)
t 3 things required:
1 Hear the Word (v 20). Over 155 times God commands men to hear Him and His Word. Not one time is there a hint that what He says will be hard to understand or that it needs any special interpretation. The entire Bible assumes that what it says is clear enough if men will only believe it as it reads and not change it
2 Receive it. This is the main battle ground of man. If men could not understand the Bible there would be some reason for rejecting it. See 10 classes and 7 reasons, p. 55
3 Bring forth fruit. When the Word of God is received and obeyed it will bring forth fruit (Isa. 55:11) u This teaches degrees of fruit bearing, not different kinds of Christians or different degrees of Christians

30 Parable of the wheat

26 ¶ And he said, [f]So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit [g]of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, [h]because the harvest is come.

31 Parable of the mustard seed (Mt. 13:31; Lk. 13:18)

30 ¶ And he said, [i]Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 [j]It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the [k]fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto [l]them: and when they were alone, [m]he expounded all things to his disciples.

32 Jesus stills the storm (Lk. 8:22. Cp. Mt. 8:23)

35 And [n]the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, [o]they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a [p]great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, [q]Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, [r]Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, [s]Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they [t]feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What [u]manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER 5 33

33 Maniac of Gadara (Lk. 8:26. Cp. Mt. 8:28)

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, [c]into the country of the Gâd-a-rēnes'.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked [a]asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the [b]tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'sus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, [c]What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, [d]What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 [e]And he besought him much that he would not send them away [f]out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jē'sus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about [g]two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jē'sus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his [h]right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

12 rules of interpretation

1 Learn the native tongue in which one reads his Bible. For example, master the English language if the English Bible is to be used

2 Give the same literal meanings to words, and apply to the Bible the same rules of grammar, figures of speech, types, symbols, allegories, parables, poetry, prophecy, history, and all other forms of human expression that you would if they were found outside the Bible

3 Learn the Bible manners, customs, and peculiar idioms (these will be found in the notes of this Bible).

4 Get acquainted with the geography of all Bible lands

5 Get a general knowledge of the history of the Bible peoples and kingdoms so as to understand Bible history

6 Get a general knowledge of the plan of God in the Bible - of the ages and dispensations and the ultimate purpose of God to defeat Satan, restore man's dominion, rid the earth of all rebellion, and establish an eternal kingdom on earth ruled by God, Christ, and the resurrected saints (Gen. 3:22; 9:12; Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5)

7 Recognize the three classes of people dealt with in Scripture - the Jews, Gentiles, and the church (1 Cor. 10:32)

8 Keep in mind the historical background of each book and the circumstances under which it was written

9 Never change the literal meaning of Scripture to a spiritual, mystical, symbolic, or figurative meaning unless it is done by God Himself. Take everything in the Bible literally unless this could not possibly be the meaning. When the language is used in a figurative sense get the literal truth conveyed by it

10 Get a complete concordance such as "Strong's" and "Young's" to look up any subject and to define any Heb. or Gr. word if there is any question of proper translation

11 Be just as intelligent and fair with the Bible as with any other book. Study it, not to disprove it, but to master its sacred contents and conform to its teachings and you will find it to be in unity

12 It must be settled once and forever that the Bible does not contradict itself and all scriptures on a subject must be harmonized. It has a way of confusing its enemies and blessing its friends. The only thing difficult about the Bible is that it is a very large book and it will take time to master its contents enough to get a general understanding of it. Read it over and over and practice its teachings and it will soon become a very simple and practical book

e Here we have a warning as to what we hear and a promise that if we hear aright more will be given. If we reject truth what we have will be taken away (Lk. 8:18-18). See note e, Mt. 11:29 a Hush! Be still! Who caused the squall? If God, then Jesus rebuked God and His work, but if Satan, then all is clear. Satan is the prince of the power of the air and can cause storms by the permission of God (Job 1:12-19; Eph. 2:1-3) b Questions 26-28. Next, 5:7. Again, the question of faith in God is before us. To have fear is to lack faith in God and His providence (v 40; Mt. 6: 25-34; 8:26)

c They were more afraid of the power that stopped the squall than they were of the storm itself

d He was simply a man baptized in the Holy Spirit in all fulness. Such manifestation of power is normal to those who are anointed with the Spirit (Jn. 3:34), who have the gifts of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:4-11), and who have faith in God (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24).

27 When she had heard of Jĕ'şus, came in the press behind, and [h]touched his garment.

28 For she said, [i]If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway [j]the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jĕ'şus, immediately knowing [k]in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, [l]Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, [m]Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, [n]knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, [o]thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, [p]Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 [q]As soon as Jĕ'şus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, [r]only believe.

37 And he [s]suffered no man to follow him, save [t]Pĕ'tĕr, and Jāmeş, and Jŏhn the brother of Jāmeş.

38 [u]And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the [v]tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, [w]Why make ye this ado, and weep? [x]the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they [y]laughed him to scorn. [z]But when he had put them all out, he [a]taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and [b]said unto her, Tăl'ĭ-thá cū'mī; which is, being interpreted, [c]Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And [d]straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great [e]astonishment.

43 And he charged them [f]straitly that no man should know it; and [m]commanded that something should be given her to eat.

34 CHAPTER 6

35 Jesus at Nazareth: again rejected (Mt. 13:53. Cp. Lk. 4:16)

AND he went out from thence, and [a]came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, [b]From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 [c]Is not this the carpenter, the [d]son of Mā'rў, the [e]brother of [f]Jāmeş, and [g]Jō'sēş, and of [h]Jū'dā, and [i]Sī'mon? and are not his [j]sisters here with us? And they were [k]offended at him.

4 But Jĕ'şus said unto them, A [l]prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he [m]could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

36 Jesus again tours Galilee (Cp. Mt. 4:23; 9:35; 11:1; Mk. 1:38)

6 And he [n]marvelled because of their unbelief. [o]And he went round about the villages, teaching.

37 Twelve sent out (Mk. 3:13; Mt. 10:1; Lk. 6:12; 9:1)

7 ¶ And he [p]called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by [q]two and two; and [r]gave them power over unclean spirits;

●8 And commanded them that they should take [s]nothing for their journey, save [t]a staff only; no [u]scrip, [v]no bread, [w]no money in their purse:

f Had a bloody flux for 12 years. See Lev. 15:25-30
g This is many times the case when a person gets in the hands of the men who can do nothing to bring relief. The Jews had many remedies for such cases but they were all helpless to bring a cure. Scriptures distinguish "brother" from "kinsmen" (Lk. 14:12; 21:16).

The word "brethren" is used 544 times; 135 times of actual brothers; 1 time of mankind; 231 times of Israelites; and 177 times of Christians. In the N. T. the word is used 27 times of real brothers; 22 times of Israelites; 177 times of Christians. Only one time in the epistles it is used of unsaved Israelites (Rom. 9:3). In all other passages it refers to true Christians. Christ first taught the doctrine of Christian brotherhood (Mt. 12:48-50; 23:8; Mk. 3:34; Lk. 8:21; 22:32). It was first used by Peter of all the apostles (Acts 6:3, Cp. 1 Pet. 2:17). Paul uses the word 108 times; Luke 33 times; James 15 times; and all others 21 times. c Question 34. Next, 6:2. In the East many gather together at the home of the departed one and weep, chant, and mourn greatly. Even paid minstrels and mourners are a part of the commotion (Jer. 9:17-21; 48:36; Amos 5:16). The poorest have at least two pipers and one mourning woman d Not permanently dead. I am going to resurrect her e Wailing was more from custom, not from sorrow, hence it could quickly be turned to laughter. They knew she was dead, so the laugh was one of unbelief and mockery for such a bold assertion on His part f He put our all mockers, not because of their unbelief or because His faith and power could not operate with them present, but because He would have quietness and reverence
g Six people witnessed the resurrection of the girl: Jesus, the father and mother, and three disciples (v 37, 40) h Talithacumi is Aramaic. The meaning is, "Little girl, I say unto thee, arise."
i Gr. korasion, little girl. Used only here and in v 42; 6:22, 28; Mt. 9:24-25; 14:11. Not the same word (paidion, child) of v 39-41
j At once, the girl arose and walked out among the mockers who now were smitten with astonishment (v 42) k Gr. ekstasis, entrancement, implying bewilderment. Used of a trance (Acts 10:10; 11:5; 22:17. Cp. Mk. 16:8; Lk. 5:26; Acts 3:10) l Much or with many words, as in Mk. 1:45; 3:12; 5:10, 23, 43; 1 Cor. 16:12. It indicates that Christ was very insistent that they keep these things quiet, because of the growing multitudes that gathered when great things were done by Him m Taking food was further proof that the sickness was over and she needed now to continue existence by ordinary means. Common sense must go hand in hand with Christianity and faith n He left the house of Jairus and went to Nazareth where He was brought up. This was the second trip back home and the second mission in His home synagogue (Lk. 4:16 with Mt. 13:54-58; Mk. 6:1-6)
o Questions 35-38. Next, v 24
p This is proof that Jesus learned the carpenter trade and worked at it, perhaps up until He entered the ministry. Jewish law and custom required every father to do 4 things for a firstborn son:
1 Circumcise him (Gen. 17:10-14)
2 Redeem him (Ex. 13:2, 12; Num. 3:42-51)
3 Teach him the law (Dt. 6:6-9; 11:19-20)
4 Teach him a trade. This was founded upon the maxim: "He who teaches not his son to do some work is as if he taught him robbery."
q It is clear in Scripture that Jesus was the Son of Mary. It is also equally clear that He was not the actual Son of Joseph (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:30-35; Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:14-20; Heb. 1:1-2)
r Used 400 times in a 4fold way:
1 Of men who had the same parents (v 3; Gen. 4:1-9; Mt. 4:18-21; Gal. 1:19). Used in this sense 260 times
2 Of Israelites (Num. 20:14; Dt. 15:12; 23:7; Judg. 1:3, 17). Used in this sense 57 times
3 Of mankind (1 Kl. 9:13; 20:33). Used only 4 times
4 Of Christians (Mt. 5:22-24; 7:4; 12:50; 18:15-17). Used in this sense 79 times

The phrase "His brethren" always refers to His half-brothers and sisters, the children of Joseph and Mary after the birth of Jesus (Mt. 12:46-47; 13:55; Mk. 3:31; Lk. 8:19, note; Jn. 2:12; 7:3-10; Acts 1:14; 1 Cor. 9:5; Gal. 1:19). Had they been cousins the term would have been sungeneis, used of kin, kinsmen, and kinsfolk in Mk. 6:4; Lk. 1:36, 58; 2:44; 14:12; 21:16; 18:26; Acts 10:24; Rom. 9:3; 16:7, 11, 21. It is also trans. cousin, referring to tribal relationship in Lk. 1:36, 58

26 Stand fast in sound doctrine (2 Th. 2:15; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17)
27 Be not weary in well doing (2 Th. 3:13)
28 Take heed not to backslide because of an evil heart and fall the grace of God (Heb. 3:12-14; 12:15)
29 Count it joy when temptations come (Jas. 1:2)
30 Re-convert a sinning brother (Jas. 1:16; 5:19-20. Cp. Gal. 4:19)
31 Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath (Jas. 1:19)
32 Have no respect of persons (Jas. 2)
33 Have works with faith (Jas. 2:14)
34 Be not eager for many teachers among you, knowing they will be judged severely (Jas. 3:1. Cp. 1 Cor. 12:29; 2 Tim. 4:1-4)
35 Speak not evil of another (Jas. 4:11)
36 Be patient (Jas. 5:7)
37 Hold no grudge (Jas. 5:9)
38 Forswear not (Mt. 5:33-37; Jas. 5:12)
39 Give all diligence to make salvation sure (2 Pet. 1:4-10)
40 Marvel not at world hatred (1 Jn. 3:12. Cp. Jas. 4:4; Jn. 15:18)

38 Herod's troubled conscience: murder of John the Baptist (Mt. 14:1; Lk. 9:7)

14 And king [i]Hĕr'od heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That [j]John the Băp'tĭst was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
15 Others said, That it is [k]Ē-lī'as. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
16 But when Hĕr'od heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.
17 For Hĕr'od himself [l]had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Hē-rō'dī-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife: for he had married her.
18 For John had said unto Hĕr'od, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.
19 Therefore Hē-rō'dī-as had a [m]quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:
20 For Hĕr'od feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.
21 And when a convenient day was come, that Hĕr'od on his birthday made a supper to [n]his lords, [o]high captains, and [p]chief estates of Gă'lĭ-lee;
22 And when the daughter of the said Hē-rō'dī-as came in, and danced, and pleased Hĕr'od and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.
23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.
24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, [q]What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Băp'tĭst.
25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in [r]a charger the head of John the Băp'tĭst.
26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.
27 And immediately the king sent an [a]executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.
29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

39 The twelve return (Lk. 9:10)

30 And the [b]apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'sus, and told him all things, [c]both what they had done, and what they had taught.
31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves [d]apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

40 Five thousand miraculously fed (Mt. 14:15; Lk. 9:11; Jn. 6:1)

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship [e]privately.
33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.
34 And Jē'sus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with [f]compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.
35 And when the day was now [g]far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:
36 [h]Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.
37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy [i]two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?
38 He saith unto them, How many [k]loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.
39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.
40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.
41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he [l]looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.
42 And they did all eat, and were filled.
43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

c Note again the emphasis on the N. T. program - preaching the gospel and confirming the gospel d This is as necessary for ministers as for anyone else. In fact, the gospel ministry is the hardest work on earth if it is done right and all duties are performed (Acts 6:4; 1 Cor. 4:9-14; 2 Cor. 4:8-18; 6:1-10; 10:4-7; 11:26-28; Eph. 6:10-18; Jas. 5:14-16). f See note j, Mt. 9:36
g The day was about to end and darkness was coming on h This is about all the disciples thought of doing. In fact, it is all they could have done. But Christ was capable of meeting every need and of solving every problem
i Questions 40-41. Next, 7:5
j Gr. denarion, 17¢; 200 pennyworth would be $34.00. This would buy about 200 loaves of our bread today which would be less than one slice for each person if each loaf had 20 slices. Loaves then were not like the ones we have today (v 38)
k The largest loaf in the East was about 5 or 6 inches in diameter, about 1 inch thick or the size of three slices of our bread and more solid. It was not light bread. One man could easily eat one loaf; some could eat several loaves. Christ must have multiplied bread equal to 5,000 to 20,000 such loaves. He also multiplied the fish to as much as the 5,000 men could eat and had 12 baskets over (v 43). This was a creative act and demonstrates that creation by the Holy Spirit anointing is possible. Elisha by the gift of miracles multiplied bread from 20 loaves to feed 100 men (2 Ki. 4:42-44). Thus this power was manifest by an ordinary man. That Christ did this because He was God and that such demonstrated His divinity is not the true Bible teaching. He did all His works by the full anointing of the Spirit, not by His divine nature (Isa. 11:2; 42:1-7; 61:1-2; Mt. 3:16-17; Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38). All men are partakers of the divine nature at the new birth (2 Pet. 1:4), and that does not give them such power. It is only as they receive the Spirit baptism and the gifts of the Spirit that they can receive such power (1 Cor. 12:4-11; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)

10 proofs Spirit baptism is for all:
1 John predicted that Christ would baptize all men (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:33)
2 Jesus promised it to everyone who would believe on Him (Jn. 7:37-39)
3 Jesus promised the Spirit to all children of God who would "ask Him" (Lk. 11:9-13)
4 Jesus commanded all men to tarry "until ye be endued with power from on high" (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)
5 Jesus promised His power and anointing to every believer (Acts 1:4-8; Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:17-18)
6 Peter promised it to all men (Acts 2:38-39; 5:32)
7 Peter predicted that it would be given to all men in the last days (Acts 2:16-21)
8 Jesus died that all men might have it (Gal. 3:13-14). The promised Spirit in Gal. 3:14 is the same as in Jn. 7:37-39; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:13-15; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39
9 The early church expected all believers to receive it and saw to it that they did get it (Acts 8:14-18; 9:17; 19:1-6)
10 That all the above applies to Gentiles as well as to Jews is clear in Mt. 3:11; Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:16-21, 38-39; 5:32; 10:44-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-11; Gal. 3:13-14; Rom. 10:12

d Gr. eidon, not the mere act of seeing with the eyes, but the actual perception of the object. Here, the personal consciousness that they were in trouble
e Gr. basanizo, torment, and is so trans. in Mt. 8:6, 29; Mk. 5:7; Lk. 8:28; Rev. 9:5; 11:10; 14:10; 20:10

g Proving again His power over natural laws by the full anointing of the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:34; Isa. 11:2; 61:1; Acts 10:38). He claimed no power in Himself, but always attributed what He did to the Holy Spirit upon Him. See note r, Jn. 8:28. Further proof of this is found in the fact that Peter also walked on water (Mt. 14:29). Would Peter walking on the water prove that he was as much God as Jesus Christ? If it was by the power of the Spirit and faith in Peter's case, then it was the same in the case of Jesus Christ. If we can see that it was through the anointing of the Spirit that Jesus did His works and not by being God manifest in the flesh, then we can easily see how believers may do the works of Christ as He promised (Jn. 14:12; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24)

h Proving that He was walking faster on the water than the boat was sailing

i A phantom or an apparition j The whole twelve and perhaps more saw this miracle and were afraid. Who would not be fearful seeing a man walk on water for the first time?

k Gr. poroo (a kind of stone), petrify, to grow hard, callous, blind, become dull or lose the power of understanding (Mk. 8:32; 8:17; Jn. 12:40; Rom. 11:7; 2 Cor. 3:14). The idea seems to be that they were so stunned by what they saw that they could hardly comprehend or actually realize it had taken place

o He made no failure (Mt. 13:58, note)

p This does not defile a man, but the sins of these same hypocrites of Mk. 7:15-23; Rom. 1:29-32; Gal. 5:19-21 will defile a man

q An easy thing for hypocrites to do whose religion is all outward and ceremonial and who know nothing of the inward holiness of 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Heb. 12:14

r Gr. pugme, rubbing and washing hands with water. A mere ritual that any man can practice without religion, not because it is the commandment of God. Such washings required enough water to dip the hands. It was supposed that this plunging of the hands got rid of Shibta, an evil spirit, which sat upon the hands at night. He must be washed off or he might be eaten. Without such continual washings no Jew claimed salvation or righteousness

s Gr. baptismos, a ceremonial cleansing in water (v 4; Heb. 9:10)

t Modern religion is not made up so much of these ceremonies but many substitutes of non-essentials have been found that make some Christian groups as ridiculous as the Pharisees (v 2-9; Mt. 15:1-3; 16:12; 23:1-33). The sole program should be, if anything is sin and condemned by some specific law in Scripture, then leave it alone, but if it is something not definitely condemned, then let each person answer to his God and his conscience as to what he allows (Rom. 14:1-23; 15:1-3; 1 Cor. 8). The sins that damn the soul are listed in Mk. 7:19-21; Rom. 1:29-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10; etc. and if one lives victorious over these things through Christ; if he does nothing to defile his body which is God's temple, then he is qualified for heaven (1 Cor. 3:16-17) the loaves were about five thousand men.

41 Jesus walks on water (Mt. 14:22; Jn. 6:16)

45 And [c]straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto [b]Bĕth-sā'ī-dá, while he sent away the people.
46 And when he had sent them away, [c]he departed into a mountain to pray.
47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.
48 And he [d]saw them [e]toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: [f]and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, [g]walking upon the sea, [h]and would have passed by them.
49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been [i]a spirit, and cried out:
50 For [j]they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.
51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.
52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was [k]hardened.

42 Jesus heals sick people in Gennesaret (Mt. 14:34)

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of [l]Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt, and drew to the shore.
54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began [m]to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.
56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, [n]and besought him that they might touch if it were but the [o]border of his garment: and [p]as many as touched him were made whole.

35 CHAPTER 7

43 Jesus rebukes Scribes and Pharisees (Mt. 14:1)

THEN came together unto him the Phăr'ī-sees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.
2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with [q]unwashen, hands, [r]they found fault.
3 For the Phăr'ī-sees, and all the Jews, except they [s]wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
4 And when they come from the market, except they [s]wash, they eat not. And [t]many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, [u]and of tables.
5 Then the Phăr'ī-sees and scribes asked him, [v]Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?
★6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Ē-sā'ĭas prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [w]This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
10 For Mō'şeş said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:
11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is [x]Cŏr'băn, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.
12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;
13 [y]Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: [z]and many such like things do ye.

44 True source of defilement: sins that damn the soul (Mt. 15:10; Gal. 5:19, refs.)

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:
15 [a]There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.
16 [b]If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.
17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, [c]Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth [d]into the man, it cannot defile him;
19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into [e]the draught, purging all meats?
20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.
21 For from within, [f]out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:
23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

26 The woman was a [c]Greek, a [d]Sy-rŏ-phē-ni'çian by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jē'sus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not [f]meet to take the [g]children's bread, and to cast it unto the [h]dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: [i]yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, [j]For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again, departing from the [k]coasts of Tyre and Si'dŏn, he came unto the sea of Găl'i-lee, through the midst of the [l]coasts of Dĕ-cáp'o-lis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was [m]deaf, and had an [n]impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to [o]put his hand upon him.

33 [p]And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, [q]Eph'pha-thá, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the [r]string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he [s]charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, [t]He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8

47 Four thousand miraculously fed (Mt. 15:32. Cp. Mt. 14:15, refs.)

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jē'sus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have [u]compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, [v]From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and [b]gave thanks, and [c]brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven [d]baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

48 Jesus again rebukes Pharisees (Mt. 16:1; Lk. 12:54)

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of [e]Dăl-ma-nū'thá.

11 And the Phăr'i-sees came forth, and [f]began to question with him, seeking of him a [g]sign from heaven, [h]tempting him.

12 And he [i]sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, [j]Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall [k]no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

49 Leaven of Pharisees and Sadducees explained (Mt. 16:6)

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, [l]Take heed, [m]beware of [n]the leaven of the Phăr'i-sees, and of the leaven of Hĕr'od.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'sus knew it, he saith unto them, [o]Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

a Questions 45-46. Next, v 12. With natural man this would be impossible, but with God and a believer nothing is impossible (Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12)

b It was customary for Jews to give thanks to God at every meal (Mt. 15:36; Mk. 6:41; Jn. 6:11; 1 Cor. 10:16)

c Bread was baked in thin cakes about 1/2 to 1 in. thick, which had to be broken to be divided. It was too hard to cut as we do our bread. To break bread means to eat food (Lk. 24:35; Acts 2:42,46; 26:26; 27:35; 1 Cor. 10:16)

d Gr. spuris, large hamper. It occurs only here and in v 20; Mt. 15:37; 16:10; Acts 9:25. One was big enough to hold a man (Acts 9:25), so we can get an idea how much bread and fish were left after feeding 4,000 men besides women and children (v 9, 20; Mt. 15:38). As many hampers of food were left as they had loaves of bread to begin with (v 5, 8). These baskets were not the same as those in v 19 and in note m, Mk. 6:43, which held only about 2 gallons

o Questions 48-56. Next, v 27

7 reasons why Bible is not understood:
1 Reasoning, implying doubt and unbelief (v 17)
2 Lack of perception, implying dullness (v 17)
3 Ignorance, implying lack of interest and study (v 17)
4 Hardness of heart, implying stubborness and rebellion (v 17)
5 Dull eyes, implying wilful blindness to truth (v 18; Mt. 13:14-15)
6 Dull ears, implying wilful rejection of truth (v 18)
7 Dull memory, implying wilful forgetfulness (v 18. See note i, 4:12)
Note that all these reasons are wilful. People do not have to reason, doubt, question, harden themselves, be dull of seeing and hearing, or be forgetful. There was no excuse for the disciples to be in this class because they had seen multiplied thousands fed, healed, and delivered from every kind of destruction and curse. They should have had faith enough in Christ by now to meet every problem

p Christ had already cursed this city so now refused to do another miracle in it (v 23; Mt. 11:21)

a See note p, v 22
b Some use this as an excuse for their lack of power and faith and as a basis to prove that Christ also healed people gradually

c Note the determination of Christ not to give Bethsaida any more evidence of the visitation of God (Mt. 11:21)

l You do not regard; do not interest self in m The gospel benefits are solely on the basis of personal choice and meeting certain conditions (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)

n Habitually follow regardless of the price – even to death (vs. 35), not only when it is easy, convenient, and popular (Lk. 9:62; Heb. 10:38–39). This is the last of 4 things one must do to be saved after being born again:
1 Continue willing to follow Jesus (v 34; Jn. 7:17; 12:26)
2 Deny himself daily; renounce all self-dependence, self-interests, and self-pursuits which are contrary to God (v 34; Rom. 6:16–23; 8:1–13; Gal. 5:19–24; Col. 3:1–10)
3 Take up the daily cross (v 34; Lk. 9:23; Rom. 8:11–13; 8:12–13; Col. 1:23; 2:6–7; 3:5–10)
4 Follow Christ daily, not for a while (notes 1 and k, Jn. 10:26–28)
o Save it at the expense of his conscience and refusing to do the 4 things mentioned in point n, above, he shall lose his soul p Lose it or deny himself of whatever is necessary to win Christ, he shall save his soul. What a man loses in this life because of his consecration to God and his daily denial of self will be repaid an hundredfold in this life with eternal life and an eternal inheritance in the world to come (Mt. 19:29; Rom. 8:16–18; 1 Pet. 1:4–5) q 2 things one must be willing to suffer and die for:
1 The sake of Christ (v 35)
2 The gospel of Christ (v 35)

s Gr. psuche, the life, emotions, passions, feelings, desires, and appetites. It is used 105 times of lower animals and man. It is used of the "life" and "soul" of animals (Rev. 8:9; 16:3). It is the equivalent of the Heb. nephesh as seen by comparing Mk. 12:29–30 with Dt. 6:4–5; Acts 2:27 with Ps. 16:10; and 1 Cor. 15:45 with Gen. 2:7. See notes, Job 6:7; 12:10; 16:4. Psuche is used of man as an individual 14 times (Acts 2:41, 43; 3:23; 7:14; 27:37; Rom. 2:9; 13:1; 1 Cor. 15:45; Jas. 5:20; 1 Pet. 3:20; 2 Pet. 2:14; Rev. 6:9; 18:13; 20:4); of man's life that can be lost, destroyed, or saved (Mt. 2:20; 6:25; 10:39; 16:25; 20:28; Mk. 3:4; 8:35; 10:45; Lk. 6:9; 9:24, 56; 12:22–23; 14:26; 17:33; Jn. 10:11, 15, 17; 12:25; 13:37–38; 15:13; Acts 15:26; 20:10, 24; 27:10, 22; Rom. 11:3; 16:4; Phil. 2:30; 1 Jn. 3:16; Rev. 12:11); and of man's soul that can be lost, destroyed, or saved (Mt. 10:28; 16:26; Mk. 8:36, 37; Lk. 12:20; 21:19; 1 Th. 2:8; 5:23; Heb. 4:12; 6:19; 10:39; 13:17; Jas. 1:21; 1 Pet. 1:9; 2:11, 25; 4:19). It is also used and translated soul in connection with personal pronouns to emphasize self (Mt. 11:29; 12:18; 26:38; Mk. 14:34; Lk. 1:46; 12:19; Jn. 12:27; Acts 2:27, 31; 14:22; 15:24; 2 Cor. 1:23; Heb. 10:38; 1 Pet. 1:22; 2 Pet. 2:8; Rev. 18:14). It is translated mind in Acts 14:2; Heb. 13:3. Lastly, it is used to express all the powers of one's being and translated soul (Mt. 22:37; Mk. 12:30, 33; Lk. 2:35; 10:27; Acts 4:32; 3 Jn. 2); heart (Eph. 6:6); mind (Phil. 1:27); and heartily (Col. 3:23) by the hand, [c]and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 [b]After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, [c]Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

51 Peter's confession (Mt. 16:13; Lk. 9:18; Jn. 6:67)

27 ¶ And Jē'şus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of [d]Cæs-a-rē'a Phĭ-lĭp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, [e]Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tēr answereth and saith unto him, [f]Thou art the Christ.

30 And he [g]charged them that they should tell no man of him.

52 Jesus foretells His death and resurrection (Mt. 16:21, refs.; Lk. 9:22)

★31 And he [h]began to teach them, [i]that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

53 Jesus and Peter rebuke each other (Mt. 16:22)

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tēr, saying, [k]Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for thou [l]savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

54 Discipleship tested: value of a soul (Mt. 16:24; Lk. 9:23. Cp. Mt. 8:18; 10:37)

●34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [m]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, [n]and follow me.

▸35 For whosoever will [o]save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall [p]lose his life for [q]my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 [r]For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own [s]soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

▸38 Whosoever therefore shall be [t]ashamed of me and of my words in this [u]adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he [v]cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

37 CHAPTER 9

55 Transfiguration: preview of the coming kingdom (Mt. 16:28; 17:9; Lk. 9:27. Cp. 2 Pet. 1:16)

★AND he [a]said unto them, Verily I say unto [b]you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the [c]kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ [d]And after six days Jē'şus taketh with him [e]Pē'tēr, and Jămes, and Jŏhn, and leadeth them up into [f]an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was [g]transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [h]white as snow; so as no [i]fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there [j]appeareth unto them Ē-lī'as with Mō'şes: and they were talking with Jē'şus.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'şus, [k]Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three [l]tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'şes, and one for [m]Ē-lī'as.

6 For he [n]wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

■7 And there was a [o]cloud that overshadowed them: and [p]a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [q]This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'şus only with themselves.

★9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should [r]tell no man what things they had seen, [s]till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, [t]questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

56 John the Baptist and Elijah (Mt. 17:10, refs.)

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, [u]Why say the scribes that Ē-lī'as must first come?

★12 And he answered and told them, Ē-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, [v]That Ē-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they [w]listed, as it is written of him.

57 Powerless disciples: mighty Christ (Mt. 17:14; Lk. 9:37)

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, [x]What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, [y]Master, I p God's audible voice has been heard many times (Gen. 3:8; Dt. 5:22–25; Mt. 3:17; Jn. 12:28; Rev. 10:3). Nearly 3,000 times God is referred to as speaking to men (Heb. 1:1–2) q This is the second time God has declared by an audible voice that Jesus of Nazareth is His beloved Son (Mt. 3:17), the only begotten Son (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16–18; 1 Jn. 4:9). He is the only person that was brought into being in the sense of being conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of a woman (Isa. 7:14; 9:6–7; Mt. 1:18–25; Lk. 1:34–35; Gal. 4:4). Men who are "born again" are "adopted" sons (Rom. 8:14–16, 23; 9:4; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5)

r The reason for this is not given, but perhaps it was the same as that in point k, Mt. 8:4
s 7th N. T. prophecy in Mk. (9:9, fulfilled). Next, v 12 t This shows the same lack of taking literally what God and Christ say, as is manifest in the average follower of Christ today. Christ had already told them in plain language that He was to suffer and die and be resurrected the third day (Mk. 2:20; 8:31)

v 8th N. T. prophecy in Mk. (9:12, fulfilled). Next, v 31. Prophecy of 2 things:
1 The coming of Elijah to restore all things just before the second advent (Mal. 4:5–6). This will be fulfilled when the two witnesses appear on earth (Rev. 11:3–12, notes)
2 His own sufferings, which have now been fulfilled (Mt. 27; Mk. 15)
w This refers to John the Baptist who came in the spirit and power of Elijah (Lk. 1:17) to do before the first advent what Elijah in person will do before the second advent (Mal. 3:1; Isa. 40:3; Mt. 17:12–13)

t 2 things we must not be ashamed of:
1 Christ (v 38; Lk. 9:26; Jn. 1:1–2)
2 His words because:
(1) They are God's words (Jn. 3:34)
(2) They are spirit (Jn. 6:63)
(3) They are life (Jn. 6:63, 69)
(4) They will judge us (Jn. 12:48)
(5) They are miraculous (Jn. 14:10)
(6) They reconcile to God (Jn. 14:23)
(7) They bring answers to prayer (Jn. 15:7; 2 Cor. 1:20)
u Character of Israel at the time of Christ (note i, Mt. 11:16)
v This refers to the second advent, as is clear from Mt. 13:39–43, 49–50; 24:29–31; 2 Th. 1:7–10. A glimpse of the coming glory and kingdom is given in Mt. 16:27–17:1–9; Mk. 9:1–7; 2 Pet. 1:16. At this time the Father will accompany Christ to the earth (Dan. 7:7–19, 22; Zech. 14:5; Tit. 2:13) have brought unto thee my son, which hath a[a] dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; [b]and they could not.
19 He answereth him, and saith, [c]O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.
20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit[d] tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.
21 And he asked his father, [e]How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.
22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, [f]to destroy him: [g]but if thou canst do any thing, [h]have compassion on us, [i]and help us.
▸23 Jē'sus said unto him, [j]If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.
24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, [k]Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.
25 When Jē'sus saw that the people came running together, he [l]rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.
27 But Jē'sus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

58 Prayer and fasting: cure for unbelief (Mt. 17:19)

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, [m]Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said unto them, This [n]kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

59 Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mt. 16:21, refs.)

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and [o]passed through Gă'lĭ-lee; and he would not that any man should know it.
★31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, [p]The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.
32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

60 Lesson on humility (Mt. 18:1, refs.; 20:24; Lk. 9:46)

33 ¶ And he came to Că-pĕr'-na-ŭm: and being in the house he asked them, [q]What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and [a]servant of all.
36 And he took a [a]child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall [c]receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

61 Sectarianism rebuked (Lk. 9:38; Acts 10:15, 35; 20:30)

38 ¶ And Jŏhn answered him, saying, Master, [d]we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.
39 But Jē'sus said, [e]Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.
40 For he that is not against us is on our part.
▸41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

62 Concerning offenses to believers (Mt. 18:5, refs.)

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a [f]millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

63 Concerning offending members: reality of hell (Mt. 5:22, note)

★43 [g]And if thy hand [h]offend thee, cut it off: [i]it is better for thee to enter into [j]life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, [k]into the fire that never shall be quenched:
44 Where their [l]worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:
48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
▸49 [m]For every one shall be salted with fire, and [n]every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50 Salt is good: [o]but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, [p]and have peace one with another.

CHAPTER 10 38

64 Law on divorce

a Not only a dumb spirit, but also a lunatic spirit (Mt. 17:15). A clear instance of the reality of demons and the cause of many physical maladies 10 acts of the demon: he caused
1 Dumbness (v 17, 25)
2 Deafness (v 25)
3 Foaming at the mouth (v 18, 20)
4 Fits (v 18, 20, 26)
5 Gnashing of teeth (v 18)
6 Pining away, lifelessness, complete exhaustion (v 18, 26)
7 Prostrations (v 20)
8 Suicidal tendencies (v 22)
9 Screaming (v 26)
10 Lunacy or insanity (Mt. 17:15)
b They were like modern disciples - powerless and unbelieving c Questions 63-64, Next, v 21. Men are rebuked several times for unbelief:
1 In divine providence (Mt. 8:30)
2 In divine protection (Mt. 14:31)
3 In divine power (Mt. 16:6-12)
4 In anointing to do the works of Christ (Mt. 17:17-21; Mk. 9:19-23; 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12)
5 In power to perform miracles (Mk. 11:21-24)
6 In the resurrection (Mk. 16:14) d Caused him to have a convulsion and to roll about foaming (v 25-27)
e Question 65, Next, v 28
f The purpose of Satan (Jn. 10:10) g Note the two if's of v 22-23: one by the father of the child and one by Jesus. Deity can use "if thou canst" just as much as man. In fact, God has the only lawful right to use such a term, for it is a settled fact that all things are possible with Him. So if man can quit his eternal questionings and satanic unbelief concerning God's will and power, "all things" will be possible for the believer (v 23; 11:22-24; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26). It is not the question so much as to what God can do, but what man can do in believing God and His Word. Any question of God's will concerning anything that He has already promised and provided for all men, is an excuse of unbelief and must be repented of (v 24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)
h Faith in the compassion as well as in the power of God should be the true approach to Him, for when God has compassion action will be taken to meet human needs (Mt. 9:36, note)
i Note the plea and tender sympathy of the father for himself and son j Stating once and for all, regardless of what it is or who it is, that prayer will be answered providing there is unwavering faith (11:22-24; Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8). That is, "all things" will be given that are promised and provided by God in the gospel. All things are promised in the gospel "that pertain unto life and godliness" (2 Pet. 1:3-4; Ps. 84:11; 2 Cor. 1:20)
k A prayer that all can pray with great profit l The disciples did this, but there is a difference in a rebuke of faith and power and one of unbelief. Jesus had conquered Satan and demons in the wilderness and was master of them, but this had not yet been done by the disciples (v 29; Mt. 17:17-21. Cp. Acts 19:13-16)
m Question 66, Next, v 33. The answer, "Because of your unbelief" is always the correct one for questions like this (Mt. 17:20-21). Instead of accepting this many modern followers have manufactured innumerable substitutes as causes for the lack of power, such as, "It may not be God's will," "You may be under the chastening of God," "Power to heal was for the apostles only," "Signs, gifts, and miracles ceased with the apostles," "You may be exalted if God would hear your prayers," "Healing is not in the atonement," "Healing is not for all today."

a Gr. diakonos (note d, Mt. 20:26)
b His example of humility and true greatness was a little child. On other occasions dealing with this question He gave Himself as an example (Mk. 10:35-45; Lk. 22:24-27; Jn. 13:2-20) c Mt. 18:1-10; Lk. 18:15-17
d The answer of v 37 convicted John, for he remembered what He had done to another believer who did not belong to his group. See notes on Mt. 10:40 e A lesson for divided Christendom today and a lesson Moses had already learned (Num. 11:26-29). True Christians will love every person of another church and will appreciate him and his work just as much as if he belonged to their church (Phil. 2:1-3; Rom. 12:10). No man doing miracles in Jesus' name will speak lightly of Christ and no man for Christianity is against it, and on this basis men can detect true Christian workers. In general, anyone or any doctrine that denies a personal God and the Holy Spirit as a person, or who denies the incarnation of God in human flesh, the literal virgin birth of Jesus, His sinless life, His divine mission among men, His claims and doctrines, His miraculous powers, His physical death, burial, and bodily resurrection to the right hand of the Father as the head of the Church, is certainly not of God, but of Satan. The marks of false teachers are numerous in Scripture, so that no mistake need be made in detecting them (Mt. 7:15-20; 23:1-33; Acts 8:9; 13:6; Rom. 1:18-32; 16:17; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; 6:9-11; 2 Cor. 11:13-15; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 2:8, 18; Phil. 3:17-19; 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:3-4; 2 Pet. 2; 3 Jn. 9-10; Jude 4-19; Rev. 2:14, 20)
f A reference to Greek and Roman punishment, not Jewish (Mt. 18:6; Lk. 17:2) k Gr. Gehenna, used 12 times of eternal hell. See notes on Mt. 5:22; Lk. 12:5. Three times it is stated here that the fire in Gehenna never will be quenched or extinguished. Cp. Isa. 66:22-24 l Referring to the real consciousness and life of the individual who goes to hell. The word "worm" is used of man several times (Job 25:6; Ps. 22:6; Isa. 41:14; 66:24). It has to do with the remorse of the conscience that each man will have over his failure to do what was necessary to escape hell. It is the living, conscious, never dying part of the human being that will feel eternal torments of fire in eternal hell (Mt. 8:12; 13:42, 50; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30, 46; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15; 21:8; Isa. 66:24). It is that part that feels and knows, the inner man that dwells in the resurrected body. Both body and soul will be cast into hell at the judgment (Rev. 20:11-15; Mt. 10:28) m Every one that will be lost because of the offences or sins referred to in v 43-48. It is better to endure the removal of stumblingblocks or sins now, than to be cast into eternal torment n Every sacrifice was offered with salt as a symbol of preservation (Lev. 2:13), so here salt is mentioned in a reference to the idea that the everlasting fire is not only inconsumable fire, but will have the property of making whatever is in it inconsumable like itself. Every sinner will be salted with the fire of hell, like every sacrifice was salted with salt, as an eternal victim and example of divine justice to eternal generations that will be born in the New Earth (Isa. 66:24). Salt was rained down with the fire on Sodom (Dt. 29:23), so the reference here is to the terribleness of hell

d Divorce means to set free, undo a bond, loose, give liberty to, release, cut apart. See note e, Mt. 5:31 e In Christ's day there was a great controversy about divorce and re-marriage. It was known as the Hillel-Shammai dispute. Hillel taught that a man could divorce his wife for any cause whatsoever. Shammai held that a man could not for every cause, but for the one cause of fornication or adultery. With the Jews the right to divorce was a right to re-marriage and this was accepted without question by all in Israel

The question here is not the right to remarry, but only the right to divorce. The Pharisees wanted to know which side of the controversy Jesus was on. It was the prevailing custom to divorce and remarry times without number, hence the strategy was to make Jesus unpopular or even be killed by Herod as was John the Baptist. Jesus agreed with Shammai that fornication was the only exception (Mt. 5:32; 19:3-12). He did not change the Jewish universal practice that a right to divorce was a right to remarriage. He let this be as it was in Dt. 24:1-4. This is clear from the fact that He referred them to what Moses commanded (v 3). He did not say that Moses was out of the divine will in making a law of divorce, but merely that it was because of their hardness of heart that such was permitted by God, and that from the beginning this was not the will of God (v 6-9)
f An ancient Jewish bill of divorce reads thus: "On the.....day of the week.....day of the month.....in the year.....I.....who am also called the son of.....of the city of.....by the river of.....do hereby consent with my own will, being under no restraint, and I do hereby release, send away, and put aside thee, my wife....who is also called the daughter of.....who are this day in the city of.....by the river of.....who has been my wife in time past: and thus I do release thee, and send thee away and put thee aside that thou mayest have permission and control over thyself to go to be married to any man that thou mayest desire; and that no man shall hinder thee from this day forward, and thou art permitted to any man, and this shall be unto thee from me a bill of dismissal, a document of release, and a lerter of freedom, according to the law of Moses and Israel
.....the son of.....Witness"
The document was valid even if a restriction was put in it as the woman could not marry again, or if it was prepared in a Gentile court. When signed by two witnesses who were acquainted with both husband and wife, the rabbi told the woman to remove her rings and spread out her hands to receive the divorce bill which her husband placed in her hands, saying, "This is thy bill of divorce, and thou art divorced from me by it, and thou art permitted to any man." The woman then closed her hands and handed it to the rabbi who read it the second time and pronounced excommunication upon anyone who would attempt to invalidate it. See notes Mt. 19:3-12
g From the creation of man as male and female (Gen. 1:26-28), not from the original creation of Gen. 1:1
h It must be kept in mind that this answer on divorce (v 10-12) was given to His personal disciples, as well as that of Lk. 16:1, 18. The answer on divorce in Mt. 5:31-32; 19:1-8 was given to non-Christians and for all men in general. Among disciples or Christians there could be no grounds for divorce, for they are not to commit adultery, fornication or be as the unbeliever who leaves the believer thus giving just cause for divorce (Mt. 5:31-32; 19:1-8; 1 Cor. 7:10-17). When we use the term Christian it means that one is a new creature in Christ and a true imitator of Jesus in life,

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the [a]coasts of Jū-dæ'ā by the farther side of Jôr'dan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the [b]Phăr'ĭ-sees came to him, and asked him, [c]Is it lawful for a man to [d]put away his wife? [e]tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'ses command you?

4 And they said, Mō'ses suffered to write a [f]bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But [g]from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

●8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

65 Consequences of divorce (Mt. 5:31;19:10; Lk.16:18)

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto [h]them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and [i]marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

66 Jesus blesses little children (Mt.19:13; Lk.18:15)

13 ¶ And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

●14 But when Jē'sus saw it, [j]he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.◂

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

67 Rich young ruler (Mt.19:16; Lk.18:18)

17 ¶ And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running and kneeled to him, and asked him, [k]Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'sus said unto him, [l]Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

●19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, [m]Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, [n]Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

●21 Then Jē'sus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: [o]go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

68 Warning to rich men (Mt. 6:19;19:23; Lk.18:24)

23 ¶ And Jē'sus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, [p]How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'sus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were [q]astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, [r]Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'sus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

69 Rewards of full consecration (Mt. 19:29; Lk. 18:28)

28 ¶ Then Pē'tēr began to say unto him, [s]Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

★29 And Jē'sus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [t]There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, ▶30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to [u]come eternal life.

▶31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

70 Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mt. 16:21, refs.)

32 ¶ And they were in the way going [v]up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; and Jē'sus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

★33 Saying, Behold, [w]we go up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gĕn'tīles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall a Christ mentioned six things for him to do, and these not in order, perhaps to convict the young man quickly. Cp. Rom. 13:7-10 b He did not address Christ as "Good Master" the second time. He claimed to have kept the commandments from childhood. Then Jesus loved him and required one more thing which brought conviction and proved that he had not kept the tenth commandment about loving others as himself (Dt. 5:21; Mt. 19:19) c Note the sixfold command which would have brought perfection (v 21):

1 Go your way 4 Come to me
2 Sell all you have 5 Take up the cross
3 Give to the poor 6 Follow me d Not because of God's mercy, but their own reluctance to part with riches and use them for the glory of God and the good of others. It is hard for them to cease to "trust in riches" and rely upon God (v 24; 1 Tim. 6:8-12, 17-19).
e An explanation of why very few rich men will be saved (note d, above)
f See notes on Mt. 19:24
g In v 24 the disciples were astonished, but here they are astonished out of measure. Why? Simply because of the universal feeling that rich people can get anything that they want. It was hard for these ordinary workers to conceive that God's standard of dealing with the rich is different from man's h Question 73. Next, v 36. The disciples were yet to learn that rich men as well as poor can be saved by grace without works of the law and human merit, and that the rich must humble themselves and meet God's terms like the poor (Jn. 3:16-18; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). Being rich is no barrier to finding God if the rich will humble themselves and renounce all human sins and human merits (Rom. 3:24-31; 5:1-11; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9). The rich may face more temptations and problems, but if salvation is important enough to them it is easily received whenever complete consecration is made. A rich man does not have to give up all he possesses to be a disciple, but he must become willing to do so if God would require it of him conduct, and works (2 Cor. 6:17-18; Gal. 5:24; 1 Pet. 1:21-22; 3:18; 4:1). There could not possibly be such a thing as any two people of this kind having disagreements enough for a divorce or any scriptural grounds for it. If one is a Christian and the other is not and the unbeliever leaves the believer because of his Christianity and gets a divorce, the believer is free from all blame and is free from the marriage bonds (1 Cor. 7:10-17)

73 Blind man healed (Cp. Mt. 9:27; 20:29; Lk. 18:35)

46 ¶ And they came to [o]Jĕr'ichō: and as he went out of Jĕr'i-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bär-ti-mæ'us, the son of Timæ'us, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'sus, thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many [p]charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'sus stood still, and [q]commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, [r]casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jē'sus.

51 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, [s]What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'sus said unto him, Go thy way; [t]thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jē'sus in the way.

CHAPTER 11

74 Triumphal entry (Mt. 21:1; Lk. 19:28; Jn. 12:12; Zech. 9:9)

AND when they came nigh to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, unto [a]Bĕth'pha-gē and Bĕth'a-nỹ, at the mount of Ŏl'Ives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

*2 And saith unto them, [b]Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a [c]colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, [d]Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and [e]found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, [f]What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'sus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'sus, and cast their [g]garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, [h]Hō-şăn'nā; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father Dā'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hō-şăn'nā in the highest.

11 And Jē'sus entered into Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, and into [i]the temple: and when he had looked [j]round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bĕth'a-nỹ with the twelve.

q Note the different circumstances, the occasions, and other points of difference in three cases of healing the four blind men at Jericho on this visit:
1 "As He was come nigh unto Jericho" (Lk. 18:35-43)
2 "As He went out of Jericho" (Mk. 10:46-52)
3 "As they departed from Jericho" (Mt. 20:29-34). This case had "two blind men" while in the others there was only one. What was said by the men and by Christ in each case is different, as well as other facts, proving them to be three different cases and not one. Jericho was a city of 100,000 so three cases of blindness and healing is not unreasonable. Blindness and eye diseases are very common in the East today. The percentage is said to be about one in five. When we have variances in gospel accounts it is always wise to consider them as different cases instead of forcing them to be the same and blaming the writers for not being inspired. If the cases are the same and details vary, then let us realize that the writers are giving details which the Holy Spirit wants them to give for a specific purpose, that taken together they make a more complete story and that they supplement each other, not contradict each other. Even then no doubt many details are not given in any one case. All are not necessary (cp. Jn. 21:25)

r A mark of great anxiety and joy to get to Jesus as quickly as possible. When men get this much in earnest in seeking God they will find Him without exception. The earnestness of the blind man surmounted all difficulties. How many today permit the smallest thing to hinder them in prayer and in obeying God! Blessed is the man that will not tolerate one thing hindering him from getting to God and getting answers to prayers that are in harmony with the promises and gospel provision. The more the man cried out the more his faith grew and the more he was hindered the more he was helped in taking hold of what he was desiring a Question 77, Next, 11:3. Jesus knew what he needed, but He wanted a specific request and an expression of true faith. One law of answered prayer is – ask, seek, and knock (Mt. 7:7-11; 21:21-22)

b Personal faith will always be rewarded, regardless of what the need is or how impossible it seems beyond fulfillment (Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24). Men receive "according to" faith (Mt. 9:29). No instance is given in Scripture where true faith has been exercised for anything promised by God and the answer has been withheld by God n Fig trees were of two varieties: the early fig (Isa. 28:4; Jer. 24:2) and the late fig (Jer. 8:13; 29:17). Figs appear before or with the leaves, so the leaves indicated that the tree must have figs, even though the time of figs to be fully ripe was not yet come o 17th N. T. prophecy in Mk. (11:14, fulfilled, v 20). Next, v 23-24. All speculation as to whether the fig tree was public property or not is valueless, as is also all criticism of Christ cursing it. It must be remembered that He Himself was the agent of God in creation and He had a right to do as God directed (Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:16-18). We have to look even beyond Him to God whom He claimed was working through Him (Jn. 5:30, 36; 7:16; 8:28; 14:10). Who are we to criticize God (Rom. 9:14-24)?

10 conditions of answered prayer (11:23)

1 Have the faith of God (Rom. 4:17; Heb. 11:3; Gal. 5:22-23)

2 Pray: say in no uncertain terms what you want (v 23-24; Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Jn. 15:7)

3 Have unlimited faith without qualifying and limiting God's will or what you want (v 23-24; Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Mk. 9:23; Jn. 15:7, 16)

4 Refuse to doubt in the heart (v 23; Mt. 17:20; Jas. 1:5-8)

5 Believe that whatever is asked will be given (v 23-24; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:21-22; Heb. 11:6)

6 Believe that whatever is asked is already granted (v 24; Mt. 17:20; 1 Jn. 5:14-15)

7 Be authoritative and command to come to pass what is asked (v 23-24; Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23)

8 Believe that what you want is God's will (v 24; Jn. 15:7; Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

9 Never say, "If it be Thy will" concerning anything you ask that is definitely promised of God in His word (v 23; Ps. 84:11; 2 Cor. 1:20; 2 Pet. 1:3-4)

10 Have a clean heart and life with God and man (v 25; Jn. 15:7; 1 Jn. 3:22-23)

"Whatsoever," "anything," "all things," "what ye will," "what things soever ye desire," "whatsoever he saith," and other unlimited terms are found, assuring the absolute certainty of, and the possibilities of answered prayer

a The temple courts, not the house
b The second cleansing of the temple during the last week of His life, making three times He did this (Jn. 2:13; Mt. 21:12-16). How He could do this by Himself against so many men can only be explained by God's power. It did bring the leaders to action to plot His death (v 18) c Question 80. Next, v 28. Christ never once gave an interpretation of what is written, or left one to believe that any part of it needed interpretation. His application of what is written to certain events was sufficient as to the meaning

d 5th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (11:17; Isa. 56:7; Jer. 7:11). Next, 12:10
e Fulfillment of v 14

f Literally, "Have the faith of God." Such is possible or it would not be a command. Man was created with God's faith but doubt entered in at the fall (Gen. 3:1-7). Faith is restored in the new birth and if normally exercised and maintained it will grow to fulness and power (Rom. 1:5, 17; 10:17; Gal. 2:20; Col. 1:23; 2:6-7; 2 Th. 1:3; 2 Pet. 1:1-5) g 18th N. T. prophecy in Mk. (11:23-24, conditional). Next, 12:25. Such passages as v 23-24 are considered merely as promises, but they can also be considered as conditional prophecy to be fulfilled when certain terms are met. Here, faith without doubting is the condition to meet if one wants the fulfillment of the benefits. The prediction or promise is that everyone who meets the condition will be answered, even to the moving of mountains (Mt. 17:20; 21:21-22)

h Everyone without exception is promised every thing he asks in prayer provided he qualifies for an answer

i See 10 conditions of answered prayer, p. 47

j Standing is one of several positions in prayer (1 Ki. 8:22; 2 Chr. 6:13; Zech. 3:1; Lk. 18:11-13)

k Forgiveness of man is the condition here of forgiveness by God (v 25-26; Mt. 18:21-35; Rom. 12:14)

l The 4th of 5 times He enters Jerusalem during the last week:
1 Friday (Thursday sunset to Friday sunset, Mt. 21:1-16)
2 Sunday (Saturday sunset to Sunday sunset, Mk. 11:1-11; Lk. 19:29-44; Jn. 12:12-19)
3 Monday (Sunday sunset to Monday sunset, Mt. 11:12-19; Lk. 19:45-48; Jn. 12:20-50)
4 Tuesday (Monday sunset to Tuesday sunset, Mt. 21:23-26:13; Mk. 11:20-14:9; Lk. 20:1-21:38)
5 Wednesday (Tuesday sunset to Wednesday sunset, Mt. 26:14-27:66; Mk. 14:10-15:47; Lk. 22:1-23:56; Jn. 13:1-19:42)

m The beginning of the fulfillment of prophecies uttered by Jesus (Mt. 16:21, refs.). Note their feverish activities to destroy Christ (Mt. 21:15, 23, 45-46; 26:3-5, 14-16, 47-27:66; Mk. 14:1-15:31; Lk. 19:47-48; 20:19-47; 22:1-23:23; Jn. 7:32, 45; 11:47-57; 18:2-19:16) n Questions 81-84. Next, 12:9

o Gr. exousia, delegated power, the liberty and right to act. Jesus answered their questions by a question, plainly implying that He got His authority to act from the same source that John the Baptist got his (Lk. 1:17; Jn. 1:33-34) p It is always dangerous to reason about whether to do right or not. Such will generally result in sin. There should always be a definite - a positive decision for the right without any hesitation. Then no sin is possible. They knew full well the right answer, but to get themselves out of their own trap they were willing to lie

fication (Jn. 2:13)

15 ¶ And they come to Jĕ-ru'-să-lĕm: and Jē'sus went into the [a]temple, and [b]began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

★17 And he taught, saying unto them, [c]Is it not written, [d]My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

77 The faith that takes: secret of answered prayer (Mt. 21:21, refs.)

20 ¶ And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Pē'tĕr calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, [e]the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, [f]Have faith in God.

★23 For verily I say unto you, [g]That [h]whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; [i]and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith.◂

▸24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

78 Condition of answered prayer (Mt. 6:14, refs.)

●25 And when ye [j]stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.◂

26 [k]But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

79 Jesus' authority questioned (Mt. 21:23; Lk. 20:1)

27 ¶ And they come [l]again to Jĕ-ru'-să-lĕm: and as he was walking in the temple, [m]there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, [n]By what [o]authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they [p]reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jē'sus, [q]We cannot tell. And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

40 CHAPTER 12

80 Parable of the husbandholder (Mt. 21:33; Lk. 20:9)

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. [a]A certain man [b]planted a vineyard, and set an [c]hedge about it, and digged a place for the [d]winefat, and built a [e]tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the [f]season he sent to the husbandmen a [g]servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his [h]wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 [i]What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

★10 And have ye not read this scripture; [j]The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for [k]they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

81 Question of tribute money (Mt. 17:24; 22:15; Lk. 20:19)

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Phăr'i-sees and of the [l]Hē-rō'di-ans, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, [m]Master, [n]we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of a Many have been the lies of religious men in Scripture (Gen. 4:9; 12:11-19; 18:15; 20:2; 26:7-10; 27:6-24, 46; Ex. 32; 1 Sam. 16:18; 21:2; 27:10; 2 Sam. 15:34-37; 2 Sam. 16:16-19; 17:7-14; 1 Ki. 13:11-22; 2 Ki. 5:20-24; Mt. 26:69-75; 28:13-15; Acts 5:1-10; 6:11-14; 16:20-21; 17:5-7; 24:5; 25:7-8)

b 6th parable in Mk. (12:1-11), illustrating the rejection of Jesus by the Jews (v 10-11). Next, 13:28. Who the man, the husbandmen, the servants, and the son of this story were is not stated, but it is certain this actually happened or Jesus would not have used it to illustrate His point

c Note the 12 acts of this man in v 1-9; 6 acts in v 1 d Placed a fence about it e A wine-vat. "Fat" is from the old Anglo-Saxon "foer" for "vessel" and the Dutch "vatten," to catch. It was a word used in northern England for "vat."
f A booth for watchmen (Isa. 1:8)
g The first season for fruitbearing would be the 4th year after planting, for there would not be enough fruit for profit until then h Gr. doulos, a bond-slave. The first of "many" sent. Among them were:

1 Servant - his mistreatment by scourging (v 2-3)
2 Servant - his mistreatment by stoning (v 4)
3 Servant - his mistreatment by murder (v 5)
4 Many servants - their mistreatment by scourging and death (v 5)
5 Only son - his mistreatment by murder (v 6-7). A prophetic reference to His own death (v 10)

i Gr. agapetos, beloved. A term of endearment used by God of Jesus in Mt. 3:17; 12:18; 17:5; Mk. 1:11; 9:7; Lk. 3:22; 9:35; by N. T. writers of saints 51 times; and here and in Lk. 20:13 of men

j Questions 85-86. Next, v 14. This last question was asked by Christ on 6 different occasions thus setting the divine approval on the inspiration of Genesis (Mt. 19:4 with Gen. 1:27); Exodus (Mt. 22:31-32 with Ex. 3:6); Leviticus (Mt. 12:3 with Lev. 24:6-9); Numbers (Mt. 12:5 with Num. 28:9-10); 1 Samuel (Mt. 12:3 with 1 Sam. 21:6); and Psalms (Mt. 21:16 with Ps. 8:2 and Mt. 21:42 with Ps. 118:22). He considered these books as "Scripture," as well as Deuteronomy (Mk. 10:3-5 with Dt. 24:1-6) and other books k 6th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mt. (12:10; Ps. 118:22. Cp. Acts 4:10-12). Next, v 36. Christ is referred to as a "Stone" (Gen. 49:24; Isa. 8:14; 28:16; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:20; 1 Pet. 2:4-8) and a "Rock" (Mt. 16:18; Rom. 9:33; 1 Cor. 10:4; 1 Pet. 2:8). The true meaning is that Christ (the Stone) was rejected by the builders (rulers of Israel) but was exalted by God, the chief architect of the nation

l If the Jews knew the meaning of the point illustrated by this parable, certainly Christians with all their light can know as much m They were Jews who were attached to the family and policy of the Herods in compromising with the Romans to save to some extent the independence of the nation. Christ had already silenced the Pharisees, so now the strategy was to get Christ embroiled with politics and bring upon Him the judicial power of the civil governor of Galilee - Herod. See note g, Mt. 22:16

n Gr. didaskalos, teacher (Lk. 9:38)
o A true confession of all classes in Israel (Jn. 3:2) 1 You are sincere
2 You are fearless
3 You never court human favor
4 You teach the way of God honestly
What a life to pattern after!

a Questions 87-90, Next, v 23. All these questions concern politics - whether to pay taxes to a foreign power that ruled or to rebel b He knew their hypocritical motive was to involve Him either in disfavor with civil authorities or with the Jews who resented such taxation. They thought that He would get in trouble either way He answered, but divine wisdom again caused Him to escape offense to either party
c Gr. denarion, a silver coin of about 17¢ our money, which was a day's wage at that time d They not only denied the resurrection, but also angels and spirits (Acts 23:8). They believed in a historical Moses but not all his doctrines (v 19)
e Quoted from Dt. 25:5-6
f Questions 91-92, Next, v 28. They thought surely Christ could never answer this one, but as always divine wisdom had an answer (v 25-27). Such clear cut answers; such enlightenment on Scriptures they had never heard. His enemies could quote Scripture, but did not understand it g 19th N. T. prophecy in Mk. (12:25, unfulfilled). Next, v 40 h Resurrected saints will not live in marriage relationship to keep their kind in existence as when in the mortal state, but be like the angels who were created innumerable and immortal and do not die or multiply, hence they have no need of marriage relationship to produce their own kind i The dead bodies. Here we have the definite article, but in v 27 there is no definite article in the Greek. Physical death always refers to the body, never to the death of the soul and spirit. The souls of all unsaved men are dead while they live. Spiritual death means merely separation from God by sin (Isa. 59:2; Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Tim. 5:6). Physical death is separation of the inner man from the body (Jas. 2:26). The body only dies at physical death and it goes to the grave, whereas the souls go to other places until the resurrection of their bodies. The righteous go to heaven (Phil. 1:21-24; 2 Cor. 5:8; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11) and the wicked go to hell (Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15). In the resurrection, the bodies only are made alive and immortal, then the immortal souls and spirits enter them so that the bodies, souls, and spirits of all men can exist in eternal consciousness in punishment or bliss (Mt. 10:28; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 20:11-15; Isa. 66:22-24)
j Question 93, Next, v 28. See note i, v 9 k Quoted from Ex. 3:2-6. This proves that Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are still alive (v 27). If they are still alive but are dead physically, then their souls and spirits are alive, proving immortality of all souls and spirits l Thus proving that the souls and spirits of men after leaving the bodies are all immortal. Luke adds, "for all live unto Him" (Lk. 20:38). If all live unto Him who have died, then they are still alive and conscious after leaving the bodies. Peter and others state that the inner man is immortal, not corruptible (1 Pet. 3:4; 4:6; Ps. 22:26; 1 Th. 5:10; 2 Cor. 4:16-18; Jn. 3:16, 36; 5:24; 11:25-26; 1 Jn. 2:17; Heb. 12:23). Since all live unto God after death of the bodies, all will be resurrected bodily to immortality to receive punishment or rewards according to their deeds (Mt. 10:40-42; 16:27; Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:12-16; 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15) m Question 94, Next, v 35. See note on Mt. 22:36 n Quoted from Dt. 6:2-4. The Heb. for "one" is echad, from achad, to unite, be united as one, one in number. The Gr. heis also has the same meaning. Whether one in number or one in unity is meant must be determined by Scripture and by the subject matter. That these words are used in the sense of unity is clear from Gen. 2:24; 11:6; Jn. 10:30; 11:52; 17:11, 21-23. There are three separate persons called "God" and "Lord" in Scripture, so one in unity must be the true meaning here. On the other hand, "one" could refer to the head person of the Divine men, but teachest the way of God in truth: [a]Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæ'sar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, [b]knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a[c]penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæ'sar's.

17 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Render to Cæ'sar the things that are Cæ'sar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

82 Question of the resurrection (Mt. 22:23; Lk. 20:27)

d 18 ¶ Then come unto him the Săd'du-çees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, Mō'şes wrote unto us, [e]If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 [f]In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

★25 [g]For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are [h]as the angels which are in heaven.◂

26 And as touching [i]the dead, that they rise: [j]have ye not read in the book of Mō'şes, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, [k]I am the God of Ă'brā-hăm, and the God of I'şaac, and the God of Jā'cob?

27 [l]He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

83 Question: great commandment (Mt. 22:34; Lk. 10:27)

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, [m]Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jē'şus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [n]Hear, O Iş'ra-el; The Lord our God is one Lord:

●30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

●31 And the [o]second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all [b]the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jē'şus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

84 Jesus questions the Pharisees (Mt. 22:41; Lk. 20:39)

35 ¶ And Jē'şus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, [d]How say the scribes that Christ is the son of Dā'vid?

★36 For Dā'vid himself said by the Hō'lў Ghŏst, [e]The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his [f]son? And the common people heard him gladly.

85 Six sins of the scribes: their greater damnation (Mt. 23; Lk. 18:9; 20:45)

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, [g]Beware of the scribes, [h]which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at [i]feasts:

★40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: [j]these shall receive greater damnation.

86 Widow's mite (Lk. 21:1)

41 ¶ And Jē'şus [k]sat over against the [l]treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [m]mites, which make [n]a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

87 The great Olivet prophecy (Mk. 13: Mt. 24-25. Cp. Lk. 21)

(1) Destruction of Jerusalem predicted (Mt. 24:1. Cp. Mt. 23:37, refs.)

a Meaning "right" or "good." V 32-34 are a Divine supplement to Mt. 22:40; Lk. 20:39 b Gr. sunesis, a putting together, meaning the whole of the intelligence, not only one part of it. Not Gr. dianoia, the mind, or thinking faculty of v 30. It is noticeable that the first commandment demands complete consecration and obedience of the whole body, soul, and spirit - all the heart or the innermost being in general; all the mind or the intellectual powers consisting of will, intelligence, and conscience; all the soul or the feelings, emotions, passions, and desires; and all the strength or bodily faculties, deriving its powers from the soul and spirit. Quite a contrast to many modern religionists who hold to service to God with the mind or thoughts only and who claim one can be holy only in spirit and not in body and soul
c When man gets to this degree of understanding Bible religion, he will not pay so much attention to formality, rituals, and outward show in worship

e 7th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (12:36; Ps. 110:1). Next, 14:27. This settles the fact that Ps. 110 was uttered by the Holy Ghost, and that there are at least two Lords in the Deity. If we can believe in two, then we can believe in three persons - the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost (1 Jn. 5:7; 2 Cor. 13:14; Mt. 3:16-17; 28:19; Jn. 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Acts 2:33; 7:55; Eph. 4:4-6; Rev. 1:4; 4:2-5; 5:7)

From three to five persons recline on a couch upon the left elbows, supported by cushions, the feet extending out, and the back of each guest turned toward his neighbor. The face and hands face the common dish on the table from which they all partake with their fingers (Jn. 13:25-27). Trinity, who is the Father and head of Christ and the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 8:4-6; 11:3; Jn. 14:16-17, 26, 28; 15:26; 16:7-15; Eph. 4:4-6; 1 Jn. 5:7). Both ideas are true o The scribe only asked for one commandment, but he got two, which are the greatest of all. This one is quoted from Lev. 19:18

AND [a]as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, [b]Master, see what manner of [c]stones and what buildings are here!

★2 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, [d]Seest thou these great buildings? [e]there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(2) Two great questions (Mt. 24:3, Cp. Lk. 21:7)

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Ŏl'ĭvĕs over against the temple, [f]Pē'tĕr and Jămĕs and Jŏhn and An'drew asked him privately,

4 [g]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

(3) Signs, 2nd advent: A Eight beginning Jewish sorrows (Mt. 24:4; Lk. 21:8; Rev. 8-9)

★5 And Jē'sus answering them began [h]to say, 'Take heed lest any man [i]deceive you:●

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the [k]end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of [l]sorrows.

B Eight signs during the sorrows of Israel (Mt. 24:9)

●9 ¶ But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to [m]councils; [n]and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings [o]for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the [p]gospel must first be published among all nations.

●11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, [q]take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Hō'lў Ghŏst.

12 [r]Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

▸13 And ye shall be [s]hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

C 17th sign: abomination of desolation (Mt. 24:15; Dan. 9:27)

14 ¶ But [t]when ye shall see the [u]abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dăn'ĭel the prophet, [v]standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Jū-dæ'ā flee to the mountains:

D 18th sign: defeat of Israel by Antichrist (Mt. 24:16)

15 [w]And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But [x]woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

E 19th sign: great tribulation (Mt. 24:15; Dan. 12:1; Rev. 12-19)

19 For in those days shall [c]be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had [d]shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the [e]elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

F Six signs during the great tribulation (Mt. 24:23)

21 [f]And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and [g]shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But [h]take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

(4) Manner and time of the second advent: end of the age (Mt. 24:27, refs.)

▸24 ¶ But in [i]those days, after that [j]tribulation, the [k]sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

▸25 And the [l]stars of heaven shall fall, and the [m]powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

▸26 [n]And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

▸27 [o]And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

(5) Parable of the fig tree (Mt. 24:32; Lk. 21:29)

28 [p]Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

(6) All signs of this prophecy take place in one generation (Mt. 24:34; Lk. 17:26; 21:32)

30 Verily I say unto you, that this [q]generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

▸31 Heaven and earth [r]shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

(7) Exact date of His coming unknown (Mt. 24:36; Acts 1:7) a This proves that Mt. 24-26 and Mk. 13 were spoken after Lk. 21, which was uttered "in the temple" (Lk. 21:1-5 with 21:37-38). The latter discourse was spoken on the mount of Olives (Mt. 24:3; Mk. 13:3). Both prophecies are similiar down to Lk. 21:12, and should be studied together

g Questions 98-99, Next, 14:4. Matthew records 3 questions asked of Christ:
1 When shall these things be? That is, when will Jerusalem be destroyed? This is not answered in Mt. 24-25 or Mk. 13, but only in Lk. 21:12-24
2 What shall be the sign of Thy coming? This is answered in Mt. 24:4-27; Mk. 13:5-23; Lk. 21:8-11, 25-26

k Gr. telos, final end or limit at which a thing ceases to be: the end of some act, state, or life. Here it is the end of life or the end of the period of tribulation, which one comes first to the individual in those days. Cp. Mt. 10:22

l Gr. odin, pang, throe, referring to the birth-pangs of Israel in the future great tribulation (Mt. 24:15-21; Isa. 66:7-8; Jer. 30:4-7; Dan. 7:21; 8:9-14, 24; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:1, 7; Rev. 12) m Gr. sunedrion, sanhedrin or council of elders of Israel. Used 22 times (Mt. 5:22; 10:17; 26:59; Mk. 13:9; 14:55; 15:1; Lk. 22:66; Jn. 11:47; Acts 4:15; 5:21, 27, 34, 41; 6:12, 15; 22:30; 23:1, 6, 15, 20, 28; 24:20) s A reference to the universal hatred of men against Christ in the tribulation period or Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1-19:21)

t An adverb of time proving that the time of the fulfillment of v 14-37 will be in the middle of Daniel's 70th week and the 3 1/2 years on to the second advent, as we shall see by the connecting words "then" and "those days" (v 14, 17, 19, 20, 21, 24, 26, 27)

u Here the great tribulation begins by Antichrist breaking his 7 year covenant with Israel. He conquers Israel and abolishes Jewish worship in the temple setting himself and his image in the holy place to be worshipped. This is the abomination of desolation of Dan. 9:27; 2 Th. 2:4; Rev. 13; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 16:10; 20:4-6; Mt. 24:15
v Standing in the Holy of Holies in the Jewish temple where it should not be and where God's presence only should be (2 Th. 2:3-4; Dan. 9:27; Mt. 24:15) a THEN: when Antichrist breaks his 7 year covenant with Israel, enters Palestine, conquers Israel, takes over Jerusalem and the Jewish temple as his capital, does away with Jewish worship in the temple, sets himself and his image in the temple to be worshipped, and causes the great tribulation of 3 1/2 years until Christ comes to defeat him and set up His kingdom (Dan. 8:9-25; 9:27; 11:40-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15-31; Mk. 13:14-27; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 13:1-18; 14:9-11; 19:11-21). Israel will flee from Judea into Edom and Moab for the 3 1/2 years and be saved and gathered at the second advent (Mt. 24:15-31; 25:31-46; Rom. 11:25-29; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21; Rev. 12:6, 13-17)

j The tribulation of v 14-20; Mt. 24:15-22; Rev. 6:1-19:21; Jer. 30 k This is the 5th time the planets will be affected in part or in whole during Daniel's 70th week (note e, Mt. 24:29)
l Only two times the stars or meteors are spoken of as falling:
1 In the 6th seal (Rev. 6:12-17)
2 At Christ's coming (v 25; Mt. 24:29)

m This refers to the satanic hosts that now rule the air (Eph. 2:1-3; 6:12). They are now above us, but will not be at the coming of Christ, for they will be cast down to earth 3 1/2 years before then (Rev. 12:7-12). Isaiah (24:21-22; 34:4) spoke of them being defeated at the end of this age. Both Isaiah and Jesus made predictions of them while they were powers in the heavenlies. At Christ's coming they not only will be shaken and completely defeated, but will be cast into prison for 1,000 years (Isa. 24:21-22; Rev. 20:1-10). The planets and the hosts of heaven are distinguished in 2 Ki. 23:4-5. The hosts of heaven are intelligent beings and have been worshipped and served by men in past ages (2 Ki. 17:16; 21:3, 5; 2 Chr. 33:3-5; Jer. 8:2; 19:13; Zeph. 1:5; Acts 7:42). That they could not refer to the material heavens is clear from Heb. 12:26 where God says He will shake heaven only once more and this will be when the heavens and earth are renovated by fire at the end of the Millennium, or 1,000 years after "the host" and "powers of heaven are shaken" as in the above prophecies (2 Pet. 3:5-13). The word "host" means a mass of persons, an army, great company, and is so used about 466 times of men and angels n AND THEN: after the great tribulation Christ shall come in His glory (Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:5; Mt. 16:27; 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Jude 14; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 1:7; 19:11-21)

o AND THEN: at Christ's coming the angels will gather Israel to be an eternal nation (Mt. 24:31; Isa. 11:11-12; 60:8-9; 65:9, 22; 66:19-21; Jer. 31:36-40; 33:17-26; Ezek. 36:8-24; 37:21-28; 39:25-29; Amos 9:11-15; Acts 15:13-18; Lk. 1:31-32)

34 [d]For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.
●35 [e]Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

CHAPTER 14

88 Tenth attempt to kill Jesus (Lk. 22:1; Mt. 26:3, refs.)

AFTER [f]two days was the [g]feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.
2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

89 Second anointing of Jesus (Mt. 26:6; Jn. 12:1. Cp. Lk. 7:36)

3 ¶ And [h]being in Bĕth'a-nў in the [i]house of Sī'mon [j]the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an [k]alabaster box of ointment of [l]spikenard very precious; and [m]she brake the box, and [n]poured it on his head.
4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, [o]Why was this waste of the ointment made?
5 For it might have been sold for more than [p]three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. [q]And they murmured against her.
6 And Jē'sus said, Let her alone; [r]why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
7 [s]For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: [t]but me ye have not always.
★8 [u]She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.
9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

90 Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Mt. 26:14; Lk. 22:3)

10 ¶ And Jū'das Is-căr'ĭ-ot, one of the twelve, [v]went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.
11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

91 Preparation of the passover (Mt. 26:17; Lk. 22:7)

12 ¶ And the [a]first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, [b]Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?
★13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, [c]Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a [d]man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.
14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, [e]Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?
15 And he will shew you a large [f]upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and [g]found as he had said unto them: and [h]they made ready the passover.

92 The last passover (Mt. 26:20; Lk. 22:14; Jn. 13)

(1) Betrayal foretold

17 And in the [i]evening he cometh with the twelve.
★18 And as they sat and did eat, Jē'sus said, Verily I say unto you, [j]One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.
19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, [k]Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
★20 And he answered and said unto them, [l]It is one of the twelve, that [m]dippeth with me in the dish.
21 The Son of man indeed goeth, [n]as it is written of him: but [o]woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

(2) Lord's supper instituted (Mt. 26:26; Lk. 22:19; 1 Cor. 11)

★22 ¶ And [p]as they did eat, Jē'sus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: [q]this is my body.
23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.
▶24 And he said unto them, [r]This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.
25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, [s]until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.
26 ¶ [t]And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Ol'ĭ-vĕs.

(3) Peter's denial foretold (Mt. 26:31; Lk. 22:31; Jn. 13:36)

★27 And Jē'sus saith unto them, [u]All ye shall be offended

b See note h, v 23
c Gr. agrupneo, be sleepless. Used only 4 times (Mk. 13:33; Lk. 21:36; Eph. 6:18; Heb. 13:17). Not the same word as in v 34-37
d 10th and last parable in Mk. (13:34-37), illustrating watchfulness in view of the second advent e Gr. gregoreuo, be vigilent, alert (1 Pet. 5:8). Not the same word as in v 33. The 4 watches of the night were from sunset for three hours, then to midnight, then for three hours, and then to sunrise. They are expressed here as "evening.....midnight..... cockcrowing....morning." See Mt. 14:25; 24:43; Mk. 6:48; Lk. 12:38

i 3 suppers in the last week:
1 Six days before the passover in the house of Lazarus (Jn. 12:1-9). He slept here Friday night and spent the last sabbath in rest and at sunset when the sabbath ended the supper was served. Mary anointed the Lord on this occasion
2 Two days before the passover in the house of Simon the leper, also in Bethany (Mk. 14:1-9). At this supper an unknown woman anointed Jesus (Mt. 26:6-13)
3 The last supper (Jn. 13:1-20; Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:14)
j Simon was one time a leper and was evidently healed by Christ k A mineral stone of lime used to ornament buildings and make vases and small bottles l In the Gr. two words meaning spiked nard - pure or liquid nard. Nard was a variety of bearded grass of India, from which was extracted a fragrant oil used in the East (Cant. 1:12; Mk. 14:3; Jn. 12:2). Meaning of the Gr. adjective pistikes is much disputed, whether it means genuine, pure, or liquid nard. That it was liquid here cannot be disputed for it was "poured" and was used to "anoint." Anointing was always done with liquid m Breaking the box or flask merely means the seal or cement that kept the odor preserved was broken. After the breaking the nard was poured, proving the flask itself was not broken or the liquid would have been spilled at the breaking of the bottle n Two anointings in the last week (note j, Mt. 26:7)

q No case of murmuring has ever been justified or sanctioned by God in Scripture regardless of how right the cause. u 23rd N. T. prophecy in Mk. (14:8-9, fulfilled). Next, v 13. This unknown woman had more faith in and genuine understanding about the sufferings of Christ which He faced on the morrow than did the disciples. It had not yet dawned upon them, as with her, what He was facing or they would not have been so concerned about who would be the greatest among them on the next day after this solemn occasion (Lk. 22:24-27; 24:1-12, 25-26, 45; Jn. 13:36; 20:9)
v Judas left perhaps smarting under the rebukes of v 6-9; Jn. 12:4-8. This deal was made the day before Christ's arrest (v 12) a The 14th of Nisan (April), our Tuesday sunset to Wednesday sunset, the day of the preparation when the passover must be killed. The next day would be the "high day," the great special sabbath, not the ordinary weekly sabbath (Jn. 19:30-31; Lev. 23:6-7). The regular feast of unleavened bread did not officially begin until a day after the passover, but Jews began to eat this bread on the day of the preparation, and that is what is referred to here

f Gr. anogeon or anagaion, above the ground, the second floor of a building. The Heb. word is aliyah. Most Eastern houses had the upper room on the roof with outside stairs (2 Ki. 1:2; 23:12; 2 Chr. 3:9; Ezek. 42:5; Mk. 14:15; Lk. 22:12; Acts 1:13; 9:37-39; 20:8). It was usually well furnished and carpeted if it belonged to the wealthy class. Some think this upper room was in the wealthy home of John Mark in the temple area where the Holy Spirit fell and which became a meeting place for early Christians (Lk. 24:8-12; Acts 1:13; 12:12). At the passover it was customary for homes in Jerusalem to have chambers prepared for the many people who attended the feast from all parts of Jewry g The prophecy of Christ of v 13-15 was found to be true and such will always be the case with true prophecy. Not one jot or tittle of inspired prophecy has yet failed of literally thousands of details uttered even up to thousands of years before fulfillment h At sunset the passover was ready having been brought already roasted or prepared beforehand by the disciples, for the regular time for it was not until the next evening. Christ had to partake of it a day before because He was to be on trial all night and was to be our passover sacrificed for us at the regular time the next afternoon (1 Cor. 5:7). Making ready and eating the passover in this case had to be before the regular time. John (13:1) tells us that it was "before the feast of the passover" that Christ and His disciples observed it i Proving that the making ready the supper was done before evening in order to be ready by sunset when the preparation day began. Jews ate the passover the next evening

m It was a mark of honor for the host to give a portion to one of his guests. So here Jesus honors Judas and thus appeals to him not to go through with his plans of betrayal. See notes on Jn. 13:23-33 n "As it is written" is one of the safest guides in Scripture to enable one to get truth and discover fallacy. Any doctrine out of harmony with any one written statement of Scripture is false g Gr. ekthambeo, to throw into terror, alarm, distress. Used only here and in Mk. 9:15; 16:5-6. What was it that struck Him here alone? Was it the concentration of the satanic forces to kill Him before He could get to the cross, thus to avert their own defeat in the cross (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)? Is not this the cup He wanted to pass from Him (note q, Mt. 20:22-23)? Is this the time Heb. 5:7 took place?

h Deeply weighed down, distressed i Fell from physical exhaustion because of the great pressure on Him by satanic powers (Lk. 22:43-44)
j "The hour" is the same as "this cup" (v 35 with Mt. 26:39), so must refer to the event of that hour k Aramaic for Father. Only used by Jews where both parents of a real son were Jews, or of a proselyte of the covenant. Not used when the mother was a slave (Gal. 4:24). This indicates the true relationship of Jesus to God. Used only here and in Rom. 8:15; Gal. 4:6

Occurs 385 times: Spirit 133 times; spirit 153 times; Holy Ghost 89 times; Holy Spirit 4 times; ghost 2 times; and life, wind, spiritual, and spiritually 1 time each. It is used of God (Jn. 4:24); Christ (1 Cor. 6:17; 15:45); Holy Ghost (Mt. 1:20); angels (Acts 8:29; Heb. 1:14); demons (Mk. 7:25-26; Lk. 10:17, 20); and the resurrection body (1 Cor. 15:44-45)

5 signs that follow believers (16:17)

1 Cast out devils (v 17; Lk. 10:19; Mt. 10:7-8; 17:20-21; Jn. 14:12)
2 Speak with new tongues (v 17; Acts 2:4; 10:44-48; 19:1-7; 1 Cor. 12-14; Isa. 28:11)
3 Take up serpents (v 18, note; Lk. 10:19; Ps. 91; Acts 28:1-5)
4 Be immune from poisons (v 18, note; Ps. 91; Lk. 10:18; 2 Ki. 4:41)
5 Heal the sick (v 18; Mt. 10:1-8; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:8):
(1) Christ did (note b, Mt. 13:58)
(2) Disciples did (Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 10:1-20; Acts 3:6; 5:16; 19:11-12; Heb. 2:3-4)
(3) All disciples commanded to do it (Mt. 10:8; Lk. 10:9; Mt. 28:20)
(4) All believers promised power to do it (v 17-18; Mt. 17:20-21; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:9-13; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Acts 1:8; 2:38-39; 5:32)
(5) Early church practiced it (Jas. 5:14-16; Acts 5:12; etc.)

Signs are to follow them that believe, not them that doubt, disbelieve, constantly deny such possibility and use every excuse of unbelief to evade doing these things. This means literally what it says "even unto the end of the world" (Mt. 28:20). This does not mean that one cannot be saved or get other benefits from God if he cannot do these things, nor does it mean that one is an unbeliever in salvation if he cannot do them. It simply means that he has not attained to faith sufficient to appropriate the benefits promised because of me this night: for it is written, [a]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

★28 [b]But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Gal'-i-lee.
29 But Pē'tēr [c]said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.
30 And Jē'sus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.
31 But he spake the [d]more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

IV The sufferings of Christ:
1 Agony in the garden (Mt. 26:36; Lk. 22:39; Jn. 18:1)

32 And they came to a place which was named [e]Gĕth-sĕm'a-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.
33 And he taketh [f]with him Pē'tēr and Jāmes and John, and began to be [g]sore amazed, and to be [h]very heavy;
34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.
35 And he went forward a little, and [i]fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, [j]the hour might pass from him.
36 And he said, [k]Ăb'bā, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.
37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tēr, [l]Sī'mon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?
●38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [m]The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.
40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither [n]wist they what to answer him.
★41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, [o]Sleep on now, and take your rest: [p]it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

2 Betrayal and arrest: 11th attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:47; Lk. 22:47; Jn. 18:1)

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and [q]staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.
44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.
45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.
46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
47 [a]And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, [b]Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?
49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.
50 And [c]they all forsook him, and fled.
51 And there followed him a certain [d]young man, having [e]a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the [f]young men laid hold on him:
52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

3 Trial and mockery of Jesus (Mt. 26:57; Lk. 22:63; Jn. 18:12, 19)

53 ¶ And they led Jē'sus away to the high priest: and with him were [g]assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.
54 And Pē'tēr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
55 And the chief priests and all the [h]council [i]sought for witness against Jē'sus to put him to death; and found none.
56 For many bare [j]false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.
57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, [k]I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witness agree together.
60 And the high priest [l]stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'sus, saying, [m]Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered [n]nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, [o]Art thou the Christ, the Son of the [p]Blessed?
★62 And Jē'sus said, I am: [q]and ye shall see the [r]Son of man sitting on the [s]right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.◂
63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, [t]What need we any further witnesses?
64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they [u]all condemned him to be guilty of death.
65 [v]And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

f Soldiers as in 2 Sam. 2:14
g What a time to try any man, even if he were the worst criminal! This is one of the most impressive acts of the whole story. They had to do this at night and so quickly in order to fulfill the Scriptures so that Christ could die at the same time the passover lambs were killed
h The sanhedrin, the ruling body of the Jews

i This was contrary to their law which required them to begin trial with those things that would aquit the accused, not with those things that made for his condemnation. In this case, not one thing was sought that would aquit Christ. They were determined to kill Him so looked for every excuse possible, not realizing they were fulfilling prophecy. Not any two witnesses agreed on any one point of accusation, yet they condemned and killed the only sinless man that ever lived

j This was a direct and wilful transgression of the 9th commandment k A reference to Jn. 2:19-21
l Showing that this was not a formal judicial trial, but only to get evidence enough to send Him to Pilate (15:1) m Questions 109-110. Next, v 61 n Christ was fulfilling Isa. 53:7

o Question 111. Next, v 63. This was the central controversy about Jesus. He claimed to be the Christ and the Son of God but Satan and the Jews were determined to disprove these claims (Mt. 4:3, 6; 27:40; Jn. 5:18; 10:36; 19:7). God acknowledged His claims (Mt. 3:17; 17:5); demons were forced to acknowledge them (Mt. 8:29; Mk. 3:11; 5:7); disciples confessed them (Mt. 14:33; 16:16); but His enemies rebelled against facts and refused to believe even after His resurrection (Mt. 27:40; 28:11-15; Acts 4:16-22; 5:17-28, 40-42). Some Jews repented and confessed His claims after miraculous and resurrection facts were known (Jn. 3:2; Acts 6:7). A few years after the resurrection of Christ, Josephus, a noted Jewish historian gave one of the most valuable confessions of honest faith in Christ. He said, "Now there was about this time Jesus, a wise man, if it be lawful to call Him a man; for He was a doer of wonderful works, a teacher of such men as receive the truth with pleasure. He drew over to Him both many of the Jews and many of the Gentiles. He was the Christ. And when Pilate, at the suggestion of the principal men amongst us, had condemned Him to the cross, those that loved Him at the first did not forsake Him; for He appeared to them alive again the third day; as the divine prophets had foretold these and ten thousand other wonderful things concerning Him. And the tribe of Christians, so named from Him, are not extinct at this day" (Josephus, Ant. of the Jews, page 535, 3)

66 ¶ And as Pē'tĕr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tĕr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth.

68 But he [d]denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the [b]porch; and the cock crew.

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Pē'tĕr, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Găl-ĭ-læ'an, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to [c]curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Pē'tĕr called to mind the word that Jē'şus said unto him, [d]Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he [e]wept.

CHAPTER 15

5 Jesus before Pilate (Mt. 27:11; Lk. 23:1; Jn. 18:28)

AND straightway in the [f]morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the [f]whole council, and bound Jē'şus, and [h]carried him away, and delivered him to Pi'late.

2 And Pi'late asked him, [i]Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pi'late asked him again, saying, [i]Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jē'şus yet answered nothing; so that Pi'late marvelled.

6 Now at that [k]feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

6 Jesus condemned: Barabbas released (Mt. 27:15; Lk. 23:13; Jn. 18:39)

7 And there was one named [l]Bă-răb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude [m]crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them,

9 But Pi'late answered them, saying, [n]Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests [o]moved the people, that he should rather release Bă-răb'bas unto them.

12 And Pi'late answered and said again unto them, [d]What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, [b]Crucify him.

14 Then Pi'late said unto them, [c]Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pi'late, [d]willing to content the people, released Bă-răb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'şus, when he [e]had scourged him, to be crucified.

7 Jesus crowned with thorns is led away to crucifixion (Mt. 27:27; Jn. 19:1)

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called [f]Præ-tō'rĭ-um; and they called together the whole [g]band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did [h]spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one [i]Sī'mon a Çỹ-rē'nĭ-an, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr and Rụ'fụs, to bear his cross.

8 The Crucifixion (Mt. 27:33; Lk. 23:32; Jn. 19:16)

22 And they bring him unto the place [j]Gŏl'gō-thá, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they [k]gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the [l]third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the [m]superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

*28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [n]And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And [o]they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, [p]thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; [q]himself he cannot save.

32 [r]Let Christ the [s]King of Ĭş'ra-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And [t]they that were crucified with him reviled him.

a Just what Jesus had predicted (14:30). Peter told four lies that are recorded and perhaps more, for he was questioned by several people on three different occasions (v 67–72; Mt. 26:69–75; Lk. 22:54–62; Jn. 18:15–18, 25–27). In these passages two maids, a man, and "they that stood by" all questioned him. There is no discrepancy for many could be together and could question him on these three occasions

b The vestibule leading from the outer gate to the court

c Gr. anathematidzo, cursing and swearing. Not peculiar to N. T. Gr. as alleged, for the Papyri show it to be of pagan origin, first coined by Gr. Jews. What a change in Peter in a few hours! Contrast this with the better change at Pentecost (Acts 2) d The first denial was in court where he was questioned by a female porter (v 66). The second denial was in the porch or the vestibule where Peter had retired after being questioned (v 68). The third denial was an hour later inside the court where Jesus looked upon Peter (Lk. 22:59–62)

e He wept abundantly and bitterly (Mt. 26:75; Lk. 22:62)

f Any time before sunrise (Mk. 1:35; 16:2, 9; Jn. 20:1). Christ must have been delivered to Pilate before our midnight, because it was "about the sixth hour" or midnight when Pilate said, "Behold your king" (Jn. 19:14). It was therefore in the night when it was unlawful to try a prisoner

g The whole sanhedrin – the grand sanhedrin or national council consisted of 72 men; 6 from each tribe. The small councils were composed of 3 to 23 members. All showed their hatred of God and of His Anointed (Ps. 2; Acts 3:17; 5:21). There was one exception (Lk. 23:51)

h Gr. apophero, to take away with violence, to be borne along with the crowd

i Question 114. Next, v 4. Christ answered this question in the affirmative. But when it came to answering false accusations against Him He answered nothing, fulfilling Isa. 53:7

j Question 115. Next, v 9. Pilate could not understand a man that would not defend Himself when facing death. Such a thing is unheard of in courts of justice. The average man would have denied every charge to escape death, even the true charges. This would only delay matters. His hour had come and it could not be put off if He were to die as the Lamb of God at the proper time to fulfill the types and prophecies. Pilate was no fool. He began to know that the chief priests had delivered Christ on account of their jealousy (v 10)

k It was the custom to release some prisoner at this great feast when all the males of Israel were together at Jerusalem (Ex. 23:14–19)

l Nothing is known of him other than that found in Mt. 27:20–21; Mk. 15:7, 15; Lk. 23:18–19; Jn. 18:40; Acts 3:14, He was a rebel and a murderer, yet the whole crowd demanded his release in preference to Jesus who did no sin neither was guile found in His mouth (1 Pet. 2:22)

m Literally, bellowing with a loud and long cry

n Question 116. Next, v 12. The first accusation of the Jews to Pilate was that Jesus claimed to be the King of the Jews. They thought this would get Pilate on their side and he would condemn Jesus at once to die, but when Pilate saw their scheming and jealousy he asked if he should release their king. They responded by accusing him of not being true to Caesar, so Pilate gave in to their demands (Jn. 19:12–15)

o Gr. anaseio, from ana (up) and seio (rock, quake), to stir up vehemently, as by an earthquake

a Question 117. Next, v 14

b Stoning was the Jewish method of punishment for blasphemy. Crucifixion was the Roman punishment for treason

c Question 118. Next, v 34. Pilate was still seeking a way out, not finding any fault in Jesus, but the Jews had been worked up by their leaders to the highest pitch of mob spirit

Pilate's 3 appeals to:
1 The Sanhedrin (Mt. 27:17–24)
2 The people (Mk. 15:8–14)
3 The priests (Lk. 23:13–23) d This is the policy of weak government and always ends in judgment (Ex. 32; 1 with 26–27; Acts 12:3; with 23)

e See note t, Mt. 27:26

f So called from being the judgment hall of a Roman magistrate called a praetor

g Gr. speira, a company assembled round a standard. Here it was the whole company of Roman soldiers, usually a cohort of about 600 men

9-fold mockery of the soldiers:
1 Stripped His own clothes off Him (Mt. 27:28)
2 Clothed Him in purple, mocking His claim to kingship (v 17)
3 Crowned Him with thorns since He claimed to be a king (v 17). Crowns were used by kings and victors. This mocked both His claim to kingship and His purpose for coming into the world to conquer Satan. Little did the pagans realize that this very man would gain the greatest victory of all ages through these same sufferings (Col. 1:20–23; 2:14–17; 1 Pet. 2:24)
4 Saluted Him in mockery as "King of the Jews," not realizing that one day they will have to bow the knee to this same man in all sincerity (v 18–19; Phil. 2:9–11)
5 Smote Him on the head with the reed which was to represent His kingly power (v 19)
6 Spit upon Him, which represented their utter contempt of this Jewish king (v 19) (v 19)
7 Bowed the knee in mock worship
8 Stripped Him again and put on His own clothes (v 20) 9 Led Him to crucifixion (v 20)

h Keep spitting. Imagine what Christ would look like after 600 men kept spitting on Him for a period i These were perhaps well known in Christian circles at the time of this writing. Two of these may be the ones mentioned in Acts 19:33; Rom. 16:13. There is no evidence that this was a colored man that helped bear the cross. Cyrene was a city in No. Africa, but this does not prove he was colored

j See note d, Mt. 27:33

k 3 drinks were offered Christ:
1 On arrival at Calvary (Mt. 27:33–34, note; Mk. 15:22–23)
2 When He was on the cross before the malefactor cried for mercy (Lk. 23:36) Jn. 19:29)
3 At the end of His life (Mt. 27:48;

l Nine o'clock in the morning He was nailed to the cross. He expired six hours later at 3:00 P. M. at the time when the passover lambs were to be killed (Mt. 27:45–50; Lk. 23:44–46)

n 9th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (15:28; Isa. 53:12). Next, v 34. Many hold that this verse is not in some of the oldest Mss. and conclude that some copyist might have added it to the text. Could it not have been left out by a copyist by mistake as easily as it could have been added?

o His enemies were not satisfied to have Him on the cross dying. They had to blaspheme and mock a dying man

p A reference to Jn. 2:19–21

q They were ignorant of the truth that if He had saved Himself He could not have saved others

r A vain promise. He did come up from the grave and they did not believe (Acts 1:3; 4:1–22; 5:17–39; 7:51–60). Both the cross and the resurrection were necessary to save men (Rom. 4:25)

s Referring in mockery to His confession in v 2 t Both Matthew and Mark speak of more than one railing on Jesus (Mt. 27:38; Mk. 15:27). This can be explained by believing that more than two were crucified with Christ. See note i, Mt. 27:38 a From 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m. b 3:00 p.m. when the passover lambs and other sacrifices were offered. He died after being on the cross for about 6 hours c Questions 119-120. Next, 16:3. Controversy still rages as to what language Christ spoke here. Some say Hebrew, others say Syriac, and still others say Aramaic. One thing is certain no one near the cross seemed to understand what He said and there were people there who could understand all these languages (v 35; Mt. 27:47)

d 10th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (15:34; Ps. 22:1). Next, v 36. This was no doubt the hardest part of His sufferings. Having been with the Father from all eternity without the slightest separation, it was hard to be forsaken even for a moment. This was necessary because God could not countenance sin even if it were borne by His only begotten Son. This emphasizes the awfulness of sin and that it must be put away if fellowship with God is desired (1 Jn. 1:7; Heb. 12:14; Tit. 2:11-14)
e Elijah (1 Ki. 17; Mal. 4:5-6)
f 11th and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Mk. (15:36; Ps. 69:21. Cp. Mt. 27:34, 48; Lk. 23:36; Jn. 19:29-30)
g What He said is not recorded if not It is finished (Jn. 19:30). It convinced the centurian of His deity (v 39)
h Gave up His personal spirit, that is, the soul and spirit left the body (Jas. 2:26; Mk. 14:38, note) i This signified that the way into the Holy of Holies in heaven was made possible to all men through the blood of Christ (Heb. 9:8; 10:19-20). Not only earthly priests of the law can now go into the very presence of God, but all men can find God and have access to Him without priests (Acts 2:21; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rom. 10:9-10; Eph. 2:17-18)
j A Roman officer of 100 men. This man was convinced that Jesus was the Son of God k John 19:25 says these women stood by the cross and here they were afar off. Both were true. Could they not stand by the cross until He died and then leave and look on from afar? They stayed around even to see where He was buried (v 47). There were six long hours during which they could have come and gone a number of times l So-called because she came from Magdala, a village near Capernaum. She had seven devils cast out of her by Jesus (16:9; Lk. 8:2) m She was the wife of Cleopas and sister of Mary the mother of Jesus (Lk. 24:10, note) n Gr. mikros, small in size, quantity, number, or dignity. Here it no doubt means small in size. This is to distinguish him from the apostle James, and James the half-brother of Jesus (Mt. 13:55). In Gr. Mary, name of Jesus' mother is Miriam while others are Maria. Here Maria has only two sons and one daughter, while Miriam had four sons and several daughters (Mt. 13:55-56. See note, Mk. 6:3)
o The day when the lambs were killed for the passover, the day before the High Sabbath of the feast, not the ordinary weekly sabbath (Lev. 23:6-7) p A member of the Great Sanhedrin who did not agree to kill Jesus (Lk. 23:51). See note g, 15:1
q Took courage, braving all consequences of his action r Because in the usual course Christ would have been buried with other criminals and this would not fulfill Isa. 53:9
s Gr. doreo, made a gift. Only here and in 2 Pet. 1:3-4. God always has His key man to fulfill prophecy and do His will t Gr. sindon, grave clothes (note e, 14:51) u The weekly sabbath, the 4th day after the crucifixion and the 3rd day after the High Sabbath, the first day of the feast of unleavened bread (Lev. 23:6-7). Three full days and four full nights had already passed since the burial of Jesus (Mt. 12:40, note). Days were reckoned from sunset to sunset (Lev. 23:32)
v Mother of James and John (Mt. 27:56 with Mk. 15:40) and wife of Zebedee (Mt. 4:21; 20:20; 27:56; Mk. 1:20)

9 The death of Jesus (Mt. 27:45; Lk. 23:44; Jn. 19:28)

33 And when the [d]sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

★34 And at the [b]ninth hour Jē'şus cried with a loud voice, saying, [e]Ĕ-lō'ī, Ĕ-lō'ī, lā'ma sā-bāch'tha-ni? which is, being interpreted, [d]My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth [e]Ĕ-lī'as.

★36 And one ran and [f]filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Ĕ-lī'as will come to take him down.

37 And Jē'şus [g]cried with a loud voice, and gave up [h]the ghost.

38 And the [i]veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the [j]centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also [k]women looking on afar off: among whom was Mā'rў [l]Măg-da-lē'nē, and [m]Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeş the [n]less and of Jō'sēş, and Sā-lō'mē;

41 (Who also, when he was in Gă-lī'lee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jē-rų'sā-lĕm.

10 The burial of Jesus (Mt. 27:57; Lk. 23:50; Jn. 19:38)

42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the [o]day before the sabbath,

43 [p]Jō'şeph of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'a, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in[q]boldly unto Pī'late, and [r]craved the body of Jē'şus.

44 And Pī'late marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he[s]gave the body to Jō'şeph.

46 And he bought [t]fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē and Mā'rў the mother of Jō'sēş beheld where he was laid.

44 CHAPTER 16

V Post-resurrection ministry of Jesus. 1 Angelic testimony to the resurrection of Jesus (Mt. 28:1; Lk. 24:4; Acts 1:11)

AND when the [a]sabbath was past, Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeş, and Sā-lō'mē, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the [a]first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, [b]Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a [c]young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a[d]long white garment; and they were [e]affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth, which was crucified: [f]he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples [g]and Pē'tĕr that he goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee: there shall ye see him, [h]as he said unto you.

2 Testimony of the women to the resurrection of Jesus (Mt. 28:8; Lk. 24:9; Jn. 20:11)

8 And they [i]went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jē'şus [j]was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared [k]first to Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she [l]went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and [m]wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

3 Testimony of the disciples to the resurrection of Jesus (Mt. 28:16; Lk. 24:13-45; Jn. 20-21)

12 ¶ [n]After that he appeared in [o]another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ [p]Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their [q]unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

4 The Great Commission: the Christian's power of attorney (Mt. 28:18; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 16:23; Acts 1:8)

●15 And he said unto them, [r]Go ye into all the [s]world, [t]and preach the gospel to every creature.

▸16 [u]He that believeth and is baptized [v]shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

▸17 And [w]these signs shall follow them that believe; [x]In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new
